

THE TRIBUNE
Contains each week more vicinity news than any paper in the county. Nearly every town in southern Cayuga is well represented. It is worth its price and you ought to have it in your home. Probably you do.

The Genoa Tribune.

JOB PRINTING.
THE TRIBUNE office is well equipped to turn out all kinds of printing. Don't hesitate to give us your order; we guarantee the work to be up-to-date and the price reasonable. Legal advertising at lowest rates.

Published Weekly and Circulated Throughout the Towns of Genoa, Venice, Ledyard, Scipio and Lansing, and Devoted to the Best Interests of the People of These Vicinities.

VOL. XV. No. 25.

GENOA, N. Y., FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10, 1905.

C. A. AMES

FROM NEARBY TOWNS

Interesting Items That Our Correspondents Have Gathered for Tribune Readers.

Sherwood.

Nov. 7—Mrs. Webster and son spent a number of days recently with their friends, the Georgias.
Miss Emily Howland and Miss Isabel Howland attended the Suffrage convention in Rochester.
Mr. Austin of Marcellus returned home last week, after spending a week very pleasantly with his friend, Dr. B. K. Hoxsie.
Mrs. Eva Slocum of Syracuse was a guest at G. F. Slocum's last week.
Mrs. Fred Slocum spent the week in Union Springs with her sister and friends.
Miss Antoinette Ward visited Niagara Falls last Sunday. Quite a number from this vicinity took advantage of the excursion rates.
Mrs. Adelia Morrison is able to be out after a several days' illness.
We were all glad to extend a cordial greeting to B. S. Sturdevant, who is home from Panama on a leave of absence.
The Hallows' social last Monday evening was a success in nearly all respects. There were twenty-four advertisements represented. Clifford Otis won the prize, a volume of Tenyson's poems, having guessed the greatest number of ads.
Miss Woodburn of Auburn gave an entertainment at Sherwood hall on Wednesday evening, and the young men gave a private ball Friday night.
Herbert Howland gave a talk in the reading room Friday evening on his recent travels in the East. Miss Dean of Virginia also spoke very interestingly.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur gave a very pleasant little party to the young people of this vicinity—a farewell to the young men who have been boarding with them during the summer.
Mrs. Della Darling and daughter are the guests of Isabel Howland.
Mrs. Benjamin Taber is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Irving Bacon of Auburn.
Mrs. M. Ward is spending the week in Union Springs with her friend, Mrs. Wm. Manchester.

Venice Center.

Nov. 6—Mrs. Martin Crippen of Cortland is at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. Crippen, where she expects to remain for some time.
Lyon Snyder and wife of Genoa are stopping for a time with Frank Saxton and family.
Jay Ladd and wife of Auburn were callers at the Crippen home Sunday.
There were no services at the church here on Sunday last. Mr. Hallock of Syracuse University, who had occupied the pulpit two Sundays preceding, was sick.
The Boston Star Minstrel Co. gave a show at Murdock's hall Saturday evening to a very small audience.

Furs Wanted.

Highest market price paid for furs.
2511
BRYMOUR WEAVER, Genoa

Come Now Own Up

You don't like those gray hairs, do you? And your husband certainly doesn't like them. Then why not try a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor? It restores color to gray hair every time, all the deep, rich color of early life. And it cures dandruff also.

"I certainly believe that Ayer's Hair Vigor is a splendid preparation for the hair and scalp, for I have used it more or less for six years. I can absolutely recommend it to anyone in need of such a preparation."—Miss Mary Hoyt, Hallowell, Me.

Made by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sole Manufacturers, P. O. BOX 112, LOWELL, MASS.
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

Ellsworth.

Nov. 6—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hilkert paid them a farewell visit on Oct. 27. A very pleasant evening was passed, but all regret that Mr. and Mrs. Hilkert are to leave so soon. They expect to return to their former home in Pennsylvania this month.
Mrs. Elmer Dillon is entertaining the men from Auburn who are working on the telephone line.
Mrs. Cope and son Harold who have been spending the summer at Carter Husted's left for their home in Rochester last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Hoaglin have returned from a trip to Locke.
Harlan Bradley drove to Moravia with a load of grapes last Tuesday.
Maurice O'Connell of Auburn was a recent caller in town.
Mrs. Mosher of Sherwood spent last Thursday in town.
Wm. Judge is being treated by Dr. Skinner of Genoa for a cancer on his ear. His daughter, Miss Luella, has been caring for him.
Several of our young men took the excursion trip to Niagara Falls on Sunday.
Mrs. Patchen and daughters, Miss Alice and Mrs. Sabin, attended the funeral of Mr. Dodd in Genoa.
Millard Streeter made a trip to Bradford Co., Pa., recently.

Lansingville.

Nov. 6—Mrs. Charles Bower is improving.
Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Allick and son Harold visited friends at Van-Etten last week.
Mrs. Chas. Minturn of Ithaca was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Elvira Hamilton, last week.
Mrs. Judith Hilliard has gone to Buffalo to visit her sister, Mrs. Andrews.
Mr. and Mrs. Brink Mapes and children from near New York City are the guests of Wm. Fenner and wife.
Misses Addie Owens and Nellie Tucker are attending Teachers' Institute at Groton this week.
Mrs. E. Wilbur who has been visiting relatives in the West over a year has returned and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lester Boles.
The Lake Ridge and Lansingville W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Clifford Townsend at Lansingville last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Wood, the L. T. L. State Sec., was present. She also gave an address before the school and organized a Junior L. T. L.

Five Corners.

Nov. 7—Mrs. Hannah Stephenson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stanton, at North Lansing for a few weeks.
Mrs. Harriet Miller has returned to her home in Cortland.
John Beardsley and wife are visiting relatives at Cortland this week. They were guests of Auburn friends last week.
Henry Barger, wife and daughter Iva of Ithaca were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Barger. Iva remained with her grandparents this week.
E. B. Stewart has recovered from his illness and is teaching again.
Caleb Corwin is recovering from his recent illness.
Esra Laselle of Groton was a guest of his daughters, Mrs. Oscar Hunt and Mrs. John Palmer, a few days last week.
Mrs. Charles Barger and Iva Barger were in Ithaca Monday.

Dr. Day's Notice.

Dr. Day, the Rochester specialist, will visit the Goodrich House, Moravia, on Tuesday, Nov. 15th, and every four weeks thereafter. The doctor is having wonderful success in the treatment of all forms of chronic diseases. Consultation and examination free and private.

Read the club rates, and tell your neighbor, especially the one who is a stranger to you.

Forks of the Creek.

Nov. 6—George Sweazey is visiting in the neighborhood.
Lucy Boyer visited in Ithaca a few days recently.
Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. George Holden were in Ithaca one day last week.
Mrs. Susan Boyer was in Aurora a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Bartlet.
Mrs. Hall spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Wood, near Asbury.
Mrs. Maria Starner has been visiting her cousin in Binghamton for two weeks.
Mrs. Louisa Boyer does not improve very much. She has rheumatism so badly that she cannot walk much.
Bert Breed was baling hay on east hill last week.
The Miller telephone line is to be extended from O. C. Sill's to this place and will also connect with the line at Five Corners.

East Genoa.

Nov. 7—A flock of fifty wild geese flew over this place today.
Mrs. Mary Armstrong called on friends in this place Sunday.
Arthur Allen and wife spent Sunday at Paul Henry's.
Miss Nina Thayer and Mrs. Henry Austin were in Genoa Monday.
Miss Anna Austin and Edwin Thayer spent Sunday at D. K. Austin's at Kelloggsville.
No school this week on account of new windows being put in the schoolhouse.
The Cheerful Workers met with the Austin girls Saturday.
The Ladies' Aid society which was to have been held at Mrs. Frank Thayer's is postponed till next week.
The Ramblers are to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tupper Thursday night.

"I Thank the Lord!"
Cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at J. S. Banker's, Genoa and A. E. Clark's, King Ferry, drug stores. 25c.

Try THE TRIBUNE job print.

W. L. Douglas Winter Shoes for Men

$2.50

$3.00

$3.50

$4.00

Dull or shiny leathers
light weight soles
double waterproofed soles
40 different styles to select from any style rubber to fit the shoes.

THE SPECIALTY SHOE COMPANY,
111 Genesee St., AUBURN.

Poplar Ridge.

Nov. 6—Beautiful fall weather; all appreciate it, too.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Mosher were in Auburn last Tuesday.
Fayette and Henry Fell of Auburn were calling on old friends and acquaintances Sunday last.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Longstreet expect to return to Binghamton with their daughter, Mrs. Baker, with whom they will spend the winter.
Allen Landon and family attended the wedding of their son and brother last Wednesday at East Genoa.
Mr. and Mrs. Conklin and daughter Lena and Mr. and Mrs. Purinton attended the wedding of their cousin in Ithaca last Wednesday.
W. J. Haines and wife spent Sunday at his mother's.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, at 6 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peckham, when their daughter, Marian Adele, was united in marriage to Byron B. Hitchcock of Scipio. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and there were many guests, among them being the bride's brother from Chicago who had not been home in three years. Rev. W. B. Jorris of Scipioville performed the ceremony. The bride received many gifts, including two checks for $100 each. The couple left for a wedding tour to Niagara Falls.

Society Notes.

The Ladies' Aid Society of East Genoa which was to have been held on Wednesday, Nov. 8, at Mrs. F. Thayer's was postponed until Nov. 15.
Services as usual at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. E. L. Dresser, will preach Sunday school at usual time. The regular meeting of the missionary society will be held this afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Hagin. All are invited.

The West Genoa and Five Corners W. C. T. U. will hold a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. Alice Barger on Monday afternoon, Nov. 13. Mrs. Frances A. DeGraff of Amsterdam, N. Y., will be present and conduct the meeting. A short business meeting will be held at 2 p. m. Mrs. DeGraff will lecture in the Presbyterian church at Five Corners in the evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Come and hear a good speaker.

An Epworth League rally will be held for the Ledyard charge at the Ledyard M. E. church on Wednesday, Nov. 15, afternoon and evening. A special program will be rendered under the charge of Rev. W. A. Soper of Ludlowville and others. All Leaguers of the neighborhood and others are cordially invited.

There will be an entertainment and supper at the Venice Baptist church on Wednesday evening, Nov. 15. Supper from 6 to 8 o'clock, and the menu includes chicken pie, cabbage salad, pumpkin pie, etc., all for 25 cents for adults; children 15 cents.

The Ferris Good Sense corset wait for sale at Miss Lanterman's, King Ferry. 25c

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

To the ladies of King Ferry, Ludlowville and vicinity: I will be at the home of Mrs. Harrison Goodyear on Thursday, Oct. 5, and at Mr. West's office, Ludlowville, Oct. 6 and 7, and at North Lansing hotel parlors Wednesday, Oct. 11, and every week thereafter during the season with a full line of millinery, hats, caps, etc. Mrs. D. B. Brown, Genoa.

Stick in the Lead.

I am prepared to pay the highest market price for all kinds of furs.
R. W. ARMSTRONG.

King Ferry.

Nov. 8—Mrs. Jay Shaw and son are visiting her mother at Sodus.
Miss M. E. Lewis is spending the week at Clear View.
Mrs. C. F. Randall of Boston and Mrs. L. M. Day of Sidney have been spending a few days with their mother, Mrs. R. G. Jenkins, who accompanied the former home to spend the winter.
Miss Carrie Snushall was home from Ithaca over Sunday.
Miss Ida Connell visited friends in Auburn last week.
Otis Smith of Ithaca spent Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Smith.
Mrs. Alfred Avery is spending a few weeks with her parents at Old Forge, Pa.
H. W. Smith and wife spent Sunday at Walter Smith's, Moravia.

Obituary.

By the death of Rufus Strong, East Genoa loses one of its best known citizens, the community a good neighbor and the church a faithful member. Mr. Strong was born in the town of Lansing Sept. 11, 1826, and died in East Venice Oct. 27, 1905. He was the son of Freeman and Mary Strong. In his boyhood he was engaged in driving teams on the tow-path of the Erie canal, and later purchased a boat of his own and made many trips to New York which brought financial success to him. In his early manhood, he married Araminta Young and moved to East Genoa, where he bought the farm on which he lived so long. By his ambition and honesty he won the esteem and respect of all who knew him. Four children came to bless his home, three daughters and one son—Mrs. John Smith of East Genoa, Mrs. Frank Young of East Venice, Mrs. Edgar Tiff of Ithaca, and Fred L., who died May 11, 1897. Since the decease of his wife on Oct. 23, 1898, Mr. Strong had found his joy in the homes of his kind and loving daughters, who did all in their power to make father's last days his best.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist church at East Genoa on Monday, Oct. 30. The unusually large number present, and the commendable words of his pastor reveal the very high esteem in which he was held by those who knew him best, and the community at large. His memory will always be blessed to those who knew him. **

Auction Sales.

Mrs. Lucy J. Dodd will sell at her residence, the Lewis farm west of Genoa, on Saturday, Nov. 11, at 1 o'clock, chairs, beds and bedding, dishes, two stoves, carpenter tools, single harness, halters, etc. There will also be sold a sorrel mare and a gray horse 12 years old. L. B. Norman, auctioneer.

Mrs. Elma N. Wilbur will sell at the farm 1 1/2 miles north and 1 mile west of King Ferry village, on Tuesday, Nov. 14, at 12 o'clock, property as follows: 2 horses, 4 cows, 2 sows, 10 shoats, wagons, buggy, bobs, harnesses, farming implements of all kinds, 50 grain bags, 20 crates, 7 acres corn stalks, 800 bu. corn, 20 tons baled hay, etc.

Ride Fast.

If you wish to ride fast you must know how to quicken a horse that goes slow; Well, the old sawgoon, You have heard, I suppose, It is money that makes the mare go. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Snappy.

Tall Editor—I hear Bumscribe is running a snappy column in your paper now. Is it the personal column? Short Editor—No. It is entitled: "All About Dogs." That is why we call it snappy.—Chicago Daily News.

An Excited Conversation.

First Bystander—Horror! Those two are trying to scratch each other's eyes out.
Second Bystander—No, they are not. It's a deaf and dumb man, and his wife, quarrelling.—N. Y. Weekly.

They Cut His Hair.

"Since comin' out o' prison I can't get a job at my trade."
"Poor man! What was your business?"
"I was de Cirossian beauty in a side show."—Cleveland Leader.

Peril of the Specialist.

Scientist—Scrupal is a specialist. He is not!
Ovidius—I should say so. Why then has he specialized down on the fact to an intent and purpose he is incompetent.—The Times.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

A Cream of Tartar Powder, free from alum or phosphatic acid

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Added Street-Car Service.

Patrons of the New York Central Railroad entering New York City will be pleased to learn of an added facility to the street-car service from and to Grand Central Station, in the establishment of a through car line running via Fourth and Twenty-third street to the West Twenty-third street ferry stations of the Pennsylvania, Erie, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Central Railroad of New Jersey, Philadelphia and Reading, Baltimore and Ohio, and Lehigh Valley. Commencing Oct. 23, the New York City Railway Company, to accommodate the constantly increasing traffic between the points named, began operating through cars on a headway of approximately four minutes, from 7:30 a. m. to 7 p. m., and passengers arriving at Grand Central Station who desire to take this means of conveyance across the city, or to reach the shopping district, or any other point on the line designated, will be enabled to do so without transferring.—From New York Globe.

Farm for Sale.

90 acres in Venice, good buildings and fertile soil. Apply to Mrs. Charlotte Green, Moravia. 23-5

Stamps in books at the Genoa post office; handy and easy to carry in the vest pocket or purse; 25 and 40 cents.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

It will nourish and strengthen the body when milk and cream fail to do it. Scott's Emulsion is always the same; always palatable and always beneficial where the body is wasting from any cause, either in children or adults.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that the picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

SCOTT & BOWNE
CHEMISTS
439 Pearl St., New York.
50c. and $1.00.
All Druggists.

Republican Nominations.

For Justice of the Supreme Court,
Seventh Judicial District,
Nathaniel Foote,
Arthur E. Sutherland.

For District Attorney,
Robert J. Burritt of Auburn.

For Superintendent of the Poor,
Leland Hewitt of Auburn.

For Coroner,
Dr. N. B. Ford of Owasco

For Member of Assembly, 1st District
Julson W. Hapeman.

For Member of Assembly, 2d District
J. Guernsey Allen.

For School Commissioner, Dist. No. 1,
Herbert T. Morrison.

For School Commissioner, Dist. No. 2,
G. W. Atwater.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks to all who kindly rendered us assistance in any form during our recent bereavement. Mrs. Lucy J. Dodd, Fred D. Dodd.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
We, the undersigned, have known
F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

Walding, Kinnan & Marvin,
Wholesale druggists, Toledo, O.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Still in the Lead.

I am prepared to pay the highest market price for all kinds of fur.
B. W. ARMSTRONG.

