 Flattery
 is Fulsome
 Facts enough and to spare have we in proof that we merit your housefurnishings orders. We are the largest and most practical body of furniture makers and handlers in this part of the country. We don't desire a lot of redundant surplusage but just the ever moving assortment to fully supply your needs, and we can consequently get down to bed rock prices.
H. J. BOOL & CO.,
 Opposite Tompkins Co. Bank.
 Window Shades
 are in good variety, clean and new and well chosen. We have the men to do the work of fixing right promptly. They are kept quite busy with complete homes and blocks to shade up. Therefore we prefer a little leeway as to time on large jobs, but what we can't do others won't try, for we have worked the whole alphabet of practical shade hanging these many years.

The Zeppelin air-ship, an account of which was given in these columns some time ago, when its trial trip at Lake Constance was not a full success but afforded encouragement to the designer in his attempt to navigate the air, has had another trial and this time a much better record is made. It is given forth that the air-ship is a success, and it is believed that the problem of aerial navigation has been by it solved. Nevertheless Zeppelin's invention is cumbersome and rather unwieldy, and it has not been tried in weather that would test its endurance and the question of the guidance in mid-air of any such vehicle. In this experiment the great machine was driven against as well as with the wind, and there is good reason to expect valuable results from the undertaking.

Fordyce's wharf has been a busy scene for the past few days, with farmers bringing in the sugar beets which they have grown the past season for the sugar factory at Lyons. As a result of the canvass last spring eleven farmers contracted to grow twenty-three acres of sugar beets and deliver them aboard a boat to be brought here for that purpose, receiving for the same $4.75 a ton after paying 25 cents per ton freight. A talk among the growers revealed that some thought they were well paid for time and labor while others claimed there was no money in the business and that there would be none raised about here next year. The yield which they were led to believe would reach 20 tons per acre generally fell short from 30 to 50 per cent. Only an estimate of average yield can be made at this time but it will not be far from 8 tons per acre. One thing the growers seem to be convinced of is that the idea that sugar beets can be successfully grown as a side issue is a delusion, but that with a good season, which by the way the past has not been, and plenty of cheap help, it may be a good crop to raise.—U. S. Advertiser.

Pocketbooks and Purses. We shall shortly receive a new stock of pocket books and wish to dispose of our old goods. We have marked down our entire stock to make it go. If in need now is your opportunity. Sagar Drug store, Auburn.

Heller's Testimony.
Albert Heller, living at 1,114 Farnham St., Omaha, says: "I have tried most everything that is used as a preventive or cure for headache, but nothing did me so much good as Krause's Headache Capsules. Others who have used them say the same thing." Price 25c. Sold by Banker.

THE COUNTY EVENTS

NEIGHBORHOOD VILLAGES IN PRINT.

The Happenings of the Week in Our Sister Villages.—Newsy Correspondence.

Venice Center—West Hill.

Oct. 22—Sheriff G. S. Wood of Auburn called on relatives in this neighborhood on Saturday.

The early frosts marred the gorgeous beauty of our autumnal foliage.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush of Fleming visited at C. H. Wood's one day last week.

Several from this locality went to Auburn to hear Bryan speak. One said: "He appeared to be exhausted." One would think he would be both mentally and physically making so many speeches, though "slim" ones as reported.

Earl D. Wood and brothers Floyd and Theodore have received invitations to a large wedding at Shelbyville.

Mrs. Henry H. Wood of Moravia who has been seriously ill is reported some better.

Mrs. Eunice Hull and daughter, Mrs. Glen Mosher, of Auburn recently made a visit to many friends in town.

The friends and relatives of Miss Jane Stuart in this region were saddened to hear of her sudden demise. The venerable lady was 88 years old.

Rev. Thomas Small is returned to the charge at Venice Center.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cranston of Groton attended the funeral of his mother at Scipio on Saturday.

As we called we were pleased to find Mrs. Emmeline Wood much improved—the affected arm and hand decidedly more natural—under Dr. VanBuskirk's scientific treatment and care of friends.

We are pleased to note that the Presbyterian society at Genoa continued Rev. Walter Mitchell's salary until Oct. 1st, although he has been unable to act as pastor since the first of June.

We hear of many robberies of late. Samuel Wheat with others reports the loss of many fine fowls. Besides chicken thieves, we hear of another kind who entered a farmer's cellar in Scipio and took all the pork in the barrel, even the slices for breakfast, and all the butter in the jar except a small piece. Not content with that, they took a nice fruit cake, pan and all.

An old housekeeper gives the following method for preserving eggs the year round. Two parts bran, one part salt, well dried in the oven. Pack the eggs in it with the large end down. The large end has the air chamber and holds the yolk as in a cup. If the small end is down the yolks will settle to one side and adhere to the shell. Cover each layer well, with plenty of packing between in a tight box or jar. She has tried this method over 40 years and never lost one egg. One year the box was left in an open shed, thinking all the eggs were out. The next year one egg was found in the box as good as ever. Try it.

Venice.

Oct. 23—The funeral of Ambrose Holley was largely attended at the Baptist church Oct. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pearsall of Auburn visited friends here part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Northway were away visiting friends last week.

Frank Main and wife and daughter Abbie spent Sunday at J. C. Misner's.

Will Atkins of Auburn spent last week with Mr. Holcomb.

The fall convention of the Sunday school association will be held in the Baptist church here Tuesday, Oct. 30, afternoon and

For sprains, and lameness there is North Lansing.

Oct. 24—Andrew Miller has rented the blacksmith shop of Mrs. Howser and is ready to do all kinds of work in that line.

Rev. Mr. Shoemaker and family have come to reside in the parsonage. His sermon last Sunday evening was highly appreciated by a large congregation.

Eugene Buck and wife of Lake Ridge were the guests of Ed Buck and wife a few days last week.

