NEWS OF THE STATE

EVENTS IN AND OUT OF THE EMPIRE STATE.

Paragraphs of the Week's Happenings Clipped from the Tribune's Exchanges.

Clayton H. Buell, backed by a stock company, contemplates starting a morning newspaper at Cortland.

Lieut. Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff and Col. Archie E. Baxter will speak in Auburn on the evening of Oct. 2.

Otto Kempner of Brooklyn refers to Croker and his political pals as "divvycrats." That name ought to stick.

M. H. Crosley of Truxton is erecting a hothouse to cover a quarter of an acre and will set out 25,000 ginseng plants.

Mrs. George E. Monroe of Dryden made nine entries in poultry at the State fair and won five first and four second premiums.

The dam of the reservoir of the Morrisville waterworks has been raised about two feet, increasing its capacity nearly one-fourth.

Auburn lodge, No. 431, F. and A. M., voted $25 to the Galveston sufferers at its meeting Wednesday night and the money was sent on next day.

Leander R. King, senior member of the firm of Treman, King & Co., hardware dealers at Ithaca, died on Friday—and the funeral was held on Sunday.

Miss Mordie Foote of Ira Station and Louis R. Adams of Moravia were married at the former place on Wednesday. Several from Moravia attended the wedding.

The man who laid in his winter supply of coal when it was selling at $4 a ton ought to be happy and to be able to look upon the strike with complacency.

Rev. W. H. Bawden of Port Chester has been appointed superintendent of the Southern district of the Anti-Saloon league, of which Cortland forms a part.

The New York Staats Zeitung has now declared positively and finally against Bryan; and that is one of the worst blows that Bryanism has received since the campaign opened.

The Singer-Davis case tried in Supreme court at Ithaca last week resulted in a verdict of "no cause of action." The plaintiff sued for $105 and costs. We learn that the case will be appealed.

Charles F. Whitcomb of Lake Ridge has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy. The first hearing will be held by Commissioner George S. Tarbell in Ithaca at 10 a. m., Oct. 4th. Wilson, Cobb & Ryan of Syracuse are his attorneys.

George C. Sherman of the town of Venice has 886 trees in his orchard mostly Japanese sweet chestnuts, and has many orders therefor. Mr. Sherman has developed a good business in these which will increase with the growth of the forest.

The Rev. Leonard J. Christler, rector of Calvary Episcopal church, Homer, has tendered his resignation to take effect Oct. 21st. Mr. Christler has accepted a call to St. Peters church, Auburn. It is understood his salary will be $3,000 a year.

In considering the subject of census gains, the record of Butte, Mont., should not be ignored. The census now gives the city 30,470 population, as against 10,723 in 1890, an increase of 189 per cent. That comes pretty near breaking the record in the matter of ratio of increase for the past decade.

The sixth barn to be set on fire within two weeks in the vicinity of Farmer was burned one night last week about four miles west of that village. Lewis Bodine's large grain barn, horse barn, cowshed and other outbuildings and three valuable horses were consumed. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Two of the busiest men in the United States today are William J. Bryan and Theodore Roosevelt. Neither of them proposes to be a laggard in the campaign. It requires a splendid physical constitution to withstand the strain they have been undergoing, and both of them are blessed in that respect.

John H. Stearns, a Cazenovia farmer, died in Syracuse on Monday. He had suffered from cancer of the stomach, and was being treated by Francis Barnes, a Syracuse faith curist, or so-called divine healer. Coroner Weaver of Onondaga county has made and stopping the faith cure practice in Onondaga county.

Charles Cornell and Harvey Thompson, employed on a farm in Pharsalia, engaged in a quarrel one day recently, with dire results. Each had a pitchfork and Cornell got in the first blow, which rendered Thompson unconscious and he has since died. Both are married men with families.

Arthur Hampton and Stella Ketchum of Paw Paw, Ill., were married at the Dryden fair, and received from Beard & Peck, Cortland's well known furniture firm, a $50 parlor suit as a present. After the ceremony the Dryden band favored the assemblage with the well known selection, "There'll be a hot time," etc.

Jay W. Crofoot of the Seventh Day Baptist mission at Shanghai, China, writes that he is waiting in the city "for something to turn up." The ladies connected with the mission have gone to Japan, but he and Rev. D. H. Davis remain. Mr. Crofoot is enrolled as a member of the American Rifle company of the Shanghai Volunteer corps, which numbers about 1,000 men.—Alfred Sun.

Here is what will, when become known, make an immense sale for carrots: Carrots have been regarded as a moderately useful, but not especially interesting, product of nature, but suddenly they have acquired a prominence all their own. Eaten early in the morning, they are said to have an astonishing effect on the skin, hair and eyes of the devotee. It is asserted that in six months the most faded and elderly complexion will have become fresh and youthful.

The Lackawanna railroad company has been notified by the postmaster general that twelve new railway postal clerks have been appointed for duty on that line. The additional service made possible by these appointments means another night mail between New York and Buffalo. At present, the last mail for the west out of New York postoffice leaves at 8:30 in the evening. The new Lackawanna route will take everything up to midnight, and as additional routes have been provided from Binghamton to Syracuse and Oswego, from Oswego to Ithaca and from Binghamton to Utica, Cortland will be benefited by the new order.

Charles Avery drove to town Monday from East Lansing with a load of hay that belonged to Albert Howland. He sold the hay for $17 in cash, and collected a bill of $28 from Sheriff Seaman and did not return to his employer with team or money. Tuesday he was arrested here and said that all the money was gone, he knew not where. Avery has a wife and child who do not live with him, but are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Coe, in the "Fringe." He was arraigned before the recorder that night, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny and was held to the grand jury.—Ithaca Journal.