Violin Instructor

Will be at King Ferry every Thursday. For terms and other information address Morgan J. Wilbur,
Conservatory of Music, Ithaca, N. Y.

Farm for Sale.

90 acres in Venice, good buildings and fertile soil. Apply to Mrs. Charlotte Green, Moravia. 23w5

A Disastrous Calamity.

It is a disastrous calamity, when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs, and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at J. S.
Banker's, Genoa and A. E. Clark's,
King Ferry, drug stores; 25c.

Farmers!

Why sell your hides to the middleman and give him the one cent on the pound, when I will pay you Auburn or Rochester market prices for them? R. W. ARMSTRONG

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as a woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the Republican of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and 5 physicians had failed to relieve her.
After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by J. S. Banker, Genoa, and A. E.
Clark, King Ferry, druggist; price 50c.

Teddy—What do people mean when they say a man is just in the prime of life?

Father—They mean, my son, to be considerate of an old man's feelings.—
Cassell's.

The End of It.

First Millionaire—Do you regret your tainted money?

Second Millionaire—Nope; the second generation will lose the taint, and the third will lose the money.—N. Y. Sun.

Why He Failed.

Jinks—Why did young Pudney fail?
I thought he was doing well.

Binks—He was until he spent too much time reading the advice to young men on how to succeed.—Tit-Bits.

Good Money, But—

Mrs. Hoyle—Does your husband make good money?
Mrs. Doyle—Yes; it's good enough, but there's too little of it.—Judge.

Both Guilty.

She—You ought to be ashamed of stealing a kiss.
He—You are equally guilty. You received the stolen goods.—Tit-Bits.

A Fair Question.

Proud Father—We have spent $5,000
on our daughter's voice.
Neighbor—Dear me, and is it incurable?—N. Y. Sun.

Precautions.

"Bob Smith is sick abed."
"Has he got anything dangerous?"
"Well, he's got young Dr. Jones."
—Town Topics.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

For Sale, nickel trimmed, six hole Sterling range, wood or coal, nearly new; your choice of 2 chunk stoves, also organ and desk.

MARY C. KESYON, Indian Field,
P. O. address, King Ferry, R. D. 26

LOST—Two Berkshire pigs; weight
150 lbs. J. W. CALHOUN, East-Venice

FOR SALE—Full blood Oxforddown rams and two ram lambs.

23th T. TYRRELL, Genoa

11 new milch cows and cows coming in for sale. W. E. SAXTON, 22th Indian Field Road.

Registered Berkshire boar, 1 year old for sale; also some 5-months pigs, both sexes all first class.

VICTOR ANDREWS, Indian Field.

FOR SERVICE—Long English Berkshire boar. J. I. BOWER, King Ferry.

Farms for sale, low price; 70 to 150 acres including the home. If not sold soon are to let.

w4 No. 22 CHAS. CHITTENDEN, Ludlowville, N. Y.

Everything new and up-to-date in
Millinery at L. M. GOODELLE'S

FOR SALE—Good work horse, 4 yrs.
old. ARTHUR L. CARTER, King Ferry.

100 very fine sheep for sale. Inquire of J. L. White or Chas. Lowe, Locke, N. Y. 19th

Razor Strops 25c to $1.75, all sorts of grades and qualities. Sagar Drug Store, Auburn.

Market prices for poultry.
W. S. EATON, Genoa.

Bring your old hens, chickens,
ducks and turkeys to Hotel DeWitt,
Genoa, on Monday night, Nov. 13, or Tuesday morning, November 14, and get the highest market price for them. Duck and geese feathers for sale. Will take in Thanksgiving poultry Wednesday morning, Nov. 22

S. C. HOUGHTALING, Throopville.

Excursion to New York.

New York Central and Hudson River Railroad excursion to New York, Nov. 14, on account of New York's great horse show. One fare for the round trip, plus $1.00, return limit ten days. Tickets good going
Nov. 14, good returning on or before Thursday, Nov. 23, in regular except limited trains. The great event of the season in the Metropolis will be New York's great horse show at Madison Square Garden, Nov. 13 to 18 inclusive. Some of the best horses and turnouts in the country will be seen; this in connection with many other attractions will prove of interest to those who wish to take advantage of this low rate. Call on New York Central ticket agents for tickets and all information.

To the ladies of King Ferry, Ludlowville and vicinity: I will be at the home of Mrs. Harrison Goodyear on Thursday, Oct. 5, and at Mr. Wetz office, Ludlowville, Oct. 6 and 7, and at North Lansing hotel parlors Wednesday, Oct. 11, and every week thereafter during the season with a full line of millinery, hats, caps, etc.

Mrs. D. E. SINGERS, Genoa.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me.
"For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a cough or cold,
I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr.
Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00.
Guaranteed at J. S. Banker's, Genoa,
and A. E. Clark's, King Ferry drug stores. Trial bottle free.

County Sunday School Association.

The annual convention and institute of the Cayuga county Sunday school association will be held this year in the Baptist church at Weeds port on Tuesday, Nov. 7. The officers have been engaged for some time arranging the program, which is considered by Sunday school workers as very attractive and of exceptional strength. There will be present the New York State Superintendent of Sunday school work, Alfred Day, a man who is said to be "a whole convention in himself," and Miss Minnie Dougherty, State primary superintendent, will also be present and will be of help to the primary teachers. One of the features of the convention will be the singing conducted by Grant Colfax Teller of New York.
He will be assisted by a chorus of Sunday school singers and the Presbyterian Sunday school orchestra. A special Lehigh train will leave Auburn at 10 o'clock, and will return after the evening session.

Society Notes.

An exhibition of moving pictures will be given at Ledyard M. E. church on Saturday evening, Nov. 11, at 7:45 o'clock. These pictures are the latest and best of their kind.
Admission 10 and 15 cents.

Uncle Josh Says

Man gen'rally gits

nothin' fer nothin';

sometimes nothin' fer

somehthin'; but I never heard uv 'im gittin'

somehthin' fer nothin'.

After I read about th' life insurance business I kin account fer th'

old farm not bein' so attractive t' th' boys.

Th' man with a clean record's never kept busy dodgin' fellers

th't try t' tempt 'im.

Clubbing Rates, 1905--6.

Here are a few of the many bargains in subscription rates which can be had through this office. Each rate quoted includes one year's subscription to THE GENOA TRIBUNE.

Syracuse Daily Post-Standard.....$4.00

Thrice-a-Week World..... 1.65

Tri-Weekly N. Y. Tribune..... 2.00

N. Y. Tribune Farmer..... 1.25

Democrat and Chronicle..... 1.55

Review of Reviews, Cosmopolitan and Woman's Home Companion 8.25

Same as above with Country Calendar added..... 4.50

An unlimited number of bargains can be secured here. Rates on any single publication or combination, either with or without THE GENOA TRIBUNE, can be had upon application to this office.

"I Thank the Lord!"

Cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds.
Guaranteed at J. S. Banker's, Genoa
and A. E. Clark's, King Ferry, drug stores. 25c.

A Barton county (Kan.) woman who is suing for divorce introduces as testimony a twenty-year-old newspaper which calls her husband a dog. She says the paper was right then and is right now, and it is up to him to prove that he will.

Lady Helen Forbes, in an English woman's periodical, has been considering "how superior a product the American girl is to the American man." But, going further, she spoils this statement by adding that this "product is educated for conquest."

A New York woman swore out a warrant for her son, who would not work. When he saw a policeman coming he ran, although he weighs 200 pounds and was not captured until the chase had lasted a mile. And they say he will now work yet not.

It has been questioned for many years whether the conferring of honorary degrees galore has not degenerated into something of a farce comedy. It may be that every one so honored is fully deserving of the distinction, but the universality of the performance must remind the public of that famous French author who pictured his detective, when seeking clues for the apprehension of a notorious criminal, as asking: "Did he wear the ribbon of the Legion of Honor?"

And when he was answered in the negative, remarked with the utmost confidence that it would be easy to find him.

Quality the Same

Make the Same

Price not the Same.

50c Cleveland's Baking Powder 35c

25c Premier " 13c

40c Walter Baker's Chocolate 25c

80c pound Nut Mergs 25c

5c Yeasts, 2 for 5c

8c Arm & Hammer Soda 5c

40c pure, ground Spices 20c

10c Dixon's Stove Polish 4c

5c Nameline Stov. Polish 3c

25c Stove Pipe 15c

8c McBeth Lamp Chimneys 3c

20c Galvanized Pails 12c

10c Kingford's Corn Starch 7c

8c " " 5c

Flower Pots 1c to $1.25

Wash Tubs 49c to 95c

Wash Boilers 65c to $1.75

75c Tubular Lanterns 48c

Most complete line of enameled, tin, wood and housefurnishings in the country. Prices subject to market changes.

C. G. HAYDEN'S

Bargain Store,

159 Genesee St., Auburn, N. Y.

Oct. 24 ENTIRE Oct. 24

Joel Hanford Stock

of high grade Pianos must be sold in TEN DAYS' SALE.

Prices like these are less than manufacturers cost.

Standard Piano, beautiful quartered oak, price $325 now $150

Hardman " Rosewood case, tone guaranteed, price $450
now $180

Needham Piano, elegant design, figured Mahogany, price
$425 now $245

Braumiller Piano, Mahogany case, price $450 now $250

Makes like Chickering, Steinway, Hester and several other names well known in the trade for years

Will go at Less Than Manufacturers Cost.

A FULL LINE OF CELEBRATED WEGMAN PIANOS, noted the country over for beautiful tone, artistic case design and wonderful durability.

Every Piano on our floor can be purchased for CASH or on EASY PAYMENTS. Every instrument guaranteed. Organs and square Pianos taken in exchange and their full value allowed on purchase price of new Piano. Handsome stool and silk cover with every Piano.

ST. CROIX & CALDWELL,

112 WEST STATE ST., ITHACA, N. Y.

Holmes & Dunnigan.

DRESS GOODS &

SILK SALE

FOR 10 DAYS

5 pieces Rain Cloth, 54 inches wide, $1.25 quality, sale price

95c

10 pieces Rain cloth, 54 inches

wide, $1.50 quality, sale price

$1.17

3 pieces Rain Cloth, 54 inches

wide, $2 quality, sale price 1.65

8 pieces Camels Hair Dress

Goods, 48 inches wide, $1 quality, sale price 99c per yd

5 pieces fancy mixed Dress

Goods, $1.25 quality, sale price

95c per yd

5 pieces Creponette in black, navy, brown and green, 75c quality, sale price 50c per yd

Beautiful Plaids, sale price

12c, 25c, 50c and 75c

10 pieces of Panama Cloth, all colors and black, 65c quality, sale price 50c per yd

10 pieces 64 in. Broadcloth,

$1.25 quality, sale price $1 yd

5 pieces of Russian Dol Skire,

52 in., $2 quality, sale price

$1.59 per yd

So many other Dress Goods that space does not permit us to mention. We can show you more Dress Goods than any other two houses in the city combined. Our Specialty is

Dress Goods.

SILKS Very cheap for 10 Days

3 pieces of 36 in. black Taffeta

$1.25 quality, sale price 90c yd

3 pieces black Taffeta, 36 in

$1.39 quality, sale price $1 yd

1 piece of 36 in. black Peaude-Soie, $1.25 quality, sale price

90c per yd

1 piece Peau-de-Soie, 27 in.

$1 quality, sale price 79c yd

10 pieces of Silk Acolin, 27 inches, 80c quality, sale price

39c per yd

8 pieces of changeable Taffeta

75c quality, sale price 59c yd

5 pieces of satin Linings, 32 inches wide, guaranteed for two seasons, sale price 59c yd

By buying from us, we will save you money. The reliable

Dress Goods Store.

Holmes & Dunnigan,

79 GENESSEE ST., Auburn

BEE HIVE STORE

IN THE FUR DEPT.

When you want furs, see our line for the qualities are the best and the prices the lowest.

In Store No. 63.

We have a large assortment of styles in the following furs: Sable, Coney, Mink, French Martin, Bear, Grey Squirrel and Fox. Our Muffs are of the newest styles, and very reasonable. A complete line of Children's Fur Sets from 98c up to $6.50 a set.

Ladies' Fabric Gloves

Fancy lined Milanese Cashmere at 25c

Real Milanese Cashmeres at 50c

Fancy Silk Lined Cashmeres at 50c

Reindeer Suede Gloves at 50c

Chamois Suede Gloves at 39c

The above Gloves come in Beaver, Greys, Black, Brown and Blues.

Children's Golf Gloves at 25c, 39c and 48c

We give Purple Stamps.

THE TRIBUNE
Contains each week more fiction news than any paper in the county. Nearly every town in Southern Cayuga is well represented. It is worth its price and you ought to have it in your home. Probably you do.

The Genoa Tribune.

JOB PRINTING.
The Tribune office is well equipped to turn out all kinds of printing. Don't hesitate to give us your order; we guarantee the work to be up-to-date and the prices reasonable. Legal advertising at lowest rates.

Published Weekly and Circulated Throughout the Towns of Genoa, Venice, Ledyard, Scipio and Lansing, and Devoted to the Best Interests of the People of These Vicinities.

VOL. XV. No. 25.

GENOA, N. Y., FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 10, 1905.

C. A. AMES

FROM NEARBY TOWNS

Interesting Items That Our Correspondents Have Gathered for Tribune Readers.

Sherwood.

Nov. 7—Mrs. Webster and son spent a number of days recently with their friends, the Georgias.
Miss Emily Howland and Miss Isabel Howland attended the Suffrage convention in Rochester.
Mr. Austin of Marcellus returned home last week, after spending a week very pleasantly with his friend, Dr. B. K. Hoxse.
Mrs. Eva Slocum of Syracuse was a guest at G. F. Slocum's last week.
Mrs. Fred Slocum spent the week in Union Springs with her sister and friends.

Miss Antoinette Ward visited Niagara Falls last Sunday. Quite a number from this vicinity took advantage of the excursion rates.
Mrs. Adelia Morrison is able to be out after a several days' illness.

We were all glad to extend a cordial greeting to B. S. Sturdevant, who is home from Panama on a leave of absence.

The Halloween social last Monday evening was a success in nearly all respects. There were twenty-four advertisements represented. Clifford Otis won the prize, a volume of Tennyson's poems, having guessed the greatest number of ads.

Miss Woodburn of Auburn gave an entertainment at Sherwood hall on Wednesday evening, and the young men gave a private ball Friday night.

Herbert Howland gave a talk in the reading room Friday evening on his recent travels in the East. Miss Dean of Virginia also spoke very interestingly.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur gave a very pleasant little party to the young people of this vicinity—a farewell to the young men who have been boarding with them during the summer.

Mrs. Della Darling and daughter are the guests of Isabel Howland.

Mrs. Benjamin Taber is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Irving Bacon of Auburn.

Mrs. M. Ward is spending the week in Union Springs with her friend, Mrs. Wm. Manchester.

Venice Center.

Nov. 6—Mrs. Martin Crippen of Cortland is at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. Crippen, where she expects to remain for some time.

Lyon Snyder and wife of Genoa are stopping for a time with Frank Saxton and family.

Jay Ladd and wife of Auburn were callers at the Crippen home Sunday.

There were no services at the church here on Sunday last. Mr. Hallock of Syracuse University, who had occupied the pulpit two Sundays preceding, was sick.

The Boston Star Minstrel Co. gave a show at Mardock's hall Saturday evening to a very small audience.

Furs Wanted.

Highest market price paid for furs.
2511
SHEMOBE WEAVER, Genoa

Come Now Own Up

You don't like those gray hairs, do you? And your husband certainly doesn't like them. Then why not try a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor? It restores color to gray hair every time, all the deep, rich color of early life. And it cures dandruff also.

"I certainly believe that Ayer's Hair Vigor is a valuable preparation for the hair and scalp, for I have used it many times for the relief of such a condition."—Miss KATH BOTT, Birmingham.

Made by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Solely for sale by
S. S. KESSLER, PHILA.
CROSBY PICTORIAL.

Elleworth.

Nov. 6—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hilkert paid them a farewell visit on Oct. 27. A very pleasant evening was passed, but all regret that Mr. and Mrs. Hilkert are to leave so soon. They expect to return to their former home in Pennsylvania this month.

Mrs. Elmer Dillon is entertaining the men from Auburn who are working on the telephone line.

Mrs. Cope and son Harold who have been spending the summer at Carter Husted's left for their home in Rochester last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoaglin have returned from a trip to Locke.

Harlan Bradley drove to Moravia with a load of grapes last Tuesday. Maurice O'Connell of Auburn was a recent caller in town.

Mrs. Mosher of Sherwood spent last Thursday in town.

Wm. Judge is being treated by Dr. Skinner of Genoa for a cancer on his ear. His daughter, Miss Luella, has been caring for him.