The ladies of the Baptist church and society met at the home of Mrs. John Pierce to see what could be done about shingling the church. It was decided to have an Aid society, and Mrs. Andrew Brink kindly gave the ladies an invitation to meet at her home on Wednesday, Nov. 7. Dinner served at 1 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

George Brink of Middletown was the guest of his brother Andrew last Saturday.

Mrs. Helen Bower, who has been visiting relatives for a few weeks past, returns to her home in Greenville, Mich., Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Irene Lane died at her home last Sunday morning, after a brief illness. The funeral was held from her late home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Shoemaker officiated and Funeral Director Frank Demmon of Locke had charge of the services.

Andrew Brink and wife and Frank Beardsley and wife attended the services at the Baptist church, Genoa, last Sunday evening.

Chas. Lyon and wife of Richford were guests at Chas. Barger's last Friday night and Saturday.

East Genoa.

Oct. 24—We wish to correct a misstatement in last week's items. The funeral of N. H. Potter was held here on Tuesday of last week, instead of at Locke, Rev. W. A. Pugsley officiating. While we really desire to be strictly truthful, mistakes will occur sometimes.

It was first thought that the new pastor, Rev. Shoemaker, would live here but plans have been changed and he will live at North Lansing.

The L. T. L. had a very pleasant meeting at F. Thayer's on Friday evening of last week.

Mrs. Rundell of Genoa is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Tupper.

Mrs. Carrie Sexton of Moravia visited at C. Atwood's on Sunday.

D. M. Karn was home from Auburn over Sunday.

Moravia.

Oct. 22—Fred Jennings is home from Cornell, sick.

The old maids will hold their convention at the opera house Saturday evening, Oct. 27.

The friends of Rev. H. L. Rixon to the number of about fifty tendered him a farewell visit at the M. E. parsonage Monday evening. James A. Wright, in behalf of the company, presented Mr. Rixon with a fine gold watch.

A reception will be tendered Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Wells at the church parlors Wednesday evening.

George L. Phelps, a graduate of Syracuse university this year, has been engaged as assistant in the academic department of the High school, in place of George Clark, Jr.

Willard Cutler attended the funeral of his uncle, Dr. Joseph L. Cutler, at Bolivar, N. Y.

H. L. Alger, who has been spending several months at Split Rock, Wyo., has returned home.

Miss Mate Babcock has gone to Tioga to visit her sister until January.

Moravia is to have a fair conducted by a county society. The first annual meeting will be held on the second Tuesday of January.

NEWS OF THE STATE

EVENTS IN AND OUT OF THE EMPIRE STATE.

Paragraphs of the Week's Happenings
Clipped from the Tribune's Exchanges.

Bert C. Saunders of DeRuyter recently declined an offer of $225 for his handsome Admont road mare.

Maggie Labar, confined in Auburn prison for burglary in Genoa last spring, has given birth to a male child.

The Chittenango Pottery Co. has received an order for $10,000 worth of goods for the Pan-American Exposition.

President Kruger is on his way to Holland at last. He will find that country a vast improvement over St. Helena.

By the way, nobody can accuse Thomas Collier Platt of making himself unduly conspicuous in the present campaign.

The registration figures show that the voters of this State have been thinking, though they haven't been making much noise.

Samuel Simkin of West Branch, Oneida county, has purchased the Lucy Rickon place at Union Springs. Possession will be taken next spring.

The managers of the State fair have finally decided to hold a fair next year notwithstanding the counter attraction of the Pan-American Exposition.

Christopher Hurlbut of Groton was found dead in his barn Sunday morning, having died while hitching up his horse to drive to Cortland. He was a veteran.

At Cortland recently, Ida E. Gray was given a verdict of $5,000 against the Homer & Cortland Electric Company, for the death of William Gray, killed by a live wire in August last.

A Smyrna man's watch slipped into an ensilage cutter the other day. "Time waits for no man," and this timepiece was in minute particles before the machine could be stopped.

The emperor of Japan will visit the United States and other countries next year, the first time a Japanese ruler has gone abroad since the formation of the dynasty, 3,000 years ago.

The annual Masonic convention for the exemplification of the work in the thirtieth Masonic district will be held in the rooms of Auburn City Lodge, Metcalf block, Auburn, on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 12 and 13.

Temperance did not hurt Stamford very bad and its people fell to crying before they were hurt. Stamford never had such a prosperous season and eight new houses are to be ready for the first season of the 20th century.

In the list of those recently killed in the Philippines is the name of Max Wagner, a lieutenant in a volunteer regiment. Lieutenant Wagner was born in Georgetown, and has a number of relatives living in that vicinity.

The statement is made that forty good engines have been demolished in wrecks on the Pennsylvania division of the New York Central since the first of the year, at an average cost of $8,000 each, a total of $320,000.

The grand jury at Norwich found an indictment of murder in the second degree against George Hubbard, Mary Hubbard and Lizzie Turpeny for the alleged killing by starvation of George Turpeny, an infant, in Greene last May.

Andrew Owens of West Winfield last week dug up in his garden a copper cent, dated 1787, for which he refuses $5. On one side are thirteen united links, the word "Fugio," "We are one," "U. S.," "Mind your own business."

C. W. Keeler of Moravia recently suffered from a painful accident. While poling chestnuts from the trees a burr fell, striking him squarely in the eye and some of the thistles became fastened in the eyeball and were removed by Dr. Ryan.

John Carroll of Genoa who sustained a fracture of a rib a short time ago, was operated upon at the City hospital yesterday, it being necessary to remove a portion of the splintered bone which pressed against the lung. The operation was successful and it to be removed to his home on Saturday.—Ithaca Journal.

N. S. Black of Moravia has leased a store in Groton for a term of six years and will open a clothing store in that village, Saturday, Oct. 27. The store will be in charge of Howard Close, and Lee Winters will assist Mr. Black in the Moravia store.

