EMMA A. WALDO

M. KEMPER WILLOUGHBY, M.D

GENOA, N. Y. Office hours 8 to 9 a. m., I to 2 p. m. 7 to 8 p. m.

Miller 'Phone. Special attention given to diseases o digestion and kidneys.

H. E. ANTHONY, M. D. MORAVIA, N. Y. Office hours 7 to 8:30 a. m., I to 2 p. s 7 to 9 p. m.

Bell 'Phone, Special attention given to Diseases of the Eye and FITTING OF GLASSES.

DR. J. W. SKINNER,

Homœopathist and Surgeon, Genoa, N. Special attention given to diseases of we men and children, Cancer removed with out pain by escharotic. Office at residence

E. B. DANIELLS UNDERTAKER Moravia, N. Y.

Telephone Connections for Day and Night Calls.

UNDERTAKING

WILLARD CUTLER

Embalmer and Funeral Director

Main St., Bell 'Phone

filler 'Phone ville Springs.

FIRE!

E. C. HILLMAN, GENERAL FIRE INSURANCE. Levanna, N. Y.

Agent for the following companies Glens Falls, The Home, Fire Association of Philadelphia, The Sun of London, The Queen, and The Spring Garden. Regular trip every thirty days.

FRED L. SWART, Optometrist.

Masonic Temple, South St. AUBURN, N. Y. Shur-On Eye Glasses.

J. WILL TREE, BOOK BINDING ITHACA.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Genoa, N. Y.

SUNDAY SERVICES. 11 a. m., Preaching service. 12:05 p. m., Sunday school. Y. P. S. C. at 6:30 p. m. 7:30 p. m., vening worship. Mid-week Service, Thursday evening. A Cordial Welcome Extended to all.

Jurors Drawn.

county to serve at the February term of county court which convenes

Genoa-Frank Corwin, Hunt, William McCormick. Ledyard-James H. Burlew.

Locks-George Booth. Moravia-Levi Ellis, John Toomey Sempronius-Charles O Burgess,

Springport - Thomas O'Connell, Sherwood Smith

Venice-Norman G. Arnold, Ward

Locust Posts for Sale.

1,000 locust posts, seasoned, on Brown farm, 11 miles north Venice Center, 25 cts each, last a lifetime. Inquire of Russell DeWitt on farm.

Our feed mill at the Genoa elevator is now ready for custom business. We can handle grain or ear corn; Will grind Tuesday and Friday of each week.

J. G. ATWATER & SON.

For Sale

size, one Cyphers 390 egg size, and four Essex Model 275 egg size, six founts, etc Lime Sulpher 20c per gal testimonials, free. Arsenate of lead 10c per lb. Wanted, S O White Leghorn

Geo Frost, Levanne, N. Y.

From Nearby Towns.

Atwater.

Jan. 27-The people of this vicinseems good after last winter's absence is increasing in numbers.

Mrs. Phebe Atwater, who has been ill at the home of her son, N. J. Atwater, is greatly improved

Harry Powers Jan. 28, for their son ent. Poplar Ridge Christian En Willard. About 50 young people deavor society will be present. We were present and enjoyed themselves into the small hours of the morning. his father, who is very sick.

doctor's care

attended school at Union Springe have been enjoying a vacation, owing to a mild case of scarlet fever in the building.

Miss Maude Ford of Five Corners spent Friday with Miss Emms Palmer and attended the Powers

Floyd Abbey is home from the navy and is staying with his father, Samuel Abbey, until spring when he Moravia expects to go on his place near Slater her aunt, Mrs. Fred Crouch.

Road, who underwent a three-fold impressive program is being arrangoperation in Auburn City hospital is ed. We should be pleased to see you doing very nicely. Her friends will all present. give her a post card shower Thursday, as it is expected she will be able to sit up by then.

Norman Atwater of Lackawanna, N. J., is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Atwater, for a few days.

Miss Hattie Schwab of Seneca Falls is visiting at Fred Mann's for a few days.

About twenty relatives of Mr and Mrs. Eugene Mann gave them a surprice party Monday evening, Jan 26 Mr. Mann is improving in health. Geo Hunt does not get well as fast as his friends would wish.

Lansingville.

Jan. 26-Mr. and Mrs Syrenus Reynolds has returned to their home after spending two weeks with Mrs Alida Reynolds Her cousin, Mrs E S. Osborn, is staying with her at

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando White are spending the winter with her parents at Ithaca, helping to care for her father who is ill

Mrs. Chloe Rippey of Dresden and Mrs. Clifford Townsend and Mrs. Helen Teeter of Myers recently spent the day with Mrs. Alida Reynolds.

Mrs. Smith Minturn and her son The following trial jurors have Corliss of Locke were guests of Mrs. been drawn from this part of the Sarah Reynolds the first of the week. Clayton Swayze and his family were guests at Wm. Tait's Sunday.

Venice.

Jan. 27-The social held at the home of Nelson Stevens was largely attended Friday night and a goodly sum realized for the Ladies' Aid.

The Venice Center Hall association met in the hall last Monday night and elected officers for the ensuing year. A meeting has been called for next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock and the directors request that all stockholders be present as there is special business to be transacted.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Arnold spent Monday in Auburn.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease Cutarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for INCUBATORS 4 Cyphers, 240 egg composed of the best tonics known, comyears and is a regular prescription. It is bined with the best blood purifiers, colony and brooder houses combined, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. 8 ft. sq $15 each, fitted complete, The perfect combination of the two insuitable for 300 chicae. 1 in. mesh gredients is what produces such wondersencing 2 ft. high, to per sq ft, ful results in curing catarrh. Send for

> F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O Sold by Druggists, price 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipatlon.

King Ferry.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday, Feb. 1, 10:30 a. m., public worship; sermon theme, "God is my proved. Rock and my Salvation." Sunday ity are enjoying the sleighing. It school at 11:45 a.m. The men's class

On Sunday evening at 7 o'clock there will be an enthusiastic Christian Endeavor rally which will be held in the church room of worship A party was held at the home of All are cordially invited to be preswish that other Christian Endeavor societies might be present. An in-Carmi Chaffee is spending some teresting program is being arranged. time at Five Corners helping care for An address will be delivered by the pastor on "Christian Endeavor Effi Mrs. Dan Lamfere is under the ciency." Let us fill the church full and realize the importance of the Several of our young people who Christian Endeavor work as an agency to lead young men and women and to help evangelize the world. Every one, come

Thursday, Feb. 5, 7 p. m., prayer meeting and sermon. Tuesday, Feb. 10, at 2:30 p. will take place the installation of Rev. W. H Perry as pastor of the Presbyterian church in King Ferry Dr. J N. Taft of Syracuse will preach the sermon of installation; Rev. Sewall of Aurora will give the charge to the pastor, and Rev. Jones of Cay-Miss Josephine Ladd is visiting uga will give the charge to the people. Rev. Crane of Port Byron is ex-Mrs. R. A. Nedrow of the Lake pected to act as moderator. A very

> We are looking for someone to volunteer a house for a church social.

Venice Center.

Jan. 27-Mrs. Chas. Brockway and little son of Moravia spent a couple of days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E E Green-

Bennett Springer, conjurer and magician, gave an entertainment in the hall at this place on Saturday evening, it being the third number in the course of entertainments. On account of the storm and consequent bad condition of the roads, there was not as large an attendance as there would otherwise have been.

Word has been received of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dresser. They are at present at Geneva at the home of her parents.

Quite a number in this place and vicinity are victims of hard colds

Present indications are that we shall see all the winter we care for

The annual meeting of the Hall association was held last evening. The following directors were elected: J. O Misner, J. II. Streeter, J. J. Dillon, G. B. Crawfoot, F. C. Purinton, Jr., Victor Andrews, David Beebee. They chose officers as follows: President, J. C. Misner; vice president, G B. Crawfoot; secretary, J. J. Dillon; treasurer, J. H. Streeter. A directors' meeting has been called for Monday evening, Feb. 2. The old and new directors, stockholders and all others interested are invited to be present.

North Lansing.

Jan. 26-There will be a donation for Rev. F. J. Allington at Grange hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Singer are improving. Mr. Singer goes out a little and Mrs. Singer is about the house, but does not go out. Mrs. Ada Lane her relatives to help her celebrate her birthday one day last week. Mrs. Catherine Davidson had a fall

Mrs. Cecelia Learn had a number of last week which resulted in some fractured ribs. The little child of Mr. and Mrs.

Elmer Carter has been quite sick, but Mrs Alice Singer to work on quilte,

A few finished the work on Saturday. Will Smith is not yet able to be out, although improving.

Farm for Sale in Scipio.

75 acres first class soil, dwelling, Friday evening. erable fruit, near to school, markete, evening, Feb. 18. Come and secure evening, N. Y. 27w1 your valentimes. All are invited.

Five Corners.

Jan. 26-The little child of Mr. and Mrs Bert Corwin is very much im-

Mrs. S. B. Mead spent last week Thursday and Friday in Auburn, the guest of her son Clyde and wife.

Mr and Mrs. Andrew Brink of with George Curtis and wife. Jump were called to Ithaca last week Wednesday by the serious illness of their mother and sister, Mrs. James DeRemer. She was somewhat improved when the daughter came home here last Saturday. Miss Maria De-Remer is spending some time with her now. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Leon Curtis and Miss Mildred Best spent last Saturday with relatives in ern district of this county.

Groton Mrs Mary Hunt is spending some wife at Groton

Mrs Chas Barger spent last week Tuesday at the home of 8 8 Goodyear and family R B. Ferris and house on Railroad St., in that city, wife spent Tuesday evening at the same place.

Miss Lizzie Wager is the nurse at Albert Chaffee's Mr. Chaffee remains very sick

Mrs. W. W. Atwater spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O Wager at Belltown. Her mother is quite poorly and she remained there in the absence of her sister Lizzie.

last week at their different homes on account of illness in their school. They will return to the school this

Mrs. Will Ferris spent last Saturback by the way of South Lansing many beautiful floral tributes. Saturday evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lanterman. Mr. Ferris spent Sunday at the same place, Mrs. Ferris returning home with him Sunday evening.

Carmi Chaffee of Atwater spent s few days last week with his father, Albert Chaffee. Andrew Chaffee of East Laneing was also with his father for a day or so Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferris spent last Saturday and Sunday with their children, Mrs. Egbert and Mrs. Lanterman and families at South Lan-

Mrs. A V. Sisson returned to her home in East Venice last week after spending a few days with her aunt

Maria Algard, who is ill. Mrs. Dannie Moore recently visited friends at Interlaken. Henry A. Barger of Ludlowville spent last week Thursday with his parents, C. G. Barger and wife also Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Snyder of Ludlowville were at the same place. Mrs. Geo. Ferris and son Harry are visiting relatives in Michigan. They attended the automobile show in Detroit and are visiting cousins Albion and Springport.

The Grange buffet supper and social was a novelty and passed off nicely. Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer made a business trip to Moravia last Friday, returning home Saturday afternoon.

spent last week Thursday night and Chanute and formerly of Ottawa. Friday at his brother's, George Jump, Mr Roe is a Santa Fe employe. and drove to Ithaca Saturday to see his sister, Mrs. James DeRemer.

Mrs. Frank Algard was quite ill few days last week.

last week with friends in Aubarn and Syracuse. We are pleased to learn that Geo.

Hunt is slowly recovering from his severe illness. Master Carl Goodyear was taken suddenly ill last Friday night, Dr. Hatch was summoned and at this writing he is very much improved.

square dances; dancing school every 30 days at the depot at Venice Center

corn, hog and hen houses, barn with The C.E. society will hold a valenstables for horses and cattle, consid- time social in Grange hall, on Friday

Lewis V. Smith.

Lewis V. Smith, who died suddenly at his home in Cortland on Jan. 21, 1914, was born Oct. 20, 1825, ip the Dec. 28, 1918, after an illness of neartown of Venice on his father's farm, ly three months. Mrs. Jewell had being the oldest son of Isaac and been suffering from cancer for some Margaret Smith. He married Mary time. A few weeks ago she was Kimball, daughter of Isaac Kimball, taken to the City hospital but there North Lansing spent last Thursday and they lived at the old Kimball it was decided that an operation homestead, until he engaged in the would only tend to basten the end, the S E Young store. In 1868, he loving hands did all in their power moved to Genoa village, where he to make her last moments comfortaand his son, Dorr C. Smith, engaged ble. in the general grocery business in the east side of the D. & H. Avery twelve, six boys and six girls, the block, where they remained until remainder of whom are all living as 1871, when they crossed the street to is her father, Zina W. Alexander of the building known as the Brownell Atwater, N. Y, who is in his 86th he spent in Genoa.

Mrs. Smith died in January, 1891 and later he married Mrs. Mary A.

Wood of Genoa, who survives him. Universalist church of Cortland, and Fred and Edward of Marathon. had been for many years one of its most loyal, strongest supporters, in the four generations of the Alexrarely missing any of the services ander family, whose pictures were Master Carl Goodyear, Howell of the church, when in his usual hown in the city papers a short Mosher, Florence Atwater and Evelyn health. He was conceded to be the time ago. For the past few months Atwater of Oakwood seminary spent oldest member of the Universalist Mr. and Mrs. Jewell had been con-faith in this State, Funeral services were held at his The funeral services were held at late home Friday last. The pastor of her home on Wednesday at 2 o'clock. the Universalist church preached the The Rev. E. J. Rosengrant officiated. sermon and the pastor of the Baptist Interment was made in Fort Hill lay afternoon in Ithaca and came church offered prayer. There were cemetery.

Among those who attended the funeral were Mr and Mrs. John Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith of East Genoa, Mrs. Eva Hewitt of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. R. T Doty of Moravia and Mrs James M. Hutchin son and son of Rochester.

Mrs. Adelaide T. Moe.

Mrs. Adelaide Theresa Moe, a well known Ottawa woman, died this morning (Jan. 15) at 4 o'clock at her home, 737 Oak street. Death was due to senility. Mrs Moe had been in frail health for a long time

The Moe family lived in this county about sixteen years. Before moving to Ottawa they lived on a small farm near the Greendell school, northeast of Ottawa. The farm was known as one of the most beautiful places in the county because of the great care exercised in tending the trees, lawns and rows of hedge. M. M. Moe died in Ottawa in November, 1904, and his widow has lived here since then. She was member of the Eastern Star and of the American Woman's League. Mrs. Moe was a literary woman and wrote several volumes of poetry. Birds honeymoon. The groom shipped his and animal pets were her favorite subjects for poems. Mrs. Moe was born at Elmira, N Y., Feb. 8, 1830. She is survived by a niece, J Adelaide Brotts of New Hiram Jump of Union Springs York, and a nephew, Harold Roe, of

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home. Burial will be in Highland. Mrs. Moe was a member of the Epis-Mrs. John Palmer spent a few days copal church and the services at her request will be in charge of the Rev. E L. Skinner. The Eastern Star will have charge at the grave.

Collector & Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the taxable inhabitants of the town of Venice, Cayuga County, N. Y., that I, the year. He is a member of the Spokane undersigned, collector of taxes in and club. John Palmer purchased the Frank for said town, have received the war-The ladies met on Friday with Algard place last Saturday at Mo- rant for the collection of taxes for the present year, and that I will receive Macquerade party Friday evening, the same as follows: At Ledyard, Feb. 6, at Lake Ridge by Mrs. Thursday, Jan. 15; East Venice, Wed-Stearns' dancing class; dancing 9 nesday, Jan. 21; Poplar Ridge, Weduntil 2; 75 cents a couple; round and needay, Jan. 28; the remainder of the > George B. Crawfoot, Collector, Town of Venice.

Knox & Knox, Auburn, are closing out one of their shoe stores, sale now on.

Death of Mrs. Eva Jewell. Mrs. Eva Jewell, aged 56, died at her home, No. 2 Grant ave., Auburn, Miss Mattie D. Remer and George mercantile business at East Venice in and she was carried back home where

Mrs. Jewell was one of a family of store. In 1870, Mr. Smith was elect- year. She was born in Windsor, ed school commissioner of the South- Broome county, and was married to Charles W. Jewell New Year's Eve, The family first moved to Cortland 1878. She is survived by her husin 1878, but returned to Venice for band and five children, Charles of time with her son, Jay Hunt and a number of years where Mr. Smith Syracure, Mrs. Clayton Sperry of again conducted a store. About 1883 Rochester, Mrs. Marion Spicer of they returned to Cortland. Mr. Smith Syracuse, and Ivan and Anna both of and his son erected the large, double Auburn. The five sisters who survive her are: Mrs. Katherine Langer, where he has lived ever since, with Johnstown, Pa, Mrs. Ellen Burt, the exception of a few years, which New Bedford, Mass., Mrs. Mary Todd, Ithaca, Mrs Clarence Glover of Marathon and Mrs. Betsy Main of Albany. The brothers are: Alfred of Lynd, Minn., Richard of Skaneateles, Adel-The deceased was a member of the bert and Herbert of Ludlowville,

Mrs. Jewell's death makes a break ducting a restaurant in Market street.

