H. E. ANTHONY, M. D. MORAVIA, N. Y.

Office hours 7 to 8:30 a. m., I to 2 p. m Bell 'Phone Special attention given to Diseases of the FITTING OF GLASSES.

DR. J. W. SKINNER,

Homozopathist and Surgeon, Genoa, N. Y Special attention given to diseases of wo men and children, Cancer removed with out pain by escharotic. Office at residence

J. A. SPAULDING DENTIST

On the Bridge. Both 'Phones. Moravia, N. Y.

E. B. DANIELLS UNDERTAKER Moravia, N.Y.

Telephone Connections for Day and Night Calls.

UNDERTAKING

WILLARD CUTLER

Embalmer and Funeral Director

Main St., Bell 'Phone

Miller 'Phone

J. WILL TREE, BOOK BINDING ITHACA.

FRED L. SWART, Optometrist.

South St. Masonic Temple, AUBURN, N.Y. Shur-On Eye Glasses.

FIRE! E. C. HILLMAN,

GENERAL FIRE INSURANCE

Levanna, N. Y. Agent for the following companies Glens Falls, The Home, Fire Association of Philadelphia, The Sun of London, The Queen, Royal of Liverpool and Fidelity Underwriters, also Windstorm or Tornado insurance at low rate. Regular trip every thirty days.

A Free Scholarship.

Any young man or woman who is a bona fide patron of this paper may secure free instruction in Music or Elocution.

The Ithaca Conservatory of Music, with the desire to stimulate the study of these arts, offers two Scholarships to applicants from each Congressional District of the State of New York, valued at $100 each and Niles. good for the term of seventeen the school year, September 16, 1915, in any of the following departments: Voice, Violin, Piano, and Elocution. These scholarships are awarded upon competition which is open to anyone before September 1, 1915.

you want anything, have lost if Sunday. found an article, make it known through a special notice in THE TRI- the Grange picnic held at Grange trip.

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each sucrheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great bloodmaker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and upbuild your strength.

every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

From Nearby Towns.

Merrifield.

June 23-A substantial iron bridge is being built on the highway between Merrifield and Scipio Center. Miss Effie Blair of Genoa visited her parents over Sunday.

E. J. Morgan and family spent Sunday with Prof. LeGrand and family in Union Springs.

Ruth Cuykendall of Auburn was recent guest at C. A. Morgan's. William Grant, Jr., has a new Ford. Mrs. Virtue Loveland is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Gould in Newark. Miss Hazel Gaston is spending the vacation with her grandmother in Union Springs. C. A. Morgan and wife were in Syracuse on business Thursday and Friday. Miss Iva Thurston of Cayuga is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Lola Gray is visiting in several places in Delaware and Sullivan counties and Wayne county, Pa.

Mrs. Jessie Fisher and daughter Edith and John Carter and family were guests of relatives in Auburn Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Neville is visiting her sister in Cato.

Mrs. Thomas Donovan, who has been ill with typhoid fever at the home of her brother, James Whalen, is on the road to recovery.

Gordon Jackson and family and Miss Ileane of Auburn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wheat, Sun-

Ensenore Heights.

June 23-Miss Bessie Hanlon is home for the summer vacation. She coming year.

Miss Amy Townsend of Auburn was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Coulling.

Miss Ruth Weeks of Auburn has come to spend the summer recess they are improving in health. with her sister, Mrs. H. V. Sawyer. C. H. Wyant is giving his house a Venice is doing the work.

Varick were Saturday night and Sunday guests at William Van-Duyne's.

Miss Clara Cook of Dryden was a recent guest of Miss Bessie Hanlon. Dannie Moore. Miss Gertrude Lester is in Syrause taking a course in vocal culture. William VanDuyne and wife attended the funeral of Mrs. Leslie Amerman in Owasco last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Manro of Auburn daughter, Mrs. Frank VanDusen.

summer school at Oneonta. garding the condition of Mrs. Eva VanLiew who recently underwent an operation in that institution.

a week's visit with her daughter in weeks beginning with the opening of new auto visited Edgar Pope and days at the home of the former's family near Groton, and relatives in daughter, Mrs. John Cummings. Auburn Sunday.

Sage.

June 21-The thirteenth annual satisfactory one. desiring a musical or literary educa- reunion of the Teeter family will be tion. Anyone wishing to enter the held at Ernest Teeter's Saturday, competition or desiring information June 26, at Davis station on the Short for the summer vacation from their should write to Mr. Geo.C. Williams, Line. The early morning car stops school at Oakwood seminary. General Manager of the Ithaca Con- there. There will be conveyances servatory of Music, Ithaca, N. Y., there to meet the 9:30 and 10:30 companied by Mr. and Mrs. Will cars at South Lansing station.

If you have anything to sell, or to Etna, West Groton and Genoa, hall North Lansing Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown called on Mrs. Brown's mother Sunday.

An Old Fashioned Recipe.

boys so well behaved that one day and they went as far as Chas. Egher mistress asked:

boys so well?"

"Ah'll tell yo', missus," answered Sally, "Ah raise dem boys with a Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands barrel stave, an' Ah raise 'em frequent,"-Everybody's.

Five Corners.

June 21-Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris and little daughter Virginia, all of Moravia, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank friends in Auburn, Syracuse and Corwin last Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Stevens of Willseyville is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Jump.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corwin and daughter Mildred spent last Thursday in Ithaca.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Moore, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Laselle Palmer and DeAlton Hunt motored to Watkins Glen and low, recently. spent the day.

Miss Delphine Gray, who is making her home with her sister, Mrs. Jessie Burrows, has recovered from day exercises in the evening. a very severe attack of typhoid fever. Dr. Gard attended her.

One hundred people attended the noon. The day was fine and the evening. The program was render-Genoa, Misses Ruth Haskin, Esther Ruth Minturn, Elvira Swayze and Atwater, Pearl Snyder, all from James Quigley. The solos by How-

Ladies' Aid society of this place is to Tait and others. be held at the home of Mrs. S. B. Mead next week Friday afternoon, the church, given by local talent and

Mrs. Wm. White has recovered the close. from her severe illness.

Several from here attended Children's day exercises at Lansingville Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Wager spent last Thursday with their daughter, will teach at Five Corners again the Mrs. W. W. Atwater and family at Fenner, who underwent an operathey have been able to make there in a year as their health has been quite impaired, especially Mrs. Wager. Their many friends are pleased that Fred Mann, the mail carrier, new coat of paint. Charles York of your scribe hustle to get the items family in Auburn. ready Monday morning, but we want Harry VanDuyne and mother of to keep the editor good natured.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Jump accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith and Mattie DeRemer motored to Watkins Glen last Thursday in company with

Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood Palmer of Ithaca spent Saturday night with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Major Claude and families.

Lewis Swift of Cortland took dinwere over-Sunday guests of their ner with Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer last Sunday and was a caller at the Miss Laura Lester will attend the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hunt.

Miss Bessie Hanlon returned to Very encouraging reports are re- her home at Ensenore last Saturday, ceived from the City hospital re- after teaching a very successful year

Mr. and Mrs. Worsell of Ludlowville spent Sunday with their grand-Mrs. Ettie Pope has returned from parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Barger.

Mrs. Thos. Nugent of Auburn and Mrs. D. J. Donnelly of Detroit, H. V. Sawyer and family in their Mich., have been spending a few

Miss Mattie DeRemer has closed her school at the Forks of the Creek The year's teaching has been a very

Masters Carl Goodyear and Howell Mosher are both at their homes here

Clarence Hollister and family, ac Ferris, Bert Corwin and family, Geo. Elmer Carter and family motored Snushall and family, Fred Mann and family and some others motored to Watkins Glen last Sunday. The day Several from this place attended was an ideal one and all enjoyed the > Mrs. Ed Barnes is entertaining a friend from a distance.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferris and Mr. and Mrs. Will Ferris started last Saturday to take a little trip in R. A negro mammy had a family of B.'s auto. The heavy rain came or gert's at South Lansing, Mrs. Jay "Sally, how did you raise your Smith and Mrs. Leons King attended the store in their absence.

> We print noteheads, letterheads and envelopes for the farmer or business man at reasonable prices.

Lansingville.

June 14-A new cement porch is being constructed at the church.

Mrs. Lida Reynolds is visiting other places.

Miss Burr was a guest of Mrs. Wm. Hamilton from Friday until Mr. and Mrs. Orlando White and Robert motored to Syracuse Monday, returning on Tuesday. Norman Grover and family of Ithaca visited his cousin, Floyd Gal-

Some from this place attended the Sunday afternoon and children's

Children's day exercises at Lansingville, June 20 in the evening. June 21-The Children's day exerschool picnic here last Friday after- cises were well attended Sunday children all enjoyed a good time as ed entirely by the children, and was well as the older ones. A very fine excellent. Four children received supper was served including ice certificates promoting them from the cream. Miss Muriel Barnes of Mo- cradle roll to the beginner's class in ravia and Miss Lydia Mason of the Sunday school: Berguene Tait, near Atwater station and Miss Mabel ard Gere, Naoma Stout and Anna Lockwood of Genoa attended the Moseley and the duet by Naomi Stout and Normi Rose were well applaud-The next business meeting of the ed, also the recitations by Berguene

An entertainment will be held in the 25th. A good attendance is de- others, on Monday evening, July 5. Ice cream and cake will be served at

Mrs. George Inman has been much worse the past two weeks. Mrs. W. H. Baker is in Auburn Ithaca for the commencement at Miss Clara Monday. visiting friends.

Mrs. Thad Brown is spending a few days in Auburn with Mrs. Floyd Atwater station. It is the first visit tion at the hospital there on Friday.

Atwater.

June 15-Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Atwater attended Pomona Grange in Weedsport Saturday. They spent Sunday and Monday with makes his trip in his fine auto. It makes daughter, Mrs. Chas. Lewis and > School closed Friday, June 17. The children were served with ice cream and cake.

> Mr. and Mrs. James Young have been entertaining company from Frank Highland was in Ithaca Monday.

Fred Mann motored to Ithaca Monday. He was accompanied by Palmer and borthers, John and Mr. and Mrs. Carmi Chaffee and Miss Ruth Haskin. Allie Palmer and family entertained company from Cortland this week-end. Mrs. Emery is spending some time with her daughter in Ithaca. Frank Flynn and George Smith are putting fresh coats of paint on their

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson and family are visiting the latter's mother in Auburn.

Wood's Mill.

June 21-Mrs. Fred Hart enter tained a company of young ladies in honor of her granddaughters-Mrs. Walter Perry of Scipio and Miss Georgia Hart of Rochester also the latter's friend, Anna Close of the same place. A bounteous supper was served on the lawn also ice cream and cake.

Arthur Merritt and wife spent Sunday with her brother, Joseph Hodson.

Mrs. Botsford spent Sunday and Monday with her niece, Angie Coy, returning to Auburn Monday night. Harold Johnson of Union Springs risited his sister, Mrs. Perry, over

Hard Work.

"I should think you would work nstead of begging for your living.'

"I do, mum." "You do? Then why are you ask ng me for money?"

"That's my profession, mum. But if you knew how hard it is to pry a for any case of Deafness (caused by dime out of some folks you'd never catarrh) that cannot be cured by ccuse me of not working."-Phila- Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for cir- let them be well attended. delphia Ledger.

Subscribe for the home paper to day.

Foplar Ridge.

June 22-Mrs. Sarah Haight is at her sister's, the Misses Gardener. Mrs. Louisa Foster has gone to Westerly, R. I., for the summer. Geo. Husted is driving a new Ford machine. Ray Painter was so unfortunate as to lose his horse. Miss Elizabeth Mosher is home from the Oswego Normal school. Mrs. Frank Whipple and her son Mrs. Kind of Merrifield is with Mrs. F. A. Peckham for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Volney Grinnell of Sodus and John Grinnell were in town last week. Prof. Partington of Oakwood ocbaptismal services at Ludlowville cupied the pulpit at the church Sunday morning. Mrs. Martha Beardsley of Auburn

Mrs. Elisha Cook. Mrs. Sarah Baker is visiting in Cortland. Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Wheeler celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Saturday, June 19. About 25 members of their family last week. were present. A sumptuous dinner was served by Cateress Koon of visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kibler at Auburn. The decorations were yellow and white roses. The occachildren and grandchildren of the Turney.

'bride and groom." John Grinnell has sold his house and lot to Wallace Anthony. Newton and Dorismon Hub, sons

the summer with Amos Searing. Miss Fay of Geneva is visiting Mrs. Amos Searing.

Miss Henrietta Ely returned to visited Mrs. Maria Lanterman and Cornell last week.

North Lansing.

June 21-It seemed for a time on Saturday that the picnic was spoiled. Friday and spent the day at Auburn, Great preparations had been made. It being his 81st birthday. It stopped raining but too wet to go to the woods, but they came to the ing a few days with her grandhall in crowds. Three long tables mother, Mrs. James McDermott, at were spread and all had a good time Genoa.

and the rain did much good. the cemetery on Sunday at the bur- held on Monday, July 5, instead of ial of Ai Lanterman of Genoa. The on July 1, as announced last week. services were in charge of the There will be two ball games, athlet-Masons and were very impressive. ic events, music and other attractions, The casket was opened, and friends Father Payne of Auburn will give here had an opportunity of viewing an address. A large attendance is the remains. Ai had many friends expected and a good time is assured

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson

Tuesday. Children's day exercises on Sunday afternoon. Miss Cora Ross visited her brother, where she is a teacher. mother and Mrs. Julia Miller of Au- Hatch showed that the man's neck burn were callers at Mrs. Kate De- was broken. Mr. Fallon was 8) their auto. Our young people have just had another picnic to Forty-foot falls. The DeCamp reunion will be held Interment at King Ferry. on Saturday at the home of Mrs.

Kate DeCamp. We were greatly surprised on Sunday to hear of the very sudden death of Mrs. John Cobb of West Groton. Mr. Cobb has been sick for a long time and the doctor was there when Mrs. Cobb suddenly died. She was a sister of Benton Brown. One by one the family are going.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an interesting report of the State Suninflamed condition of the mucous day school convention held in Aulining of the Eustachian tube. When burn recently. Several others who this tube is inflamed you have rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing | church of Union Springs last Thursbut an inflamed condition of the day evening.

mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars choir during the summer. culara free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists 75c, Take Hall's Family Pills for con-them. They're giving satisfaction, too. Phone or write. stipation.

King Ferry.

June 22-Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Cotten of Savannah are spending several days with Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Perry. Mrs. Cotten will remain.

Ray C. White and Dayton Atwater motored to Rochester last week Thursday.

Eugene Bradley spent a few days last week at Newark, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tilton and daughter and Miss Lillian Bower all of Genoa called on the former's mother, Mrs. M. Tilton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, accompanied by Miss Dottie Cummings, Clare Sullivan and Mrs. N. L. Miles, motored to Auburn Friday.

James Dickinson of Venice and William Beebee of Union Springs is the guest of ner parents, Mr. and spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dickinson.