At Rome Tuesday, the jury in the case of J. R. Russell vs. Lehigh Valley R. R. Co., gave the plaintiff a verdict of $4,500 for the injuries received by the caving in of a gravel pit in which he was working near Rippleton. His leg was badly broken, disabling him for life. As it is a reasonable verdict, it is thought no appeal will be taken.

At a Pharsalia auction recently, twenty framed pictures were struck off for $1, in the back of one of which were found five fifty-cent revenue stamps. At the same auction a lad pulled some waste papers from a stove to cut the old stamps from the envelopes and in one of the letters found a check for $15 on a New York house, which was promptly cashed.

No one, no matter how healthy and well-known to the community at large, should stir from home without carrying in some convenient place, belt, pocket, purse or satchel, an envelope marked "To Be opened only in case of accident." In this envelope should be a card, bearing the owner's full name and address, with the names and addresses of those who should be summoned in an emergency that has rendered the one injured incapable of supplying the needed information.

Somebody with a liking for statistics has figured out the spellbinding records of Mr. Bryan and Governor Roosevelt up to date and here is the result: Speeches, Roosevelt, 300; Bryan, 285. States visited, Roosevelt, 19; Bryan, 14. Towns visited, Roosevelt, 350; Bryan, 280. Number of auditors, Roosevelt, 700,000; Bryan, 550,000. Handshakings, Roosevelt, 40,000; Bryan, 30,000. Words in speeches, Roosevelt, 600,000; Bryan, 999,000. Average words in speech, Roosevelt, 2,000; Bryan, 3,500.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by J. S. Banker.

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes: "I am using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my practice among severe cases of indigestion and find it an admirable remedy." Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the good food you need, providing you do not overload your stomach. Gives instant relief and a permanent cure. J. S. Banker.

Quinine for Colds.

"Many people who use quinine for the cure of colds say that the effect of this drug is more disagreeable than the disease. Krause's Cold Cure is prepared in a convenient capsule form, and will cure the most deeply-seated cold in 24 hours without any interruption to business. They are pleasant to take and give you a clear, fresh sensation while operating. Price 25c. Sold by Banker.

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn out stomach perfect rest. It is the only preparation known that completely digests all classes of foods; that is why it cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach trouble after everything else has failed. It may be taken in all conditions and cannot help but do you good. J. S. Banker.

TAKING EVIDENCE REGARDING FRIARS

Filipinos Generally Opposed to Their Return—An Aguinaldo Letter
Turns Up in Manila—Situation
More Quiet.

MANILA, Oct. 22.—The Philippine commission has passed a bill appropriating $475,000 gold for the payment of expenses incurred for the benefit of the insular government during October. The bill goes carefully into detail regarding the items of expenditure throughout the archipelago.

Judge Taft, president of the commission, has been engaged for some time in taking a mass of Filipino testimony concerning the conduct and policy of the friars, this being a continuation of the investigation which began with the depositions of bishops and members of monastic orders. The statements of the Filipinos go to show that the friars under the Spanish regime greatly abused their limitless political and religious powers over the community and that this abuse of authority often led to immorality. All the testimony offered by the Filipinos shows that they do not desire the return of the friars to the parishes.

Archbishop Chapelle has gone to the more peaceful provinces of northern Luzon, accompanied by three Dominican friars.
It is asserted and generally believed that he intends to re-establish these friars in certain parishes, and the trip is exciting the natives of Manila, who call upon their countrymen to prevent the re-establishment of any friar on the ground that it would fix a dangerous precedent for the future.

Senor Buencamino has received what purports to be a letter from Aguinaldo ordering the former leaders of the revolution who are now in Manila to desist from the formation of political parties and to cease all their attempts at pacification.
The letter mysteriously hints that plans are maturing among the armed rebels in the field and describes these as "best for the country." Senor Buencamino declares that the letter is genuine.

The military situation was comparatively quiet last week. The commission, the military authorities, the Filipinos and the foreigners are awaiting the result of the presidential election in the United States. Many persons assert that, whatever this may be, it will have no immediate effect upon the armed situation in the Philippines and that disorders and guerilla attacks will continue for a time.

FIVE FIREMEN KILLED.

Fire in St. Paul Proves Disastrous to Life and Property.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 22.—As a result of a fire which broke out in the slaughtering pen of A. V. Hinman & Co.'s packing house at the Minnesota transfer at an early hour yesterday morning five firemen are dead and a number of others injured, and property to the amount of $450,000 was consumed.

The McCormick Harvester company was the heaviest loser, their loss footing up $380,000. Of this $80,000 was on buildings and $300,000 on stock and notes, all their papers and records being burned. They carry no insurance. The loss of D. M. Robbins, owner of the packing house where the fire originated, is placed at $35,300, which includes the loss on several tenement houses and other buildings. The loss to the Great Northern railroad on cars destroyed footed up $8,000; Northwestern Lumber company, $15,000; A. V. Hinman & Co., losses of the packing house plant, lost $4,000 on stock and machinery; the Merriam Park Ice company, $1,000 on buildings and stock, and other minor losses which will bring the total to nearly $450,000.

President Goes to Canton.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—President and Mrs. McKinley left the city last night via the Pennsylvania railroad for Canton, O., where they will remain until
Mr. McKinley casts his vote on Nov. 6, when they will return to Washington.
Accompanying them were Secretary Cor-telyon and Dr. P. M. Rixey of the navy, the party occupying the private car Lu-ciana. Secretary and Mrs. Root also had expected to go with the presidential party, but the former was called to New York on private business and will start from that city west today. Mr. Root is to make an address at Youngstown, O., on the 25th inst.