Peyton--Avery. The marriage of Miss Buth Avery, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. George Avery of Spokane, Wash., to Mr. Harlan I. Peyton of the same city, took place at the home of the b ide's parents, on Thursday eveng, Jan 22, 1914 The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs Buth Avery of Genoa, and the niece of Mrs. E. H. Sharp of Genoa The Spokane Daily Chronicle of Jan 19 contained the following announcement of the mais riage in its society columns: Surrounded by the immediate members of their families on'y, Miss Ruth Avery, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. A. George Avery, and Harlan Ide Peyton, youngest son of Mrs. V. A. and the late Colonel I. N. Peyton will be married at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, W1216 Sixth ave. Horace C. Peyton, brother of the groom, will attend the groom, The wedding will be a quiet one and a small one, less than 20 people being bidden to the ceremony. Immediately after the wedding, an elaborate supper will be served at the Avery home. The bride and groom will leave the same evening for southern California for an extended Stutz car to Los Angeles a week ago and from the metropolis of southern California Mr. and Mrs. Peyton will tour the state. They probably will not return to Spokane until March. Shortly after their return to Spokane they will go to Coeur d'Alene lake, where they will spend the summer. Miss Avery is a talented member of Spokane's exclusive set. For several seasons she has studied music in New York City and possesses a charming lyric soprano voice. After graduating from Brunot hall, Miss Avery attended Miss Somerville's school in New York, from which she graduated. Later she traveled extensively abroad. The groom is one of the most popular of Spokane's younger set. He is also one of Spokane's wealthiest young men. having inherited almost half a million dollars on the death of his father last

All $5 shoes, $4.25 at Knox & Knox closing out sale, Auburn.

Ask Your Superintendent

If he has returned to the County Sunday School superintendent or County Statistical Secretary the annual school report for your Bunday school, Don't let him forgut it. It should be sent in next week, during "Statistical Week," Feb. 3-0. He has the blank, Perland it & shind thu clock.

Tale of the Sea Serpent That * Appeared Off Quincy Harbor.

By J. LEROY BARSTOW

Quincy Harbor was in an uproar. The wind was blowing half a gale from the northwest, and great waves came tumbling in from the sound to break with augry roars on the pebbly beaches.

I was standing on the front porch of Captain Barnabas Fish's snug cottage on the west beach, watching for that gallant sailorman to return from his schooner Indus, where he had been to see that everything was snug and shipshape aboard.

Maria Fish came out and stood beside me, her arms wrapped in her blue gingham apron, her hair whipped back by the wind.

"Captain coming?" she asked. "Yes: he has just left the schooner. See, Maria; there's a motorboat coming in. I wonder if it has been outside." "Looks like Ananias Sline's boat," remarked Maria. "He goes out into the sound in all kinds of weather. Ananias is as good a sailor as he is a story teller."

"Then he must be an excellent sailor!" was my laughing response.

We watched the motorboat approach the captain's dory and then saw it lead the smaller boat to the steamboat wharf, where they made a difficult landing at the slippery wooden steps. But there were many hands to help them.

"What the land are they all gabbing about?" wondered Maria as she squinted through her cupped hands at the dock. "They're all gathered around Ananias and the captain, and Ananias pies will be burnt to a crisp," Maria darted into the house, and I buttoned my sweater closely around my throat and went for a walk along the beach.

nabas at the gate. "Get me a bite to eat as soon as you can, Maria," said the captain as he sat down in his favorite rocking chair in the south window. "I'm going out

When I returned I met Captain Bar-

"Where?" demanded Maria crisply. "Around to High point. Ananias has been out, and he's seen a sea serpent.

Maria turned a baleful eye upon her

"Sea serpent?" she repeated scornfully. "Barnabas Fish, tell me the truth-do you really believe there is such a thing as a sea serpent?"

"Maria, I do," returned the captain solemnly. "I never saw one, but I have met many deep sea captains who claimed to have seen sea serpents. and 'tain't for me to gainsay them. for I know there are more wonders

"TOU CAN BRING ME HOME A PIECE OF THE CRITTER'S TAIL."

under the sea and in the sky than we poor land pirates can ever hope to

"Then you believe in this sen serpent of Ananias?" persisted Maria. You really believe that there's a sea serpent here in Long Island sound?" "It is possible," admitted the captain.

"And you believe it on the word of Ananias Sline?"

"I am open to conviction," returned Captain Barnabas cautiously.

"Captain Barnabas, won't you take me with you this morning?" I begged.

"Out in all this lather of foam?" he asked incredulously.

"I'd love it." "All right. Furl your tops'ls, Miss Telham, and you can come along."

Maria gave us a hot lunch with plenty of sustaining coffee before we set forth on our trip. You can bring me home a piece of the critter's tail, Rarnabas," she called scoffingly as we departed.

It was arranged that we should ac-boat, and so we beat our way around the beach to the steamboat dock.

The news of Ananias's discovery had flown around the village, and when we set forth we were accompanied by a fleet of boats filled with the hardy boatmen of Quincy Harbor, for that old port has been the home of scores of sailors, and shipbuilding is still its chief industry.

Naturally, our boat led the way. Mr. Sline hovered over the wheel, his wiry little form enveloped in a pea jacket and a nautical cap pulled low over his scanty tow hair. Now and then he turned a cold blue eye in my direction, and I knew that Ananias wished that I was ashore with the other women of Quincy Harbor. Somehow Ananias Sline and I never seemed to hit it off. There was a carefully conrealed mutual dislike between us.

Yet Ananias had many admirers among the fairer sex in Quincy Harbor, and there were several widows who would gladly have risked another matrimonial venture with the little story teller at the helm

How the wind new that October morning! How the salt water whipped our faces as the little boat breasted the waves and made for the harbor's mouth! Beyond that narrow opening all we could see was the lift of white foam from the sound,

"You'll git enough of it outside!" barked Ananias over his shoulder

I made some careless reply, but the wind tore the words from my lips. and he never heard. There was a look of sinug satisfaction on his mean little face as he bent over the wheel again. There was no doubt that Ananias felt that he had entirely routed

I was a good sailor, for I loved the salt water and had been on it more or less all my life, so I was not afraid. I was more fearful that the sea serpent would have vanished and that I would lose my only chance of ever seeing one.

Captain Barnabas sat in the bow. drinking in the wind and the spray and sunshine of the day with a sailor's love of a nor wester.

It was not until we were well into the sound and had turned to the east. where High point jutted a pine crowned summit into the blue of sea and sky. The beach curved in sharply here, and once in the shadow of the point we were in the lee of the wind and the going was a little better.

Behind us the other boats rose and fell on the great waves like bobbing

Ananias began to take an almost human interest in the affair at this point. He turned the wheel over to Captain Barnabas and stood in the bow, one hand bent above his brow.

He peered to the right and he scowled to the left, and suddenly he lifted his voice and bawled lustily:

"There she blows!" Captain Barnabas motioned me to he wheel and he joined Ananias Sline. "Where's the critter?" demanded the aptain skeptically.

"Jest about two p'ints south of east," explained Ananias, pointing with a stubby forefinger. "See that dark spot-and that? Jippity Crusoe, but she's thutty feet long-what say,

Regardless of the wheel, my curiosity got the better of me, and I, too, arose and gazed in the direction toward which all of them were now gaz-

Sure enough, about a quarter of a mile away, close in shore, there appeared about twenty feet of ridged back, then an expanse of water where the body was submerged, then more ridges, more water, more reptile crowned with some kind of a head that rose and fell with the swell of the sea.

That was the crowning moment of Mr. Sline's triumph. Even I, who had doubted his veracity in the matter of marvelous adventures in which he claimed to have been engaged at various times in his strange career, now mentally made handsome apologies to

This time he was right. Before us was the very evidence of our eyes-a those few had falled to produce their evidence of the truth of what they had seen. But here was Ananias, a noted story teller, not only seeing a sea serpent, but able to confirm his story with the evidence of a score of his neighbors.

I sat down and took the wheel. Behind me I heard the sound of excited voices as the excited crowd urged their boats ahead.

The captain and Ananias stood there in the bow, their arms interlocked in friendly fashion and their heads together. They had a pair of strong glasses, and every time the black body of the reptile glistened in the sunlight one of them would glimpse it again with the glasses.

As we neared the reptile it suddenly submerged, and I was relieved of the wheel and told to watch ahead closely for its reappearance while the two men made ready to capture it.

Captain Barnabas was for capturing it alive and selling it to the aquarium. but Ananias wanted it, dead or alive. The captain loaded a heavy shotgun, and Ananias brought forth several short harpoons with new lines fastened in the shanks. "We're going to set you ashore. Miss

Telham," said Ananias boorishly. "This ain't no place for wimmin I said nothing, for I knew that in an encounter with an unknown deni-zen of the sea there would be a strong element of danger for me. So I took the glasses with me and allowed them to put me ashore. Immediately they "You can count on it, Maria, if we put out in the direction where the sight the critter," retorted her spouse. sen serpent showed one hony protu- souvenirs. berance. I was glad that the creature mompany America Sline in his motor- was so close in shore. By the aid of sniffed, and then she laughed the glasses I could witness its capture even better than of I had been aboard the boat.

I climbed a great gray rock and perched myself there with the waves breaking about the base in splashing roars that drowned all other sounds. Therefore the capture of the sea serpent appeared to me merely as a pantomime.

I saw the motorboat nearing the serpent, and I saw the other boats draw closer together as if their occupants had planned concerted action in case the serpent should make a savage charge upon them. Many of them had guns, and one or two old whalers had harpoons like those Ananias had

I saw Ananias in the bow of the boat, one foot poised on the gunwale. the harpoon lifted for action.

Then something unexpected happened. I believe that the sea serpent had sent some sort of a lashing upward the headlights of the machine. blow beneath the boat, for it suddenly heaved upward and then down again. and Ananias pitched forward, as it appeared, straight into the place where the sea serpent's head should have

ANANIAS SLINE CAME IN ASTRIDE OF THE

I closed my eyes then, for I knew that the water should be drenched with an ugly red after Ananias and the sea reptile met beneath the waves. When I opened my eyes again they looked upon the strangest sight imag-

Ananias Sline riding triumphantly in astride of the sea monster!

All the men were shouting together, and their voices broke above the clamor of wind and wave, but I could not understand a word they were saying. All I knew was that the sea serpent was headed straight for the pebbly beach at my feet and that presently an incoming wave would toss it into my arms if I did not escape. I escaped at once.

With all haste I scrambled down the rock and flew up the sandy beach to an ancient cedar tree, where 1 clung breathlessly.

Then with a final heave and roar of water, as if the sea was weary of its denizen and would gladly shift the responsibility upon the broad shoulders of mother earth, the sea serpent came rolling in-bobbing in-growing bigger and blacker and snakier looking as it unreeled its length from the sea and was tossed on the beach.

And the doughty Ananias, upon whom had just gazed as upon another Jonah, had come in in triumph bestride the thing stretched its prosaic length on High point beach.

Little by little I began to realize the significance of the scene. I saw Captain Barnabas land with the other boatmen. I caught great snatches of sea serpent. Few had seen one, and their laughter. Some of the men rolled on the beach in an excess of merrifrom the head of his charger and tear off his pea jacket and coat, displaying narrow, sloping shoulders and puny fists to the biting wind.

Then I ran down to the stranded sea thing. I placed my foot boldly on its head, and I, too, laughed. Ananias turned upon me so flercely that my laughter died in an apologetic gurgle.

Stretched on the beach was a long string of empty oil barrels, tifty in all. And fastened to the end barrel was a short spar, and draped on the span was a great ragged mass of seaweedthe maned and bearded head of the serpent!

Of such things are many of our ter rors made.

Captain Barnabas and I could no make peace with Ananlas. He returned alone in his motorboat, and we were taken back to Quincy Harbor in the big skiff of Sylvester Beebe. And all the way home we laughed at the way in which we had been taken in once again by the vivid imagination of Ananias, even while we speculated upon the reason for the casting overboard of the oil barrels with the bit of spar at one end that so cleverly masqueraded as a sea serpent.

When we reached home Captain Barnabas solemnly laid at his wife's feet an empty oil barrel and handful of seaweed.

"Maria." said he gravely, "as I promised. I have brought you the tip end of the sea serpent's tail and a lock of his bair-for remembrance!" Maria gazed scornfully up

"If that ain't just like Ananias!" she

News Films of the Passing Show

Boston policemen have had to quit thewing tobacco and gum while on

Although eighty-seven years of age. Melvin Shaw of Ottsfield, Me., has cut and split sixteen cords of wood.

At the recent race meeting at Auteuil, France, an American woman created a sensation by appearing in a tiger skin which cost $6,000.

While motoring home in New Orleans Dr. C. A. Bohne was attacked by a large hawk which was attracted by "Smallpox home, but I ain't afraid," said Tommy Fitz, eight, of 116 Woodward street, Jersey City, N. J. "Go tome!" screamed teacher. What he wanted. No smallpox.

Frederick Spreck, Michigan farmer, aged seventy, burned the school where his foster daughter, aged eighteen, taught so she would return to his home and give up a suitor living in the neighborhood.

PAY FARMERS MORE TO CUT LIVING COST.—GOV. M'GOVERN

Also Urges Better Distribution to Reduce Prices-Co-operation His Plan.

Discussing causes of the high cost of living, Governor Francis E McGovern of Wisconsin recently declared that the cityward drift of population constitutes the most menacing tendency now operative in American life.

"The only way in which the cost of living can be reduced," said he, "Is by increasing the supply of the necessaries of life, and this supply in turn can be kept up only by properly rewarding the producer. There is no ason why with better distribution of food products the farmer may not receive more for what he has to sell and the consumer at the same time pay less for what he buys."

Governor McGovern said that the producer received much too small a wide difference between what the producer receives and the consumer pays is, of course, not all unjust profits to the middleman, he asserted. In large part, he said, it represents duplication, waste and circumlocution in the handling of food supplies. "But it also includes ill gotten gains knowingly extorted from both consumers and producers," continued the governor, "because for the time being they are at the mercy of those who deal with them.' He suggested that the producers and consumers should form co-operative associations and leagues by means of which they could establish closer relations with each other.

A FIVE CENT HOTEL.

Real Beds at That Price, and Meals at From 1 to 5 Cents.

Chicago's bread line will be abolished with the new year. A hotel where real beds can be had for 5 cents a night and where meals will be furnished at from 1 to 5 cents each will supplant it.

Charles G. Dawes, former comptroller of the currency, who has been the host to the unfortunates in the bread line, is the founder of the hotel, which will bear the name the Rufus Dawes Memorial. It will represent a father's memorial to a dead son. Connected with the hotel will be free baths and a free employment agency. A large flag similar to the one raised you to come this week. during the battle of Lake Erie by Commodore Perry and bearing the words "Don't give up the ship" will adorn the lobby of the new hotel. "All ment. I saw Ananias stiffly descend the men may not understand the historic part of the motto," said Mr. Dawes, "but every one will catch the spirit of the message."

A GOVERNMENT ORCHARD.

Panama Canal Commissary to Grow Its Own Fruits.

The Canal Record, the official bulletin of the Panama canal commission, announces that the government is going into the fruit and cane raising business on a limited scale. Already the subsistence department of the capal government has taken charge of several large estates in the canal zone. the title to the lands having passed to land lies along the line of the relocated Panama railroad.

"The production of sugar cane," says the Canal Record, "will be secondary to the growing of the most common varieties of tropic fruit. It is planned to go into banana culture on a scale sufficient to meet the commissary and hotel requirements, and also to raise an adequate supply of oranges. limes and avocadoes."

Big Year For Yellowstone Park. Almost 2,000 more people visited the Yellowstone park, Wyoming, in 1913 than during the season of 1912, according to the report of the superintendent, recently made to Secretary Lane. The tourist travel bas increased 45 per cent since 1906 and was heavier in 1913 than ever before, with the exception of 1909, when the Lewis and Clark exposition was beld in Portland.

1849 AUBURN SAVINGS BANK 1914

SURPLUS $539,758 000 ASSETS $6.241,391 NELS N B ELDRED, 1st Vice-Pesident DAVID M. DUNNIE, President GEORGE UNDERWOOD, 2nd Vice-Pa't and Att'y WILLIAM S. DOWNE, Treas & Sec'y Atolph Keil, Assistant Treasurer

PAYS 3 1-2 per cent.

One Dollar will open an Account In This Bank

on Deposits

Loans Money Jn good farms at 5 per cent.

WILLIAM S DOWNER UNDER THE TOWN CLOCK SAMUEL V. KENNEDY

Place your Insurance with the VENICE TOWN INSURANCE CO. $1,200,000 IN FARM RISKS!

WM. H. SHARPSTEEN, Secretary,

Office. Genoa, N. Y.

Trustees.

EDWIN R. FAY

DAVID M. DUNNING

GEORGE UNDERWOOD

NELSON B. ELDRED

WILLIAM E. KEELEY

WM. H. SEWARD, JR.

GEORGE H. NYE

HENRY D. TITUS

HOBERT L. ROMIG

HENRY D. NOBLE

FREDERICK SEFTON

FOR SALE.

Fur Coats, Robes, Horse Blankets, Blankets, Single Harness, Heavy Double Harness, Edison Phonographs and Records.

G. N. COON, King Ferry, N. Y.

Call, phone or write.

There Is a Farm for You in the Great Pacific Northwest

Put yourself in a position to take advantage of the opportunities now open in rapidly developing Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. Farmers, horticulturists, dairymen, poultry raisers are wanted.