Several of our young men took the excursion trip to Niagara Falls on Sunday.

Mrs. Patchen and daughters, Miss Alice and Mrs. Sabin, attended the funeral of Mr. Dodd in Genoa.

Millard Streeter made a trip to Bradford Co., Pa., recently.

Lansingville.

Nov. 6—Mrs. Charles Bower is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Allick and son Harold visited friends at Van-Elten last week.

Mrs. Chas. Minturn of Ithaca was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Elvira Hamilton, last week.

Mrs. Judith Hilliard has gone to Buffalo to visit her sister, Mrs. Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Brink Mapes and children from near New York City are the guests of Wm. Fenner and wife.

Misses Addie Owens and Nellie Tucker are attending Teachers' Institute at Groton this week.

Mrs. E. Wilbur who has been visiting relatives in the West over a year has returned and is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lester Boles.

The Lake Ridge and Lansingville W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Clifford Townsend at Lansingville last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Wood, the L. T. L. State Sec., was present. She also gave an address before the school and organized a Junior L. T. L.

Five Corners.

Nov. 7—Mrs. Hannah Stephenson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stanton, at North Lansing for a few weeks.

Mrs. Harriet Miller has returned to her home in Cortland.

John Beardsley and wife are visiting relatives at Cortland this week. They were guests of Auburn friends last week.

Henry Barger, wife and daughter Iva of Ithaca were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Barger. Iva remained with her grandparents this week.

E. B. Stewart has recovered from his illness and is teaching again.

Caleb Corwin is recovering from his recent illness.

Erna Laselle of Groton was a guest of his daughters, Mrs. Oscar Hunt and Mrs. John Palmer, a few days last week.

Mrs. Charles Barger and Iva Barger were in Ithaca Monday.

Dr. Day's Notice.

Dr. Day, the Rochester specialist, will visit the Goodrich House, Moravia, on Tuesday, Nov. 15th, and every four weeks thereafter. The doctor is having wonderful success in the treatment of all forms of chronic diseases. Consultation and examination free and private.

Read the clubbing rates, and tell your neighbor, especially the one who is always after your TRIBUNE.

Forks of the Creek.

Nov. 6—George Sweazey is visiting in the neighborhood.

Lucy Boyer visited in Ithaca a few days recently.

Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. George Holden were in Ithaca one day last week.

Mrs. Susan Boyer was in Aurora a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Bartlet.

Mrs. Hall spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Wood, near Asbury.

Mrs. Maria Starnier has been visiting her cousin in Binghamton for two weeks.

Mrs. Louisa Boyer does not improve very much. She has rheumatism so badly that she cannot walk much.

Bert Breed was baling hay on east hill last week.

The Miller telephone line is to be extended from O. C. Sill's to this place and will also connect with the line at Five Corners.

East Genoa.

Nov. 7—A flock of fifty wild geese flew over this place today.

Mrs. Mary Armstrong called on friends in this place Sunday.

Arthur Allen and wife spent Sunday at Paul Henry's.

Miss Nina Thayer and Mrs. Henry Austin were in Genoa Monday.

Miss Anna Austin and Edwin Thayer spent Sunday at D. K. Austin's at Kelloggville.

No school this week on account of new windows being put in the schoolhouse.

The Cheerful Workers met with the Austin girls Saturday.

The Ladies' Aid society which was to have been held at Mrs. Frank Thayer's is postponed till next week.

The Ramblers are to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tapper Thursday night.

"I Thank the Lord!"

Cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at J. S. Banker's, Genoa and A. E. Clark's, King Ferry, drug stores. 25c.

Try THE TRIBUNE job print.

W. L. Douglas Winter Shoes for Men

$2.50

$3.00

$3.50

$4.00

Dull or shiny leathers
light weight soles
double waterproofed soles
40 different styles to select from any style rubber to fit the shoes.

THE SPECIALTY SHOE COMPANY,

111 Genesee St., AUBURN.

Poplar Ridge.

Nov. 6—Beautiful fall weather; all appreciate it, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Mosher were in Auburn last Tuesday.

Fayette and Henry Fell of Auburn were calling on old friends and acquaintances Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Longstreet expect to return to Binghamton with their daughter, Mrs. Baker, with whom they will spend the winter.

Allen Landon and family attended the wedding of their son and brother last Wednesday at East Genoa.

Mr. and Mrs. Conklin and daughter Lena and Mr. and Mrs. Purinton attended the wedding of their cousin in Ithaca last Wednesday.

W. J. Haines and wife spent Sunday at his mother's.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, at 6 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peckham, when their daughter, Marian Adele, was united in marriage to Byron B. Hitchcock of Scipio. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and there were many guests, among them being the bride's brother from Chicago who had not been home in three years. Rev. W. B. Jorris of Scipioville performed the ceremony. The bride received many gifts, including two checks for $100 each. The couple left for a wedding tour to Niagara Falls.

Society Notes.

The Ladies' Aid Society of East Genoa which was to have been held on Wednesday, Nov. 8, at Mrs. F. Thayer's was postponed until Nov. 15.

Services as usual at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. E. L. Dresser, will preach Sunday school at usual time. The regular meeting of the missionary society will be held this afternoon at 8:30 at the home of Mrs. Hagin. All are invited.

The West Genoa and Five Corners W. C. T. U. will hold a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. Alice Barger on Monday afternoon, Nov. 13. Mrs. Frances A. DeGraff of Amsterdam, N. Y., will be present and conduct the meeting. A short business meeting will be held at 2 p. m. Mrs. DeGraff will lecture in the Presbyterian church at Five Corners in the evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Come and hear a good speaker.

An Epworth League rally will be held for the Ledyard charge at the Ledyard M. E. church on Wednesday, Nov. 15, afternoon and evening. A special program will be rendered under the charge of Rev. W. A. Soper of Ludlowville and others. All Leaguers of the neighborhood and others are cordially invited.

There will be an entertainment and supper at the Venice Baptist church on Wednesday evening, Nov. 15. Supper from 6 to 8 o'clock, and the menu includes chicken pie, cabbage salad, pumpkin pie, etc., all for 25 cents for adults; children 15 cents.

The Ferris Good Sense corset wait for sale at Miss Lanterman's, King Ferry. 25c

Now's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

To the ladies of King Ferry, Ludlowville and vicinity: I will be at the home of Mrs. Harrison Goodyear on Thursday, Oct. 5, and at Mr. Wets office, Ludlowville, Oct. 6 and 7, and at North Lansing hotel parlor Wednesday, Oct. 11, and every week thereafter during the season with a full line of millinery, hats, coats, etc. Mrs. D. B. Sizem, Genoa.

Don't Be Led.

I am prepared to pay the highest market price for all kinds of furs.
R. W. Amersbee.

King Ferry.

Nov. 8—Mrs. Jay Shaw and son are visiting her mother at Sodas.

Miss M. E. Lewis is spending the week at Clear View.

Mrs. C. F. Randall of Boston and Mrs. L. M. Day of Sidney have been spending a few days with their mother, Mrs. R. G. Jenkins, who accompanied the former home to spend the winter.

Miss Carrie Snaushall was home from Ithaca over Sunday.

Miss Ida Connell visited friends in Auburn last week.

Otis Smith of Ithaca spent Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Smith.

Mrs. Alfred Avery is spending a few weeks with her parents at Old Forge, Pa.

H. W. Smith and wife spent Sunday at Walter Smith's, Moravia.

Obituary.

By the death of Rufus Strong, East Genoa loses one of its best known citizens, the community a good neighbor and the church a faithful member. Mr. Strong was born in the town of Lansing Sept. 11, 1826, and died in East Venice Oct. 27, 1905. He was the son of Freeman and Mary Strong. In his boyhood he was engaged in driving teams on the tow-path of the Erie canal, and later purchased a boat of his own and made many trips to New York which brought financial success to him. In his early manhood, he married Araminta Young and moved to East Genoa, where he bought the farm on which he lived so long. By his ambition and honesty he won the esteem and respect of all who knew him. Four children came to bless his home, three daughters and one son—Mrs. John Smith of East Genoa, Mrs. Frank Young of East Venice, Mrs. Edgar Tift of Ithaca, and Fred L., who died May 11, 1897. Since the decease of his wife on Oct. 23, 1898, Mr. Strong had found his joy in the homes of his kind and loving daughters, who did all in their power to make father's last days his best.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist church at East Genoa on Monday, Oct. 30. The unusually large number present, and the commendable words of his pastor reveal the very high esteem in which he was held by those who knew him best, and the community at large. His memory will always be blessed to those who knew him.

Auction Sales.

Mrs. Lucy J. Dodd will sell at her residence, the Lewis farm west of Genoa, on Saturday, Nov. 11, at 1 o'clock, chairs, beds and bedding, dishes, two stoves, carpenter tools, single harness, halters, etc. There will also be sold a sorrel mare and a gray horse 12 years old. L. B. Norman, auctioneer.

Mrs. Elma N. Wilbur will sell at the farm 1 1/2 miles north and 1 mile west of King Ferry village, on Tuesday, Nov. 14, at 12 o'clock, property as follows: 2 horses, 4 cows, 2 sows, 10 shoats, wagons, buggy, bobs, harnesses, farming implements of all kinds, 50 grain bags, 20 crates, 7 acres corn stalks, 800 bu. corn, 20 tons baled hay, etc.

Ride Fast.

If you wish to ride fast you must know how to quicken a horse that goes slow; Well, the old sawgoes, You have heard, I suppose, It is money that makes the mare go. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Snappy.

Tall Editor—I hear BUMSCRIBE is running a snappy column in your paper now. Is it the personal column? Short Editor—No. It is entitled: "All About Dogs." That is why we call it snappy.—Chicago Daily News.

An Excited Conversation.

First Bystander—Horror! Those two are trying to scratch each other's eyes out.

Second Bystander—No, they are not. It's a deaf and dumb man, and his wife, quarrelling.—N. Y. Weekly.

They Cut His Hair. "Since comin' out o' prison I can't get a job at my trade." "Poor man! What was your business?" "I was de Circassian beauty in a side show."—Cleveland Leader.

Fertile of the Specialist.

Scientist—Scopol is a specialist. Is he not? Critic—Should say so. Why then has he specialized down so fine that to all intents and purposes he is himself potent.—Topeka Times.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
HAS NO SUBSTITUTE

A Cream of Tartar Powder, free from alum or phosphatic acid

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Added Street-Car Service.

Patrons of the New York Central Railroad entering New York City will be pleased to learn of an added facility to the street-car service from and to Grand Central Station, in the establishment of a through car line running via Fourth ave. and Twenty-third street to the West Twenty third street ferry stations of the Pennsylvania, Erie, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Central Railroad of New Jersey, Philadelphia and Reading, Baltimore and Ohio, and Lehigh Valley. Commencing Oct. 23, the New York City Railway Company, to accommodate the constantly increasing traffic between the points named, began operating through cars on a headway of approximately four minutes, from 7:30 a. m. to 7 p. m., and passengers arriving at Grand Central Station who desire to take this means of conveyance across the city, or to reach the shopping district, or any other point on the line designated, will be enabled to do so without transferring.—From New York Globe.

Farm for Sale.

90 acres in Venice, good buildings and fertile soil. Apply to Mrs. Charlotte Green, Moravia. 23w5

Stamps in books at the Genoa post office; handy and easy to carry in the vest pocket or purse; 25 and 40 cents.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

It will nourish and strengthen the body when milk and cream fail to do it. Scott's Emulsion is always the same; always palatable and always beneficial where the body is wasting from any cause, either in children or adults.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that the picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

SCOTT & BOWNE CHEMISTS
400 Pearl St., New York.
50c and $1.00
All Druggists.

Social Power of Food.
 "Feed the brute," is the famous advice to the young wife, who thought she was losing her husband's affection. It sounds harsh and cynical, says Youth's Companion, but it embodies a worldly wisdom that is not to be despised. The social efficacy of food is a matter with which every reformer and worker for the public good must learn to reckon. No one knows better how surely the way to man's heart lies through his stomach than those good old "mothers in Israel" who, in every country village, as well as in every city, are accustomed to bear the burden of the social functions of the church. "What kind of a supper shall we have?" is the first question they ask when a Sunday school reunion or a meeting of the men's club is suggested. They know by experience that without the supper the meeting will be a failure. There are sensitive souls to whom this knowledge is humiliating. It frets them to think that moral and spiritual force must be generated, as steam is, by shoveling lumps of materialistic fuel into the furnace. Such persons see only in part. Food stands for much besides physical sustenance. First of all, eating is one of the great social functions, lying nearer than anything else to the roots of existence; and to engage in this natural occupation puts one at ease in circumstances which are artificial. In the second place, the offering of food and the taking of it have come through countless generations of men, to assume almost the nature of a sacrament. To "break bread" with one is to assume and to confer new obligations, from which spring the relations of host and guest, sacred in every age and every condition. The season of these social functions in which eating plays a part is again at hand, and those whose duty it is to promote them can work content in the thought that the crusader who has a fork for a lance and a plate for a shield goes forward to the contest very well armed.

Business Pays Best.
 One of the striking manifestations of the times is the tendency of young men to seek opportunity in the world of business, rather than in the professions. Fifty years ago every well-to-do father of six sons made one of them a preacher, one of them a physician, one of them a lawyer, and one a politician or a soldier. Only the black sheep, the harum-scarum and the unstudious were sent into counting-houses and factories. To-day he holds the change. The flower of America's young manhood is at work not in the hospitals or the courts, but in iron foundries and slaughter houses. The younger Vanderbilts are firemen and engineers. The younger Armours slay the protesting swine. The professions, beginning by being overcrowded, have become unprofitable, and soon they may be sadly neglected. The law does not offer such prizes as the canned goods trade or copper smelting. The ministry is not comparable, in point of profit, with frozen finance of the mail order business.

An effort is making in Worcester, Mass., to break the will of the late William A. Richardson, who recently committed suicide by hanging and in his will left stock valued at over $200,000 to the city of Worcester for its park system. Richardson was a meat cutter and when in his prime made $35 a week, lived on a quart of milk and a loaf of bread a day, saved all his earnings and made fortunate investments. An inventory of his estate showed stock valued at over $250,000. The claim of those contesting the will is that he was of unsound mind. Ex-Congressman John R. Thayer appears for the will and Attorney General Parker for the next of kin who make the contest.

A sympathetic person sojourning in Holland writes home that Queen Wilhelmina has changed very much during the last few years. The pleasing attractive face has lost much of its former charm and the lines around the mouth and the eyes tell you that you are in the presence of a woman who has seen her dreams and expectations unfulfilled. While the Dutch formerly spoke of their young queen with sincere enthusiasm with a happy smile on their lips, it seems her name is now mentioned with tender pity and anxiety.

Nearly every pen manufacturer in America and Europe sent pens to Portsmouth, with the request that they be used in signing the Russo-Japanese treaty, but the "old gray goose" got the honor, after all. The assistant secretary of state procured four quills of the traditional cut, in the use of which no hint of advertising or favoritism could be suspected.

Remarkably ready response has been made in Boston to the suggestion of a memorial to Mayor Collins. A committee announced its readiness to receive subscriptions to a fund of $35,000 for the purpose named and in two days

Grammar and Business.
 A few years ago we often heard business men say, "What do I care for the grammar of a letter, so long as it gets the business?" Now business men quite generally recognize that grammar is an important element in getting business. Grammar is the science of the logical relationship of words and sentences. If words are not put together grammatically they fail to express the meaning clearly, asserts Sherwin Cody, in Success Magazine. Bad grammar and confusion are one and the same. So, too, the man who does not punctuate his letters correctly fails to express his meaning quite completely. The impression on the mind of the reader is not quite so clear and sharp. An incorrect letter is like a slightly blurred photograph. You can tell whom the hazy photograph represents, but the picture that is startlingly clear and sharp has a vast commercial advantage over one that is not. A few errors of punctuation and grammar in one letter do not matter much, but the same errors in a hundred letters, accumulating one on top of another, weigh vastly in the final success of a business. Successful men recognize this, and now the largest retail store in the world pays one dollar to its employees for every error of English one of them finds in any of the printed matter issued by the house. Already many other business houses are following this example in one way or another. The most striking evidence in the matter is the fact that stenographers who can write correct English get twice the salaries paid to ordinary stenographers. The president of a concern in Minneapolis widely known all over the country, employing 50 stenographers, said publicly not long ago: "If all my stenographers, clerks, salesmen, etc., would learn to write correct and effective business letters, they would be worth 25 per cent. more to me, and I should be willing to pay the full value of their services." I believe that any stenographer, no matter how good, could get his or her salary raised by dint of patient study of correct English during a period of six months.