> Mrs. George Hall spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. George Newman at Auburn. Mrs. Robert Baker of Aurora > visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Tilton, Mrs. May Kibler and son Ben are Ludlowville, Mr. and Mrs. John Connell and sion was a most enjoyable one and children of Genoa were over-Sunday will be long remembered by the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas

> Misses Eva and Margie McCormick of Mt. Morris have returned home for their summer vacation. Miss Clara Lanterman attended of Dr. Hub of Geneva, are spending the funeral of her brother, Ai Lanterman, of Genoa Sunday. G. A. Truman of Nashville, Mich., and William Truman of Ledyard

> Miss Genevieve O'Herron of Auburn spent Friday and Saturday with T. C. McCormick and family. Daniel Bradley walked to Genoa

Little Mabel McDermott is spend

The picnic of Our Lady of the A very large number gathered at Lake church of King Ferry will be to all. Mortimer King and Chester King and their children were in Ithaca on and families of Cleveland, O., were in attendance at the King reunion held on the lawn at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. Frank King, Saturday. On Saturday while at King Ferry Bert Ross, and family here, return-station, James Fallon, a life-long ing Sunday afternoon to Freeville resident of this place, was thrown from a wagon and died in a few Dr. and Mrs. Buchanan and moments. Examination by Dr. Camp's on Sunday. They came in years of age, and is survived by two brothers and one sister. Funeral services were held at Our Lady of the Lake church Tuesday morning.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES. Sunday: At 10:30 sermon to boys and girls; regular sermon on "Remember the Sabbath Day to Keep it Holy." Sunday school at 11:45, Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:45 led by Miss Ruth Bradley. Evening worship at 7:30. If we wish an evening service in the future let us express our wishes on this matter. The attendance has been rather small recently. On last Sunday evening we had a good service at which Mrs. Tilton gave a very attended added their contributions,

Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30. The pastor preached the installa-

Rev. Schourge in the Presbyterian No more meetings of the Sunshine tion sermon at the installation of

Two more Sundays before vacation:

Want a good toilet? Eagir. has

PENROD

By BOOTH TARKINGTON

Copyright, 1914, by Doubleday, Page & Company

"Well, hasn't this been a day!"

But in a little while a star came out, freshly lighted, from the highest part of the sky, and Penrod, looking up, noticed it casually and a little drowsily. He yawned. Then he sighed once more, but not reminiscently. Evening had come; the day was over.

It was a sigh of pure ennul.

Next day Penrod acquired a dime by a simple and antique process which was without doubt sometimes practiced by the boys of Babylon. When the teacher of his class in Sunday school requested the weekly contribution Penrod, fumbling honestly (at first) in the wrong pockets, managed to look so embarrassed that the gentle lady told him not to mind and said she was often forgetful herself. She was so sweet about it that, looking into the future, Penrod began to feel confident of a small but regular income.

At the close of the afternoon services he did not go home, but proceeded to squander the funds just withheld from China moon an orgy of the most pungently forbidden description. In a drug emporium near the church he purchased a five cent sick of candy consisting for the most part of the neavily flavored hoofs of horned cattle, but undeniably substantial, and sc. generously capable of resisting solution that the purchaser must needs be avaricious beyond reason who did not realize his money's worth.

contributed his remaining nickel to a ness, he placidly insulted his liver with jawbreaker upon jawbreaker from the paper sack-and in a surfeit of content watched the silent actors on the screen.

One film made a lasting impression upon him. It depicted with relentless pathos the drunkard's progress, beginning with his conversion to beer in the company of loose traveling men, pursuing him through an inexplicable lapse into evening clothes and the society of some remarkably painful ladies. Next, exhibiting the effects of alcohol on the victim's domestic disposition, the unfortunate man was seen in the act of striking his wife and, subsequently, his pleading baby daughter with an abnormally heavy walking stick. Their flight through

Equipped With This Collation Penrod Contributed His Remaining Nickel to

relative was shown and, finally, the drunkard's picturesque behavior at the portals of a madhouse

So fascinated was Penrod that he postponed his departure until this film came round again, by which time be had finished his unnatural repost and almost, but not quite, decided against textbook, but not studying, not even deeper in his seat, limply abandoned following the profession of a drunkard when he grew up.

Emerging, satiated, from the theater a public timeplece before a jeweler's shop confronted him with an unexpected dial and imminent perplexities. How was he to explain at home these hours of dalliance? There was a there was his father, always at home tion. One of the hardest conditions of of being.

for explanations of every natura, act. Proceeding homeward through the Penrod made up his mind in what in words the opening passage of his

"Now, see here," he determined to begin. "I do not wish to be blamed for things I couldn't help nor any other boy. I was going along the street by a cottage and a lady put her head out of the window and said her husband was drunk and whipping her and her little girl, and she asked me wouldn't I come in and help hold him. So I went in and tried to get hold of this drunken lady's husband where he was whipping their baby daughter, but he wouldn't pay any attention, and I told her I ought to be getting home, but she kep' on askin' me to stay"-

At this point he reached the corner of his own yard, where a coincidence not only checked the rehearsal of his eloquence but happily obviated all occasion for-it. A cab from the station drew up in front of the gate, and there descended a troubled lady in black and a fragile little girl about three. Mrs. Schofield rushed from the house and enfolded both in hospitable arms. They were Penrod's Aunt Clara and cousin, also Clara, from Dayton, Ill., and in the flurry of their arrival everybody forgot to put Penrod to the question. It is doubtful, however, if he felt any relief; there may have been even a slight, unconscious disappointment, not altogether dissimilar to that of an actor deprived of a good part.

In the course of some really necessary preparations for dinner he stepped from the bathroom into the pink and white bedchamber of his sister and addressed her rather thickly through a towel.

"When'd mamma find out Aunt Clara ed Cousin Clara were coming?" "Not till she saw them from the window. She just happened to look out as they drove up. Aunt Clara telegraphed this morning, but it wasn't delivered."

"How long they goin' to stay?" "I don't know."

Penrod ceased to rub his shining face and thoughtfully tossed the towel through the bathroom door. "Uncle Equipped with this collation Penrod John won't try to make 'em come back home, I guess, will be?" (Uncle John picture show, countenanced upon the was Aunt Clara's husband, a successseventh day by the legal but not the ful manufacturer of stoves, and his moral authorities. Here, in cozy dark- lifelong regret was that he had not en-"He'll let tered the Baptist ministry.) 'em stay here quietly, won't he?"

manded Margaret, turning from her they be able to forget one detail of the mirror. "Uncle John sent them here. four lithographs. The hand of Long-Why shouldn't he let them stay?"

Penrod looked crestfallen. "Then be hasn't taken to drink?"

"Certainly not!" She emphasized the denial with a pretty peal of soprance

"Then why," asked her brother gloomily, "why did Aunt Clara look sc worried when she got here?" "Good gracious! Don't people worry about anything except somebody's drinking? Where did you get such an know it ain't that."

She laughed again, whole heartedly. dreamed about it, and this morning he romances are few. couldn't stand it any longer and packshe got here because they'd forgotten

"Oh, nothing!" He turned lifelessly hope dying in his bosom. Life seems so needlessly dull sometimes.

CHAPTER V. School.

seemed infinitely duller. And waist, yet what pleasanter sight is there than sations. Still, for the greater part the kens of congratulation, Penrod yawned. children are unconscious of the happiness of their condition, for nothing is more pathetically true than that we purpled Victorine among them, and "never know when we are well off." Miss Spence started the remaining half The boys in a public school are less through the ordeal of trial by matheaware of their happy state than are matics. Several boys and girls were the girls, and of all the boys in his sent to the blackboard, and Penrod, room probably Penrod himself had the spared for the moment, followed their least appreciation of his felicity. reading, not even thinking. Nor was the effort. His eyes remained open, was shut, as his physical eye might arithmetic lesson reached his ears in flaccid with ennul, conveyed nothing beard nothing, and yet, this time, be whatever of the printed page upon which the orb of vision was partially steadfast rule that he return direct very unusual and rare, something al- of fancy which he had just discovered. from Sunday school, and Sunday rules most never accomplished except by were important because on that day colored people or by a boy in school on a spring day-he was doing really ful they glow, rosy and living, and ful bump. and at hand, perilously ready for ac- nothing at all. He was merely a state how opaque the curtain closing down howhood is the almost continuous strain From the street a sound stole in world. That curtain is almost sound sent Penrod an inquiry as to the fracthrough the open window, and abbor proof, too, and causes more throat tional consequences of dividing seven-called Penrod Schofield, for the sound pected. was the spring song of a mouth organ deepening twilight as rapidly as possi- coming down the sidewalk. The win- room inspires a sometimes unbearable ble at a gait half skip and half canter, dows were intentionally above the level of the eyes of the seated pupils, but manner he would account for his long the picture of the musician was plain tal desire is to do something astonishdelay and as he drew nearer rehearsed to Penrod, painted for him by a quali- ing himself, so as to be the center of ty in the runs and trills partaking of all human interest and awe, it was natthe oboe, of the calliope and of cats in ural that Penrod should discover in anguish-an excruciating sweetness ob- fancy the delightful secret of self levitained only by the wallowing, wallop- tation. He found, in this curious seing yellow-pink palm of a hand whose ries of imaginings, during the lesson back was Kongo black and shiny. The in arithmetic, that the atmosphere may music came down the street and pass- be navigated us by a swimmer under ed beneath the window, accompanied water, but with infinitely greater case by the care free shuffling of a pair of and with perfect comfort in breathing. old shoes scuffing syncopations on the In his mind he extended his arms cement sidewalk. It passed into the gracefully, at a level with his shouldistance; became faint and blurred: ders, and delicately paddled the air was gone. Emotion stirred in Penrod with his hands, which at once caused a great and poignant desire, but (per- him to be drawn up out of his seat and haps fortunately) no fairy godmother elevated gently to a position about midmade her appearance. Otherwise Pen- way between the floor and the ceiling, rod would have gone down the street where he came to an equilibrium and in a black skin, playing the mouth or- floated; a sensation not the less exgan, and an unprepared colored youth quisite because of the screams of his would have found himself enjoying fellow pupils, appalled by the miracle. educational advantages for which he Miss Spence herself was amazed and had no ambition whatever.

> high room were of white plasterwhite with the qualified whiteness of window, immediately rising above the old snow in a soft coal town. This housetops, while people in the street dismal expanse was broken by four lithographic portraits, votive offerings of a thoughtful publisher. The portraits were of good and great men. kind men, men who loved children. Their faces were noble and benevolent. But the lithographs offered the only rest for the eyes of children fatigued by the everlasting sameness of the schoolroom. Long day after long rod a hundred proofs that she considday, interminable week in and interminable week out, vast month on vast month, the pupils sat with those four portraits beauting kindness down upon em. The faces became permanent in the consciousness of the children; they became an obsession. In and out of school the children were never free them. The four faces haunted the tinds of children falling asleep. They ining upon the minds of children wakag at night; they rose forebodingly in he minds of children waking in the morning; they became monstrously sick of fever. Never while the chil-"What are you talking about?" de dren of that schoolroom lived would town." So she flouted him. But now fellow was fixed for them forever in his beard. And by a simple and unconscious association of ideas Penrod Schofield was accumulating an antipathy for the gentle Longfellow, and for James Russell Lowell, and for Oliver Wendell Holmes, and for John Greenleaf Whittier which would never permit him to peruse a work of one of those great New Englanders without a feeling of personal resentment. His eyes fell slowly and inimically from the brow of Whittier to the braid "Well," he persisted, "you don't of reddish hair belonging to Victorine Riordan, the little octoroon girl who sat directly in front of him. Victo-'Poor Uncle John! He won't even al- rine's back was as familiar to Penrod low grape juice or ginger ale in his as the necktie of Oliver Wendell house. They came because they were Holmes. So was her gayly colored afraid little Clara might catch the plaid waist. He hated the waist as measles. She's very delicate, and he hated Victorine herself without there's such an epidemic of measles knowing why. Enforced companionamong the children over in Dayton the ship in large quantities and on an equal schools had to be closed. Uncle John basis between the sexes appears to got so worried that last night he sterilize the affections, and schoolroom

Victorine's hair was thick and the ed them off over here, though he brickish glints in it were beautiful, but thinks it's wicked to travel on Sunday. Penrod was very tired of it. A tiny And Aunt Clara was worried when knot of green ribbon finished off the braid and kept it from unraveling, and to check her trunk, and it will have beneath the ribbon there was a final to be sent by express. Now, what in wisp of hair which was just long the name of common sense put it enough to repose upon Penrod's desk into your head that Uncle John had when Victorine leaned back in her seat. It was there now. Thoughtfully he took the braid between thumb away and went downstairs, a newborn and forefinger and, without disturbing Victorine, dipped the end of it and the green ribbon into the inkwell of his desk. He brought hair and ribbon forth dripping purple ink and partially dried them on a blotter, though, a mo-EXT morning, when he had ment later, when Victorine leaned foronce more resumed the dread- ward, they were still able to add a ful burden of education, it few picturesque touches to the plaid

Rudolph Krauss, across the aisle a schoolroom well filled with children from Penrod, watched the operation of those sprouting years just before with protuberant eyes, fascinated. In show how sorry she was that she had the teens? The casual visitor, gazing spired to imitation, he took a piece of formerly slighted him and throwing from the teacher's platform upon chalk from his pocket and wrote kisses to prove that she loved him, but these busy little heads, needs only a "Rats" across the shoulder blades of blunted memory to experience the the boy in front of him, then looked him and Marjorle, incessantly calling most agreeable and exbilarating sen- across appealingly to Penrod for to-

Half the members of the class passed out to a recitation room, the emoperations a little while with his eyes, He sat staring at an open page of a but not with his mind; then, sinking he lost in a reverie. His mind's eye but saw nothing. The routine of the well have been, for the optic nerve, familiar, meaningless sounds, but he was profoundly occupied. He had drifted away from the painful land of focused. Penrod was doing something facts, and floated now in a new sea

> Maturity forgets the marvelous realness of a boy's day dreams, how color-

The nervous monotony of the schoollonging for something astonishing to happen, and as every boy's fundamenfrightened, but be only smiled down Roused from perfect apathy, the boy carelessly upon her when she comcast about the schoolroom an eye manded him to return to earth, and wearied to nausea by the perpetual then, when she climbed upon a desk vision of the neat teacher upon the to pull him down, he quietly paddled platform, the backs of the heads of the himself a little higher, leaving his toes pupils in front of him and the mo- just out of her reach. Next he swam notonous stretches of blackboard through a few slow somerraults to threateningly defaced by arithmetical show his mastery of the new art, and, formula and other insignia of torture. with the shouting of the dumfounded Above the blackboard the walls of the scholars ringing in his ears, turned on his side and floated swiftly out of the below him shricked, and a trolley car stopped dend in wonder. With almost no exertion he paddled himself, many yards at a stroke, to the girls' private school where Marjorie Jones was a pupil-Marjorie Jones voice! Long before the "Pageant of the Table Round" she had o'fered Penered him wholly undesirable and ineligible. At the Friday afternoon dancing class she consistently incited and led the laughter at him whenever Professor Bartet singled him out tor admonition in matters of feet and decorum. And but yesterday she had chided him for his slavish lack of memory in daring to offer her greeting on the way to Sunday school. "Well,

I expect you must forgot I told you never to speak to me again! If I was a boy I'd be too proud to come hanging around people that don't speak me, even if I was the worst boy in as he floated in through the window of her classroom and swam gently along the ceiling like an escaped toy balloon she fell upon her knees beside her little desk and, lifting up her arms toward him, cried with love and admira-

"Oh, Penrod!"

He negligently kicked a globe from the high chandelier and, smiling coldly, floated out through the hall to the front steps of the school, while Marjore followed, imploring him to grant her one kind look.

