Arthur S. Mead.

The death of Arthur S. Mead, a former prominent resident of Genoa, occurred at his home in Moravia on Saturday morning last, after an extended illness. About a year and a half ago, Mr. Mead underwent an operation, as the only means of relief for a serious ailment and he had not been well since that time. He has been in a critical condition for several months.

Mr. Mead was a son of Stephen and Anna Harris Mead, and was born in the town of Genoa. He was 65 years old on March 19, 1920. Thirty-two years ago next month, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Hurlbut of Gale's Ferry, Conn. They resided at the Mead farm about three miles east of this village until about seven years ago, when they purchased a residence in Moravia and removed to that village.

Surviving are his wife and two daughters, Miss Edith Mead and Mrs. Harold Banks of Moravia. He was the last of his family, his only remaining brother, Henry Mead, having died Oct. 26.

Funeral services were conducted at his late home in Moravia on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Plato T. Jones, pastor of the Congregational church, officiating. Burial in the family plot in Genoa cemetery.

The funeral was largely attended, by relatives and friends. Among those from this vicinity who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mead, Mrs. Lucy Mead, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hurlbut, Miss Pauline Hurlbut, J. H. Cruthers, Mrs. Lowell Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Underwood and other old friends of the family.

The serving of hot lunches began Nov 1, in the Afton High school, to those who bring their dinners.

In Binghamton and sister communities, 82 per cent of the occupants of houses own their own homes.

Sheep to the value of $2,000 were killed by dogs in Tioga county during the past season. Nearly all of the sheep were killed in the town of Newark Valley.

The population of Auburn Prison is at the lowest figure for years, there being only 1,038 on the roll. This condition is true also of Sing Sing and Clinton.

In 1900 Cayuga county had 5,039 farms. The late census gives the number of farms as 4,267, a loss of 772 in twenty years. The State has lost 33,000 farms in 20 years.

Plans are being made for the celebration of the centennial of the founding of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Cortland during the week of March 13, 1921.

John F. McGrath of Auburn, who was in charge of the Federal Census of the 17th district of New York State received special commendation from Washington for the rapidity and quality of the work turned in from this district.

Ohio farmers are suffering twice as heavily from drift of population to the cities as New York farmers, says a statement recently sent out by John B. Shepard, agricultural statistician for the United States bureau of crop estimates.

The board of managers of the state Odd Fellows Home to be established at Ithaca have approved the plans of Gibb & Waltz, architects, of Ithaca for an administration building of native stone to be erected at an estimated cost of $140,000.

Probably the most fortunate farmer in Orleans county is A. W. Denmore of Gaines, who contracted his apple crop to a responsible dealer last spring for $5.50 a barrel, tree run. He has completed picking and his crop stands at about 6,000 barrels.—Orleans Republican.

The party includes Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young and Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of East Genoa, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Kimbark, Geo. Stickle and Mrs. Francis Rafferty, of East Venice. Genoa will have quite a good-sized colony in Stuart this winter.
—Chas. A. Smith is in a serious condition in the Genoa hospital, as the result of a peculiar accident last week Thursday night. After the dance in the theater hall that night, Mr. Smith turned on the light in front of the hall, and started to run to the rear of the hall to shut off the engine. In the darkness, he ran directly into a barrel which stands near the corner of the building, inflicting serious internal injuries. An operation was performed Friday night at the hospital by Dr. McCormick of Ithaca. As we go to press, there is no particular change in his condition.

—Wm Smith and son, Lawrence, spent Sunday in Auburn.
—Leon Curtis of Myers spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Curtis.
—Willard State Hospital is overcrowded, having about 3,000 patients.
—Automobile plates are now being turned out at Auburn prison by the thousands.

