

GENOA, N. Y., FRIDAY MORNING, AUG, 28, 1914.

EMMA A. WALDO

VOL. XXIV. No. 5

KEMPER WILLOUGHBY, M. C GENOA, N. Y. Office hours 8 to 9 a. m., I to 22. 0 7 to 8 p. m.

Miller 'Phone. Special attention given to diseases digestion and kidneys.

H. E. ANTHONY, M. D. MORAVIA, N. Y. Office hours 7 to S:30 a. m., I to 2 p. . 7 to 9 p. m. Miller 'Phone. Bell 'Phone. Special attention given to Diseases of the Eye and FITTING OF GLASSES.

DR. J. W. SKINNER,

Homeopathist and Surgeon, Genoa, N. 1 Special attention given to diseases of we men and children, Cancer removed with out pain by escharotic. Office at residence teacher. from Albany. Miss Mae Miller has been visiting quite extensively. Singer on Thursday. cott's in Etna. Moravia Miller 'Phone visited their brother, Benton Brown and family. BOOK BINDING new one put in its place, it is unlike ITHACA. fine one.

E. B. DANIELLS UNDERTAKER Moravia, N.Y. Telephone Connections for Day and Night Calls. UNDERTAKING WILLARD CUTLER Embalmer and Funeral Director Main St., Bell 'Phone J. WILL TREE,

From Nearby Towns.

North Lansurg. Aug. 26-There will be a Sunday school picnic in the grove on Mr. Carsons farm (the George Bower farm) on Tuesday, Sept. 1. It is desired that this shall be a general picnic to which everyone is invited Let every family plan to be there.

Miss Cora Ross is visiting her brother, Bert Ross and family, she goes back to the Freeville +chool as her brother, Dr. Jay Miller and family of Dansville, N. Y.

Mrs. Susie Karn reports a delight- Lakeside Park recently and attended ful trip down the Hudson by boat the Odd Fellows picnic.

Frank Singer is repairing his barn ever.

Mrs Perry Rose and daughter Cora of Locke visited Mrs. Alice Miss Edith Brooks of New York has been visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs James Brooks. Mrs. Howard Beardsley and daughter Camilla, with Mrs Fred Wilcox have been visiting at George Wes-

Mr. and Mrs John Cobb with Mrs. Fanny Fitch called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bower on Saturday, then

The Magorie monument in the cemetery has been removed and a

any other in the yard, and a very

Five Corners. Aug. 24-Master Asa Swartwood returned to his home at Interlaken last Saturday morning. We learn that Herman Ferris and wife of Olean are to return soon and keep house for Thos O'Neil.

Genoa

Master Howell Mosher went to Lake George Saturday to spend some time with relatives

Mrs. Ida Valentine and three children are spending some time at the home of S S. Goodyear and family. Mr. and Mre. G M Jump with Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith motored to

The Sunday School picnic which was held at Lake Ridge Point last week Wednesday was quite largely attended; they got quite wet how-

Mrs Major Palmer, Miss Elizabeth Palmer, with their guest, Mrs. Sarah Hoffman spent last week Wednesday at the home of the former's son, Claude Paimer and wife on Thursday. They spent the day with John Paimer and wife. Mrs. Major Palmer, who has been ill for so long a time was able to walk from her home to her son John Palmer's Quite a remarkable co-incidence. Mrs. C. G. Barger and granddaughter Iva Barger spent last week Wednesday with the former's son, Henry Barger, near Ludlowville. On Thursday they visited at the home of A J. Brink at North Lansing

John Palmer spent a few days at Cortland fair.

Miss Ethel Hunt visited relatives in Ithaca recently. Her cousin, Miss at the home of Mrs. A. Crippin a Mrs Ruth Morton and son of Free- Eleanor Smith, of Ithaca is spending short time recently.

Mrs. M. A. Couse. A 10c supper will be served.

The ladies of the Five Corners Grange will serve ice cream and cake at the hall Saturday evening, Sept 5 The skating rink will be open. All are cordially invited. 5w2

There will be a social at the home of Mrs G M. Jump this week Saturday evening, Aug 29, under the auspices of the members of the Rebekah Lodge of this place Ice cream and cake will be served from 7 o'clock until 10. A very cordial invitation is extended to all adv.

Venice Center.

Aug 24-Stanley Murdock Cleveland, Ohio, son of the late M W. Murdock and formerly of this place, was in town on business on Monday of this week

Bev. and Mre. F. T. Crumley and wo children, Eleie and Frederick of New Hope, and Mr and Mrs. Carroll fair. Brightman of Glenwood-on Owasco were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs F. J Horten on Sunday. Dr E. M. Mills, District Superintendent preached an interesting sermon to a fair sized audience Sunday evening.

Mrs. Alice Coddington and little son Walter of Syracuse, who have been spending some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Crawfoot, went to their home on Saturday last.

Patrick Shea is entertaining his sister and her three children of Syracuse for a few days.

Merton Ladd of North Lansing was

Lake Ridge.

Cribune.

Aug 25-E E Wooley has a very sick horse at the present writing. Mrs. Edith Whiting and children of Ithaca are spending the week with her sister, Mrs. W. L Davis. Mrs. Davis is able to be about again and take short rides in their car. Prof. E. E. Scribner of Ishpeming, Mich , visited his aunt, Mrs. A. P. Bissell last week, returning home Friday night. He spent Friday afternoon at the home of Casper Fenner Casper Fenner attended the Republican convention held at Saratoga last week.

Mrs. F. E. Davis and son William and Miss Clara Davis are camping with friends near Smithville, N. Y Mrs. A. J Buckingham and daugh ter Charlotte spent the latter part of last week with her parents here.

School opens Labor Day and then will be closed one day during Ithaca

Mrs Albert Bissell and Albert Buckingham wore in Auburn vieitfriends Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Elmer Nedrow has the celler tarted for his new house

Miss Gosby of Ithaca has been vis iting her sister, Mrs. Morria Slaght, Ledyard.

Aug: 24-Last week was a record breaker for rain, as it rained every day until Saturday.

Miss Marilla Starkweather entertained Miss Lydia Guile of Union Springs last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dagle of North Rose were guests of the latter's parents during last week.

Roadmaster Graney Killed. Struck in the back of the neck by winging door on a refrigerating car, John Graney, aged 50 years, roadmaster of the Ceptral New York Southern Railroad, received injuries which proved fatal at Tarbel's Station. six miles south of Genos, at 3:30 o'clock last Friday afternoon. He died at the Auburn City hospital shortly after 6 o'clock the same night without regaining conscious-

Mr Graney was standing by the side of the tracks when hit. He was picked up and brought toGenoa where he was picked up and carried to Genoa where he was attended by Dr. Willoughby, who ordered him taken immediately to the City hospital. The train was met by the ambulance. At the hospital Dr. Ledra Heazlit was called in consultation, but efforts to restore the man to consciousness failed.

An autopsy was performed the next morning by coroner's physician, Dr. William E Walsh It was found that there was a depressed fracture on the right side of the skull, extending to the base. Dr. M. P. Conway who represented the family and Coroner A J. Forman were present at the autopsy.

According to officials of the railroad Mr. Graney was at Tarbell's station in-pecting a section of the road which had been repaired recently. With him was a gang of workmen. They had removed the handcar upon which the trip was made, in order to let an Auburn-bound freight train pass by. Mr. Graney was standing by the side of the track watching the engine ap proach and when it was within a short distance turned to look the swinging door, the railroad officials said The section hands were engaged in gathering tools and other minor occupations and did not see the obstruction until later. When the rear end of the train passed by, Conductor Gordon Jackson saw Mr Graney at the side of the track and, ordering the engine stopped, carried him into the coach. At Genoa Dr Willoughby was secured. As the man was in an unconscious condition, all baste was made to reach the city. Mr. Graney had been roadmaster on the Short Line for the past seven years. Previously he was section foreman at Cayuga for the New York Central Railroad. During his term. of years with the Short Line, he was responsible for many improvements and was considered by the company to be one of the most valued employes. O t cials say that it will be very difficult to fill Mr. Graney's place as he was one of the most efficient men connected with the road. Besides his widow he is survived by two children, Mary and Joseph, who is a student in the High School, and is at present employed by the Short Line. He also leaves two sisters, the Misses Mary and Margaret Graney, both of whom reside in Auburn, and four brothers, Michael Graney, freight agent for the New York Central in Auburn; Jeremiah Graney, confidential clerk in the office of the N Y. C. B B ; William Graney recently appointed station. agent for the New York Central in Geneva, and Edward Graney, who resides in Washington. The funeral was held from his home, 5 Woodruff Place, Auburn, at 9 o'clock Monday morning with services at St. Mary's Church at 9:30 o'clock. Burial in St. Joseph's ceme-

FRED L. SWART, Optometrist.

Masonic Temple, South St. AUBURN, N.Y. Shur-On Eye Glasses.

FIRE! E. C. HILLMAN, GENERAL FIRE INSURANCE. Levanna, N. Y.

Agent for the following companies: Glens Falls, The Home, Fire Association of Philadelphia, The Sun of London, The Queen, Royal of Liverpool and Fidelity Underwriters, also Windstorm or Tornado insurance at low rate. Regular trip every thirty days.

Force of Habit.

A young lady telephone operator recently attended a watch-night service and fell asleep during the sermon. At the close the preacher said: "We will now sing hymn number three forty-one-three forty-one.

and said: "The line is busy. Please call again."

boys and girls under 14 years of age, Parke Minturn the past week. where they will be received as members of the family; apply to Children's Department, State Charities Aid As sociation. 289 Fourth Ave., New York City

pyright, by MeClure Syndicate.)

on have the first symptom of a ron-down system, and nervous people too often connce, while, if neglected, this condition often foreruns more serious trouble.

If those so afflicted would stop taking medicine containing sloohol or drugs which menace the foundations of health, and just take the pure, strengthening nouriahment in Scott's Emulsion, it would trate new blood to pulsate through the ville are among friends her. The Lobdell reunion will be held at Jason Newman's on Wednesday of this week. The Tarbell reunion will be at Herbert Gay's on Saturday. Wm. Singer's brother, who was called here by Mr. Singer's illness and remained some time, has returned to his home in Pennsylvania. Chester Shaw has been visiting his eister, Mrs. Gertrude Stowell. He had been in the army and the family had given him up as dead, as they had not heard from him in eight years. Mrs. F. Allington entertained a friend from Wolcott over Sunday, Mrs E. H Kellog. The new Ticket agent moves into the Miller house.

Lansingville.

Aug. 24-The death of Mrs. Almary Close occurred Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Breese, with whom she has resided for the past seven years, and who have very tenderly cared for her. She was a widow of the late Frank The young lady, just waking in Close and was 78 years of age. The time to hear the number, yawned funeral was held Monday at the house at 3 o'clock, Rev. G. W. Hiney officiating.

Miss Jean Turnbull of Seneca WANTED-Good homes wanted for county has been the guest of Mrs Mrs. Fred Dakin spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Breese, recently.

Mrs. Becker of South Dakota is guest at the home of her cousin, Lester Boles.

As Thad Brown was on his way to the creamery a few mornings ago the horse took fright and threw him out breaking his collar bone. He is gaining slowly

Mrs. Wm. Baker has been quite ill. Miss Vande Bogart has been visitng at the home of Mrs. L. A. Boles a lew days

Sunday the pastor was accompanied by four people from his former charge at Montezuma, one of whom is now a solist in a church in Buffalo. They rendered several selections which were much enjoyed.

A Profound Question.

Mother (to little boy)-Oh, don't e tiresome and keep on asking imossible questions, Percy!

Old Gentleman (slightly hard of hearing)-Don't scold him, madam. I think, if I may say so, that it is a duty to help children when they are trying to acquire knowledge. What few days with her at her home here.

Mrs Albert Ferris spent a few days ast week with friends in Ithaca Miss Arsena Kelley recently spent iew days with her sister, Agnes

Kelley at Aurora they also made a trip to Auburn. Mr. Hunt and family of Interlaken recently visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ferris.

Mr. and Mrs Jay Hunt of Groton were recent guests of their mother, Mrs. Mary Hunt.

Mrs. H. B. Hunt, on account of illness was not able to attend church last Sunday.

R B. Ferris and Frank Corwin spent Sunday at the lake. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hollister accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Will Ferris motored to Watkins Glen last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Quaranto of Moravia were week-end guests of brother's, Geo Husted. their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ferris.

Aug. 18-Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hunt of Groton were guests of their mother, Mrs. Mary Hunt last Sunday.

Asa Swartwood of Interlaken is spending a few days this week with his grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Algard.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen King of King Ferry, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Barger, motored to Scipioville, or west of there, recently to view the wonderfully carved tree which is attracting much attention.

Mrs. David Knox spent last Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Will Haskins.

Miss Mattie DeRemer is spending some time at Union Springs before commencing her school at the Forks of the Oreek.

Miss Kate Hughes who has been at Stephen Doyle's assisting with the housework has returned to Albert Gillow's.

Master Alvin Hunt is spending a few days at his grandparents', Mr. and Mrs. H. B Hunt.

We should have mentioned last week that Mrs. Esther Hunt is the Superintendent of Mother's Meetings in the W. O. T. U. She did splendidly in making out a program for the meeting which was held at her house recently.

Mrs. Frank Close is very ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs, Will Breecs. Mrs. Mary Hunt is assisting in the care of Morris Coon at his sister's, Mrs. Margaret Algard.

Josiah Lawrence of Norwalk, Ohio, is visiting his cousin, J. D. Todd and Miss Horton of New York City 70 visiting her uncle, F. J. Horton and family.

J. H. Murdock of Auburn is spending a two weeks' vacation in town

Poplar Ridge.

Aug. 24-Last week was very discouraging to farmers who have not finished harvest.

The Simkin and Foster sisters recently entertained their grandn p hew, Lloyd Simkin of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Simkin is spending some time visiting friends and relatives in different states, coming here from Michigan on his motorcycle. He planned to visit seven counties in this state.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grinnell attended the Lord Minard wedding at Ledyard the 19th.

Mrs. Frank Wixom and children of Perry City spent last week at her

Mrs. Jennie McIlroy is visiting her sister in Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook at tended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Rosalyn Lyon in Auburn last week.

Born, to Rev. and Mrs. J. R Walter a son, Aug. 22

The creamery opened Aug 17. Mr. Gifford who has leased the creamery occupies Mrs. Mary L Chase's house. His assistant is also living there un til another house can be found. Mrs. Frank Briggs and daughter of Ithaca are at Mr. Medlock's for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E Sherman and grandson Carlton, who has been spending part of the summer with them, motored to their son, Alden Sherman's, in York recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Simkin and family spent the week-end at H. T. Mosher's in Fleming.

The children are having quite an excitement being vaccinated.

Mrs. Mattie Beardsley of Auburn is spending a few days at her father's, E Cook.

Mrs. May Mallison is at her daugh ter's, Mrs. Lewis Otis.

Courtney Will Remain.

Charles E. Courtney, coach of the Cornell crews for the last thirty years, whose contract still has two years to run, is about to sign a contract for ten more years at a greatly increased sulary rate, according to reports coming from Ithaca. Courtnoy last year announced that in 1916, when his present contract ran ont, he would retire as couch, and would

Rev. and Mrs. Haynes visited friends at Truxton last week.

Miss Alberta Main of Myers spent week recently visiting her uncle other way and so did not see the and family.

Miss Nellie Brennan is entertaining a little friend from Auburn. Mrs. Frances Avery of Canada is visiting her sons and other friends in this place. Quarterly meeting was observed at the church here on Sunday with a good attendance. The District Superintendent was present.

The school children are preparing for school by being vaccinated; also some of the teachers.

Mrs. Mary Bradt although nearly pinety-three took an auto trip to Venice and back recently in one day. Helen Mahaney has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Collins of Union Springe.

King Ferry.

Aug. 20-Mr. Brakey of Wisconsin has purchased the S. B. Reynolds farm and will soon take possession. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sprague of Poplar Ridge spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Ray White.

Mrs. Fred Hire and children are spending a few weeks visiting friends and relatives in Seneca Falls.

Mrs. John Shaw of Ithaca is visit ing relatives and friends here.

. Mrs. C. W. Dennis is spending some time in Syracuse for her health. Mre. Frank Holland and sister, Mrs. M. Britt, of Aubarn spent a few days in Ithaca last week.

Miss Antoinette Bradley and Miss Ruth Bradley are visiting Mrs. Sarah Halsted of Schenevus.

Aug. 24-Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ellison and two children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs Arthur O'Hara of Auburn.

Order Out of Chaos.

Many people believe that a newspaper falls together without work or concerted action or plan. A Presbyterian minister at Pasadena, was of the opinion, and asked to ba allowed to edit an edition the Pasadena Star. The editor gladly

Much Ado about Nothing.