Wife Enjoined From Talking.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 20.—Judge Ludwig of the superior court issued an injunction restraining a woman from talking.
The order was issued in the suit of Emilie Koerner against Herman Koerner, the proprietor of a grocery store on the south side. In his affidavit the defendant charges his wife with coming to the store and talking incessantly. The court accordingly issued an injunction to restrain Mrs. Koerner from going to the store "and talking to the great injury of said Koerner."

Triplets For Two.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 19.— Mrs. Walter J. Swanson gave birth to triplets Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
An hour later Mrs. Howard E. Swanson
similarly surprised her husband. The circumstances are surprising. Less than a year ago Dorothy and Parthenia Freeman, twin sisters, were the belles of Breedon, W. Va. They had many suitors, and finally they chose Walter J. and Howard E. Swanson, young timber men and also twins.

No Signs of Peary's Ship.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Oct. 23.—The latest fishing craft to return from northern Labrador report that nothing has been seen of the Peary exploring steamer Windward. The winter season has already begun to set in near Hudson bay.
Ice is forming, and the whole region will soon be frozen up, making it next to impossible for the Windward to get south

EMINENT AUTHOR DEAD.

Charles Dudley Warner Succumbs to Sudden Attack of Heart Disease.

Hartford, Oct. 22.—Charles Dudley
Warner, the eminent author and lecturer, died very suddenly Saturday afternoon
under peculiar circumstances in the home of Mrs. Robert Smith, a colored woman living on Windsor street, in the lower part of the city. It is not known just what time he died, and he is supposed to have been dead for quite a while before the authorities were notified.

Mr. Warner's health had been poor for some time past, and recently he had a slight shock of paralysis which slightly disfigured his face. The medical examiner who visited his remains said that death was due to heart failure and that he had been dead an hour and a half previous to the time he viewed the body.
The woman in whose house Mr. Warner's death occurred said that he had known her for a number of years and had given her books and befriended her. He was passing her house and, feeling faint, went in for a glass of water. He had been there but a few moments when he expired in the chair he sat in.

Charles Dudley Warner was born on Sept. 12, 1829, in Plainfield, Mass., where during his childhood he read chiefly Biblical commentaries and biographies of gentlemen of austere life, the only reading matter almost that was ready to his hand. His father, who was a man of New England culture, died when Charles was 5 years old, and the boy's guardian designed him for a clerk and put him to work in due season in a drug store and later in a postoffice. The young man was educated, however, at Hamilton college, being graduated in 1851, after which he went to Missouri with a party of surveyors for his health, returning to the east and taking his degree in the law department of the University of Pennsylvania in 1856. In the same year he joined the newly organized Republican party.

He practiced law in Chicago for a few years and then came east again to take a place on the Hartford Press, becoming later when that paper was absorbed by The Courant one of the coeditors of the latter with his friend General Joseph R.
Hawley. For many years he was active on The Courant, but had not been lately, although one of the chief owners of the paper, the policy of which he largely directed.

His career as an author began in 1870 with a series of sketches called "My Summer in a Garden," which attained immediate recognition.

After "My Summer in a Garden" Mr.
Warner published "Sambo's Travels," reminiscent of his travels; "Backlog Studies," partly a collection of magazine papers in which he extols the influences of the fireside circle and touches upon social topics in a humorous way; "Baddock and That Sort of Thing," "My Winter on the Nile," "Washington Irving" and "Roundabout Papers" among other things. He also published in collaboration with Samuel L. Clemens in 1873 "The Gilded Age." In 1888 he published "On Horseback" and in 1895 "The Golden House," the material for which he gathered in New York. His latest literary work was the editing of the "Library of Universal Literature."

ROOSEVELT IN NEW YORK.

First Day of Governor's Flying Trip Ends in Kingston.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Governor Roosevelt finished the first day of his flying campaign through the state in this city last night after traveling 89 miles and making eight speeches, the longest being at Newburg and here. At the former place, the home of the Republican candidate for governor, he talked to a vast assemblage, having to speak in two places.

In a sense the campaign took on the form of English political meetings, spectators interrupting the speaker with questions, in every instance eliciting a reply. At West Nyack a man close to the car cried and reiterated, "Hurrah for Bryan!" And Mr. Roosevelt, tiring of it, replied, "Why don't you hurrah for Altgeld and Aguinaldo?" The cheering ceased. Another called, "What about the ice trust?" And he answered: "This election will be decided by the patriots and men of sense in the country, who outnumber the junket-shouters of your type.
The ice trust will be attended to in a proper legal way."

A man in the crowd at Newburg said in a low tone of voice, "Why did you call Democrats cowards and dishonest?"
Roosevelt heard him and flung back quickly this characteristic reply: "It's a lie! I never said such a thing!"

Twentieth Century Magazine

A new century brings new conditions and new methods of meeting them. Fifty years ago the average American was content to get his news once a week. Now he demands it twice a day, with relays hourly when things are happening in Africa and China.

The Curtis Publishing Company bought The Saturday Evening Post because it believed that the public which demands its newspaper twice a day, would want a popular literary magazine once a week, provided it adjusted itself to the new conditions and rightly gauged the demand of the twentieth century. And that demand, it felt, would be for a magazine of the best quality that money and brains could make, sold at as low a price as modern machinery and methods could produce it.

To improve the quality and at the same time lower the price of a publication, two things are necessary—a great circulation and the best machinery that human ingenuity can devise. The first has been achieved, for The Saturday Evening Post has a weekly circulation of a quarter of a million, and new subscriptions are coming in at the rate of a thousand a day. Again, its ten new presses have just been installed in its new eight-story building, which, together with its old facilities, give it the largest and most complete periodical plant in the world.

This addition to the equipment of The Curtis Publishing Company, with the auxiliary machinery specially designed for The Saturday Evening Post, the whole involving an outlay of half a million dollars, will enable it to lessen the mechanical cost of the magazine, and to print the edition of 500,000 weekly toward which it is rapidly growing. And this cheapening of cost and increase of circulation will permit the publishers to make permanent the price which, under old conditions, they were able to put out only as a special and limited offer—a year's subscription to The Saturday Evening Post, fifty-two numbers, including the regular monthly double numbers and the special holiday issues, for one dollar.