In the street an enormous crowd had gathered, headed by Miss Spence and a brass band, and a cheer from a hundred thousand throats shook the very ground as Penrod swam overhead. Marjorie knelt upon the steps and watched adoringly while Penrod took the drum major's baton and, performing sinuous evolutions above the crowd, led the band. Then he threw the baton so high that it disappeared from sight. But he went swiftly after it, a double delight, for he had not only the delicious sensation of rocketing safely up and up into the blue sky. but also that of standing in the crowd below, watching and admiring himself as he dwindled to a speck, disappeared and then, emerging from a cloud, came speeding down, with the baton in his hand, to the level of the treetops, where he beat time for the band and the vast throng and Marjorle Jones, who all united in the "Star Spangled Banner" in honor of his aerial achievements. It was a great moment. It was a great moment, but something seemed to threaten it. The face of Miss Spence looking ap from the crowd grew too vivid-unpleasantly vivid. She was beckoning him and shouting: "Come down, Penrod Schofield! Penrod Schofield, come down here!" He could hear her above the band and the singing of the multitude. She seemed intent on spoiling everything. Marjorle Jones was weeping to Miss Spence kept jumpfug between

He grew more and more irritated with her. He was the most important person in the world and was en rage in proving it to Marjorie Jones carl th whole city, and yet Miss Spence scan ed to feel she still had the right to or der him about as she did in the of days when he was an ordberry school boy. He was furious. He was and she wanted him to do something dis agreeable. It seemed to him that she had screamed "Penrod Schofield!"

dousands of times. From the beginning of his aerial experiments in his own schoolroom he had not opened his lips, knowing somehow that one of the requirements for air floating is perfect slience on the part of the floater; but, finally, irritated beyond measure by Miss Spence's clamorous insistence, he was unable to restrain an indignant rebuke and immediately came to earth with a fright-

Miss Spence-in the fiesh-had directbetween the dreamer and the actual ed toward the physical body of the abthe contract and harmony meanity ring nature began to fill the vacuum trouble among parents than is sue teen apples fairly among three boys, and she was surprised and displeased to receive no answer, although to the best of her knowledge and belief he was looking fixedly at her. She repeated her question crisply without visible of the amber curls and the golden effect; then suramoned him by name with increasing asperity. Twice she called him, while all his fellow pupils turned to stare at the gazing boy. She revenced a step from the platform. "Penro! Schoffeld!"

"Penrod Schofield! Penrod Schofield, come down here!"

"Oh. my goodness!" he shouted sudsenly. "Can't you keep still a min-

CHAPTER VI. Uncle John.

ISS SPENCE gasped. So did the pupils. The whole room filled with a swelling, conglomerate "O-o-o-o-h!"

As for Penrod himself, the walls reeled with the shock. He sat with his mouth open, a mere lump of stupefaction. For the appalling words that he had hurled at the teacher were as inexplicable to him as to any other who heard them.

Nothing is more treacherous than the human mind; nothing else so loves to play the Iscariot. Even when patiently bullied into a semblance of order and training it may prove but a base and shifty servant. And Penrod's mind was not his servant. It was a master, with the April wind's whims, and it had just played him a diabolical trick. The very jolt with which he came back to the schoolroom in the midst of his fancied flight jurred his day dream utterly out of him and he sat open mouthed in horror at what he had said. The unanimous gasp of awe was protracted, Miss Spence, however, finally recovered her breath, and, returning deliberately to the platform, faced the school. "And then, for a little while," as pathetic stories sometimes recount "everything was very still." It was so still, in fact, that Penrod's newborn notoriety could almost be heard growing. This grisly silence was at last broken by the teacher.

"Peurod Schofield, stand up!" The miserable child obeyed.

"What did you mean by speaking to me in that way?" He hung his head, raked the floo with the side of his shoe, swayed. swallowed, looked suddenly at his hands with the air of never having seen them before, then clasped them behind him. The school shivered in ecstatic horror, every fascinated eye upon him, yet there was not a soul in the room but was profoundly grateful to him for the sensation-including the offended teacher herself. Unhappily, all this gratitude was unconscious and altogether different from the kind which results in testimonials and loving cups. On the contrary!

"Penrod Schofield!"

He gulped. "Answer me at once! Why did you speak to me like that?" "I was"- He choked, unable to "Speak out!" "I was just-thinking," he managed to stammer.

"That will not do," she returned sharply. "I wish to know immediate ly why you spoke as you did." The stricken Penrod answered belp

"Because I was just thinking."

Upon the very rack he could have offered no ampler truthful explanation. It was all he knew about it.

"Thinking what?" "Just thinking."

continue.

Miss Spence's expression gave evidence that her power of self restraint was undergoing a remarkable test. However, after taking counsel with herself, she commanded: "Come here!"

He shuffled forward, and she placed a chair upon the platform near her

Then (but not at all as if nothing had happened) she continued the lesson in arithmetic. Spiritually 'the children may have learned a lesson in Clara's private affairs. I'm asking you very small fractions, indeed, as they if you have anything to say which gazed at the fragment of sin before would pailiate"them on the stool of penitence. They all stared at him attentively, with hard and passionately interested eyes in which there was never one trace of pity. It cannot be said with precision that he writhed. His movement was more a slow, continuous squirm, effected with a ghastly assumption of languid indifference, while his gaze, in the effort to escape the marble hearted glare of his schoolmates, affixed itself with apparent permanence to the waistcoat button of James Russell Lowell just above the "u" in "Rus-

Classes came and classes went, grilling him with eyes. Newcomers received the story of the crime in darkling whispers, and the outcast sat and squirmed and squirmed and squirmed. (He did one or two things with his spine which a professional contortionist would have observed with real interest.) And all this while of freezing suspense was but the criminal's detention awaiting trial. A known punishment may be anticipated with some measure of equanimity-at least, the prisoner may prepare himself to undergo it-but the unknown looms more monstrous for every attempt to guess it. Penrod's crime was unique. There were no rules to aid him in estimating the vengeance to fall upon him for it. What seemed most probable was that he would be expelled from the school in the presence of his family, the mayor and council and whipped afterward by his father upon the state house steps, with the entire city as audience by invitation of the authorities.

Noon came. The rows of children filed out, every head turning for a lest unpleasingly speculative look at the outlaw. Then Miss Spence closed the door into the cloakroom and that into the big hall and came and sat at her desk, near Penrod. The tramping of feet outside, the shrill calls and shouting and the changing voices of the older boys ceased to be heard-and there was silence. Penrod, still affecting to be occupied with Lowell, was conscious that Miss Spence looked at him intently. "Penrod." she said gravely. "what excuse have you to offer before I report your case to the principal?"

The word "principal" struck him to the vitals. Grand inquisitor, grand khan, sultan, emperor, czar, Caesar Augustus-these are comparable, He stopped squirming instantly and sat rigid.

"I want an answer. Why did you shout those words at me?" "Well," he murmured, "I was justthinking."

"Thinking what?" she asked sharply. "I don't know." "That won't do!"

He took his left ankle in his right hand and regarded it helplessly. "That won't do, Penrod Schofield." she repeated severely. "If that is all the excuse you have to offer I shall report your case this instant!"

And she rose with fatal intent. But Penrod was one of those whom the precipice inspires. "Well, I have got an excuse."

"Well"-she paused impatiently-"what is it?"

He had not an idea, but he felt one coming and replied automatically in a plaintive tone: "I guess anybody that had been night would think they had an ex-Miss Spence resumed her seat. though with the air of being ready to through what I had to go through last leap from it instantly. "What has last night to do with your insolence to me this morning?" "Well, I guess you'd see," he returned, emphasizing the plaintive note. "If you knew what I know." "Now, Penrod," she said, in a kinder voice, "I have a high regard for your mother and father, and it would hurt me to distress them, but you must elther tell me what was the matter with you or I'll have to take you to Mrs. Houston,"

"Well, ain't I going to?" he cried, spurred by the dread name. "It's because I didn't sleep last night." "Were you ill?" The question was put with some dryness. He felt the dryness. "No'm; I "Then if some one in your family was so ill that even you were kept up all night, how does it happen they let you come to school this morning?" "It wasn't illness," he returned, shaking his head mournfully. "It was lots worse'n anybody's being sick. It was-it was-well, it was jest awful."

ety the incredulity in her tone. "It was about Aunt Clara," he said. "Your Aunt Clara!" she repeated. "Do you mean your mother's sister, who married Mr. Farry of Dayton,

"What was?" He marked with anxi-

"Yes-Uncle John," returned Penrod sorrowfully. "The trouble was about him."

Miss Spence frowned a frown which he rightly interpreted as one of continued suspicion. "She and I were in school together," she said. "I used to know her very well, and I've always heard her married life was entirely happy. I don't"-"Yes, it was," he interrupted, "until last year when Uncle John took to running with traveling men"-

"Yes'm." He nodded solemnly. "That was what started it. At first he was a good, kind husband, but these traveling men would coax him into a saloon on his way from work, and they got him to drinking beer and then ales. wines, liquors, and cigars"-

"Penrod!" "Ma'am?"

"What?"

"I'm not inquiring into your Aunt

(To Be Continued.)

THE GENOA TRIBUNE ESTABLISHED 1890. LOCAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER

ished every Friday N. Y. E. A. Waldo

Subscription, $1.00 * the orders are received to discontinue the erat the expiration of the time paid for, the per at the expiration of the time paid for, the blisher assumes that the subscriber desires the per and intends to pay for it. No subscription is bediscontinued until all arresarages are paid cates for space advertising made known on blication. Readers 5c per line. Specials 4c line. Cards of thanks 25c.

Job Printing. This office is well equipped to

Friday Morning, June 25, 1915

CULLODEN MOOR.

where the Last Battle Was Fought In Great Britain.

The last battle fought on the soil of Great Britain took place in the middle of the eighteenth century. While George II. was engaged in the war of the Austrian succession Charles Edward, who was called the young pretender, a grandson of King James II. of England, landed in Scotland and made two attempts to obtain the throne of his ancestors. He was victorious in the battle of Falkirk, but the Duke of Cumberland, son of George II., having been recalled from the continent to take command of the king's forces, the pretender was defeated at Culloden Moor, a plain in Scotland four miles from Inverness. This was the last battle fought on the sland of Great Britain and took place April 16, 1746, and it was also the last attempt on the part of the Stuart family to recover the throne of Great Britain. Charles Edward Stuart escaped to France after he had wandered five months in the highlands. He died in Rome, Jan. 30, 1788.

The Duke of Cumberland gave no quarter. The wounded were all slain, and the jails of England were filled with prisoners, many of whom were executed. Among the latter were Lords Balmerino, Kilmarnock and Lovat, Lovat being the last person who was beheaded in England. - Philadelphia

CURIOUS SWISS LAWS.

ome That Look With a Very Penetrating Eye Into the Future.

There are in force in Switzerland certain laws, which, in the hands of the unscrupulous, may work great havoc with personal rights and liberties, an exchange remarks. This is a point concerning which there can be no dispute.

For instance, in most cantons men and women may be punished not only for what they have actually done in the past, but also for what may possibly result in the future from what hey have done.

Suppose a man is spending week by week all that he earns. Then the local authorities, acting in conjunction with penal workhouse on the pretext that monia will evaporate. his conduct is such that he may later become destitute, and therefore a burden on the community.

To be a burden on the community is a crime. The result is a woman who wishes to be rid of her husband for a rear or two-or a man of his wifeas only to persuade the local authorities that unless be be forced to change his ways he may perhaps some day ecome destitute.

A visitor once found in one penal workhouse a woman who was there or two years at the request of her usband.

How Letters Strike Our Eyes. Roman letters of various sizes are commonly called into request by oculists in testing vision. Recent experiments show great differences in the ase with which the various letters are ecognized by the same person. T is especially difficult of recognition and sapt to be mistaken for V. By a simlar optical illusion the angle of L is ble a reversed J. V is the easiest of all letters to recognize, and O presents little difficulty. K is more easily recognized than H, which resembles it closely, and both N and Z are easily ecognized. A is easily guessed at from its general form, but is difficult of positive recognition, including disinct perception of the horizontal line. E and F are among the most difficult of all letters.

Equine Sagacity.

Here is a startling story of equine agacity related by the London Tit-Bits. A horse was standing in the shafts of a carriage just outside a local theater. . It had a weary look, as of ne that desired repose.

Suddenly it brightened up, and beore it could be stopped it made a dash for the box office.

The reasons for this unexpected bebavior gave rise to much discussion till at last one of the crowd, more obervant than the others, pointed out that the legend, "To the stalls," was written in large letters over the box lice window.

Law and Ordinance.

the state.—New York American.

Milady's Mirror

Short Skirt With Us.

The return of the short skirt and the popularity of the modern dances have called the feet into prominence again. This means that the woman who cultivates beauty must pay particular attention to her feet. If the ankle is not slender it must be made so, and if the feet are not of a patrician mold their form must be corrected as much as possible.

Exercise and massage will do much for unshapely ankles if the bones are not misshapen. Remove shoes and stockings and sit with one knee crossed over the other. Move the foot about in a circle, using the ankle joint only. When you become tired move the foot up and down until fatigued and then change to the other foot. Another effective exercise is to stand on both feet and turn the feet from side to side at the ankle.

After exercising fill a foot bath with hot water, as hot as you can stand it with comfort, and plunge the feet in this bath. The ankles should be covered, and if a tablespoonful of bicarbonate of soda is added to the water it assists in the flesh melting process. Allow the ankles to remain in this bath fifteen or twenty minutes; then rub them dry and apply a strong solution of alum or camphorated oil. Use firm, vigorous strokes to rub the oil well into the flesh and as a final end. of the treatment bind the ankles with strips of linen saturated with the oil. Do not draw these tight enough to hinder the circulation.

To improve the contour of the foot it is necessary to pay attention to the corns, callouses and enlarged joints. Be quite sure that you wear well fitted et lends itself to the scalloped edge. shoes, for there must be no pressure as do also the yoke and the bottom against any one part of the foot.

Do Not Use Grease on Hair.

Never use grease on the hair. After the shampoo use camomile lotion, rubbing it in carefully with the points of the fingers, and on no account permit it to touch the face, because it will make the face yellow.

the hair and tones the scalp, promoting circulation, is made thus:

Two large handfuls of camomile: two quarts of water. Boil for fifteen minutes, or until it is as dark as black coffee, then shake and add two quarts of cold water. Put in a stone jar and keep in a cold place. Shake well before using.

Hair to be really beautiful should not lie in heavy, sticky bands, but should stand out hair by hair, as separate as the down of a little chicken. To acquire this use ten drops of ammonia sprinkled in the camomile. It must be added after the mixture has the local police, may send him to a boiled and cooled, otherwise the am-

The Use of Soap.

Use soap, but let it be pure soap. There are soaps made from spermaceti, which is the oil taken from the head of the whale. It is very expensive, but one may not economize as to the complexion. This is a recipe for the care of the complexion every day:

On rising massage the face eight or ten minutes. Massage it with the two middle fingers-that is, the second and third-and with a round, not lengthwise, motion. The round motion removes lines. The lengthwise motion makes them. Remove what is left of the cold cream with a linen towel or an old handkerchief, then apply a little more cold cream, then powder. In the evening take ten to twenty minutes for cleansing your face. First wash it in tepid water-never cold water, except in emergencies of great fatigue-then massage for eight or ten minutes. Remove the cream, then apounded off, making the letter resem- ply more cream, very little more, and

About Nervousness.

No woman can help feeling nervous at times in this age of rush and racket, but it is quite possible to put on the brake, as it were, and not let the nerves run away with us and spoil our beauty. Here are a few hints on the subject:

If people fret you it is not necessary to be rude to them. Try instead to avoid them. Don't read books that irnitate you. Books are plentiful; therefore put away the offending volume and choose another. If noise at night worries you don't let it continue to do so. Get up and see to the matter and put it right.

Don't let yourself get into the habit of being bored. It is not worth while, When you feel it coming on plunge at once into some task that will take all your time and energy.

Fine Skin Tonic.