The purpose and aim of this bureau is to give authentic, reliable information regarding the Pacific Coast country. We have booklets on Tillamook, Coos Bay, Jackson County, Oregon City, Ashland, Portland, Oregon and Grays Harbor, Seattle, Tacoma and other communities in

Send ten cents in stamps to cover postage, and we will send one of these booklets, answer your questions and forward a sample copy of SUNSET MAGAZINE, the monthly guide and text-book of the home-

seeker and settler. SUNSET MAGAZINE SERVICE BUREAU. San Francisco, California

EGBERT'S

25th ANNIVERSARY SALE

WE CLOSE THIS TWO WEEKS' SALE SAT-URDAY, JAN. 31st and if you wish to get the benefit of the lowest prices quoted this year, we would urge

We are giving a straight 20% discount on all heavy work and sheep lined coats-10% off on Fur and Fur lined Coats and the reductions in Suits, Overcoats and Raincoats will

The same can be said in other lines such as shirts, gloves, hats and caps, sweaters and odd trousers. It will pay you to make a special effort to come.

C. R. EGBERT.

THE PEOPLE'S CLOTHIER, HATTER & FURNISHER, 75 Genésee St., AUBURN, N. Y.

the United States through awards for damages made to the owners by the federal joint land commission. The Try Ellison's Market for Choice Meats.

Special attention given to orders for cooked meats for parties.

Fresh Fish and Oysters always in Stock. Oleomargarine for sale.

R. A. Ellison,

King Ferry, N. Y.

Job Printing. This office is well equipped to do first class rinting of every description at

Friday Morning, Jan. 30, 1914

"Labby's" Prank at Eton. Thorold, in his "Life of Labouchere," tells this story of young "Labby"

while he was at Eton; "While the old chapel was being restored a temporary chapel of wood and iron was run up. The corrugated iron roof made the heat intolerable during the summer months, so Labouchere hit upon a plan to put a stop to the nuisance of 'chapel in the shanty.' one boy was to pretend to faint and four others were to carry him out. A fifth was to follow bearing the hats of the performers. "The plan worked admirably. The service was brought to a temporary stop, and the boys as soon as they were outside scampered merrily off and procured some agreeable refreshment. The repetition of this comedy, of course, aroused the suspicion of the masters, but, nevertheless, like many of Labouchere's intrigues in later life, it produced eventually the desired effect. There was no more chapel during the hot weather unic the restoration of the old chapel was com-

Prank of a Lightning Flash. During a thunderstorm in Deal,

England, Minnie Rogers, seventeen years old, was walking along one of the small back streets of the town rarrying a number of umbrellas, etc., when a vivid flash of lightning, evidently attracted by the steel frame of one of the umbrellas she was holding, ripped open her own umbrella, struck her and threw her violently to the ground. There was only one man in er to rise. Strangely enough, when she had done so she found that all her clothes, umbrella and cap were perfectly dry, whereas before she had been drenched, for the rain poured down in torrents. Her description of her feelings was. "I felt just as though my head had been stung by a wasp, there was a singing noise in my ears and I seemed to see a bright light, like the sun, shining through my umbrella." . With the exception of her hair being slightly singed, she sustained no injury.-Strand Magazine.

The Wit of Shakespeare.

A pleasant anecdote of Shakespeare and Ben Jonson is told in a book enitled "The World's Leading Poets:" "Shakespeare was godfather to one of Jenson's children, and after the christening, Shakespeare being in a brown study, Jonson came to cheer him up and asked him why he was so melancholy. "'No faith, Ben, not I. But I have been considering a great while what would be the fittest gift to bestow mon my godehild, and I have resolved

"I prythee what?"

"T faith, Ben. I'll e'en give him a dozen good latten (an alloyed metal something like brass) spoons, and you shall translate them."

While Shakespeare, according to Jonson, had "small Latin and less Greek." Ben Jonson was one of the giants among classical scholars of his day. when no other scholarship was recog-

The Grave of Cecil Rhodes.

The grave of Cecil Rhodes, I think, s the most remarkably silent place I have ever visited." says Mr. Ambrose Pratt in his book, "The Real South Africa." "It is a serious though inspiring, somber, forbidding and desolately grand place. While one stands gazing at the tomb scores of dzards, blue, green and gray, crawl from the crevices among the rocks and steal like brilliant phontom streaks across the tor. They are almost fearless of intruders, but they make no sound. Sometimes the distant shrilling of cicadae wounds the stillness with a faint let piercing dagger thrust of song. But soon and always the eternal hush returns, and silence reigns supreme again. The world is full of great tembs, vast and awe inspiring, but there is neither pyramid nor tomb nor monument in all the world which can equal that of Rhodes' sleeping place in simplicity and majesty."

Seeking to Be Exact. "My grandpa had a perplexity fit

Jesterday," said small Dorothy. "Perplexity fit!" echoed little Clarice. You mean a parallel stroke, don't you?"-Stray Stories.

Anatomically Speaking. "Every one has some secret sorrow." said the philosophic friend.

"Yes; even the fattest and joillest of ts has a skeleton in his midst"-Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Lost a Customer. Lady ordering boots for her hushand)-Do you keep men's boots? Shopman-No, madam, but we keep up to alges in women's.-London Opin-

DHIRORDS efc., for you.

FAGHTING HOG CHOLERA.

Preventive Treatment With Serum Has Proved Successful, university has published a bulletin on hog cholera and its preventive treatment, from which the following is gleaned:

Hog cholera has been recognized as a specific contagious disease of swine for about 100 years. The first authenticated outbreak in this country occurred in 1833, when large numbers of hogs in Ohio died from a disease which answers the description of hog cholera as we now know it. This highly contagious disease has caused the loss of millions of dollars annually. It has been estimated that the losses during 1912 reached $50,000,-000. One state alone is said to have sustained a loss of $10,000,000 from this dread disease in 1912.

It has been recently discovered that well hogs may be treated (vaccinated) with hog cholera serum so that they will not take the disease if exposed later. Such treatment is called immunization. This method of treatment has passed the experimental stage and is now on a practical working basis There are several different methods for immunizing hogs or making them immune to cholera. Inforunization consists in bringing about the presence of what are called immune bodies in resist such cholera germs as enter the system. These immune bodies are present in the blood of hogs that have recovered from cholera. Such animals are sometimes called "immunes."

Photo by University of Minnesota,

TREATING A HOG FOR CHOLERA.

A bog that has been treated with hog cholera serum without exposure to cholera at the same time does not form any protective substances or immune bodies of its own. It is rendered immune for a short time (three weeks to two months), due to the presence of the protective substances injected. Such treatment is known as the single or "serum only" method.

When it is desired to make a hog permanently immune and there is no cholera yet in the herd it is necessary that hog cholera germs be introduced into his system simultaneously with the serum, which protects the hog from the cholera germs injected. This is accomplished by the introduction Into the hog's body of a small amount of virus. Virus is the germ laden blood obtained from a hog sick with cholera. It is injected at the same time with the serum, but with a separate syringe. By this method the hog is enabled to develop enough protective substances of its own to render it permanently immune. This is known as the double or "serum virus" method of treatment.

Caked Udder In Cows.

Caked udder in cows is also commonly called garget, of which there are er infectious.

It is frequent trouble, especially in cold weather, often due to "catching cold" in the udder. The symptoms usually appear soon after calving, and many complications often ensue, sometimes resulting in a damaged quarter.

Since cows are so high priced it is certainly poor economy to attempt home treatment in severe cases. If your veterinarian treats the case he can give you the benefit of a personal examination. If a veterinarian is not available the general treatment is to give a purgative of epsom saits and bathe the udder with warm water to which have been added several table spoonfuls of sodium hyposulphite. Dry completely and rub in carbolated lard that must hold its own reward, some or ointment. Milk frequently.-Kansas

GENERAL FARM NOTES.

Seed corn should always be stored or. the ear. It should never be put into boxes, barrels or sacks.

in the making of cheese it should be turned in the hoops in the morning and kept well pressed until about noon. Good results are obtained by pressing two days. The lack of a manure spreader and

The university farm of Minnesota Invitation of the Gospel Is to All Wandering Sheep to Come Home.

> HERE are but few animals to which men like to be likened. To call a man a dog, a pig, a donkey, a snake or a monkey is to insult him. You may call him a lion or an eagle and he will feel complimented, because these creatures are accepted emblems of strength, courage and dig-

In the scriptures the sheep is chosen oftener than any other animal to symbolize the nature of man-a very just representation, for men and sheep are much alike. They are alike in this particular, that they move in masses. Men and sheep go with the crowdsto the right or the left, forward or back, to the bad or the good, with a facility and a unanimity that is a perpetual puzzle.

When men break away from God and run into disobedient ways they are like sheep. So the prophet confesses. "All we like sheep have gone astray." Again, when men are loyal to God, are trustful and teachable, they are like sheep. So Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them and they follow me." Sheep are both good and bad, and so are men. In one place we are cautoned, "Beware of men," for men will oppose righteousness. In another place we are counseled, "Quit you like men," for manhood means strength, enterprise and achievement.

Go Astray Like Sheep. In a well-known text both qualities are represented. "Ye were going astray like sheep-heedless, willful, disobedient. "But are now returned to the Shepherd"-confiding, submissive, amiable. Once you were scampering away, breaking through the hedge, leaping over the fence, running from protection, food and safety into forbidden places and places of peril. But you have come back and are feeding quietly within call of the Shepherd's voice and contented under his

When a man is won from his sinful courses to godliness it may be described as a return. How so? That's easy. I have known a man whose ancestors came from England, but who himself was born in America, to say, "I hope some time to return to the old home in England." How could he eak of "returning" to a place where he had never been? There is a kind of unity in the family life. In his ancestors he came to America, and in their descendant there is a return.

If we go back far enough we can the blood. They enable the animal to find our ancestors in the fold of Christ, living in a home he had prepared for them. In Eden the family to which we belong was happily shepherded by the son of God. But they left the fold and weakly followed, "like sheep." Therefore, whenever one seeks a renewal of the old happy relations it is a Call to Come Home.

The invitation of the gospel is a call to come back home. It is a message to prodigals, to which class we all belong. Waste no time in lamenting the lost Eden, but turn and see that its gates are wide open and entrance is free to all. Paradise regained is not a poetic fancy.

There is a sense in which the faithful Christian is often returning to his Shepherd. The ideal life, the life at which he aims, is a life of unbroken fidelity to his lord. But he is aware that he comes far short of that purpose every day. His confession of defect and his prayer for pardon are a return. It is plainly written in the experience of many of us. We know that after wandering of heart in respect of faith and duty, when he say, "I will arise and go to my father," he will see us from afar and hasten to welcome

Let me tell you a little, true story which is also a parable that requires no interpreter. A romantic New England boy stole away from his widowed mother's house one night and went to sea. Three years later he came back. two kinds—one noncontagious, the oth It was late evening when he reached the house. He tried the door and it opened for him. His mother, sitting in the dimly lighted room, gave him welcoming embraces. Later he asked her why she left the door unlocked. Her answer was, "That door has never been locked since you left me for I said he will come back some day and when he comes, at any hour, he must find the door unlocked."

Overcoming.

If one can keep sweetness of thought and calmness of poise, when bitter and rebellious feelings press hard and close upon the tortured soul-that must be the victory of overcoming; where, by adding strong fiber to character. That is the time to remember, to the exclusion of complaint, that to be overcomers we must have some thing to overcome. Aye, and they must be hard things, which press severely on a weak point, in character or tem perament, in order that the weakest link in our chain may be fully tested. -Eliza M. H. Abbott.

"Day by day."—Luke xi. 3. The dailiness of life is a great thing to learn. Day by 'day we receive our TEN MINUTES SPENT READING THE ADVERTISEMENTS COLUMN TEN DOLLARS SAVED.

the question of farm implements from the box's standpoint if the financial advertise at the bottom of the vantages do not seem clear enough.

The page "It is finished." The finished of the page "It is finished." The pag

Highway, Bridge and Miscellaneous Report

Of the Town of Genoa, County of Cayuga, 1913.

For the repair and improvement of highways, repair and construction of bridges, purchase, repair and storage of machinery, removal of obstructions caused by snow, and other miscellaneous

HIGHWAY FUND-RECEIPTS Balance on hand from previous year $ 484 55 Highway Tax collected pursuant to Sections 90 and 91 Received from State as State Aid pur-900 00 suant to section 101 Total receipts $ 8184 55 EXPENDITURES.

For Labor and Team Work for the re-pair and improvement of highways $ 2529 81 For Materials for highways and bridges having a span of less than Total Expenditures for the repair and improvement of highways Balance unexpended Oct. 31, 1913,

BRIDGE FUND-RECEIPTS. Balance on hand from previous year $ Total receipts for repair and con-struction of bridges EXPENDITURES. Labor and Team Work for repair and maintenance of bridges $ Materials for 1 pair and maintenance 50 35 Total expenditures for repair and

140.85 maintenance of bridges Balance unexpended, Oct. 31, 1913, MACHINERY FUND-RECEIPTS. Balance on hand from previous year $ Tax received from collector pureus nt to Sections 90 and 91 Total receipts

EXPENDITURES. For pu chase of machinery, too s and 'implements For rep ir or machinery, tools and 28 50 Total expenditures Balance unexpended Oct. 31, 1913, 119 59 SNOW AND MISCELLANEOUS FUND-RE CEIPTS. Balance on hand from previous year Tax collected pursuant to sections 90 and 91 50 00

For allowances for watering troughs Total expenditures

Balance unexpended Oct. 31, 1913 COMPENSATION TO TOWN SUPERINTENDENT AND DEPUTY TOWN SUPERINTENDENT. amount allowed for expenses

SUPERVISOR AND TOWN CLERK'S ALLOWANCE How much is allowed the supervisor pursuant to section 110 of the high-way raw? How much is allowed the town clerk pursuant to section 110 of the high

FATE OF NEW YORK, SS. COUNTY OF CAYEGA.

A. L. Loomis, Supervisor of the town of Genoa, being duly sworn deposes and says that he is the person mentioned as submitting the torigoing report; that the amounts stated therein to have been received by him as superpervisor of such town are all that he has received as such officer for the purposes therein stated; that the expenditures specified therein have in fact becaused for the numbers and to have in fact been made for the purposes and to the persons indicated; that all of such expendi-tures were made in good faith for value received and in the manner required by the High-wey law; that the balances herein specified are all the moneys remaining in his hands of the moneys received by him as provided by law on account of the bighways and bridges of such A. L. LOOMIS.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of November, 1913, J. CHAS, DAYTON Notary Public.

Operating Under Difficulties.

When on a trip in Little Tibet, Dr. Neve, in his book "Thirty Years In Kashmir," tells how three importunate women blind with cataract arrived at his camp at Shayok imploring treat-

"I had my box of instruments, but how should I sterilize them, and how should I light a fire? I told the Ladakis, and they tried to strike sparks with flint and steel, but the tinder seemed moist. One of them produced a little gunpowder and placed it on a stone, tore off a rag from his shirt and, fraying it out, laid it by the powder, then with flint and steel ignited it. Then a cooking pot was produced, and soon water was bolling. What an anachronism between the aseptic surgery aimed at and the primeval method of fire production!

cocaine; then, kneeling in the sand, removed the three cataracts, completing the operations just before a gust of wind came, laden with dust and grit, which would have put a stop to the work. The gratitude of the people knew no bounds."

Snowball Showers.

More than one explorer in cold climates has noted the curious phenome non of a "snowball shower." The balls. it is true, are not very big, the average being about the size of a hen's egg, but they are true snowballs for all that-compressed globes of snow, not little lumps of ice or hail. A fall of the kind occurred in north London in March, 1859, and at the time it was observed that the balls seemed five times as dense and compressed as ordinary snow and in no way to be told from the usual handmade missles. They had fallen during the night and were strewn many layers thick over a very large area. No cause-except a doubtful electrical one-can be asscribed for the strange phenomenon, other things of the kind has driven bread. Day by day let us give account the stories of snowball showers told Farming can be made drudgery for us finish the work that is given to us the boy, but it need not be so. Look at to do. Let each day be a world in its find themselves assailed as though by

Genoa Roller

Grinding Six Days The Week

WE ALSO KEEP ON HAND

Ceresota, Hull's Superlative, Occident, Gold Medal, S. & M., Silver Spray, Graham, Bolted Meal and Fresh Buckwheat flour.

Feeds of all kinds and Poultry Supplies.

W. F. Reas & Sor

-Last Chance-Cloaks - Suits - Furs for a few days for less than half price. BUSH & DEAN,

151 East State St.,

ITHACA, NEW YORK.

The Store That Sells Wesker Coars Swife Skirts

THE GENOA TRIBUNE and N. Y. World $1.65

"While the instruments were being boiled I cleaned the eyes and instilled John W. Rice Company

103 Genesee Street, AUBURN, N. Y.

COATS, SUITS and FURS

At Great Reductions

Suits are now being offered at half price. Coats from 25% to 50% less than the regular price. One lot of coats carried over from last year that are priced from $15.00 to $25.00 now marked from $5.00 to $8.00. There are many bargains throughout the Store during the month of January. We and mountaineers are apt to discredit invite you to come and see what we have to offer. We are many a boy away from the farm of ourselves to God. Day by day let them by the old guides till suddenly in Agents for the Pictorial Review Patterns.

THE GENOA TRIBUNE.

Frivay Morning, Jan. 30, 1914 Published every Friday and entered P. Miller f.r., 1 mile west of at the postoffice at Genoa, N. Y., as second class mail matter.

QUALITY AND LOW PRICES; Advertising Will Reach P-ople Interested in Both, but Merchant Must Be Truthful.