At the residence of his son in Rome, Oneida Co., on Saturday, Sept. 19, 1900, passed away Patrick Seliney, one of Aurora's well known citizens. The body was brought to Aurora and buried Monday with Masonic honors. Peter Fort, an eccentric character, brought Mr. Seliney to Aurora many years ago, as a combined valet and butler. Wishing a more independent career, Mr. Seliney opened a little cabinet shop. He was noted throughout the village for his gentlemanly manner and kind, open heart. The old Wells girls cannot say enough of his generosity, for he continually showered upon them offerings of grapes and apples drawn from the supply of fruit he always kept on hand in his store, says a writer in the Wells College Cardinal, from which we glean our facts. It was not until after his marriage that Mr. Seliney mastered the arts of reading and writing. The little home where he lived with his wife had been the first "Morgan's store" before referred to. Of the erection of a new store, the former building had been moved from beside the ravine, and set up across the street at a short distance to the south. After its occupation by the kindly furniture dealer it was always known as the "Seliney house." It is standing today, an oblong, yellow structure, remarkable in winter for large storm doors of verdant hue, which enclosed nearly the whole porch, and have something the effect of window blinds. Two years or more ago Mr. Seliney closed out his business in Aurora and went to Rome to pass the remainder of his life with his son.

An escort of the most citizens of Aurora attended the funeral of Mr. Seliney at the residence of his son in Rome, Oneida Co., on Saturday, Sept. 19, 1900.

The Happenings of the Week in Our Sister Villages.—Newspaper Correspondence.

Venice Center---West Hill.

SEPT. 24—The extreme and sudden changes of weather cause much sickness and remind us that winter (which we dread) is fast approaching.

A ride to Auburn on Saturday revealed the great changes of half a century. We well remember the "loveliest village" as a school girl when it numbered only 5,000, and we have lived to see it expand to some 30,000. Then we knew every street and almost every house. Now like a strange city.

A letter from Ohio states: "We felt the effects of the Galveston storm sensibly; wind was terrific. Ground covered with our winter apples." The same storm was felt on the Atlantic. A returning tourist says, "Expected every moment the ship to go down."

The proprietor of a fashionable boarding house says: "Americans are beginning to realize the excellence of corn as food. Why, we serve Johnny cake once a week and other corn dishes quite as often." Farmers fare is now to the front.

It is sometimes difficult to obtain new can rubbers, after the old ones have "expanded." Cut the old rubber apart, shave the ends with a sharp knife on opposite sides to one-half their thickness; warm them over a lamp, then press and hammer them together.

WEDDING BELLS.

A joyful event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Landon near Poplar Ridge on Wednesday, Sept. 26, when Miss Olive Frost Landon and Mr. Roy Shaw Holland were united in marriage. The house was handsomely decorated with ferns and out flowers, asters predominating. Precisely at the appointed hour, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bridal party entered the parlor. Rev. M. Terwilliger performed the impressive ring ceremony, which united these popular young people for life. Miss Mary Landon acted as maid of honor and Mr. Dix Rowland of Syracuse as best man. About thirty-five immediate relatives and friends were present. Following the ceremony the company were served to an elegant collation, which showed the genial hospitality of host and hostess and the rare culinary qualifications of the bride. The young couple are very popular in social and church life. They are members of the M. E. church at Ledyard, where the bride has been organist for eleven years. The presents were elegant as well as useful. Mr. and Mrs. Holland left for Auburn where they took the train for Iowa City and other points in the West. The guests from out of town were Dr. William Frost of Moravia, Miss Gertrude Ely of Geneva and Mr. Dix Rowland of Syracuse.

MARSHALL—MASON—At the Presbyterian parsonage in King Ferry, N. Y., on Wednesday, Sept. 26, 1900, by Rev. W. C. Brass, William Marshall of Genoa and Mary Mason of Ledyard.

Wells college at Aurora which opened Thursday is unusually full this year, there being 127 students enrolled. As there is not room in the main building for such a large number, Glen Park, Henry Wells' old residence, has been leased for this year. The house has been refurnished and redecorated, and electric lights have been put in. Prof. J. W. Freley, the head of the scientific department, is acting president, as there has been no new president appointed since Dr. Waters' resignation in the spring. The improvements made during the summer are the new dock, given by H. A. Morgan to the Boat club, and an addition to the stage in Music

The completed Stadium for the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo next year will offer to the lovers of sports the most spacious and splendid arena ever erected in America. The Athletic Carnival to be held during the great Exposition will be the most notable in the history of American sport. The co-operation of many of the best promoters of athletic games and contests has been secured. Visitors to the Pan-American Exposition may therefore expect to witness the meeting of the most famous athletes of the world, in competition for prizes worthy of their best feats of endurance, strength and skill.

It is said that the great Colosseum at Rome, built in the first century of the Christian Era, could accommodate 87,000 spectators. The Pan-American Stadium will be 129 feet longer and but ten feet narrower than the historic amphitheater of Rome. The Stadium, however, will have a larger arena, and the seating capacity is estimated for 25,000 people. The top row of seats will be sixty feet above the ground, and every seat will command a perfect view of the vast interior. Standards are to be placed at various points for the support of awnings in such a way that they will not obstruct the view from the other seats.

The Stadium will have a quarter-mile track and a sufficiently large space inside of this for any of the athletic games. Great attention has been paid to having a large number of aisles to reach the seats, and, in addition to the principal entrance on the west, there are provided seven large exits. These exits are made of sufficient breadth and height to admit, in case of need, the largest vehicles or floats, as it is proposed to use the Stadium for certain pageants, exhibits of automobiles in operation, judging of live stock, horses, agricultural machinery, road machinery, etc. No exhibitor has ever had such a splendid arena in which such exhibits could be displayed. The space under the seats is to be used for exhibition purposes, and is in itself the equivalent of a very large building.

