Asks That the Battleship Be Hurried to Manila For Political Reasons.

A GRAVE CRISIS THREATENING.

The Cabinet Discusses Admiral Dewey's Unexpected Request—A Danger of Foreign Interference in the Philippines—The Ship Needed There to Prevent Further Complications.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special).—The following dispatches have been received at the Navy Department:

"MANILA, February 24. "For political reasons the Oregon should be sent here at once. DEWEY."

"MANILA, February 24. "Yorktown arrived. Charleston and Petrel cruising around the Philippine Island. Affairs more quiet. DEWEY."

The Oregon is expected by the Navy Department to arrive at Manila about March 10, and General Otis within a week will have about 2500 men as reinforcements.

The dispatch from Rear Admiral Dewey asking for the Oregon was received with surprise by the officials here. No one knew, or at least would admit that he knew, the nature of the political reasons which the Rear-Admiral says demand the immediate presence of the battleship. The cable dispatch was taken to the

FATAL FIRE IN CHICAGO.

One Fireman Killed and Others Injured in the Packing House District.

CHICAGO, Ill. (Special).—During a fire which for two hours a few days ago threatened to annihilate the entire packing house district of the stock yards, one fireman was killed and three others severely injured, one seriously. The blaze destroyed Swift & Co's. warehouse No. 7, directly in the centre of the packing house district, and several of the adjoining structures were slightly damaged. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

Patrick F. O'Neil, pipeman, was the name of the fireman who was killed. The injured are Lieutenant Bernard McDonough, Matthew Gaul, Lieutenant Frank Walter and E. Paulson, timekeeper for Swift & Co. Both building and contents were fully covered by insurance.

Fire also destroyed the Lind Building, one of the few buildings which stood intact through the great fire of 1871 and through several smaller fires which threatened to destroy it since that time.

The building, which was a seven-story structure, was occupied by a large number of firms, the majority of them being machinists, printers and engravers. The total loss is estimated at $225,000. Of this amount $75,000 is on the building. Two firemen were injured, while many others had narrow escapes from the falling floors.

HALF OF MUSCOGEE BURNED.

A Great Fire in the Metropolis of the Creek Nation.

WAGONER, Indian Territory (Special).—A fire which started at Muscogee, Indian Territory, a few nights ago, destroyed almost one-half that town, entailing a loss aggregating nearly $500,000. The fire began in a negro's but near the Court House. It destroyed the greater portion of the business district, and many private resi-

Cabinet meeting and fully discussed there. Knowing Dewey to be cool-headed and not inclined to exaggerate the importance of the situation, the Administration authorities are satisfied that he had good cause to urge that the Oregon be sent to him with all haste. The phraseology of his message indicates to the minds of the officers that there is danger of foreign complications, and naturally, in view of the past experience of Dewey, the first supposition was that the German warships at Manila had been again acting in an offensive manner. It is believed, however, that in the fires at Manila much property of foreign residents and business concerns was destroyed. That these fires were caused by the insurgents cannot be denied, and it may be that some of the foreign naval commanders in the East are disposed to seize upon the pretext that their interests demand protection, which we cannot afford them, to make a landing or do something obnoxious to the United States, and likely to encourage the insurgents. With such a strong naval force as would be afforded by the reinforcement of Admiral Dewey's fleet by the Oregon, there could not be any sound reason, nor even a plausible reason, for any such action on the part of the third parties.

HAVANA'S DAY OF REJOICING.

General Gomez Enters the City and is Enthusiastically Welcomed.

HAVANA, Cuba (By Cable).—The celebrations on Friday, in honor of the fourth anniversary of the beginning of the last Cuban struggle for independence, were marked by great enthusiasm. Havana had never seen anything like it before. The entrance of General Gomez into the city was the most popular feature. The entire city was decorated with flags and flowers, and the streets were filled with a crowd twice as large as that which turned out at the Garcia funeral.