Sugar and Stature.
 A Philadelphia physician has a new theory as to the reason why the modern maid is larger of stature and stronger and longer of limb than she used to be, which he does not, however, promulgate too publicly or urge too warmly, because it flies rather violently in the face of certain prevailing notions. The increased development referred to is not to be accounted for by athletics and outdoor life, says this doctor, because the girls are outstepping their brothers, who indulge in as much or more athletics than they. The real explanation, he thinks, lies in the increased consumption by young women of late years of sugar in the various sweetmeat forms. Modern man, to catch up to modern woman in the matter of physique, will have to turn to sugar as a diet, he assumes.

Luke Fagan, a hackman at Hempstead, Long Island, is not the man to be scared by wealth or titles. He and some other public drivers declare their rights were infringed upon when O. H. P. Belmont influenced the village trustees to pass an ordinance forbidding carriages to stand at the railroad depot in the way of the autos and traps used by the wealthy people in the vicinity. Belmont rode up to the station with the duchess of Marlborough in his car, Fagan was in the way and would not move. "I'm an American citizen in good standing and I'm not going to get out of the way for any duchess," said Fagan, and he didn't.

An innovation in Sunday school outings was recently introduced with good success by a New York Sunday school. Special trolley cars were chartered to carry the party to the shore and each member was tagged like an express package. Each tag had a number of coupons attached. One coupon was for ice cream, another for a bathing suit, others for rides on the switch-back and merry-go-rounds, while the tag itself was the ticket for the trip. The Sun says the scheme worked beautifully. No children were lost, and none had to go without his share of the fun.

Lincoln's birthplace has been bought by a New York gentleman, and it is proposed to secure it as a national possession forever. There seems to be a wholesome epidemic of effort to preserve houses of historic interest. Besides the Lincoln birthplace, three notable houses that have recently been objects of this effort are the Poe cottage at Fordham, N. Y., the Paul Revere house in Boston, and the Deane Winthrop house at Winthrop, Mass.

Maj. Morrow, judge advocate of the department of California, recommends as a remedy for the evil of desertion that the soldier's pay be increased from its present level of $13 per month. In the year 1904 there were 6,842 desertions, or about ten per cent. of the entire establishment. For the five years ending with 1904 the total desertions were 37,550.

R. R. TIME TABLES.
 THE LEHIGH VALLEY.
 Train 228 leaves Locks at 8:44 a. m. for Freeville, Cortland (9:30), Ithaca (9:40), Owego, Sayre, Philadelphia, Washington, New York (8:40 p. m.).
 Train 234 leaves Locks at 8:28 p. m. for Freeville, Cortland (9:35), Ithaca (9:45), Owego, Sayre, Philadelphia, Washington, New York (8:15 a. m.).
 Train 231 leaves Locks at 9:42 a. m., Moravia at 9:50, arriving at Auburn at 10:30.
 Train 233 leaves Locks at 6:22 p. m., Moravia at 6:30, arriving at Auburn at 7:10.
 Trains leave Auburn going South at 7:55 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.
 Train 286 (milk train) leaves Auburn at 9:25 a. m., Locke 10:22, Freeville 11:15.
 Train 285 (milk train) leaves Freeville 4:45 p. m., Locke 5:38, arriving at Auburn 6:20.
 Sunday trains leave Locks station going north at 8:41 a. m., 7:05 p. m.; south, 10:29 a. m., 7:05 p. m.
 For Sunday connections consult ticket agents.

AUBURN AND ITHACA BRANCH.
 Trains for Auburn leave Ithaca at 7:45 a. m., 5:55 p. m.; Atwaters at 8:22 a. m., 6:31 p. m.; King Ferry Station at 8:27 a. m., and 6:31 p. m.; Aurora at 8:42 a. m., 6:45 p. m.
 Trains for Ithaca (Cayuga Lake Road) leave Auburn at 11:35 a. m., and 6:20 p. m.; Aurora at 12:12 and 6:58 p. m.; King Ferry Station at 12:27 and 7:12 p. m.; Atwaters at 12:32 and 7:18. These trains land passengers in New York at 8:15 a. m. and 10:15 p. m.
 No Sunday trains on this branch.

THE NEW YORK CENTRAL.
 Trains leave Auburn for Syracuse and intermediate points as follows: 1:24, 5:59 and 9:27 a. m. and 12:04, 2:18, 5:12, 6:43 and 9:50 p. m. The 7:59 train lands passengers in New York at 1:00 p. m. and the 9:50 train at 7 in the morning.
 Trains leave Auburn for Rochester and intermediate points at 6:46, 8:22, 10:00 and 11:16 a. m., 1:15, 2:58, 4:28, 5:56 and 9:28. The 6:46 train lands passengers in Buffalo at 11:30; the 8:22 train at 1:05 at Rochester 8:40, Buffalo 11:50 p. m.

J. WILL TREE, BOOK BINDING, ITHACA.
 Orders taken at THE GENOA TRUNK OFFICE.

ATTENTION Farmers!
 We have on hand a full and complete line of Democrat wagons, top buggies, with or without rubber tires, lumber wagons, etc. Full line of harness, light double and single, robes, blankets and full line horse furnishings.

Full line of Fur Coats BARB WIRE 3C PER LB.

Complete line of machine extras. All sales on easy terms and reasonable prices. I buy fat stock of all kinds. A few second hand wagons and harness to close out very low.

W. J. Gorman.

Fall Shoes.
 You are invited to call and examine our goods. We don't expect you to buy goods from us if we can't make it pay you.

YOUR BOY may need a pair of shoes. We have great bargains in school shoes that have great wearing qualities.

YOUR GIRL may need a pair of shoes. We can give you the very best school shoes for girls and our prices will please you. Our prices are small but we are selling at a rate that will warrant our prices. With us it is quick sales and small profits. None but the best line of rubber goods.

Thomas Brennan,
 41 State St., Auburn, N. Y.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS
 WITH Dr. King's New Discovery
 FOR CONSUMPTION, Price 50c & $1.00
 COUGHS and CROUPS, Free Trial.
 Surest and Quickest Cure for all THROAT and LUNG TROUBLES, or MONEY BACK.

PATENTS
 PROCURED AND DEFENDED. Send model, describing carefully, for patent secured and free report. Free advice, how to obtain patents, trade marks, copyrights, etc., in all countries. Successes direct with Washington saves time. Patent and Invention Practice Exclusively. Write or come to us at 532 Ninth Street, opp. United States DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

FIERCE RIOTS IN ODESSA

Estimates of the Slaughter Still Growing—City Quiet

TREPOFF STOPS PARADES

Leaders Yield Now, but Promise to Use Their Power Later—Preparing for a Call to Arms When the Time is Ripe—Witte Has Trouble Forming a Cabinet.

Odesa, Nov. 7.—The storm here is over, at any rate for the present, and the city has begun to assume its normal aspect.

The estimates of the number of victims grow in magnitude, being now placed at 3,500 killed and 12,000 wounded. The accuracy of these figures will never be known, but when it is stated that in the suburb of Moidevarka alone 1,000 dead and wounded lay in the streets it will be realized that no official denials will serve to hide the terrible extent of the butchery.

There seems to be no doubt that there is a large proportion of Hebrews among the socialists and revolutionary parties and that they took their full share in the attacks on the bureaucrats and police. This, of course, gave the latter a plausible pretext for indulging in their superstitious hate of the Israelites.

Numbers of the victims were women and children. Two Red Cross doctors alone claim to have treated 300 children, who were gashed with swords on their heads and shoulders. Numbers of women were disemboweled. Many aged and sick of both sexes were hidden by relatives in cellars, but they were found by the mob, who poured petroleum on the helpless victims and burned them alive.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—The great demonstration which has been arranged to be held in honor of all who have fallen in the revolution was abandoned.

The city was placarded with a notice, signed by Gen. Trepoft, stating the political demonstrations would not be allowed in the present disturbed state of affairs, when one section of the population was ready to rise in arms against the other.

Subsequently the leaders of the workmen decided to abandon their plan, but the abandonment was not intended as a surrender. The council's control of the workers is strong enough to inspire confidence that its members will reestablish the strike whenever it is most opportune to paralyze the country, following this by a call to arms when the time is ripe. That preparations for such a call are going on is unquestionable.

Warsaw, Nov. 7.—Never since the insurrection of 1863 have things like to-day been seen here. "God save Poland!" and "Long live Poland!" have been the watchwords of remarkable demonstrations, which were almost entirely national in character.

Processions, headed by men carrying the flag of independent Poland and other Polish banners, formed at the Roman Catholic churches and paraded the streets. Roman Catholic priests, in canonical vestments marched beneath the flags at the head of each column.

Kieff, Nov. 7.—The Governor General has resigned because he was not allowed to forcibly suppress the riots here. A mob broke into the Town Hall last night and tore down the Czar's portrait. A lawyer named Rattner cut out the face of the portrait and thrust his own head through the opening and harangued the crowd. Troops arrived and fired a number of volleys, killing forty.

"C" Seymour, the famous outfielder of the Cincinnati "Reds," who was the champion pitcher of the League in 1893, has won the admiration of all baseball patrons in the country by winning the championship in batting during the season just ended.

The beginning of Winter brings many wants that must be supplied. The holiday season creates gift buying. Our great stock meets these varied interests.

Foster, Ross & Company
 THE BIG STORE

Silks and Dress Goods

Old Santa Claus—there's a hint for you. The Dress Goods and Silk stock is the backbone of a Dry Goods business and here the backbone is a strong and sturdy one.

Quality, Variety, Style, Price. Fascination for you in all of Them.

A beautiful collection—the combined skill of designer and weaver never showed to better advantage. One never gets such an idea of the comprehensiveness of a stock as when he attempts to tell its story in a few newspaper inches.

Silks—Come Hear Them Rustle!

In black we make a specialty of the productions of the York Silk Manufacturing Co.—a good concern to pin your faith to. The goods carry a double guarantee—the makers and ours. The "Moneybak" brand is made of the highest quality of silk. It comes in Taffeta, Peau de Cygne, Messaline, Peau de Soie and Pres de Louisiane. Width 20 to 36 inches, price $1 to $2 yard. Other brands are the Windsor, the Diamond, the Dependable, and the name will be found woven along the selvage of every yard—to protect you from substitution.

A Dazzling Array of Colored Silks

In all the rainbow tints...plain colors...fancies...plaids...crepe de chine, &c. The best and biggest line we have ever shown.

Our Special 3A Taffeta at 85c per yd

In all the prevailing shades, we ask you to compare with anything you meet with elsewhere at $1. Full line of Skinner Satins—the best wearing in the world for Coat and Suit linings.

DRESS GOODS Two short words that cover a multitude of beauty. Having created the greatest Dress Goods business in the city, we cannot afford NOW to let it be surpassed at any point whatever.

NO SUCH SHOWING EVER BEFORE ATTEMPTED IN AUBURN, AND NO SUCH VALUE GIVING. NEW IDEAS IN THE WEAVE--NOVELTY IN COLOR BLENDINGS--ELEGANCE IN EVERY FOLD. GRAND RANGES AT 50C, 75C, 85C, $1, $1.25, $1.50

SERGES Here in abundance—now so popular for Peter Thompson and Sailor Suits, School Dresses and Street Suits, 50c to $2

LANSDOWNE The only real Lansdowne, the READ Lansdowne—with its own peculiar beauty and genuine worth—here in all the new shades, $1.25 yd

BROADCLOTHS & VENETIANS Old names, but here in all their new beauty of color and finish. Every conceivable shade, from the bold red to the delicate pastel tints. Best efforts of French, English, German, Austrian and American weavers, dyers and finishers, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.50. The quality at $1 is the best value we have ever seen. Worsted Suitings, Rain Cloths, Cloak Cloths, Jacket Cloths in the prevailing styles. Black Goods—no stint. Voiles, Henriettes, Crepes, Tansies, Vellings, Shadowed Goods, &c. Accept this as an invitation to come, inspect and compare.

Come Shop With Us. Foster, Ross & Company.

Drain Tile!

Good stock—first class (full measure inside) 2, 3 and 4 inch Tile. Also Hemlock and Pine Lumber, Cedar Posts, Cedar and Hemlock Shingles, Lister Bros.' Fertilizer, &c. Prices reasonable.

J. G. Atwater & Son, KING FERRY STATION.

Auction Bills Printed While You Wait.

Rochester Trust & Safe Deposit Company,
 25 Exchange St., Rochester, N. Y.
 Capital Stock Paid is - - - $200,000.00
 Resources - - - - - $19,063,451.05.
 The Oldest and Largest Trust Company in Western New York.
 Interest paid on Deposits at the rate of FOUR PER CENT
 compounded semi-annually and subject to check. DO YOUR BANKING BY MAIL. Money received by Draft, Post or Express money orders.
$5.00 will open an account.

All kinds of Mill Work furnished. Doors, Windows, Frames, Blinds. Mouldings, Cisterns, Tanks, etc. The celebrated Lucas Paints, Oils, Dryer, Turpentine, Varnish. The best Asphalt Roofing on the

THE GENOA TRIBUNE,

Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y.
Clarence A. Ames, Editor and Publisher.

EIGHT NEWS PAGES
ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
$1.25 AT END OF YEAR.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 10, 1905

ALL KINDS OF PRINTING.

The Tribune has facilities for doing job work which are excellent by far. Fine presses, the latest make of type, experienced workmen and promptness of execution are our inducements for a share of your patronage.

Advertising rates furnished upon application. Local business notices, etc. 40c. per line. Cards of thanks 20 cents. Obituaries 50 cents. Cash must accompany the copy.

SUBSCRIPTION AGENTS. Any newspaper or periodical published secured at publisher's price or less. Orders taken for book binding of all kinds. Good work.

DR. J. W. SKINNER, Homeopathic and Surgeon, Genoa, N. Y. Special attention given to diseases of women and children. Cancer removed without pain by escharotic. Office at residence.

DR. WILLIAM FROST, Surgeon Dentist. Preserving the natural teeth a specialty. Teeth extracted without pain, using liquid gas. Perfectly harmless. Office over postoffice, Moravia, N. Y.

C. A. AMES, NOTARY PUBLIC, Genoa, N. Y.

Legal Papers Drawn: Blanks Furnished. Foreclosures, Deeds, Mortgages (and Surrogates Business Carefully Attended. Office in Tribune Building. Registered also in Tompkins County.

ECZEMA and PILE CURE

FREE: Knowing what it was to suffer, I will give FREE OF CHARGE, to any afflicted a positive cure for Eczema, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Piles and skin diseases. Instant relief. Don't suffer longer. Write F. W. WILLIAMS, 400 Manhattan Avenue, New York.

Ideal Liver and Blood Tablets.

For Sick Headache, Dizziness, Habitual Constipation, Malaria, take the IDEAL LIVER AND BLOOD TABLETS. One bottle 25c; five bottles $1.00. By mail or at dealers. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Agents wanted.

The Ideal Pill Co. Interlaken, Seneca Co., N. Y.

WHEN YOU READ do you find it necessary to hold your book or paper a considerable distance from your eyes? If so you need glasses and should get them without delay. Consult me about your eyesight.

Fred Leland Swart, formerly of Croswan & Swart, now located under the City clock, corner Genesee and South Sts. Take elevator on South St.

HOMER Steam Marble and Granite Works

JOSEPH WATSON & CO., Manufacturers of and Dealers in MONUMENTS, HEADSTONES and LOT ENCLOSURES in Foreign and American Granite and Marble.

In buying direct from the manufacturer you save the middleman's profit. By giving our work personal attention we guarantee the best of work and material. We employ practical workmen and designers, and furnish original and special designs with estimates on application.

JOSEPH WATSON CO. HOMER, N. Y.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never fails to restore Gray Hair to its youthful color. Cures scalp diseases and hair falling out. Price 25c. Sold everywhere.

EYES EXAMINED FREE The Scientific Examination of the eye by artificial light is the latest up-to-date method. It shows every defect of vision and corrects it. Broken glasses, all kinds, repaired. Correct Glasses $1.00 up. ARTIFICIAL EYES $1.00.

Clarence Sherwood, THE OPTICIAN, 40 Genesee Street, Opposite South Street.

News & Notes

Clarence von Bokelen, a student of the Santa Clara, Cal., High School, died of a skull fracture sustained during a football game between the Santa Clara and the San Jose high schools.

As a result of the installation in Newark, N. J., of a high pressure water system for fire purposes in the business and manufacturing centers, the Newark Fire Insurance Exchange has announced a voluntary reduction of ten per cent. in fire insurance rates.

Celtic Park, New York, was the scene of frequent fighting at the Gaelic football games between Louth and Meath and Leitrim and Cork, both being the matches.

Maria Goddard, a French maid, told Mrs. Margretta Todd having taken papers away with her which were not in her handbag when she was found dead.

Lieutenant-General Adna R. Chaffee, chief of staff of the United States Army, may retire about January 1 and be succeeded by Major General John C. Bates, now assistant chief of staff.

Congressman Littlefield, of Maine, last week, dissolved his law partnership with his brother, and it is believed he will soon move to New York.