There is an excellent old skin tonic. used for generations, which will probably be of interest to the women readers of this page. It may be prepared at home and contains nothing that is All "ordinances" are "laws," but all in the least bit harmful to the face. ws are not ordinances. Law is which is more than can be said of so wider term, applying to states, many of the so called skin tonics on thle ordinance has special reference the market. Make a bag of cheesethe municipality. Laws and or- cloth, double thickness, and fill it with hances are equally "rules of action" bran, a teaspoonful of orris root and aid down by authority, but in the case a half cake of castile soap chopped up the ordinance the authority is of fine. This bag may be used in the bath e minor sort—the city as opposed to and on the face and makes the skin whatever its cut may be at the front. smooth, white and firm.

SUMMER FROCK.

Handsome Freck of Hand Embroidered Handkerchief Linen.

PRETTY SUMMER CREATION.

Hand embroidery is used lavishly this season in the creation of handsome summer robes. The bolero jackof the skirt. To give the touch of color the girdle is made of rose colored satin. A hat of white hemp is trimmed with pink roses, and the stockings are pink, worn with black and white

BEAUTIFUL DOGWOODS.

This camomile lotion, which cleanses | When This Shrub Blossoms Summer Is Again Here. The magnificent magnolias spread their languid petals so early, while the trees are yet bare, that one fears it is all too good to be true. But with the delicious dogwoods it is another story. One knows summer is practically here. And the dogwoods are not only charming when their snowy sheets are spread; their foliage is vivid in the fall, a glorious crimson, and the berries are even more richly tinted. Unfortunately the hungry birds often descend upon a tree and devour every blossom. Like many other shrubs, its buds for the following year will be set this autumn. Even prettier than this dogwood is the pink flowering variety, but while the color is wonderful the form is not as characteristic.

The round topped, upward branching red maple is superb against a very blue sky. Then the dark gray bark looks black and the crimson blossoms. which grow on short pedicels, seem more than ever brilliant. In Georgia and Florida these blossoms are a superb sight in March and a delight to the northerner because they come so early. One need not be forever looking aloft. however. Right down in the grass are floral riches a-plenty. The first favorite, no doubt, is the violet, the dear, modest little violet, which everybody loves and which blossoms everywhere. The little blue hepatica was one of the floral early buds; likewise the pinky and exquisite arbutus, which some call the mayflower. In April and May the bloodroot is found, its pure white golden hearted blossoms being as lovely as the juice of its root stock is surprising.

Put Salt In Milk.

Milk will not turn sour if a teaspoonful of fine salt be added to every quart. When preparing onions, turnips and carrots for cooking, cut across the fiber. as this makes them more tender when

In warming a steamed pudding or in steaming a stale cake never put the article on a plate or flat dish. Place the pudding in a colander in the steamer. and you will be surprised to find how much lighter and more delicate the pudding will be than if a plate had been used for the moisture to settle on and make the pudding heavy.

************** CREAM BLOUSES MODISH.

**************** Cream is the modish tone for the spring blouse, not pink. Rarely lovely as the pink blouse is in delicate flesh or shell tones, its day has passed, and these blouses are offered for sale on the bargain tables, while cream and sand colored models have the places of honor among exclusive new spring wearables. Hemstitched blouses of sand colored khaki fine for sport wear have buttoned down pockets and plaits at front and back. Cream lace and net blouses meet the requirements of formal spring tailleurs, and there are good looking blouses of tan shantung. cream tinted georgette crape and ecru pussy willow silk, all with the long

NORTHERN AFRICA.

Where Once the Ancient Romans Ruled in Wealth and Splendor.

It is not generally realized that during the early centuries of our era the Roman proconsular province of Africa rivaled Italy itself in wealth and brilliancy and that in what are now Tunisia and Algeria there exist Roman ruins that vie in number, splendor, and state of preservation with those to be found anywhere else.

The fall of Carthage in 146 B. C. led the Romans to establish themselves in-North Africa, at first in a modest settlement, the purpose of which was to see that the Phoenician city was not rebuilt. Ere long they themselves, however, reoccupied the site and built on it a city that became the third in

The gradual extension of their rule was forced on the somewhat unwilling Romans. To protect their settlement against the predatory Phoenicians, Libyans, and Berbers they found it necessary to push their conquests along the littoral to the west and the south. into the high plateaus between the Tell Atlas and the Sahara Atlas, and even well into the desert itself, till a good part of what are now Tripoli, Tunisia. Algeria and Morocco was ruled by them.

The country was much more extensively cultivated and thickly populated than at present, and for centuries was the principal granary of Rome. After lasting for nearly six centuries Roman rule in North Africa was brought to an end by the invasion of the Vandals from Spain and their capture of Carthage in 439 A. D.-Argonaut.

DEEP BREATHING.

It Freshens Up the Whole System and Kills That Tired Feeling.

Deep breathing does more than benefit the lungs. Physiologists tell us that the great advantage is that it gives the liver a healthy squeeze. All organs in the abdominal cavity as well as the liver are apt to get overcharged with blood from careless habits of sitting. A relaxed sitting position causes the abdominal muscles to relax so that blood runs into this part of the body like water and it accumulates like a stagnant pool.

The blood needed in the brain is down in the liver. The condition produced led the ancients to refer to a man with the blues as a hypochondriac, which means, literally, down under the ribs. Today we speak of the condition as being down in the mouth because the lines of the face are pulled down.

Melancholy is due to a congested condition of the liver and other organs depriving the brain of blood necessary to keep up the normal balance of activity. When one is tired or feels the dejected feeling coming on, relief can be obtained by lying on the floor with a pillow under the middle of the back and taking a few long, deep breaths.

If the arms are thrown over the bead and a dozen deep breaths are taken, a new spirit will come into the brain. Sometimes this is done automatically, as when we throw up the arms and straighten up after a crouched position at a desk.-Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Made a Difference.

Little Willie became slightly indisposed, and when the family doctor was called he prescribed some medicine in powder form.

"Come, Willie," said the fond mother, preparing one of the powders as soon as the medicine arrived from the drug store, "you must take this right away so that you will be well." "No. I don't want to take it," whined

Willie, backing away from the dose 'I don't need no medicine,"

"Why, Willie." pleaded mother, gently drawing the boy toward her, "you never heard me complain about a little powder, did you?"

"No, an' neither would I," was the startling rejoinder of Willie, "If I could just put it on my face, like you do, but have to swallow it."-Philadelphia Telegraph.

Curious Effects of Tea and Coffee.

A condition resembling true color blindness sometimes follows the excessive use of coffee. It is probable that tea also will produce this condition. since both contain the same active principle, although cases of tea color blindness are comparatively rare. It has been observed, however, that both tea and coffee may affect the eyesight and even cause actual blindness. Such blindness is not usually complete, or permanent, and if the use of the harmful beverage is discontinued, normal sight will gradually return.-Exchange.

Between Girls.

"How can you be engaged to a man who is sixty years old? He has, however, given you some magnificent pres ents.

"That's the point. A first love is ro mantic, but a last love is very lavish." Louisville Courier-fournal.

A Good Curriculum. "So your daughter Jane has returned from college. Has the school a good curriculum? "Oh, yes; Jane had a special suit made fer it an' exercised there every day on the horizontal bara."-Florida Times-Union.

A Warning.

Doctor-You've had a terrible shock Patient-It's up to you to see that I don't have another when I get you: bill.-Baltimore American.

Which Side or Both?

Officer-Why have you only one spur on? Private-If I get one side of the borse to move, I get the other, don't I' -Every Week.

Two Members of the Woodpacker Family.

Most children have seen and admirethe woodpecker. Doubtless, too, they have heard him pecking away on trunk or limb of tree. What a lot of knocking he can do for such a small creature? There are five or six species of woodpeckers familiarly known in the eastern states. Above are shown pictures of two of them. The bird at the top is a hairy woodpecker, the other the downy woodpecker. They differ chiefly in size, their colors being practically the same. The males, like those of many other woodpeckers, are distinguished by a scarlet patch on the head. An examination of many stomachs of these two species shows that from twothirds to three-fourths of the food consists of insects, chiefly noxious kinds. Wood boring beetles, both adults and of his gold watch. Miralles seized the larvae, are conspicuous, and with them are associated many caterpillars, most- in a deep bass voice: ly species that burrow into trees. Next in importance are the ants that live in decaying wood, all of which are sought sode to be part of the performance, by woodpeckers and eaten in great roared with laughter. Even the poquantities. Many ants are particular- licemen joined in without stirring hand ly harmful to timber, for if they find or foot. a small spot of decay in the vacant the hole, and as their colony is always got my watch?" on the increase they continue to cat away the wood until the whole trunk is honeycombed. Moreover, they are at "such excellent fooling." Meannot accessible to birds generally and while the thief managed to break away could pursue their career of destruction his captor and escaped. tion unmolested were it not that the woodpeckers, with beaks and tongues especially fitted for such work, dig out and devour them. It is thus evident that woodpeckers are great conservators of forests.

A Boy Scout Is Thrifty.

The cashier of the savings bank is accustomed to see the boy scout at his window. He knows that when the khaki clad youth appears before him with a sum, no matter how small, he is living up to scout law No. 9-"a scout is thrifty."

A scout is thrifty. He does not wantonly destroy property. He works faithfully, wastes nothing and makes the best use of his opportunities. He saves his money so that he may pay his own way, be generous to those in need and helpful to worthy objects. He may work for pay, but must not receive tips for courtesies or good turns.

To become a second class scout a boy must earn and deposit at least $1 in a bank. To become a first class scout a boy must earn and deposit at least $2 in a bank.

Conundrums.

beauty? Thyme.

Why are human eyes like persons rethough they may correspond, they never meet.

Why is a schoolboy being whipped like your eye? Because he is a pupil under the lash.

Why are clouds like coachmen? Because they hold the rains (reins).

Why was the dumb waiter returned? Because it didn't answer.

Why is a fisherman's the most profitable business? It is all net profit.

Why It's Called Picnic.

. The term "picnic" originated in the following manner: When what is now known as a picnic was being arranged for the custom originally was that those who intended to be present should supply the eatables and drinkables. A list of these necessities having been drawn up, it was passed round, and each person picked out the article of food or drink that he or she was willing to furnish, and the name of the article was "nicked," or ticked, off the list. The open air entertainment thus becahe known as "pick and nick." The custom is said to date from 1802.

The Rime of Porcus Prime. There lived a pig

So fat and big That hills he could not climb But used to lie Incide his sty,

One summer day He went away Quite proudly in a van; Poor Porcus, he Had gone to tea With Tom, the butcher's man!

-Infants' Magazine.

His name was Porcus Prime.

For the Children Scrap Book

The English Sense of Humor. James C. Thomson, now of Milwaukee, was a purser on an Anchor line steamer many years ago. In those lays life preservers were not in general use, and on the inside of each stateroom door was affixed a small sign, reading:

"In emergencies this door may Be lifted from its hinges. It Will carry two people safely in the water."

Thomson had an extra sign, and he pasted it on the inside of the door of his little safe. An English passenger came into the office and asked for change. Thomson swung the safe door back to get the money, and the Englishman read the sign. It was too much even for his credulity, and he burst out:

"Thomson, that's a lie! The bally thing cawn't float!"-Detroit Saturday Night.

The Best of Friends. There are no friends like old friends

To help us with the load That all must bear who journey O'er life's uneven road, And when unconquered sorrows The weary hours invest The kindly words of old friends Are always found the best.

There are no friends like old friends To calm our frequent fears When shadows fall and deepen Through life's declining years, And when our faltering footsteps Approach the great divide We'll long to meet the old friends Who wait on the other side. -Anonymous

Too Realistic. During a performance of "Captain Lapalisse" at a Valencia theater some years ago an incident occurred which for lifelike effect left nothing to be desired. During the said play some of the actors mingle with the spectators in order to co-operate from the body of the house. No sooner had Miralles, the actor, taken his seat in the stalls than a during pickpocket robbed him man by his coat collar and called out

"Police! Help! Thieves!" The audience, taking this little epi

"This is no farce!" cried the actor burrow of a wood borer they enlarge; in tones of despair. "The fellow has

> The voice sounded so natural that the audience broke into loud applause

Innocent.

Robert, at the end of the college year, was taking up with his father the debatable matter of obligations incurred with tradesmen in the pursuit of knowledge. It had been a rather stormy session, but the storm had subsided, and the father returned to his book of poetry. Presently he was minded to test Robert's education. "What do you know of this 'Ode On a Grecian Urn?" he asked.

Robert felt himself to be injured un-

"Father," he answered earnestly, "I assure you that a mistake has been made. I didn't buy a single Grecian urn while I was in college."-New ### York Post.

Plenty of Stars. That resilient old timer, Ben Dodson, who is perhaps best remembered as advance agent for Jennie Yeamans thirty years ago, had no feeling of awe in the presence of greatness. He was in Kansas City when Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett opened the new Warder Opera House. It was so far from being ready for the event that it was literally roofless. Ben larked upon What herb is most injurious to a girl's the stage before curtain up time to have a talk with the boys, Ned and Larry. The tragedians were good namote from one another? Because, al- turedly tolerant of the open air conditions in which they must play. Barrett, who was usually nervons when affairs were deflected from their normal course, observed, "Well, Doddy, > this is unique, to say the least." The house property man, excusably ambitious to get speech with the royalty of the profession, sidled up and insinuatingly queried: "What's de matter wid dis. Mr. Barrett? Hain't we got stars on the stoige and (pointing to the sky) stars overhead? Dis hain't no jay town, betcher life tain't!"-Detroit Free Press.

Clinched It. An aged and much traveled tourist was relating experiences of his travels to a group of friends when a blatant young man, who had himself made a short trip through Europe, decided that it was about time to come in for his share of bonors as a great traveler. "When I made my trip through the Red sen," the young man interjected, "we dropped anchor one night in the exact spot where Pharnoh's hosts were engulfed by the waters of the Red sea. In the morning when we heaved up the anchor we discovered that one of Pharaoh's charlots, which had for years been lying at the bottom of the sea, was booked on to one of the finkes of our anchor. It was in an excellent state of prosegvetion." "How did you know it was one of Phuraoh's charious and not one of Laste recent vintage?" inquired the old tour'st, "Oh, that was ensy," replied the noisy young man. YOU see, by one corner of the charles. we found an old coin which hore the inscription, '2005 B. C.' "

Friday Morning, June 25, 1915

Genoa Presbyterian Church.

Morning service at 11 o'clock. Preaching by the pastor.

you come to the morning service week. make your plans to remain to this service also.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Topic: "Song and its Meaning."

Evening service at 7:30. Everyone cordially urged to this service. Song service followed by message by the pastor. Last Sunday evening an interesting service was held when the reports of those attending the Sunday school convention in Auburn were given.

Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7:45. Topic: "The things which are Cæsar's"-Matt 22:16-21.

Big Celebration at Genoa.

A Fourth of July celebration will be held on the fair grounds at Geno: on Saturday, July 3, for the benefit of St. Hilary's church, Genoa. It will be a big day of sports-baseball, horse racing, driving contest, running races, dancing and other games.

The following prizes will be given: Slow race-1st prize, ton of coal, donated by J. D. Atwater; 2nd prize, box of cigars, donated by D.W.Smith.

Farmers' road horse race-1st, a $15 suit or $15 in trade, donated by Genoa Clothing Store; 2nd, ½ ton of coal donated by C. J. Wheeler.

Ladies' Driving contest-1st, a rocker; 2nd, copper tea kettle, donated by Banker Hardware Co.

½ mile bicycle race for boys-1st pair of shoes, donated by R. & H. P. Mastin; 2nd, book, donated by F. C.

Other prizes-Baseball and glove, donated by F. C. Hagin; bottle of perfume, donated by Hagin; ham, donated by Geo. D. Nettleton; 100 lbs, flour donated by Fay Rease; a hat or $5 donated by Mrs. Jennie Singer, to be given to the one selling the most tickets.