A large and picturesque building forms the main entrance to the Stadium. This is 241 feet long by 52 feet wide, with towers 164 feet high. The style is in conformity with that of the other buildings, with an arched effect in the lower story, red tiled roof, broad eaves and bright colors. The old Spanish towers give a finished beauty to the structure and make it one of the most prominent features of the Exposition.

The Stadium resembles in a general way that erected at Athens a few years ago, although this one can be, of course, only a temporary structure. It is intended as a model of what it is hoped may be executed some day in permanent form.

The Stadium will cover ten acres of ground and its situation is on the east side of the Plaza, opposite the Midway. It is near the great entrances from the steam and trolley railway station, at the extreme north end of the Exposition grounds.

SPIRITUAL VALUES.

Dr. Talmage Urges a Higher Appreciation of Things Religious.

Earthly and Heavenly Riches Compared—The Inestimable Value of a Human Soul—Christ's Vicarious Sacrifice.

[Copyright, 1900, by Louis Klopsch.]
Washington, Aug. 19.

From Berlin, where he preached in the American church to a great congregation, comprising many of his countrymen who are traveling through Europe, Dr. Talmage sends this discourse, in which, by original methods, he calculates spiritual values and urges higher appreciation of things religious. The text is Mark 8:36: "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Men of all occupations are to be found in the assemblies of the house of God, but in these days of extensive business operations a large proportion are engaged from Monday morning to Saturday night in bargain making. In many of the families across the breakfast table and the tea table are discussed questions of loss and gain. You are every day asking yourself: "What is the value of this? What is the value of that?" You would not think of giving something of greater value for that which is of lesser value. You would not think of selling that which cost you ten dollars for five dollars. If you had a property that was worth $15,000, you would not sell it for $4,000. You are intelligent in all matters of bargain making. Are you as wise in the things that pertain to the matters of the soul? Christ adapted His instructions to the circumstances of those to whom He spoke. When He talked to fishermen, He spoke of the Gospel net. When He talked to the farmers, He said: "A sower went forth to sow." When He talked to the shepherds, He told the parable of the lost sheep. And am I not right, when speaking to an audience made up of bargain makers, that I address them in the words of my text, asking: "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

I propose, as far as possible, to estimate and compare the value of the two properties.

First, I have to say that the world is a very grand property. Its flowers are God's thoughts in bloom; its rocks are God's thoughts in stone; its dew-drops are God's thoughts in pearl. This world is God's child—a wayward child, indeed. It has wandered off through the heavens. But about 1,900 years ago, one Christmas night, God sent out a sister world to call that wanderer back, and it hung over Bethlehem only long enough to get the promise of the wanderer's return, and now that lost world, with soft feet of light, comes treading back through the heavens. The hills—how beautiful they billow up the edge of the wave white with the foam of crocuses! How beautiful the rainbow, the arched bridge on which heaven and earth come and talk to each other in tears after the storm is over! How fire! How bright the oar of the saffron cloud that rows across the deep sea of heaven! How beautiful the spring, with bridal blossoms in her hair! I wonder who it is that beats time on a June morning for the bird orchestra? How gently the harebell tolls its fragrance on the air! There may be grander worlds, swarther worlds, larger worlds, than this, but I think that this is a most exquisite world, a mignonette on the bosom of immensity. "Oh," you say, "take my soul! Give me that world! I am willing to take it in exchange. I am ready now for the bargain. It is so beautiful a world, so sweet a world, so grand a world!"

But let us look more minutely into the value of this world. You will not buy property unless you can get a good title to it. After you have looked at the property and found out that it suits you, you send an attorney to the public office, and he examines the book of deeds and the book of mortgages and the book of judgments and the book of liens, and he decides whether the title is good before you will have anything to do with it. There might be a splendid property, and in every way exactly suited to your want, but if you cannot get a good title you will not take it. Now, I am here to say that it is impossible to get a good title to this world. If I settle down upon it, in the very year I so settle down upon it as a permanent possession, I may be driven away from it. Aye, in five minutes after I give up my soul for the world, I may have to part with the world, and what kind of a title do you call that? There is only one way in which I can hold an earthly possession, and that is through the senses. All beautiful sights through the eye, but the eye may be blotted out; all captivating sounds through the ear, but my ear may be deafened; all lusciousness of fruits and viands through my taste, but my taste may be destroyed; all appreciation of culture and of art through my mind, but I may lose my mind. What a frail hold, then, I have upon any earthly possession!

In courts of law, if you want to get a man off a property, you must serve upon him a writ of ejectment, giving him a certain time to vacate the premises, but when Death comes to us and serves a writ of ejectment, he does not give us one second of forewarning. He says: "Off of this place! You have no right any longer to the possession." We might cry out: "I gave you a hundred thousand dollars for that property;" the plea would be of no avail. We might say: "We have a warrant deed for that property;" the plea would be of no avail. We might say: "We have a lien on that storehouse;" that would do us no good. Death is blind, and he cannot see a seal and cannot read an indenture. So that, first and last, I want to tell you that when you propose that I give up my soul for the world you cannot give me the first item of title.

Having examined the title of a property, your next question is about insurance. You would not be silly enough to buy a large warehouse that could not possibly be insured. You would not have anything to do with such a property. Now, I ask you what assurance can you give me that this world is not going to be burned up? Absolutely none. Geologists tell us that it is already on fire; that on fire at sea, the flames not bursting out because the hatches are kept down. And yet you propose to palm off on me, in return for my soul, a world for which, in the first place, you give no title, in the second place, for which you can give no insurance. "Oh," you say, "the water of the oceans will wash over all the land and put out the fire." Oh, no. There are inflammable elements in the water, hydrogen and oxygen. Call off the hydrogen, and then the Atlantic and Pacific oceans would blaze like heaps of shavings. You want me to take this world, for which you can give no possible insurance.