The Cause of Sighing.

Prof. Lumsden says that sighing is but another name for oxygen starvation. The cause of sighing is most frequently worry. An interval of several seconds often follows moments of mental disquietude, during which time the chest walls remain rigid until the imperious demand is made for oxygen, thus causing the deep inhalation. It is the expiration following the inspiration that is properly termed the sigh, and this sigh is simply an effort of the organism to obtain the necessary supply of oxygen. The remedy is to cease worrying. One may be anxious, but there is no rational reason for worrying. A little philosophy will banish worry at once. Worry will do no good; it will rob one of pleasures when blessings do come, as one will not be in a condition to enjoy them.—Popular Science News.

A Laxative for Children.

H. Doerfler, in the "Muenchener Medicinische Wochenschrift," discusses the use of butter in the constipation of infants and children. Acting upon the theory that the torpidity of the intestine in such cases is caused by excessive feeding, and is not a disease, he uses the butter as a mechanical laxative. He names as the advantages that children never refuse it, and that pallid cheeks grow rosy under its use. It has little effect after six years of age. From one-half to one teaspoonful is given to a child up to three months of age, and when regular bowel action is established, it is then used only every second or third day. A child of five months to a year should have one to three tablespoonfuls per day. The butter must be sweet and fresh, and it is important that it is not melted, since this changes its character.—Popular Science News.

Chautauqua for 1900-01.

The advantage of a systematic plan of study is apparent to any one who has had occasion to compare the results of a year of desultory reading with the outcome of a twelve month in which the books and magazine articles read whether few or many have been chosen with a definite aim in view. The purpose of Chautauqua is to provide a systematic course of reading in history, literature, science and art. It gives to every-day people the opportunity to enjoy the advantages of an education beyond that furnished by the common schools, and brings the facilities for self-culture to the family fireside. To the man or woman who would gain deeper insight into the literature, science, art and practical life of his own country and of other great countries, past or present, and who recognizes the advantage of systematic reading, Chautauqua opens the door of opportunity, and co-operates with all who stand for self-growth, for a broader scholarship, a better individuality, and a nobler manhood and womanhood.

The Chautauquan, a monthly magazine published more especially for Chautauqua members, is considered by many to be unsurpassed for contents of current interest and for permanent literary, educational and historic value. In the Chautauquan for the coming year there will be a series of articles running through the entire year upon "The Rivalry of Nations: World Politics of Today," a historical study of world developments of the last half century and of the great problems of today; there will be an Illustrated Reading Journey in the Orient and there will also be critical studies in French Literature and Biographical Studies of the religious character of historic figures in Greece and France.

The members of the local circle met on Saturday evening last and organized for the annual course of reading, which promises to be very interesting. Mr. A. D. Mead was elected president and Mr. C. E. Smith secretary. Meetings will be held weekly and an invitation is extended to all who are interested, young or old, to attend the meetings and take up the work.

Burglars in Town.

About 4 o'clock Sunday morning, Postmaster Hewitt arose and dressed and going out of the front door of the hotel he pumped some water and then went to the barn. While there he heard a heavy noise and thinking that something had fallen in the hotel he hurried in. He asked Mrs. Hewitt what had happened and mentioned what he had heard, and she immediately said it might be over in the post office. He looked for a weapon and finally crossed the bridge without one; he found no intruders but found every evidence that some one had been in and departed in a hurry. Meanwhile the hotel bell was rung and several citizens responded, thinking there was a fire. The post office door was open, two large sections of the front window were smashed, the safe door was blown clean off and things in the office were in gross confusion. The burglars had pryed open the front door with tools taken from A. J. Merritt's shop; they drilled a quarter-inch hole down through the top of the safe, pouring into the interior enough explosives to blow the door off and across the room with terrific force. The office stove had been moved to give them room to do their work and the office lamp was used to give them light. The loss is about $62 in cash and $250 in stamps; the cash box and other articles were also taken. Some money lying upon a shelf was overlooked and several dollars in small change were scattered on the floor. Suspicion pointed to members of the Armstrong family and Constables Gillespie, Smith and Holden took search warrants on Sunday morning and visited three or four of the suspects, who were not attending church that day. However, the officers contented themselves with looking around one old barn and going through the clothes of a man named Reynolds, who lives at East Genoa. Deputy U. S. Marshall Bennett came Tuesday to look around and he took Phil Armstrong with him when he returned that night. The building is unoccupied except by the post office, and the thieves had no fear of interruption except from without.

Armstrong was taken before Commissioner Avery, who adjourned the examination until tomorrow. We are told that a brother who resides near Venice Center has also been arrested.

Strike Will End When Operators All Agree.

SEVERAL COMPANIES HOLD OFF.

President of Miners' Union Thinks Powder Question Can Be Settled When Advance Is Pledged by All Companies.

HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 23.—President Mitchell in an interview last night practically admitted that the anthracite coal miners' strike would end as soon as all the operators posted a notice guaranteeing the payment of a 10 per cent advance in wages until April 1. President Mitchell said:

"The prospect of an early settlement of the coal strike is becoming brighter, some of the operators who have not yet posted notices signifying their willingness to fall in line either with the Reading company or with the proposition made by the Lehigh Valley company in the Hazleton region. If all of them notify their employees by posting notices or otherwise that an actual advance of 10 per cent will be paid each mine employee and guarantee its continuance until April 1, together with the abolition of the sliding scale, I believe that the terms would be accepted by the mine workers. The reduction in powder from $2.75 to $1.50 has confused the miners, but some of the operators have so fully explained how contract miners could receive the full advance of 10 per cent as well as all other employees that I believe this obstacle can be overcome."