A Henrietta farmer became excited. of when his hay field burned, accepted the opportunity to go fish- After the fire was out, as he was ing, and the minister took up his taking a drink of water he minsed duties in the newspaper office. This his false toeth. Then a pain in his is how he felt when he found himself stomach convinced him he had awalat the task which, it must be said, lowed the teeth. He was rushed to had been done creditably. "My time a Rochester hospital where he alis almost up as I pen this last line, most demanded an operation to mave my hand is almost paralyzed; my his life. Five ez-ray photographe brain is befuddled and I am free to convinced the doctors the worth ware confese that I am right glad to vacate not inside the excited farmerthis spot. Such rush and riot and he wanted to be out open. He such tory.

The Story of Waitstill Baxter

By KATE DOUGLAS WIGGIN

Copyright, 1913, by Kate Douglas Wiggin

She took a few steps nearer the gate, near enough now for him to see her rosy face framed in a blue bood and to catch the brightness of her eyes under their lovely lashes. Ordinarily they were cool and limpid and grave Waitstill's eyes. Now a sunbeau danced in each of them. And her lips is saying its prayers to you at this almost always tightly closed, as if she

the night! What if ne should wander luck, broken in spirit. feeble in body. mility in parse?" "I do not come to you free of burdens. If my father is deserted by all i must see that he is made comfortthle. He never treated me like a langhter, but I acknowledge his daim."

"Mine is such a gloomy house!" "Will it be gloomy when I am in it?" and Waitstill, usually so grave, laughed at last like a care free child. ivory feit himself hidden in the seautiful shelter of the girl's love.

It was dark now, or as dark as the night ever is that has moonlight and snow. He took Waitstill in his arms again reverently and laid his cheek against her hair. "I worship God as well as I know bow." he whispered, "worship him as the maker of this big beaven and earth that surrounds us. But I worship you as the maker of my little heaven and earth, and my heart very moment." "Hush, my dear! Hush! And don't value me too much or I shall lose my head-1 that have never known a sweet word in all my life save those tell you all about Patty now."

"I happen to know more than you, dear. I met her at the bridge when I was coming home from the woods and saw her safely to Uncle Bart's door. don't know why we speak of it as Uncle Bart's when it is really Aunt Abby's! 1 next met Mark, who had fairly flown from Bridgton on the avenging the insults heaped upon his sight of whom enchanted the eye, the bride, and he has driven to the Mills to confide in his father and mother. them all, as is her custom."

"Oh. I am so glad Mark is at home! Now I can be at rest about Patty. And 1 must not linger another moment, for I am going to ask Mrs. Mason to keep me overnight!" cried Waitstill, bethinking herself suddenly of time and place.

"I will take you there myself and exbedroom and settled you there, what How Glorious to Feel Ivory's Arms notice of our intended marriage post- hand. ed in a public place, according to law. 'Mills,' indeed! I wonder at you, Waitstill! As if Mrs. Mason's house was not far enough away, without your dead? I think of this sometimes in face in the counterpane to conceal the tears.

"She is coming to live with us, dear Come in, Rod, and hear n.e tell her. Waitstill is coming to live with us. Isn't that a beautiful thing to happen to this dreary house?" asked lvory, bending to take his mother's hand.

"Don't you remember what you thought the first time I ever came here, mother?" and Waitstill lifted her head and looked at Mrs. Boynton with swimming eyes and lips that trembled. 'Ivory is making it all come true, and I shall be your daughter." Mrs. Boynton sank farther back into her pillows and, closing her eyes, gave a long sigh of infinite content. Her voice was so faint that they had to stoop to catch the words, and Ivory, feeling the strange benediction that reemed to be passing from his mother's spirit to theirs, took Rod's hand and knelt beside Waitstill.

The verse of a favorite psalm was running through Lois Boynton's mind. and in a moment the words came clearly as she opened her eyes, lifted her hands and touched the bowed heads. "Let the house of Aaron now say that his mercy endureth forever!" she said slowly and reverently. And that my sister has given me. I must Ivory, with all his heart, responded.

" ORY! Ivory!"

Ivory stirred in a sleep that had been troubled by too great happiness. To travel a dreary path alone, a path leading seemingly wings of love, arriving hours ahead of nowhere, and then suddenly to have a time. I managed to keep him from companion by one's side, the very very touch of whom delighted the senses-what joy unspeakable! Who By this time Patty is probably the could sleep soundly when wakefulcenter of the family group, charming ness brought a train of such blissful thoughts?

"Ivory! Ivory!"

He was fully awake now, for he knew his mother's voice. In all the years, ever thoughtful of his comfort and of the constant strain upon his strength. Lois had never wakened her son at night.

"Coming, mother, coming!" he said. plain everything. And the moment when he realized she was calling him. I've lighted a fire in Mrs. Mason's best | And, hastily drawing on some clothing, for the night was bitterly cold, he do you think 1 am going to do? I shall came out of his room and saw his drive to the town clerk's house, and if mother standing at the foot of the he is in bed, rout him out and have the stairway with a lighted candle in her

"Can you come down, Ivory? It is a

only a child leaning patiently against the window sill looking out into the dark and that the place was bare and cheerless,

"'I came to call upon Mr. Aaron Boynton,' I said, with my heart sluking lower and lower as I spoke. The woman opened a door into the next room, and when I walked in, instead of seeing your father, I confronted a haggard, death stricken young woman sitting up in bed, her great eyes bright with pain, her lips as white as her hollow cheeks and her long black hair streaming over the pillow. The very sight of her struck a knell to the little hope I had of soothing your father's sick bed and forgiving him if he had done me any wrong. "Well, you came, as I thought you would,' said the girl, looking me over from head to foot in a way that somehow made me burn with shame. 'Now, sit down in that chair and bear what I've got to say while I've got the strength to say it. I haven't the time nor the desire to put a gloss on it. Aaron Boynton isn't here, as you plainly see, but that's not my fault, for he belongs here as much as anywhere, though he wouldn't have much interest in a dying woman. If you have suffered on account of him so have 1. and you haven't had this pain boring into you and eating your life away for months, as I have."

"I pitled her, she seemed so distraught, but I was in terror of her all the same and urged her to tell her story calmly and I would do my best to hear it in the same way.

"'Calm,' she exclaimed, 'with this agony tearing me to pieces! Well, to make beginning and end in one, Aaron Boynton was my husband for three years.

"I caught hold of the chair to keep myself from falling and cried. 'I do not believe it." 'Believe it or not.' she answered scornfully. 'It makes no difference to me, but I can give you twenty proofs in as many seconds. We met at a Cochrane meeting, and he chose me from all the others as his true wife. For two years we traveled together, but long before they came to an end there was no happiness for either of us. He had a conscience-not much of the couch. I covered him with a blana one, but just enough to keep him miserable. At last I felt he was not ing. But later in the night, when I believing the doctrines he preached, and I caught him trying to get news denty awoke and felt him lying beside of you and your boy just because you me. He had dragged the blanket along were out of reach, and neglecting my and crept up on the bed to get close to boy and me, who had given up every-have hoped. Just listen to the end. She was frightful to hear and to look at, the girl was, though all the time I could feel that she must have had a gypsy beauty and vigor that answered to something in your father.

"'Go along out now!' she oried and denly. 'I can't stand anyboly near. The doctor never gives me half enough medicine, and for the hour before he comes I fairly die for lack of it, though little be cares. Go upstairs and have your sleep, and tomorrow you can make up your mind."

"'You don't leave me much freedom to do that,' I tried to answer, but she interrupted me, rocking her body to and fro. 'Neither of us will ever see Aaron Boynton again-you no more than 1. He's in the west, and a man with two families and no means of providing for them doesn't come back where he's known. Come and take her away, Eliza! Take ber away, quick! she called.

"I stumbled out of the room, and the woman waved me upstairs. 'You must pot mind. Hetty," she apologized. 'She never had a good disposition at the best, but she's frantic with the pain now, and good reason, too. It's about over, and I'll be thankful when it is. You'd better swallow the shame and take the child. I can't and won't have him, and it'll be easy enough for you to say he belongs to some of your own folks.

"By this time I was mentally bewildered. When the iron first-entered my soul, when I first heard the truth about your father, at that moment my mind gave way-I know it now."

"Poor, poor mother! My poor, gentle little mother!" murmured Ivory brokenly as he stroked her hand.

"Don't cry, my son; it is all pastthe sorrow and the bitterness and the struggle. I will just finish the story and then we'll close the book forever. The woman gave me some bread and tea, and I flung myself on the bed without undressing. I don't know how long afterward it was, but the door opened and a little boy stole in, a sad. strange, dark eyed little boy who said; 'Can I sleep up here? Mother's scream ing and I'm afraid.' He climbed on to ket, and I soon heard his deep breathmust have fallen asleep myself, I sudmy side for the warmth I could give

NHESE OTHER inesee St. AUBURN.N.Y. The Thrice-A-Week Edition OF THE New York World Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly No other Newspaper in the world gives somuch at so low a price. soon begin and you will want the news

The great Presidential campaign will accurately and promptly. The World long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thricea-Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It will be of particular value to you now. The Thrice-a-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor, markets, cartcons; in fact, everything that is to be found in a pratecioes daily.

THE THRICE A.WEEK WORLI'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE GENOA TRIBUNE together for one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the wo papers is $2.00

$7,500.00 ACCIDENTAL DEATH-$20 to $50.00 WEEKLY-Accident or Sickness-Men and Women accepted. All occupations. Premium $10 a year. Halt touch of him almost broke my heart benefits $5.00. Large commissions to NATIONAL ACCIDENT SOagents. away when he was lying there so near CIETY, 320 Broadway, New York, N.Y. (Est. 1885)

'Amen!" CHAPTER XXVIII. Aaron's Rod.

were holding back her natural speech -her lips were red and parted, and the soul of her, free at last, shone through her face, making it luminous with a new beauty

About Her.

"I have left home for good and all." she said. "I'll tell you more of this later on, but I have left my father's house with nothing to my name but the clothes I stand in. I am going to look for work in the mills tomorrow, but I stopped here to say that I'm ready to marry you whenever you want me-if you do want me."

Ivory was bewildered, indeed, but not so much so that he failed to ap arm as they went up the lane together to remember something-something prehend and instantly, too, the real significance of this speech. He took a couple of long strides, and before ever have to bear it alone again?" Waitstill had any idea of his intentions he vaulted over the bars and gathered her in his arms.

Never shall you leave my sight for a whom I could really confide, with single hour again, my one woman in whom I could take counsel. You can all the world. Come to me to be loved and treasured all your life long. prehending woman at my side. Shall I've worshiped you ever since I was a boy. I've kept my heart swept and believe she will understand. Rod, Rod. garnished for you and no other, hoping I might win you at last."

How glorious to bear all this dellcious poetry of love and to feel Ivory's tiring himself elaborately for sentry arms about her, making the dream duty. His delight at seeing Waitstill seem surer!

their eagerness to be spoken. "How in the snow for hours as he had hoped. like you to count on me, to guess my But this grief passed when he fully chains that held me back and break farm at this unaccustomed hour really derful Waitstill!"

Ivory went on murmuring phrases in him, at bottom, too-embracing her for years, scarcely conscious of what dering questions. he was saying, realizing only that the miracle of miracles had happened.

Waitstill, for her part, was almost his heart that she could hear it beating, to feel the passionate tenderness upon her hair.

"I did not know a girl could be so night. Rod. Isn't that a ridiculous happy!" she whispered "I've dreamed | snail of a law?" of it, but it was nothing like this. am all a-tremble with it."

Ivory held ber off at arm's length for a moment, reluctantly, grudgingly, "You took me fairly off my feet, dearcet," he said, "and I forgot everything but the one supreme fact you were tellhave told you that I am no worthy husband for you, Waltstill. I haven't anough to offer such a girl as you."

"You're too late, lvory! You showed me your heart first, and now you are searching your mind for bugbears to frighten me."

"I am a poor man."

"No girl could be poorer than I am." "After what you've endured you sught to have rest and comfort."

"I shall have both-in you!" This with ayes, all wet. lifted to Ivory's.

"My mother is a great burden-a very dear and precious but a grievous speaking of 'mills.'" did not want to marry me." said Waitstill.

"Walk up to the door with me." begged lvory. "The horse is all harnesssleigh in a jiffy."

"Oh, Ivory, do you realize what this means"-and Waitstill clung to his hardship comes to us neither of us will "I believe I do realize it as few men could, for never in my five and twenty ears have I had a human creature to "Never shall you go to the mills, whom I could pour myself out, in guess what it will be to have a comwe tell my mother? Do say 'yes;' I come and see who's stepping in the door this very minute!"

Rodman was up in his bedroom, at

was perhaps slightly tempered by the "Oh, how like you to shorten the thought that flashed at once through time of my waiting!" he went on, his his mind-that if she was safe he words fairly chasing one another in would not be required to stand guard bunger for your love, to realize the realized Waitstill's presence at the them yourself with your own dear, wo- meant. After he had been told he manly hands' How like you, oh, won- hung about her like the child that he was-though he had a bit of the hero that had been lying in his heart unsaid waist fondly and bristling with won-

"Is she really going to stay with us for always, Ivory?" be asked.

"Every day and all the days, every dumb with joy to be lying so close to night and all the nights. 'Praise God from whom all blessings flow!"" said Ivory, taking off his fur cap and openof his embrace and his kiss falling ing the door of the living room. "But we've got to wait for her a whole fort-

"Patty didn't wait a fortnight."

"Patty never waited for anything," lvory responded, with a smile, "But she had a good reason, and, alas, we haven't, or they'll say that we haven't. And I am very grateful to the same dear little Patty. for when she got hering me. Had I been on guard I should | self a husband she found me a wife!" Rodman did not wholly understand this, but felt that there were many mysteries attending the love affairs of grownup people that were too complicated for him to grasp, and it did not seem to be just the right moment for questions.

Waitstill and Ivory went into Mrs. Royaton's room quietly, hand in hand. and when she saw Waitstill she raised herself from her pillow and held out her arms with a soft cry of delight.

"I haven't had you for so long, so long!" she said, touching the girl's cheek with her frail hand.

"You are going to have me every day things that I shall be your helpmane." a sob. in her voice, for she saw a down by anxiety and dread. I found er folks."

Perhaps 1 shall save a day out of the strange hour to call you, but 1 have fourteen I've got to wait for my wife. something to tell you-something I have been piecing together for weeks, something I have just clearly remembered."

"If it's something that won't keep "I only suggested mills in case you | till morning, mother, you creep back | Boynton has served us both the same. into led and we'll hear it comfortably," he said, coming downstairs and leading her to her room. "I'll smooth the covers, so; beat up the pillowsed, and Rod will slip him into the there!--and throw another log on the sitting room fire. Now, what's the matter? Couldn't you sleep?"

-"that whatever sorrow, whatever untrue that you have been believing. some falsehood for which I was responsible. I have pursued and pursued it, but it has always escaped me. Once it was clear as daylight, for Rodman read me from the Bible a plain answer to all the questions that tortured me.'

she fainted," thought Ivory.

"When I awoke next morning from my long sleep the old puzzle had come back a thousand times worse than before, for then I knew that I had held the clew in my own hand and had lost it. Now, praise God. I know the truth. and you, the only one to whom I can tell it, are close at hand!"

Ivory looked at his mother and saw that the veil that had separated them mentally seemed to have vanished in the night that had passed. Often and often it had blown away, as it were. for the fraction of a moment and then blown back again. Now her eyes met his with an altogether new clearness that startled him, while her breath came with ease and she seemed stronger than for many days.

"You remember the winter I was here at the farm alone when you were at the academy?"

"Yes. It was then that I came home and found you so terribly III. Do you think we need go back to that old time now, mother dear?"

"Yes, I must, I must! One morning I received a strange letter, bearing no signature, in which the writer said that if I wished to see my husband I had only to go to a certain address in Brentville, N. H. The letter went on to say that Mr. Aaron Boynton was Ill and longed for nothing so much as to speak with me, but there were reasons why he did not wish to return to Edgewood. Would I come to him without delay?

Ivory now sat straight in his chair and listened keenly, feeling that this was to be no vague, uncertain and misleading memory, but something true and tangible.

"The letter excited me greatly after your father's long absence and silence. knew it could mean nothing but sorrow: but, although 1 was half fil at the time, my plain duty was to go, so I thought to go without making any explanation in the village."

All this was new to Ivory, and he hung upon his mother's words, dreading yet hoping for the light that they might shed upon the past.

thing to wander with him and live on whatever the brethren and sisters chose to give us."

"'So there was a child, a boy!' 1 gasped. 'Did-did he live?' 'He's in and warm and confiding-he, all unconthe next room.' she answered, 'and it's him I brought you here for. Aaron He left you for me and me for heaven knows who. If I could five I wouldn't ask any favors, of you least of all, but I haven't a penny in the world, though I shan't need one very long. My friend that's nursing me hasn't a roof to her head, and she wouldn't share it with "All summer long I have been trying | the boy if she had-she's a bigoted orthodox.

> "But what do you expect me to do?' I asked angrily. for she was stabbing me with every word.

"'The boy is your husband's child. and he always represented you as a saint upon earth. I expect you to take him home and provide for him He doesn't mean very much to me-"That must have been the night that just enough so that I don't relish his going to the poorhouse, that's all.'