The Venice Center platform, ten and lights will be used.

Baby Show, for babies under 2 years of age-Grand prize, Three Minute washing machine, donated by Peck & Hand.

Music will be furnished both after noon and evening by "Happy Bill" Daniels' popular orchestra.

Dinner will be served during the day. Admission to grounds, 25 ets.

Mrs. John G. Cobb.

Mrs. Addie Brown Cobb of West Groton, died suddenly of heart troubie at her home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Cobb had not been ill. She was sitting with the family when someone noticed a peculiar expression on her face. Dr. G. M. Gilchrist, who was calling at the home, reached out just in time to catch her as she started to fall. The end came in a few minutes.

Mrs. Cobb spent all her life in Lansing and Groton. She was born Aug. 26, 1835, and on Sept. 15, 1875, she was married to John G. Cobb. For many years she had been a member of the West Groton church and had been active in its affairs.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a step-daughter, Mrs. Fred Townley of Groton and three grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Henry Fitch of West Groton, and Mrs. W. L. Coggshall of West Groton and two brothers, Effingham Brown of Groton and Benton Brown of North Lansing. She was a sister of the late Mrs. C. W. Conger of Groton.

Mr. Cobb has been critically ill for Volunteer class. several months and on this account the funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the resi- President, Mrs. Herbert Gay; vice dence of the decedent's brother-in- president, Mrs. Fay Reas; secretary, law, David Lowe, of West Groton. Miss Mary Waldo; treasurer, Mrs. Rev. F. J. Allington of North Lan- Richard Pollard. sing officiated. Interment in West Groton Rural cemetery.

Philathea Juniors Meet.

A meeting of the Philathea Junior class was held at the home of Luella Steele Wednesday afternoon.

The following were elected: Teacher-Mrs. Pollard. President-Ruth Ford. Vice President-Mildred Close. Treasurer-Elsie Tilton; assistant,

Mary Bower. Secretary-Luella Steele; assistant,

Ella May Dean.

Press Reporter-Pauline Rease. building, beginning at 10:30.

Dies After Long Illness.

Ai Lanterman, whose critical con-Published every Friday and entered dition we announced last week, died Poplar Ridge celebrated their fifat his home in this village at 6 o'clock Friday morning, June 18. He was home on Saturday last. first taken ill in September last, and Sunday school at 12 m. When speechess, death resulting in a Corners, a mile south of Poplar to Alfred and Maria Lanterman. House in Groton, and later returned the occasion. to Genoa. In recent years Mr. Lanber of the Genoa orchestra. He of Aurora and Harriet F. Wheeler of was a member of North Lansing Auburn. lodge, F. & A. M.

Surviving are his wife, an aged nother who was unable to attend 1893, lived but a few months.

Funeral services were held at his 2:30 o'clock, and were very largely of Red Creek. attended. Fifty Masons were presand acquaintances. Over 50 men remained outside the house, the Several appropriate selections were "Because." sung by Chas. J. Foster, Mrs. Robt. Mastin and Miss Ida Mastin. At the Masons conducted a part of their service, and the remainder was given

There were a number of very Union Springs. beautiful floral pieces, including one from the Masons. Relatives and friends came to at-Sayre, Berkshire, Cortland, Homer and Moravia.

Woman's Bible Class Organized.

The woman's Bible class of the Presbyterian church of Genoa has recently organized according to the plans of the International Sunday School association and is called the

The teacher of the class is Mrs. Geo. Bower, and the class officers are:

The work of the class is divided among three committees: Membership, social, devotional and missionary.

The charter members number twenty-two and the motto chosen is 'We're in the King's Business."

The class is enrolled in the New York State Sunday School association as number 2407, and has received a Certificate of Recognition.

Card of Thanks.

me in so many ways, during the kinds of small tools, 3 casks of vine- sent flowers, those who sang at the The class voted to have a bake sale illness and death of my husband, my gar, household goods, etc. Stephen funeral and Rev. F. J. Allington for on Saturday in the vacant Banker heartfelt appreciation of their kind- Myers, auctioneer. Mrs. Ai Lanterman. ness.

Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Wheeler of tieth wedding anniversary at their

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were marwas confined to the bed much of the ried 50 years ago, June 20, in the time during the past nine months. village of Otisco, the home of the On June 10, he suffered a severe bride, who was Miss Fanny Hotchshock of paralysis which affected his kiss. Following the wedding they entire right side and rendered him took up their residence at Wheeler's Ridge, where they resided until about 15 years ago when they removed to their present beautiful home in the village. Both are enjoying excellent health.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler are among and some money; address with dethe best known residents of this part scription, lowest price, smallest of the county, Mr. Wheeler having been prominently identified with the business, political and social interests of the community in which he has lived so many years.

Mr. Wheeler is a son of the late Cyrenus Wheeler, one of Auburn's foremost citizens.

The day was fine and many congratulations and felicitations were extended to the couple. The house was handsomely decorated in a golden color scheme, yellow blossoms of all the flowers of the season being used to excellent advantage.

The dinner was prepared and serv-Ai Lanterman was born in the ed by Cateress Mary Koon of Autown of Lansing Oct. 20, 1856, being burn. A feature of the wedding one of a family of four children born | dinner were three cakes. One was a white one and one a golden one, on He was married to Miss Aleavia each side of which were 25 candles Gilkey of Genoa on September 21, which were blown out by the guests. 1892, and they resided with Mrs. In addition to these anniversary 47t3 Lanterman's parents, who for sever- cakes was a wedding fruit cake that al years conducted the Atwood had been well and long prepared for

About 25 relatives and close terman had served as clerk in several friends were present, including Wilstores in this village and also at North lard Wheeler and family of Tully, Lansing. He spent nearly his whole George Babcock and family of Flemlife in this vicinity, having made a ing, E. S. Fessenden and family of to arrive in a few days. Car of N. As a violinist, he assisted the choirs family of Poplar Ridge, Henry of this village, and was also a mem- Wheeler, E. W. Mosher and wife

Townsend-Davis.

A pretty wedding took place at the funeral, and a sister, Miss Clara the home of the bride at Lake Ridge Lanterman of King Ferry, and a on Wednesday, June 16, when Miss brother, George Lanterman of South | Clara Antoinette Davis, daughter of Lansing. A son, born in November, W. L. Davis, and Clarence E. Townsend, an instructor in Cornell University, were united in marriage at late home on Sunday afternoon at 11 o'clock, by Rev. J. F. Robinson $1.00.

The bride wore a gown of white ent, also about thirty members of net over white satin and carried a the Eastern Star, and a large com- shower bouquet of white roses and pany of relatives, basides friends lilies of the valley. The couple were 34tf unattended. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Frank King of lower part of which was fil'ed with King Ferry, and just before the people. Rev. L. W. Scott, pastor of couple entered the parlor, Mrs. Ford the Presbyterian church, officiated. Whiting, an aunt of the bride, sang

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to forty-two close of these services, the casket guests. Among those present were was carried to the lawn, where the Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Townsend of Painted Post, parents of the groom, Miss Mary Townsend and at the grave. Burial was made at Mrs. Bryan of Rosendale, sisters of North Lansing, where a company the groom. Other guests were from had assembled for the burial service. Syracuse, Ithaca, King Ferry and

The bride received beautiful gifts of cut glass, silver and linen.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend left for tend the funeral from King Ferry. a trip to Syracuse, Albany, Kingston Ledyard, South Lansing, Lake Ridge, and Rosendale, Mr. Leslie Fenner North Lansing, Auburn, Ithaca, taking them to Auburn in his auto. After July 15, they will be at home to their friends at Lake Ridge. Next fall they will remove to Ithaca where Mr. Townsend is an instructor in Sibley College of Engineering at Cornell University.

Auction Sale.

The undersigned having sold his farm will sell at auction at his residence one-half mile south of Moravia village, Tuesday, June 29, at 12 o'clock sharp; 12 cows, some fresh, some nearby springers; 15 head of young, grade Holsteins, black and white; one grade Holstein bull; 5 calves; 5 pigs; hens; 2 good work horses, two-year old colt, wagon, wagon box, 2 hay racks, 2 mowers, 2 tedders, 2 rakes, drill, plow, spring tooth harrow, 2-horse cultivator, Jesse Zeigler and Elder John Herr of democrat, 2 top buggies, one with Elizabethtown, Pa., will come to this rubber tires, set bobs, cutter, corn place Saturday and organize a Church sheller, 2 double harnesses, 4 single of the Brethren. There will be a harnesses, feed grinder, wheel dump preaching service in the church Satscraper, power feed cutter, set of urday evening, and the two elders trucks with wide tire and wood will remain over Sunday. wheel, hay car, fork, rope, pulleys and track, ladders, roller, fanning mill. Babcock milk tester and bottles, I wish to express to all friends and 4 milk cans, combination truck and for their assistance during our reneighbors, and to all who assisted dump wagon, large quantity of all cent bereavement, the friends who

O. E. Strough.

Cabbage plants for sale. Richard Pollard, Genoa.

FOR SALE-At Five Corners the John Morey property, consisting of good dwelling house, one acre of land, well water and plenty of fruit. Address J. A. Greenfield, King Ferry, N. Y.

Few bushels of nice seed buckwheat for sale. J. D. Todd, Five Corners. 48w2

WANTED - Customers for jan J. Arthur Saxton, butter. East Genoa. 48w1

WANTED-Farm within driving distance of Genoa, have stock, tools A. Chronabery, Stanley, N. Y. amount down.

15c per hundred, $1.00 per thousand, J. H. Cruthers, Genoa. 48w1 FOR SALE-Democrat wagon, nearly new, heavy double harness, light single harness, grindstone, all for sale cheap. Chas. G. Miller, Miller phone.

Lost-Child's red sweater lost between railroad station and Smith's store Genoa. Finder please leave at TRIBUNE office.

FOR SALE-Or trade for cow or young stock: Bay horse, good age, sound, kind and true, afraid of nothing but the whip, woman or child can drive him; good worker, fair H. A. Bradley, King Ferry.

Seed buckwheat for sale. Walter L. Corey, R. D. King Ferry.

FOR SALE—Mowing machine, horse rake nearly new, hay fork, rope and pulleys, locust fenceposts. Inquire of Mrs. Mary Connell, Genoa. 47w2

LUMBER-Clayton D. Townsend, South Lansing, N. Y. Big bargain in No. 1 shingles at $3.75 per M. Car from Seattle, Washington, due wide acquaintance and many friends. King Ferry, George Husted and C. pine just arrived at $22 and up; also have Michigan white pine and Pennsylvania hemlock.

Good horse for sale.

Seymour Weaver, Genoa. FOR SALE—A five passenger Ford car fully equipped and in good runing order. G. T. Sill, Genoa. 46tf Genoa, N. Y. I have rugs to sell. 45w4

FOR SALE-Recleaned buckwheat Frank H. Wood, for seed. Wood's Mill. For Service-Berkshire boar. Fee

Wilbur Bros., King Ferry. 35tf FOR SALE-Portable Groton 12 h. p. steam engine in good repair; buzz saw nearly new, 30 in. saw, and 120 ft. of 6-inch drive belt, nearly new. F. G. King, King Ferry.

33tf every Tuesday. We want your furs, beef and horse hides, deacon skins. Weaver & Brogan, Genoa. WANTED-Poultry, hogs, calves, at by using Weed chains-carried in stock.

highest market price. Write or S. C. Houghtaling,

The Mutual Life time. Insurance Co., of New York.

Every Time The Clock Ticks,

BASED upon the experience of 1914 with 302 working days of eight hours each, the Mutual Life pays to policyaverage amount of $7.94.

EVERY DAY It pays the sum of $228,-585, 46. EVERY WEEK It pays $1,327,554.03. "PRE-EMINENCE in benefits to policyholders" is the watchword.

Why Not Share in These Benefits? Information given on request. An attractive agency opening in Southern Cayuga and Northern Tompkins coun-

CHAS. A. CANNON, Dist. Mgr., 206 Auburn Savings Bank Bidg.,

Lake Ridge.

June 22-It is expected that Elder

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our neighbors his comforting words.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Woodruff.

SPECIAL NOTICES. MR. AUTO OWNER:

We are selling the Genuine "STEWART" Also 4,000 Warning Signal for $3.95 each. Mile guaranteed Tires at 10% off list.

McCormick and Deering Machinery. Extras for all machines. Best Stock of Lumber, Shingles, Feed, Etc., Etc., in Southern Cayuga

A few Top Buggles and Democrats left.

-:- LET US SHOW YOU OUR LINE -:-

Route 3.

FOR SALE—Danish cabbage plants, J. D. ATWATER, GENOA AND VENICE CENTER

LOOK! LISTEN!

I will give you very attractive prices and terms on the goods mentioned here: Hay Loaders and Side Delivery Rake Cream Separators and Gasoline Engines, Binding Twine and Machine Extras. Dodd & Struthers Pure Copper Cable Lightning Rods.

Protect your lives and property.

Do Not Delay

G. N. COON, KING FERRY, N.Y.

-: The Genoa Garage: J. B. MASTIN, PROP.

STANDARD GAS SUPPLIES OF ALL KINDS.

KELLY-SPRINGFIELD TIRES. sizes carried in stock. Ford sizes guaranteed 6,000 miles in plain tread, 7,500 Jane A. Louw, weaver, South St., miles in "Kant-Skid." Larger sizes 5000 miles in plain tread, 6,000 in "Kant-Skid."

My policy is: The best quality at "live and let live" prices. Expert repairing a specialty.

Drop in and see the 1915 Ford cars. The car of the multitude-800,000 in use. Rebate on all cars up to August 1,

I will pay the market price for live stock, poultry and beef hides.

33tf Wesley Wilbur, King Ferry.

I will furnish any make of tire I will furnish any make of tire or any article as cheap as Cash paid for poultry delivered anyone. Come in and see the new $4.00 Klaxon horn guaranteed for life carried in stock. Insure your car against accident

You, as an auto owner, are directly benefited by having a Phone 42F4. R.D. 5, Auburn, N. Y. garage in Genoa. Let your local garage live by letting me figure on your supplies, etc. I will use you right ALL the

J. B. MASTIN.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

holders or their beneficiaries an and burned to the ground. Too bad. It might have been saved by protecting it with > National Flat Pure Copper Cable. Guarantee goes with every job.

S. Goodyear, Atwater.

Miller Phone.

Call soon while the assortment is still large.

The Wooltex and several other well known makes all to be sold at BIG PRICE REDUCTIONS.

BUSH & DEAN

ITHACA, N. Y.

The Store That Sells Weekler GEENS

AND THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPER Village and Vicinity News.

-Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Singer were in Syracuse Monday.

-Miss Pauline Chaffee of Five Corners was a Sunday guest of Miss Mary Smith.

-The Genoa baseball team go to Mrs. James Mulvaney. Groton Saturday to play the Coronas of that town.

B. Holden were at Farleys from deportment the past year. Saturday to Monday.

Mulvaney's the first of the week.

Monday morning to begin his duties on Thursday with a picnic. in the Hemingway canning factory.

this week.

-Mrs. Charles Horton and daughter Pauline have been spending a Union Springs.

-William Wilson arrived home Sunday morning from Ashburnham, school the past year.

-Mrs. Robert Bush and son Ernest was also here Sunday.

Tomato, cabbage, pepper, celery, and cauliflower plants for sale, also asters, pansies, etc. Call on

A. J. Merritt, Genoa. -Mr. and Mrs. Ray VanBrocklin and little son went to Syracuse last Saturday to visit the former's parents, remaining this week.

children, Charles and Barbara, of to come before the lodge. Cortland are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Samson.