A wise advertising man once said: The sole object of advertising for a retailer ought to be to bring people into his store, if the advertising does that, it's good advertising; if it doesn't do that, it isn't. Advertising which brings people to your doors has done all you could expect it to do; if you don't sell them goods when you've got them there; it's the fault of the goods or the salesmanship, don't blame the adver-

There are many different ways of getting people into a store. It depends on the kind of people they are, on the kind of a store it is, the sort of merchandise it offers and its service. But in a general way, your advertising if it is to get them to come to your store, has to present the facts about the store and the goods which will interest them enough to bring them to you.

Trade that is drawn by low prices is almost never steady, permanent trade, it goes where prices are lowest or where they seem to be lowest. The constant effort to reduce prices forces. a merchant on a lower plane of quality, presently his standards are reduced to a point where his merchandise in inferior, his customers pay little for the goods, but they get little for their money.

Another merchant may feel that people whose trade he wants are more interested in quality; they are willing to pay a fair price if they can have the assurance of getting the value of their money. This sort of trade is generally speaking the most desirable and the most likely to be permanent. It come to the merchant with confidence in him and in his goods; it continues to do that as long as that confidence is justified.

Any man may be a success to a limited degree in the business world | cow, 60 Black Mirorca hens, New today-but to build up a permanent lasting business volume his policies must be honest, and his advertising dare only speak the truth.

"Advertising is as old as trade. Newspaper advertising in its vigorous application is a matter of the last quarter-century. Even now it is little used when considered against the number in trade who employ it compared with those who do not. The city streets are lined with thousands of shops dependent upon neighborhood trade or the casual passer-by. Yet examples of success in merchandising are apparent in every community. The men who have had the courage to use the columns of the press are the ones who have made their business great."-

USES WIND TO ADVERTISE Wide-Awake Man Utilizes Fashions

and Zephyrs to Attract Crowds About His Store.

Keeness of observation and original ideas placed an advertising man for one of the big stores of Champaign, Ill., on the road to prosperity. His. salary was raised and he now gives ten cent cigars instead of stogies to newspaper men. Being an advertising man and not a press agent he refused to allow his name to be used.

Having noticed that his women's furnishing store was located on a particularly windy corner, where even in summer these zephyrs play unceasingly he conceived the idea to make the gale play into his hand. He had noticed that pedestrians paused often when these winds displayed the mysteries of the slit skirt and the silken stocking. The feminine mysteries disclosed seemed to please the men and

The next day the wide awake ad man arranged with a score of pretty girls and handsome dames to act as models. Elaborately costumed in the latest mode, they walked to and fro around the corner advertising the wares within. Needless to say, it drew a crowd. It was said that a daintier display of half hose and rainbow hued petticoats was never seen in Paris than on this corner when the ad I wa brought the zephyrs to his

A Valuable Asset.

The safest asset a manufacturer can have is a fovarable opinion of his article held by those who have tried it. The more people who hold it the better for the manufacturer. Such a man is to be envied; his plant may burn, his salesmen may leave, his competitors may cut, his jobbers may desert, but none of these things can destroy the good-will toward a good article which resides in the minds of pleased

o ce. You will need them when uel J. Hand, or write or phone at my casionally. It will help you and the Phone No. 126 J printer, too, Auction.

Jane C. Miller and Chas. G. Miller aving sold their farm will sell at public auction on the John Myers station 12 mile west and 2 miles north of Genos village Tuesday, Feb 3, commencing at 12 o'clock sharp, the following property: Bay horse 17 years old, 2 shoats, 2 Osborne eapers, Osborne mower, Walter A Wood mower, Johnston self binder, hay rake, two-horse cultivator, onehorse cultivator, combination wagou with high wheels and truck wheels, 2 lumber wagons, 2 democrat wagons, covered buggy, runabout road wag on, long sleigh, heavy platform democrat wagon, buckboard wagon, road cart, heavy bobs, set pleasure bobs, democrat pole, 2 heavy double harnesses, light double harness, heavy breeching, light single harness, 2 LeRoy plows, Osborne tedder, land reller, 2 hay riggings, horse forks, ropes and pulleys, 2 grindstones, wheelbarrow, corn sheller, hammock frame holder, fanning mill, grain bage, set heavy steelyards, balance scale beam, capacity 500 pounds, 28 ft. ladder, about 150 fence posts, 30 po tato crates, caldron kettle, several cords of chunk wood, quantity of small tools, whiffletrees, forks, har ness parts, etc. Large quantity of household goods, 2 12 ft. extension tables, 8 couches, bureau, 7 bed steads, springs and mattresses, 5 feather beds, pillows, 3 carpets, 2 chunk stoves, cook stove, washstand, dishes, chairs, sausage machine, mirrors, lamps, paper rack, kraut cutter, kitchen pump and pipe complete, kitchen sink, rug machine, 2 water separators, 3 ft. step ladder Stephen Myere, auctioncer, W. H. Hoskins,

J D Todd, assignee and E. J Smith will sell at public auction at the Smith farm, 4 of a mile north of Five Corners, Monday, Feb 9, at 12 o'clock, sharp, 4 horses, one Way gasoline engine, Kelley duplex grinder, 30 in buzz saw, Deering mower, Deering binder, corn har Cyphers incubator, harnesses, etc.

Charles E Upson will sell at public auction at his residence, 1 mile south and 1 mile east of East Genoa, Wednesday, Feb 11, 1914, commenc ing at 12 o'clock sharp, 2 horses, 7 head of cattle. These are choice dairy cows consisting of grade Holsteins, Galaway and Guernsey, 2 year old bull, full blood Durham, large quantity of farm tools. C D. Robinson, auctioneer Stphen Myers, auctioneer.

$4 shoes, $8.40 at Knox & Knox.

Result of Regents.

The following is a summary of the results of the recent regents examinations held at the Genoa Union School The figures include only regularly on rolled pupils of said school

toned babus of si	ard action
	TRIED	NO	PASSED
Arithmetic	12		8
English elements	ry 6		2
Geography	11		5
E U S. History
with Civics	9		2
Spelling	4		0
Writing	- 2		2
Algebra	8		1
Biology	8		4
English 2	1		0
Latin 2	2		0

The standard in spelling has been raised. Beginning with the January, 1914 examination the minimum pass ing mark in spelling has become 80 per cent instead of 75 per cent as G F. Bakker.

$3 shoes, $2.65 at Knox & Knox.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfeld thanks to all our friends and neigh bors for their sympathy and kindness to us during the death of our husband and father. We also wish to thank all who sent flowers.

> Mrs James Turney. Mr. Leon Turney. Mr. and Mrs. Thos Turney. Mr. and Mrs. Leo McDermott

Men's Woonsocket boots, $2 98, Knox & Knox, Auburn.

Auctioneer.

Being employed wholly in Cayuga, Cortland and Tompkins counties, I am ready to answer all calls where my services are desired, and in this public manner solicit your business You may arrange dates at Peck's Old newspapers for sale at this Hardware Store, Genos, with Samyou clean house. 5 cents a bundle. expense to 107 W. Falls St., Ithaca, N Patronias your home printer oc. Y., or 17 Orchard St., Cortland, N. Y.

L. B. Norman.

IT'S EARLY, BUT-

Advance Style In Spring Millinery.

BLACK HEMP SMARTNESS.

There is every reason to believe that the small, close fitting hat has come to spend another season with us. All the advance spring models exploit this chic headgear. And, as to the height, the new hats exceed in altitude anything seen in this direction this winter. That's "going some!"

The new shapes, many of them, have what are called "revers"-that is, turned up flaps over high standing brims. This is the latest idea of a famous Parisian milliner:

The dainty creation pictured is of black hemp with a crushed straw crown and an exaggerated flare. The only trimming is a little bow of taf feta and two or three peonies attached to the flared brim.

Bedroom Daintiness.

In fitting up her dainty bedroom the bride will take stock of all the various draperies and hangings that have been me one whispers to her the newest idea in fittings and hangings that are most appropriate and, indeed, most pretty under any conditions, and then she will hang her windows, cover her dresser and her bed and her boudoir pillows, canopy her mirror with all over embroidery-yes, just machine embroidery-ruffled with an edging to

The bride will find that there are ever so many designs in all over embroideries that suggest appropriateness for hangings-little running sprays, eyeleted effects and conventional pat-

The daintiness of the an white will make a ready appeal, especially as these are the sort of materials that launder like new. If color is wanted it may be added in an underlining that will give a tint through the sheer fabric of the eyeleting.

In Foulard and Charmeuse. Foulards promise to be popular again this year, particularly when combined with dark satins or taffetas. The little frock in the cut shows a novel arrangement, the dark satin being introduced in the blouse by means of collar and

AN ATTRACTIVE MORNING PROCE.

Girdle Tunice. A clever way to bring into style a vet, wrapped high around the figure with a bow and sash ends at the back with a full and accordion plaited tunic is black and fined with the satin, the in Genos. color of the tunic, which shows in the C. J. Foster, Collector of Town of Genos. windows have been arranged so They will BE cheap but they want to way of pipings and little tabs.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

For Sale-Yellow three-seated top wagon reversible seats, nearly new; black three seated canopy top wagon, nearly new; 5 passenger Ford auto; 2 Daniel O'Herron, work horses. Ledyard, N. Y.

For Rent-House east of Genoa village; also 20 acres of land to work on shares. Emma Atwood Sisson.

Lost-Small black dog with white spot on breast, about 9 months old; part blood hound; last seen in Genoa Palmer, Five Corners.

For Sale-Entire herd of Grade

Shoemaking and repairing at "old shop" next to Nettleton's market, Genoa. First class work at living

Wanted - Pork, veal, beaf, fat sheep and lambs, also all kinds of poultry and butter in jare at Ellison's Market, King Ferry, N Y rille. Only competent man with good references O A Scott, Ludlowville

For Sale or Rent-Farm of 150 scree, in town of Venice, 2 milewest of Myres crossing. B B. Riley

For Rent-The two Chase farms, one mile west and one mile north of King Ferry. Will be rented together or separate, for money rent. Inquire of J. D. Atwater or C G Chase, King Ferry, executors.

For Sale-House and lot in Genoa relegated to her estate from time to village, situated on North St., known time without end. She will not be as the Thayer place; good barn and fully delighted with any of them until large building for shop or storehouse. R. D 22

> More milk, better cattle and horses saured by adding Pratt's Animal Regulator to the feed. It regulates digestion, bowels and prevents disease or your money is refunded. J. S. Banker, Drugs and Books. 3784

> The mill property formerly owned by Fred Mann for sale. Inquire of cres, 120 acres tillable land, all seed ed except 14 acres. 10 acres wheat in ground, buildings all remodeled and in fine condition, good water, fruit and fine location in town of Scipio, 12 miles north of Venice Center on creek road. Terms easy W. Pitt Parker. 25w4

Moravia, N. Y. side WA osher, King Ferry

Limited supply extra good eating potatoes, 75c per bu. while they last 25w7 E. G. Trapp, East Venice

Poultry and Pork Wanted every week. Live hene and chickens under 4 lbe., 12c; over 4 lbe., 14c Pork under 125 lbs., 111c; from 125 to 200 lbs , 11 cts ; over 200 lbs., 104c. Sell direct and make the agent's commis-

R. D. 5, Auburn, N. Y FARM FOR SALE-To close estate, the Isaac L. Smith farm of 52 acres will be sold, situated } mile east of Five Corners. Large part newly seeded to hay. Address all inquiries to Wilbur Bros., King Ferry, N Y

Try our New Process Buckwhes Atwater & Son, Genos

Highest market price for furs of all kinds, horse hides and beef hides

Cash paid for poultry delivered every Tuesday at Weaver & Brogan's

FOR SALE-The Ford residence on South St., in Genoa village. Inquire of Mrs. Ella Ford, 17 Grove Ave .

Collector's Notice.

Notice-is hereby given to the taxable inhabitants of the town of Genoa, Cay- the teaching of the open air school. uga county, N. Y., that I, the undersigned, collector of taxes in and for said town, have received the warrant for the collection of taxes for the present year, names have been sent in. Those and that I will attend from 9 o'clock in were selected who will be most the forenoon until 4 o'clock in the afternoon for thirty days from the date herelast year's dress is to add one of these of, for the purpose of receiving paygirdle tunics. They are made of vel- ment of taxes at the following places in in Esquimaux suits and especial said town, viz:

Farmers, Attention-Having pur chased the mill property formerly owned by R. Miller of North Lansing, I wish to make known to all customers that I am putting the mill in shape for doing all kinds of mill work, feed grinding, etc., and most heartily solicit your patronage. I mean business and have come to stay. Merritt Francisco

First it increases their appetite, then it adds flesh-strengthens the bones-makes them sturdy, active and healthy. No alcohol or narcotic in Scott's Emulsion, just purity and strength.

All $4 50 rubber boots, $3 98, Knox & Knox, Auburn.

Market to rent. Inquire of Mrs. Mary Sill, Genoa. 27w2 village. Finder please notify J. W. Palmer. Five Corners. 27w1

Jersey cows—some fresh, balance to freshen soon; also Thoroughbred Jersey bull. H. M. Roe, Locke, R. D.

Farm to Let-250 acres at Lansing-

N. J Atwater, Atwater, N. Y. 25w4

Farm for Sale-Containing 126

For Sale-New milch cow, calf by

Write or phone S. C. Houghtaling.

Flour. It is the cheapest and best.

14tf Weaver & Brogan, Genoa

Wm. Ferris' store, Five Corners, Tues- day lunch which will be prepared day, Jan. 20, Atwater's store, King Fer- by Miss Louise Montgomery, do-The tunic is made of satin in black ry, Wednesday, Jan. 21, Peck's Hardand various colors to make a contrast ware, Genoa, Thursday, Jan. 22, and to the gown. The velvet girdle as a rule the balance of the time at my residence Women's Union. The room will Dated Jan. 7, 1914.

ll Growing Children are dependent on nourishment for growth. Their health as men and women is largely established in childhood. If your child is languid, bloodless, tired when rising, without ambition or rosy cheeks, Scott's Emulsion is a wonderful help. It possesses nature's grandest body-building fats so delicately predigested that the blood absorbs its strength and carries it to every organ and tissue and fibre.

Cut Prices on Clothing.

I am cutting prices on all Suits, Overcoats and Sweaters for Men and Boys, as my stock at this time of the year is larger than ever before, owing to the open fall, and I must sell the goods to make room for Spring Goods. Kindly call before you buy elsewhere, as you surely find good bargains at my store.

¶All those who did not respond to my request to settle their bills by Feb. I, are kindly requested to call and do so by Saturday, Feb. 7.

M. G. SHAPERO. Genoa Clothing Store.

Mrs. De FOREST

will hold a Sale commencing MONDAY, FEB. 2, and continuing to SATURDAY. FEB. 14 on ———

> Wool and Fleeced Underwear, Outing Gowns and Skirts, Ladies' Flannel Waists. Children's Dresses, Sweaters.

MRS. DeFOREST DAVIS King Ferry, N. Y.

Also a big reduction on Hats.

J. G. ATWATER & SON Genca, N. Y. Dealers in Lumber, Cosi, Feed. Farm Implements, Etc.

-Orders have been issued by the state department of Public Swearing Off Works, for the removal of the steamer "Frontenac" which has shown above the water at Dill's Beach, south of Farleys, ever since the burning of the steamer nearly seven years ago - Unless removed at once the hulk will be sold to the

-A room in the Fulton street school, Auburn, has been set apart for the use of the open air school to be opened in that city Auburn, N Y Feb. 9. Miss Gertrude Harrison has been secured as a teacher for the class. She is at present a teacher in the Fulton street school. but will surrender her services to But fifteen pupils can be accom modated at present, although 150 benefitted by the open air treatment. The children will be dressed attention will be paid to the noonmestic science teacher at the practically be in the open as the highest bidder.

that they operate on a pivot.

A Bad Habit

is better than SWEARING AT a bad business. For example, if you are using cheap looking stationery, now is the time to swear off on it.

Begin the year right by telling us to print some handsome Letter Heads, Billheads, Statements, etc., for you. LOOK so.

······· Village and Vicinity News.

-Bank report in this issue.

-A Brutus farmer paid a fine of $10 for selling diseased meat to an Auburn market recently.

······

-Mr. Thomas Armstrong has returned from a short visit at the home of his son, Fred Armstrong, in Rochester.

-Mrs. Fay Reas, daughter Paul ine and son, Carl Reas, returned Monday afternoon from a few days' visit in Cortland.

-- E. H. Sharp has hired Lewis Howell to assist him on his farm this year. Mr. Howell and family will occupy the tarm house,

-- The annual ball of the Genoa Fire department for the benefit of the Fire Associaton, Inc., will be held on Thursday evening, Feb

Get one of those eight-day clocks ior $3.00 at R & H P Mastin's. Big line of Umbrellas at special sale prices at R & H P Mastin's. -The Moravia High school basket ball team will come to sion 15 cents.

Mrs. Stearns will hold dancing school every Thursday evening at the rink, Genoa. Beginner's class 8 to 9 Hop from 9 to 12

-The Ithaca - Auburn Short Line Co., is filling its icehouse at Woods Mill, Scipio, from the mill pond at that point. The ice is used to pack the milk car that goes daily to New York.

-Earl F. Keefe, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, has been much worse for the past few days. Dr. L. W. Heazlitt of Auburn was called yesterday in consultation with Dr. Willoughby.