As General Gomez passed, the crowds went wild with vivas, hats were flung in the air, and women showered flowers on the old warrior. He bowed and raised his hat incessantly, and the crowds struggled to get near his horse, and clung to the animal's sides as it passed along.

At the palace the Cuban Commander-in-Chief was welcomed by Senor Federico Mora, the Civil Governor; Mayor Parfeto Lacoste, the members of the City Council, the Junta Patriótica, the members of the Assembly, the Secretaries, officials of all classes, and numerous patriotic clubs.

There were many allegorical floats expressing the friendship between Cuba and the United States. Two attracted particular attention, each drawn by three yoke of oxen. One represented the Cuba of yesterday—a woman standing with manacled hands, a broken wheelbarrow and other signs of desolation at her feet; the other, the Cuba of to-day—a woman under a palm, smiling, and surrounded by many evidences of prosperity. The contrast was effective, and the floats received an ovation.

There were 25,000 persons in line, which required three hours to pass a given point. The horses of the Cuban cavalry are scrawny and ill-fed, and the cavalrymen are clad in a vague Cuban uniform. All carried Remington carbines, with nondescript bundles of clothing and bedding. They rode two abreast. The infantry occasionally kept step, and as they passed the palace presented arms. Most of them carried Cuban flags stuck in their rifles. There were about 2000 Cuban soldiers in the procession.

After the review at the Palace, General Gomez, accompanied by his staff, proceeded to El Vedado to visit Governor-General Brooke. He attended the charity ball at the Tacón Theatre in the evening. General Gomez went to Quinta de Molinas, the former residence of the Spanish Captain General, where he will reside, with his staff and escort.

dences. There was no loss of life or serious casualty.

The presence in many buildings of loaded firearms, cartridges, oils, etc., and their continuous explosion interfered with the work of extinguishing the fire and endangered lives. About forty per cent. of the loss is covered by insurance. A great loss was sustained in the burning of the records of the Union Indian Agency.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH.

A Fatal Fire and Explosion in Hartford City, Ind.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind. (Special).—By an explosion following a fire, discovered in the Dick Building, a few days ago, four persons lost their lives and three were injured. The explosion lifted the third floor and dropped it down on the second. Every house in the city was shaken by the explosion.

Four charred bodies were taken from the ruins. They were identified as those of Lewis Laforge and wife, James Bone and William Lewis. The injured are John Bullard, Nathaniel Rinker and Joseph Yountz.

Incendiary Fire in Ripley, Ohio.

RIPLY, Ohio (Special).—A presumably incendiary fire was discovered under the main stairway of the Reinert Hotel a few days ago. The fire spread to the Sacker and Dale Blocks adjoining. Eight business houses, including the hotel, were burned.

RANK OF ADMIRAL FAVORED.

The House Agrees Unanimously to the Senate Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special).—Mr. Moody (Rep., Mass.) created something of a furor in the House a few days ago by offering as an amendment to the Naval Appropriation bill the Senate bill to create the rank of Admiral of the navy. Upbraiding applause greeted the reading of the amendment. The House Naval Committee had amended the Senate bill so as to create the rank of Vice-Admiral as well as Admiral. Mr. Moody proposed that the House stand by the original Senate bill.

Mr. Boutelle at first reserved a point of order against the amendment, but, turning suddenly upon Mr. Moody, said he would withdraw the point in deference to what appeared to be the general demand of the House, if the amendment could be voted upon without debate.

"We will vote without a word," said Mr. Moody.

"Vote," went up in chorus from all sides of the House.

The question on the amendment was put and it was carried with a rousing cheer. When the nays were called for there was an instant of complete silence, and then the House broke into renewed and continued applause. The amendment had been adopted without a single vote in opposition.

HANGED UTTERING A CURSE.

William Reid Explodes the Killing of Andrew Henry.