-The Philathea Junior class of ginning at 10:30 o'clock.

-Mrs. Frances Rundell, Mrs. Frankie Brown, Mrs. Charles son and daughter. and Mr. and Mrs. Elias Lester all spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. John Sill, Thursday, June 17. nah has been secured by the Board of Education of Genoa High school as principal for the coming year. Mr. Hakes, whom they thought they the position.

355. The number of inhabitants in she is doing nicely. this election district is 944 and in the west district 909. Total for the town, 1853, a loss of 13 since the census taken in 1910.

-A company of forty young people gave Charlie Dean a surprise party Monday evening at the home ful time. Lemonade and wafers of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dean. Games and music were enjoyed, and a very nice supper was served. All report a fine time.

Cut flowers, wreaths, bouquets, potted plants and fresh green ferns at Hagin's Grocery, Genoa. 28tf

-Genoa High school closed Friday last. Miss Woods of the faculty returned to her home in Syracuse Friday afternoon, Miss Malchoff also returned to her home in Clyde and Miss Miller to North Lansing. Prinfriends in Painted Post, for a few days, and will spend the summer in Alfred, N.Y.

-Do you know that an editor or a reporter for a newspaper can in his rounds stop and ask a hundred persons "what is the news?" and ninety out of the hundred will reply. "Nothing special," and yet fifty out of that number know something that, if not found in the next paper, will astonish them greatly and disappoint them more, and perhaps make them madder than hornets. Don't be afraid to let the newspaper know it.

-St. Hilary's society of this village are making elaborate plans for their annual picnic and Fourth of July celebration which will be held at the fair grounds, Genoa, on Sathas been arranged and a baby show Prizes for all these events are pub-

-Don't miss J. B. Mastin's Garage adv. in this issue.

-Mrs. W. C. Rogers returned Monday to her home in Albany.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Welty and manner man son of Auburn were in town Sunday. with blood poisoning in his arm. -Sometimes a man whose credit creditors need the money.-Ex. -Mrs. Chester King of Collin-at King Ferry, spent Monday with first of the week.

attends Moravia High school, was class in its history. Messrs.H. P. Mastin and Warren awarded a prize of $10 in gold for

-Mrs. M. C. Swartout of East -Mrs. Matthew Rilev and little Genoa entertained on Tuesday of petition in bankruptcy. son of Moravia were guards at James last week a party of twenty young women in honor of Miss Caro Con--Wm. Parks went to Auburn ger. Miss Conger closed her school ment. Power-Quality-Less Money.

-The death sentence of Leo M -Our local garage man, J. B. Frank, accused of the murder of Mastin, has delivered a new 5-pas- Mary Phagan, has been commuted senger Ford car to Richard Parmley by Governor Slaton of Georgia to life imprisonment. The case has attracted nation-wide interest.

-Mrs. Ralph W. Hawley of Mofew days with friends at Farleys and ravia, who had been at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ai Lanterman, for two weeks, returned home Wednesday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. some time.

-The Carnegie Foundation of of Auburn are spending the week New York, the agency through the church.

-All members of Genoa Star

-Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hagin atmember of the graduating class.

-The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of the county will hold their annual picnic at Koenig's Point on Owasco lake on Friday, Aug. 5. It is expected that 2,000 members of the two lodges will be in attendance. -Raymond Townsend of Savan- From Lakeside Park, the trip will be made by boat.

a serious operation on Saturday last bride's home. had secured, decided not to accept at her home north of this village. Dr. H. B. Besemer of Ithaca, assisted by Dr. Willoughby, performed the -By the census taken this month, operation. Miss Julia Wilson of Ludthe population of Genoa village is lowville is caring for the patient and > Hurlbut. The affair was held on the lawn, and the evening being warm and pleasant, all had a delightwere served to the company of over fifty young people.

-The Sherwood W. C. T. U. will hold a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. E. L. Howland at Venice Center, on Wednesday afternoon, June 30. The program will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock. One feature of the program will be a talk by a suffragist. A ten cent supper will be served. Everybody is invited.

-Miss Hazel Fitch Akin, daughter cipal G. F. Bakker left town this of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood S. Akin of week Wednesday. He is visiting Giens Falls, at one time residents of Scipio and Auburn, was married to William M. Henry of Auburn, at her home on Wednesday, June 16. The wedding was a quiet one, the only guests being members of the two families. The couple will reside in Auburn.

We would like your name on our subscription list. -Daymon Amesbury, a Cato young man, was the only one who took the competitive examination Agriculture College at Cornell Unipassed the examination, he will receive the scholarship.

-It is stated on expert authority urday, July 3. A big day of sports that a man who purchases his sup- hands at having time finally asked plies from mail order houses is equiv- Bill Smith, who was accounted the for babies under 2 years will be held, alent in worth to a community in town fool, if he would help him out. the same proportion as 0 is to 999. lished in another column. Music This can be very easily proved by will be furnished afternoon and figuring out just how long it would swered the farmer. evening by "Happy Bill" Daniels take a prosperous village to die a Bill scratched his head a minute, popular orchestra. A large crowd natural death if all the inhabitants then announced decisively: the mail order houses .- Ex.

-D. E. Singer lost a horse Friday

-Isaac B. Mitchell of Ithaca spent Sunday at Wm. Smith's.

-J. B. Mastin has been suffering is perfectly good forgets that his spent Friday last with Mrs. Chas.

wood, Ohio, who is visiting relatives was at the home of her mother the Casseroles, Pie Servers, Bread Trays,

-Cornell granted this year 923 -Miss Bessie Hahn of Genoa, who diplomas to graduates-the largest

-The Eden Musee company, exhibitors of wax works for many years in New York city has filed a

Watch the Sunday papers of June 27 for Studebaker 1916 announce-

-The Rebekah food sale last Saturday amounted to $10. Food sales seem to be very popular in Genoaanother one this week.

-Cayuga County Pomona Grange will hold a picnic at Lakeside Park, Auburn, Saturday, June 26. There will be a special rate on the Short Line of 80 cents from Genoa.

-Lightning struck in two places on the farm of Roscoe Baker, south Mass., where he has been attending Lanterman, who will remain for of this village, during the heavy shower on Tuesday. A cow was killed, and a tree was torn to pieces.

-Miss Clara Cook of Dryden High with Genoa relatives. Mr. Bush which Andrew Carnegie makes his school faculty returned to her home gifts, has promised the First Bap- in Venice this week. Next week she tist church of Groton $1,000 toward will go to Brooklyn where she will the new organ to be purchased for attend Heffley Institute this sum-

-It cost one school district in lodge, No. 483, are requested to at- Seneca county $519 to maintain the tend the next regular meeting of school for four pupils the past year. the order on Wednesday evening, It has been voted to close the school June 30. Election of officers will be and provide for the instruction of -Mrs. Chas. Morris and two held and other important business is these pupils in some other district the coming year.

-Misses Clyde Mastin, Mildred tended commencement exercises at Tupper and Leota Myer were in Sherwood Select School Tuesday Ithaca Wednesday to attend comthe Presbyterian Sunday school will afternoon and also Class day exer- mencement exercises at the High hold a bake sale in the vacant Banker cises Monday evening. Mr. Hagin's school. They were guests of Miss building on Saturday, June 26, be- niece, Miss Alleine Winn, was a Eleanor Sharp, who was one of the graduates. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp and daughter expect to return to Genoa Port Byron next week.

> -Mr. and Mrs. Owen J. McDonald Union Springs have issued invitations to the mar- Fair Haven riage of their daughter, Margaret Totals Teresa, to John J. Crawford. The wedding will occur in the church of our Lady of the Lake at King Ferry, Monday, June 28, at 10:30 and will -Mrs. Wm. Dandridge underwent be followed by a reception at the

-"The Star Spangled Banner" will be sung all over the United States at noon on the Fourth of July, according to plans of a Philadelphia committee, which is arranging for a national celebration of Independence -The Christian Endeavor society Day in that city. Governors of all met for a social evening last Friday the states and mayors of cities night at the home of Miss Pauline throughout the country have been requested to issue proclamations asking people to join in the observance of this feature.

> Books rented, 5 cents per week. Call and we'll explain to you. Hagin's Grocery and Book Store.

-Survivors of the gallant 75th N. Y. Regiment, that went to the front in '61, will assemble in Auburn on Saturday for the 35th annual reunion of the regimental association. Veterans from many distant points in the Union are expected to attend. Charles H. Lakey, who has been secretary of the association for 33 years, has had charge of the plans for the reunion. Meetings will be held in the court room in the Federal Building instead of in the County Court room as cards sent out announced. -Highway Superintendent Gillespie has been putting in a short stretch of crushed stone road from the Easson farm east to the next corner. The farmers in that vicinity all turned out and assisted, donating their work. The superintendent very properly thinks the men who gave their time and assistance are for the Grange scholarship to the deserving of a vote of thanks from the community, and it is hereby exversity in Auburn last Saturday. tended. This particular piece of The examination was conducted by road has been in bad shape for some Master James A. Gould of Cayuga time and all travelers in that direc-Pomona Grange. If the young man tion will rejoice that it has been put in first class condition.

A farmer in great need of extra

"Wha'll ye pay?" asked Bill. "I'll pay what you're worth ,"an-that!"-Sacred Heart Review.

Choose Your Gift With Care!

The gift is ever a constant reminder of the giver. How important it is then that your remembrance to the graduate or bride be a suitable selection. Here you may find dainty —Mrs. John Seath of Auburn pieces for personal adornment—pent Friday last with Mrs. Chas. Bracelets, Lavallieres, Rings, Cuff buttons, Gold Beads, Brooches, Collar Pins: or there are articles for -Mrs. Chas. Cannon of Auburn home use-Silver Toilet Sets, Vases, Engraved Cut Glass Berry Bowls Nappies, Water Sets and Chests of Solid Silver. We also have a splendid lot of those timepieces of

> Take time to Stop in A. T. HOYT, Leading Jeweler & Optician

> > MORAVIA, N. Y

Merit-South Bend Watches.

HOYT BLOCK

Population of County.

The following list shows the popyears 1910 and 1915:

1910

	1010	1010
Auburn	34,668	34,201
To	WNS	1
Aurelius	1437	1469
Brutus	2221	2438
Cato	1569	1588
Conquest	1103	1225
Fleming	1017	1031
Genoa	1866	1853
Ira	1451	1467
Ledyard	1719	1791
Locke	864	843
Mentz	1909	1991
Montezuma	941	914
Moravia	2160	2238
Niles	1209	1160
Owasco	1393	1501
Scipio	1470	1417
Sempronius	756	743
Sennett	1423	1481
Springport	1447	1555
Sterling	2359	2469
Summerhill	613	604
Throop	960	964
Venice	1343	1402
Victory	1208	1258
Totals for towns	32,438	33,402
VIL	LAGES
Cayuga	348	373
Weedsport	1344	1449
Cato	374	388
Meridian	326	313
Aurora	493	558
D D	* one

1324

571

1379

815

624

7014

Moravia

Ithaca Auburn Short Line

Central New York Southern Railroad Corporation.

In Effect Sept. 21, 1914.

SOUTHSOUND-Read Down					STATIONS		NORTH BOUNDRead Up
27	23	421	21	31		32	422	22	24	28
Daily	Daily	Sunday Only	Daily Except Sun,	Daily Except Sun,		Daily Except Sun,	Sunday Only	Daily Except Sun	Daily	Daily.
PM	PM	AM	A M	A M		AM	AM	AM	PM	PM
6 20	1 50	8 30	8 30	6 45	<ul> <li>AUBURN</li> </ul>	9 20	11 09		5 00	8 59
6 35	2 04	8 45	8 43	7 00	Mapleton	9 05	10 54	11 14	4 45	8 44
6 46	2 14	8 56	8 53	7 11	Merrifield	8 53	10 43	11 04	4 35	8 33
6 55	2 22	9/05	9 01	7 20	Venice Center	8 44	10 34	10 56	4 27	8 24
7 10	2 33	9 20	9 12	7 33	GENOA	8 29	10 19	10 45	4 16	8 09
7 21	-2 41	9 31	9 21	7 43	North Lansing	8 18	10 08	10.36	4 06	7 58
	2 50	9 50	9 32	8 05	South Lansing	8 05	9 55	10 26	3 55	7 45
7 40 8 05	3 15	10 15	9 56	18 30	ITHACA	7 30	9 20		3 30	7 10
PM	PM	A M	AM	AM	- US TOWN	A M	AM	AM	PM	PM

Trains No. 21 and 23 going South, and No. 22 and 24 going North are the motor ulation of Cayuga county for the cars and do NOT stop at Flag stations. Sunday trains No. 422 and 421 are the motor cars and these stop at all stations.

Additional Trains between Ithaca and Rogues Harbor leave Ithaca 10:00, (daily except Sunday) 12:15, (Sunday only) 2:00 and 4:40 daily and 9:30 p. m. (Saturday only.)

Also leave Rogues Harbor at 10:40 a. m. (daily except Sunday) 12:50 (Sunday only) 2:35 and 5:15 p. m., daily, and 10:05 p. m. Saturday only.

FOURTH OF JULY NEAR AT HAND!

Only two weeks to Fourth of July—Just time enough to get your suit made to measure to celebrate the Fourth.

¶Just received a Big Line of up-to-date Straw Hats includ-Panamas and Caps of all kinds.

Fine Shirts and Nobby Neckties, Silk Hose in all the latest shades. Shoes and Oxfords, lace or button, rubber soles and heels. Tennis Shoes and Oxfords for Men, Ladies, Girls and Boys.

Underwear in separate and Union Suits, and B. V. D.

Don't spend your time to make a trip of 40 miles. into the Genoa Clothing Store and you can get dressed from head to foot, which will save you time and expense.

All Goods Warranted as Represented. GENOA CLOTHING STORE - - M. G. Shapero.

GENOA TRIBUNE and N. Y. World $1.65

SPECIAL CASH SALE TEN DAYS ONLY

Misses' Children's Gents'

Rugs, Carpets, Lace Curtains, Linoleums, Dress Goods and Underwear. PRICES

R. & H. P. Mastin,

is expected. Admission to grounds suddenly decided to buy from "I'll be durned if I'll work for Watch and Clock Repairing.

Copyright by Edmonston

MISS ALICE PAUL.

Miss Alice Paul of New Jersey is chairman of the Congressional Union For Woman Suffrage.

Miss Paul is a graduate of Swarthmore college and has an M. A. and Ph. D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania. She is also a graduate of the New York school of philanthropy and studied at the Universities of Birmingham and London. She was formerly chairman of the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage association and formerly a member of the board of the Pennsylvania State Woman Suffrage association.

The Congressional Union For Woman Suffrage is an organization which has as its basic work the establishment of a national suffrage amendment.

The women most interested in the suffrage movement felt that during the incoming of a new administration was the psychological moment for reviving interest or, rather, creating a new interest in the demand by women for Congressional union was formed, with Villa has gone to place his artillery. demonstrated in no unmistakable ferms for a national suffrage amendment. Suffrage history was made that day preceding the inauguration of President Wilson, when approximately 8,000 women marched from the capitol at Washington up Pennsylvania avenue, past the White House and invaded the Hall of the Daughters of the American Revolution. This demonstration was so beautiful in its pageantry and allegorical features that it very nearly overshadowed the interest excited in the minds of the people by the inaugural ceremonies themselves, and the Sixty-third congress entered upon its term of office fully informed upon one point at any rate—that many women were demanding the amendment.

STUNNING BATHING COSTUME

Black Satin Given Smart Touch by Red and White Striped Silk.