—This section had a little foretaste of winter, Wednesday, when sleet, snow and wind formed a small-sized blizzard.
—Prof. Ensign of McLean is a man to whom all the scholars and the community at large can look up. He is six feet and four inches in height.
—The TRIBUNE office will be closed Thanksgiving day. As we go to press a day earlier than usual, our correspondents are asked to mail letters on Monday.
—Directors of the Owego Chamber of Commerce have engaged an architect to prepare plans for 20 houses to be built at once to relieve the house shortage in that village.
—A permanent fund of $100,000 for the maintenance of its home at Oriskany was voted by the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at its annual meeting in New York.
—Thomas F. Dignum, former proprietor of the Osborne House, Auburn, died Tuesday at his home in Skaneateles where he has lived since giving up the hotel business two years ago. His illness covered a period of several years.
—2lb. Roast Beef 50c at R. & H. P. Mastin's.
—Charles Hendershot of Stafford has raised a crop of onions this season which are of unusual size. A bushel which he took to the Batavia public market contained onions every one of which weighed at least one pound a piece.
—Mrs. E. S. Annable, widow of a Methodist preacher of the Central New York Conference, has been appointed to the pastorate of the Methodist church at Peterboro by Dr. Mills. Mrs. Annable will be assisted by her 18-year-old son.
—Dr. J. W. Day, one of the best known physicians of Central New York, died at his home in Waterloo Monday evening. He was 76 years old. Dr. Day had practiced his profession in this section for over 30 years. He was a veteran of the civil war.
—Attend the entertainment in the Presbyterian church this evening and see something different from the usual program. Selections by an orchestra of nine members, male quartet, recitations and a violin solo will be the special numbers, and the farce "Too Clever by Half" will conclude the program. Admission 35 and 20c—and worth it. adv.
—Friends of Rev. G. P. Conger, a former Genoa boy, are interested to know that he and Mrs. Conger are now living in Minneapolis, Minn., where Mr. Conger is assistant professor of Philosophy in the University of Minnesota. He enjoys the new work very much. Mr. Conger resigned the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of Palisades Park, N. J., to accept the professorship.
—Try a pound of Chase & Sanborn's 40c coffee at R. & H. P. Mastin's.
—The lecture by Dr. J. Q. Adams of Auburn seminary in the Presbyterian church last Friday evening on the Hawaiian Islands was greatly enjoyed by those who heard it, and was very instructive. Dr. Adams gave an interesting description of the islands, their wonderful natural beauty, population, etc., and told of the good results of the work of missionaries. He also gave a fine description of the pageant presented during the big missionary convention which he attended. At the close of the lecture, Mr. Clark played a violin solo with Miss Cope accompanying. Dr. Adams was accompanied by Mrs. Adams and they were entertained over night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sharp.

Genoa School Notes.

The second conference of the year of the Fourth Supervisory District was held at the school building on Friday of last week. The conference was conducted by Dr. Lester, district superintendent, with Miss Badger of Syracuse in charge of the physical instruction. Most of the forenoon was occupied in physical exercises. Early in the afternoon session, Mr. Medden of the State Education Department gave an address on Compulsory Education which was most instructive. Then a piano solo, "Habanera," was played by Miss Cope of the local school and a vocal solo "My Laddie" given by Miss Lee. Both solos added much to the pleasure of the afternoon. The last part of the session was given to games conducted by Miss Badger. The session closed with a brief talk by Dr. Lester. All the teachers are looking forward to the annual county conference held at Auburn, Dec. 9-10.
For the first quarter the following pupils in the Intermediate department have a perfect attendance record: Ruth Hall, Lucy Mastin, Dorothy Shaw, Philip Armstrong and Clarence Mack. In the Primary department: Bessadeane Fargo, Mary Ferri, Harry Fargo, Leslie Hand, Robert Knapp, Irving Moore, Leo Nolan and Lester Sevier. The following average 90% or above for the quarter: Intermediate—Lucy Mastin, Dorothy Shaw, Ruth Loomis, Janice Nettleton and Josephine Batty. Primary, 2nd and 3rd grades—Elwood McAllister, Alberta Huff, Albert Huff, Robert Knapp, Elizabeth Mosher, Harry Fargo and Raymond Shaw.
Quarterly tests were held in the High school on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Genoa Presbyterian Church Notes.