Here is a man who has had a large estate for 40 or 50 years. He lies down to die. You say: "That man is worth millions and millions of dollars." Is he? You call up a surveyor, with his compass and chains, and you say: "There is a property extending three miles in one direction and three miles in another direction." Is that the way to measure that man's property? No! You do not want any surveyor, with compass and chains. That is not the way to measure that man's property now. It is an undertaker you need, who will come and put his finger in his vest pocket and take out a tape-line, and he will measure five feet nine inches one way and 2½ feet the other way. That is the man's property. Oh, no; I forgot; not so much as that, for he does not own even the place in which he lies in the cemetery. The deed to that belongs to the executors and heirs. Oh, what a property you propose to give me for my soul! If you sell a bill of goods you go into the counting-room and say to your partner: "Do you think that man is good for this bill? Can he give proper security? Will he meet this payment?" Now, when you are offered this world as a possession I want you to test the matter. I do not want you to go into this bargain blindly. I want you to ask about the title, about the insurance, about whether men have ever had any trouble with it, about whether you can get all or the ten-thousandth part or one hundred-thousandth part of it.

There is the world now. I shall say no more about it. Make up your mind for yourself, as I shall before God have to make up my mind for myself about the value of this world. I cannot afford to make a mistake for my soul, and you cannot afford to make a mistake for your soul.

Now let us look at the other property—the soul. We cannot make a bargain without seeing the comparative value. The soul! How shall I estimate the value of it? Well, by its exquisite organization. It is the most wonderful piece of mechanism ever put together. Machinery is of value in proportion as it is mighty and silent at the same time. You look at the engine and the machinery in the Philadelphia mint, and as you see it performing its wonderful work you will be surprised to find how silently it goes. Machinery that roars and tears soon destroys itself; but silent machinery is often most effective. Now, so it is with the soul of man, with all its tremendous faculties; it moves in silence. Judgment, without any racket, lifting its scales; memory, without any noise, bringing down all its treasures; conscience taking its judgment seat without a sound; the understanding doing their work—might, but silence,

I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that all who suffer as I have may use it." Sold by J. S. Banker.

THE STRIKE GROWING

More Men Go Out In the Anthracite Region.

NO DISTURBANCES ARE REPORTED.

President Mitchell Directing the Great Fight Against Operators.
Governor Stone Urged to Settle the Trouble.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 25.—Contrary to the expectations of both the operators and the striking coal miners there were no developments in the strike situation in the Lehigh region yesterday. It was thought in some quarters that owing to the presence of troops in the anthracite field a break would occur in the ranks of the strikers or that a large number of additional men would refrain from going to work. The operators, as a rule, predicted a break in the strikers' ranks
and the labor leaders were equally sure they would tie up this region's tightest
than ever.

Both sides claim they have made good gains. It seems, however, from the most reliable reports received here from the entire region that the strikers made a net gain in point of numbers. The M.
S. Kemmerer colliery at Sandy Run, on the north side, was tied up, but the operation is not a large one.

There are many stories afloat in regard to the situation at the Lattimer mines. The strike leaders assert that the colliery at that place is completely tied up, but when a representative of the Calvin Pardee company, which owns the mines, was asked about the situation
there he said the colliery was running along as usual and that only about 50
out of 1,100 employees had failed to go into the slopes yesterday. The United Mine Workers have been working hard to get the Lattimer men to quit. The most of the other collieries in the Hazleton district which have not yet been shut down entirely reported that their working forces had been more or less increased. This the labor people declare to be untrue.

President Mitchell, in discussing the situation in the entire strike region, says:
"Reports received by me from the lower anthracite (Schuylkill) region indicate that at least 2,000 mine workers joined the strikers yesterday. A large number of these came from the Reading company's mines. In the Lehigh region we made large gains. I have not received definite figures, but I should judge that the number of men heretofore working and who did not go into the mines in this district yesterday numbered between 600 and 900."

"The meetings held on Sunday by the United Mine Workers at which men who had not struck were strongly urged to help in the fight bore fruit. As a whole I feel more encouraged than I have at any time since the strike began, and I am confident that within the next few days
the entire anthracite coalfield in Pennsylv-
vania will be idle."

There is not the slightest change in the situation in regard to a settlement of the labor war. Neither side has approached the other, and there is nothing in view which would indicate that anything will soon be done in that direction.
The United Mine Workers are still devoting most of their attention to getting out the men.

TWO VIEWS OF THE STRIKE,

Operators and Miners Make Confident and Hopeful Statements.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 25.—The coal operators in their review of the strike situation in the anthracite region
say:
"The situation in the Wyoming and Lackawanna valleys is unchanged. In the Schuylkill region the presence of the militia is a novelty for the populace which retarded work somewhat. As soon as the excitement incident to the arrival of the troops dies out a general resumption of operations is expected. An increased output is also looked for in the Lehigh region today."

The United Mine Workers of this district have issued the following statement:

"The eighth day of the strike shows the men in the Wyoming region to be more united than ever. All the mines in the district were idle yesterday, and three washeries which were in operation the greater part of last week were not in operation.

"Our men are quiet and orderly and gaining accessions to their ranks every day. A new assembly of United Mine Workers was organized at Pittston. The men in that section are thoroughly organized now. The miners of Ashley are also well organized. On the whole the situation is very encouraging."

Collieries to Be Closed.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Sept. 25.—Three hundred mules were taken from the Reliance and Alaska mines of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company yesterday and sent to the Schuylkill county corral. The company gave notice to 2,500 men and boys employed at the operations previous to the strike that unless they returned to work by Saturday the collieries would be abandoned for a lengthy period. The strikers claim the order was given out with the view of scaring them into the mines before the termination of the strike. They say they will remain idle regardless of the order.