The girl who bathes in the ocean's briny waves this summer will like to remember herself afterward as having made a pretty picture on the sands with the alluring background of sparkling waves and cloud flecked summer

A REASIDE PANCY.

uky. The costume pictured here will give her such a memory. It is of the ever serviceable black satin, lent disfluction by an underblouse of red and white striped silk. The coquettish cap be red and white, and the white shoes are jured with red ribbons.

SEES VILLA LOSE GREAT BATTLE IN WHICH 5,000

Invited to Trenches to Witness Big Fight, Correspondent is Caught in Thick of Conflict.

*******

THRILLINGLY realistic picture of the great night battle at Sildo, in which Villa was crushed and 5,000 of his men are said to have died, is given by John W. Roberts, special correspondent of the International News Service, in a dispatch to the New York American. The writer was in the trenches with Villa.

Mr. Roberts wrote his description as the battle proceeded. He was shot through the leg, but was rescued by one of Villa's gunners, an American named T. D. Taylor, who carried him to the shelter of a box car after the defeat and sent off his message for

Villa had been teasing Roberts about correspondents reporting fighting they did not see and invited him to see what he promised would be one of the greatest battles ever fought by his men. Roberts went with Villa to the advance trench and began making

It is an old dry ditch, four feet deep, he wrote. Nearly 8,000 soldiers are in this place, the rest of the Villa army having taken positions on the hills to our right. The only sign of the enemy is a cloud of dust four miles away.

No one seems to be excited. It seems as though we are going to have a huge

A mounted officer just informed Villa that it appeared as though Obregon's forces are going to take the offensive Villa seems to take this as a huge joke.

Villa Was Confident.

"Let them come," he said, laughing. "Before morning more than half of them will have turned their toes up toward the stars."

Villa invited me to peep over the an amendment to the national constitu- trench and see the enemy through his tion embracing the enfranchisement of field glasses. I could see nothing but women. It was to this end that the a hazy cloud of dust two miles long.

Miss Alice Paul at its head, and which I have been friends with one Manuel army for two years and has never to President Wilson's administration been wounded. He is a good natured the great strength of the movement fellow and is always grinning. I like to see him smile.

His soldadera has begun to broil a couple of chunks of beef. "You must eat with us, amigo," Manuel said as he borrowed a cigarette from me.

As we ate I asked him if he had no

"Si, senor, we've had two, but during the battle of Torreon, while they were sleeping under a tree, a shell struck them, and we never saw them

Manuel saw me looking at the red aunset and laughed. "That's sangre." he said. "God predicts the spilling of much Carranzista blood tonight. God is on our side. That's why we always

An infernal sound like the ripping of canvas split the silence overhead. A moment later a whistling explosion was heard in our rear. I jumped from where I sat, trembling violently. Manuel didn't even look up.

"The enemy has begun its cannonading," he grinned.

I am the only excited person in the whole trench. The other soldiers, who have not finished their suppers, are still enting. The soldaderns don't seem to be afraid, either.

The red in the sky has turned to a deep purple. The Villa artillery on our right has begun to boom. To me the air seems charged with a sinister something that I can't describe.

Carranzistas Open Attack.

Away to our left there is heavy rifle fire. Each shot sounds like two because it echoes against the hills. No one seems to worry. A great, fat soldier to my right is sound asleep. He is lying on the sand, and his face is covered with his big sombrero. A young captain not over eighteen years of age has ridden up to our part of the trench.

"The enemy is sending a column in this direction!" he shouts. "First sergeants, prepare your men! There is a column of our own men to the rear who will shoot down any one who attempts to flee!"

He looked curiously at me, smiled and galloped away.

a soldadera woke up the fat man. and he has begun to curse for all he is worth. It is dark now. There seems to be fighting all around us, but I can see none of it. Each side has discovered the positions of the other's artillery by the tongues of fire emanating from the cannon at each shot,

Every man in our trench is patiently waiting. The soldaderas-most of them-are sitting down in the ditch. smoking-like myself. A horse which was standing outside the trench near us was killed, and it rolled in on our right, putting out the campfire.

I wonder if I am only greatly excited or deathly scared. Perhaps it's suth. I have broken three cigarette papers trying to roll a cigarette. Manpel's soldadera smiles and offers me one of her own ready made chorritos. A young girl farther up the trench inst screamed, "There come the d-

MEN ARE KILLED

While Mexicans and Their Wives Fall Dead Beside Him, He Describes Scene Until Wounded.

down, and a fixed grin gives her a diabelical expression. No one seems to notice her. She runs, screaming the

-----

"There they come, the Bribones Carranzistas! Viva Villa! You are all my lovers if you fight bravely!"

I have never heard so much noise in all my life. It seems as though I had ...ken a peep into hell. The fat man is swearing again. He was hit in the shoulder. He claims that he killed over ten Carranzistas, and because of the bullet in his shoulder has promised to annihilate the enemy's army if it attacks again. I am not trembling so much now because I can see that I am comparatively safe so long as I keep low in the ditch. No one in our immediate vicinity was hurt except the fat man. Terrific firing is going on all over the prairie. Fifty of Villa's cannon #### enemy's cannon on the hills, Villa Now Looks Worried.

are trying to dislodge as many of the Thousands of shots are popping to our right, to our left and on front. I have decided not to peep over the trench.

"There they come again!" Manuel says.

The fat man, despite his wounded shoulder, has jumped up and is ominously clicking his rifle. I am sure that our men will repulse the enemy again, so I am not afraid. I have begun to enjoy it.

The popping has commenced again all around the trench like so many firecrackers. None of the men seems to be taking careful aim. They just fire, click the cuamber and fire again. When the five bullets have gone they charge that swept the Austrians out of snatch a clip from their belts and refill the gun. The fat man is firing faster than anybody else, grunting and to the girl as a souvenir of the victory cursing in the meantime.

General Villa dashed up madly a few moments ago, accompanied by some officers. For the first time since I have known him he looks worried and greatly excited. His teeth are gritted and his white silk shirt is bespattered with "Fight like you have never fought before, muchachitos," he roars. "The enemy are going to try and break us at this place. I have sent for re-enforcements, but the enemy are hurling the bulk of their army here. For the glory of your country, fight! We can hold them until the re-enforcements arrive."

He turned to me, but there was no smile on his face. "I am sorry I got you into this, but since you are here, lie low in the trench. There is no chance for you to go to the rear now. God help you!"

He has gone now, but I can hear him urging his men further down the trench. The blood seems to be clogged in my veins.

Woman Dies Near Him.

I reached for the botija of water, but dropped it. Manuel's wife-Lord, but she's brave-holds it for me while I drink. Everybody is becoming excited. Manuel's hand is trembling when he reaches for cartridges. The fat man has stopped cursing.

A fragment of stone bit Manuel's wife on the cheek. She is bleeding. Lord, but she's brave! The enemy's cannon have been turned upon us. The fat man was killed. He was shot in the throat and falls besides me. the blood oozing like red foam from the hole. Manuel has shouted hysterically that an enemy's column of infantry is approaching. He has told his wife to leave him and run to the rear. A shell has conferred on him the cross of the bursts over our heads to the right with Legion of Honor, a horrible explosion and the balls of shrapnel whistle on their mission of death. No one seems to be calm, Everybody is yelling. Sounds of men shouting and women weeping mingle with groans and curses. Manuel says. 'God has gone against us."

Some one is crying for water. Manuel's wife is weeping. Manuel's wife dies. The enemy are within seventy yards of us. Manuel has dropped his rifle and has burst out crying. He holds his wife's head. Her face is full of blood.

(Next day) I am lying on a blood covered cot in a box car, five miles away from the trench, Taylor, an American machine gun operator. brought me here. I remember having heard some one yell: "Retreat! Re-

The next thing I remember was that some one dashed Manuel's brains out with a butt of a gun. I had tucked my notebook under my belt. I don't remember what became of my hat, my blankets or camera. I was running with the rest, but suddenly felt very

All the muscles in my right leg seemed to refuse to work. I knew I wasn't shot, because I felt no pain, I fell down. Taylor picked me up. The doctor says a bullet pierced my leg above the knee. It is not a had wound-noth-Carrangistas!" She is running this ing but a clean cut Mauser bullet hole. way now, greatly excited. Her hair is I shall be able to walk in a few days.

GIRL IS HAILED AS MAJOR POINTS IN NEW JOAN OF ARC

Young Italian Peasant Beauty Leads Bersaglieri.

Maria Abbriani Guides Soldiers Up Mountain on Tyrolean Frontier and After Days of Heroism Shares In Bayonet Charge, Which Results In Austrians Being Driven Back.

Maria Abbriani, a dark eyed Italian beauty from a mountain village along the Tyrolean frontier, is the "Joan of Arc" of the Austro-Italian war.

King Victor Emmanuel has awarded her a decoration for her bravery ha leading a bersaglieri company in a bayonet attack on the Trentino village of Nori under heavy artillery fire.

With the decoration went a personal telegram of congratulation from the king at his headquarters at the battle

The war office at Rome at the same time made public an official dispatch detailing the girl's heroic acts.

Maria lived with her father, an aged Italian, in the Trentino village under Austrian rule. With other Italian residents, she ran out, says the dispatch, to welcome the king's troops when they entered Nori from the south. Austrians batteries opened fire on the Italians at the outskirts of the village. Maria hurried to the Italian commander, begged permission to be allowed to carry a gun and show the way to reach where the Austrians were hidden.

Her request was granted and one of the soldiers gave her a plumed bersag-

For eight hours she was in the thick of the fighting, piloting Italian troops through the streets of the village and up the mountain paths to flank attacks upon the Austrian trenches.

In the final attack, she actually led a squad of bersaglieri in a bayonet A full bersaglieri uniform was given and her bravery.

GREATEST WHEAT CROP EVER

Federal Report Indicates That Yield May Reach Billion Bushels.

The greatest wheat crop the country ever has known is in prospect for the coming harvest. The federal crop reporting board forecasts the crop at 950,000,000 bushels, which would exceed last year's record crop by 59,000,-000 bushels. With continued good weather the crop may reach a billion bushels.

The bulk is winter wheat, planted last fall on the greatest acreage ever

Oats planted last spring, also on the greatest area ever sown to that crop, exceeding last year's area by almost 2,000,000 acres, is forecasted at 1,288,-000,000 bushels, which is more than last year or in 1913, but 130,000,000 bushels less than the record in 1912.

The barley crop, from present indications, will be second in point of size. with 197,000,000 bushels, which would be 26,000,000 bushels less than the 1912 record crop, but more than grown last year or in 1913.

TWO CROSSES FOR CANADIAN

Warneford, Who Wrecked Zeppelin. Gets Honor Legion as Well as V. C.

The young Canadian aviator, Sub-Lieutenant R. K. J. Warneford, who destroyed a German Zeppelin in a thrilling duel in the air near Ghent, is the first man to receive the highest honors for heroism at the hands of both the British and French.

King George V. bestowed on him the Victoria cross. On the recommendation of General Joffre, President Poincare

For Memorial to Miss Barton. A movement has been started by the Legion of Loyal Women for a memorial to the late Miss Clara Barton, founder of the American National Red Cross, to be erected in Washington.

WAR WIPES OUT BRITAIN'S ENTIRE PEACE ARMY.

The total of British ensualties from the beginning of the war to I was 155,09 men, Premier Arm, th to'd the commons. Tes list he cave was:

Kill- Wound-6,493 Gray 121.28,47 015 147, 482 ....50,312 153,989 53,747 i.c. es la the naval evision and was our small ware in Africa east are not in the first six months the Uritish lessen were totato. In the next four months that were 154.000. In the last two months they

The army Great Britain just sont to the front numbered 150,000 men. The entire British army at the opening of the war numbered 262,-000 men. It is believed that few of these men are now left.

have averaged about 2000 men

The total number of men sanctioned so far by parliament for the war in 3,200,000.

The naval losses due to fee are given as 6,409 officers and men.

WAR ZONE NOTES

Extracts Show Chief Steps In Protests to Germany.

KING VICTOR DECORATES HER | ALSO THE GERMAN REPLIES

Kaiser Disclaims Responsibility For Neutrals on Belligerent Ships and Asserts Lusitania Was Armed-Wilson Replies Liner Was Unarmed and both real and personal estate. Insists on "Strict Accountability."

Below are given the high lights of the correspondence between the United States and Germany beginning with Germany's "War Zone" decree and including the note which led to the resignation of Mr. Bryan as secretary of

Feb. 4.-Germany's "War Zone" de cree said:

"Every enemy merchant ship found in this war zone will be destroyed, even if it is impossible to avert dangers which threaten the crew and pas-

"Also neutral ships in the war zone are in danger. It cannot always be avoided that attacks meant for enemy ships endanger neutral ships."

Feb. 10.-America's note of protes said:

"The sole right of a belligerent in dealing with neutral vessels on the high seas is limited to visit and search. unless a blockade is proclaimed and effectively maintained.

"If the commanders of German ves sels of war * * * should destroy on the high seas an American vessel or the lives of American citizens it would be difficult * * * to view the act in any other light than as an indefensible violation of neutral rights.

"If such a deplorable situation should arise the government of the United States would be constrained to hole the imperial German government to : strict 'accountability * * * and to take any steps it might be necessary to take to safeguard American lives and property and to secure to American citizens the full enjoyment of their acknowledged rights on the high seas."

Feb. 18.-Germany said in reply: "The German government is resolv ed to suppress, with all the means at its disposal, the importation of was material to Great Britain and her al

"Neutral vessels, which, despite this ample notice * * * enter these closed waters, will themselves bear the re sponsibility for any unfortunate acci dents that may occur. Germany disclaims all responsibility for such acci dents." May 13.-America's note, following the torpedoing of the liner Lusitania without warning and the consequent cans, said:

marines) method of attack * * * lies in the practical impossibility of employing submarines in the destruction of commerce without disregarding those rules of fairness, reason, justice and humanity which all modern opin ion regards as imperative.

"American citizens act within their indisputable rights in taking their ships and in traveling wherever their legitimate business calls them upon the high

"It (the United States) confidently expects, therefore, that the imperial German government will disavow the acts of which the United States complains. that they will make reparation, so far as reparation is possible, and that they will take immediate steps to prevent the recurrence of anything so obvious ly subversive of the principles of war-

"The imperial German government will not expect the government of the United States to omit any word or any act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its cit-

May 30.-Germany in response de clared: "It is known to the imperial govern ment from trustworthy reports from its agents and neutral passengers that * * * the Lusitania had cannon aboard which were mounted and concealed below decks and that the Lusitania, as on earlier occasions, carried Canadian troops and war material.

"The German government has no in tention of submitting neutral ships in the war zone which are guilty of ne hostile acts to attacks by a submarine or submarines or aviators.

June 10.-America's reply states: "The Lusitania was not armed for offensive action. She was not serving as a transport. She did not carry a cargo prohibited by the statutes of the United States,

"But the sinking of passenger ships involves principles of humanity which throw into the background any special efreumstances of detail.

"The government of the United States therefore very earnestly and very solemnly renews the representations of its note transmitted on the 15th of May, * * " deems it reasondie to expect that the imperial Ger man government will adopt the mens ures necessary to put these principles guarding of American lives and Amerthis will be done."

LEGAL NOTICES

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK: To E. Byron Whitten, Clara McNaughton, Fred Proper, Bertha Fulmer, George M. Palmer, and to all other heirs at law and next of kin, if any, of Isadore S. Cole, deceased, whose names and places of residence are unknown to petitioner and cannot be ascertained.