The theme for the pastor's sermon Sunday morning at 10:30 will be "Thanksgiving." The evening topic will be "Hope." Union service at 7:30 o'clock.
The regular choir rehearsal and prayer-meeting next week on Friday evening at 7 and 8 o'clock respectively.
Some of the congregation desire that the hour of morning service be changed from 10:30 back to 11 o'clock, at least during the winter months. All are asked to express their opinion by ballot next Sunday. Deposit your ballot in the box which will be found in the hall.
Rally day for the Sunday school last Sunday ran the attendance up to 79, with a collection of $4.70. This was gratifying and it is hoped the interest will increase.
The meeting of the woman's class Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Waldo was well attended, over twenty being present. The class was honored in having as their guest, Mrs. Clark of Flushing, who gave a reading, with comments, from Browning's "Saul," in a delightful manner. She also read a letter from her daughter in Tokio, Japan, giving an account of the recent international Sunday school convention.

Genoa Baptist Church Notes.

HAS BEEN CHANGE

Oldtimer Talks of Past Thanksgiving Days.

Thinks Religious Character of Celebration Not So Generally Dwelt On as It Was—Grandma's Plea.

"Thanksgiving weather may be the same as it always has been," said the gray-haired, young-looking man. "My own recollection is that I used to go skating almost every year on that day, but the weather bureau insists that the climate has not changed and I don't dispute the point."

"But one thing I'm sure of—Thanksgiving day is not generally celebrated now as it used to be when I was a boy. For one thing, I don't believe many people have family prayers on that day, or any other, for that matter, but 50 years ago it was a very religious family indeed who did not hold a special Thanksgiving service of that kind.

"Thanksgiving meals were things to remember. Those were the 'good old days' when doughnuts were made as big as bricks, and 'was not thought necessary to eat as many as six,' but the doughnut came between meals, and on Thanksgiving day they were not greatly in demand.

"For breakfast we always had chicken with many 'fixins' and pancakes and sweet cider for dessert. It was a meal for all day, but not long after noon we all gathered for the feast, and it was a small family that did not muster at least twenty strong. We all went home to grandpa's, the last one of us. Commonly every living member of four generations would be together for that day, no matter how scattered their homes might be.

"After dinner there'd be enough outdoor sport to raise an appetite for six o'clock supper, and after supper indoor games among the young people till bedtime, but even the oldest were dragged into the games until they were tired out.

"There may be families that keep up the old customs even yet, but I wouldn't know where to look for them. Even if I did, I don't suppose I'd be able to get any of the mince and pumpkin pies. And if I should get any of them they wouldn't be such as grandma used to make."

THANKSGIVING AT ITS BEST

City Boys and Girls Don't Make as Much of the Day as Do Their Country Cousins.

The joys of Thanksgiving are not partaken in the fullness thereof by many city boys and girls. They simply know that it is a holiday, when the pleasures and trials of school life are temporarily laid aside, when churches are open for those who want to return devout thanks for the manifold blessings with which they may have been showered, and when the larder fairly groans with uncommon delicacies.

It is in the country that the manifold blessings of Thanksgiving day reach their full fruition. It is not a mere episode there, as it is in the city, but an event that is anxiously looked forward to for weeks before it dawns. In its celebration it differs from the ways of the city as widely as does day from night. In the thickly populated towns the religious aspect of the holiday has been lost sight of to a great extent, and in its place there has grown up the habit of feasting and making merry. It is a time for family gatherings, for balls, for football, for theatricals and the thousand and one pleasures city life is beset with.

Count Your Blessings.

The last Thursday in November will not mean much to you, unless you have got in the way of counting up your blessings.