At North Franklin colliery, near Trevorton, last night several hundred miners took out their tools owing to a carload of deputies arriving from Schuylkill county early yesterday morning. The strike leaders claim the mine will be tied up, and in such an event the mine workers are confident Locust Spring colliery will also cease work. Then all the mines between Trevorton, this place and Centralia, giving employment to 15,000 men and boys
will be idle.

Trouble Expected at the Washeries
SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 25.—The dem-

the mine was to be started up had the effect of scaring away a squad of Italians
who were on their way to the washery which adjoins the mine, and encouraged by this the strikers are contemplating similar demonstrations at all of the eight washeries that continue to operate in this region. If this is done, trouble can be looked for, as the companies have declared they will work the washeries at any cost. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company sent special trolley cars to collect its Bellevue washery hands this morning, and these cars were guarded by armed deputies. Soft coal is coming into Scranton in large quantities

WAGE SCALE SIGNED.

Iron and Steel Mills to Resume Operations.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 24.—The conference committees of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers and of the manufacturers after an all night
conference signed the wage scale that will be effective until July, 1901.

It is what is known as the yearly
scale, which takes effect usually in July.
Owing to the unusual fluctuations of the market the new scale had not been signed when the mills shut down June 30, and the conditions have been unfavorable ever since June, so that the mills
have been idle for almost three months.
As soon as the scale was signed messages were sent in every direction before the conferees breakfasted. Some mills started this morning, and all others will resume as soon as possible. This decision means employment to over 60,
000 workmen who have been idle since June.

The reasons for the delay in adjusting
the wage scale as well as for the frequent prolonged conferences are found in the slump in the market and the fluctuations during the past year from the highest to the lowest price. The workers wanted $5 per ton, based on 1 4-10
card rate. The manufacturers offered $4.50 per ton on a 1 cent card rate for boiling, and the differences were in about the same proportion in other lines.

ROME'S ANNIVERSARY.

Thirtieth Year of the City's "Deliverance" Celebrated in Italy.

ROME, Sept. 21.—The thirtieth anniversary of the deliverance of Rome was celebrated yesterday throughout Italy.
Everywhere shops were closed and houses and public buildings hung with flags.

In spite of the rainy weather the capital was crowded with enthusiastic visitors to witness the municipality proceed to the Pantheon and place wreaths upon the tombs of Victor Emmanuel II and Humbert I.

The procession then moved to the Porta Pia, where stands the memorial to the Italian soldiers who fell in breaching the walls during the attack on Sept. 20, 1870. Here the mayor read a dispatch from King Victor Emmanuel III.

Later in the day a delegation of officials of the ministry of marine went to the capitol to present to the municipality
the flag of the Italian warship Roma,
which covered the coffin of King Humbert during the funeral ceremony.

Mammoth Fossil Remains Found.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Elmer S. Riggs, assistant curator of the Field Columbian
museum, has returned home from his fossil hunting trip in western Colorado, during which he found the fossil remains of the largest animal which ever lived on this earth, according to all scientific records. The scientific name of the animal is Brontosaurus excelsis, and it is commonly called a dinosaur. The specimen of which Professor Riggs found a part was, according to scientific calculations,
about 75 feet long and 20 or 21 feet high.
The next largest specimen of this creature ever discovered was estimated to be 65 feet long and 18 feet in height.

Many Damaged Vessels.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Sept. 24.—Damaged vessels continue to make this port from the Grand Banks. One reports a collision between two French fishing
schooners during the gale, carrying away
the masts of both. They were driven out of sight, and it is feared that they foundered, which would represent a loss of about 40 lives. The crew of the schooner Kestrel has made land. The ship rode out the gale, but was so leaky that she sunk while endeavoring to make the land, the men making shore in boats.

Muskrat Stops Mills.

LACONIA, N. H., Sept. 25.—The bursting of a side head to the flume supplying water for the wheel pits of the Belknap Mills company here has thrown 235 employees out of work and caused damage to the mill in the displacement
of stone and brick masonry to the extent of $10,000. A muskrat, by digging up through the embankment near the side
head of the flume caused a small flow
of water at the wheel pits to wash away
the masonry. It will be necessary to repair the dam.

CANDIDATE ODELL in a letter to the president of the Merchant's Association of New York City, takes a definite position respecting the Ramapo question, and strongly reiterates the pledge made in a recent speech that he will give his active and cordial support to "any remedial legislation" which may be necessary to enable New York City to own and control its water supply. He defines explicitly his understanding of "remedial legislation," to the effect that the rights of the city are paramount to all other individual or corporate rights not municipal. His attitude on this question of vast importance to New York city is definite and will be satisfactory to those who have feared that Mr. Odell's relations to Mr. Platt and others would lead him to a devious course regarding it. Now that the attitude of the two men from whom a Governor is to be chosen is explicitly defined, the next thing is to be sure of a Legislature that will give force to this admirable condition.

JUST BEFORE his nomination for the Governorship J. B. Stanchfield was charged with having said in an address to a jury at Corning that he had "rather see his golden-haired boy dead than the associate of organized labor." Since his nomination the story has been repeated with a view to injuring him with organized labor. Mr. Stanchfield now makes this statement for the press:

This was a lie pure and simple, circulated by a personal enemy to work me injury. What I did say was: "I had rather see a child of mine dead than the associate of such men as are trying to swear away the defendant's life."

Mr. Stanchfield further declares his entire public record is a refutation of the charge that he is hostile to organized labor. However, we notice that labor unions in several cities are reported as refusing to endorse Mr. Stanchfield's candidacy.

THIS IS THE time of year when the party organ invariably describes the mass meeting held by the opposite party as a "frost."