> "'He'll go to something very like that if be comes to mine,' I said. "'Don't worry me with talk, for can't stand it.' she walled, elutching at her nightgown and flinging back her hair. 'Either you take the child or 1 send somebody to Edgewood with him, somebody to tell the whole story.

"My poor, poor Rod!"

Some of the Cochranites can support him if you won't, or, at the worst, Aaron Boynton's town can take care of his son. The doctor has given me two days to live. If it's a minute you that I'll end it myself, and if you don't take the boy I'll do the same for than knocking about the world alone. "I arrived at Brentville quite ex- He's innocent, and there's no sense in them straight through my illness and "like needs a daughter. It is in such now, dear." whispered Waitstill, with hausted with the journey and weighed his being punished for the sins of oth- brought them out on the other side or the comfort of my nearness. The I could not push the little creature scious of the agony his mere existence was to me. I must have slept again. and when the day broke I was alone. I thought the presence of the child in the night was a dream, and I could not remember where I was or why was there."

"Mother, dear mother, don't tell me any more tonight. I fear for your strength," urged Ivory, his eyes ful! of tears at the remembrance of her sufferings.

"There is only a little more and the weight will be off my heart and on yours, my poor son. Would that I need not tell you! The house was still, and I thought at first that no one was awake, but when I opened the sitting room door the child ran toward me and took my hand as the woman came in from the sickroom. 'Go into the kitchen. Rodman,' she said, 'and lace up your boots. You're going right out with this lady. Hetty died in the night." she continued impassively. "The doctor was here about 10 o'clock, and I've never seen her so bad. He gave her a big dose of sleeping powder and put another in the table drawer for me to mix for her toward morning. She was helpless to move, we thought, but all the same she must have got out of bed when my back was turned and taken the powder dry on her tongue, for it was gone when I looked for it. It didn't hasten things much, and I don't. blame her. If ever there was a wild, reckless creature it was Hetty Rodman. But I, who am just the opposite. would have done the same if I'd been her.'

"She hurriedly gave me a cup of coffee and, putting a coat and a cap on the boy, literally pushed me out of the house. The got to report things to the doctor,' she said, 'and you're bette: out of the way. Go down that side street to the station, and mind you sety the boy belonged to your sister, when died and left him to you. You're a Cochranite, ain't you? So was Herry. and they're all sisters, so you'll in teri ing no lies. Goodby, Rodman. Be a good boy and don't be any trouble in the lady.

"How I found the station I do not know, nor how I made the journey, nor where I took the stagecoach. The snow began to fall, and by noon there was a drifting storm. 1 could not remember where I was going nor who the boy was, for just as the snow was whirling outside so it was whirling in my brain."

"Mother. I can hardly bear to hear any more. It is too terrible!" cried Ivory, rising from his chair and pacing the floor.

"I can recall nothing of any account dll I awoke in my own bed weeks afterward. The strange little boy was longer I've warned him and I warn there, but Mrs. Day and Dr. Perry told me what I must have told them-that he was the child of my dead sister him. He's a good sight better off dead Those were the last words attered by the woman in Brentville. I carried more firmly intreached than ever."

J. A. Spaulding, D.D.S Preserving the natural teeth our specialty.

Fillings, gold, porcelain, silver and gold inlays. Crown and bridgework just like the natural teeth.

Plates that fit.

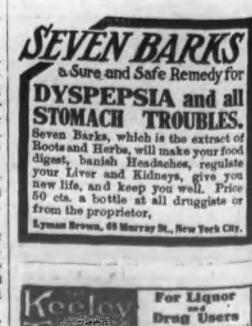

Vitalized air for painless ex tracting. Write or phone for appointment.

Bell 57-J. Miller 90.

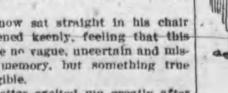

Rink-mithing and Repairing. WM. HUSON, Genoa, N. Y.

A seisstiffe treatman The KEELEY INSTITU

THE GENOA TRIBUNE ESTABLISHED 1990. A LOCAL FAMILY NEWSP.PER Published every Friday Tribune Building, Geros, N. Y. E. A. Waldo of Christians subscrip ton. One year $1.00

.35 Six months..... Three wonths......

Jib Printing. This office is well equipped to do first class rinting of every description at m dirate prices.

Friday Morning, Aug. 28, 1914

WOMEN OF, NIGERIA.

Their Lips Are Plugged With Wooden Disks So They Can't Eat Dog. The women of northern Nigeria are not prepossessing and in their scanty attire, with tails of grass hanging from their girdles, are sometimes really grotesque. To add further to their beauty both the upper and lower lips of these women are pierced in order to admit a flat. round disk of wood called the tichiak. which is usually about the size of a half dollar. The lips of the little girls are pierced when they are seven or eight years of age, and a piece of wood inserted and worn for a time until a larger one takes its place, the opening thus being gradually enlarged ratil a full sized tichiak can be carried without discomfort. The object of this singularly discomforting adornment is to prevent the women from eating dogs, which are considered the greatest delicacy by the men of the tribes.

Both sexes decorate their bodies with regular designs. The chests and backs of the little girls are scarified at a very early age. When they arrive at marriageable age the girls undergo a further ordeal, for two sets of parallel lines are cut both on the chest and the back, and as soon as possible after marriage the head lines are made. These consist of a number of short cuts across the forehead, extending from ear to ear, and thirteen long, slanting lines are cut on each cheek from ear to chin.

COACHES AND AUTOCARS.

How the Twentieth Century Is Linked With the Eighteenth.

judged." Matthew 7:1. In dealing with those who complain of the hypocrites in the church it is well to open your Bible to Matthew 7:1, and ask them to read it. Also show them Rothen every one of us shall give account of himself to God." Then ask the objector, "Who has appointed you judge over your fellow men? Has the Lord appointed you?" "No."

"Have your fellow men selected you for this important position?" "Of course not."

"You don't mean to say that you ever heard of such a thing!"

Then ask him to read Romans 2:1. Wherefore thou art without excuse, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest, for wherein thou judgest another, Lose this day loitering. 'twill be the same thou condemnest thyself; for thou things." Ask him if it ever occurred to him that he was a hypocrite himself, and when he answers in the negative, say What you can do, or dream you can, beto him:

"Well, let us see. You condemn the what they are not?"

"I do. "But when you claim that the reason why you are not a Christian is because of the hypocrites in the

An Obliging Barber. Charley Heywood, who used to be associated with P. P. Elder in the publication of a weekly paper at Ottawa. one time went into a barber shop and. getting into the first chair he came to. the door. The traveler stumbled into enough, although mans 14:12. "So he couldn't underwith the handle of his brush.

> the barber repeated the performance of woke up and, with a swing of both overcoat over me. To partly explain arms, blurted out, "What the devil are you doing?"

"Why," said the barber apologetically, "It didn't seem to run down, and so I crammed it down with the brush."

When the fight ended there was have appointed yourself judge, do scarcely anything in the way of furniyou? A self-appointed judgo! Who ture, bottles or windows left in the shop.-Lem A. Woods in Kansas Ed-

Do It Now.

story Tomorrow, and the next more dilatory; that judgest dost practise the same Then indecision brings its own delays, And days are lost lamenting o'er lost davs. Are you in earnest? Seize this very minute-gin it. Courage has genius, power and magic

In it. hypocrites because they pretend to be Only engage, and then the mind grows heated-Begin it and the work will be completed.

-Goethe.

In Doubt.

03

have made the remark had I known make the most humble apology. But"

-looking first at the man and then at the animal-"hang it if I can tell whether I ought to apologize to you or

A Telegram That Talked.

Barrymore was playing in San Francisco a fabulous sum was offered her by a local theater for her services for

CHARLES FROHMAN.

at once sent this characteristic reply:

GEORGIE DREW BARRYMORE.

A Double Headed Bull.

Equal to the Occasion.

be on the alert at every performance.

On a certain occasion he had to scold a servant in one of Mollere's plays, when the "claque," which had been bribed

Michelot was by no means disconcerted. Giving the servant a couple of blows on the ear, not included in the

"You file scamp of a varlet, there is nothing you think of! There you stand part, he extemporized as follows:

by his rivals, began to hiss.

Charles Frohman, New York City:

At one time when Georgie Drew

WHAT A RESEM

BLANCE!"

HAD A LIVELY NIGHT. A Change of Cars That Only Added to the Evening's Enjoyment.

A New Yorker who recently returned from abroad had a queer experience while traveling in Switzerland. He got separated from his party one evening at a railway station, and as the train was about to start a porter grabbed him, pushed him into a dark compartment in one of the cars and locked said. "Cut my hair, and be sure you let the arms of a bristly bearded Frenchit run down the man and his wife, who received him back of my neck." with a wild torrent of jabbering that sounded like threats, and as the train referring to the kind of cut he drew out he retreated into a corner and wanted, and then sank into a seat. He says:

settled down for a "I was locked in that compartment for two hours, for the train made no After clipping stop for sixty miles, and the time away for a few passed mostly with the heavily beardminutes the bar- ed Frenchman glaring at me in the alber concluded the most gloom and my keeping my eyes hair was not go- on him, wondering what he would try ing down the cus- | to do.

"When the train at last stopped my tomer's neck fast friends found me with the announcement that they had found a berth in a CHARLEY WOKE UP. stand why he wagon lit compartment, and I thankwanted it to run down at all, and he fully quit the presence of the angry just shoved down a good sized handful couple and was shown into a two berth compartment, where I found I was to Heywood was about half asleep, and occupy the upper berth. The lower was occupied by an elderly man. It was a putting down a fresh lot, when Charley chilly night, and I spread my heavy > what followed I may mention that one pocket contained a heavy silver flask. "I do not know how long I had been asleep, but I was awakened by the most horrible noises imaginable coming from the berth under me. A muffled voice was shrieking and cursing and yelling in French for help, and I could hear blows. At the same instant came knocks on the door of the compartment and demands in several languages that it be opened. "And what do you think had happened? That bottle had gradually dragged the fur coat down until it had fallen in upon the man in the berth beneath. The flask had struck him on the head. and the fur coat spread itself over his face and arms. "Awakened by the blow, which he naturally imagined had come from a weapon of some kind, the old man below had started up to find upon him what he thought was a huge hairy anlmal of some sort, and he was screaming and kicking and fighting it and raising such a rumpus that he had

LIGHTNING!

REDUCED RATES ON ALL RAILROADS

Have your buildings protected with pure copper cable. We sell it with the improved one-piece top which is the bast on the market.

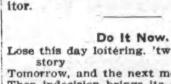

DON'T DELAY

but get our low prices NOW.

Deering Machines and Extras.

S. S. GOODYEAR, MILLER 'PHONE

Goodyears, N.Y.

The nineteenth century has seen the passing of the democracy of travel. With the twentieth has come a return to the aristocratic methods of the eighteenth century, when a gentleman, if he wished to tour the continent, did so in his own coach. Friends in the country inviting a lady of quality to visit them wrote asking where horses should meet her. She naturally came in her own carriage. When Miss Edgeworth's heroine Helen wished to jusy her debts her principal asset was her traveling chaise.

In the youth of our own grandfathers the truly great, enshrined in an aristocratic vehicle, refused to descend from it even when on shipboard. The opera singer Grisi crossed the channel in her own coach, while her dutiful husbaud stood on deck at the coach window holding the harmless necessary basin. The individual vehicle was a hall mark of distinction.

There has been an interval when people were content to berd together in railway trains, but it has already passed away. We have returned to the private, the special, the personal; in a word, we have gone back to the eighteenth century. Now, as then, a gentleman travels in his own conveyance .--Atlantic Monthly.

Cowboys.

A cowboy, to our modern minds, means a man who herds cattle. Yet the original "cowboys." -Instead of herding cattle, stole them. The name seems first to have been applied to a band of horsemen, part soldiers and part bandits, who fought on the British side during the Revolution. Westchester county, N. Y., was the scene of their operations, and the most of them were Tories. Because they drove away many cattle on their raids they were called cowboys. Opposed to the cowboys in their raids through the section of New York which lay between the British and American lines were the skinners, a somewhat similar band of marauders, who espoused the continental cause.-American Boy.

Parental Severity.

The children of two centuries ago fell on stern times, if one may believe that the spirit of family life was accurately expressed by an excellent mother of that day who said, without humorous intent, that her children "loved her as sinners dread death." There is little doubt that parental control at that date was as rigorous as this anecdote indicates. It is said that when little Andrew Elliot, afterward there stood the man, with the paper lientenant governor of New York, objected to boiled mutton his father, Sir Gilbert Elliot, frowned.

"Let Mr. Andrew have bolled mutton for breakfast," commanded the stern parent, "cold mutton for dinner and cold mutton for supper till he has learned to like it."

His Company.

Mark Twain, meeting Charles Guthde. a prominent British lawyer, in Vienna asked him if he smoked.

"Sometimes when I am in bad company," was the reply.

church, you are pretending, what is statesmen once visited the zoological Times. not true. The real reason why you gardens in Washington and, pausing do not become a Christian is because before a particuyou want your own way, and are not larly ugly mon-

willing to obey God. And when you key, exclaimed to say it is because of the hypocrites, his companion: you are saying what is not true, and "What a resemyou know it." blance to So-and-

Show him John 21:21, 22. "Peter so!" saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall The words were this man do? Jesus saith unto him, if scarcely spoken I will that he tarry till I come, what when he turned is that to thee? Follow thou me." and saw standing by his side the Say to him:

very man whom "Admitting that there are hypocrites in the church, what is that to you? he had so severely complimented. If every man in the church was a "I beg your parhypecrite that would not excuse you don," said the galfrom the duty of repentance." lant statesman hastily. "I would not

"If there was a call for volunteers to defend this country would you stay out of the army because some bad men would probably erlist?"

"I suppose not." "Possibly you are a Mason or an Odd Fellow. Are there any black to the monkey!" sheep in your lodge?" "I must confess that there are a lew.

"And yet you joined the lodge, knowing this fact, and you urge others to do the same?"

"That is true."

a few weeks. The offer was exceed-"Why then do you offer such a silly ingly tempting, but her contract with excuse when the subject of religion Charles Frohman stood in the way. arises? If you do not wish to be a However, on the nothing venture noth-Christian, say so in a manly way, but ing won theory, she telegraphed a dedo not try to hide yourself behind the tailed statement of the offer she had faults of others. The only safe hiding received to Frohman in New York, explace for a sinner is the cross of plained how anxious she was to ac-Christ, and you will realize it some cept it and wound up with the plea. day." "Will you release me?" In due course

A man once said to his pastor that of time she received the following telethe reason why he did not accept gram in answer: Christ was because he once had a Mrs. Georgie Drew Barrymore, Palace Hotel. San Francisco partner who was a professing Chris-No! tian, who wronged him in business. Albeit disappointed, Mrs. Barrymore "That is your real reason, is it?"

asked the minister. "It is," replied the man.

'Suppose we put it down in writing," said the minister, and drawing out his notebook, he wrote: "The reason why I am not a Christian is that On the occasion of a public reception my partner, who claimed to be a at Napier, Australia, the school chil-Christian, wronged me in a business dren of the town, after being duly comdeal."

plimented by his excellency from Coun-Tearing out the leaf, he folded it ty Tyrone on the hearty manner in and handed it to the man, saying, which they had-rendered the national When you come before the Great anthem, were solemnly assured that White Throne and God asks you why if they put their shoulders to the wheel you have rejected his Son, just hand they would be sure to reach the top him that paper," and turning away, he of the tree, upon which a compatriot left him. Hardly had he reached turned to a companion and said, "Sure. home, when his door-bell rang, and k was an axletree be meant, bedadf"

in his hand.

Michelot, the famous comedian, suf-"Well," said the minister, "what can fered a great deal from the spite of his I do for you?" colleagues and found it necessary to

"I have brought this paper back. I am afraid it would not answer as an excuse to give to God."

"You think God would not accept 117" "I am afraid not."

"We may as well tear it up then," and suiting the action to the word, the minister tore it into fragments and threw them away,

"Now have you any other excuse which is better?"

One of our more or less famous aroused the whole car."-New York Habit.

Action repedted becomes habit. Habit long continued becomes second nature. We are today what we were accustomed to do yesterday and the day before. -Lyman Abbott.

Complications are bound to arise where a deaf man is concerned. The one in this story was being married. and the parson asked the usual question, "Do you take this woman for your lawful wife?" "Eh?" said the deaf man.

"Do you take this woman for your awful wife?" This time a bit louder. The bridegroom seemed to get angry. "Oh, I don't know." he said; "she you were near me, and I am ready to ain't so awful. I've seen wus than her that didn't have as much money."-St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

> Landseer Scared Them. On one of Landseer's early visits to Scotland the great painter stopped at a village and took a great deal of notice of the dogs, jotting down rapidly sketches of them on a piece of paper. Next day on resuming his journey he was horrified to find dogs suspended their necks. He stopped a weeping urchin, who was hurrying off with a pet pup in his arms, asked the child what he was crying for, and learned to his dismay that he was supposed to be an excise officer who was taking notes of all the dogs he saw in order to prosecute the owners for unpaid taxes.