-An error was made in the date of the collector's notice for the town of Genoa. It should have been dated Jan. 7 instead of Jan. 15. Taxes will therefore be collected at 1 per cent. until Feb.

Big line Flannelette and House Dresses just received at R & HP church next Sunday at II o'clock, following. Preaching by Mr. Scott. All are cordially invited, and both the church service and and the Sunday school should be largely attended.

-M. G. Shapero was in Syracuse Monday to attend the graduation of his daughter, Miss Ethel Shapero, from the Central High school of that city. The exercises were held in Lincoln hall in the High school building in the evening from 8 to 10. Miss Shapero has finished her four-year course in High school at the age of 16.

was taken into custody Thursday Teeter. He is said to be a deserter tery. from the United States Army. He was located at the home of Samuel Harris who resides on the Locke Genoa town line road He was taken to Auburn, and Friday morning was taken to the U. S. Army post at Oswego. The arrest of the alleged deserter means a reward of $50 for Deputy Sheriffs Walker and Teeter.

article concerning the death of Kansas, copied from the Ottawa Herald of Jan. 15, 1914 Mrs Moe was the widow of Mortimer M. Moe (a cousin of Mrs. A. Lan terman of King Ferry) and came tember, so as to be with her aunt. goods. Just think it over.

-Miss Charlotte Bush is caring ing for Miss Maria Algard at Five spending a few days in Auburn Corners established in this village in the Robert Armstrong near East room on the second floor of the Genoa, last week Wednesday. Fire Association building.

-Mrs. Hugh Halsey of West with her daughter, Mrs

H Springer of Moravia has been Lansing, formerly owned by the appointed by Speaker Sweet on the late R. Miller, and will put it in Assembly committees on Railroads, shape to do all kinds of mill work. Banks and Penal Institutions.

Pieces, furnished for Weddings, Parties or Funerals. Leave orders at Hagin's Grocery.

-Mrs. Stearns wishes to form a children's class at Genoa, Thursday afternoons from 4:30 until 6, 25c a lesson. Also private lessons in the new dances. adv.

-- Mrs. H. L. Bronson, who is very ill in the Ithaca hospital where she underwent an operation last week, was reported Tuesday evening as a little better.

Make your wife happy by giving her one of those restful Gasoline Sad irons at Hagin's

-Benj. A. Arnold of Seneca Genoa Friday evening, Feb. 6, and Falls spent several days last week play against the Genoa High at the homes of his daughter, Mrs school team, at the rink. Admis Clarence Lewis in Genoa, and his son, Byron Arnold in Venice.

> -Mr and Mrs F. Ray Van Brocklin are expected home from Ithaca to-day to spend two weeks, held at this time.

Nice assortment of Toilet Sets at special prices at R & H P astin's

-- At the social session of Genoa Star Lodge next Wednesday evenhis illustrated lecture on Panama. lodges have been invited, and a announcement will be made. buffet lunch will be served.

--District Deputy and Past Grand Master C J. Foster and staff of Genoa installed the officers states that Judge Richard W. of the Ensenore Lodge of Odd Brass, brother of the late Rev. W. Fellows of Auburn last Friday C. Brass, of Dryden, died Tuesday evening in their rooms in the Cay- evening at his home in Albany uga County National Bank build-has been feeding thousands of wild Dryden, Jan. 5 -Services at Presbyterian ducks near the south end of Cayuga lake in the vicinity of that Genoa will hold a donation at the with Sunday school immediately city for some time. There are also church on Tuesday evening. Feb. a large number at the other end of 3, for the benefit of the pastor's the lake at Cayuga, which will salary. The social which the probably have to be fed.

> Shoemaking and repairing at "old shop" next to Nettleton's market, (Friday) evening, has been post-Genoa. First class work at living

-Mrs. William Akin of Moravia died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Fitts, in that village on Monday, after an illness covering several months. Her age was 65 years. Surviving are her husband and daughter and grandson, Harold Fitts, now a Brown University The funeral -Fred C. Harris, aged 37 years, was held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the place of death, ot last week by Deputy Sheriffs Rev. Plato T. Jones officiating, Thomas M. Walker and Fay with burial at Indian Mound ceme

-Henry Farnharm, who robbed the ginseng beds of E. G. Trapp of East Venice early in December, was last week sentenced in Supreme Court to spend not less than fifteen months nor more than two and one-half years in Auburn pris on. Florence Whitmore of Moravia and Carl Derby, who were indicted by the recent grand jury -In this issue may be found an on a charge of adultery, pleaded guilty and were given suspended Mrs. Adelaide T. Moe of Ottawa, sentences and placed in care of Probation Officer Wallace.

Big line silk skirts at sale prices for ten days at R & H P Mastin's.

every man and woman in the coun- day, the receipts were $93,324 90 to Lake Ridge in 1849, a bride, try reads a paper? And do you and resided there and at Five realize that they look at the bar-Corners several years. There are gains offered in the advertisements hand of $2,530.15. The road which doubtless many of the older resi- with even more interest than they has been in the hands of the redents in that vicinity who remem show for the other news? If you ceivers for the past two years, has ber her. She was much interested do, why do you hesitate about put. been rapidly picking up and a numin the establishment of the Episco- ting an advertisement in the daily ber of improvements are scheduled pal church at King Ferry. Her great or weekly paper? Advertising to be made when when it is sold on niece, Miss Adelaide Krotts of pays every time but it must be March 6. It is expected that the Ludlowville, took a position in the done constantly and you must same parties who purchased the public schools of Ottawa last Sep- back up your advertisement with Ithaca Street Railway a short time

-Miss Mary Waldo has been this week.

-- Mrs Rachel Sanford spent a Groton, is spending some time few days last week with Miss Al-Burr gard at Five Corners

-Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. -A reading room is about to be Wm. Warren were guests of Mrs

-- Merritt Francisco has purchas--Member of Assembly Charles ed the mill property at North

-The Morse chain, manufactured Beautiful flowers, in Bouquets or in Ithaca, will be used in the Panama Canal, to transmit power in the opening and closing of every one of the big safety locks in that great waterway.

> -Miss Mary Sellen has resigned her position in the Union Springs High school and left Saturday for the home of her sister, Mrs. Claude Sellen, at Shelby, Ohio, where she will spend some time.

Subscribe for The Tribune.

which has been in course of con block east of the old station.

-The State convention County Superintendents of Highways will be held in Albany on Feb. 3 and 4 and Superintendent as Mr. Van Brocklin will have a day he will deliver an address on on Feb. 22, which are both holi. Town Highways."

to have "Go-to Church Sunday" The Five Corners and Poplar Ridge others in the campaign. Further Dickens, Horace Greeley, W. T.

All $5 rubber boots, $4 25 Knox & Knox, Auburn.

-This week's Dryden Herald No further particulars had been learned. He and his family at--State Protector Vann of Ithaca tended the funeral of his brother in

- The M. E. society of East society expected to hold at the home of Arthur Saxton this poned indefinitely, on account of the illness of the little daughter.

-Senator Charles J. Hewitt of Cayuga county has introduced into the State Legislature bills pro viding that a county system of highways be established in Cay uga county under which roads may be improved at the joint expense of county and towns and for the adoption of a county map. The measures also provide for the employment of convict labor within 30 miles of any State prison.

-A Woman's Suffrage Conference and School will be held in Ithaca Feb 9-13 It will be interest to the women of eight counties - Tompkins, Cortland, Chenango, Otsego, Delaware, Broome, Tioga and Schuyler-comprising the sixth campaign district of New York State. Mrs Carrie Chapman Catt and other leading workers for the cause will address the meetings.

Come to Knox & Knox great closing out sale, Auburn. Many bargains.

-- According to the figures given out by the New York, Auburn & Lansing Railroad receivers before -Do you realize that almost Justice McCann in Elmira Tuesbetween Sept. 1, 1913, and Jan. 1, 1914, and a balance was left on ago will buy the Short Line,

Do Your Eyeglasses

or spectacles ever meet with an accident? Do they look like they were ruined?

It is some comfort for you to know that not much difference what happens to them that we can repair them.

We know the spectacle business from A to Z, repairing is only one of our strong Ever break a lens? Save the pieces. We will do the rest.

We duplicate any lens, regardless of where you bought it.

A. T. HOYT,

Leading Jeweler & Optometrist, MORAVIA, N. Y HOYT BLOCK

-Hon S Edwin Day entertained a company of relatives at dinner Tuesday, lan. 20, his 74th birthday - Moravia Republican.

-The annual state convention of Universalists was in session in Syracuse three days this week. A plan for a state wide awakening was submitted which provides for services in 90 churches during the tour weeks beginning Feb. 9. -The new station of the New each of these churches five meet-York Central Lines at Rochester, ings will be held to quicken the spiritual and social and financial struction for about three years, life of the denomination. Local was opened to the public last week. pastors will be assisted by promi-It occupies a triangular site one nent clergymen from other cities and five singing evangelists who will travel about the state.

-February is the month of birthdays to be observed by the Dayton will attend. On the first Feb. 12, and then Washington's, the youthful mind is Valentine's -The churches of Auburn are day, Feb. 14. Many persons of note, who participated largely in on Feb 22, and other churches in history-making the world over, PRESERVES-Rich and Sugary. the county are planning to do like- first saw the light of day in the this village will join with the being a partial list: Charles Sherman, Wm. Henry Harrison, David Dudley Field, Lydia Maria Child, Susan B Anthony, Henry Watterson, Joseph Jefferson, Thomas A. Edison, Bishop Vincent, Victor Hugo, Longiellow, D. L Moody.

Ithaca Auburn Short Line

New York, Auburn & Lansing R. R.

In Effect Dec. 28, 1913.

NORTH BOUND-Read Up STATIONS SOUTHBOUND-Road Down Daily Daily Daily Daily Daily Daily Daily Except Sun. Except Sun. AUBURN 8 59 6 20 1 45 4 59 8 30 11 09 8 44 Mapleton 10 54 4 44 6 35 8 45 8 56 2 00 8 33 4 33 4 24 Merrifield 10 43 2 11 8 24 Venice Center 10 34 6 55 2 20 9 05 GENOA 4 09 8 99 9 20 7 10 2 35 3 58 7 58 10 08 7 21 North Lansing 2 46 9 31 South Lansing 7 45 3 45 9 55 7 40 3 00 9 50 3 15 ITHACA 9 20 3 25 8 05 10 15

Additional Trains between Ithaca and Rogues Harbor leave Ithaca 7:30, (daily excep Sunday) 12:15, (Sunday only) 2:00, (going on to South Lansing) 4:40, and 9:30 p. m.

Returning leave South Lansing for Ithaca at 3:45 p. m. daily. Also leave Rogues Harbor at 8:05 a. m. (daily except Sunday) 12:50 (Sunday only) 5:15 p. m., daily, and 10:05 p. m. Saturday only.

HAVE YOU HEARD THE STORY OF "The Five P's"

We will tell it to you-Part of it will dazzle your eyes-Some of it will tickle your palate And the rest—water your mouth.

public. First comes Lincoln's, on PRIMROSES-Hardy-Healthy, Perfect Bloomers.

POTTED FERNS—Graceful and Fresh.

vacation during the examinations the subject of "Convict Labor on days. Of no less importance in PICKLES Sweet, Sour and Mixed. In bottle and bulk. They're Heinz-Nuff Sed.

ing, Gordon B Springer will give wise. The Presbyterian church of month of February, the following PEAS The best yet Several varieties.

Try 'em French Style-They'll taste like more.

Up-to-Grocery, GENOA, N. Y.

Call and Get PRICES DURING OUR CASH SALE ==

BIG DISCOUNT in the following:

Carpets, Rugs, Linoleums, Oilcloth, Shades, Lace Curtains, Draperies, Couch Covers, Table Spreads, Dress Goods, Underwear, Hosiery, Shoes, Rubbers, Trunks, Suit Cases, Shawls, Cloaks, etc.

Velvets, Silks, Poplins, Cord DeLuxe, Pique, Ratine, Cloakings, Eiderdowns, Dress Trimmings, Sweaters, Rose Blankets, Quilts, Rain Coats, Bath Robes, Outings, and Bed Spreads.

Yours for More Business.

Robt. & H. P. Mastin Genoa, N. Y.

POWER ABOVE ALL

Gospel of Jesus Christ Supreme Now as It Was in the Beginning.

HAME goes through the world with bowed head and a furtive step, and shrinks from notice. Shame is the acknowledgment of some inferiority or defect, mental, moral or physical. Pride is an upward looking quality, and though it has been listed as one of the seven deadly sins, get it is proper that a true man have pride in that which is praiseworthy.

In St. Paul's day the Hebrews were a proud nation. They were proud of their religion, of their wonderful history, of their great men such as Abraham and Moses, of their city of Jerusalem and its magnificent temple: Their pride would not allow them to have any dealings with their own cousins, the Samaritans, because they had intermarried with the Canaanites.

The Greeks were a proud people in those days! They were proud of their learning, of their mellifluous language, and of their classic literature which we study after all these centuries. They were proud of their works of art which have never been surpassed, if equaled, and they were proud of their general culture and polish, and they looked upon other nations as barbarians.

Defied Greatness of Rome.

The Romans were a proud nation in Paul's day. They considered it the highest honor to be a Roman citizen, and, in fact, Paul speaks of his own citizenship as a matter of no small importance. Rome had eclipsed Egypt, had absorbed Greece, while Palestine was only an obscure province in a corner of the empire. Rome also had its great men-orators such as Cicero and Hortensius; poets such as Virgil, Horace and Ovid; historians such as Tacitus and Livi; generals such as Caesar, Pompey and Titus. Men from the provinces were overawed by the city's greatness and glory, and felt that indeed all other places were inferior, and that here dwell not only riches and pomp, but this expense is attached to the garalso culture and wisdom and power.

Paul understood all this; and yet he would stand in the forum and say. I am not ashamed of the gospel of and workmanship, especially is this Christ: make the most of your city, the case in garments were only one of of your institutions and laws, of your a kind is shown. The woman who Hterature, and your world-power buys early of course pays for the country with our small beginnings, he did not feel ashamed of being an American. But he appealed to the future and said that America would give to the world men to match her boundless plains, men to match her great rivers. men to match her snow-clad peaks which rear their heads into the sky. Even so Paul appealed to the inture to prove that though Rome's power was great, yet it was puny compared with the power of the gospel of Jesus,

Gospel Supreme Over All. Since that day nineteen centuries have come and gone. The cospel has performed great exploits, its empire has grown far beyond the borders of ancient Rome, and it is difficult to believe that there ever was a time when any strong man was ashamed of roseste with glorious associations of power of God unto the salvation of the newspaper at the time when the three sides. mankind. It has never dwelt in thieves' dens or brothels, it has never filled jails or poorhouses, or fostered schemes of vice or avarice. Evil men have often used Christianity as a cloak, to cover their wickedness, and many crimes have been committed in the name of the gospel, but after all these centuries it remains pure and unsullied as it came from the life and the lips of Jesus of Nazareth.

Yet are there not some today who call themselves Christians and yet go about the world apologetically, always ready to deny their allegiance, and would never stand up and say in the face of ridicule, "I am not ashamed of the apspel of Christ." What poor specimens of humanity they are; neither flesh nor fish! There were some people like that in Laodicea of old, and to them the risen Lord said: 'I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot; I would that thou wert cold or hot. So because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my Sweetest Things of Life.

The best things are nearest: Breath in your nestries, light in your eyes, flowers at your feet, duties at your hand, the path of God just before you. Then do not grasp at the stars, but do life's plain common work as it comes, certain that daily duties and daily bread are the sweetest things of life.

A night's sleep, what a miracle of as a style authorative and he must mercy it is; and a new day with the sell his goods before there is a chance waking up of health to face it; aye, even a pleasant meal with one's household, is not that worth a thanksgiving? Or an interesting book, an neur with an old friend, a Sunday's quot fest-ing after a trained and weary week, or some new light of interest or meaning in one's favorite line of study-it is such things as these for more than great special blessings, which make up the sum of happy life; and it is such things, if one would but think of them more, and not always be taking them a stock clean and do away with ace a matter of course, which would fill.

Herford.

Advertising Talks

REACHING WOMEN

GARMENT BUYERS

Newspaper Without Doubt the

Best Medium for Dealers in Women's Apparel.

There should be behind every retail advertisement that is published a continual force to build up the prestige of the store. No matter how well an ad is written if the readers have no confidence in the advertiser

the results are small. In the ladies ready to wear business, besides a repuation for veracity every store strives to be considered an authority on style.

Women like to buy at a store where she can say with pride "I bought my suit from-" she knows her friends will realize that it is correct, if that

The newspaper is without a doubt the best advertising medium for the adies' clothing store, it gets where the fields is fertile, into the very heart of the home, it is a constant reminder with its daily fashion hints that styles

change, it takes its place with the various periodicals devoted to woman's dress and the live display by pictures or wording the identical goods as pic-

Paris and Berlin are the recognized enter from which styles emulate.