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (Special).—William Reid, who shot and killed Andrew Henry in Woltmann's saloon, Hoboken, was hanged in the Hudson County Jail a few days ago.

The execution was set for 10.30 o'clock a. m., but was delayed in order to enable Charles J. Peshall to secure a stay if possible. Sheriff Heller said he would delay the execution until 11.15, but no longer. No word came, and the execution took place.

While Reid was standing on the scaffold he shouted: "God curse Danial!" "God curse Danial!" The person cursed by the condemned man is a saloonkeeper whom Reid considered his enemy.

KLONDIKE MAPS WRONG.

The Supposed All-American Route to the Yukon River Found Impassable.

Advices from Dawson received at Seattle, Wash., say that Lieutenant Castner, of the Fourth United States Infantry, who started almost a year ago from the southern coast of Alaska to explore the interior and find, if possible, an all-American trail to the Yukon, has arrived there.

Finding the trail he had believed to exist impassable, Lieutenant Castner and two companions started to reach civilization. They put their provisions, guns, etc., on a raft and set it adrift on the Tanana River. The raft was wrecked the second day and all the provisions, rifles, axes, etc. lost. All that was saved was a coil of rope. With the rope another raft was built, and for six days the three men floated down the river, living on berries and rose apples. They were without shoes or moccasins, their feet being covered by canvas tied with strings.

Just as hope was almost gone the party drifted into an encampment of Tanana Indians. Here they were hospitably treated and conducted to the camp of white men a hundred miles up the stream, where the party rested until a boat could carry them to the Yukon.

Lieutenant Castner found all maps to be incorrect. His aneroid barometer failed to work, and in consequence he was unable to measure the height of the mountains or the passes. The Lieutenant says, however, that there is a feasible route for a trail or railway from the coast to a point on the Yukon River below Circle City, but lack of provisions prevented him from taking the time to map it out.

FOR NANCY LINCOLN'S GRAVE.

Handsome Monument at Last to be Erected Over It.

The long-neglected grave of Nancy Hanks Lincoln, mother of Abraham Lincoln, in Spencer County, Indiana, at last is to have a handsome monument. This project is to be carried into immediate effect by veterans of the Civil War, among whom are members of the old Second Ohio brigade, the Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth Illinois and the Twenty-sixth and Fifty-third Indiana. Funds for the monument have been pledged, and the contract will be awarded at once.

The grave of Nancy Hanks Lincoln was unmarked until early in the seventies, when a committee of Rockport citizens started to raise a fund to erect a monument. Clement Studebaker, the millionaire carriage manufacturer of South Bend, gave $5,000 for this amount a small monument was put up.

The grave of Mrs. Lincoln is near what is known as Lincoln Junction, which is a terminal of the Rockport and Cannelton branch of the Air Line Railroad.

THE FATE OF ANDREE, who attempted to reach the north pole by the balloon route, is thought to be settled by the finding of a cabin of balloon cloth and cordage, along with the bodies of three men, in a desolate spot in northern Siberia. The report is as yet unverified of probability, and will doubtless prove correct. The balloon evidently kept afloat long enough to cross the polar area, but not long enough to bring the interpid aeronaut and his two companions back to civilization. When Europeans have an opportunity to inspect the remains, it is more probable that some record will be found of the trip showing how near the air-ship actually came to the pole in its ill-fated voyage.

THE RECORDS of the judge advocate of the United States army show the remarkable fact that throughout the late war there was not a single case in which the death penalty was imposed upon any soldier on account of violation of the military law. This is believed to be without parallel in history. Crimes were committed, but they lacked malice or premeditation, and there were no desertions because of cowardice or treachery. The soldiers of the United States well deserve the high estimation in which they are held for their moral and mental as well as their physical qualities.

