

VILLAGE AND VICINITY NEWS

—Mrs. Wm. Marshall is reported to be improving.

—Robert Mastin is suffering from a severe cold.

—Mrs. L. Allen has been spending the past week at Venice Center.

—Fred Adolph left Wednesday evening for New York on a business trip.

—Auburn's automobile show has been postponed to the week beginning March 15.

—Mrs. Eva Cheesman of Belltown, who has been ill a long time, is reported as very low.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Clare are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Sullivan.

—Sunday and Monday nights, mercury ran down below zero, some reporting as low as 20 deg. below.

—Mrs. Mary Tilton and her son, Walter Tilton, who have been very ill, are much improved, but not yet able to be out.

—Golden Bantam Corn at Ellison's, King Ferry. Try it.

—Mrs. Susie Haines of Poplar Ridge came last week to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Titus Van Marter.

—Miss Myra Reynolds visited Auburn friends last week, and from there returned to her school after a few weeks' vacation.

—The few sunny springlike days this week were encouraging. But more severe storms during March have been prophesied.

—Lawrence and Floyd Smith were in Auburn last week, and were storm-stayed. Floyd returned Tuesday by way of King Ferry.

—Farmers and others who have not yet filed their income tax returns are reminded that the time limit is Saturday, March 15.

—Mrs. J. D. Sharpsteen of East Genoa, who has been ill about six weeks, is slowly gaining. She is able to sit up for a short time.

—Mrs. H. W. Nesbit returned Tuesday from Locke, where she had been caring for Mrs. Fred Orndoff. Miss Hazel Nesbit is now at the Orndoff home.

—Veteran Coffee, the guaranteed kind, at Ellison's, King Ferry.

—Mrs. Jane Miller has been suffering for the past week with stomach trouble. Mrs. Chas. Miller is also on the sick list. Miss Wilson, the nurse, is expected to-day.

—Dr. J. W. Skinner has received word from his daughter, Mrs. Hugh W. Lundy, at Albia, Iowa, that her little daughter, who has been seriously ill, is slowly gaining.

—Miss Alice Stevens and Floyd Kenyon returned from Auburn, where they went last week to attend the funeral of Miss Scantlebury, on Sunday by way of Locke.

—Robert Armstrong and family will move soon from the farm to this village and will occupy the apartment over Hagin's store. Mr. Armstrong was obliged to postpone his auction to March 10.

—Train service was resumed on the Short Line Wednesday evening, after being buried in the worst snowbanks of the winter for the past week. The three days' storm of wind and snow last week stopped traffic on many railroads and highways. Genoa received mail from King Ferry during the tieup.

—How many Government Savings Stamps did you get for yourself last month? They are $4.14 a piece in March and worth $5.00. The wise person puts away a little fund where it will be safe, snug and ready for use. Be wise! Save for a Government Savings Stamp. Buy one 25 cent stamp during Thrift Stamp week, March 1 to 6.

—Shoes and Rubber Boots at old prices while they last, at Ellison's, King Ferry.

—Mrs. Geo. Cheesman died Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Eva Cheesman and family at Belltown after a ten days' illness of pneumonia. Her daughter, Mrs. Harry Tidd of Syracuse, was with her and a trained nurse of Auburn. Surviving are her husband, Geo. Cheesman of Auburn, and two daughters, Mrs. Anson Shaw of Auburn and Mrs. Tidd. Funeral services will be held at the King Ferry Presbyterian church on Sunday at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Cheesman was a nurse and had been caring for Mrs. Eva Cheesman for some time.

Too much wishbone and not enough backbone is a bad combination. It takes backbone to save; wishing won't get you anywhere, but Thrift Stamps and Government Savings Stamps will if systematically purchased. Save for a Government Savings Stamp. Buy one 25 cent Stamp during Thrift Stamp Week, March 1 to 6.

—A report of the community meeting at King Ferry last week is given in the King Ferry school notes.

—Auburn City hospital is in need of jelly and canned fruit. Any contribution of these much needed delicacies will be gratefully received.

—Earl Donald will occupy the Thos. Armstrong farm this year. Leslie Underwood will move to the Green farm now occupied by Donald.

—The Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania is establishing a new course for the training of young women as health doctors and health educators.

—William S. Eaton of Andersonville, Va., has returned to his home after spending a week as the guest of his cousin, V. M. Couch of 508 South Aurora St.—Ithaca Journal, Feb. 27.

—The railroads of the country passed from government control on March 1 and the U. S. Railroad Administration ceased to exist. With its passing, 230 lines returned to private control.