American made garments are almost ntirely adoptions from foreign styles.

the color schemes and cloths. Like rtists in every other profession, their services are high priced. Thus high sums are expanded in getting the tyles before the retailer-of course

ment and we find in many instances the cost of producing a style almost is great as the cost of the material

here is the woman who wants cloths or cut of the garment providing it is proper merchandise is on hand that

The man who writes the ads for the ready to wear store must have a thorough knowledge of human nature,

he must be a salesman, he must know how to appeal in a direct way to the woman he wants to reach, he must have a thorough knowledge of the advertised garments and the ability to present them correctly. Women are, as a rule, well posted on what is correct in fabrics, colors, and styles and even a slight mistake in an ad will tten prove a blow to the firm's prestige. Personal service-the display of as brought out in advertisements is one of the serious problems with which the ad man must grapple. For this work to show results, patrons must receive the same courteous treatment, which he advertises. Results of advertising from the merchant's view is judged by the volume of sales and too often results are poor because of the scent relations existing between

The American woman is quick to grand anything new. Naturally, stocks deteriorate in value very quickly and on account of the more or less delicate nature of the fabrics or trimming's garments become shop worn in a short time. The merchant has two motives for moving his stock quickly.

he must continually show new styles to uphold his prestige and reputation

Garments that after a reasonable time haven't been selected by the more exacting women are advertised in such a way as will appeal to the woman to whom a price reduction is an inducement. To accomplish this,

the advertiser has recourse to many headlines for his ads, such as "Specials," "Sales of Sangues" "Stock Ac-finting Sales " ole Bales of this character are absolutely necessary to keep the ad man and sales force.

of them being unfit for sale.

te same spirit by the selling force go d texture and in neat styles.

most direct nature.

tract these buyers.

will appeal to them.

store has her confidence.

tured by these authorities.

HOME

MODEL HOUSES; SMALL COST

Idea Evolved in New York That Seems to Have Tremendo is Possibilities.

Homes that workingmen can purchase at a total cost of 83 cents a day are about to be built in Queens, says. the New York Sun. Plans for 150 such buildings have been prepared and for them there are already 600 applicants. The idea is that of Dr. Joseph Caccavajo, a civil engineer and authority on housing problems, who has the co-operation of several of the large industrial concerns recently located in Long Island City. The scheme is not a philanthropic one, but has for its object the making of profits while supplying workingmen with livable homes at low cost.

Doctor Caccavajo, discussing the scheme, said that he proposes to construct two-story brick, stone or hollow tile houses of the type familiarly known as Philadelphia houses, containing six rooms and bath, which the wage earner can purchase on the same: basis as though he were paying rent. These houses will be far superior to the best types of England, Belgium has been given to the proper housing cause a man suicides occasionally by opening meeting. One of the stew-There is greater power in Christianity. atyles, but she has the satisfaction of of the workingmen. Cottages will plunging into the river would you dry ards was leading him to the place refor it is the power of God unto salva- knowing that her clothes are not left range in price to meet the incomes of up the streams? Yet because some served for him on the platform when When Nathaniel Hawthorne over Styles change over night, and purchasers and it will be possible for fool drinks himself to death, your he was recognized, and immediately first went to England and contrasted on account of the quick changes and workingmen to buy homes for a price temperance fanatics would stop the cheers rang through the hall. Quite the cathedrals and museums and man- the dispatch with which goods must be as low as 68 cents a day, which with manufacture and sale of liquor." sions and literature of the mother handled the advertising must be of the taxes, water and fire insurance, will Strange as it may appear, there him, he said apologetically: "No doubt bring the total cost up to 83 cents.

Copy must be written that not only The only conditions to be exacted there are still "good temperance peoescribe properly the clothes but must are that those purchasing the houses ple," who argue for the regulation of Iso appeal to the woman who buy shall be of good moral character; that the liquir traffic on just such grounds. clothes of that character. For instance they have been steadily employed for We reply: If stopping the manufache ad for a new fac or novelty that a period of not less than five years; ture of guns would increase the hapis designed for the miss or young lady that their present employers recom- piness of the home, if it would reform be written in terms that will at- mend them as men or women who cany and transform our social and political be depended upon to meet their chillife as would stopping the manufactin 1869, looking for diamonds. He Several classes of buyers must be gations; that there shall be at least ture of liquor, we should certainly be catered too at different times of the one, and preferably more children to found among the foremost advocates gren. There is the woman who has certain tites of what she wants, usu- health of the members of the family rope-selling would give this country was a small stone, and the prospector By the newest and most extreme, shall be good.

cular regarding the color, material, ated a demand for homes for workers. ocw, but to whom the price of the houses. They will be one family garment is a big factor and there is al- houses with at least three bedrooms, a Christianity. Looking backward we so the woman who looks at the price living room, kitchen and bath. The the cospel. It has always been the en can be spoken to directly through semi-detached type, with gardens on

BEAUTY OF SMALL PARKS WASTING OUR VITAL ASSETS.

Well for Growing Cities to Make Provision for This Necessity of the

In cities the range of vision seldom ascends beyond the first story of the buildings aligning our streets. It is smack of nature afforded by a study of then, create natural scenery in the scribed by the demands of traffic and every day of the year. influences, must be forced upon otherwise purely artificial city scenes. This is possible only through small neighborhood parks, street trees and planted parkings, no matter how narrow and ribbon-like the latter may

Municipal Art Not Crochet Workhasn't much time for a formerly common conception of civic art. He says: "So long as art is regarded as a ownized. Civic art is too often under- Signed, Minister of Finance." stood to consist of filling our streets with marble fountains, dotting our squares with groups of statuary, twining our lampposts with wrighling acanthus leaves or dolphin's talls, and our buildings with meaningless banches of truit and flowers fied up with impossible stone ribbons."

City to Honor Designers.

IF CHICAGO CLOSED SALOONS.

The dire calamity that would befall Chicago were its 7,200 saloons to be closed, and the 20,000 men engaged in the liquor business in that city were to be thrown out of employment, is constantly being urged by the advocates of personal liberty. In an open letter to the Chicago Tribune, John A. Shields, organizing secretary of the Progressive national committee. makes the following pertinent reply to the argument:

"If these saloons were closed, employment would be furnished to those engaged in the salcon business and as many more, in the new channels of trade opened up by the money that is now invested in the saloon business.

"The making of a car of wheat into bread will employ seven and one-half times as much labor, and pay better wages, than the making of an equal amount of grain into beer, and the finished product will make happier men and women and better citizens. The United States census bulletin of manufacturers for Connecticut, recently issued, shows that $1,000,000 invested in the liquor business employs day called to her desk a boy with 101 men; the same capital in the hardware business employs 522, in the silk business 467, in woolen goods business 527, boots and shoes 494, and had no idea for what offense he was so on down the list, proving conclusively that if this money now tied up in the liquor business were put into ished, "now we'll see whether you will any one of the 150 leading industries make up faces at your mother the next it would employ from three to eight times as much labor.

"This same report shows that $100 invested in the liquor business pays back annually $7.50 in wages; in the hardware busines it pays back $28, gress of medicine first met in London. in the silk business $19, in the woolen Pasteur was the most distinguished of business $26, in boot and shoe busi- the foreign delegates present. With

AS WE SEE IT.

with his woes shoots himself once in his arrival invitations were addressed facture of guns? Because a man reau of the congress, but no one called hangs himself now and then would for these, and he was not seen till he and Germany, where so much thought you stop the selling of rope? Be- entered St. James' half to attend the

are still citizens of this republic the Prince of Wales is arriving. I ach family and that the general of that policy. If the prohibition of found a man who had a diamond. It and the whole world such an uplift offered him £10 for it, but he refused The first group of buildings will be as would the prohibtion of drink-sellbuilt in Long Island City, where the ing, we should certainly be anti-rope There is the woman who is not so pars growth of industrial plants has cre. advocates. If drying up the streams would result in good to every man. asked. That group will contain about 150 woman and child; if it would add to human happiness, and decrease crime, pauperism and insanity; if it could be shown that it is in harmony with behold the atmosphere of history and quality only, taking style into lib cheaper houses will be built in rows the Divine plan and purpose in the tle consideration. Each of these wom- and the more expensive will be of the evolution and redemption of the race. we should say unhesitatingly, dry up the streams. So would every other friend of humanity.

Society accepts as a matter of course the fact that physicians urge measures and promote schemes which tend to prevent disease and therefore in large measure reduce their own incomes. A medical practitioner employed methods to spread disease germs would not only lose all profestherefore evident that many people, if sional standing, but would be branded confined night and day to commercial by society as devoid of conscience and centers, would not see even the little human feeling. Yet with strange in by the postcard yo' got yestiday thet consistency we permit and license or casual look at the sky. We must, in our midst an institution which in order to increase its revenues sows city or at least reproduce nature as the seeds of disease, corruption and far as lies in our power when circum- death among the youth of the nation

TEMPERANCE IN RUSSIA.

Although the liquor traffic in Russia is a government monopoly, many. men in high positions are doing their best to lessen its evil results. The national duma has had a special committee appointed to consider the drink question and suggest remedies for the Raymond Unwin, the greatest of intoxication that has grown to an English architect-town planners, alarming extent. This committee recommended that on every bottle of vodka there should be a label with the following inscription: "Man! Altrimming, a species of crochet work though thou hast bought this spirit, to be stitched in ever-increasing quan- yet know that thou drinkest poison tities to the garments of life, it is vain which destroys thee. Before it is too to expect its true importance to be rec- late, never buy another bottle .-

GREAT MOVEMENT.

The temperance movement is one of he greatest of our time-a movement by which the people will gain self-reliince and self-control. The final aim is nothing else than the most complete possible liberation of our people from he destructive effects of the use of alschol. That nation which is first to ree itself from the injurious effects of ory of Frederick Law Olmsted, the sleohol will thereby attain a marked elder, and Calvert Vaux, who designed idvantage over other nations in the Central park, the New York Car club amicable yet intensive struggle for exis fostering a movement to trick a stence. The Crown Prince of Swe-

Fallibility of the Eyewitness. When Professor F. C. Dockeray, in the psychological department of the University of Kansas, got into an altercation one day with the janitor, who entered the classroom and insisted on sweeping while Dockeray was lecturng, a number of students rushed to ris rescue. The affair grew into a free for all fight, during which the fanitor, who had drawn a revolver, was overpowered and disarmed. As a ourly student grasped the pistol a shot was fired. As soon as order was somewhat restored the frightened and fleeng students reassembled and accounts were taken from them of the affair. All the students swore they had heard the shot, and several told of seeing he smoke from the revolver. Then Professor Dockeray told them it was in experiment, a fight had been planred carefully, and the shot of the revolver was from the outside of the by a student posted there. The purpose of the experiment was to show the unreliability of information, even when furnished by an eyewitness.

One of the Family.

Boarding round, as the old time district school teacher did, was not always an unmixed joy, but occasionally, writes Sophie E. Eastman in her book, "In Old South Hadley," teachers were able to administer needed discipline by reason of their intimate knowledge of the family life of their

There were some teachers who did not need the usual injunction to "make yerself to hum." Miss Mary N. one whose widowed mother she was then boarding. She gave him what she called "a good ferruling," although he being punished.

"There," she said when she had fintime she tells you that you are to have hasty pudding and milk for breakfast!"

Pasteur's Modesty.

In 1882, when the international conhis usual anxiety to avoid publicity. he came over accompanied only by his son and son-in-law and took rooms in "Because a man weighted down Clarges street. For ten days before while, would you stop the manu- to the famous Frenchman at the buunconscious that these were meant for ought to have come sooner,"

Bargain Hunting.

An amusing story is told in connection with the early days of Sir J. B. Robinson, the South African millionaire. He was crossing the Vaal river asked the natives if they had seen any "pretty stones," and at last he to part with it. He increased his offer to £12, but still the man refused. "What will you take for it?" ne was

"Twenty goats," was the firm reply: 'nothing less.'

"I sent off to the nearest farm," says Sir J. B. Robinson in telling the story, "and bought twenty goats for £7 10s. and so got possession of my first diamond."-London Globe.

Well Posted.

The old man who acts as postmaster in a small southern town likewise keeps a general merchant's shop. He is often accused of reading the postcards that pass through his hands, but this he strongly denies. A lady called at the shop and ordered, among other goods, a ham and a cheese. Two days later the lady called again and asked why these two articles had not been sent with the other goods. "Oh," replied the merchant calmly, "I saw yo' friends wasn't comin', so I nachelly thought yo' wouldn't need them things."-Argonaut.

Difficult State of Mind.

"We're all fretted up," remarked Three Fingered Sam, "since Bronco Bob got engaged to the schoolma'am." "I should think a tender sentiment would improve his disposition."

"His disposition is improved, but it's uncertain. If you don't brag about what a purty gal the schoolma'am is he feels disappointed, and if you brag too much he gets jealous."-Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Giving Him Room. "The orchestra is too crowded."

"They will have to sit tight." "But the trombone player hasn't oom to work his slide." "I can't give him any more room laterally. I'll cut a hole in the floor If he likes."-Kansas City Journal.

Felt Like It. "Did you come back on an all steel

"When the walters and porters fiuished plucking me I felt sure that it was."-Birmingham Age-Herald.

Boston Transcript

Blissful Ignorance. He-They say he has more money than he knows what to do with. She-All, such fenerance must be blissi-

Never despuir, but if you do, work on in despair.—Burke.

LEGAL NOTICES.

Notice to Creditors, Notice is hereby given that all sons having cialms gains, the esta chiles Longstreet, late of the or Venice, Cayuga Count N. Y. dec are required to pro the some vouchers in support thereof to the vouchers in support thereof to the vouchers in support thereof to the volume of Venice, County of Cayuga, on or Dated Jan. 7, 1914

RACHEL CHASE

Notice to Creditors. By virtue of an order granted by the Surnogate Cayuga County, notice is hereby given all persons having claims against the estate of Samuel J Bates, late of the town of Venice. Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with vouchers in support thereof to the undersigned, the administrating of &c., of said decessed at her place of residence in the town of Venice. County of Cayuga.

N. Y., on or before the 36th days for Cayuga.

Y., on or before the 26th day of June, 234,
Dated, December 9, 1913.
SARAH M. BATES, Administrating. Strart R. Treat, Attorney for Administratrix, 2 Temple Court, Augurn. N. Y.

Notice to Creditors.

By virtue of an Order granted by the Surro-gate of Cayuga County, Notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of Hannah Marja Raymond, late of the town of Genoa, Cayuga Courty, N. Y., deceased, ar quired to prese t the same with voncher support thereof to the undersigned, the exe of, &c. of said deceased, at his face of it dence in the city of Aub in 37 Essterly a County of Cayuga, on or before the 1st day

Dated August 26th, 1913.*
E. BYRON WHITTEN

Notice to Creditors.

In pursuance of an order made by Hon, Hull Greenfield, Cayuga County Judge, on the 6th day of January, 1914, Notice is hereby given to all the creditors and persons having claims against Ida E. Smith and Earl J. Smith, lately doing business as farmers in the town of Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y., that they are required to present their claims with the vouchers thereto, duly verified to the subscriber, the duly appointed assignee of said Ida E. Smith and Earl J. Smith for the benefit of their creditors, at his place of residence in the Town of Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of March, 1914.

J. Delbert Todd, Assignee. Dated, Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y., January 6, 1914.

A. J. & F. A. Parker, Attorneys for Assignee, 410 Metcalf Bldg., Auburn. N. Y.

J. A. Spaulding, D.D.S.

Preserving the natural teeth our specialty.

Fillings, gold, porcelain, silver and gold inlays. Crown and bridgework just like the natural teeth.

Plates that fit.

Vitalized air for painless exi tracting. Write or phone for appointment.

Bell 57-J. Miller 90.

ON THE BRIDGE, MORAVIA.

Blacksmithing and Repairing.

WM. HUSON, Genoa, N. Y.

Madam, Read McCall's The Fashion Authority

McCALL'S is a large, artistic, hand-s-mely illustrated 160-page monthly Magazine that is adding to the happi-ness and efficiency of 1,100,000 women each month

Each issue is brimful of fashions, fancy work, interesting short stories, and score of labor-saving and money-saving ide-for women. There are more than 50 of the newest designs of the celebrates MCCALL PATTERNS in each issue. McCALL PATTERNS are famous for style, fit, simplicity and economy. Only 10 and 15 cents each,

The publishers of McCALL'S will be thousands of dollars extra in the commonths in order to keep McCALL's in and shoulders above all other when magazines at any price. However, McCALL'S is only 50c a year; public worth $1.00.

You May Selast And Con Franch Care from your first copy of L. MAL . subscribe quickly. THE McCALL COMPANY, 236 West 27.

TE-Ask for a fact to a class. term calclogue also iree co

If You Are a Trifle Sensitive

About the size of your shoes it's some satisfaction to know that many people can wear shoes a size smaller by shaking Allen's Foot Ease into them. Just the thing for dancing parties, and for breaking in New Shoes. Sold everywhere, 25c. Sample free. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

HERE is one thing that is almost as sacred as the marriage relation-that is an appointment. A man who fails to meet his appointment, unless he has a good reason, is practically a liar, and the world treats him as such.

TOOTHSOME CHRISTMAS DISHES.

For the young people many of the rich foods that are served at this time are entirely inappropriate, and a few simple desserts and puddings will be used for them. Here is one that is warranted to be reliable:

Grape Juice Souffle.-Mix together a pint of grape juice, a third of a cup of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of granulated gelatine, Stir until dissolved; set the pan into hot water and the process will be hastened. When the mixture begins to thicken, stir in the whites of four eggs beaten stiff. Half fill small molds, then add a cup of heavy cream beaten stiff to the remainder, and fill the molds. Chill and serve without a sauce.