At Ishpeming, Mich., a gas explosion in the basement of the Miners' National Bank completely wrecked the building, killing four children, fatally injuring three adults and more or less seriously injuring a dozen others.

Yesterday the Long Island Railroad Company put its new electric schedule into operation on Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, and all the trains that left the Flatbush Avenue depot or arrived at that depot were propelled by electricity.

Miss Annie Wood, once one of the best known actresses on the American stage, died at her home, New York.

The reports of the sale of the Nevada-Goldfield and Nevada-Sunshine mines at Gold Mountain between Goldfield and Bullfrog for $200,000 are confirmed.

Believing he was shooting at a burglar, Hayden R. Craft, a hardware merchant, killed his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Coddington, nineteen years old, in their home, in Uniontown, Pa., Sunday morning.

Four young men were injured, three of them seriously, in a football game played in Trenton, N. J., between the E. L. Kerns Association eleven and the team of the Horton-Large Business College.

The largest price ever paid for a seat on the Cotton Exchange, New York, has been given by E. F. Hutton Co. It was $22,000.

Orlenoff's Russian Lyceum is the name of a modest little playhouse in East Third Street, just off the Bowery, New York, which was opened to the public for the first time last week.

President Harper of the University of Chicago is now living on nothing but liquids, and in order to lessen the terrible pains of the growing cancer, the abdominal region is constantly kept numb.

Mr. Taft, Secretary of War, and party have arrived in Panama.

The new battleship Rhode Island established a new speed record for American battleships by running a mile at the rate of 19.33 knots an hour.

Indicted Beef Trust men in Chicago set up a new plea, alleging they were promised immunity from prosecution by Commissioner Garfield when they testified in his investigation of the beef business.

Prince Louis of Battenberg witnessed a dress parade by Annapolis cadets, and was present at a banquet on the Mayflower.

Baron Speck von Sternburg, German Ambassador, said, on his return to this country, that the Kaiser and the entire German people expressed admiration for President Roosevelt's efforts in behalf of peace between Russia and Japan.

Twenty-five thousand dollars was obtained at the sale of Horse Show boxes in the Garden Theater, in New York. Harry Payne Whitney got first choice for $550.

There are so few officers in the navy who are fit for engineering duty that if the country should be suddenly plunged into war the navy would be in a most serious condition, according to a report from the Navy Department.

The union plasterers have made demands on a number of the independent employers in New York for $6 a day, an advance of 30 cents.

A trapper named Lacombe, of Westtown, N. Y., was caught and killed in one of his own traps, a deadfall for bears. He had been away from home several days before his body was found.

Mistaken for a bear, John McAllister, aged 32, was shot and instantly killed at Maple Ridge, Mich., by William Bridges, his brother-in-law.

Judge J. W. Adams, City Judge of the town of Kenner, in Jefferson parish, La., and John Ledoux, constable of his court, have been arrested by Sheriff Marrero, charged with the murder of a negro woman.

Twelve thousand carpenters, forming the unions in the District Council of the Brotherhood of Carpenters in

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie and Mrs. Leiter sailed for New York on the steamer Baltic.

Thomas Youngs, who died in Hempstead after a brief illness was one of the oldest and best known residents of Long Island. President Roosevelt's beautiful place was sold to the President's father in 1873 by Mr. Youngs.

At a special meeting of the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad today the regular semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent. on the capital stock was declared payable after November 15.

The public debt of the United States, according to a statement issued to-day by the Treasury Department, increased $6,088,115 during the month of October. The debt, less cash in the Treasury, October 31, was $1,002,646,125.

Two emblems, in which the Stars and Stripes and the red flag of anarchy were displayed side by side, were torn down by crowds in New York.

Secretary Root in recognizing M. Hauge as Charge d'Affaires for Norway has practically recognized for the United States the existence of Norway as a separate Power.

Commercial failures during October were 852 in number and $6,751,998 in amount of defaulted indebtedness, according to statistics compiled by Dun's Review.

With a blustering gale from up the lakes, accompanied by rain and snow, winter has struck Buffalo.

Mrs. Della George, probably the oldest resident in the State of New York, died in Lancaster. She was in the 108th year of her age. Her husband served in the War of 1812.

New York city's running expenses for next year will surpass all previous records, $116,805,490.37 having been set aside to meet them by the Board of Estimate at a special meeting.

Police Commissioner McAduo, of New York, appointed eighteen new police captains. This is the largest number of captains ever made at one time in the history of the department.

The length of steam railroads in the United States on December 31, 1904, was 212,349 miles, a net increase of 5,014 miles in the year. The heaviest construction of the year was in the southwestern group of States.

Announcement was made at the White House to-day that the President had appointed Charles A. Stillings of Boston Public Printer of the United States.

A rumor is current on the stock market that a Japanese loan of $300,000,000 in 4 per cents. will be issued in a few days. The issue price is reported to be 90.

Foreign. The revolutionary committee at St. Petersburg decided to suspend the political strike for thirty days in order to organize an armed rising, if at the end of that time the government shall have failed to fulfill its promises.

The massacre at the American Presbyterian mission at Lienchau on October 28, when five persons were killed by the action of two members of the mission, the daughter of Dr. Machie and a deaconess, in endeavoring to dissuade a number of Chinese worshippers from offering prayers to an idol.

According to Paris despatches, the Venezuelan government suspended cable messages to the United States, France and Great Britain, which the French authorities regard as an additional provocation.

Five American Presbyterian missionaries were murdered on October 28 at Lienchau, China. They included Mrs. Machie, Dr. Chestnut and Mr. and Mrs. Peale. Mrs. Machie's child was also killed.

The Agrarian League of Cuba publicly announces that it favors the ratification of the Anglo-Cuban Convention.

According to a despatch from St. Petersburg, Count Witte authorizes the announcement that the Ministry of Justice will free all political prisoners whose release at the present moment will not endanger public order.

All the foreign representatives proceeded to the palace in Tokio to tender their congratulations to the Emperor on the restoration of peace.

Lord Curzon, who recently resigned the vice-royalty, is ill with fever, brought on by exposure to the sun. His departure for England has been indefinitely postponed.

Information reaching the highest quarters shows that definite arrangements have been made whereby Prince Charles of Denmark will accept the throne of Norway, following a plebiscite to take place on November 12.

In Santiago, Chili, a mob wrecked the offices of the prefect of police. The police charged the rioters with drawn swords and revolvers. Several persons were killed and fifty injured.

Sports. A match between Bob Fitzsimmons and Jack O'Brien is to be one of theistic fixtures at San Francisco next month.

Kaufman, of California, met Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia the other night at San Francisco and after seventeen very hard and bloody rounds the former was forced to bite the dust. It was Kaufman's first real battle, and although he was whipped he has no cause to feel ashamed of

To Publishers and Printers

We have an entirely new process, on which patents are pending, whereby we can reface old Brass Column and Head Rules, 4 pt. and thicker, and make them fully as good as new and without any unsightly knobs or feet on the bottom.

PRICES Refacing Column and Head Rules regular lengths 30c each Refacing L. S. Column and Head Rules lengths 2 in. and over 40c per lb. A sample of refaced Rule, with full particulars, will be cheerfully sent on application.

Philadelphia Printers' Supply Company Manufacturers of Type and High Grade PRINTING MATERIAL 39 N. Ninth St. Phila. Send for Catalogue.

PURE DRUGS & MEDICINES, Perfumes and fine Toilet Soap. Also choice groceries. A. E. Clark, King Ferry.

The clubbing rates quoted on another page are for your benefit.

BUY A FULLER & WARREN FUR NACE, STOVE OR HEATER AND BE COMFORTABLE THIS WINTER. BETTER DROP IN AND GET PRICES ON GOOD GOODS.

John I. Bower, KING FERRY, N. Y.

Mosher, Griswold & Co

Take the Pang Out of Winter By being ready with the proper weight clothing the weather demands. Just now A Rain Coat or Fall Overcoat is heavy enough but later when the cold winds blow a Paletot or Chesterfield style of overcoat will be the proper thing

Prices from $8 to $30. For the extremely cold weather there is nothing like a Fur Coat.

Mosher, Griswold Co., 87-89 Genesee St., Auburn.

Every farmer and business man should use envelopes with his name printed on the corner. It insures the return of the letter if not delivered. One hundred fine envelopes printed for 75 cents. Order by mail or call at THE TRIBUNE office.

October is the Best Time to paint your buildings. The editor's residence is painted with the celebrated Derby paints. It is a good job. Sold by Hagin & Peck, hardware.

Miss Roosevelt's Manchurian Pet. Washington, Nov. 7.—The only pet which Miss Alice Roosevelt brought back with her from the Orient is a small pug nosed spaniel, which was presented to her in Manchuria, and which she brought all the way from there, in the ship and on the train. The dog in a tiny, silky, long haired little creature, extremely bright, and whose glossy coat is the admiration of all who set eyes upon it. Miss Roosevelt is especially attached to the dog. She has named it Manchu.

Football Claims Another Victim. Chicago, Nov. 7.—Football claimed its first victim of the season in Chicago yesterday in a game between Oak Park and Hyde Park High School teams. In a tackle, which probably won the game for his eleven, Verne Mize, left end of the Oak Park team, struck his head against the hip bone of the opposing fullback. A hemorrhage of the spinal column resulted, paralyzing the boy.

Wealthy Quarryman Killed. Somerville, N. J., Nov. 7.—William Haelig, a wealthy quarryman, left his residence near the Watchung Mountain to inspect his quarry Sunday morning. He carried a large amount of money. An hour later a Hungarian laborer found Haelig's mangled body scattered along the railroad track near the stone crusher. No trains run on Sunday over this branch of the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Castro's Offer to France. Washington, Nov. 7.—According to a statement made here President Castro has offered to reestablish his diplomatic relations with M. Talgy, the French Charge d'Affaires, if France withdraws its demand for an apology for the affront to the honor of the French government. The offer to France was contained in Castro's refusal in September to have anything to do with M. Talgy.

NEW YORK MARKET PRICES. MILK.—The Milk Exchange price for standard quality is 3 cents per quart. BUTTER.—Creamery, Western, extra, 28c; State dairy tubs, firsts, 20c 21c.

CHEESE.—State, full cream, fancy 12 1/2c; part skims, good to prime, 9 1/2c. EGGS.—Jersey, fancy, 54c; Western, choice, 26c 37c.

BEANS.—Marlow, choice, $2.75; medium, choice, $2.00.

PEAS.—Choice, $1.75; red kidney, $2.80; Lima, Cal., $2.60.

APPLES.—King, per bbl., $2.50m 4.50; Greening, per bbl., $2.00m 4.00.

GRAPES.—Concord, per basket, 9c 14c. CRANBERRIES.—Per bbl., $7.00m 10.00.

CHICKENS, live, per lb., 11c.; dressed, Philadelphia, per lb., 13c 22c.; western, dressed, per lb., 17c 18c.

GREASE, live, per pair, $1.10m 1.60.

DUCKS.—Live, per pair, 60c 80c.

HOPS.—State, 1904, choice, per lb., 21c 22c.; Pacific coast, 1904, choice, 16c.

HAY.—Prims, per 100 lb., 83c 85c.

STRAW.—Long rye, 75c.

POTATOES.—L. I., per bbl., $2.25; N. J., per bbl., $2.00m 2.25.

SWEET POTATOES.—Per basket, 40c 75c.

CUCUMBERS.—Per bbl., $2.50m 9.00.

CABBAGES.—Per bbl., 75c 1.25.

CABBAGES.—Per 100, $2.50m 3.50.

LETTUCE.—Per bbl., 50c 1.00.

ONIONS.—L. I., per bag, $1.50m 1.75.

CHEWY.—Per dozen bunches, 15c 40c.

SPINACH.—Per barrel, 75c.

BEETS.—Per 100 bunches, 70c 1.00.

FLOUR.—Winter patents, $4.25m 4.65; Spring patents, $4.85m 5.75.

WHEAT.—No. 1 N. Duluth, 99c.; No. 2 Red, 98c.

CORN.—No. 2 White, 64c.

OATS.—Mixed, 34c 35c.

"Pirate" King Captured. Boston, Mass., Nov. 7.—By the arrest of a young man giving the name of Frank Green, of 205 East Twentieth Street, New York city, who had about him $1,000 worth of jewelry, some of which is believed to have been stolen, the Boston police believe they have captured H. A. Jackson, the so-called "Pirate King of Newport."

Storm Tossed Passengers. New York, Nov. 7.—The crack Kaiser Wilhelm II. steamed into port after a rough voyage. She made the trip in six days and two hours at an average speed of 20.85 knots. There were two deaths aboard and a good deal of sickness. She was freighted with the greater part of Herr Conrad's aviary of singers, besides Senator W. A. Clark, Ambassador Speck von Sternburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt and many other notables.

Vermont Roadagents Busy. Alstead, N. H., Nov. 7.—Applying the whip to his horses and dropping to the footboard among his mail pouches, L. P. Bragg, driver of the Bellows Falls, Vt., stage coach, fought his way through a band of highwaymen last night, exchanging shot for shot with them, and bringing his mail and express matter through safe.

Cruiser Marblehead Damaged. Vallejo, Cal., Nov. 7.—The refrigerator ship Celtic, which arrived at Mare Island yard, while attempting to moor alongside the cruiser Marblehead crashed into that ship with such force that two of the Marblehead's 5 inch guns were broken and it is feared some of her plates are cracked.

State Senator Gets Five Years. San Francisco, Nov. 7.—State Sen-

Pure Drugs and Medicines.

At Banker's DRUG AND BOOK STORE GENOA.

J. A. HUDSON, Auctioneer and Appraiser, SHERWOOD, N. Y.

Farm and stock sales a specialty. Years of successful experience enables me to bring for my clients the best results. Call or write for terms, etc. Bell phone.

Painless DENTISTRY.

Teeth without plates a specialty. Old roots and discolored teeth restored to beauty and usefulness, by my new system of Crown and Bridge work. Teeth extracted without pain. Also the making of artificial teeth Specialties.

At King Ferry, Friday, Nov. 10. At Aurora every Monday afternoon. H. M. Dommert, Dentist, Union Springs, N. Y.

TILE

All sizes, best quality, in any quantity . . . NOW ON HAND

GENOA BRICK AND TILE COMPANY J. S. BANKER, Sec'y

5000 TELEGRAPHERS NEEDED

Annually, to fill the new positions created by Railroad and Telegraph Companies. We want YOUNG MEN and LADIES of good habits, to LEARN TELEGRAPHY AND R. ACCOUNTING.

We furnish 75 per cent. of the Operators and Station Agents in America. Our six schools are the largest exclusive Telegraph School IN THE WORLD. Established 20 years and endorsed by all leading Railway Officials.

The Morse School of Telegraph.

Cincinnati, Ohio. Buffalo, N. Y. Atlanta, Ga. LaCrosse, Wis. Texarkana, Tex. San Francisco, Cal.

FIRE!

E. C. HILLMAN, Levanna, N. Y.

GENERAL FIRE INSURANCE.

I place your risks in none but sound companies, at reasonable rates. Regular trip every thirty days. The Glens Falls Co. carries the majority of risks in this section; I also have other good companies.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PAINTS

TRADE MARK. COPIED BY THE GENOA TRIBUNE. Copyright, 1905, by E. C. Hillman.

THE GENOA TRIBUNE
Established 1890.
A LOCAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY
Tribune Bldg., Genoa, N. Y. C. A. AMES, Editor.

Subscription Rates—If paid in advance, $1.00 per year, 50 cents for 6 months, 25 cents for 3 months, single copies 5 cents. If not paid in advance, a rate of $1.50 per year will be charged. Receipt and credit of payment is shown by date on address labels; with this memorandum constantly before the subscriber there can be no reasonable excuse for not accepting the $1 rate. If no orders are received to discontinue at expiration of time paid for, the publisher assumes that the subscriber wishes the paper continued and intends to pay at his earliest convenience. When discontinuance is desired arrangements must be paid.

Rates for Advertising—Local reading notices, 5 cents per line first insertion, 3 cents per line each insertion thereafter. Display advertising, 10 cents per inch each insertion; yearly contracts 8 cents.

We are pleased to receive at all times expressions of individual opinion and criticism, but no attention will be paid to unsigned communications. The signature is not required necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Miller telephone.

Entered at the postoffice at Genoa, N. Y., as second class matter.

Address all communications to
THE TRIBUNE, Genoa, N. Y.

Friday Morning, Nov. 10, 1905

Civil Liberty in Russia.
FROM THE OUTLOOK.

Autocracy surrenders. Constitutionalism triumphs. The vacillating Czar proclaims as his inflexible will liberty throughout all the land. But liberty proclaimed is not liberty secured. How shall it be secured?