—The church must enter more boldly into community life if it is to do its full duty, according to the report of the findings committee of the laymen conference of the inter-church world movement.

—George E. Taylor, formerly division freight and passenger agent of the Central New York Southern Railroad, is now division freight agent with the Lehigh Valley Railroad company at Bethlehem, Pa.

—The meeting of town superintendents of highway called for Thursday of last week in Auburn was not largely attended, only about a dozen men being able to reach the city on account of the big storm.

—The Cornell University full board of trustees have formally accepted the resignation of President Schurman which was tendered it on Feb. 14 to take effect June 23. No action has been taken regarding a successor.

—Fancy Red Salmon 38c at Ellison's, King Ferry.

—The Tompkins County Pomona Grange will meet at its rooms in Ithaca at 10 a. m., Saturday, March 6. At the morning session reports of State Grange delegates and subordinate Granges will be given and at the afternoon session there will be work in the fifth degree.

—E. L. Bower, who has been ill with pneumonia for the past three weeks at the home of his son, John I. Bower, is much improved but still confined to his bed. His daughter, Mrs. Ada Thomas, returned Wednesday to her home in Warner, after spending two weeks in caring for him.

—Two Short Line employees, Robert Jackson and John Doyle, were severely burned in the Short Line shop in Auburn on Sunday, when a compressed air tank and gasoline torch exploded. Both men were rushed outdoors and thrown into a snowbank, extinguishing the flames. They were then taken to Mercy hospital. While both men are in a serious condition, their recovery is expected.

—Advertising in THE TRIBUNE brings business.

—Three girls of the eighth grade in the Newark Valley school, who have been taking elementary work in home making, were chosen by the directors of extension work to give a demonstration in preparing and serving a school lunch at Cornell university during Farmers' Week. They were so successful that they were requested to repeat the performance before a public meeting in the afternoon.

—Cayuga county churches were represented at the Pastors' Conference held in connection with the Interchurch World Movement meeting at Central Presbyterian church, Rochester March 1 to 3. Dr. Geo. B. Stewart of Auburn and L. K. Painter of the Friends Church at Poplar Ridge were made members of the Committee on Findings. Mr. Painter is to organize the Cayuga county district.

—Cornell university began its drive last week for a $125,000 professorship fund.

—Of the world's boots and shoes more than 47 per cent are made in Massachusetts.

—Chalmer M. Houghton, Lehigh Valley agent at Aurora for the past five years, has been transferred to Elmira.

—Syracuse is paying $10 per day for teams and 50c an hour for men for carting snow from the streets of that city.

—Dr. Joseph R. Grant of Cortland expects to locate permanently in Cincinnati in the spring. He formerly resided there before entering war service.

—The season for trapping most fur bearing animals has closed and Game Protector Hoagland is on the look-out for trappers who are breaking the law.

—The Auburn & Syracuse electric railway was opened for passenger service Tuesday after being tied up for five days as a result of the three days' storm last week.

—Miss Grace Hamlin, a former teacher of the Cato High school for several years, died at Canisteo last Saturday of pneumonia. Her home was at Hammondsport.

—Frank M. Hazard, whose wife died Feb. 16, died of pneumonia at Auburn City hospital Friday night last after more than a week's illness. He leaves two sons and a daughter. He was 53 years old.

—A vocational training school for Auburn will be an assured fact, and steps to secure the necessary teachers and equipment will be taken at once by the Board of Education. It is expected that it will open Sept. 1 next.

—Phil Lewis of Spencer recently killed a prairie wolf on the hills near West Danby, after a fight in which Mr. Lewis and a dog were bitten several times. The pelt, silver gray in color, measures four feet from the tip of its nose to the tip of its tail.

—The annual banquet of the Masonic Club of Auburn will be held on March 19. The affair is the largest ever attempted by the Auburn Masons. Among the speakers will be Judge William Farmer of Syracuse, C. Wallace Petty of Brooklyn, and Horace W. Smith of Port Byron.

—Squire B. Rolfe, 85, one of the oldest and best known residents of Ithaca, died Wednesday evening, Feb. 25, at his home, after a short illness. He leaves his wife, a daughter, Miss Nellie M. Rolfe, and a son, Fred Rolfe, now living in New York City, and a sister, Mrs. C. M. Clinton of Ithaca.