IF BRYAN should be elected, Richard Croker has certainly earned the right to be considered one of the big men of the administration.

—The base-ball season in Genoa has closed and the Auburn boys have returned home. The team finds itself considerably in debt and there is apparently no way out of it. The last game was played at Farmer on Saturday last, and The Review announced it as follows: "The hardest contest of the season is expected this Saturday afternoon when the famous Genoa team cross bats with the Y. M. C. A. Every team that has tackled Genoa this year has been beaten. Our boys have strengthened every weak point and hope to send Genoa home with their flag at half mast. As the Genoa team must cross the lake before dark the game will be called at 2:30 sharp. Don't miss it." The Genoa boys won the game, 17 to 1, thus finishing the season in the same fast style as they begun. Two games scheduled at Moravia this week were cancelled.

—Here is some good advice clipped from one of our exchanges: "If you would increase your happiness and prolong your life, forget your neighbors' faults. Forget the slander you have ever heard. Forget the temptations. Forget the fault-finding and give a little thought to the cause which provoked it. Forget the peculiarities of your friends, and only remember the good points which make you fond of them. Forget all personal quarrels or histories you may have heard by accident, and which, if repeated, would seem a thousand times worse than they are. Blot out as far as possible all the disagreeables of life; they will grow larger when you remember them; and the constant thought of the acts of meanness, or, worse still, malice, will only tend to make you familiar with them. Obliterate everything disagreeable from yesterday; start out with a clean sheet for today, and write upon it for sweet memory's sake, only those things which are lovely and lovable."

heart. You can hear no sound. The soul is quiet. It is so delicate an instrument that no human hand can touch it. You break a bone, and with splinters and bandages the surgeon sets it; the eye becomes inflamed, the apothecary's wash cools it; but a soul off the track, unbalanced, no human power can readjust it. With one sweep of its wing it encircles the universe and overvaults the throne of God. Why, in the hour of death the soul is so mighty it throws aside the body as though it were a toy. It drives back medical skill as impotent. It breaks through the circle of loved ones who stand around the dying couch. With one leap it springs beyond star and moon and sun and chasms of immensity. It is superior to all material things! No fire can consume it; no floods can drown it; no rocks can crush it; no walls can impede it; no time can exhaust it. It wants no bridge on which to cross a chasm. It wants no plummet with which to sound a depth. A soul so mighty, so swift, so silent, must be a priceless soul.

I calculate the value of the soul also by its capacity for happiness. How much joy it can get in this world out of friendships, out of books, out of clouds, out of the sea, out of flowers, out of ten thousand things, and yet all the joy it has here does not test its capacity. You are in a concert before the curtain hoists, and you hear the instruments preparing—the sharp snap of the broken string, the scraping of the bow across the viol. "There is no music in that," you say. It is only getting ready for the music. And all the enjoyment of the soul in this world, the enjoyment we think is real enjoyment is only preparative.

You cannot test the full power of the soul for happiness in this world. How much power the soul has here to find enjoyment in friendships; but, oh, the grander friendships for the soul in the skies! How sweet the flowers here, but how much sweeter they will be there! I do not think that when flowers die on earth they die forever. In the sunny valleys of Heaven shall not the marigold creep? On the hills of Heaven will not the amaranth bloom? On the amethystine walls of Heaven will not the jasmine climb? "My beloved is come down into his garden to gather lilies." No flowers in Heaven? Where, then, do they get their garlands for the brows of the righteous?

Christ is glorious to our souls now, but how much grander our appreciation after awhile! A conqueror comes back after the battle. He has been fighting for us. He comes upon the platform. He has one arm in a sling, and the other arm holds a crutch. As he mounts the platform, oh, the enthusiasm of the audience! They say: "That man fought for us and imperiled his life for us," and how wild the huzza that follows huzza! When the Lord Jesus Christ shall at last stand out before the multitudes of the redeemed of Heaven and we meet Him face to face and feel that He was wounded in the head and wounded in the hands and wounded in the feet and wounded in the side for us, methinks we will be overwhelmed. We will sit some time gazing in silence until some leader amid the white-robed choir shall lift the baton of light and give the signal that it is time to wake the song of jubilee, and all Heaven then will break forth into "Hosanna, hosanna! Worthy is the Lamb that was slain."

I calculate further the value of the soul by the price that has been paid for it. In St. Petersburg there is a diamond that the government paid $200,000 for. "Well," you say, "it must have been very valuable or the government would not have paid $200,000 for it." I want to see what my soul is worth and what your soul is worth by seeing what has been paid for it. For that immortal soul the richest blood that was ever shed, the deepest groan that was ever uttered, all the griefs of earth compressed into one tear, all the sufferings of earth gathered into one rapier of pain and struck through His holy heart. Does it not imply tremendous value?

I argue also the value of the soul from the home that has been fitted up for it in the future. One would have thought that a street of adamant would have done. No; it is a street of gold. One would have thought that a wall of granite would have done. No; it is the flame of sardonyx mingling with the green of emerald. One would have thought that an occasional doxology would have done. No; it is a perpetual song. If the ages of Heaven marched in a straight line, some day the last regiment, perhaps, might pass out of sight; but, no, the ages of Heaven do not march in a straight line, but in a circle around about the throne of God. Forever, forever, tramp, tramp! A soul so bought, so equipped, so provided for, must be a priceless soul, a majestic soul, a tremendous soul.