Whistler and Strang.

Mr. Strang had an exhibition of his etchings in London, and one day Whistler came to look at them. He went about from one to another without saying anything or showing any sign of preciation. Mr. Strang began to feel annoyed.

By and by Whistler stopped in front

Try Ellison's Market for Choice Meats.

Special attention given to orders for cooked meats

tor parties. Fresh Fish and Oysters always in Stock. Oleomargarine for sale.

King Ferry, N. Y.

The European War

Will have no effect on our prices. Our new lines are coming in daily and all values are much better than last year. This is due to early and efficient buying from reliable and expert manufacturers. It will be a pleasure to show you "what's new" in Suits, Overcoats, Raincoats, Mackinaws, Sweaters, etc., for Men, Boys and Children.

Five Dollars

will purchase the best Mackinaw or Sweater for the money we have ever shown.

C. R. EGBERT. THE PEOPLE'S CLOTHIER, HATTER & FURNISHER. 75 Genesee St., AUBURN, N. Y.

Be sure and start the boy in school with one of our new school suits, $3.00 to $10.00 the Suit.

Paid your Subscription Yet?

THE GENOA TRIBUNE

STOPPED A WEEPING URCHIN. ing in the rivers, with stones around

Not So Awful.

THE GENOA TRIBUNE.

Published every Friday and entered at the postoffice at Ganoa, N. Y., as second class mail matter

Friday Morning, Aug. 28, 1914

VENOMOUS WEAPONS.

Blowguns of the Mangeromas and Their Poisoned Arrows.

The mysterious poison with which some of the South American tribes mear the points of their arrows is a thick sirup made by boiling together parts of the Strychnos toxifera vine and other plants and a number of the deadly venomous black ants of the Amazon region.

Instead of a bow the Mangeromas ase a blowgun, a very ingenious weapon. It is made from a tall, hollow teed that grows near the river banks, and at one end it has a mouthpiece made from the hollowed half of the fruit of the Aracara palm. When the hunter sees a monkey or bird in the top of a tree, often 100 feet above him, he puts a poisoned arrow in the tube and raises the mouthplece to his lips. With his left hand he finds the necessary elevation, fills his lungs with air and blows into the tube with no apparent exertion. The arrow flies out swiftly and silently. Almost as soon as the animal is struck it drops to the ground paralyzed.

The flesh of the game is not injured by the poison. Like the venom of snakes, it is dangerous when introduced into the vascular system, but harmless when taken into the stomach. The action of the drug on birds culminates in from three to four minutes; a monkey died in five minutes and a | the throat of every duck was cut and three toed sloth expired in seven minutes. A human being cannot survive more than tifteen minutes. The slightest scratch means inevitable death. Even the Indians know no antidote .-St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

DIAGNOSING DISEASE.

A Plea For Annual Medical Examinations For Every One.

We have heard too much about the rights of the individual; let us know more about his duties. Too much stress has been laid on the sacredness of private property and too little on the duty Beast Enjoys Period of "Watchful Waiting" While They Tremble. and Dudley Rust, two University of Colorado students, returned to Boulder from a two weeks' outing in the vicinity of Silver Lake with a story of a

they made. The young men were unarmed. While walking along a trail carrying only their fishing rods they were star tled to meet the beast face to face. Lion and youths were taken by surprise. The beast showed no fright and, according to Henderson and Rust. showed been interest in them.

The animal was full grown. They were afraid to run for fear the lion would attack them.

Their shouts failed to frighten the beast, and a period of "watchful waiting" followed. Finally the animal appeared satisfied with his scrutiny of the young men and to their great relief bounded into the bushes and disappeared.

WEASEL KILLS WATCHDOG.

Sucks Blood of Ducks' Guardian and Kills Fifty Birds.

Federalsburg, Md.-A weasel having killed and sucked the blood of about balf of a flock of fifty young ducks on the farm of Frank Wright of Caroline county, Mr. Wright shut his dog in the coop the next night to deal with the weasel should it return. He also hung a lighted lantern in the coop. having heard that a weasel will kill only in the dark. In the morning he found unmistakable evidence of the weasel's second visit. The lantern still burned, but the bodies carefully piled, and so adroitly had that weasel drawn the watched for the ducks' enemy that its service. rigid body sat as in life upon its tail, its nose slightly elevated, its ears pricked and its mouth open as when it last barked.

DIPLOMATS IN EUROPE

ARE BUSY DURING WAR

The Todd Reunion.

UNARMED BOYS MEET LION. The fifteenth annual Todd reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Atwater in King Ferry, Aug. Boulder. Colo.-Richard Henderson 12, 1914. Sixty relatives were present from Norwalk, Ohio, Ithaca, Skaneateles, Lake Ridge, Five Corners and King Ferry. Tables were spread on mountain lion whose acquaintance the spacious and beautiful lawn, and a most appetizing dinner of great variety was served about 2 o'clock. Later, a business meeting was held and the former officers re elected : President, E. L. Bower; vice president, J. D. Todd; secretary and treasurer, FALL TERM OPENS SEPT. 8th Miss Antionette S Bradley After greetings were read from several ab sent members, S. C. Bradley gave a very interesting account of his trip around the world. Josiah Todd of Norwalk, Ohio, gave a short description of a trip to Colorado, California, Oregon and Washington. Miss Ada Bower related the most interesting SPECIAL NOTICES. points of her trip to Virginia. Rev. W. H. Perry, the pastor, was asked to make a few remarks, to which he recarriage, 3 spring wagone, will carsponded with pleasure. The guests thanked the hospitable host and hosters for the most enjoyable day and departed to meet next year, the secand Wednesday in August.

Genoa Presbyterian' Church. Morning worship Sunday morning at 11 a. m. The sermon will be especially intended for those who are soon to start their school work for another year. We hope that you will show your interest in the young people and in the school affairs by Call Mrs. Frank Thompson, Atwater, attending this service, Sunday N Y., R. D. 25. lifeblood of the guard dog while it school immediately after the morning

> Mid-week prayer service Thursday evening at 7:45. Each one is invited to bring some memory verse that has been especially helpful to them. As the verse is given be prepared also to ell where it is found. Although his is a busy week we trust that each one will be as faithful as poesible at all the services.

Whiting --- Aldrich, Reunion.

A Good Salary

$900 FOR THE FIRST YEAR

Mr. Geo. C. Payne completed a course in the Auburn Business School last year, passed the Civil Service Examinatons and accepted a position at Washington at the above named salary.

DON'T LET YOUR OPPORTUNITY SLIP

Now is the time for you to decide what you are going to do. A business training opens many doors. Why not take our training and be ready for the call?

DO YOU WANT TO EARN MORE?

A business training is the stepping stone to the best positions paying high salaries. It is a key that opens the door to business success

A number have planned to enroll at that time. Arrange to start with ihem on the opening day. Write for infor-

Auburn Business School,

51-55 Genesee St., Auburn, N. Y.

E. E. KENT, Proprietor.

ry a ton, good all round horse, new potatoes 75c per bushel. Fred Oldenburg, Genoa FOR Sale-100 April batched Leghorn pullets. Emma Sis-on, 5w2East Venice. 60 White Leghorn yearing hene

FOR SALE-Babcock extension top

5tf

for sale. 5w2 Jay Lamey, King Ferry. FOR SALE-Red Wave seed wheat, free from foul stuff.

4w3 Chas E. Shaw, King Ferry, WANTED-Neat woman would like washing to do at home. Reference.

4w2 FOB SALE-50 pure blood White

Leghorn hens, Rice strain. Stf Mrs. A. J. Hurlbutt, Genoa. FOR SALE-Large iron gray horse, years old, weight 1,300 lbs. Inquire of Warren Platt, 3w3 Venice Center, N. Y.

FOR SALE-Indian motor cycle in irst class condition. Inquire of 2tf George Smith, Genua, N. Y. FOR SALE-Kemp's 20th Century manure spreader, nearly new.

Remember we sell the New Perfection and Jil Stoves to Burn !

Standard Oil Stoves at a price that is right.

Do you remember of using Pyrox on your potatoes last year? We have it.

Are you interested in poultry? If so call at Peck's and see about Chicure, the great poultry remedy.

PECK & HAND Miller Phone. GENOA, N. Y.

of all to contribute to the welfare of the whole. Preventive medicine has demonstrated in a practical way the force of the Biblical statements that no man liveth to himself alone and that every man is his brother's keeper.

If preventive medicine is to bestow on man its richest service the time must come when every citizen will submit himself to a thorough medical examination once a year or oftener. The benefits which would result from such a service are so evident to medical men that detail is not desirable. When recognized in their early stages most of the diseases which now prevail are amenable to treatment.

The early recognition of tuberculosis, cancer and heart disease, with the elimination of the more acute infectious diseases, would add something like fifteen years to the average life, besides saving much in invalidism and suffering. The ultimate goal of science is the domination of the forces of nature and their utilization in promoting the welfare of mankind. Science must discover the facts and medicine must make the application for either cure or prevention .- Victor C. Vaughan, M. D., in Journal of American Medical Association

An Odd Problem.

Can you place ten lumps of sugar in three teacups so that there is an odd number of lumps in each cup? A statistician to whom this problem was once propounded declared it was impossible to accomplish sum a feat, but the following explanation sim ws that It is not only possible, but very easy to accomplish: Put one lump in one cup, two lumps in another cup and seven lumps in the third cup, and then put the cup with one lump in the cup with the two lumps By placing the rup that holds one lump inside the one that holds two lumps it can be correct ly stated that every cup contains an oud number of lumps, for if a cup con tains another cup it also contains the contents of that second cup.

Consoling.

Noticing that his lady cashler was weeping copiously and sucking her finger, the proprietor asked her what was the matter.

Sobbingly she told him she had -pinched her f.f.dnger in the cash egister.

American Representatives Are Often Called On.

Washington .- Since the outbreak of the European war the state department has been the busiest part of the American government. Many questions of a very delicate nature have arisen, and all have been admirably handled by officials in Washington and diplomats in foreign capitals.

Extreme care and precaution were necessary in preserving the strict neutrality of the American government. Many questions arose at the outset of the great conflict.

The ambassadors also were kept busy looking after the needs and interests of Americans who were trav-

Forty-four members of the Whiting and Aldrich families assembled Wed nesday, Aug. 19, at the home of Mr and Mrs. Wm. Whiting in Venice for their annual reunion.

After the banquet and informal program was enjoyed. Prayer was offered by Rev. Arthur Aldrich. Mr and Mrs. Fred Whiting sang, "Leave Me Not," Remarks were made by the Rev. Lee Silcox, Miss Lacy Aldrich, Carl Aldrich, and Miss Mabel Aldrich contributed recitations Officers chosen for the ensuing year were: William Aldrich, president; Miss Myra Reynolds, secretary and rearurer.

The reunion of 1915 will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Aldrich of Locke on the second Tues day in August.

Hoffest Agriculturalist: We don't need you women to help us run things. Didn't we men pass the compensation law protecting everybody except farm hands and domestic serants?

His Wife: "Yee, and I'm both,"-Puck.

Notice to Parents.

Notice of parents is called to the accination law which absolutely prohibits children from entering school this fall until they are vacci nated. We have received notice from the State Department of Health that all public money will be with held unless this law is strictly en-

Board of Education. Genoa, August, 19, 1914.

East Genoa.

Aug. 26-Mre. L. Race of Bingham ton is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fallon.

Mrs. Leslie Armstrong gave a shower in honor of Mrs. Kenneth spending some time at C. F. Strong's

"These planos look too cheap," said

"May I ask how high you care to go?" "Me? Oh. I only go to G, but I want one with all the octaves just the same. -Chicago Tribune.

On Same Level.

cemetery, situated in west part, a little north of east and west middle line Price $25 Inquire of F. C. Hagin, Agent, Genoa, N. Y. 44tf

Kaustine Large Complete Toilet also Waterman-Waterbury Sanitary Toilets suitable and convenient for any home in village or on farm. I am now installing these plants in several homes. Please call on me for particular

F C. Hagin, Genoa; N. Y. 4.1 FOR SALE-Light rubber tire surrey, a goud as new

E. H. Sharp, Genoa 40ri Cash paid for poultry delivered very Tuesday. We want your beet and horse hides, deacon skine 14tf Weaver & Brogan, Genoa

Hens 14c per pound Write or phone

S C Houghtaling. 24:1 R D. 5. Auburn, N Y

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward or any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. . Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm,

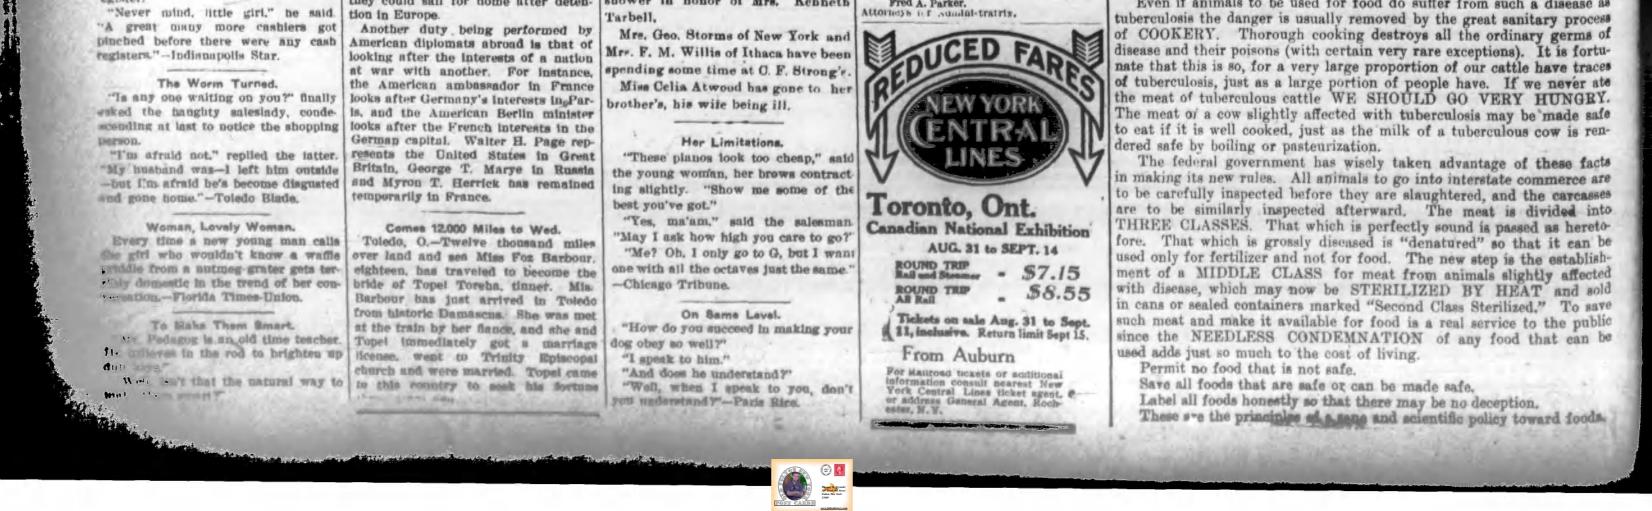

National Bank of Commerce, Toledo, D. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, cous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c, per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Notice to Creditors.

Notice to Creditors. By virtue of an order granted by the Surrogate of Cayuga County, notice is hereby given that 'Il persons baving claims against the estate of Jane Morgan, jate of the town of Scipio, Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with vouchers in support thereof to the undersigned, the administratif, of, &c., of said deceased, at her place of rest-dence in the town of Scipio, County of Caynga, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of February, 1918.

Dated, Aug 18 1914. MARY MORGAN, as Administratrix of Jupe Morgan, deceased. Amass J. Parker, Fred A. Parker, Attorneys is f sumful-trairis.

46th B & Riley, Ganoa. For Sale-Lot No. 58 in Genos John W. Rice Company

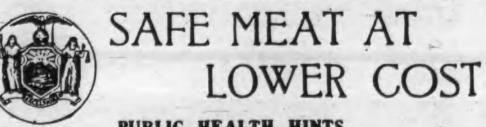

103 Genesee Street, AUBURN, N.Y.

First Showing of New Fall Goods.

New goods are arriving daily in every department, dress fabrics of all kinds in the latest colorings priced from 50c to $3 a yard, new silks, soft messalines, crepes, etc., all prices.

New Fall Suits

From the best makers. We are showing a good assortment of Suits, made of broadcloth, gabardines, serge, poplin and the new fancy weaves. Sizes for Misses and Women.

PUBLIC HEALTH HINTS

acting directly upon the blood and mu. Prepared Each Week For the Readers of This Newspaper by the New York State Department of Health.

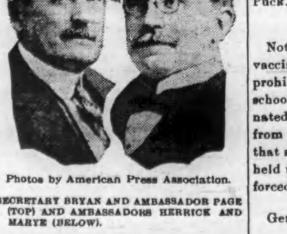

> THE new federal regulations for meat inspection which go into effect this autumn mark a distinct step in the direction of protecting the > PUBLIC HEALTH and the PUBLIC POCKETBOOK at the same time.