—The death of Mrs. Cora V. Goodyear Foster of Groton occurred at her home in that place on Feb. 18, following a long illness. She was 64 years old. She leaves her husband, John M. Foster, and three brothers, James Viele of Carnegie, Pa., and John and Charles Viele of Bronxville, N. Y. She was married to Dr. M. D. Goodyear in 1885. After his death she carried out his wishes in a painstaking manner in the erection and equipping of the Goodyear Memorial library, for which he made provision in his will. She was married to Mr. Foster in 1917.

Genoa Baptist Church Notes.
R. A. FARGO, PASTOR.

Sunday services: 11 a. m., five minute sermon for children of school age before regular message. Subject for sermon "Doctor the Well or Sick Which?" Communion service following sermon.

Bible study at 12.
7:30 p. m., subject, "What Happens at the Two Resurrections?"
Prayer-meeting Thursday evening 7:30 at parsonage. Have you been lately?

Dairymen's League Meeting.

A meeting of the County Dairymen's League will be held in the court house at Auburn at 1 p. m., Monday, March 8. A full representation of membership is desired.
R. D. White,
County President.

The poorest argument in the world is that of the man or woman who says he is too poor to save. Poor people can't afford not to save. The Government is making it possible for every one to get ahead with 25c Thrift Stamps and $5.00 Government Savings Stamps for $4.14 this month. Save for a Government Savings Stamp. Buy one 25 cent Stamp during Thrift Stamp Week, March 1 to 6.

Magnificent Tone and Design

THE beauty of Sonora tone—rich, pure, expressive—is matched by the beautiful design lines. Observe the "bulge" curves of the cabinet. These, found only in the finest furniture, are produced by patented processes and are obtainable only in the famous

Sonora
CLEAR AS A BELL

The Highest Class Talking Machine in the World

The Sonora is just what you need for entertainment. It plays ALL MAKES of disc records perfectly without extra attachments.

You will choose the Sonora for its wonderful tone which won highest score at the Panama Pacific Exposition and for its important features of construction, which include the extra-long-running, powerful, silent motor, convenient envelope filing system, all-wooden tone passage, effective automatic stop, motor-meter, tone modifier, etc. A matchless line of upright and period styles is available at prices from $50 to $1000.

Today, call or write for general or period catalog.

Sold by

A. T. HOYT,
Leading Jeweler and Graduate Optician,
HOYT BLOCK MORAVIA, N. Y.

TRY WAIT'S FIRST for

Home -- Furnishings

IT'S EVERYBODY'S STORE AND AUBURN'S LARGEST AND MOST COMPLETELY STOCKED AND BEST EQUIPPED HOME FURNISHING ESTABLISHMENT.

The H. R. Wait Co.

Main Store 77 Genesee St.
Branch Stores 24-26 Clark St.
Store Store 22 Dill St.
Upholstering Shop 20 Dill St.

No universal restriction has been placed on the sale of acid phosphate in New York state. It should not be necessary to buy mixed goods to get acid phosphate. County Agent Weatherby can tell you of reliable sources of this plant food.

DÉSIRABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE

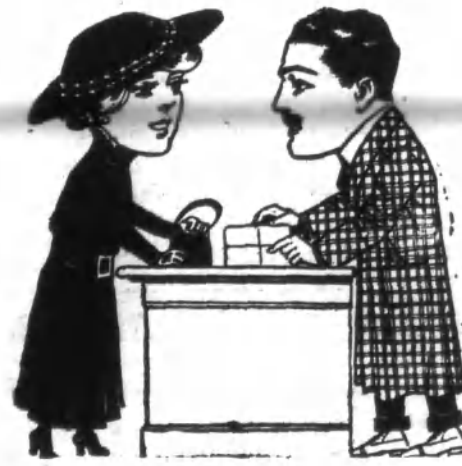

My property, situated on east side of Maple St., Genoa, N. Y., consisting of one-half acre of land, eleven room, modern house, with new roof, splendid well of water, large, well-built barn and hen house.

For full particulars, inquire of

G. B. Springer,
Dist. Supt. of Schools.

A LARGE SHARE OF YOUR EARNINGS

Go for Eatables

Why not see that this money is wisely spent.

There is Freshness to think about—and Cleanliness and Economy.

This suggests to us that this store might be of service to you—because its aim is to deal in grocery goodness.

We would be glad to have YOUR opinion.

HAGIN'S UP-TO-DATE GENOA. — N. Y. GROCERY,

MASTIN'S!

SUGAR? Sure come and get it!

And look at our line of New Wall Paper--the finest line we ever had.

Rugs, Carpets, Linoleums and Shades—also a big line of Rubber Goods cheaper than to-day's wholesale price.

Robt. & H. P. Mastin, Genoa.