Although, as President Mitchell says, the outlook for an early settlement of the strike is bright, it is difficult to make a prediction as to when the end will come. Some of the coal companies are showing a disposition not to issue a second notice guaranteeing the payment of the 10 per cent increase in wages until April. Among these are the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and the Delaware and Hudson, the officials of which companies are reported to have declined to issue a supplemental notice. The labor leaders, however, hope that the companies will in some way make known that they will guarantee the payment of the advance until April 1.

President Mitchell appeared quite cheerful when he made the announcement as above, and his manner indicated that the time is near at hand when all the anthracite miners now on strike shall return to the mines.

MADMEN RUN WILD.

Inmates of Hospital for Criminal Insane at Large.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 22.—There was a revolt at the Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane at half past 6 o'clock last night, when six or eight keepers were assaulted and overpowered by about 20 insane patients. Suddenly and without warning each keeper was attacked simultaneously by two or three patients, and heavy blows fell on the heads of the surprised attendants. There did not seem to be any leader of the revolt, and while the patients were assaulting the keepers they would gaze at each other occasionally, as if waiting for the word to make the break for liberty. The keys held by the keepers were soon taken from them, and a rush was then made for the door leading from the hall into the dining room.

Through the yard they ran like deer and crowded around the big gate in the wall while one of their number was turning the key in the lock. When the gate was thrown open, they rushed out of the yard, fairly tumbling over each other in their anxiety to be free again.

A hot pursuit followed, in which all but seven of the patients were captured. The revolt, it is thought, was caused directly by the cramped quarters at the hospital.

Matteawan Inmates Captured.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Three more of the seven patients who escaped from the Matteawan State Hospital for Insane Criminals at Matteawan Sunday night were captured yesterday at Middlehope, a hamlet about five miles from Newburg. They were Patrick Murphy, John Flynn and James Clark. This leaves three other patients—Peter Foster, colored; John McCarthy and William J. Johnson—still at large.

New York City's Registration.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—New York city's electors, over 600,000 in number, are enrolled for the coming election. The registry books were closed at 10 o'clock on Saturday night, and the party managers are studying the returns. The increase in Manhattan and the Bronx and in Brooklyn over the registration of 1896 amounts to 60,782, and in the boroughs of Queens and Richmond there is a substantial increase over the figures of 1898. Both political organizations claim that the registration is favorable to their cause.

Zeppelin's Airship Works Well.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Oct. 22.—Another trial of Count Zeppelin's airship was made yesterday, resulting in a series of successful evolutions. The airship, with Count Zeppelin and Herr Eugen Wolff on board, ascended at 5 o'clock in the afternoon to an altitude of five-eighths of a mile, where various maneuvers were executed. It then descended slowly to the water, which it reached near the point of departure at 25 minutes past 5. The king and queen of Württemberg witnessed the trial.

TRANSFORMING CUBA

Governor General Wood's Report on Island Affairs.

WONDERFUL IMPROVEMENTS MADE.

Hospitals Opened, Prisons Repaired, Courts Remodeled, Schools Established—American Troops Not Used During the Year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Major General Leonard Wood has made the following statement as to the contents of his civil report as governor general of Cuba: "The civil report of the island will not be published until the end of the present calendar year. It will cover in detail the work under the various civil departments of the military government during the entire present year. Under the head of hospitals and charities it will be found that every town of consequence in the island has been provided with a hospital well equipped with all necessary supplies and appliances. This condition exists, commencing with Havana, in practically all the more important towns throughout the island. The largest hospital, which is at Havana, is capable of accommodating 2,000 patients and is now serving as a general municipal hospital for that city. "Asylums for orphan children have been established wherever necessary. The number of these institutions has been greatly reduced during the past few months owing to the great improvement in the general conditions existing in Cuba, children being taken back to their families or their friends. "The prisons have been overhauled and repaired from one end of the island to the other and the sanitary conditions vastly improved. The military government has had its agents go over the island investigating every case under detention, and many hundreds of prisoners who had been detained for long periods of time awaiting trial have been released, only such being released, however, as had awaited trial for a period as long or longer than they would have been sentenced had they been found guilty. This work was done in the months of January and February of this year. Courts have been stimulated and urged to a prompt performance of their duty, and the result has been that many prisons have been practically empty and a very great improvement has been made in the conduct of criminal cases. A special inspector of prisons has been appointed, whose functions are to inspect at least once in every three months each prison on the island and to examine every prisoner therein. "Correctional courts have been established throughout the larger cities, where the trial is oral and summary, as in our police courts. The writ of habeas corpus has been published, to take effect on Dec. 1 of this year. "During the present year over 3,000 public schools have been established. Thirty-six hundred teachers are employed in them, and 150,000 children are in the schools. This number is constantly increasing, and by the end of the present school year it is believed that we shall have 250,000 children in school. The largest number at school under the Spanish rule was between 26,000 and 30,000. The salaries paid the teachers are all high, exceeding any paid in the United States in corresponding grades, with the exception of three of our larger cities. School desks and supplies for 100,000 children have been purchased, sent to the island and put up. Enthusiasm for public education is great. The trip of the 1,300 teacher to Cambridge was most beneficial, and attempts will be made to repeat it next year. "The United States troops have no been used during the present year for the maintenance of order. The police work in the rural districts is done by the rural guard, which amounts to about 1,200 men for the entire island of Cuba. These men and their officers are all Cubans. "A complete overland telegraph has been established throughout the island. Troops are in good health and are well located in suitable barracks. The condition of the equipment and instruction is excellent. The troops have absolutely no connection with the civil officials, and their presence is a guarantee of good order. "The financial condition of the country is excellent. The government is entirely self supporting, and the treasury has an unincumbered balance of $1,500,000. Municipalities are gradually assuming their obligations. "The condition of the people of the island, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is one of content, and they realize that wonderful progress has been made, and they feel as a people kindly toward and have faith in the people of the United States."