The struggle was incited, as all modern revolutions have been incited, by intolerable industrial conditions. Men do not fight for liberty in the abstract; they fight for bread. It was England's industrial oppression that goaded the American colonies to revolt. It was cold and famine that summoned the canaille of France to revolution. It was the hunger of the ill paid workmen that brought England to the verge of revolution in the second quarter of the nineteenth century, and the repeal of the corn laws that averted the disaster. It was overwork and underpay that at last drove the patient Russian to an industrial revolution which made of St. Petersburg a beleaguered city. The workingmen are saying to Russia what Carlyle over half a century ago said to England:

The four-footed worker has already got all that his two handed one is clamoring for! How often must I remind you? There is not a horse in England, able and willing to work, but has due food and lodging; and goes about sleek coated, satisfied in heart. And you say, it is impossible. Brothers, I answer, if for you it is impossible, what is to become of you? It is impossible for us to believe it to be impossible. The human brain, looking at these sleek English horses, refuses to believe in such impossibility for English men.

The cry of the Russian workingman repeats the cry of the world's workers in other ages and other lands: a demand for a chance to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow. No man ought to perish with hunger. If he does, there is wrong somewhere. To ascertain what it is, and to righten it, is ever the world's problem; just now acutely the Russian problem. But the remedy that the radical revolutionists propose is the old quack remedy, which of itself cures nothing—never has and never will—universal suffrage. The argument is brief, thus: Just government seeks the greatest good of the greatest number. Give the power of government to the greatest number and they will seek their own good. This will give just government. This was the argument of the Benthamites in England, of the Revolutionary idealists in France, of the Thomas Paine democracy in America, of the radicals at the close of the Civil war, of the so-called anti-imperialists today. But the extension of political power did not give a pure government to England; nor a just government to France; nor has it secured honest government in America; nor did it promote the greatest good of the greatest number, either black or white, in the South in the so-called re-construction, but really re-destruction, period; nor will it give good government, much less industrial prosperity, to Porto Ricans, Hawaiians, or Filipinos; nor is it a panacea for Russia. A community composed of units each of which cannot govern himself cannot be a self governing community. Universal education and universal morality are the prerequisites to universal suffrage. What democracy requires is not unqualified suffrage, but such qualifications attached to suffrage, and such industrial and educational provisions in the community, that all men can qualify themselves for suffrage: if a property qualification, then no more property than honest industry can early acquire; if an educational qualification, then a public school which will enable all to attain the education.

The revolutionists are right in demanding redress. They are right in demanding the five corner-stones of industrial and political liberty: Freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom of press, freedom of person, and a free responsible representative assembly. But they are wrong in thinking that universal suffrage will give them this freedom. Mobocracy is as perilous to freedom as autocracy. To make an assembly represent all classes and all sections it is not necessary to have it represent all individuals. Count Witte is reported to have said to the strikers that universal suffrage would lead to corruption and the usurpation of power by the capitalists. All history confirms his prophecy. But do the Russian strikers know history? Do they care for history? Wise men learn by the experience of others; fools only by their own. Are the Russian workingmen wise enough to be willing to learn by the experience of others? Or can they learn only by their own? If the latter is the case, Russia has a hard journey before her.

There are in Russia today, as there always are in such national crises, three parties: a reactionary party, which wishes to leave things as they are; a revolutionary party, which wishes to clear the country of all her institutions and begin afresh; and a progressive party, which wishes to develop out of the autocratic institutions of the past the free institutions of the future. If the Czar only had intelligence and courage to match his power! But he is apparently another Louis XVI. Nothing is more tragic than this: a weak good man put in a place that needs a strong wise man. This was the tragedy of France in the eighteenth century; this is the tragedy of Russia in the twentieth. A strong foolish man might perhaps have repressed the revolution for another quarter of a century. A strong wise man might have put himself at the head of the progressive party and led a political revolution to a peaceful issue. This foolish weak man has done neither. It was not in him to do either. He has not even the wisdom to choose his advisers. He has not had even the strength to adhere to the advice which he has accepted. And so the revolution gathered strength while he vacillated. Committees of safety were even organized to give that protection to persons and property which he was proved incompetent to give. The process of dethronement began. It might have been consummated by voluntary abdication, by assassination, or by compulsory exile; it has issued, through the Czar's proclamation, in a plan for constitutional government. But the dangers of autocracy are ended. No power can restore Nicholas II. to the throne of the Czars. He will become either a limited monarch or no monarch at all.

The future no man can foretell. Will the overthrow of autocracy lead to a dismemberment of the Russian Empire, as the overthrow of the Roman Empire led to the dismemberment of the Roman Empire? Or will it be followed by a military regime, as the overthrow of Bourbonism in France was followed by the regime of Napoleon? Or is there a Russian statesman waiting to play the part that Cromwell played in England? Or will the progressives, under the leadership of Witte, yet be able, out of an autocracy falling into ruins, to develop a free government without an interregnum of anarchy? Who can tell? Russia's immediate future depends upon the question whether radicals or progressives are to control her destiny.

Laugh and Be Healthy.

A physician in search for remedies for human ills finds that laughter stands very high in the list of prophylactics. The effect of mere cheerfulness as a health promoter is well known, but an occasional outburst of downright laughter is the heroic remedy. It is a matter of every-day experience, says the authority in question, that one feels the better for a good laugh, an explosion of laughter being in truth a "nerve storm, comparable in its effect to a thunder-storm in nature, doing good by dissipating those oppressive clouds of care which sometimes darken the mental horizon." This authority assures us that the memorable adage, "Laugh and grow fat," rests on a sound philosophical basis. Portly people are not given to laughter, because they are fat; they are fat because they laugh.

An Obnoxious Individual.

Tonawanda, N. Y., has a "Peeping Tom" whom the police have been endeavoring to apprehend for several weeks. Their efforts have proven of no avail and the marauder still continues his nefarious vocation. A number of residents have provided themselves with firearms and it promises to go hard with the man if he is caught by any of them. Some citizens are so indignant that they have finally decided to employ detectives to accomplish the arrest of the peeper.

PLEASE SETTLE
YOUR ACCOUNTS

...at...

OLIVER'S Market,
GENOA, - N. Y.

Most Anything.

Never tell all you know; save some thought for seed.—Bill Nye.

Some one has described a pessimist as being a man who is always looking for trouble and isn't satisfied when he finds it.

Student—I don't think I deserve an absolute zero.

Professor—No, sir; neither do I. But it is the lowest mark I am allowed to give. Good day.—Yale Record.

A little girl was asked in her Sunday school class, "What is a lie?" She answered fluently, but somewhat mixed, "A lie is an abomination unto the Lord, and a very, present help in time of trouble."

"Is it true that when people have lived so long together they begin to think alike?"

"I guess it is. I know I always make a practice of thinking just what my wife wants me to think."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

An editor in a neighboring state printed the following: "The fellow who is courting a certain married lady had better leave town, as the husband is on to him." The paper had not been out very long before every man had left the place, except three old cripples and a man who had not read the paper.—Ex.

A lady while in a poetic mood the other night directed her little daughter's attention to the heavens, saying:

"See the beautiful moon. She is the kind mother, and all those twinkling stars are her children."

After little Gertrude had looked over the celestial field for a moment she said:

"Well, I guess Roosevelt ain't got no excuse to scold old Mrs. Moon."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A young lady was the object of much teasing on account of her rather unusual size. On one occasion when she was playing tennis, she jumped to strike the ball. A little man who was present laughed uproariously and said:

"That reminds me of the time when the 'cow jumped over the moon.'"

Instantly she said, "Well, you know who laughed."—N. Y. World.

When a historian is describing the character of a man whose record was stained by crimes of the most atrocious type, he sometimes sums up his accusations by saying that this monster of cruelty was a "devil incarnate" or a "devil in human form." This suggests to our mind the utmost excesses of wickedness of which any human being could be capable. It may startle us, then, to learn that St. Paul applies this terrible name to a class of people which has representatives in almost every town and village. In the midst of his classification of various phases of ungodliness, if we are reading it in the original Greek, we come suddenly upon the word diaboloi, or "devils." If we turn to an English translation, we find that in the authorized version the word is rendered "false accusers" and in the revised, "slandera." Then we remember that diabolos literally, means slanderer or accuser, and the significance of the fact begins to dawn upon us. It means that the most characteristic feature in the prince of evil is his malicious fondness for bringing false accusations. And the one class of human beings which shares the devil's name consists of those who break the ninth commandment. Ye, somehow, although we all know it is a wrong thing to do, to bear false witness against one's neighbor is not considered so heinous an offense as this fact would imply.—Forward.

"Yes, he we t down on his knees to her and begged her to end his misery."

"Did she?"

"No; she's going to marry him."—Houston Post.

After much persuasion a West Virginia man, who is hale and hearty at the age of 106 years, has told the secret of his longevity, which is summed up in this diet: A boiled supper just before bedtime, with some cranberry jelly, plum pudding, and pumpkin pie thrown in. There has long been a suspicion that the merits of pumpkin pie had been much underrated.—Dem. and Chron.

"You must find that impediment in your speech rather inconvenient at times, Mr. Riggs?"

"Oh, n-no. Everybody has his little peculiarity. Stammering is m m-mine. What is y-yours?"

"Well, really I am not aware that I have any."

"D do you stir y-your tea with your right hand?"

"Why, yes, of course."

"W-well, that is your p-peculiarity. Most p people u-use a t-teaspoon."

SAY, FARMERS!

Our mill is now running daily. All grists promptly and satisfactorily ground. Buckwheat flour now on sale.

The damage caused by water has been repaired and the mill is running daily. A full stock of Flour and Feed of all kinds now on hand. Bring your orders here and get satisfaction.

GENOA MILLING COMPANY.
* GENOA, N. Y. *
MILLER 'PHONE.

Sterling
Stoves
and Heaters.

A new and up-to-date stock just received. Better call in and get prices before buying elsewhere.

HAGIN and PECK'S
The Reliable Hardware, Genoa
MILLER 'PHONE.

ROTHSCHILD BROS.
DEPARTMENT STORES

"NEGLECTED"

During the last few weeks we have neglected to keep you informed of what has been done in our stores, as just to get down to doing business was our aim. From now on, every week, we will keep you posted of what is being done in the "Little World by Itself."

Our additions and improvements are a sight to see. Can you come and pay us a visit?

ROTHSCHILD BROS., - ITHACA.

WE have been working several years to establish our reputation. We have accomplished the best for ourselves by doing the best for our customers.

THE BEST GOODS

at the least possible price has combined to help build the business to a point where people look to us for the best. We will protect that reputation.

G. S. AIKIN,
King Ferry.

The Village News

Weekly Compendium of Local Happenings—
Various Items of Interest to Genoa People.

—Miss L. M. Goodelle was in Auburn on business Monday.

—W. S. Eaton returned from a short trip to Sempronius Monday.

—Mrs. S. J. Hand is spending a few days in Auburn.

—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hunt of Auburn on Nov. 8, 1905.

—Mrs. Lucy Dodd and son Fred have moved to the upper rooms in the Morrison building.

—E. B. Whitten and Lee Hewitt of Auburn were in town Tuesday to vote.

—Says the Owosso Argus: Mrs. P. C. Storm and mother, Mrs. Belle Miller, have returned from a nine weeks' visit in Iowa City, Ia.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dewitt and Miss Clare Dewitt of Niles and Mr. Lawton of Syracuse were guests at D. L. Mead's Sunday, traveling by auto.

Flannelette shirt waist suits for $1.00 at Miss Lanterman's, King Ferry. 2513

—William Shaffer of East Genoa and Mrs. Sarah Gibson of Buffalo, formerly of Ithaca, were married Thursday afternoon of last week at Ludlowville.

—B. S. Weyant who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever for several weeks is resting comfortably at present, and is expected to be out of danger soon.—Dryden Herald.

Want a Rain Coat? See Smith.

—I. B. Weager has bought Fred Smith's crop of 5,000 bushels of potatoes, the largest and finest crop grown in Onondaga, Tompkins or Seneca counties. They are of fine quality and no rot. This crop showed the value of spraying, as Mr. Smith paid out $150 for that purpose.—Interlaken Review.

—Election day was unusually quiet here. The voting was very light, the total in district No. 2 being 135. Republicanism seems to have won the day all over the State with a few exceptions. New York City re-elected its Democratic mayor, McClellan. Auburn's Democratic mayor, T. M. Osborne, was defeated by a majority of 259 in favor of E. C. Aiken. Superintendent of the Poor Hewitt was re-elected by a majority of 693. All the other Republican nominees for county offices were also elected.

Mrs. Addie L. Miller, Genoa, sells ladies' wrappers, dressing gowns, kimono, aprons and other ladies' furnishings. Shawls and fascinators to order. Call and see her stock. 5t

—Miss Mary E. Rogers, elocutionist, assisted by local musicians, will give an entertainment in the Presbyterian church of Genoa next week Saturday evening, Nov. 18, at 8 o'clock. Miss Rogers is teacher of elocution in the Cortland Conservatory of Music, which is a high recommend of her ability as a reader. Wherever she is heard, her power to please and entertain her audience is very satisfactory. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the repair fund of the church. Admission 15 cents; children under 12, 10 cents.

—Miss Martha Hand was home from Groton several days recently.

—F. C. Hagin, wife and son spent Saturday in Auburn.

—Mrs. C. A. Cannon and daughter of Rochester are spending some time at Mrs. Emeline Shaw's.

—Miss Millicent Sellen left Monday for Rochester where she will attend the Business college.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Main of Myers Station, Nov. 3, 1905, twin sons.

—Had you thought of it? Only three weeks till Thanksgiving day, and six till Christmas. 1905 is on the home stretch.

Get Profit-Sharing Coupons at Smith's.

—Mrs. Fanny Mead and Miss Carrie Church of Moravia were guests of Genoa friends Saturday and Sunday.

—Miss Fanny Montgomery and Walter Wood both of Dryden were married in Geneva Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 25. Both are well known and highly respected. The bride is the eldest daughter of Postmaster D. R. Montgomery of Dryden.

—Raymond J. Stamp and Miss Nellie Elizabeth Brightman, both of Aurora, were quietly married at the parsonage of the First M. E. church, Ithaca, N. Y., by the Rev. Wallace E. Brown, on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 28.

—George Smith, the alleged counterfeiter who escaped from the secret service officers at Moravia recently, was found at the home of his father in Moravia. He is said to be the principal one in a gang which has been making spurious quarters and half dollars.

Will the person who took the picture of my wife from the piano the day of her funeral please return the same, as it was the only picture I had. 2512 FRED WILCOX, North Lansing.

—Herbert H. Arnold, youngest son of Marion A. and the late David P. Arnold, died in Utica, N. Y., on Nov. 2, 1905, aged 29 years. Funeral services were held at the residence of his mother, No. 2 Benton street, Auburn, Sunday, Nov. 5, at 2 o'clock p. m. Burial at Fort Hill. The family were former residents of Genoa and the mother and two sons now survive.

Best Rubber Goods in the County at Smith's.

John W. Rice Co.
AUBURN, N. Y.

Our first purchases for fall and winter trade are in and we invite you to look through our extensive stocks which are the latest in style and moderate in prices.

Children's and Misses' cloaks from $3.50 up. Ladies' cloaks at $5.00 and others up to $25.00. Rain coats in all qualities. Silk and flannel waists and walking skirts. Dress goods from 25c up. Silks in all qualities. Cotton blankets at 50c. Woolen blankets from $2.50 up. Full stocks of outings, prints, cambrics, table linens, napkins, towels and crashes by the yard.

—About 250,000 black bass were put into Cayuga lake at Ithaca last week.

—Misses Agnes and Elizabeth Keenan of Cortland spent Saturday and Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. T. Driscoll.

—The man who has a big field of cabbage this fall ought to consider himself very fortunate. It is said that the yield and price are both unusually good.

Have you seen the New Furniture at Smith's?

—Attention is called to the announcement on this page of the lecture to be given in the Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Don't miss it.

Underwear for everybody at Smith's.

—Notice of discontinuance of the action brought by James G. Donley as administrator of the estate of J. F. Shiels against the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company was filed in the county clerk's office at Auburn Saturday. Shiels was killed in an accident on the railroad near Peruville last fall. The railroad settled the action for damages for $1,800.

—Mrs. Ella M. Ford of 12 Park Place, Auburn, was operated upon at the Auburn City hospital last week Thursday, for cancer of the breast. Dr. Cheesman, assisted by Drs. Forman and Foran, performed the operation which was considered a success. The patient is doing well, and her Genoa friends hope for her rapid recovery.

FOUND—Ladies' hat on Locke hill. Owner may have same by paying for this notice. ERNEST MEAD.

