—A large congregation listened to Rev. T. J. Searls' sermon last Sunday morning, and we wish it could be read in every home in the town. Beginning with a description of Auburn prison and its inmates, Mr. Searls explained that the cause that lead to the imprisonment of the majority of the men was whiskey. Going deeper into his subject, the speaker presented the arguments that are usually brought up in defense of liquor selling and license and proceeded to show their falsity and unreasonableness. The address received much commendation.

—On Jan. 1, 1911, local option excise conditions in this state were as follows in the 933 townships: 296 full license towns, 240 partial license towns and 397 no-license towns. Genoa is one of the largest class—no-license. Can she afford to change her standing and fall back with the minority? We think not. No amount of license fees can pay for the evil and conditions wrought by the sale of whiskey and beer in our town. The sale of strong drink has never yet brought anything but dishonor and degradation to a town. If it is nothing to you personally, Mr. Voter, vote no because of your children, or your neighbor's children.

Never Give Up.

Don't you say that it can't be done, Don't you say that it can't be won, Don't you join with the cranks that shrink From life's demand that we toil and think. Don't you stumble at can't, but keep On, right on, to the golden steep.

Don't you doubt as the rest have done, Don't you dream that it can't be won, Don't you stop when you ought to try, Don't give up if you have to die, Don't be with the can't brigade, Shy, untrusting and half afraid.

The thing that is right to do is done, The goal that is right to win is won, Don't you say that the thing is too great, Don't you pause as afraid of fate, Don't you be like the lost who sing There is no way you can do the thing.

Don't belong to the fellows fine Who wait all day in the weary line, Don't you echo the thought they hold— This "can't be done" is a lie they've told Don't you follow a lead like that But show your spirit and doff your hat.

Don't you stop at a thing half way With only this on your lips to say, Don't you dream that it can't be done, Don't you fear that it can't be won, The farthest goal and the highest peak Are yours if you trust as you sing and seek.

When You Select An Instrument

be sure to select an Edison Phonograph, the instrument that gives more than double the entertainment of all other instruments.

A great feature of the Edison is the fact that you can make your own records at home. The Edison gives you the great pleasure of recording the songs and stories of different members of your family, the baby's cry or laugh or baby talk, the scholar's first declamation or grandmother's old-fashioned song. Or you can listen to the great stars of vaudeville concert or grand opera.
