MILLER WINS IN NEW YORK STATE

Gov. Smith Not Far Behind Republican Candidate.

TAMMANY POLLS BIG VOTE.

Republican Leaders Say Miller Will Come Into New York City With a Majority of 340,000—Harding Carried Tammany Hall Leader's Home District in the Metropolis.

Republican state leaders reiterated their statement that Miller would come into New York city with a majority of 340,000 and that Smith would be unable to overcome this. "We are confident," they said, "that Mr. Miller will win by a large majority."

Returns from nearly one-half of the state indicated that Governor Smith and Mr. Miller were running a neck and neck race. If Mr. Miller's present average majority of 75 votes in each election district up state is maintained he will come into New York with a majority of 343,125 votes. Smith has an average majority of 115 in each of the New York city election districts heard from which if it is maintained, will give him a majority of 314,295 in the metropolitan area.

Smith Running Behind Miller
Senator Harding was leading Governor Cox by a vote of nearly two and one-half to one when returns from more than one-half of the 7,308 election districts in the entire state were tabulated. The vote in 2,615 districts, 1,375 of which are in New York city, was: Cox, 436,463; Harding, 983,487. If this proportion is maintained, Senator Harding will carry the state by 1,100,000.

Governor Smith was running 137,791 behind Nathan R. Miller, Republican gubernatorial nominee, in the vote from 1,864 out of 4,575 up-state districts, but he was leading Miller by a vote of nearly two to one in the 459 districts out of 2,733 in New York city, which had reported at that hour. The vote in 2,314 up-state and city districts was: Smith, 408,048; Miller, 492,991.

Senator Harding carried all the 22 cities that had reported complete returns. His majorities were: Poughkeepsie, 3,788; Port Jervis, 475; Rome, 2,340; Geneva, 1,814; Buffalo, 46,247; Schenectady, 7,934; Syracuse, 19,578; Binghamton, 6,079; Olean, 798; Hornell, 812; Niagara Falls, 4,162; Auburn, 2,292; Troy, 1,332; White Plains, 3,353; Jamestown, 6,757; Utica, 8,056; Lockport, 2,902; Johnstown, 1,581; Gloversville, 3,531; Watervliet, 171; Corning, 1,379; Amsterdam, 2,338.

The Bronx can presidential candidate also carried the home district of Charles F. Murphy, Tammany hall leader, in New York city, obtaining 203 votes to 131 for Cox.

George R. Glynn, chairman of the Republican state committee, in a statement issued at his headquarters said that it "looks like Miller."

Says Wadsworth Has Big Majority
Senator Wadsworth would carry all districts outside Greater New York by an average of 75 votes a polling place, making a total majority for Miller of about 343,000, exclusive of New York city.

Glynn said Senator Wadsworth would be re-elected by 500,000 majority. Senator Harding would carry the state by 600,000 majority outside New York city, while claiming also that the Republican presidential candidate would carry Greater New York.

Returns from 17 congressional districts in New York state show the election of 16 Republican representatives in congress and one Democrat. Fifteen of the Republicans and the Democrat were re-elected. In the 25th district, Hamilton Fish, Jr., Republican, was elected to fill a vacancy and also for the regular two-year term.

Close Another Sub-Treasury
Discontinuance of the sub-treasury at Chicago at the close of business Wednesday, Nov. 3, was ordered Tuesday by Secretary Houston.

It's a Rare Bird.

Notice the fine and delicate texture of the paper on which THE TRIBUNE is printed this week? You don't notice any difference? That's strange, for its market value now is a little greater than the bond papers on which we used to print most of Genoa's business men's letterheads a few years ago. Not only is the paper rare in quality—if you judge quality by cost—but it is also rare in another sense, that of scarcity. With five tons of newspaper now being used to every four that is made, do you wonder that hundreds of local newspapers are being forced out of business? And the towns which have lost their newspapers now know what they have meant to them.

Aged Fleming Resident Dies.

Mrs. Elinor Smith Wyckoff, 86 years old, widow of Alonzo T. Wyckoff, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. C. Buckland, in the town of Fleming, following an illness of five days with pneumonia. Mrs. Wyckoff had always lived in Fleming and Scipio, where she was well known.