GREAT STATESMAN GONE.

Death of John Sherman in Washington—A Remarkable Career.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The death of ex-Secretary John Sherman, as announced yesterday, has removed one of the nation's greatest citizens. Funeral services will be held at the K street residence tomorrow. Rev. Dr.

JOHN SHERMAN.

Mackay-Smith of St. John's Episcopal church officiating. After the services the body will be taken to Mansfield, O., where it will be interred beside that of Mrs. Sherman.

John Sherman was born in Lancaster, O., on May 10, 1823. He was the eighth in a family of 11 children, the late General William Tecumseh Sherman being the sixth child. Their mother's maiden name was Mary Hoyt. Their father, for five years a justice of the Ohio supreme court, was a descendant of the Rev. John Sherman of Essex, England, who came to America in 1634. On the death of Justice Sherman in 1829 the family became scattered and a cousin of the name of John Sherman took young John and sent him to school. The boy was prepared for college. Desire to become self supporting led him, however, to join a corps of surveyors and engineers, with whom he worked for two years. He then studied law in the office of his brother Charles and was admitted to the bar on May 11, 1844. He practiced law in partnership with his brother at Mansfield, O., until he was elected a representative in congress in 1854. Somewhat before his first appearance in the national legislature John Sherman had, on Aug. 30, 1848, married Cecilia Stewart, daughter of Judge Stewart of Mansfield, O. She was his companion throughout a long public career, and her death last spring marked the beginning of Mr. Sherman's rapid decline. Sherman was for nearly half a century a Republican leader upon financial questions and was the originator of many important laws. In particular he was the author of the specie redemption plan of the Sherman act of 1875. The length of his continuous public service a brief review suffices to show. After membership in successive congresses from 1855 to 1861 he was chosen United States senator and was twice re-elected before becoming secretary of the treasury under R. B. Hayes. He went back to the senate at the close of the four years' term in 1881 and represented Ohio until 1897, when he became President McKinley's secretary of state. From this office failing health caused his retirement two years ago. Sherman published his own record of his career in "The Recollections of Forty Years in the House, Senate and Cabinet." A volume called "Selected Speeches and Reports on Taxation" was among the publications incidental to his special work.

Mourning in Mansfield. MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 23.—The bells of churches, shops and of the fire department were tolled yesterday afternoon on account of Senator Sherman's death. Flags are at half mast. A proclamation will be made by Mayor Brown closing business places, factories and schools on Thursday during the funeral. The Sherman residence is being opened. Services probably will be held at Grace Episcopal church.

BRYAN'S SOUTHERN TOUR.

Large Audiences Addressed in West Virginia Towns.

HINTON, W. Va., Oct. 23.—The line of the Chesapeake railroad traversing the picturesque valleys of the Big Kanawha and New rivers was the scene of Mr. Bryan's campaign yesterday. Speeches were made at Huntington, Hurricane, St. Albans, Charleston, Brownston, East Bank, Montgomery, Sewell, Thurmond and Hinton. The size of the audiences varied, but all of them were large in proportion to the population of the towns and of the surrounding country. There were especially fine crowds at Huntington, Charleston and Hinton, people coming into those towns from all the adjacent region. The one notable feature of the day was Mr. Bryan's repeated reference to the race question. His line of travel was farther south than he had gone before and farther than he will again go, and there were quite a number of evidently noted their presence and took occasion to address portions of his speeches especially to them, appealing to them to do justice by the Filipinos as they would have justice done by themselves.

Brooklyn Wins the Trophy.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 19.—The agony is over. Brooklyn is champion of the world baseballically, the owner of the beautiful $500 Chronicle-Telegraph trophy cup and carries away one-half the gate receipts of the four games necessary to decide their supremacy over Pittsburg. The champions demonstrated throughout the series that they were deserving of the League pennant by playing better ball in every way than their opponents, who finished second in the race. In only one game of the four played did Pittsburg look to be in the same class with Brooklyn. The score in yesterday's game was: Brooklyn, 6; Pittsburg, 1.

Daring Navigators.

PUNTA GORDA, Fla., Oct. 22.—Peter Johansen and his 12-year-old son Peter have arrived from Gibraltar in an open boat 29 feet long and 7 feet 6 inches beam. They left Gibraltar with 180 gallons of water and provisions for 60 days and made the trip in 59 days, encountering no storms.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by Banker.

An Editor Yearning for Rural Life.

[By the late Sereno E. Todd of Orange, N. J.]
Oh, give me back the country, forest, field,
Where apple blossoms their sweet fragrance yield.

Where buzzing insects hum a cheerful lay,
And joyous nature celebrates the day;
I hate the pent-up city's sombre walls;
I hate the strifes of editorial halls;
I hate the frantic rush for paltry gold,
The place where men for bribes are bought and sold.

Oh, give me back my farm! That little plot,
My prattling children, and my rural cot,
The trees I planted, vines and shrubs and flowers,
The garden, warbling birds, and shady bowers,
I hate the tumult of the noisy throng,
Nocturnal revels, and the midnight song,
I hate commercial contests, and the tricks
Of artful combinations, rings, and cliques.

I was a prince among my flocks and herds;
The feathered tribe were glad, and joyous birds
At my return, if absent but a day.
The cattle moored and horses whinnied "neigh!"
But in the crowded city I'm alone,
At busy marts of traffic quite unknown,
No solitude is like a rowded street,
Where walls re-echo to the tramp of feet.

My faithful dog and cat and cooing doves,
That taught me lessons of paternal love,
Watched till the twilight round my cottage gate
For my return, where anxious children wait,
But mortals here may die and turn to dust,
As every one—sooner or later—must,
Unknown, unmissed, whatever may be his lot,
Unmourned, untombd, unwept and soon forgot.