> Health officials have so often to dwell on unsuspected perils that it s a welcome relief to point out that some things are not nearly so dangerous as they are often supposed to be.

Meat is one of the foods about which there is much UNNECES-SARY FEAR. The habits of pigs, for example, are not dainty, and they eat many things which are unpleasant to think about, but if they do not themselves contract communicable diseases they can convert all manner of unsavory things into excellent pork.

Even if animals to be used for food do suffer from such a disease as eling abroad when the whole of Europe was thrown into a state of war. All Americans were quickly supplied with gold, and the ambassadors cooperated with officials in Washington in relieving the wants. They also aided Americans in getting to ports where they could sall for home after deten-

..... Village and Vicinity News.

-Miss June Skinner has returned from Syracuse.

-Dr. W. E. Skidmore returned to Brooklyn Saturday last.

-Mrs. E. Alling and daughter returned from Auburn last week. -Earl Keefe returned last Friday from a trip to West Virginia. -Mrs. Libbie Lester of Syracuse was an over-Sunday guest of Mrs. A. J. Hurlbutt.

-- Mrs Robert Holcomb of Au burn was a guest at the home of J S. Banker and family last week.

-Mr. and Mrs. James Flaherty of Auburn were guests of Mrs. Mary Connell, Saturday and Sunday.

--Dr. Merton Skinner of LeRoy at King Ferry. spent several days at the home of his uncle, Dr. J. W. Skinner, last week.

-Mr. T. A. Weaver of Rochester was a Sunday guest at the home of his sister in law, Mrs G. B. Springer.

-Hobart Hagin, Leland Singer, Gordon Smith, Delwin Decker, Willard Myer and Harold Welty are enjoying the week in camp south of the village.

--Miss Mary Smith and brother Floyd were guests of Willard Powers at Atwater last Sunday. They went to Moravia Monday to spend the week with relatives.

F B. Parker of Moravia announces that he will be in his store, Moravia, every day during the county fair will give work to a large number next week, until 2 p m.

the mill. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank King. Mrs Floyd King of Lansingville is also a guest at the same place.

-G. E. Springer was in Auburn Thursday.

are visiting their aunt at Aurora her son Fred and family at Trumansburg.

-It is estimated that nearly 150,000 American tourists were comfortable at present.

in Europe when the war broke out. -Dr. Savage of Buffalo, man hamton is at the home of her line of up-to-date goods, all the worth ager of the Buffalo Prospects, was mother, Mrs. Ann Gray, for a entertained at Robt. Mastin's visit

Tuesday. South Lansing was a guest of Miss Clyde Mastin several days last week.

- Dr. and Mrs Wirt Groom of Willard were at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Ella Algert Tuesday and Wednesday.

--Miss Leota Myer was a visitor several days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs Herbert Bradley

--To build the new Ashokan aqueduct for New York city's water supply has cost $130,000,000 and 283 lives --Mrs. Morell Wilson and Miss Mary Waldo spent Saturday and Sunday at Edgewater on Owasco lake, returning home Monday. -Wayne county growers of peppermint are now getting the highest prices paid for oil in five years--$3 70 to $4.10 a pound.

-Mrs. Frank Rundel, Mrs. Austin Taber, Mrs. Amos J. Hurlbutt and Mr. and Mrs Harry Curtis attended the Moravia fair Wednesday.

> -- A $30,000 paint mill, which of persons, has just been completed

-Miss Leah King is spending at Ontario Center. The paint will several days at the home of her be made from iron ore tound near gratulations of their many friends in Genoa. ing fell." -Mrs L. Allen was called home -A new and delicious way of serving cheese with apple pie is as from Mapleton Tuesday, by the follows: Choose a good flavored illness of her son Howard Bush, -Mrs. R. B. Ferris of Five English or American cheese. Grate who is seriously ill at his home Corners was a guest at Robt. generously over the pie, and heat north of the village. Dr. Burr Mastin's last Thursday, also Miss in the oven just long enough to Besemer of Ithaca was called in Mildred Lanterman of South Lanmake the pie hot and to melt the consultation with Dr. Skinner sing who remained over the week-Tuesday and from the symptoms cacese. --The penal law of this state typhoid fever is feared There are -Miss Edith Bancroft was in prohibits the affixing of business or complications and to day (Thurstown Thursday afternoon of last commercial advertisements upon day) he is not so well. His mother week, bringing Erica Adolph who the highways or upon the property and sisters, Charlotte and Anna had been spending a few weeks at of another without the owner's are nursing him Robert Bush of the Bancroft home. Auburn came to see his brother consent. However, there is noth--There was a special school ing that prevents the placing of Tuesday.

advertisements in the newspapers.

In fact, that is the best place for -The business men of Genoa have formed a Booster Club and are putting on two days of sport,

Sept 23 and 24, starting in the morning and lasting all day.

There will be horse raceing, ball games and other sports. Full band

-Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Mead

About one hundred were present

Whether it be a shower bouquet or only one dozen roses, let our artist

most tasty arrangement to be had

By all means have flowers for the wedding Leave your orders at

-- The Venice picnic held last week Thursday was not as largely attended as ordinarily, the threatening weather doubtless keeping many at home The shower of about getting under shelter. The storm lasted for nearly two hours,

when the majority of the crowd went home. Miss Harriet May

Mills gave a short address on

"Equal Suffrage" early in the afternoon, and following the speak-

furnished by the Salem Town

Commandery orchestra of Auburn.

the alternoon which came at arrange it. You will be assured the them. -Ex.

both days

in the least.

Hagin's Grocery

-Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harmon- It Is a Fact son of Moravia spent Sunday with -Misses Elsie and Ruth Tilton Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Peck.

the set of the lot

--There will be a hop at the - Mrs. Frank King is visiting rink Saturday evening, Aug. 29. Music by Mrs. King. adv. -Mrs. Jane Miller, who has not

-Mrs. F. L. McCabe of Bing-

-In the town of Urbana at the

-Miss Mildred Lanterman of head of Lake Keuka, is an elevation, where it is said, one may see nine lakes and portions of as many counties.

> --Mrs. Webster and two daughters and Mrs. Stoppard and two daughters of Auburn were entertained at the home of Geo. Stevens Monday.

-Mrs. Franc Minturn of Binghamton was the guest of Mrs. two ladies were entertained by Mrs. F. Samson Tuesday and Mrs.

H. Stickles Thursday. -Miss Emma A Waldo left Tuesday for Cortland where she was joined by friends for a vaca tion trip to Alexandria Bav, Thousand Islands. A card received Thursday says the trip was a delightiul one, the latter part being by boat from Oswego.

--Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian Manse occurred the marriage of Miss Florence Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas, Foster of Genoa, to Mr. William H. Mosher of Auburn. After the marriage the couple went to the home of the bride where a wedding supper was served. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Mosher will reside in O wasco St, Auburn

The happy couple have the con-

That I am the only person authorized in this vicinity to sell the South Bend watch. The Standard sewing machine and several other articles. Your confidence in this store is due, in some measure to the truthfulness of its newspaper statement, when I say I have exclusive sale of certain makes of different articles you may rely on been as well for a week past, is it. I sell good goods at lower prices than they can be bought for elsewhere. I pay no rent, hire no help and assure you of the lowest possible prices. I have a big while novelties besides my regular line Come and be convinced.

A. T. HOYT, Leading Jeweler & Optician HOYT BLOCK MORAVIA, N. Y

Fast Ball at Genoa.

That the Genoa team can play the great National game was fully demonstrated here on Tuesday afternoon of this week when they held the fast semi professional team of Buffalo to a 1-3 score. The Baffalo men certainly made a

Thos. Sill for the past week. The hit with the local fans; not alone for their excellent playing, but for their gentlemanly appearance and conduct while here for the two games, and it is hop-d that we can have them for a > game or two next season From the fact that the Genoa team has been playing the best teams that it has been possible to get, and that the teams that will play the balance of the season are only those that have championship reputations in Seneca and Ocondaga counties

The class of ball that the Genoa team puts up should warrant a large attendance and loyal support of every lover of the game. ,

Interlaken here Haturday, Aug 29

Optimist and Pessimist. "What is the difference between an optimist and a pessimist?" "A pessimist is always thinking of his liabilities, while an optimist thinks only of his assets."-Judge.

Natural Result. "The magistrate in a Brooklyn court Ithaca Auburn Short Line

Central New York Southern Railroad Corporation,

In Effect Dec. 28, 1913.

SOUTHBOUND--Read Down

STATIONS

NORTH BOUND-Read Up

27 Daily	23 Daily	21 Daily	201 Daily	200 Daily	22 Daily	24 Daily	28 Daily
			Except Sun.	Except Sur	1.
PM	PM	AM	1	1	AM	PM-I	PM
6 20	1 45	8 30	AUBURI	N	11 09	4 59	8 59
6 35	2 00	8 45	Mapleton	1	10 54	4 44	8 44
6 46	2 11	8 56	Merrifield		10 43	4 33	8 33
6 55	2 20	9 05	Venice Cen	nter	10 34	4 24	8 24
7 10	2 35	9 20	GENOA		10 19	4 09	8 09
7 21	2 46	9 31	North Lan	sing	10 08	3 58	7 58
7 40	3 00	9 50	South Lan	sing	9 55	3 45	7 45
8 05		10 15	ITHAC	A	9 20	315	7 10
PM	PM	AM		- F.	AM	PM	PM

Additional Trains between Ithaca and Rogues Harbor leave Ithaca 7:30, (daily excep Sunday) 12:15, (Sunday only) 2:00, (going on to South Lansing) 4:40, and 9:30 p.m. Saturday only.

Returning leave South Lansing for Ithaca at 3:45 p. m. daily.

Also leave Rogues Harbor at 8:05 a. m. (daily except Sunday) 12:50 (Sunday only) 5:15 p. m., daily, and 10:05 p. m. Saturday only.

> SWEEP ONLY $6.50 WEEK'S TRIAL FREE It's Your Chance to buy a Good Vacuum Cleaner

> > at a very low price

N. Y.

end

meeting held in Salmon Creek district on Tuesday evening, Aug. 25, to vote if the children should join a contract with another dis trict. There were 19 votes cast, 14 against and 5 for.

-Laura May Dimon, wife of William E. Lawrence, died in Locke Thursday, Aug. 20, at the age of 19 years. The funeral was held at the Locke M. E. church Saturday at 2 o'clock. Burial was made in the Bird cemetery.

and family and Mrs. L. B. Mead -The Interlaken Review of last attended the Buck reunion at the week said: "Interlaken's ball team home of Giles Benson, East Lanhas a job on its hands when they go over to Genoa on Aug. 29 to sing, on Thursday of last week. play that fast team Our boys will cross the lake on the Senator and the storm of the afternoon did not interfere with their program Stewart, and be met at King Ferry."

-"The man who hunts up the cheapest printer is like the man who runs his finger down the prices on the bill of fare, and then looks to see what he gets for it." The old business motto "Live and let live" is good, but "Live and help some one else to live'' is better and broader.

--E. Victor Underwood, head of the Agricultural Department of Moravia High school, has resigned from that position to accept the office of manager of the Oswego County Farm Bureau. The position carries a salary of $1,600 per year. Mr. Underwood will take up his new duties on Sept. 1.

-A barn on the premises of William Whiting about five miles west of Moravia in the town of ing, the floor of the pavilion was Venice was destroyed by fire when filled with dancers, music being it was struck by lightning during the heavy storm of Thursday afternoon of last week. No live stock It was a great disappointment to

Sunday School Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Presbyterian Sunday school was held Wednesday in the woods on the farm of Chas Tupper, southeast of Genoa. Two wagon loads besides numerous automebile and carriage loads of children, young and old people were present. A number of representatives of the Sunday school at East Genoa were also present. The crowd arrived about 11 a. m. and at 12 o'clock a most bountiful picnic dinner was spread.

After the big dinner the crowd scattered to different amusements and games. The older men pitched quoits while the younger men and boys and ladies played baseball. About 4 o'clock a baseball game was played with Dr. Willoughby se pitcher for one side and Ray Brogan as pitcher for the other side. In spite of the high grass the game was fast and interesting. The better team won About 4:30 the crowd began to disperse thoroughly satisfied with the day's pleasure

The sincere thanks of the Sunday school are due Mr. and Mrs. Tupperfor their kindness in furnishing the grounds and for their many other acts of kindness which aided so materially in making the day such a success. We include those who furo'clock stopped all festivities and nished conveyances and the commit everybody was mostly concerned tee who made the arrangements

Fishbone in the Throat.

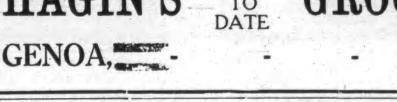

To remove a fishbone from the throat swallow a raw egg and follow. If possible, by eating plenty of mashed potatoes. The egg will carry the bone into the stomach, and the potatoes will prevent it from doing any injury there

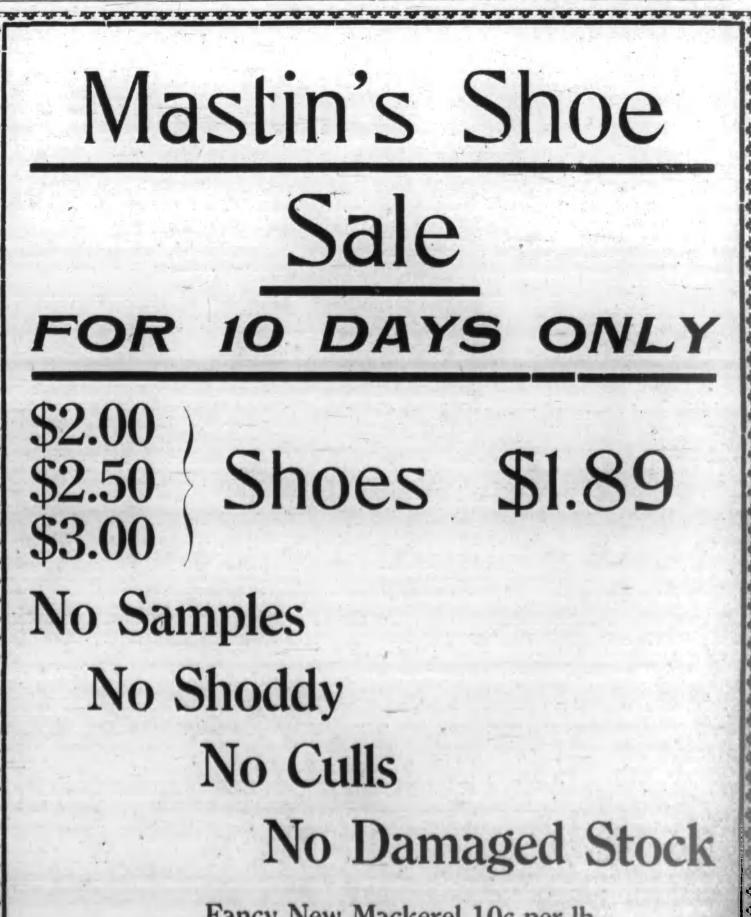

Skeptical. "I have dyspepsia, but you never heard me growl about it."

"Never growl about it? Well, then. you haven't got it."-Philadelphia Bul-

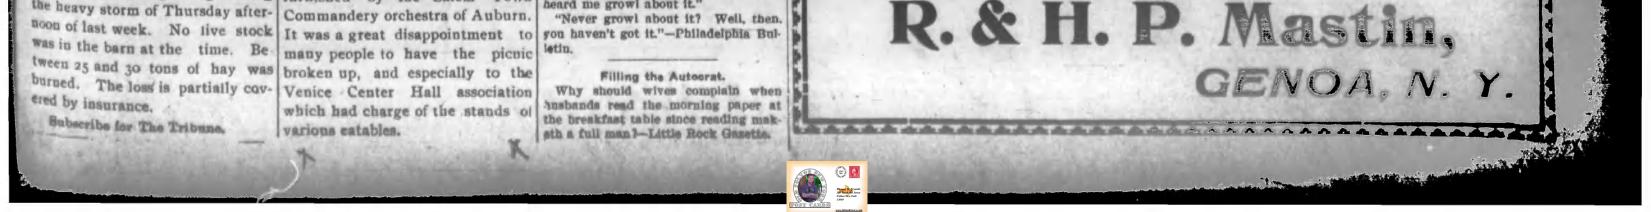

YOU CAN GET ONE AT was injured yesterday when the ceil-"Yes. I heard he was all covered UP TO HAGIN'S GROCERY with court plaster."-Buffalo Express. DATE Loss of Sleep.

Medical authorities state that it takes fifteen days for the average human body to recover fully from the loss of two consecutive nights' sleep.

Fancy New Mackerel 10c per lb. Beat it if you can.

WHITMAN AND WHAT HIS RECORD MEANS

THEN a condidate for high public office enters the politi cal arena the searchlight of public inquiry is turned ful upon him. The public desires to know what manner of man aspires to leader ship-his caliber of mind, his past per formances, for by those things alone value.