Mrs. Wyckoff is survived by the daughter, Mrs. Buckland of Fleming, a son, B. A. Wyckoff of Fleming, and a sister, Mrs. C. Hockeborn of Auburn.

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the house, Rev. John Edwin Price, pastor of the Universalist church of Auburn, officiating. Burial was made in Fort Hill cemetery.

A. J. Sperry Dead.

Alva J. Sperry, a well known farmer of Ludlowville, died suddenly Tuesday from heart disease. He drove to Ludlowville from his home, about a mile west of the village, to vote. After voting he visited a barber shop and while there he became ill. He was removed to his home, where he died soon afterward. The cause of death was stated to be angina pectoris. He was 60 years old and leaves a wife and a sister, Mrs. Leroy Beckwith.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon, from the home. Rev. A. A. Anderson will officiate. Interment in Pine Grove cemetery.

The census bureau and the public press, in calling attention to growth of cities as shown by recent tabulations, should remember that no nation can afford to have cities and towns grow at the expense of the country.

Cayuga County Vote.

Cayuga county helped to swell the big Republican pluralities for all candidates from president down to coroner.

The total vote in the county gives Harding 8,972 and Cox 2,386.

The vote in the county on governor was: Miller, 8,631, Smith 2,285.

On United States senator the vote stood 6,022 for Wadsworth, 1,981 for Walker and 1,052 for Ella Boole.

For member of congress the county with several districts missing showed Gould 6,065 and Shuler 1,554.

The vote on state senator was: Hewitt (R) 6,089 and Carmer (D) 1,546.

Assemblyman Hager had 5,942 in the county against 1,807 for A. L. Loomis, Democratic nominee.

The vote in the town of Genoa was:

President, Harding, 542, Cox 155. Governor, Miller 509, Smith 173. U. S. senator, Wadsworth 393, Ella A. Boole 132, Walker 116. Congressman, Gould 512, Shuler 122. Senator, Hewitt 494, Carmer 132. Assemblyman, Hager 349, Loomis 310.

Big Wreck in Auburn.

Three Auburn men were killed Tuesday morning in one of the worst wrecks that has occurred on the Lehigh Valley railroad in many years. The wreck occurred at the south end of the Auburn yards at 7:45 o'clock, when two powerful engines pulling a heavily loaded north-bound freight train crashed into the rear of a yard train a few rods north of the South Division crossing.

The force of the collision twisted the heavy locomotives out of all semblance to their original shape and threw them on their sides, sending one of the tenders to the bottom of an embankment at the side of the tracks and piling up freight cars for a distance of several rods. Lehigh officials were at a loss as to the cause of the failure of the engineers on the heavy freight to bring their train to a stop in time to avoid the crash. They stated that the signal to stop had been given by Yardmaster G. F. Train who was protecting the rear of the train ahead.

The dead are William M. Tuell, 44, engineer; James W. Fitch, 45, engineer; William W. Schultz, 41, trainman. Two firemen jumped and thereby escaped death.

Various theories were advanced to account for the failure of the train coming into Auburn to stop. That the momentum of the train was too great and that the air brakes refused to work was one theory advanced. Railroad officials were of the opinion that only the men who died in the wreck knew the real cause of the trouble.

G. O. P. Candidate Defeats Cox

George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, conceded the election of Senator Warren G. Harding at 11 o'clock Tuesday night.

Mr. White also conceded the election of a Republican congress.

Dayton, O., Nov. 3.—The Dayton, O., Daily News, owned by Governor James M. Cox, the Democratic presidential candidate, at 11:15 o'clock went to press with an extra edition conceding the election of Senator Harding, the Republican nominee.

Governor Cox received returns in the Daily News office.

Governor Cox's newspaper issued an extra edition shortly before 11 o'clock Tuesday night, conceding the election of senator Harding, the Republican and late, as President.

The governor himself said he would make no statement. His newspaper, however, carried the election returns for the position of Republican candidate; Harding won.

At 10:30 P. M. Tuesday, eastern time, the West Hill was practically unopposed from that the Harding majority continued to roll up in the East with indications that the state of New York would give the Republican candidate a tremendous majority.