Drop Cookies .- Cream one cupful of butter and add gradually one and a half cups of sugar, then add three eggs well beaten. Dissolve a teapoonful of soda in one and a half tablespoonfuls of hot water, add to the first mixture, with two cupfuls of flour mixed with a teaspoonful of cinnamon and half a teaspoonful of salt; then add one cupful of chopped walnut a fourth cupfuls of flour. Drop by spoonfuls two inches apart on a buttered sheet and bake in a moderate

Almond Cookies.-Cream a half cup of butter and add a half cup of sugar creaming well together, then add one egg well beaten, one-third of a cup of blanched almonds finely chopped, the grated rind of half a lemon, two tablespoonfuls of orange juice and one of vanilla, two cupfuls of flour sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a half teaspoonful each of cinnamon, cloves, and nutmeg. Roll and cut with a round cutter. Bake in a moderate oven until delicately brown.

Another Frozen Pudding.-Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of granulated gelatine in a half cupful of boiling water. Cook together a cupful each of sugar and water until it forms a thread. Add this sirup to the beaten yolks of three eggs, beat until cool, then add the gelatine, fold in two cupfuls of whipped cream, then add a half cupful of sultana raisins, a cup of mixed nutmeats, freeze, and when partly frozen add a half pound of candied fruits chopped, and soaked in vanilla.

e's heart young like sympathy, like some worthy thing or cause. -John Burroughs.

SOME NICE SEASONABLE DISHES.

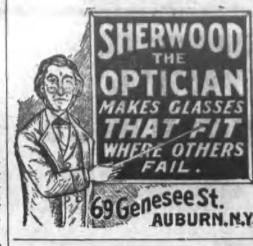

Holiday Sandwiches.-Chop fine one small sour pickle and six olives, add a tablespoonful of capers and mix with three tablespoonfuls of stiff mayonnaise. Spread thin slices of bread with butter, and put the above mixture on half of them and the remainder spread with cream cheese; sprinkle paprika over each slice and press together. Cut in fancy shapes and garnish with parsley. Cranberry Jelly .- Wash a quart of berries, add half a pint of water and cook for ten minutes briskly. Press through a sieve and add one pound of a few minutes closed the book. sugar, stir over the heat until the sugar is dissolved; bring to the boiling point and turn at once into a mold. Let stand over night and it will keep its shape.

Fruit Cake,-Mix one pound of seedless raisins, one pound of currants, and one pound of shredded citron, flour then with half a cupful of flour. Beat ten eggs without separating the yolks from the whites; cream one pound of butter, add one pound of sugar, and when well mixed add the eggs and a pound of flour. Beat well and add one teaspoonful each of cinnamon and allspice, a half teaspoonful of cloves, one nutmeg grated, and the rind and juice of an orange and a lemon. Beat well, then stir in the floured fruit. Turn into tin molds lined with waxed paper and steam

Queen's Plum Pudding-Mix together a pound of raisins, a pound of currents and half a pound of orange peel, dust with a quarter of a pound flour. Chop a pound of beef suet, sift three-quarters of a pound of dry bread crumbs, chop half a pond of blanched almonds, mix with the fruit, add the grated rind of a lemon, half a pound of brown sugar and half a grated nutmeg. Beat five eggs, add half a pint grape juice, mix and pack into molds. Steam ten hours. Steam one hour be-

nellin mountle

The Thrice-A-Week Edition OF THE New York World

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly

No other Newspaper in the work gives so much at so low a price.

The great Presidential campaign wil soon begin and you will want the news accurately and promptly. The World long since established a record for impar tiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice -Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It wil he of particular value to you now. The Thrice-a-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor. markets, cartoons; in fact, everything tha is to be found in a first-class daily.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD' egular subscription price is only $1.00 pe year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE meats, one cup of raisins, and one and GENOA TRIBUNE together for one year fo

The regular subscription price of th wo papers is $2 00

over fifty years have held the confidence of careful writers and are considered THE BEST.

> Many different patterns for all styles of writing

Samples of Leading Numbers sent on receipt of 2 cent stamp.

SPENCERIAN PEN CO., 349 Broadway, New York.

Mother Gray's Sweet Powders tor Children.

Relieve Feverishness, bad stomach, teething disorders, move and regulate the bowels and are a pleasant remedy for worms. Used by mothers for 24 years. They never fail. At all druggists 25c. Sample free. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy N. Y.

Hospitable Anyway.

When Jones called on the Browns with an important message last night he had no umbrella. It was raining pitchforks, and he was soaked to the skin. Mrs. Brown was sympathetic and hospitable.

"I couldn't dream of letting you go away like that!" she cried. "You must come in and get dry and have some supper."

"Never!" demurred Jones. "I am soaked through and couldn't get dry. And I couldn't sit down at your table in these clothes."

"But Mr. Brown will lend you a suit." "Wouldn't do. I'm twice as big as Brown."

"Well, he'll lend you two suits. He has a-plenty-come in!"-New York Globe.

Bluntly Told.

A good story is told of the childhood of a noted singer. As a little girl she went to stay with a lady who gave her the family portrait album to look at. She turned the leaves quickly and in

"Don't you like it, my dear?" the lady asked.

"Yes, very much," said the little girl politely, adding, "We've got one at home, only the pictures are prettier."-Exchange.

Plain Evidence.

"It is wrong for an old man to marry a young fool."

"But how is he to know that she a fool?"

"When she says yes to his proposal. Right then he ought to know it."-Houston Post.

Sarcastic.

He-Look at this infernal bill. You know I can't afford it. Now, I'm going to give you a piece of my mind. She-Are you quite sure you can afford three hours; then bake one hour in a that, papa, dear?-London Opinion.

Zigzag Lightning.

That lightning flashes appear to zig-Jug is an optical illusion, according to a German scientist, who says the effect is produced by the eyes twitching when flashes occur.

Strands In a Spider's Thread.

A spider's thread is really composed of four smaller threads, each of which consists of 1,000 separate tiny threads, so that the web we see is spun of 4,000 threads.

Our duty is to be useful, not according to our desires, but according to our powers,-Heuri Frederic Amiel.

Search

By REV. PARLEY F., ZARTMANN, D.D. retary of Extension Departmen

TEXT-Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Psalm 129:23-24.

There is a way of life that transcends all others. more delightful as we go on in it. and more blessed at the end-it is the way everlasting. Here the Psalmist prays that he may be led in such a way, and that such heart - searching will take place that he may not miss that way. The Christian will pray this prayer, should pray it daily; for, conscious of his fellowship with God, he would have it proven and would have taken from him everything hindering such fellowship. But the sinner will pray this prayer, he must pray it. In his case, consciousness of God as revealed here leads to terror because of sin and desire for forgiveness, acceptance and cleansing. The Christian sees how far short he is of the glory of God and his cry is that nothing may interfere with complete conformity, and for this he needs faith, justifying and sanctifying. In addition, the sinner needs saving The coat is cut on Norfolk lines, and faith before he finds his feet in the first steps of the way everlasting. Note the steps by which the sinner comes to this cry-Search me.

Divine Omniscience.

God knows me, and knows all about me (vs. 1-6). Every movement, every thought, every word, every way-all backache, tired arms and blistered known to the God with whom I have hands as well as no dust. to do. He knows me thoroughly, and thoroughly, he knows all men conto him and an assurance of guidance a solemn warning and a call to repentance and faith. The truth of this part of the Psalm has a beautiful parallel in the epistle to the Romans: "For of him, and through him, and to him are all things." God knows my down-sitting and my uprising, he compasses my path, he has beset me behind and before, he is acquainted with all my ways. What can a sinner do in the presence of such a God but to say: Search me, . . . try me . . . lead me? And God will answer his cry. There emerges another reason for the sinner's cry: he cannot get away from this God (vs. 7-12). God is everywhere, not a mere power ruling in might and by laws really outside himself, but a personality distinct, separate, superior, and seeing all I do. "Thou God seest me." This everywhereness of God makes it a dreadful, an awful, thing to sin. "Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? Up into heaven . . . in hell . . . the uttermost put on something red. parts of the sea . . . darkness shall cover me . . . the darkness and the can I hide from him, or where can I sin that he will not see me? Yes, but this very God who knows all about us and who sees all we do, who dwells in the uttermost parts of the earth also can save to the uttermost. Thank God, he still forgives. Search me . . . try me . . . lead me.

I know not where His islands lift Their fronded paims in air; only know I cannot drift Beyond His love and care.

Once more the Psalmist sets forth a reason for his cry for searching-God is associated so intimately with his entire life, even before he himself had any consciousness. "Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them." "I am fearfully and wonderfully made." Man is a creature according to God's design, living under God's inspection and by God's power,

Search me . . . try me . . . lead me. This prayer is natural now. If you have never made it there is only one reason—you never have seen God in indicate for the maid the exact spots his holiness, power and might. When God searches he may find in you some way of wickedness-unforsaken sin, some unyielded room, some unloving spirit, some selfishness-but if you row and prejudiced in their ideas. It you in the way everlasting, a way about. It gives the relief of variety that shineth more and more unto the and often increases our appreciation perfect day. So, couple with this of the beauty of some particular piece. prayer, that other petition, "Create in Furthermore, the rearrangement of furme a clean heart, O God, and renew niture belps to develop the quality of a right spirit within me." Let your vital concern be, Is my heart right row prejudice. with God? for with him that is the supreme thing. Put your prayer into the words of that heart-song:

Oh, for a heart to praise my God, heart from win set free; A heart that's sprinkled with Thy blood,

A heart in every thought renewed, Perfect, and right, and pure, and good, A copy, Lord, of Thine. JAUNTY COSTUME.

Serviceable Suit For All Round Wear.

OF BLUE NAVY BLUE SERGE.

A blue serge suit fashioned in a jaunty manner is the most serviceable garment a young girl can include in her wardrobe for all round wear.

Illustrated is one of the prettiest models designed for the demiseason. the belt is drupped below the hips.

New Things In the Shops.

A new broom sweeps clean, but there is a newer one with a long handle and the brush part of fiber, which sweeps clean and does away with

There is a small fire extinguishing as if he had examined me minutely. appliance that inspires confidence in a "He knows all men, he knows all men | householder's breast and gives her the assurance that a small blaze could be stantly." This solemn truth may quickly and effectively overcome. It is awaken wonder and admiration in the a small nickel plated affair that holds Christian, it may be a great comfort a quart of fire extinguishing liquid and works on the same principle as a and well-being; but to the sinner it is youngster's popgun, spraying a blaze quite a distance away.

This device costs $7, but is well worth it in the feeling of security it gives dwellers in suburban places and apartments.

From fire to water is but a step, and for those who dislike overshoes in wet weather there comes a waterproofing fluid which when poured on, spread evenly and allowed to dry on a pair of shoes renders them waterproof. Applied two or three times during a season, this preparation makes the owner of the shoes wonderfully indifferent to dampness and overshoes. The price is 25 cents for a full sized can of the liquid.

Cure For Laziness. Are you lazy? All right. Wear something red and become full of en-

Are you feeling blue because of the inclement weather? Don't worry, but

The American Association For the Study of Spondylatherapy (whatever light are both alike to thee." What that means) at their annual meeting recently gave out a new cure for laziness. The cure is to wear something

The idea is this: The society has come to the conclusion that certain colors work on a man's nerves to such an extent that they control his destiny. For instance, a person who sleeps in a room papered in white is calm and collected. Likewise the man who wears a green eyeshade. The green has a certain effect on the retina, which in turn communicates the color to the brain, the result being that the eyes are soothed, and consequently the whole body is at peace with the world. Red, the society says, has a tendeucy to arouse any one wearing it.

Rearrange Furniture Often.

In some houses one enters the arrangement of the furniture never varies from year to year. In other houses the furniture is changed about every week or two. It may be easily judged which practice is the more agreeable and refreshing for all concerned. One woman is on record who actually stuck pins in the carpet on sweeping days to where feet of tables and chairs must be set again when the room was finished.

This was going to extremes, but there are many people who are just as narreally will to have it so, God will lead is a good thing to change furniture resourcefulness and discourages nar-

> Very Latest In Negligees. One of the latest fushions in negligees is the one that is made with a deep yoke of lace that extends in the old "Mother Hubbard" fashion to befolds fall in long, graceful festeons. The alcoves are in one with the yoke. which is lined with mousseline de sole.

Made Sure. Mr. Lloyd-George, the English states man, has been telling some stories bearing on his own unpopularity with his political opponents. One of the stories is about a man who was presented with a testimonia: The hero modestly deprecated the praises showered upon him.

"Really, I have done very little to deserve this reward," he said. "I saw the man struggling in the water, and as no one else was by I knew he would be drowned if I didn't save him. So I jumped in, swam out to him, turned him over to make sure that he wasn't Lloyd-George and then pulled him

Another story the chancellor tells relates to the recent unveiling of his portrait, the gift of some Welsh admir-

In the course of his speech the chairman of the meeting artlessly remarked that for some time past the attention of the subscribers had been occupied by the problem, "Where shall we hang Lloyd-George?"

To Thine Own Self Be True.

By thine own sour's law learn to live. And if men thwart thee take no heed. And if men hate thee have no care. Sing thou thy song and do thy deed, Hope thou thy hope and pray thy prayer And claim no crown they will not give Nor bays they grudge thee for thy hair

Keep thou thy soul sworn steadfast oath And to thy heart keep true thy heart. What thy soul teaches learn to know And play out thine appointed part, And thou shalt reap as thou shalt sow, Nor helped nor hindered in thy growth,

To thy full stature thou shalt grow. Fix on the future's goal thy face, And let thy feet be lured to stray Nowhither, but be swift to run. And nowhere tarry by the way,

Until at last the end is won, And thou mayest look back from thy And see thy long day's journey done.

-Pakenham Beatty.

"Very Remarkable Adder."

"Duncan McLaren, a Radical member of parliament for Edinburgh, brother-in-law of John Bright, a man mighty in figures, sued the Scotsman newspaper for libel." says J. Stephen in the New Witness, "He won his case and on the same day in the house by some serious slip two and two became five or more probably seven. Next morning the Scotsman came out with a leader. 'The highest court in our land,' it was written, 'has declared that we must not call Duncan Mc-Laren "a snake in the grass." We bow to its decision. But in the face of his speech last night in the house of commons we do not think that there is any tribunal that will punish us if we, as we now do, call Mr. McLaren a very "remarkable adder." "

Pleasant Greeting.

In a nearby city there lived a worthy old lady and her son John, who were once called upon to entertain a number of ladies at dinner during quarterly meeting. As John began to carve the broiled chickens he entered upon a flowery speech of welcome, but in the midst of his flattering utterances his mother, who was somewhat deaf, piped up from the other end of the table: "You needn't be praisin' of 'em up, John, I'm afraid they're a lot of tough old hens, every one of 'em."-Chicago News.

Real to Him.

Several years ago, when the late John T. Raymond was portraying the character of that famed optimist, Colonel Mulberry Sellers, he played a certain frontier town. In the play there was a famous trial scene. The jury chosen was composed of supers recruited from each of the cities in which they appeared. As the talesmen did not have to appear until the last act they usually enjoyed the carlier part of the performance from choice seats in the auditorium. On this particular occasion, when the district attorney was getting in some good hard licks on the defendant, Laura Hawkins, for the murder of Colonel Shelby and was denouncing the prisoner in scathing terms, one of the furors a typical yap, arose and, shaking his fist in the prosecutor's face and with much emotion, said: "Yes, she did shoot him, and it served him well right. I was down in them front seats and I seed it all."

The uproar that greeted this out burst killed the rest of the performance, and John T. Raymond, who was a famous practical joker himself, enjoyed the situation fully as well as the Audience.-Chicago Journal.

The American Girt,

A witty comment of President Cleveland on the American girl is recorded in "The Memoirs of Li Hung Chang." When the famous Chinaman was in New York he was talking with President Cleveland about wives in China and America:

"The president was seeking enlightenment, and so was I. He laughed heartily when I told him that if he were president of China he would have, as he has here, but one wife in full legal status, but that undoubtedly he would also possess a secondary. wife in each province or perhaps more. 'No, no,' he said, the tears of laughter running down his cheeks. 'But, come to think of it,' he continued, 'It takes low arm depth. To this the lower part | a man capable of managing sixteen or of the pegligee is draped so that the eighteen Chinese women to govern one American girl."

> That was a long while ago. The men now let the girls govern them.

HE JUST HAD TO SAY IT. It Wasn't His Fault He Was Forces in

This the Truly There is a true story about Rolland, the great electrician. Rolland had a fine opinion of himself, as have many competent men. After he had finished a hard task years ago for a big company, he sent his bill to the president. It was a good bill-for $10,000. It wasn't long before a check came. but it was a check for only one half the amount, and with it was a note sayfor saving some one from drowning. ing that doubtless a mistake had been made. It angered Rolland to think that any one should estimate his services at $5,000. He returned the check with a message that an error certainly had been made, as the president had suspected, and that the bill should be $25,000. Of course payment was refused and in time, as was inevitable, sult began. The great Joseph Choate examined Rolland.

"Upon what grounds," he demanded of the witness, "do you base this exorbitant charge of $25,000 for your services as electrician?"

"Upon the ground," replied Rolland, that I am the greatest electrician in the world."

Choate was astonished, and every one in the courtroom presumably shared the feeling. When Rolland left the stand a friend accested him gravely. "Oh, that was awful, Rolland," said he. "That was terribly conceifed to say you were the greatest electrician in the world." "I know it was," replied Rolland. 'It certainly was, and I felt like a cad sitting up there saying it; but, hang it. man, I was under oath."-American Magazine.