—Mrs. Jane L. Williams died at the home of her niece, Mrs. J. A. Fulmer of Moravia, on Nov. 6, 1905, at the age of 82 years and 5 months. The deceased was the last of a family of ten children, and is survived by five immediate family relatives, among whom are Mrs. S. E. Cole of Genoa and Mrs. E. L. Adams of Moravia, besides a large circle of acquaintances. The funeral services were held at J. A. Fulmer's Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and burial was made at the Free church cemetery north of Moravia.

—Mrs. Anna Mastin Wilcox, who had been ill for about two weeks and underwent an operation for appendicitis last Saturday, died Monday at 3 o'clock a. m., at her home near North Lansing. The news of her death was a shock to her friends and acquaintances as all were hopeful of her complete recovery. The deceased was born in Genoa, Aug. 2, 1833. In 1903 she married Fred Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilcox of North Lansing. Besides the husband, she leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Mastin, a sister, Mrs. Henry DeForest, a brother, John Mastin, and a large number of friends who deeply mourn her early death. Especially will she be missed in the home where she made herself loved by her thoughtfulness of others and her cheerful manner. The funeral services were held from her late home on Wednesday, at 1:30 p. m. At her request, Rev. J. C. Long conducted the services. Miss Warner, Mrs. Stillwell, and Messrs. McClinty and Trea of Ithaca sang appropriate selections. The floral designs were beautiful and many in number. Interment was made at North Lansing. The sorrowing parents and husband have the sympathy of all.

John W. Rice Co.
AUBURN, N. Y.

Our first purchases for fall and winter trade are in and we invite you to look through our extensive stocks which are the latest in style and moderate in prices.

Millinery
Announcement.

Having just returned from the city I am prepared to furnish the ladies of Genoa and vicinity with all the novelties in Millinery at the lowest possible prices. A fine line of Dress Hats and the latest in Trimmings. You are cordially invited to call and inspect the new line.

L. M. Goodelle,
GENOA, — N. Y.
Opposite Sellen Hotel.

Smith's Store, Genoa

Smith's
to Share Their Profits With Their Customers.

We are putting forth powerful efforts this season to make our business the largest ever.

We Want You to Share
Our

Profits.

If you have not already looked into the advantages of trading at this store do so at once. Our profit sharing plan will thrill you with wonder and amazement. It is a great opportunity to furnish your home absolutely free. Far seeing, prudent, shrewd buyers in this section of the country will reap the benefits of this money saving plan. We exact no conditions of any kind; simply save the

Profit Sharing
Coupons

which are given for cash trade and exchange them for beautiful presents in Furniture, Pictures, &c.

Trade at Smith's and Get Profit Sharing
Coupons.

Come
and
Look

You will find our store filled full of fall and winter goods at money-saving prices.

SMITH'S BIG BUSY STORE,
GENOA, — N. Y.

Come! Come! Come!

Mrs. Frances A. DeGraff

of Amsterdam, N. Y.,

will give an address

—IN THE—

Presbyterian Church,
GENOA, N. Y.,

—ON—

Tuesday Eve., Nov. 14, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. DeGraff is speaker and organizer under the management of N. Y. State W. C. T. U. and comes highly recommended. Her address will be AWAKENING—AROUSING—INTERESTING!

All are invited--Admission Free.

A Collection Will Be Taken.

Good Music.

OUR NEW STORE.

The equipment of our new store, 131 Genesee St., its cleanliness, its lighting, its ventilation, its roomy appearance, its enormous stock, all these are considered of vast importance, second only to the high grade of merchandise we carry and the moderate profits we ask.

If you were a customer at our old store, 22 and 24 State St., we feel that you will appreciate the fine new quarters we have fitted up. If you never traded at our State St. store, your good judgment will prompt you to come in to see the store and compare our prices on suits, overcoats, &c., with those you are in the habit of paying.

L. Marshall & Son,

Clothing for Men and Boys.

131 Genesee St., Auburn, N. Y.

A few doors above State St. Formerly 22 and 24 State St.

NEW FALL
MILLINERY

Everything in the line of Millinery, ready-to-wear and dress Hats, Caps, Ostrich Feathers, Wings, &c. Experienced trimmer.

MRS. D. E. SINGER, Genoa

Dr. G. J. Bowker

Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist

GENOA, N. Y.

Miller Phone. Calls Promptly Attended

Come and See!

Hoyt is the man to fit your eyes:
He'll tell you just where your trouble lies
If all could know how much depends
On a properly ground, and fitted lens,
In frames that's suited to their face,
They never would go to another place.
We particularly invite the Students to call,
When they enter school in the early fall.
We also have the largest line
Of jewelry that's very fine,
With prices right as you will find,
For we surely will not be behind.

A. T. HOYT, LEADING JEWELER,
Opp. Moravia House.

Becoming Popular

The Davenport Sofa Bed with its many advantages is relegating the old fashioned sofa bed to the background.

The new Davenport, used as a sofa, is a very luxuriant piece of furniture and suitable for any room. Used as a bed it is safe, simple and easy to operate and as comfortable as the best Hair Mattresses and springs. We will be pleased to show them to you

Prices from $14.75 to $60.00

H. J. BOOL CO.

Opp Tompkins Co. Bank, Ithaca, N. Y.

Can You Beat This?

FOUR FIRST CLASS PERIODICALS

TOGETHER WITH THE GENOA TRIBUNE ALL ONE YEAR FOR ONLY $3.25.

ADDRESS THE TRIBUNE, GENOA, N. Y.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer

A high-class preparation for the hair. Keeps the hair soft and glossy and prevents splitting at the ends. Cures dandruff and always restores color to gray hair.

Select Sensible Silverware

FOR YOUR
Holiday or Anniversary Gifts

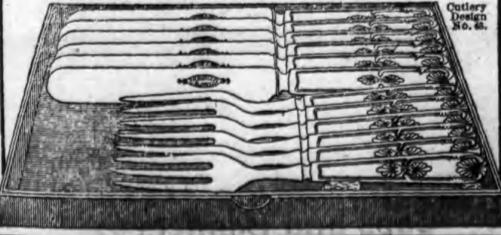

A set of triple plated knives and forks makes a sensible present, and if they bear this trademark are as serviceable as they are sensible. A complete line of spoons, forks and fancy pieces are also made in the "1847 ROGERS BROS." brand. They are handsomely put up in cases for presentation purposes.

Your dealer can supply you. Send to the makers for catalogue "C-L" explaining all about "Silver Plate that wears." It is beautifully illustrated and sent free.

INTERNATIONAL SILVER CO., Successors to MERIDEN BRITANNIA CO., Meriden, Conn.

Paint Ideas

Just at this season one feels the desire to keep pace with Nature in making attractive his individual estate, which Paint can make beautiful and pleasing to behold. At our store you will find a variety of shades in desired quantities, products of the best manufacturers, and so displayed in sample that you can see just how your home will appear. Call, and let's talk it over.

The Famous Derby Paints.

AGENTS & PECK - Genoa

Seven States Hold Elections.
New York, Nov. 7.—Elections will be held to-day in seven states and six of the large cities. In Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Virginia and Ohio a governor and other State officers are to be chosen. In New York, Indianapolis, Louisville, Salt Lake and San Francisco a mayor and other city officers. There are six candidates for mayor in New York and four in Indianapolis. The Prohibitionists have a ticket in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Nebraska, New York, Indianapolis and Chicago; the Socialists in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Nebraska, Virginia, New York and Chicago; the Socialist Labor party in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, New York and Indianapolis; the Municipal Ownership party in New York, and the American party in Salt Lake. The Democrats and Populists have fused in Nebraska, the Republicans and Democrats against the Union Labor party in San Francisco, and the Republicans and other parties against the Democrats in Louisville.

Finland Declares Independence.
London, Nov. 7.—Finland has declared itself independent of the Czar, according to despatches from Helsinki. The correspondent of the Paris Matin at St. Petersburg telegraphs his paper that the revolution in the country is complete. He says that Prince Obolensky, the Russian Governor-General, formally abdicated in the presence of all Helsinki. The Russian flag was lowered from all the public buildings and the emblem of Finland was hoisted in its place. The students and workmen who have been acting as volunteer police, together with the soldiers, have joined the revolutionists.

Ika von Palmay.
The beautiful and famous Hungarian light opera singer, who married Count Eugene Kinsky, a Hungarian nobleman and retired from the stage but recently returned to it again, will be heard in the United States this winter. She has signed a contract to sing here in light opera during a season of five months. She will sing in English, although she sings with equal facility in four languages, English, French, German and Hungarian.

Boston Suspects Identified.
New York, Nov. 7.—A complete identification was made at Police Headquarters this morning of Louis W. Crawford and William Howard, who were arrested last night by detectives on suspicion of having thrown into Boston harbor two suit cases containing the dismembered body of the chorus girl Susan Geary. Both the cabman who drove the men to the Chelsea ferry house and the pawnbroker who sold the suit cases recognized the prisoners immediately.

Boston, Nov. 7.—The head of Susanna Geary, the chorus girl who died from the effects of a criminal operation and whose body was dismembered and thrown into the harbor, was recovered a few yards from the South Ferry slip at East Boston, about where Crawford and Howard in their confessions said they had dropped it.

Welcome for Prince Louis.
Annapolis, Md., Nov. 7.—Welcomed by the greatest gathering of war vessels ever seen in these waters Prince Louis of Battenberg reached this historic port with his squadron of British cruisers, on a visit of international courtesy to the United States. The Prince brings a personal message from the King of England to President Roosevelt.

Can't Stop Rebates.
Washington, Nov. 7.—J. S. Leads, general manager of the Santa Fe Refrigerator Dispatch, told the Interstate Commerce Commission that it is impossible to break up the practice of rebating in the California fruit service because all the roads do it, and if one road refused it would bring on a war that might put the charges below the cost of refrigeration.

Commerce Checked on Isthmus.
Colon, Panama, Nov. 7.—Thousands upon thousands of tons of international freight are tied up on the Isthmus. Thousands upon thousands more shipped from New York for use on the Isthmus are buried in the muck. Freight is piled in hopeless confusion on docks at both ends of the railroad, now controlled and operated by the Isthmian Canal Commission.

A Great Bargain.
With special pages devoted to Cattle, Sheep, Horses, Swine, Farm Machinery, Poultry, Horticulture, Dairy, Young People, Farmers' Wives, Short Stories, Science and Mechanics, Good Roads, two pages of the most reliable Market Reports of the day, a page of up-to-date short News Items of the nation and the world, the New York Tribune-Farmer is the most interesting, thoroughly comprehensive and valuable agricultural family weekly in the United States, and fully worth the regular subscription price, $1.00 per year. We have made a special contract which enables us to offer it in connection with THE GENOA TRIBUNE at an exceedingly attractive price—both papers for a full year for only $1.25. It is a great bargain. Don't miss it. Send your order and money to THE TRIBUNE, Genoa, N. Y.

A Disastrous Calamity.
It is a disastrous calamity, when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs, and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at J S Banker's, Genoa and A E Clark's, King Ferry, drug stores; 25c.

Razors, full, hollow ground, made by a maker who has built a reputation, $1.50. Replaced with a new one if they don't cut easy or if they don't hold their edge nicely after a month's trial. Sagar Drug Store, Auburn.

Through Seven Great States

Northern Pacific lines penetrate the best sections of Northern Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon. They reach the great irrigated districts of the Pacific Northwest, the timber and mining districts of the Rocky Mountain and Cascade Mountain country, the great wheat plains of Eastern Washington, the upper Mississippi valley and the Red River Country—"Granary of the World." Direct routes between all important Northwestern commercial centers. Quick, comfortable, trains all the conveniences. Any information from W. G. Mason, District Pass. Agt. 215 Elliott Square, Buffalo, N. Y.

Northern Pacific Railway
A. M. CLELAND,
Gen. Passenger Agent
St. Paul, Minn.

Walley's Health Bitters.

A great liver invigorator and general strength builder. Made from purely vegetable ingredients, a harmless and always effective remedy at one-half the cost of widely advertised medicines, 1/2 pint bottles 25c.

Walley's Drug Store,

AUBURN, N. Y.
Established 1852.

W. J. EMMONS,
Carriage Painting, Etc.
N. Y.

A Moonlight Adventure

STORY OF THE CYCLAMEN BLOSSOMS

DO YOU know Talloires? If your kind fates have ever taken you there and you have once made the tour of the lakes, you will certainly remember the green, silent corner, back against the mountain where the village sleeps, continually lulled by the pine trees.

Directly below the lake spreads its blue waters, smiling in golden ripples, and flecked here and there with white, triangular sails. The intense light, filtered by the fleecy clouds, illuminates brightly the circle of mountains which surrounds the water.

The many shades of green, the somber blue, the vivid violet and the silvery grays of the mountains mingle in wondrous harmonies with the turquoise of the lake and the brilliant green of the vines. It is there that one should go to taste the joy of requited love, and still more truly it is the place where a bitter sorrow may find succor in peace.

Not long ago, on the mountain road, I met three tourists descending, with their alpenstocks and knapsacks and their hats decorated with bunches of cyclamen blossoms. I watched them pass with a wistful glance, while memories of the distant days when I, too, was 20, filled my brain.

I saw myself gayly descending the same road, my hat decked with flowers, accompanied by two merry companions, and even as the crests of the mountains were reflected in the water, so the remembrances of former times rose before me, clear and sharp as a mirage, with all the colors, the perfumes and the enthusiasms of youth.

It happened 25 years ago in this very village, where we had planned to spend the night after a long day's climb. Scarcely had we turned down the beautiful avenue of chestnut trees when we saw, walking slowly toward us, in the soft shade of the trees, a beautiful young girl, radiant in all the glory and splendor of her 18 years.

Tall, admirably formed, her thick golden curls fell in clouds about her wonderful shoulders, and as she turned at the sound of our voices, we caught sight of a finely cut patrician profile, with proud, red lips and haughtily inquiring dark eyes.

We fell in love with her at once, all three of us, and, forgetful of the fatigues of the day, we followed her discreetly along a winding path until she disappeared beneath a gateway of drooping honeysuckle. Upon our return to the inn we learned that the stranger who had so excited our admiration was Princess V., a Russian, who lived with her parents in one of the villas that bordered on the lake.

Russian, a princess and pretty—that was enough surely to set our imaginations working, and all through dinner we made impossible plans to waylay our new divinity and accost her. My two companions, however, were too sleepy to do anything but go to bed that night.

I had no desire to follow their example. Instead, I strolled saunteringly down the road, looking inquiringly behind every tree as I went.

It was an exquisite evening. The full moon had risen behind the mountains and pierced their somber depths with arrows of silver light. Everywhere through the sleeping country, the crickets were chirping, with here and there the note of a low-flying swallow.

At my feet the lake, with its path way of molten ripples, murmured caressingly to the tiny beach. I threw myself down on the soft grass and began to invent romantic incidents which should bring about my meeting with the Russian princess.

As I built my elaborate castles in Spain I heard the metallic click of a boat chain beneath the willows at my side, and presently, not five steps away, a white form emerged from the shadow into the moonlight. It was the beautiful Russian.

She was trying to unfasten the boat a task for which her slender fingers were in no wise fitted. Finally she straightened up with an angry sigh and kicked the heavy chain petulantly. "Oh, dear, what a nuisance!" she sighed.

My opportunity had come. "Allow me," I cried, starting forward suddenly, and, kneeling, I freed the boat, although not without considerable injury to my knuckles and fingers.

She jumped into the boat and then looked at me inquiringly.

I had just spent a week in the mountains tramping in all weathers sleeping wherever I happened to be, and my clothes showed the strain to which they had been put. My beard was long and neglected, my hat in tatters and my coat badly torn. It was evident that she took me for a boatman.

"Thanks," she said carelessly, "can you row me as far as Dulangi?" "With the greatest pleasure," I replied, forgetful of everything except the golden opportunity for which I had been sighing.

I jumped after her into the boat and, striking far out from shore, began to row, while she sat facing me with the rudder-strings in her hand. The moonlight shone full on her lovely face, as once haughtily and mischievously, framed in its wealth of glittering curls. From their place in her corsage a bunch of cyclamen blossoms made the air sweet with their penetrating perfume.

"I have wanted to do this for a long time," said the princess as if in explanation, "but my aunt hates the water and Miss Gray is a Scotch girl and about it, so I made up my mind to come alone, and I would have been well on my way now if it had not been for that miserable chain."

Her voice was low and as sweet as the flowers she wore. Absorbed in my admiration of her, I said nothing, but continued to row.

"So, you see, you came just in time," she went on, "but you must not think I shall not pay you for your trouble." She took a dainty portemonnaie from her pocket as she spoke, but I hastened to stop her.

"You are too good, fraulein," I said, "but I am not a boatman, and I assure you that the pleasure of being of service to you is the greatest reward I could have."

She raised her head quickly, and I saw a frown gather on her white brow.

"Who are you, then?" she asked, in an irritated tone.

"A tourist fresh from a week's tramp in the mountains," I answered.

Her forehead cleared, and I saw a smile play about the corners of her mouth.