Scattered returns from other parts of the country showed Harding votes conspicuous in communities normally solidly Democratic.

National members of the Socialist party were obtaining a popular vote of between 2,000,000 and 2,500,000 as against 50,000 four years ago.

Harding Carries Buffalo

Senator Has a Majority of 45,247 Over Governor Cox

Rep. returns from 2.5 election districts in Buffalo give Harding 78,733 and Cox 33,495, a majority for Harding of 45,247.

For Governor—Smith, Democrat, 52,796; Miller, Republican, 62,975; Thompson, Prohibitionist, 1,308. Plurality for Miller, 10,379.

United States Senator—Walker, Dem., 35,231; Wadsworth, Rep., 68,604; Boole, Pro., 4,993. Plurality for Wadsworth, 33,373.

All the other state officers were elected by majorities.

The Buffalo civic center proposition carried in the city by three to one ratio.

The soldier bonus proposition was also carried in the city two to one.

With and without any reports from some of the counties, which the Cox majority showed in the Metropolitan newspapers on the face of the incomplete returns, regarded the election of Harding as certain and continued to so announce it.

Just before 11 o'clock Tuesday night the New York World, which supported Cox, flashed its signal light, to announce re-election of Harding.

New Ashford First to Report

The town of New Ashford, in Berkshire county, was the first in Massachusetts to report its vote for President Tuesday.

The town assembly, which met at 7:30 A. M. and resulted as follows: Harding and Coolidge, Republican, 28.

Cox and Roosevelt, Democratic, 6. Four years ago the town gave Hughes, Republican, 16 votes, and Wilson, Democrat, 7.

Boston Wants New Count

Declares Official Census Takers Missed Over 50,000 People

A population of 801,679 in Boston, increased of 747,923, as announced by federal census takers, was claimed by Mayor Peters today in a letter to Samuel L. Rogers, director of the census, requesting that a new federal census be ordered there.

Prize weather, which made it difficult for canvassers to get about when the census was taken, and a panicky feeling among the foreign born over the search for recruits which caused them to withhold information, were among the explanations advanced by the mayor for alleged errors in the federal enumeration, which, he claimed, omitted 2,000 persons in one ward and showed a decrease of 14,000 in another.

Eleven wards as reported in the federal figures showed a decrease in population as compared with the state census of 1915, a falling out, which the mayor termed impossible. Records showing an excess of births over deaths, an increase in foreign born inhabitants, gains shown by the annual police census and other figures were cited to show that the census as announced was in error.

Regardless of how thoughtfully the trees have been selected and how thoroughly the planting has been done, there remains intelligent care to have them live and thrive, says the American Forestry association of Washington, which will register your memorial trees on its national honor roll. Many planters have been disappointed with the results of their work because they considered their job completed when the last shovelful of soil was placed around the tree.

A Message of Vital Importance to My Friends and Patrons:

No doubt you are all aware that clothing is cheaper than it has been in several seasons. While the cost of labor has not decreased, cloth, etc., has been reduced in price. A great many manufacturers have produced garments made of inferior quality and are putting these garments on the market at a low price this fall. This sort of goods I never handle—as my reputation for the past 38 years proves. These goods are high and expensive at any price.

In order to give you the best clothing the market affords I have taken advantage of every opportunity to buy the best quality goods from reputable manufacturers and am sacrificing my profits so as to be able to give you this quality of merchandise at a low price. This is my idea of good values. As in the past, I give you my personal guarantee and bond that you get a full 100 cents for every dollar you invest at my store.

My stock is complete with a full line of MEN'S and BOYS' SUITS, OVERCOATS, TROUSERS, SHEEPLINED COATS, MACKINAWs, SWEATERS, HATS and CAPS and everything in furnishings

All I ask is an inspection of my stock and I will prove to you the truthfulness of the above statements. It will pay you well to supply your needs at my store.

With my kindest personal regards, I am
Yours very truly,
MAKS G. SHAPERO,
34 North St., Auburn, N. Y.

P. S. My store is connected with my son's, who carries a complete line of Ladies' Wearing Apparel. I will personally guarantee any purchase you may make at his store as to quality and price.