Restore the spots that my young manhood knew
The rural sounds and scenes I loved to view:
Give back the babbling brook, the pond, the cove,
The old wild woods, the greens, and whispering groves.

Familiar friends and neighbors true and kind,
(For in the city these we seldom find)
And requiem of zephyrs, soft and low,
I ask no other paradise below.

Then when I come to stretch me for the last
Beneath the casket lid, and all is past,
How cheering is the thought that round my grave
Shall gleeful children play, and tall grass wave
Above my sleeping dust. That every spring
The birds shall teach their feedings here to sing
And age and youth shall pause and drop a tear,
O'er ashes once by throbbing hearts held dear.

Trouble Over Weyler's Appointment.

MADRID, Oct. 22.—Senor Silvea, the premier, had an audience with the queen regent yesterday and formally announced the resignations of Senor Gasset, minister of agriculture, and Senor Dato, minister of the interior, together with the resignations of the high officials in their departments, as a protest against the appointment of General Weyler as captain general of Madrid. The cabinet council which followed disclosed serious differences between the members of the ministry, and the premier decided to place the question of confidence in the cabinet before the queen regent. At 7 o'clock last evening Senor Silvea went to the palace to tender the resignation of the entire cabinet. Subsequently the queen regent received General Azcarraga, president of the senate, whom she instructed with the formation of a new ministry.

Store Reception.

The Empire State Housefurnishing company held its first reception last Saturday evening. A fine musical program was rendered, a large number of people were present, and everybody seemed to have a good time. The management expresses its willingness to hold these receptions as long as people approve of them.

The Empire State Housefurnishing company (not incorporated) succeeded the Bool company, on May 15th last. Julius M. Clapp, the sole proprietor, was for a long term of years engaged in the manufacturing and importing of laces and trimmings, with a factory at Nottingham, England, and main office and storerooms in Boston. He has been in the furniture, carpet and general housefurnishing business for a number of years, having been vice president of the New England Furniture & Carpet company of Minneapolis, the largest establishment of the kind in the Northwest, and also interested in the Bay State Carpet and Furniture company of Boston, Mass.

Mr. Clapp withdrew from active business in 1894, and for five years resided in Northfield, Mass., that his children might be in the Northfield Seminary and Mt. Hermon Boys' school.

At the expiration of the five year period, the time which he had allowed himself, he found that his children were ready for college, and preferring the Eastern institutions he came to Ithaca, his chief purpose being the educating of his children, and the privilege of having them all with him until the very youngest is graduated. He purchased the housefurnishing business to give himself occupation, and it is fair to presume that he is capable of supplying the needs of the citizens of Ithaca and the surrounding towns with the right kind of housefurnishings, at the right kind of prices and give the right kind of service.

The old Bool company long enjoyed an enviable reputation for honorable dealing, and has been known far and near as desirable a place to buy furnishings, whether for the home or for the office, church or public institution, as can be found in any part of the State.

The premises occupied are at 209 and 211 East State street, and run through to Tioga street, giving an "L" shape to the store; the main store being 35 feet on State street, running back 140 feet, and 36 feet on Tioga street, running back 65 feet, joining on the main store.

The premises were recently entirely refitted with hard wood floors, metal ceilings and wall coverings, steam heat, both gas and electric lighting, all modern appliances, with a new passenger elevator of the latest and most improved make, and the same situated in the very center of the store.

Mr. Clapp has been making extensive improvements, putting along his Tioga street "L" shipping rooms 65 feet in length, a covered area large enough for his teams to drive in and turn around, thus allowing goods to be always received and shipped under cover, and making other important additions and alterations.

The main store is four stories and basement, the Tioga street store three stories and basement. The entire floor space is about 26,000 feet, and Mr. Clapp has leased outside storerooms, where several thousand feet additional floor space is available.

The goods carried are furniture carpets, wall paper, drapery, shades, upholstering goods, and the thousand and one things which go to outfit homes.

Three extensive shops are carried on by the firm, where new goods are made up and repairing done. Parlor goods are made. Chairs and other furnishings are bought in carload lots, in the white, and finished on the premises.

Without doubt, the store is one of the handiest for doing business that can be found in the commonwealth, and the goods carried are of the richest, as well as the staple, grades. People come here for household goods from within a radius of one hundred miles, and while it is an established fact that there is no better point for general trading in Western New York than Ithaca, it is true that housefurnishings can be bought here as satisfactorily as any other line of goods.—Ithaca Daily News.

A sample of the Japan sweet chestnuts grown on the farm of Geo. C. Sherman of Venice can be seen at the store of H. P. Mastin, who has consented to take orders for seedlings. They are offered at very reasonable rates—one bushel for $1.00; two for $1.00. Mr. Sherman has received the present season for the first time, 5 years old, 16 quart chestnuts.

Kisses Highly Valued.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Fifty thousand dollars is the price asked for two kisses by Mrs. Antonio Filzkow of 170 East Fourth street. She has rendered a bill for that amount to Dr. Anthony Hoffman, a practicing physician at 111 Second avenue, and in part 1 of the supreme court today she will try to convince a jury that the rate of $25,000 a kiss is not too high and that the doctor ought to be made to pay it.

A Prosperous Year.

In various ways the mileage of the New York Central Railroad has been increased during the fiscal year which closed on June 30th last until the road now owns and controls more than 10,000 miles of road. The annual report which covers the operation of only 2,817 miles, shows remarkably satisfactory conditions. The increase in gross earnings over the previous year was not far short of $6,500,000. $2,000,000 of this being due to increased mileage and nearly $4,500,000 to general trade activity. The report also shows a wise disposition of this increased income and a tendency to useful economies in more than one direction. Altogether the public as well as the management of this great system, are to be congratulated upon the showing.—Dry Goods Economist, N. Y.