I was reading lately of a sailor who had just got ashore and was telling about his last experience at sea. He said: "The last time I crossed the ocean we had a terrific time. After we had been out three or four days the machinery got disarranged, and the steam began to escape, and the captain, gathering the people and the crew on deck, said: 'Unless some one will go down and shut off that steam and arrange that machinery at the down himself. No one seemed willing to go. The passengers gathered at one end of the steamer waiting for their fate. The captain said: 'I give you a last warning. If there is no one here willing to imperil his life and go down and fix that machinery we must all be lost.' A plain sailor said: 'I'll go, sir,' and he wrapped himself in a coarse piece of canvas and went down and was gone but a few moments when the escaping steam stopped and the machinery was adjusted. The captain cried to the passengers: 'All saved! Let us go down below and see what has become of the poor fellow.' They went down. There he lay dead." Vicarious suffering! Died for all! Oh, do you suppose that those people on the ship ever forgot, ever can forget, that poor fellow? "No," they say; "it was through his sacrifice that I got ashore." The time came when our whole race must die unless some one should endure torture and sorrow and shame. Who shall come to the rescue? Shall it be one of the seraphim? Not one. Shall it be one of the cherubim? Not one. Shall it be an inhabitant of some pure and unfallen world? Not one. Then Christ said: 'Lo, I come to do thy will, O God,' and He went down the dark stairs of our sin and wretchedness and misery and woe, and He stopped the peril, and He died that you and I might be free. Oh, the love; oh, the endurance; oh, the horrors of the sacrifice! Shall not our souls go out toward Him, saying: "Lord Jesus Christ, take my soul. Thou art worthy to have it. Thou hast died to save it?"

God help you rightly to cipher out this sum in Gospel arithmetic: "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

The Best Clothing in America at a Savings of From 20 to 40 Per Cent.

We are manufacturers of fine clothing. We cannot make cheap made clothing, consequently our cheapest suit is as well made as our finest. At no other store in Auburn is this true. If you buy a cheap suit in other stores it is cheaply made; if a medium priced suit, it is cheaply or fairly well made; if you buy a fine suit there you take chances of its being cheaply or fairly well made. Better buy that suit or overcoat here and take no chances. For every garment in this store is better made than you will find in any other stores at any price.

Men's Fall Suits.

Our showing is most complete, newest fabrics from famous looms, correct styles sanctioned by fashion leaders and superior tailored garments in every instance.

TEXAS FLOOD SWEPT

Rivers Rise to Record Breaking Heights.

GOVERNOR SAYERS ISSUES WARNING

Hundreds Homeless, Crops Destroyed and Bridges Washed Away in the Colorado and Brazos Valleys.

AUSTIN, Sept. 25.—Governor Sayers has wired to all points south of here warning notices that the most terrific flood in the history of the Colorado river, which flows by this city, is now surging down through the mountain gorges to the northwest of here and is expected momentarily at this place. The warning was sent out by Governor Sayers in response to the following telegraphic warning from Representative Clements: "Notify all towns on Colorado river and have towns notify country points that river is ten feet higher than ever before known and is still rapidly rising. Very urgent."

The river has been rising very rapidly at Austin since 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and reports from Goldthwaite say the water is still rising there. The water at that point was reported to be 58 feet at dark. Along the Colorado watershed very heavy rains have fallen during the past four days, and the rise reported coming down now is 20 feet higher than the one that broke the Austin dam and wrecked the city's light and power plant last April. It is expected that the advance of this great rise will sweep by Austin about midnight, and all parties in the lowlands to the south of the city and all points reached by either telegraph or telephone were communicated with by the governor with the warning to escape before the flood arrives. Great alarm is felt as to the result of the rise.

Governor Sayers left here last night for Galveston to inspect the work being done there by the various relief committees.

The Flood at Dallas.

DALLAS, Sept. 25.—The Trinity river is higher than it has been since 1890, when it broke all records. The water lacks only six feet of reaching the 1890 mark and is still rising. Owing to the heavy rains Monday night on the Elm Fork, the West Fork and the Clear Fork, all of them emptying into the Trinity river above Dallas, all are past the 1890 mark. No lives have been lost in the immediate vicinity of Dallas, but cotton and live stock, notably sheep and hogs, have suffered heavily. The county commissioners of Dallas county estimate the loss in the county at $25,000 independent of the numerous small bridges and the street damages in the city of Dallas, which will be nearly as much. The item of damage to roads and bridges alone in the dozen or more counties affected in northern Texas will be about $250,000.

Hundreds of Families Homeless.

HOUSTON, Sept. 25.—A special from Goldthwaite says there has been no loss of life, but that the rise in the Colorado has swept all bridges away and destroyed cattle and crops. Many houses have been destroyed, and 100 families are homeless, though they escaped to the highlands. A special from Llano says Llano river, a tributary of the Colorado, is 17 feet above normal and has done much damage in the valleys. No loss of life has been reported.

State Buys Adirondack Land.

ALBANY, Sept. 25.—At a meeting held yesterday the state forest preserve board purchased of William Harris the timber lands on the shore of Sacandaga lake, which was formerly Round lake and which lies close to Lake Placid. The tract is heavily covered with thick, large timber growing near the water, being mainly spruce and hemlock. The transaction with Harris included 10,000 acres in all and included also timber lands around Silver lake, in Benson township. The state pays for the lands $6.50 per acre. The board also purchased three lots of 1,900 acres in the Lawrence patent, which enables the state to consolidate its lands on that part of the Hudson river watershed in Hamilton county. The board also bought of William MeEchron of Glens Falls 4,000 acres, the northeastern quarter of the township near Blue Mountain lake. The price was $10,000.

Strike Closes Rolling Mills.

COLUMBIA, Pa., Sept. 25.—The four big rolling mills of the Susquehanna Iron and Steel company at this place are closed down as the result of a strike. Last week it was announced that a 25 per cent reduction in wages would go into effect yesterday, and the men notified the management they would not accept the cut. The company remained firm, and not a single man reported for work at any of the four mills. About 1,500 workmen are affected.