This searchlight of public inquiry Is now turned full upon Charles S. Whit man, who has, in response to a wide spread demand, announced his candithe forthcoming Republican primaries

In beginning a review of Mr. Whit man's achievements and of his claim ments in public life, but before leaving for elevation to the post of governor the subject it may be interesting to it is well to consider for a moment those characteristics which are responsible for the fact that he is now being considered so favorably for the insure the speedy disposition of minor highest state office within the gift of cases, thereby checkmating the nox-New York voters. In a population of ious activity of many police court law-10,000 000 or more a man must post yers, who preyed upon unfortunate sess absolute traits of leadership, of persons arrested on minor charges. Integrity, of ability in private and publice life before his name can be singled out as a presumptive standard bearer for his party.

Record of Efficiency.

In twelve years of public-service Mr. Whitman has built up that reputation for efficiency which has made his name a household word throughout New York state as the embodiment of fear-his successors. One of these was the inauguration of a night court, presided over by a city magistrate. This night court guarantees a speedy hearing to any unfortunate arrested during the successful has it proyed that a second night court has been established, one for males, the other for females.

Broke Up Bondsmen's Graft.

Another evidence of Mr. Whitman's constructive mind while president of the board of magistrates was a vigorous and successful effort to destroy the alliance between the police and the lawbreakers and to eliminate the in can they appraise him at his true famous business of the straw bondsmen. In carrying out these reforms politics played no part. In fact. Mr Whitman, a Republican, was elected by a Democratic board of magistrates as their president.

It is not our purpose to recite in dedacy for designation as governor in tail the many evidences of constructive ability that are being gleaned from chapters of Mr. Whitman's achieveknow that in each police court in the city of New York there is an assistant district attorney, placed there by Mr. Whitman shortly after his election to

> Still another constructive reform inaugurated by the district attorney was the reorganization of the complaint bureau in his office, where any citizen may come and enter a complaint Free legal advice is given daily in this bureau. In the recovery of forfelted bail bonds Mr. Whitman has effected the saving of a large sum of money to the taxpayers of New York county. Prior to his administration few recov-

> $319,000 on these forfeitures. The administrative qualifies of Mr. Whitman are shown to a large degree in the character of the men he has chosen as legal aids in the district attorney's office-appointments that are free from political influence. His success as district attorney is due in a large measure to the wisdom he has shown in grouping about him lawyers whose qualifications are based upon a well grounded knowledge of the law. integrity and faithfulness to duty.

eries were made on forfeited bonds.

Mr. Whitman's Republicanists dates from the casting of his first hallot.

At the Family Hotel.

The wide diversity of nursery methods in this country is nowhere more noticeable than at the family hotel. Here one sees children, who, if they were not born with the idea that courteous attention should be accorded their elders, have had this truth instilled into them so early that it seems a part of them.

In a certain family hetel one table exhibits two girls, in the rosy flush of their teens, accompanied by a mother to whom they pay delightful little attentions. They remain standing until she is seated, or if her entrance to the dining room has been delayed, they always rise as she draws near.

Equally pleasant to watch is the devotion of a very fat, chubby, ten-yearold son to his mother. The glorious appetite of youth drives him to the table the minute the meal is served. but the cutrance of his mother is the signal for ber son's graceful drawing out of her chair, a service performed with the manner of a Chesterfield.

It is also refreshing to watch a third table, at which a father and sonthe latter probably in his thirtles. though he looks like a younger brother-take their meals. The younger man always stands until his father is seated and never fails to rise should the father be the last to enter the room. When the meal is over he may be observed to step aside to allow the older man to precede him. He has done In four years Mr. Whitman recovered this from a mere child, and it has now become a part of his being.

Too Much Solicitude.

It is not easy to be a good hostess. especially a good tea party hostess. There are many little things to remember.

The hostess wishes guests to enjoy the good things, but solicitude can be overdone

The writer once went to a tea where the hostess overdid it badly. She must have thought that her guests had had nothing to eat for days by the way she pressed sandwiches and buns, tea.

FARM BOYS' CAMP STATE FAIR SUPERINTENDENIS

An Interesting and Valuable Number

on the State Fair Program

the boys worked for half of each day and the balance of the day was given up to visiting exhibits and other things of interest on the Fair grounds.

week lectures upon agriculture and

The Camp of 1911 demonstrated to the Commissioners that it was just the opportunity which the State had been seeking to give a large number of young men who are thoroughly interested in Agriculture and who might otherwise be unable to attend the Fair a week of practical instruction and observation. In planning for the Camp of 1912 it was felt that there should be more instruction in the part of the boys to give their services in return for the instruction.

Therefore, a regular program was outlined, which took up a large part of building.

Glynn,

discipline prevailed.

and boarded on the grounds.

to the farm to stick.

Able Men From Several Countles in Active Charge of Exposition-Departments.

The organization of the several departments of the State Fair was completed this week with the appoint-The average age of the farm boys ment of Julian T. Duquette of Albion in camp at the State Fair last year as Superintendent of the Flower as guests of the Commission was 13 3-10 years. In answering the ques-Show.

Henry Greffrath of South Lima, N. tion as to what they were going to Y., president of the Vegetable Growdo in the future, seventy-four of the ers' and Packers' Association of New 100 boys said they were going back York State, has been given charge of the Farm Produce Department, and In 1911 the New York State Fair Commission established the first has already secured the co-operation of leading growers throughout the Farm Boys' Camp, with the idea of State in a plan to entirely revoluextending the educational value of tionize the truck exhibit and bring the State Fair to farms throughout it to a par with the other shows. the State and to stimulate a greater Other superintendents were reapinterest in improved agriculture among the boys. In the camp of 1911 pointed as follows: Women's Building, Mrs. F. A. Storer, Syracuse, N. Y.

Domestic Department, Miss Edith Gregg, Pennellville, N. Y. Farm, Breeding and Draft Horses,

From 8 to 9 each morning in the Dr. H. S. Wende, Tonawanda, N. Y. Show Horses, Norman Van Voorhis, upon important features of the Fair were given. The boys lived in tents Rochester, N. Y.

Cattle, Dorr McLaury, Portlandville, N. Y.

Sheep and Swine, Levi A. Page, Seneca-Castle, N. Y.

Poultry, Wm. H. Manning, Saratoga Springs. N. Y. Dog, George F. Folcy, New York

City. Fruit, Charles G. Porter, Albion, N.

Dairy Products, George A. Smith, Geneva, N. Y.; Ass't. Sup't E. F. Burke, Albany, N. Y. agriculture, with fewer obligations on Race Secretary, John A. King, Syracuse, N. Y.

Running Races, H. P. Conklin, New York City.

The Farm Implement and Machineach forenoon. In the afternoon the ery display this year promises to be boys were divided into squads and larger than in 1913 when a new recvisited the exhibits over the entire ord for American expositions was grounds under the direction of commade, 296,000 square feet was covpetent leaders. It was felt that these ered by farm implements and tractors directed observations would mean last year and additional space has much more to the boys than rather been set aside for the coming exposiaimless wandering from building to tion.

The Admission and Advertising De-The camp was designated as a partments this year will be under the branch of the New York National direction of the Commission as a guard. Military drills were held whole. The other assignments are: twice each day and mild military Commissioner Calvin J. Huson, Farm Horses and Horse Show. Dairy, Camp of 1914 to be Called Camp Grange, and Farm Boys' Camp.

Commissioner Charles A. Wieting, As in the case of 1912, Camp Glynn Cattle, Sheep, Swine and Forage. is to be under the military direction

LEGAL NOTICES.

Notice to Creditors.

By virtue of an Order granted by the Surna-tate of Cayuga Court, Notice is hereby given hat all persons having claims sgainst the state of Albert D. Meas, late of the town of Schos, Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with vouchers in support thereot to the undersigt ed, the adminis trator of, soc. of said "eccased, at his place of residence to the village of Moravia, County of "syuga, on or before the 1st day of October,

Dated March 12 1914 ARTHUR S. MEAD, Administrator, Benjamin C. Mead, Attorney for Administrator, 125 Genesee St., Anburn, N. Y. Attor

Notice to Creditors.

By virtue of an Order granted by the Surro-me of Cayuga County. Notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of Albertus T. Parsons, late of the town of Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with vouchers in support thereof to the undersigned, the executor of, &c. ct said deceased, at his place of rest-dence in the fown of Lansing. County of Tomp-kins, on or before the 15th day of December, 1914.

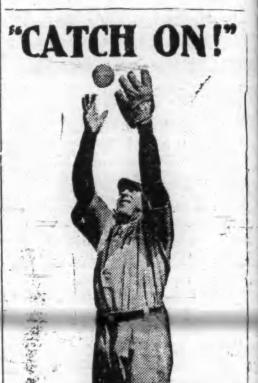

Dated June 3rd. 1914. WILLIAM A. SMITH, Executor.

Albert H Clark. Allorney for Executor, Auburn. N. Y.

Notice to Creditors.

Notice to Creditors. By virtue of an order granted by the Surrogate of Caynga County, N. Y., Notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of Maria Algard, late of the town of Genoa, Caynga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same, with vouchers in support thereof, to the undersign d. the executor of, etc., of said deceased, at his place of residence in the town of Genoa, County of Caynga, N. Y., or or before the 15th day of December, 1914. Dated June 3, 1914. CLAUDE D. PALMER, Executor. Albert H, Clark, Attorney for Executor, Auburn, N. Y.

Auburn, N. Y.

CHARLES S. WHITMAN.

less integrity, aggressive subservience says: to duty and the fulfillment of every entry into the public service.

district attorney-so strikingly suc. Strange as it would seem, he would cessful that he was re-elected unani. rather see Tammany win than the Remously in the county of New York last fall-Mr. Whitman has been called upon constantly for nearly five years to demonstrate that breadth of understanding which has effectually stilled the voice of public criticism which in other years has been directed against the administrator of the largest criminal law office in the world. This fact in itself speaks volumes.

In brief, it means that the public during Mr. Whitman's term as district attorney has been satisfied with himsatisfied that he has honestly enforced the law as vigorously against the malefactor of wealth as against the lawbreaker who is poor. The choice of the public at the polls last fail showed plainly the truth of this statement: Republicans, Progressives, Democrats, Independence leaguers, Prohibitionists all voted for Mr. Whitman in the county of New York as their choice to succeed himself as district attorney there

But it has not been as district attor ney alone that Mr. Whitman has developed his strength of character and his broadminded knowledge of public affairs.

Familiar With Legislation.

Twelve years ago Mr. Whitman began absorbing those matters of public import which gave blut a comprehen sive grasp of state affairs ... During the administration of Mayor Low in 1942 he was appointed assistant corporation counsel and was designated to reprement the interests of the city of New York at Albany during the legislative messions of 1992 and 1903. As legal guardian of the city's interests in Alhany during those years Mr. Whitman was in constant touch with legislative affairs, appearing as a representative of the mayor and of the corporation counsel before the committees.

During this time he became the personal legal adviser to Mayor Low and as such obtained a clear understanding not only of the city's financial systam and policy, the various provisions of the charter, but of all legislation afseeting the interests of at least onehalf of the population of this state.

And now we come to the constructive phase of Mr. Whitman's mind and

He believes that in an office such as that of prosecutor of the criminal law politics should not enter. His motto is. "Duty first in all things."

Colonel Roosevelt's attack on Mr. Whitman, tricky and despicable as it, was, has served to emphasize rather have been referred to above, for Colonel Roosevelt studiously avoided comment upon Mr. Whitman's record as a public official-an evasion which in itself is praise.

AN EDITOR'S ANALYSIS OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

The Essex County Republican truly oath of office he has taken since his of New York and Tammany Hall in pared.

particular owe to Theodore Roosevelt In his administration of the office of a debt which can never be repaid. publican party. This ' due to his supreme ego and desire to destroy any and every man who might carry the state for the Republicans this fall and thus put an end to his presidential aspirations in 1916.

> "Mr. Roosevelt does not want a strong Republican nominated for governor. He has opened his mud batteries on Charles S. Whitman, one of > the most fearless Republican officials New York has ever had, calling him a Barnes rubber stamp, a weakling tool of Barnes and other epithets without the least grain of foundation. A man who fought all the crooks in New York. with their powerful political and police backing, who was not afraid of the dangerous gang of gun men and their allies in that city, who put the gambling element out of business and sent four gun men to the chair and convicted Becker, the police lleutenant, is no weakling, and Roosevelt knows it. The Republican leaders were good and president. He made William Barnes collector of the port of Albany while president.

"Roosevelt's actions should produce. in the fall primaries and election an accurate census of the New York state people who desire to be misled."

WHIITMAN'S REPLY

TO HINMAN'S SPEECH.

Republican Gubernatorial Candidate Asks Ex-Senator Searching Question.

District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, Republican candidate for governor, was asked if he had read ex-Senator Hinman's statement made at the Clinton county Republican convention at Plattsburg. Mr. Whitman said: "I have no comment to make except to repeat my question to Mr. Hinman, Will you support the Republican nominee chosen at the primaries? If Mr. Hinman will not support such Republican nominee he has no claim to be called a Republican. The position and more cups of tea, on them. "No, thank you." and "Really. thanks. I have had a huge tea." and the like assurances were useless. The kind hostess continued offering more. There's a vast difference between "Won't you have a little more?" and than detract from those qualities which "Do try one of these hot buns." to Mrs. De Fussy's continued badgering to consume more and more.

After all, they were all sensible men and women, with average intelligence and brains-not a party of children at a school treat.

Guest Room Supplies.

Nothing is more disconcerting to guests than a guest room that is not well furnished. Of course every one issupposed to carry his own toilet articles with him, excepting the chance or "The Democratic party in the state unexpected visitor who comes unpre-

> But, equally, of course, the hostess should not take individual toilet arti cles for granted, and she should if possible furnish her pretty guest room dressing table with an adequate supply. Bone, celluloid or ivory, in white. is the best material for these articles. for any of these substances can be readily cleaned.

> A simple light for the guest room is an electric bulb supported by a glass candlestick, fourteen inches high and shaded by a fringe trimmed, cretonne shade.

Indian Lawn Party.

Should the hostess who is giving a garden party wish to emulate the noble red man the lawn may be temporarily transformed into a miniature In dian encampment. A near Indian tepee, looking enough like the real thing to deceive any ordinary being, can be purchased ready to set up, and in this -or from it-the refreshments may be served.

Navajo blankets, Indian baskets and pottery, papoose slings, tomahawks of papier mache, pieces of wampum and a pipe of peace are among the characenough when Roosevelt was governor | teristic decorations for an Indian lawn party, while souventrs of birch bark will prove acceptable to the guests.

National Entertainments.

The fashionable hostess in her endless search for a novel way in which to entertain her guests has paused a moment to enjoy what she chooses to

These include the Russian tea, the Japanese and Chinese breakfasts, Italian, French, German and Hungarian dinners, Holland and Spanish luncheons and last, but not least, the Bobemian late suppers.

Cool Looking Decoration.

A clear glass bowl such as is used for goldfish, filled with carbonated water, will. if nasturtiums and leaves are placed in it, soon become a mass of frostlike moisture. The escaping gas In the water creeps over each leaf and flower, making the whole seem covered with dew. For luncheon on a hot day it is the most refreshing bit of coolness imaginable.

New Place Cards.

Commissioner Barry Murphy, Fruit, of the Adjutant-General's office. An Flowers, Farm Products, Night Shows unusually strong agricultural program and Attractions. is being developed and the work will

Commissioner George W. Driscoll. be given in a large tent at the Poultry and Pet Stock, State Institugrounds. The boys will be uniformed tion Exhibits, Women's Building. in khaki, and it is hoped that they Hospital and Fire Department. will have rifles issued to them, as Commissioner Thomas J. Cummings in the case of 1912. The parents of Police. Manufactures and Liberal many boys who have already attended Arts, Domestic and Transportation. the Farm Boys' Camp, and all those Commissioner William H. Jones. who will be at Camp in 1914, are Superintendent of the Air, Races, Maespecially invited to see the way in chinery and Concessions. which the boys are taken care of in

The Racing Department will offer the Camp, and especially to hear for the Fair of 1914, the greatest something of the agricultural program program in its history. $70,000 will to be presented every forencen. be hung up in purses for the Grand There will be fewer lectures in 1914, Circuit Racing Meet and the Running but the periods are to be somewhat. Meet of the American Jockey Club. longer, with more opportunity for The owners' stake in the Running asking and answering of questions. Department has closed with a value of $11,000 and the best ponies in the country entered. The early closing events of the harness program attract-

will be continued on a more elaborate scale and special attractions for day and night will be brought to Syra-

At the Commission Offices, the forecast is for the largest and best State

PURE FOOD LAW

Lecture Course Prepared for State

Fair Visitors,

tion and sale of Pure Food Products will be given at the State Fair this year by official lecturers of the State Department of Agriculture. This is a part of the educational program which all food authorities are finding imperative if the Food Laws now in the statutes are to do any where near the good they were meant to do. The lecturers plan to tell the consumer

may be enacted and ways found to These facts will be given without exaggeration and sensational appeal.