THE MERCHANTS association of the city of New York is taking active interest in the bill to reduce the legal rate of interest in this state to five per cent. Sheldon's Second Trial.
AUBURN, March 1—Five men have now been secured for the Sheldon jury, 56 men having been examined thus far. At this rate the panel will be exhausted before the twelve good men and true are secured. Among those examined yesterday and today and excused for one cause or another, are Jacob R. Post of Fleming, Wm. Whipple of Springport, Charles B. Smith of Moravia, Jay R. Smith of Genoa, Arthur B. Smith of Summerhill, Alfred Sisson of East Venice, William Aiken of Moravia, George H. Downing of Venice.

The jury, as it stood at 6 o'clock Wednesday, is as follows:
ORLANDO M. AVERY, Genoa.
JAMES FRAZER, farmer, Throop.
WM. BAIN, shoemaker, Auburn.
WM. TRIPP, farmer, Venice.

Sale of Real Estate.
The undersigned will sell at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described on Wednesday, March 22, 1899, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the house and lot situated in the village of King Ferry, Cayuga Co., N.Y., owned and occupied by Harriet L. Goodyear at the time of her decease. The house is new, commodious and modern with good sized lot. Also a lot consisting of about seven acres of land situate in said village upon which is a carriage house and a large number of fine growing fruit trees of different varieties. These sales are for the purpose of closing out an estate and are positive. Terms of sale: upon the house and lot, fifteen per cent. of the purchase price will be required to be paid down by the purchaser at the time and place of sale, for which the receipt of the undersigned will be given. The residue of the purchase money will be required to be paid on the 1st day of April '99. Upon the lot of seven acres, the same as the above except that twenty-five per cent. of the purchase price will be required to be paid down at the time and place of sale. A portion of the purchase price, in each instance, can, at the option of the purchaser, be left upon the premises, secured by bond and mortgage thereon.

—The boys have been enjoying the skating for a day or two past.

—Bush & Dean have an attractive announcement on the first page.

Geo. H. Olmstead, representing the Wegman Piano Co., of Auburn, was in town on business Saturday.

—An old fashioned hair sofa, just the thing for a sparking couple, can be had for a small amount at this office.

—John L. King of Atwaters, who has been confined to the house a good share of the winter, was in town Tuesday.

—Moravia organized a board of trade Wednesday evening. That is just what Genoa should have, and don't you forget it.

—Many a young fellow will turn up his nose at a five-dollar a week job, who will soak his living out of the old folks for a year at a time waiting for a better one. The man who faithful performs his duty for five dollars a week, is right in line for the six, seven, eight, nine, ten and twelve dollar jobs. And he is the fellow who gets them, too. No man wants to hire a loafer. Employers generally prefer to do their own loafing.

Summer Boarders for Boys and Girls.

These winter days will soon pass and the bluebird, the martin, and the wren will be here to spend the summer with us. We wish you all to consider them as company and to show them all the hospitality that you do other visitors.
 A very cordial act would be to build houses for them. We have published a leaflet entitled "The Birds and I." We tend it free to all teachers who ask for it. Ask your teacher if she has one. In the leaflet are pictures of various styles of bird-houses. Perhaps your teacher will encourage you to make a drawing of some of these to a scale, just as an architect would for the guidance of a carpenter, and later you can build a bird house from your own drawings. All may not have the tools or the material, or the skill to build elaborate and aristocrat bird houses, but that need be no barrier of hospitality to those who love birds. In our leaflet are designs as simple as an empty fruit-can. We wish you would talk over this plan with your teacher, your parents and your chumms.
 The kinds of birds that will set up housekeeping in the homes that you provide will harm no one. They are never cross, or throw stones, or rob us, but are always happy and have cheerful songs. We are always kind to people having such dispositions, and why should we not be to birds as well?
 It will give us great pleasure to receive letters from every boy and girl who intends to entertain some birds the coming summer. Perhaps your teacher will let you write your letters during your language period. You may address us as "Dear Uncle" and write us as freely as you would some one of whom you are very fond. Direct your letter BUREAU OF NATURE-STUDY, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.