The Wise Life.

The great guiding landmarks of a wise life are indeed few and simpleto do our duty, to avoid useless sorrow, to acquiesce patiently in the inevitable.

Both Mad.

Brian was quite unaccustomed to the ways of society, but he had obtained a very good post as footman. The morning after taking up his duties his lordship rang for him and told him to ask her ladyship if she was "at home."

NO, TELL HIM; NOT TODAY."

"She is, sor," said Brian. "She's just gone into the drawing room." "Please do what I ask," said his lordship. Brian went timidly to the drawing room. "If you please, your ladyship, his lordship wants to know if you're at home."

"No, tell him, not today," "Bedad," said Brian, "they're both Witty Retort.

The Rev. Henry N. Couden, the blind chaplain of the house of representatives at Washington, had an idea at one time that he would prefer to be chaplain of the senate and went to see Speaker Cannon about it.

"What do you want to go over there for?" stormed the speaker. "The house is a flower garden and the senate is a graveyard."

"I know," replied the chaplain gently. "But one stays longer in a graveyard than in a flower garden."

Sided With Father.

"There is a little chap in our town." said the suburbanite, "whose father and mother have words quite frequently, and have them loud enough to be heard by the neighbors. The burden of their recriminations when audible is, on the wife's part, that she ever lowered the Hicks family sufficiently to marry a Stubbs, and on his part that he ever honored the Hicks family by allying it with the house of Stubbs, of the house went fishing. He had barely got his line into the brook when he heard his mother calling him.

"One day last summer the young son

"'There it is.' said he disgustedly: 'the minute the Stubbses begin to fish the Hickses begin to holler." -- Cleveland Plain Dealer,

Their Funeral Wadding Tour. Not long ago a north country viewr married an elderly couple at 11 o'clock. in the morning. At 3 in the afternoon his duties took him to the neighboring cemetery, where he met the same couple seated lovingly on one of the benches. "You see, sir," the husband explained, "my wife is a racal on for planture. I wanted to goo back to use work this arternoon, but th' missus and ow'd better anjoy ourselves to the rest sont Mark and the sent of the sent

Woman's World

Girl In the Early Twenties Wins $10,000 Literary Prize.

Photo by American Press Association. MISS LEONA DALRYMPLE.

If you were a young and ambitious story writer just beginning to get a footing in the literary world and should win a $10.000 prize for the best story submitted in a contest how would you feel? Happy? Well, I reckon that feeling would about cover the sensation, and It is exactly how Miss Dalrymple, the fortunate winner of a recent prize, describes her emotions when she heard the good news. "I wrote 'Diana of the Green Van,' " said Miss Dalrymple, "in six weeks. One evening while looking over a New York paper I saw the contest advertised, and I immediately determined to try for the prize. "For six weeks I was dead to the world and barely alive to my family and friends. Indeed, mother says she claims about half of the prize money as her share for keeping disturbing sights and sounds out of my life during the weeks I was scribbling."

Miss Dalrymple is a New Jersey girl, having spent most of her life in the city of Passaic. Her father is a prominent lawyer, a student and the owner of an exceptionally fine library. Miss Dalrymple attributes her literary tastes to the splendid opportunity her father's well chosen collection of books afforded her. At an early age she was turned loose in the library to browse among the books at will. Among the favorite authors of the young woman are William Locke, De Morgan and Jeffery Farnol, and of the older novelists she most admires Dickens, Thackeray and George Eliot. Stories for the prize winning contest were entered anonymously, and Miss Dalrymple sent in two romances. When the final sifting of manuscripts took place the judges did not know which of her stories to select as the winner. The story, however, which did not win out the publishers have kept and will bring out next year.

This is not Miss Dalrymple's first experience in prize winning. She has been the lucky one upon two other occasions, but the checks received were not nearly so large.

And, speaking of checks, Miss Dalrymple is a good little business woman and will invest most of her $10 .-000 in bonds and mortgages and will not use the money for Paris gowns, a trip around the world or a new motor-

This petite, blue eyed girl with a wealth of wavy golden hair, although a romance writer, has strong convictions. She believes in "votes for women," but at the same time she's a homey sort of person, a fine cook and a housekeeper of marked ability.

"A Friend In Need."

Few women have reached "an old age serene and bright and lovely as a Lapland night" without being called upon-not once, but many times-to dispense sage counsel to young men. Many a man in his retrospect of a successful life is glad to acknowledge what he owes to the words of an older woman, that were said in time to enable him to avoid an error or to prevent a repetition of the mistake he

It is a wonderful thing for the student absent from home, the beginner in business, the novice making his way in any career, to have one faithful voice, one attentive, sympathetic ear, wherein he may repose his confidence and be quite sure he will never be betrayed or disappointed. The tender memory of such a "guide, philosopher and friend" will never leave him. His life will be truer and nobler because he does not care to disappoint her.

Eleven Piece Shirt Waist Sets.

Shirt walst sets for the schoolgiri Who goes in for pretty novelties in small jewelry are of Florentine enameling on gold or silver metal. The combinations of shades are in wondrous tones of blue mingled sparingly with black, in green or rose with white and in mauves with grays.

The sets include eleven pieces-a half dozen aval shirt waist stude of moderate size, button cuff links, a hair's width larger than the study, an oval brooch measuring a trifle over an such in length, a circular topped hatpin and a square belt buckle with greak prougs and bare.

In the Family

New York twits Boston for her beans, Chicago for her pork, And both get back a merry crack At money mad New York.

St. Louis scoffs at Pittsburgh's soot, But Pittsburgh holds her own, Pausing to scan Missouri's man. Who always "must be shown."

While San Francisco mildly quakes And Philadelphia drowses Both fling their jokes at other folks, Though living in glass houses.

Twere harder to withhold our jest, Our free, good natured joking, Than for the west to take a rest Or Pittsburgh leave off smoking.

But let disaster strike a blow-

The cities stand together! Rivals, 'tis true, when skies are blue, They're one in stormy weather. So, Uncle Sam, do not mistake

Thy children's comments free. Our taunts and chaff are but a laugh, All in a family. -W. B. A. in New York Tribune.

COUNTRY GIRLS, 'WARE MAN WITH HORNS UNDER HIS HAT

And Leave City Soon as You Can, Advice of Woman Labor Commissioner.

Many persons attending the convention of the public employment officers in Chicago indorsed the instructions made out by Mrs. Nan Sperry, assistant labor commissioner of Missouri, for country girls who go to the large cities seeking employment. In the first place, Mrs. Sperry advises them to remain at home, but if they must go to the city she sets out rules for them to follow. Among these rules are the following:

If you must come don't ask any stranger for information.

Find a policeman, go to a police station for information or go to the Young Women's Christian association or some place that is known to you.

Have money enough at least for a Keep your money in your stocking. It is safer than a purse. Beware of the stranger who offers to guide you or carry your grip. Maybe he has horns under his hat.

Have some relative meet you if possible. Go back to the country as soon as you

"The greatest problem I have to confront in my work," said Mrs. Sperry, "is the task of coping with the country girls who come to the city seeking employment. Many have no notion whatever of the conditions they will be compelled to meet. We must in many cases become fairy godmothers to them."

NOW IT'S COUNTERFEIT MILK.

Manufactured From Powder Obtained by Drying Skimmed Variety.

The Indianapolis board of health charges that a number of milk dealers Buys and Sells Everything That The Indianapolis board of health in the city have been selling as the pure article milk which they manufactured. Milk sold at 8 to 10 cents a quart was made of milk powder, which costs from 9 to 11 cents a pound, each pound of the powder making one and one-half gallons of milk when mixed with so much water.

The milk powder is manufactured by drying skimmilk. The powder has much the same color as a can of glue. but when properly mixed with water the product looks and tastes like milk.

It was found that the cream from manufactured milk settled to the bottom of the bottles instead of at the top. The dealers told gullible housewives that the cream was so rich and of this statement is found in the schedheavy that it just naturally couldn't

Dr. H. C. Morgan, city sanitarian, says this is the way to detect counter-

Take the cream from the bottle and place your finger in the milk. If the product is cow's milk a trace of the the product is manufactured no trace of color will remain on the finger.

BOY SIX WEEKS IN SUBWAY.

Afraid to Go Home, Lived Under ground, Stole Out at Night For Food.

For six long, noisy days and nights little David Shapiro lived and slept in the New York subway. In a fit of anger he had stolen a gold watch and chain from his mother's bureau drawer and was afraid to come above ground except at night. He sold the watch for $5 and with the money bought subway tickets. At night he would venture above ground for cheese sandwiches. He took these back into the subway, where he ate them on the trains.

When the boy's money gave out he loafed around the block where his home is, and once he passed by the flat and looked up at the windows of his mother's room and couldn't help

It was just after that that his father caught him. He was put in charge of the Children's society.

Oil Spreading Bombs For Ships.

The use of oll for calming a rough sea has often been demonstrated. At present it is possible to spread oil only a short distance round a ship. A bomb for quickly spreading oil to a distance is now being experimented with by the German navy.

One Step From Station to Jail. Mrs. Floyd Vancourt of Tango, W. Va.) railway station to show where ton Star, the was from. Two policemen did Everything from a needle to a haythe "hesitation," then hitchykooed to stack is to be found listed in the genher side and turkey trotted her to jail. eral schedules. Needles, darning and

REI BULLER

JANUARY 30

The Last Two Days of our Sixty-fourth Semi-Annual

TEN DAYS CLEARING SALE

Everything, Every Item, Every Yard, Every Piece of Merchandise in Our Entire Establishment at Specially Reduced Prices on These Two Days.

Every Department offers as low if not lower prices than on its Special Sale Day.

Take advantage of these savings and Buy Now.

Rothschild Bros.,

UNCLE SAM AS MERCHANT PRINCE

One Can Think Of.

DOWN TO NURSING BOTTLES

Almost Seventeen Thousand Articles Are Specified In Schedule of the General Supplies Committee, From Which Purchases Are Made by Administrative Departments. Uncle Sam buys everything under the sun, even to nursing bottles. Proof

ule of the general supplies committee. Stationery and drafting supplies; hardware, metals, cordage and leather and saddlery; dry goods and wearing apparel; drugs and medicines; chemieals and reagents; laboratory, hospital appliances and surgical instruments; milk color will remain on the finger; if electrical engineering and plumbing supplies; lumber, mill work, packing boxes and building materials; paints, oil, glass and brushes; furniture and floor coverings; groceries, provisious and household supplies; forage, flour and seed; photographic supplies and special equipment; engraving, printing and lithographic supplies; fuel and ice; incandescent electric lamps; incandescent gas lamp supplies; motor trucks; typewriting and computing machines; electric service; telephone

> These are the general classifications inder which nearly every conceivable thing on earth is sublisted.

Services Which Can Buy Direct. Under the law and regulations all items scheduled by the general supplies committee, if in any part or quantity needed by any administrative department or bureau in Washington, must be purchased through the medium of the committee. Only the field services, such as the army, navy, revenue cutter service, postal service, internal revenue service, the various secret services, etc., are alout consulting the general schedules. Also, if an item is not listed on the general schedules, but that seems impossible, an administration department or bureau can get its own estimates and make direct purchases.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Newton is in charge of the general supplies. It was in the pursuit of in-to direct these affairs that he delved into this marvelous dictionary of com-Va., tangoed at the Parkersburg (W. merce, which is given in the Washing-sewing needles, engravers' and lithographers' work needles, surgeon's needles and other sorts of needles are marked down. Hay? There you find it against the cabalistic number 11,016, and there is nothing to prevent purchase in haystack bulk.

Apparently there is no real estate listed-the one item of barter really missing from the list.

If a person is taken sick there are medicines to cure all the ills that man is heir to. If that doesn't help the hospital is available, where all sorts of devices and instruments and materia medicus are to be found.

Coal, wood, ice and coke are listed. There is telephone service to be had from the same source. One can buy a typewriter, and for the expert and specialist in scientific endeavor, for the book lover, for any one at all with a fad or a fancy, the means to satisfy it are available.

An Endless List. You can buy an adz or ale or other alcohol for beverage or other purpose; alfalfa, an angle iron, an apple or an apron, bridle, saddle and spurs; arnica or court plaster for wounds; breakfast bacon or a bag; rubber and paper bands, bandanna and cotton and linen handkerchiefs; barley, wheat and oats; a basket or a button or a nursing bottle or some other sort of bottle, orthodox or unorthodox, for spirit containers or chemical experimentation and other varied uses; bromide and benzine, boots and boot blacking, books and blotters, chairs, chalk, carpenters' tools: carriages and whips. etc.; chains and chisels, chimneys, chocolate, dishes and dishcoths; cord, crackers, fascinators, fam. daga, flasks, gum shoes, chewing gum, fresn beef and furnaces, hammers and tongs and nails; borseshoes and hose; crowbars and fron and quinine; cameras and lanterns; soap, towels, toothbrushes, wrapping paper and cord: beef liver, milk, mutton and mutton tallow; neckties and gowns; ointments and unguents, paper and pins; paste, peaches, pens, pepper, pickles, pipes, pots, pumps, rat traps, revolvers and other arms; ribbons and laces; rings, rods. sarsaparilla, sansage, sauces and saucers; scythes and reapers; shirts and thread; soda, soda crackers; soda water, stamps, straw bats, razor strops, sunflower seed and other seeds; tape and taplorn; tooth extractors, tea. tags, tacks, tin cans, thyme, torches, automobiles and motor trucks; uniforms, varnish, vaseline, china, water colors, wire, yellow pine and zinc, lowed to make purchases direct with- and so on, and so on. Nearly 17,000 different articles are specified in the reneral schedule, and many have from one to a hundred variations of forms.

Kitchen Hint. An old plano stool will be found useful in the kitchen, as it can be adjusted to different heights,

Lost Anything? An Ad. May Fetch It Back

Saw the Practical Side. Ideas of advancement in South Amer ica are aesthetic, while in the United States they run along practical lines. As an indication of the uses to which capital has been applied in South America and the difference in temperament of the people of that part of the western world as compared with the inhabitants of the United States a story is told of a meeting between a Brazilian promoter and an American prospector at one of the new cities which have recently sprung up on the banks of the Amazon. The native pointed with pride to a pretentious opera house overlooking the mighty river and asked the stranger if the site was not superb. "Well," said the man from one of our western states, "I think it would be a mighty fine place for a sawmill."

The Varying Cost of Education. A certain Yale graduate, for many years a member of the faculty and always a close observer of the homo undergraduate, once (in a moment of exasperation, we take it) let drop a significant remark. The burden of the remark was that a majority of the students attending Yale ought to be taxed some several thousands of dollars a year in return for the privilege of attending college, while the remaining small minority should be paid double that amount for contributing themselves to the undergraduate community. Without doubt this observation, like the famous reports of Mark Twain's death, was slightly exaggerated. But it was not without its very considerable modicum of truth.-Yale

Always Busy. "And what do you do in the dull sea on?" we asked the fool killer. "What dull season?" exclaimed the

"Why, when the man who rocks the boat and the man who didn't know it was loaded quit operations. What do

"Oh. I get on the trail of the man who knows it all," replied the fool killer.-Cincinnati Enquirer.

His Modest Request.

A man once asked Thackeray to lend him 5 shillings, which he would convert into £20,000. Asked how, he explained that he knew a young woman with £20,000 who he knew would marry him if he asked her, but he had pawned his teeth and wanted 5 shillings to redeem them in order to propose effectively.

"That man who paid a fortune for a bogus rare book must be a very indignant bibliophile."

Two Kinds.

"Well," replied Miss Cayenne, "there are bibliophiles, and then there are what Josh Billings would have called 'bibliophools.' "-Washington Star.

Deed of Daring. "Have you 'Deeds of Daring?" inquired the lady in the book store. 'Yes, madam," responded the bright clerk. "There is a little pamphlet entitled 'How to Call Down the Jani-

Advertise in THE TRIBURS.

Report of the Condition of at Genoa, in the State of New York, at the close of business, JAN. 18, 1914.

RESOURCES. Loans and discounts_____$119,953.68 Overdrafts, secured and unsecured....-U.S. Bonds to secure circulation 25,000.00 Other Bonds to secure postal Bonds, Securities, etc...... 35,724.02

Banking house, Furniture and Fixtures

Due from National Banks(not 2,708.09 reserve agents) Due from approved Reserve Agents.... Cheeks and other Cash Items.

Notes of other National Banks.....500.00 Fractional Paper Currency, Nickels and Cents----3pecte_____ 7,985.70

9.905.70 Legal-tender notes...1,920.00 Redemption fund with U.S. Treasurer (5% of circulat'n 1,250.00

Total $218,291.31 LIABILITIES. Capital stock paid in .____ $25,000.00

1,039,37 penses and Taxes paid ... National Bank Notes out-24,000.00 standing..... Individual deposits subject

158,100.78 to check..... Demand certificates of de-3.857.91 Cashier's checks outstanding 284.86 Postal Savings Deposits Total $218,291.31

STATE OF NEW YORK) 8,8. County of Cayuga I, A. H. Knapp, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief A. H. KNAPP, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of January, 1914. William H.Sharpsteen, Notary Public. Correct-Attest:

E. A. Bradley E. H. Sharp, Frank E. Young,

Directors.

CHICAGO FLEXIBLE SHAFT GO.

179 Oblo Slove, Mozgo, St.