The consumer has been so confused and misled by the current magazine

Pure Food Talk, that he does not know what stand to take. His common sense tells him that there has been much exaggeration but he cannot separate the true from the false. Nor does he realize that he, himself, can do much to better conditions if he but

The lectures will be given daily at one o'clock in the amphitheatre of the Dairy Building. The representatives of the Departments have pre-

(1.) The Proper Law and the Con-had the requisite knowledge.

pared the following program:

enforce them.

A series of lectures on the prepara-cuse from all over the country.

Fair in every Department.

State Vegetable Growers' Association ed 175 entries. The Night Shows tried out on the Introduce Innovation. Grounds for the first time last year

FARM PRODUCE

In no department of the State Fair of 1914 will the evidence of progress be more conspicuous than in the Vegetable Building. The basis of progress lies in the doubling and revising of the premium list in these classes. Special effort has been made to arouse the interest of the commercial vegetable producers of the State. The premiums for the leading types of the important vegetables have been so increased that it will be worth while for the man in the field to choose his finest specimens and match his skill against that of the growers of other States. In former years such staple varieties as Golden Self Blanching celery, Danish Ball Head cabbage, Big Boston lettuce, Erfurt cauliflower, Yellow Globe onions, Hubbard squash, Evergreen corn, and the leading tomatoes have been offered first prizes of $2 to $4. In all of these leaders this year competation will center around first premiums of $20, second premiums of $10, and third premiums of $5. Other less important classes have been notably increased. The potato classes have also been revised, with the omission of many sorts which nowadays appear only in a few catalogues and with the offering of substantial premiums for all' of the kinds which are widely grown. It was at the suggestion of the officers of the New York State Vegetable Growers' association that the changes in this department have been made, and the commission has chosen Henry Greffrath, president of that organization, as superintendent.

State Fair Hospital.

A portion of the Women's Building at the State Fair has been transformed into a finely equipped hospital with a staff of physicians and trained nurses in charge. The model nursery is managed by the Women's Department with State Health Department officials.

Farm Implement Show,

The greatest farm implement show-Problem. (5.) Patent Medicines. ing in the country annually is display. ed at the New York State Fair; 196,-000 square feet are devoted to the exhibit.

The amphitheatre of the Dairy Building has a seating capacity of over four hundred. Dairy demonstrations including the making of Pure Butters and Cheese are held in the

Don't drop it When you've got it,

Either. Keep Your Trade by ADVERTISING

REPUBLICAN EMBLEM

Above is a representation of the new emblem of the Republican party adopted by reason of the change in the form of ballot to be used this year.

The ballot will be printed in sections. on which the candidates' names, emblems and political designations will the plain unvarnished truth about be boxed in by heavy black lines in our Food Law and its operation, the i the manner indicated by the following adulteration and misbranding of illustration of the section for governor. foods; the abuses that laws now can- A separate section is to be printed on not stop and the education of public the ballot for each office to be filled at opinion to the end that needed laws the election.

> GOVERNOR (Vote for one) AMASA J.PARKER _ Democratic JOHN A.KING Republica

CF TO VOTE THE STRAIGHT RE PUBLICAN TICKET MAKE MARK sumer. (2.) The Label. (3.) Saul- AS ABOVE IN THE SQUARE AFTER tation and Sanitary Laws. (4.) The EACH REPUBLICAN EMBLEM ON Cost of Living and the Pure Food THE BALLOT.

AN AIM IN LIFE.

call "national" functions.

One Dollar will open an Account

In This Bank

Loans Money Jn good farms at 5 per cent.

Insecticides and Fungicides.

UNDER THE TOWN CLOCK SAMUEL V. KENNEDY

ILENRY D. TITUS

HOBERT L. ROMIG

HENRY D. NOBLE

FREDERICK SEFTON

WILLIAM S DOW VE

WM. H. SEWARD, JA

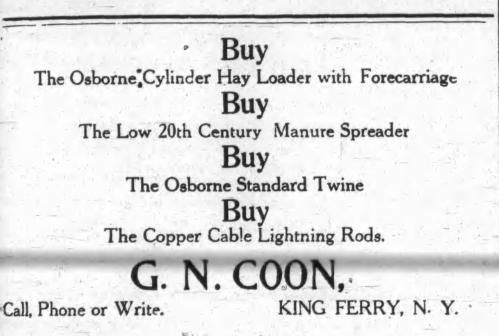

Pyros, Caascu, Bug Death, Arsenate of Lead, Paris Green, Slugshot, etc. Let us advise you what to use for the control of insects and fungus diseases.

Sprayers and Dusters.

We have a large stock of sprayers at prices to fit your closed on August 22nd. The classes needs.

D. L. RAMSEY & SON AUBURN, N. Y

31 and 33 Market St.

Seventy-fourth Annual Exposition Commences at Syracuse, Aug. 31

ENTRIES BREAK ALL RECORDS

Richest Premiums and Largest Prize List Ever Offered Attract Unprecedented Number of Exhibitors-Several Unusual Attractions.

The New York State Fair-normal school for progressive farmers-will hold its seventy-fourth annual agricultural and industrial exposition August 31-September 5 inclusive, at the million dollar Fair Grounds near Syracuse.

The State Fair grows in importance with the years. The splendid new buildings afford opportunities for exhibits and demonstrations impossible elsewhere. The entry books in the various departments will have been already indicate an unprecedented display in the Cattle, Sheep and Poultry shows. The Swine show has been abandoned, slight indications of cholera having been discovered in the State. Fruit, farm produce, flower and domestic divisions have had new classification and a 50 per cent. increase in premium money and the entries so far are in proportion to the greater offering.

The Horse shows are popular and valuable features of the exposition Department A offers $10,000 in premiums for 194 classes of farm and general purpose horses, draft and breeding horses, while the carriage and show horse division offers $7,100 in 53 classes. The Dog show offers $2,500 in 360 classes approved by the American Kennel Association. The total premium offering for the 1914 Fair exceeds $75,000, including the amount set aside for sweepstakes and extra awards for displays of unusual merit.

The butter and cheese making and the purses are made up from the scoring contests in the Dairy Building are an interesting adjunct to the great display of dairy products and specialties. The farm implements display is the largest in the country. Many of the State institutions have exhibitions explaining departmental activities.

played by mounted teams and the famous military melee introducing broad-sword fighting by teams of ten mounted on military chargers, are other unusual numbers on the program.

Of a different sort, but of as much interest to the average spectator, are the exhibitions by troupes of Western sheep dogs which single out and drive from within the race inclosure sheep of various breeds into the pens reserved for each before the stand. The

"Hay Loader" is a comic acrobatic act.

Reserved for the last number is a brilliant pyrotechnic program which will be under the direct supervision of the famous Pain Fireworks Company of New York. A different display will be given each evening.

All Buildings Open. The buildings devoted to exhibitions of live stock, dairy products, poultry and State institutions, manufactures and liberal arts are open at night and all exhibits may be viewed as well as in the day time. The illustration gives an excellent idea of the eff. clency of the lighting facilities.

STATE FAIR RACES

Six Days of Sensational Running and Harness Races Promised by American Jockey Club and Grand Circuit Officials.

There are sixteen harness races and eighteen running races on the State Fair program, August 81-September 5, inclusive. The card is the richest ever offered for a week of racing and the fastest horses on the American turf have been booked for Syracuse.

The harness trotting and pacing events of the Grand Circuit meeting -purses and added money $50,000, will be held on the first three days of the Fair. An additional $20,000 will be competed for by the runners, under the direction of the American of the week.

It should be understood that these purses, in the main, are contributed by the owners of the trotters, pacers and thoroughbreds. The meeting is conducted under the auspices of the Box 318. State Fair Commission, but aside from the extra $1,000 added in the sweepstakes and extra money paid when 8 or more horses start in a race, entry fees paid into the fair treasury.

F. B. PARKER, Moravia

Dealer in

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Cut Glass Columbia Phonographs and Records, Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines, Silverware both solid and plated.

Pianos from $165 to $400

Leading Makes of Sewing Machines.

Including New Home, Singer, Domestic, White, New Royal, Eldredge and The Free.

Several Different Makes of Pianos

Wadsworth, Vough, Wegman, Decker & Son, Bailey, Schencke, Shearer and Bjur Bros. All kinds of small Musical Instruments and Cases. All Sheet Music 10c a Copy.

A Good Line of Watches in Stock

Including all leading movements-Elgin. Waltham, Hampden, Hamilton, Howard and South Bend. Seven to 23 Jewel. No watch cases less than Twenty Year Guarantee. Come in and inspect stock and prices before buying. Your credit is good for any of the above goods and for any amount.

Main Street, Moravia, Opp. Moravia House.

by the day, Concrete, Stucco Work, Brick, Plaster, etc., inside Jockey Club, during the latter half and outside. ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

I will do special rough outside work.

1117

Jeneral

Nick Ostineel, Genoa, N.Y.

Telephone M. G. Shapero, or Call at Shoe Shop.

- Contracting

Gang, Two Way and Walking Plows, Plow Extras for all day, September 2, Grange Day, when makes of Plows.

McCormick, Syracuse, Osborne, Gale and Utica Harrows. Day and an address will be made at Riding and Walking Cultivators, all kinds of Harness and Harness Extras.

Clover, Timothy, Alsike and Alfalfa, Peas and Seed Corn. Try our Corn and Oat Feed $30 per ton-cash 30 days.

J. D. ATWATER, Genoa, New York.

Summertime pleasures are largely increased and pleasant = experiences and scenes recorded when you have a Kodak for a companion. We have a complete stock for your inspection. Let us show you

BROWNIES $1 to $12 KODAKS $5 to $65

Photographic Developing

FREE We have enlarged our plant for developing and while improving our service, are at the same time reducing our charges.

Developing any size roll film 5c or if pictures are ordered at the same time, the developing is FREE

Place your insurance with the VENICE TOWN INSURANCE CO. $1,380,000 IN FARM RISKS! WM. H. SHARPSTEEN, Secretary,

The Speakers.

Secretary of State William Jennings Eryan is expected among the noted speakers of State Fair week, and Colonel Roosevelt and other famous orators have been invited to make addresses. State and national officers of the Grange will speak on Wednes-100 or more granges propose to hold a basket picnic on the grounds. Thursday, as usual, will be Governor's 11 A. M. by Governor Glynn, who will speak on constructive agricultural legislaticn.

Lovers of music are assured of a treat in the engagement of the Twenty-first Regiment Band for morning and afternoon concerts.

Lest the week of exhibits, demonstrations and lectures be too onerous, the Commission has provided unusual amusement attractions. The Grand Circuit harness races, August 31-September 1 and 2, and the American Jockey Club runners, September 3, 4, and 5, will bring to Syracuse 500 of the fastest track horses in America. The Night Shows on the grounds are a new feature. Exciting sports, cavalry games, horse exhibitions, parades of prize stock and brilliant pyrotechnic displays are on the program. The Midway has been given large and centrally located quarters and will be conducted on an elaborate scale.

The Commission looks for a record attendance this year and has made every effort to provide an exposition which will be not only a real educative force and a true advertisement of the manifold advantage New York possesses as an agricultural State, but will also afford the visitor an opportunity to witness and enjoy within the compass of a week a program of sports and amusements superior to any given at any time in any amusement or recreation center. Night Show on the Grounds.

With the experience of last year as a guide, the State Fair Commission has arranged an elaborate program for the Night Shows on the grounds, which were an innovation of the Fair of 1913.

No extra admission fee is charged for the Night Shows, except that seats in the grandstand are sold separately for a day and night.

The program commences at dusk with a concert by one of the celebrated bands which have been engaged for the week. Parades of prize stock pass in review before the stand and these are followed by an automobile pelo a match, the sensational amusement feature which had its premier at the State Fair last year. Six automobiles are engaged in this most thrilling sport. The machines are stripped to chassis and wheels and are driven by high-power motors. Each auto carries two players, a driver and a malletman and the

A full six days of racing has been arranged and the fastest and best program of the season will be provided for the patrons of the fair. The program will commence promptly at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, when the sensational race of the week-the free-for-all pace, purse

$5,000-will be called. The Messina Stake for three-year-olds and the 2:10 trot are also on the opening card. Lord Dewey will be driven against time for the world's record Monday afternoon.

The classic Empire State 2:14 trot, value $10,000, will be raced Tuesday afternoon. Four other fast races are on the card.

Five big races have been arranged for Wednesday, Grange Day.

Wednesday night the track will be softened up for the runners and on Thursday six races will be run off. Friday will also have a card of six races and on Saturday the $12,000 Owners' Stake, contributed by Jockey Club members, will be the star attraction of a six race program. It is expecter that 500 horses will be at the State Fair track for the week. The track is the fastest in the United States and the number of world's records made on it is sufficient evidence that the Sport of Kings reaches the acme of perfection at Syracuse.

CANINE ARISTOCRATS

State Fair Kennel Club Arranges Attractive Show Under the Auspices of the National Kennel

Association.

The dog show held at the New York State Fair last year proved so popular an innovation and fitted in so well with the other high class attractions at this greatest of State Fairs that the Commission has increased the prize money for the 1914 show from $500 to $2,000.

The privilege was also accorded the State Fair Kennel Club, under license of the American Kennel Club, to bench the show in the $100,000 Poultry and Pet Stock Building erected last year.

Other concessions have been made in favor of the new department and the dog lover may count upon the highest class sort of an exhibition.

There are 338 classes representative of all the recognized breeds. Three hundred special prizes in plate and trophies are offered by kennel clubs and others interested in the success of the show. Many of the best benchers in the country will be exhibited, the Commission is already assured.

FARM INSTITUTE ACTIVITIES

Last year, for the first time, an exhibit was made at the State Fair by the Bureau of Farm Institutes. Over two hundred and fifty names were left at the booth to receive literature and hundreds of persons met the men in charge and discussed matters of mutual interest. This year a similar ex-

WHILE YOU CAN GET THE GOODS

Promptness enables us to secure for our customers(without advance in prices.)

German Linens, Damasks, Napkins, Onyx Hosiery, etc. The wise ones are buying now. Advices tell us not to expect any more until the war is over.

Early arrivals of Coats, Suits, Silks, Dress Goods, etc.

BUSH & DEAN

Coats, Suits, Skirts.

ITHACA, N.Y.

Closed Wednesday Afternoons until September.

To Our Patrons:

The deplorable conditions that now exist in Europe on account of the war now being waged between the largest and most civilized countries, and the conflicting reports that have been circulated regarding the prices of imported merchandise entitles the consumer to receive definite and exact knowledge regarding the situation.

We therefore wish to announce that at the present time and as long as our present stock will last we will not advance our prices one single cent on merchandise of any kind.

We shall protect our patrons during these unsettled market conditions to the fullest extent.

Our resources for obtaining merchandise is not excelled by any firm. Nearly thirty-five years of honorable dealing with manufacturers, wholesalers and importers means a great deal in a crisis like this, and there is no one better equipped to serve you for the coming fall.

At the present time there is a corps of buyers in the market to provide for you and for us and to protect both our interests to the fullest extent.

We realize that there will be scarcity of some materials and some classes of merchandise and that we will be tested to the utmost to supply you, but we are in hopes by the advice we receive that we will be able to cope with the situation.

Always prepared to serve you best.

ROTHSCHILD BROS. ITHACA, NEW YORK.

Miller Tires and Tubes made strong, last long. For sale by

A. C. SLARROW.

Pittaburgh Newspaper Regards Idea With Favor, but Has Doubt of Its Practicability.

Baltimore comes forward with a community back yard idea, already the subject of practical experiment in that city, remarks the Pittsburgh Dispatch. It aims to abolish the unsightly back yard and its rubbish-hiding fences, and to create instead a neighborhood open space or park and playground that would keep the children off the streets and offer residents instead of a little cooped-up and practically useless piece of private domain a chance to stretch themselves and enjoy a freedom of movement to be had in no other way.

A correspondent who directs attention to the scheme suggests that it might be expanded into a factor in reducing the cost of living if the community would devote part of the open space to growing fruit or garden truck.

Admirable as the idea may seem in the abstract, it may be questioned whether neighborhood human nature has arrived at the perfection necessary to its success. It is not difficult to imagine a refractory resident angered by some neighbor spoiling the whole plan by restoring his fences. It may be doubted, too, whether this could be avoided by any binding agreement being secured in advance. Then, also, there is always the possibility of an untidy neighbor mussing up the community back yard, of clothesline fights and dogs and chickens and all the numerous troubles that add spice if not sweetness to neighborhood existence.

GOOD IN GARDEN MOVEMENT

City of Duluth Has Demonstrated That It is of Value in Many Different Ways.

In the summer of 1913, the Duluth Commercial club obtained three va-

TAT HEN ex-Senator Frederick C. Stevens, superintendent of public works in the Hughes administration, announced at Saratoga that his choice for governor was Charles S. Whitman, the able dhe trict attorney of New York county, he voiced a belief that has been growing steadily in the public mind of late. This belief is that Whitman and Hughes are men of the same type; that they are men of the same moral fiber; that Whitman, more than any other man in public life, represent those high ideals which have characterized the public life of Charles E. Hughes.