"Ah," she said, "in that case I must make my excuse for my indiscretion. Miss Gray would certainly call this a most improper proceeding."

Her eyes danced wickedly, but she continued hastily:

"If you please, we will return at once to the shore."

She gave a pull to the rudder strings and the boat swung about, although I pulled as leisurely as I dared. On the other side of the lake the silver moonbeams turned to ruddy gold where a shepherd's glowing fire was reflected in the water.

"Have you been up Mont Blanc?" inquired the young princess, who, probably assured for my manner that I was to be trusted, decided to be agreeable and break the silence.

"I have just come from there. I tramped back through the mountains," I replied.

"Then you knew our lake before. Is it not beautiful?"

"Very, especially just now."

"Oh, but it is wonderful at every time," she answered impetuously. "It is so blue and limpid and transparent that it seems as if it were continually inviting you to plunge down to its very depths. I love it. I love the water." And she dipped her bare arms in the silvery ripples that knocked softly against the sides of the boat.

"Probably you are a water nymph," I said slowly, as I watched her in awed admiration.

"I wish I were," she replied gayly. "You know there are some here, for this is a lake of legends and spirits."

"Really?" I asked.

"Yes, indeed. The villagers say that just where we are now there is a whole city buried beneath the waves because the inhabitants refused to give hospitality to an old beggar, who was really a disguised fairy. When the moon is full the cocks in the submerged village crow at the bottom of the lake and the church bells ring as if for mass. Listen, listen! Can't you hear something now like the soft, distant ringing of bells?"

She leaned over the side of the boat as if listening to something below the waves, even as she smiled at her own fancying.

"Did you hear anything?" she repeated.

I stopped rowing and knelt obediently beside her, so near that our two heads almost touched. To have remained there I would have sworn and believed anything she chose, and indeed it did seem to me that I heard a vague, delicious, dream music.

Perhaps it was nothing more than the beating of my heart, for it was throbbing violently to be so near to the beautiful princess with the golden hair and the wonderful eyes. The soft odor of the cyclamen blossoms was intoxicating.

"Hush," she whispered, with a mysterious air, laying her finger on her rosy lips, "the fairy of the lake is calling us!"

In the silence of the night floated a distant sound of a hunting horn. It was easy to believe that it came from below the water.

"Oh, dear, no," she cried, laughing at the sight of my credulous face and wide open eyes. "I'm afraid we can't make it anything more than it is, after all!"

"Not at all," I exclaimed, fervently. "You are the fairy of the lake, and you can lend to it any enchantment that you please! It becomes immediately all that you say!"

She laughed merrily again and I bent to my oars, so that we soon reached the boathouse below the willows. Through the vista in the trees I caught sight of an elegant villa, the turrets gleaming in the moonlight. Suddenly a dark form emerged from the wide balcony and a thin voice called:

"Nadia, Nadia! You must come in now. You will certainly catch cold."

"It is my aunt," murmured Nadia. "I don't know about my catching cold, but I am sure to catch a scolding if I do not hurry. Thanks, and good night. Will you be so good as to fasten the boat again? Since you are not a boatman, I cannot pay for my passage, but I am anxious to clear my debt."

She appeared to think for a moment, and then, abruptly pulling the cyclamen blossoms from her belt, she tossed them to us, crying:

"Farewell! Keep these flowers in memory of the fairy of the lake!"

The next moment she had disappeared beneath the dark shadows of the trees and I never saw her again. From the German, in N. Y. Sun.

Gift costs its enthusiasts $50,000,000 a year, out of which is chargeable the... and that's all.

Street Car Manners.
So loud and constant have been the lamentations and oburgations hereabouts concerning what are termed our want of manners in street car travel that it is high time, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, to come to the defense of the great, inarticulate public which cannot speak for itself, which is dumb when the shallows murmur. Everywhere in the street cars of this country there is to be met a cheerful and uncomplaining submission to almost intolerable conditions of discomfort through overcrowding, which is of the finest essence of true politeness. We laugh with those who laugh at us to the point of forgetting what is due ourselves as a people in the consciousness that Americans are among the politest people in the world in every trying situation where real politeness is best illustrated. Because such situations are constantly arising in the street cars of great cities, and because we meet and deal with them in the broad and generous spirit which is a part of the constraint of good manners, those who lecture us about trifles are shooting wide of the mark.

It is a pity that the contrary notwithstanding, the time has not yet come when the self-made man is no longer to be a factor in affairs. He can not be self-made, in the common acceptance of the term, unless he has inherent ability, a capacity for work, a practical and accurate judgment. With these characteristics, truly says the Washington Post, he is bound to succeed, even though he has never delved into the classics nor studied integral calculus. Possessing these things, the world will recognize his worth and accord him a seat among the mighty. He cannot, in the very nature of things, be a weakling. Ambition, enthusiasm and forcefulness will compel him to push forward into the front rank, and there he will hold his own.

An Eldorado, Kan., man, a bridegroom, makes this inquiry of the publican: "Shall I tell my wife everything, or shall I tell her nothing?" Not knowing a thing about it, we asked a man who has been married 50 years to explain. He said: "Tell your wife everything." But the neighbors say this old codger is henpecked. We then called on a man who has had three wives and is now looking around for No. 4. "Tell them nothing," he said. "If you tell them the truth they will think you are lying, and if you lie to them they will catch you. Look wise, say nothing and avoid trouble."

Students at the University of Nevada will be tried for hazing, as the father of a freshman has issued 32 warrants for assault and battery and has had them served on students who maltreated his young son. The freshman refused to join in the college yells, so he was ducked in the lake on the campus and subjected to other indignities, for which his father now demands satisfaction from the boys' tormentors.

Three elephants went to Uncle Sam's rescue in New York and drew out a small wagon which became stuck in the mud in Forty-second street and which could not be moved by the horses. It was a neat stroke of business by the big pachyderms and incidentally a good advertisement for the show to which the elephants belonged.

It is proposed that the Boston memorial to the late Mayor Collins shall take the form of a building that will serve some useful purpose, rather than a shaft, as the former would be more typical of a man whose popularity arose from his works.

Football practice has begun, and the academic and collegiate youth will now begin to wear more hair and less skin.

"If you are well, don't talk about it," says an adviser of the people. Correct! And if you are sick, forget it!

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Empire State Housefurnishing Company, Ithaca, wants some chest-nut lumber. 25t1

FOUND—Horse blanket; for particulars inquire of GENOA MILLING Co.

Boar hog for service. 25w3 ROSCOE BAKER, Five Corners.

WANTED—Girl or woman for house work; small family; good wages. Address Mrs E. W. MOSHER, 25w2 Aurora, N. Y.

50 Brown Leghorn yearling hens for sale; also 10 Plymouth Rock roosters. Inquire WM. WARREN, Genoa.

For Sale, nickel trimmed, six-hole Sterling range, wood or coal, nearly new; your choice of 2 chunk stoves, also organ and desk. 24t3

MARY C. KENYON, Indian Field, P. O. address, King Ferry, R D 26

Registered Berkshire boar, 1 year old for sale; also some 5-months pigs, both sexes, all first class.

VICTOR ANDREWS, Indian Field.

FOR SERVICE—Long English Berkshire boar. J. I. BOWER, King Ferry.

Farms for sale, low price; 70 to 150 acres including the home. If not sold soon are to let.

W4 No. 22 CHAS. CHITTENDEN, Ludlowville, N. Y.

Everything new and up-to-date in Millinery at L. M. GOODELLE'S

FOR SALE—Good work horse, 4 yrs. old. ARTHUR L. CARTER, King Ferry.

100 very fine sheep for sale. Inquire of J. L. White or Chas. Lowe, Looke, N. Y. 19t1

Razor Strops 25c to $1.75, all sorts of grades and qualities. Sugar Drug Store, Auburn.

Market prices for poultry. W. S. EATON, Genoa.

Bring your old hens, chickens, ducks and turkeys to Hotel DeWitt, Genoa, on Monday night, Nov. 13, or Tuesday morning, November 14, and get the highest market price for them. Duck and geese feathers for sale. Will take in Thanksgiving poultry Wednesday morning, Nov. 22. S. C. HOUGHTALING, Throopsville.

Violin Instructor
Will be at King Ferry every Thursday. For terms and other information address Morgan J. Wilbur, Conservatory of Music, Ithaca, N. Y.

Farmers!
Why sell your hiles to the middle-man and give him the one cent on the pound, when I will pay you Auburn or Rochester market prices for them? R. W. ARMSTRONG.

How Does this Strike You?
To be able to get your Watch or Clock repaired or cleaned without going 15 or 20 miles. You can get either by bringing them to JOE McBRIDE, 1 1/4 mile south of Five Corners. Satisfaction guaranteed. Also orders taken for Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Silverware. Call Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Uncle Josh Says

Th' feller th't don't know when he's makin' a nuisance uv 'imself is th' kind uv a feller th't's forever makin' a nuisance uv 'imself.

A feller's jist uz liable t' fall from th' top uv a ladder uz from th' middle.

Razors, full, hollow ground, made by a maker who has built a reputation, $1.50. Replaced with a new one if they don't cut easy or if they don't hold their edge nicely after a month's trial. Sugar Drug Store, Auburn.

An Unauthorized Call.
Friend—I understand that the people of Boomtown are anxious to have you take charge of their new church?
Popular Preacher—Y-e-s, there has been some talk about it, but I'm not going.
"Don't you think the Lord is calling you to this new field?"
"Oh, no. If He were, He would put it in their hearts to offer me a bigger salary."—N. Y. Weekly.

Clergyman's Luck.
Jukes—Who was the best man at the wedding?
Jenkins—Well, I'm not sure. The bride's father got all the bills to pay, the bridegroom had to buy diamond brooches for the bridesmaids, the guests had to give handsome presents; upon my word, I think the best man was the clergyman—he was the only one who made anything out of it.—Tit-Bits.

His First Intimation.
"How did you find out that you could draw?" inquired the admirer of the celebrated illustrator.
"By the marks I received in school for the excellence and fidelity of my work," replied the eminent one. "My work was a caricature of my beloved teacher on the blackboard and the marks came from the teacher's cane."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

NOT JUST HIS IDEA

He—it will have to be love in a cottage.
She—Oh! Charles, a cottage at Newport?—Philadelphia Press.

Another Elopement.
There was a maid in our town. She was a cashier in a store; Away she ran with all the cash, As cashiers have done before. But never for a moment did This maiden think 'twas wrong; For when she with the coin sloped She took the boss along. —Chicago News.

Woes of a Social Lion.
"Why wasn't Bluffer at the ball?"
"Couldn't get his evening clothes."
"Didn't the tailor send them in time?"
"No, the trouble was that the clothing store man had rented 'em to another fellow."—Cleveland Leader.

To Be Exact
"What's the matter with McSosh?"
"He fell down and broke the viaduct of his nose."
"You mean the bridge?"
"Well, I think viaduct is the better word. No water ever passes under it, you know."—Cleveland Leader.

Sick of His Bargain.
She—He had a long sickness, you say?
He—Yes, and has since married the nurse.
"What is the result?"
"Oh, he's sicker now than he was before!"—Yonkers Statesman.

A Companion.
"He reminds me of a postage stamp that you've carried in your pocket too long."
"As how?"
"He's so badly stuck on himself that he isn't worth two cents for any practical use."—Cleveland Leader.

Save Sign.
"I wonder if Bliggins will make the race for she'll again?"
"He's been telling everybody that to hold the office is a personal sacrifice for him."
"That settles it. He's in the fight for keeps."—Chicago Sun.

Frank.
"Do you ever accept retainers from railroads or other corporations?" inquired the friend.
"Well, yes," replied Senator Smoothguy, "and occasionally, when the case warrants, I even demand them."—Chicago Sun.

Nothing to Come Between Them.
"Somehow," cooed she, "we seem nearer to-night than we ever have before."
"Yes," replied he. "I should have shaved my mustache a year ago."—Houston Post.

No Preference.
"What do you consider the most pleasant month in the year?"
"I haven't any preference," said the discontented man. "Bills come due in all of them just about the same."—Washington Star.

How It Was Done.
"Did I understand you to say your house was robbed by daylight?" asked the detective.
"No," answered the victim. "It was robbed by skylight."—Chicago News.

That's What He Did.
"What in the world do you do with all your money, my son?"
"I give it up, dad!"—Yonkers Statesman.

The Remainder of the Joel Hanford stock of Pianos to go at prices that will astonish you. The balance of this stock must be sold by Nov. 14, which consists of

- 1 Chickering, square; 1 Hetz, square;
- 1 Fry, square; Wegman & Henning, upright; 1 Braumuller, upright; Needham, upright;
- 1 Fine $750 Steinway.

Come see for your self and get our prices.

Amphion Piano Players.

We have secured the exclusive agency for this player and cordially invite you to call at our store any time and see its merits. We surely can convince you that this is the only Piano player that imitates the human performer on the market.

WEGMAN PIANOS

ARE THOROUGHLY AHEAD OF THE TIMES.

You make no mistake in buying a Wegman, as you get a binding guarantee with every Piano for workmanship, material, performance and tone. They are also guaranteed to stay in tune longer than any other Piano made, therefore they excel all others. All Pianos sold on easy payments or for cash. Silk scarf and stool to match with every Piano.

ST. CROIX & CALDWELL,

112 WEST STATE ST., ITHACA, N. Y.

SUCCESSORS TO JOEL HANFORD.

Holmes & Dunnigan.

DRESS GOODS & SILK SALE FOR 10 DAYS

- 5 pieces Rain Cloth, 54 inches wide, $1 25 quality, sale price 95c
- 10 pieces Rain cloth, 54 inches wide, $1 50 quality, sale price $1.17
- 3 pieces Rain Cloth, 54 inches wide, $2 quality, sale price 1 65
- 8 pieces Camels Hair Dress Goods, 48 inches wide, $1 quality, sale price 69c per yd
- 5 pieces fancy mixed Dress Goods, $1 25 quality, sale price 95c per yd
- 5 pieces Creponette in black, navy, brown and green, 75c quality, sale price 50c per yd
- Beautiful Plaids, sale price 12c, 25c, 50c and 75c
- 10 pieces of Panama Cloth, all colors and black, 65c quality, sale price 50c per yd
- 10 pieces 54 in. Broadcloth, $1 25 quality, sale price $1 yd
- 5 pieces of Russian Dol Skire, 52 in., $2 quality, sale price $1 50 per yd
- So many other Dress Goods that space does not permit us to mention. We can show you more Dress Goods than any other two houses in the city combined. Our Specialty is Dress Goods.
- SILKS Very cheap for 10 Days
 - 3 pieces of 36 in. black Taffeta $1 25 quality, sale price 90c yd
 - 3 pieces black Taffeta, 36 in $1 39 quality, sale price $1 yd
 - 1 piece of 36 in. black Peau de-Soie, $1 25 quality, sale price 90c per yd
 - 1 piece Peau-de-Soie, 27 in. $1 quality, sale price 79c yd
 - 10 pieces of Silk Acollien, 27 inches, 60c quality, sale price 39c per yd
 - 3 pieces of changeable Taffeta 75c quality, sale price 59c yd
 - 5 pieces of satin Linings, 32 inches wide, guaranteed for two seasons, sale price 59c yd
- By buying from us, we will save you money. The reliable Dress Goods Store, Holmes & Dunnigan, 79 GENESEE ST., Auburn.

BEE HIVE STORE

IN THE

Children's Department

If you want to see the children well dressed let us help you by showing you the largest stock of Children's Furnishings in the city.

Children's Coats

- Eiderdown Coats in plain colors at $1.25 to 3.48
- Cloth Coats at $1.48 to 3.25
- Chinchilla Coats in brown and greys at $2.98 to $4.48
- Fur Coats in brown, green, blue and white, from $3.25 up to $6.50

A special lot of Corduroy and Beaver Coats at $2.48. These are certainly great bargains

Caps and Bonnets

Cloth Caps, Angora and Fur Bonnets, Silk Bonnets, Toques and Camel's Hair Tam O'Shanters at the lowest prices

Knit Goods

A complete line of Knit Bootees, Jackets, Legging Drawers and Sweaters. Get our prices on all kinds of Dresses.

We give Purple Stamps.

Respectfully,

S. E. BELL,

Auburn, N. Y.

C. R. Egbert,

The People's Clothier, Hatter and Furnisher, 75 GENESEE ST. AUBURN, N. Y.

A Popular Overcoat.

Some cannot afford to pay more, others wont; so for these reasons we are fully prepared to give the best values to be found at

TWELVE DOLLARS.

Real good Overcoats at this price are hard to get but by shortening our profits we are able to give our customers the same Egbert values that they are accustomed to. You can buy a $12 Overcoat in almost any store but not as good as these. They are cut full with close fitting collar. Come in different lengths and fit as well as the higher priced ones.