Good News For Steel Workers.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 25.—Orders have been issued from the general offices of the American Steel Hoop company in this city to begin operations at all the plants that are in readiness to be started and to prepare the others for resumption as soon as notice is given. The plants to be started are in Pittsburgh, Youngstown, O.; Pomeroy, O.; Monesson, Pa.; Sharon, Pa.; and Greenville, Pa., and employ 8,000 men.

Life Endangered by Heavy Rains.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 22.—The extraordinary rainfall in northern India has not ceased for four days. Half the city of Calcutta is submerged, and even in the northern part the streets are flooded to a depth of three feet. Many houses have collapsed. Thus far there has been but little loss of life, although, as the rain continues very heavy, there is considerable apprehension.

national convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen adjourned last evening to meet in 1902 at Chattanooga. About the only business of importance done was the voting of additional benefits to disabled members, the final aggregate being $54,000. No change was made in the location of headquarters.

Forty Passengers Drowned.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—A dispatch from Athens to Lloyd's giving further details of the disaster to the Egyptian mail steamer, Charkieh, now ashore on the island of Andros, one of the Cyclades, says that 40 of the passengers were drowned.

A DEMAND FOR CURRENCY.

Moving the Crops Causes a Pressure on the National Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The pressure for currency for moving the crops is beginning to be felt. The issues of gold certificates by the treasury at various points in the south and west in exchange for deposits of gold in the New York treasury by banks on behalf of their country correspondents are already $1,000,000 more than at the same time last year. These exchanges have reached $4,945,000, of which all but $400,000 have been in September. New Orleans has taken $3,795,000 in the new gold certificates, St. Louis $750,000 and Chicago $400,000. These are not the only exchanges being made in New York and Washington in order to get currency into the country districts. A shipment of $100,000 in small silver certificates has just been made to St. Louis in return for an equal amount of gold coin surrendered to the New York treasury. Gold certificates also are being received at New York in exchange for the payment of gold coin at New Orleans. New Orleans has received this month nearly $7,000,000 in small notes of various classes.

The treasury is refusing to issue silver certificates and other small notes at interior points in exchange for gold surrendered to the treasury at New York because the gold is not needed to strengthen the reserve. The policy of shipping notes from Washington to interior points in return for gold at New York was adopted when the gold reserve was low because the banks profited by the express rate on the currency in one direction and often directed their New York agents to deposit the gold in order to obtain this benefit.

A severe pressure for currency is not expected by the treasury officials because of the great increase in the available supply which has been made within the past year. The treasury has paid out in premiums on bonds under the refunding law $33,165,083 and has paid in the redemption of the old 2 per cent bonds under the recent call of Secretary Gage $20,067,150. These two items of more than $53,000,000 have been exclusive of the ordinary expenses of the government.

ROBERTS REPORTS GAINS.

Komati Poort Occupied—Large Captures of Stock.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Lord Roberts reports from Pretoria, under date of Sept. 24, that the guards under Pole-Carew have occupied Komati Poort. The bridge was found intact. Much rolling stock, locomotives and truckloads of "Long Tom" ammunition were captured. Only a few rifle shots were fired. Lord Roberts adds: "Paget has captured Erasmus' camp, 3,000 cattle, 8,000 sheep and 23 prisoners."

"Methuen has made another big haul of stock." The British commander in chief in South Africa also reports that the few Boer troops remaining in the eastern Transvaal are completely "out of hand" and says they are mostly burghers, the foreign mercenaries having gone to Lourenco Marques owing to the Portuguese government promising to maintain them while there and give them passage to their respective countries.

"Messrs. Stern and Reitz," says a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Lourenco Marques, "will remain with the fighting burghers, and it is estimated that a force of Boers aggregating from 7,000 to 12,000 is planning to harass the British lines of communication."

STATE GETS $200,000.

Tax on C. P. Huntington's Estate Gives New York That Amount.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The inheritance tax on Collis P. Huntington's estate will amount to more than $200,000. In an estimate prepared for Comptroller Coler and submitted to State Comptroller Theodore P. Gilman it appears that the transfer charge on specific bequests alone would amount to $90,000.

No appraiser has been named for the huge estate, and the real valuation of the enormous fortune left by Mr. Huntington will not be known possibly for 18 months, the time limit allowed for filing appraisal reports.

It is estimated by those familiar with the affairs of Mr. Huntington that his estate is worth $50,000,000.

Photographing by Light of Venus.

GENEVA, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Dr. William R. Brooks has succeeded in photographing objects solely by the light from the planet Venus. By this is not meant photographing the planet itself, which has been done many times. The experiments were conducted within the dome of the observatory so that all outside light was excluded except that which came from Venus through the open shutter of the dome. The time was the darkest hour of the night, after the planet had risen and before the approach of dawn. The action of the light from Venus was much stronger than anticipated, the photographic plates being remarkably clear, intense and fully timed. The experiments will be continued every clear night. Dr. Brooks was an early worker in photography and has used it for many years in his astronomical researches.

Obituary.

Died, in the town of Venice, N. Y., Monday night, Sept. 10, Margaret, widow of the late Edward Reilly, aged 76 years.

Mrs. Reilly was born in County Clare, Ireland, in June, 1824, and came to this country with her husband and three children nearly 50 years ago. She spent the greater portion of her life in the town of Venice, N. Y., and was the mother of ten children, eight of whom are living.

In her earlier days the Church in Cayuga county was in its infancy, and she with her husband walked many miles to hear the Holy Sacrifice, carrying her little children with her. When the Church at King Ferry was built, she and her husband were among the first to lend a helping hand.

Fourteen years ago she was left a widow and since that time by her industry and frugality has lived and supported herself on the little home her husband left her.

After the Requiem Mass was said on Thursday morning, she was carried to her last resting place by her six grandsons. And of her it can be truly said, "They will rest from their labors and their works do follow them." May her soul rest in peace.
