

GENOA ACADEMY,

GENOA, CAYUGA COUNTY, N. Y.

The Fall Term of this Institution will commence on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22d next, and continue fourteen weeks.

Situated, as this Academy is, in a pleasant and healthy Valley, and in a flourishing and beautiful Village, noted for the morality of its inhabitants, and possessing a full Board of able and experienced Teachers, a well selected library and good Apparatus, the Trustees cheerfully ask for it the confidence and patronage of the public.

TEACHERS.

MARVIN M. BALDWIN, PRINCIPAL.

MISS JULIA GOODRICH, PRECEPTRESS.

MRS. F. M. BALDWIN, ASSISTANT PRECEPTRESS.

The services of other Assistant Teachers, and also of a competent Teacher of Music, will be provided, if found necessary.

STUDIES PURSUED.

All the various English and Classical studies will be taught, to qualify students for the active business of life, for a profession, or for admission to College. A TEACHER'S CLASS will be organized for the benefit of those who are preparing for the Profession of Teaching.

DISCIPLINE.

The discipline is intended to be kind, affectionate and reasonable, but impartial, decided and firm. No student will be allowed to remain in the Institution, who does not yield a cheerful obedience to the rules, who is irregular in attendance, or who is inattentive to his or her studies. Strict attention will be paid to the conduct and morals of those attending from a distance.