Senator Stevens is popularly known as the "man who discovered Hughes." It was Stevens who enabled Hughes to first demonstrate in a public way his remarkable ability as an investigator. Senator Stevens, as chairman of the legislative investigating commission, appointed to probe into the gas monepoly, chose Charles E. Hughes as the commission's legal investigator. The result of that inquiry, conducted so is well known. It brought about the eighty cent gas law, a piece of legislation which, by the way, was opposed by Harvey D. Hinman, Colonel Roosevelt's hand picked candidate.

While it was the insurance investigation which brought Mr. Hughes directly before the public as a logical candidate for the highest honor within thegift of the state, it was the reputation he earned in the gas inquiry which brought about his retention as the insurance inquisitor. So Senator Stevens who discovered Hughes."

Relied on Stevens' Judgment.

In Senator Stevens' judgment, Governor Hughes reposed the greatest confidence. During the Hughes administration no man was more closely in Stevens. His political ideals and those intended to precipitate." of Hughes were the same.

In turning to Charles S. Whitman as NO "HAND PICKED" MEN the logical Republican choice for governor this year Senator Stevens reflects the views of those in the Republican perty who so stanchly fought, shoulder to shoulder, with Hughes in his gubernatorial campaigns. The "man who discovered Hughes is as bitter in his antagonism to Roosevelt as he is enthusiastic in his sup- following editorial in an issue followport of Mr. Whitman's candidacy, ing the Saratoga conference of the senator Stevens will never forgive Republican party; Hinman went to Oyster Bay and fied 1916. up to Colonel Roosevelt. "I consider Roosevelt the greatest menace in the country," said the senator in his announcement that he is for Whitman as the Republican party's choice as standard bearer this year. There are many strikingly similar friend with Roosevelt entanglements. characteristics in the caliber of public service performed by Charles E. Hughes and by Charles S. Whitman, Hughes candidate from the start. Both attained reputations as brilliant investigators. Both have demonstrated the possession of remarkably clear, in Greater New York active for the judicial minds. Both have demonstrated the adherence to those lofty ideals listed in the Whitman army. in public life which are looked for in leaders of men. Both have demonstrated the integrity of purpose, the aggressive honesty, the fearless adherence to duty which characterize the type that Roosevelt had opposed him. Judge is sought by the people in choosing Whitman, whom he opposed, became their public servants. Hughes Appointed Whitman Judge. The dominant personality of Whitman as a power for good in the community was recognized by Governor Hughes in 1907 when he appointed Whitman as judge of the court of general sessions. This court has the same powers in criminal cases as the supreme court of the state of New York. with jurisdiction over all felonies. Mr. Whitman was the only man appointed by Governor Hughes during his entire term of office to a court having exclusive criminal jurisdiction. So well was Governor Hughes satisfied with the work of Judge Whitman in the court of general sessions that he enused his appointment as a special deputy attorney general to prosecute election frauds. Those who are championing the cause of New York county's militant Troy Times Admires Republican Candistrict attorney for the governorship argue that as Governor Huch - saw fit to choose Mr. Whitman from the ranks of the thousands of more able lawyers of the state for judg ship in the high court of general sessions and as a trusted prosecutor of election trands no stronger recommendation of Mr.

100T'S INDORSEMENT OF WHITMAN FOR GOVERNOR.

inited States Senator's Significant Words at Saratoga Conference.

Under the heading, "Root on the Prinaries," the New York Evening Globe, in independent paper, prints the folowing editorial:

"Senator Root's appeal to Republicans it Saratoga to enter the primaries deermined to abide by the result and not be led away by animosities engendered by the nomination campaign is adroitly suited to the exigencies of the peculiar dituation created by Colonel Roosevelt's election of Senator Hinman as a andidate for governor whom the Proressives would support. But what he says on this point is of farreaching mportance if the new primary law is to prove compatible with party government.

"It is still clearly desirable that our rincipal elective officers should be hosen by large coherent bodies of roters who will accept some responsibility for the conduct of the men they select to administer our affairs. This s the theory upon which party government rests, and no reasonable substitute for it has ye* been devised. The object of primary nominations is not ably by Mr. Hughes in New York city, jo do away with this system, but merely to abolish the actual power of political bosses to name whom they please and restore it to the people in whom it has been nominally lodged.

"What Senator Root means is plain enough, of course. He believes that District Attorney Charles S. Whitman will be the choice of his party for governor. He asks those members of the party that prefer Mr. Hedges or Mr. Hinman to enter the preliminary fight committed to the policy of making comnon cause against the Democrats, howhas a legitimate claim as the "man ever great their disappointment if they are beaten.

"From a party point of view this is only reasonable. From a practical point of view it is desirable unless we tre prepared for a sort of demoralization at the polls on election day which the confidence of Hughes than Senator the advocates of direct primaries never

Watertown Standard Indorses Whit-

man For Governor.

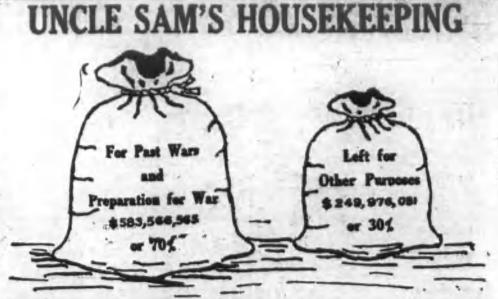

State Highway Commissioner T. J. Ehrhart of Colorado has announced that the state will pay half the cost of split-log drags to all counties which will furnish these drags free to farmers and others pledging themselves to use them on their roads. This action followed the strong impression made on the highway commission by the D. Ward King method of road building, as demonstrated at the K road rallies held recently at Can Rock, Littleton, Golden, Den Brighton, Loveland, Greeley, Fort M gan, Fort Collins and Cheyenne. G ernor Ammons was a regular atte ant at the meetings and enthus tically indorses the system.

Hundreds of farmers have sire pledged themselves to use the dr and as a result it is predicted ruts, bumps and mudholes in the ro in this section of the state will s be things of the past, just as this souri farmer's method transformed dirt roads of lowa and a dozen ot states at practically no expense.

The following is King's conden formula for building and maintain a perfect road with the split-log dr

"Build a King drag according to structions. After the first rain, w the dirt is still moist but not stic hitch the team to the drag so the drag will follow the team at angle of about 45 degrees. Drive one horse on each side of the w track to your neighbor's front i toward town and come home over other wheel track, smoothing the s and moving a small amount of earth toward the middle.

WAR AND THE "After the next rain or wet spell go again. Repeat this after each storm until the surface touched by the drag is smooth and is slightly higher in the center than at the sides.

ORDINARY INCOME OF THE U.S. FOR 1914, $833,542,116

By paying direct and indirect taxes both men and women of the United States help to fill Uncle Sam's money bags. Look how the money is spent.

Of every $100 he spends $70 on maintaining the Army and Navy, in paying old war debts or military pensions. The expenses of paying for past wars, and of preparing for war, cost each individual living in the United States $5.50 a year.

The yearly cost of maintaining the U.S. Army and Navy each year is greater than the endowments of all the universities of the world. DO YOU KNOW?

`	• "A smaller sum than this would * Uncle Sam spends $850,000 a day on his army and navy. $10,- 6 000 a day is spent on smokeless powder alone.	tuberculosia every year in New York City.
A fully equipped dreadnought costs $12,000,000 and it goes to	There are nearly 2,000,000
the scrapheap in 10 to 12 years.	children between the ages 10 and 15 in industry in the United
The war debt of Europe is greater than the whole value of the United States.	short by 122,041 places of the 5 · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	La children registered.
Most of the governments of Europe are despotic and may	This war debt could abolish compel their citizens to use bullets instead of votes.	disease to a minimum.
	· Demonstelle states and solar and
The war is costing $50,000,000 deally and millions of men are staken from industry.	a people. Yet the people starve and a taken from industry.	The women toil in the fields.
.
WHICH CAN A COUNTRY BEST
Mrs. Julia Ward Howe:	AFFORD-BULLETS ON VOTES? are is the ballot, which represents the d will. Adopt it, Oh you women, with clean hands and a pure heart."	with have he of you women, with ing to me for missing sons, husbands and fathers. It is only those who have never heard a shot, nor the WASTE OF WAR shrieks and cries of wounded. friend or foe, who cry aloud for more blood. more vengeance, more desolation." "To popularize the navy," continued Dr. Jordan, "we give a gigantic parade on the Hudson of miles on miles of war vessels on their way from the Tax bureau to the Junk Heap. As the procession moves by you will see ships that cost as much as Cornell or Yale, or Harvard or Columbia, the whole costing as much as an American workman can earn n 1,000,000 years, an European workman in 2,000,000 years, and an Asiatic workman in 4,000,000 years."

cant lots in different parts of the city and put a man in charge of the three tracts. He conducted demonstration gardening through the season; was always available to help puzzled gardeners; guided the school children in their work, and otherwise stimulated the garden movement in the city.

From an importer of garden products, Duluth became at least a producer of its own supplies. Duluth's hinterland is developing agriculturally, but the garden movement in the city has lost none of its significance. It has promoted the ownership of many homes; it has drawn children from the street and made them garden enthusiasts; it has induced greater efficiency among wage-earners through contentment and more healthful surroundings, and it has made Duluth a city of gardens beautiful to behold.

Of greater value to Duluth is the moral effect on the city. The rising generation is one of gardeners. Factory workers and office employes not only raise their own vegetables, but they have developed their bodies by the exercise. The demand for saloons, gambling houses and similar resorts is dying out.

Camphor Trees for Streets. A trade journal quotes a Texas nurseryman as saying that the camphor tree is very popular for street planting in the southern part of that state; that it is never troubled by insect pests and that mosquitoes will avoid

No tree is exempt from insect pests, and camphor trees may be found with such a thick incrustation of the red scale of the orange that bark on twigs may scarcely be seen. Mosquitoes avoid camphor and its fumes and therefore will not literally "roost" upon the tree, but they do not avoid the general territory in which it grows. The camphor tree is a prime favorite in southern California and we do not allow fear of insect pests to deter us from planting it wherever and whenever opportunity presents .--Los Angeles Times.

Encouragement of Thrift.

In Chicago there has been started an association for the encouragement of thrift. Far-seeing men are behind the movement, confronted with the anormous waste in time, opportunity, and material which has been a natural inheritance from a generation that round everything to spare at hand. This condition no longer exists. A shanged economic condition calls for shanged methods of living, to which the people must be educated. As the familing and formative influences are those belonging to childhood, the school garden may be counted apon in play no small part in bringing about a factor understanding of the elements of living, all the way from the marwe: hasket. onward to the best that gross is caake happy and prosperous ho-

Dues Harn Harm Than Goed.

His Striking Record.

Mr. Whitman's striking record as dis trict attorney-a high office to which he has been elected twice, by the voters of New York county-has effectually borne out the judgment of Governor Hughes that he (Whitman) is a man to be trusted with the administration of broad public duties.

It is apparent that the leaders of thought and action in the Republican party think likewise. Such was the sentiment at the Saratoga convention. Any one who attended that conven-delegates from every part of New York | without saying." state could arrive at but one conclusion-that Charles S. Whitman in his

The Watertown Standard printed the Roosevelt for having turned upon the "The autipathy of the Hughes leadparty that made him and for the vi- ers to Colonel Roosevelt has been emcious fight the colonel has waged to phasized by their refusal to support drag the good name of Republicanism for governor a man for whom they in the dust. Any favorable thoughts have no animosity, Harvey D. Hinman, Senator Stevens may have had of Hin- because they refused to separate his man's candidacy were dispelled when candidacy from that of Roosevelt in

> "Frederick C. Stevens, who was the premier of the Hughes administration. who had pledged his support to his old comrade before the directions came from Oyster Bay, withdrew, frankly declaring that he could not accept his Agnew, who passed the Hughes racing measures, had picked Whitman as the

"Wilcox, Hughes' public service commissioner, and practically every man governor from 1906 to 1910, has en-

"A man who should have had the support of the Hughes men, who deserved well as a Republican, failed to secure as much support as though stronger with the politicians at the Saratoga convention, who had not warmed up to him because of his independence, and it early became evident that the leaders had sanctioned the candidacy of the man who ignored them and went straight to the people for the nomination. The direct primaries have a wholesome effect upon party leaders, making them respond to what they believe to be party will. That may offset the loss in many ways of the old time convention as the final act in presenting a party ticket.

"Whitman's candidacy was started by the people. Candidates hand picked and handed down cannot beat him."

A HINMAN PAPER PRAISES WHITMAN.

didate For Governor.

It is interesting to note that even the opponents of Charles S. Whitman. Republican candidate for governor, can find little ground for attacking him. Several newspapers supporting Hin-Whitman's character could be obtained | man admit in their columns that Mr. Whitman has qualities that attract wide, favorable attention. The Troy Times, for instance, is a stanch advocate of Hinman. In a recent editorial stating that Hinman could get more votes than Whitman owing to Roosevelt's indorsement of Hinman the Times, however, prints the fellowing:

"Mr. Whitman is an admirable man and in his field of prosception of those criminal forces that have made the New York metropolis notorious has done work which has never been equaled in the same area. That he would be tion at Saratoga and talked with the an honest and efficient governor goes

"UNDOUBTED INDEPENDENCE."

"Plow a shallow furrow (please notice the word 'shallow') just outside the dragged portion of the road, turning the furrow into the dragged portion. Spread this furrow (notice the word 'spread') over the road toward the center with the drag. When you finish the roadway will be about two feet wider and the middle will be a little higher.

"After the next rain or storm plow again and drag again, adding two feet more to the width and building the road still a little higher in the center. Only plow one furrow between rains. When the road becomes wide enough. quit plowing. Never drag except when the soil is moist.

"This formula is guaranteed to produce results."

A government bulletin giving instructions for making and using the King drag may be obtained by anyone desiring to use it on his roads by addressing the agricultural department at Washington.

MAINTENANCE IS ESSENTIAL

Large Portion of Money Expended for Improvements is Wasted-Road Building an Art.

Logan W. Page, chief of the office of public roads of the department of agriculture, is bending every energy to impress upon the people of the country that maintenance and effect. ive repair are of equal importance with the actual improvement of bad roads. Investment of money in new roads does not become real economy until provision is made for keeping those new roads in condition after they are built. If a new road is built and then allowed to fall into disrepair, much of the original investment is simply wasted.

Southern Road Well Cared For.

Quite frequently the office of public roads, when called upon for assistance by the various states, points out that road building is an art based on a science, and that trained men and experianced men are necessary to secure the best results from the expenditure of road funds.

Statisticians have figured out that although the average expenditure on the improvement of roads exceeds $1,-000,000 a day, a large portion of it in wasted because of the failure to build the right type of road to meet local requirements or the failure to provid

Dr. David Starr Jordan Says Day of Peace is Coming.

Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of the Leland Stanford, Jr. University, president also of the National Education Association, ally and promoter of the Woman Suffrage Cause in California, author of the book "WAR AND WASTE," believes that war must be settled by arbitration. He places the power of law before the power of force. In speaking of the waste of war Dr. Jordan said:

as commander-in-chief of the army and navy, cannot reduce his command. It. his cabinet is a secretary of war, a secretary of the navy, with no secretary of economy, of sanitation, of education, of national morals or internal peace.

"Our Navy," said Dr. Jordan, "costs us $146,000,000 a year. This is $400.-000 a day, $2,777 a minute, the wages each year of 276,210 American workmen, and about 10 times as much as our 48 States spend yearly on their State Universities, their technical colleges and industrial schools -the backbone of our national prog-Tess.

"The danger to you and to me and to our families from the international band of outlaws called white slavers, is infinitely more than the danger of any foreign foe. Yet two days of smokeless powder costs more than our government can afford for this most horrible of all evils. We spend more than 2-3 of our annual income on military affairs. We have not enough to go round for any useful defense."

THE FOOD SUPPLY AND WAR

Congress and the Housewives' League

Work to Regulate Prices. The unwarranted advance in food prices in all cities, for which the European war is offered as an excuse, has been taken up by Congress in Washington, and in New York by the Housewives' League. Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the league has sought the office of the District Atorney charging wholesalers and reailers with conspiring to take advanage of the war as an excuse to raise prices.

"But what can you expect," argued a prominent New York merchant who owns a chain of grocery stores, 'lands are being devastated, those who till them are fighting each other. nd factories are closing. The result s that the actual wealth of the world s very rapidly being reduced. The effect will be felt for a long time. believe, however," he added. "that he advanced prices now show fully the first shock, and there will not be a further advance immediately. There has already been a raise of 10 per cent. on all imported goods. Many of the domestic goods, but not all, have suffered a similar increase." Mrs. Julian Heath, representing an organization of 700,000 women, the housewives of the United States, had seit a letter to President Wilson purpose whatever, outside of national asking him to issue a proclamation to the merchants of this country urg-Dr. Jerdan called attention to the ing them to maintain level prices statement of Gen. Sherman who said during the European war, and to rein the year 1865 at the close of the fmain from speculations in food stuffs. Civil War: "I confess without shame Mrs. Heath who lives at 175 West

MRS. JULIAN HEATH.