Upon the petition of Stephen E. Co'e, of the Town of Genoa, N. Y., you are hereby cited to show cause before the Surrogate's Court of Cayuga County at the Court House, in the City of Auburn on the 2nd day of July, 1915, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, why a decree should not be granted admitting to probate an instrument in writing dated the 16th day of May. 1906, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Isadore S Cole, late of the Town of Genoa, in said County, deceased, which relates to

In Testimony Whereof, We have caused the seal of our said Surrogate's Court to be hereunto affixed. Witness, Hon. WALTER [L. s.] E. WOODIN. Surrogate of the County of Cayuga, at the Surrogate's office in the City of Auburn, this 27th day of May, CLAIRE W. HARDY. Clerk of the Surrogate's Court STUART R. TREAT, Attorney for Petitioner.

Office and P. O. Address 12 Temple Court, Auburn, N. Y.

Notice to Creditors.

By virtue of an order granted by the Surogate of Cayaga County, notice is hereby given that a l persons having claims against the estate of Daniel Riley, late f town of Genoa Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the sam with vouchers in support thereof to the undersigned, the administrator of, &c , of said deceased, at his place of residence in King terry, in the town of Genoa, County of Cayuga, on or before the 29th day of October, 1915.

Dated 26th day of April, 1915. James H. McDermott, Administrator. James J. Hosmer, Attorney for Adm's. 7 Temple Court, Auburn, N. Y.

The Thrice-A-Week Edition OF THE New York World

Weekly No other Newspaper in the world

Practically a Daily at the Price of a gives so much at so low a price. The year 1914 has been the most extracrdinary in the history of modern times. It has witnessed the outbreak of the great European war, a struggle so titanic that it makes all others look small,

You live in momentous times, and you should not miss any of the tremendous events that are occurring. No other newspaper will inform you with the promptness and cheapness of the Thrice a Week edition of the New York World. Moreover, a year's subscription to it will take you far into our next Presidential cam

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per loss of more than a hundred Ameri year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE "The objection to their (German sub GENOA TRIBUNE together for one year for

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00

Flyless City Can Be Made a Reality

LTHOUGH the term "flyless city" A generally has been used in a utopianistic sense, with no one considering seriously the possibility of a community being entirely rid of the insects, health authorities all over the country are beginning to believe that such a condition may be brought about in a city or town where everybody engages in starving or swatting the pest.

One of the cities which have conducted a vigorous warfare on the fly for several seasons is Cleveland. Health officials there have issued a bulletin in which they say that Cleveland will be entirely free from flies as soon as every citizen sees that his premises are maintained in a sanitary condition, that his garbage can is kept constantly covered, that his house is properly screened and that other simple suggestions for eradicating the fly are carried out.

A Useful Fly Poison

USEFUL fly poison is prepared as follows: Two tablespoonfuls of formalin are mixed with a pint of equal parts of milk and water. This is poured into saucers and a piece of bread placed as an island in the center for flies to alight upon. The flies are attracted to the solution, poisened, and the formalin possesses also disinfectant properties as it evaporates.

For the rapid destruction of files within houses the most useful procedure is to burn pyrethrum powder (Perstan insect powder). All doors and windows must be tightly closed, and into practice in respect of the safe after the powder is burned the files must be swept from the floor and burnfrom rhips and asks for ascurances that ed, as some may be stunned but not killed by the fumes,

Place your Insurance with the VENICE TOWN INSURANCE CO. $1,400,000 IN FARM RISKS!

WM. H. SHARPSTEEN, Secretary,

Genoa, N. Y.

Our Furniture Department

Is Ready to Serve You

Our entire Fourth Floor in the Two Buildings is devoted to this Department and is filled with the finest line, the most attractive furniture it has been possible to procure.

Many months were spent in preparing for this new department, in selecting the assortments, in buying this new stock and we believe that now our efforts have been fully repaid for we feel sure we have as fine, as up-to-date a furniture Department as can be found in Central New York, and we feel when you have had the opportunity of inspecting this Department you will second our opinion.

We trust we may expect an early visit.

Choosing a Summer

PUBLIC HEALTH HINTS

Prepared Each Week For the Readers of This Newspaper by the New York State Department of Health

IF you or your family go away from home for a vacation this summer it will be partly for pleasure, but mainly for HEALTH. You hope to come back strengthened and refreshed for the work of the coming year. It is an unfortunate fact that many people who have saved up for their vacations in this spirit come back, not strong and well, but infected with germs of disease that will keep them for weeks on a sick bed and if they recover will leave them for months afterward in poor physical condition. "VACATION TYPHOID" is a far too familiar fact to every city health officer. The State Department of Health devotes a great deal of attention to the supervision of the sanitary condition of summer resorts. The people of the state could do much themselves to aid in this important work if they would take steps to inform themselves beforehand about the precautions taken by hotels and boarding houses to protect their guests. The state inspector cannot be on the ground all the time, but the hotel keeper has a profound respect for the educated public opinion of his patrons.

Before deciding where to go for vacation find out all you can about the water supply and sewage disposal, the milk supply and the presence of insect pests.

Make it clear that the WATER SUPPLY must be properly protected from sewage contamination, and if you find when you arrive that it is taken from a stream or pond into which sewage enters without proper purification you should cancel your reservation. If the water comes from a well be sure that it is not polluted by washings from the surface of the ground. The well curb should be raised at least a foot above the ground and the top covered over by a tight board cover or a concrete slab. The well should be as far away as possible from any special sources of pollution such as cesspools or outhouses.

If the house has a regular water closet and sewerage system, find out where it empties and whether the sewage pours into a lake from which you are expected to drink or in which you are expected to bathe. If there is an outside dry closet, make sure that the closet is TIGHT and the closet screened to KEEP OUT FLIES. Flies carry disease germs from such places to the dinner table.

There is always danger that FLIES or MOSQUITOES may carry disease. Flies breed in decaying filth and mosquitoes in stagnant water, and both of these pests can be largely controlled by sanitary conditions of the premises. If the dining room is black with flies when you arrive, REMEMBER WHERE THEY MAY HAVE BEEN and try another Drink only Grade A and Grade B Pasteurized milk or certified milk, for the other kinds are always likely to become contaminated.

You can get healthy conditions that will insure a happy vacation and send you back to your home in the best of health and vigor-if you will demand them.

The Disloyalty of Demas

REV. WILLIAM WALLACE KETCHUM Director of the Practical Work Course Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

$\$\@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@ TEXT-Demas nath torsaken me.-II

These are the words of an old man anguishing in a Roman prison. They are from the > his belowed Tim-C'r cumstances are not so favorwith able apostle as they were during uis imprisonment at Rome. Then he dwell in his own hired house, received all who came unto him and preached > > the gospel, no

Apostle Pau! to forbidding him. Now prison walls confine him and prison chains restrain him. There ne sits in his narrow cell chained to a Roman guard, writing a letter to Timothy: "Be not ashamed," he writes, "of the testimony of our Lord nor of me his prisoner." "Yea. Timothy, all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. And, as the dampness of the cell causes him to shiver: "When thou comest bring the cloak I left at Troas," and the words of our text,

'Demas hath forsaken." The significance of this statement is realized, when seen in the light of the circumstances which called it forth. Demas, a Christian, a friend of Paul, with him during his first imprisonment at Rome, has abandoned the apostle. He stood by him when everything was favorable, but when imminent peril threatened Paul because of his loyalty to Christ, the contemptible coward fled for his life. He could not stand the test, and in this. was the forerunner of many Demases of today who profess to be loyal to ted, is equally guilty as a principal in Christ, receiving all the good things that come from him, and who shout aloud their hallelujahs and amens, but when the testing time comes lack the grit and grace to "endure hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ." It is one thing to shout at a Fourth of July celebration; it is another thing to shoulder a gun and march to the

It is easy to shout "hallelujah" When everyone's saying "Amen;" It's another thing to stand by him

When they curse him again and again. You may have wondered why many who profess loyalty to Christ sadly fail him when the testing time comes. Paul acquaints Timothy with the reason; "Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world." That is it; the love of the world causes disleyalty to Christ. Jesus taught this when he said, "No man can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon," (Matt. 6:24). Does this mean, if we are to be loyal to Christ we must give up everything in the world? That depends upon what is meant by everything. Surely, anything that comes in between Christ and us must be given up. And if we are loyal to him we will surrender all, that he may in turn "give us richly all things to enjoy." As those who love him and are wise, we will weigh the things of time in the balance of eternity, just as the gold hunter in the river bottom washes the dirt that he may find the pure metal, so we should carefully sift the things of the world that we may find the good and true. The builder of the world that we may find the good and true. The builder who rears the skyscraper tests every bit of material that goes into the structure; how much more important it is for us not to permit anything to enter our life that will weaken any part and cause us, when the stress and strain come, to be disloyal to Christ.

John Conion, walking on the railway, caught his foot in a "frog" where two tracks crossed. He laughed at first but when he tried to extricate his foot, he found himself held fast. He heard a locomotive coming around the curve and redoubled his efforts but without avail, and the merciless menster crushed him to death. One thing, only one, held John Conlon, but it held him as securely as if he were bound to the track by a legion of soldiers. It may be just one thing, only one, that holds us from being leyal to Christ, and this one thing, as in the case of John Conlon, may prove

How shall we give up the things of the world which are so alluring? It is not by giving up but by getting. that a wrong love is displaced. If the love of Christ is permitted to flow into our hearts in all its fullness, it will displace the love of the world. "If any man love the world, the love of the father is not in him." This is evident, for two opposite loves cannot occupy the heart at the same time. The love given the right of way will Let Christ in and the love of the world will be displaced.

He that speaks even the highest good for himself alone shall be disappointed.-George S. Merriam.

(Conducted by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.)

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

Judge Pollock of North Dakota, pronouncing sentence upon a man condemned to spend the remainder of his natural life in the state penitentiary, made a scathing denunciation of the liquor traffic. The man had murdered his wife while under the influence of liquor procured across the river in Moorhead, Minn.

"I do not know, and under the present state of our law I never want to know," said the judge, "who sold you the liquor under the influence of which | these-a meal with bread and butter. you committed this unnatural crime. Let that man's conscience bring such remorse that its energizing power will never let go, until the largest possible reparation be made. Whoever he was, and wherever he may be at this sad moment; whether his place of business is in the well-adorned and highlydecorated room where tempting viands appeal to the taste, where sweet music delights the ear and lulls to sleep the reasoning faculties; or whether it was in the lowest, dirtiest, man-abandoned, God-forsaken and death-dealing charnel house of despair, where only abides the thoughtless and sullen greed for gain, it matters not; before the bar of God, if not of man, minutes. Serve very hot with crouhe stands alike with you morally re- tons sponsible for this horrible crime. The trouble is he is not here with you to receive a merited punishment. "If your partner in this offense were here he would plead by way of defense that he did not 'by fraud, contrive or force' occasion your drunkenness-a plea which would have to be sustained. An enlightened and longsuffering public will some day, and that day very soon, rise in the majesty of its power, and demand that the legislature strike out the words 'by fraud, contrivance or force' and 'for the purpose of causing him to commit any crime,' and boldly declare that he who in any manner sells intoxicating liquors to another, under the influence of which a crime, whether of murder or of some lesser offense is commitany such crime committed."

BREAD OR WHISKY?

"What shall we now plant, barley or poison and kill our citizens, our young mothers and the unborn, or wheat, to grow bone and brawn and blood and brains and bravery for Britain?" asks Dr. C. W. Saleeby, F. R. S. E., the noted English medical authority, in an article in the Daily Chronicle of Manchester, England. He deprecates the worse than waste in raising barley to make beer and whisky, and turning food material into poison. He quotes the words of the czar of Russia to his minister of finance, "It is not meet that the welfare of the exchequer should be dependent upon the ruin of the spiritual and productive energies of numbers of my loyal subjects," and urges his fellow-countrymen "in this epoch-year of 1915" to "plant wheat instead of whisky; bread instead of beer; life instead of death," adding that "never, perhaps, was there a more fateful choice for the English nation.'

WHEN IS A MAN DRUNK?

Judicial authority in Topeka has ruled that a man is drunk if a policeman can detect the odor of liquor on his breath. If, in addition, he talks and laughs boisterously he is drunk and disorderly and guilty of a breach of the peace. If this standard were applied to the city of New York it is estimated that 750,000 people would be arrested as drunk and disorderly every day. In Chicago the number would be 400,000; In Philadelphia, 300,-000. The claim of the liquorites that Topeka has a high percentage of drunkenness will not hold water-or any other kind of liquid.

In this connection it may be noted that Topeka, with a population of 47,-102, has 29 policemen. The average for 20 American saloon-infested cities with a population of 43,000 to 49,000 is 46 policemen.

SALOON VS. MODERN BUSINESS. "It isn't the crank who is putting the saloon out of business," remarks the Wichita Beacon. "It's the business man, the railroad man, the banker, the lawyer, the merchant, the men who have to depend upon someone else for efficiency in the various departments of the important work and who have observed the killing effect of booze on the men who have to be responsible for important work. "They are the men who are getting the goat of the distiller.

"The saloon is up against the modern business age. It is up against an enemy that it cannot throttle or buy or browbeat or bluff, and it might as well save what it can and go out of business."

PASSING OF "BLUE MONDAY."

"Blue Monday in the industries of Kokomo is a thing of the past," says J. E. Frederick of the Kokomo Steel and Iron company, Kokomo City is without saloons, "On Monday our factories are able to secure the same brown. output as on any other day of the week. This was not the case when saloons were running."

OUTLAWED DEBT. The supreme court of Georgia has decided that a liquor debt is not collectable in that state.

He that hath a trade hath an estate, and he that hath a calling hath an office of profit and honor.-Benjamin

SOME SOUPS WITHOUT MEAT.

The purpose of a soup at the beginning of a meal is mainly to prepare the stomach for the heavier foods which will follow by warming it and stimulating the flow of gastric juices. When soup is given as a food, taking the place of other dishes, it should be prepared with that end in view. A cream soup is one of A puree of beans or peas is another satisfying soup. Asparagus Soup.—Take a bundle of asparagus, cut off the heads and put them aside for a more delicate dish or to be used as a garnish for the soup. Cover the shoots, after cutting in small pieces, with a quart of water; boil up and drain off the water, throwing this away. Cover with boiling salted water and cook until the asparagus is tender. Rub through a colander, add this to the liquor in which it was cooked and with a pint of milk put on to heat. Cook together two tablespoonfuls of flour and butter, add to the heated soup and cook for five

When you have boiled cabbage for dinner, save the water in which it was cooked for

Celery Soup .- Put two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan, and when bubbling hot add a slice of onion; cook until brove, then add the cabbage water (a pint) and four goodsized carrots, put through the meat grinder (fine). Stew gently for an hour in a tightly covered kettle, then add two tablespoonfuls of butter; put the puree through a sieve, reheat, season with a dash of lemon juice and salt, and serve piping hot.

Cream of Celery Soup .- This, perhaps is the soup which is the best liked of all the cream soups. Take three bunches of celery, wash and cut into small pieces and cook slowly for half an hour; press through a colander, using as much of the celery as can be pushed through. Put this into a double boiler with a quart of milk. Cook together three tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour and add to the puree. Cook until smooth; add seasoning of salt and dash of paprika.

fellow men, and cry that all is dark and gloomy, are in the right; but the somber colors are reflections from their own faundiced eyes and hearts .-

APPETIZING DISHES FOR SUNDAY MEALS.

The meals for Sunday are best prepared largely the day before when possible, so that the day may be a day of rest. If a roast is to be served it may be cooked on Saturday and reheated. The salad may be prepared, all except putting together. A dessert is often better to serve if made the day before, especially gelatin desserts.

Veal With Sour Cream .- Take a loin of veal for roasting and lard with strips of fat salt pork, lay some in the pan before putting in the meat. Brown in a hot oven or sear over in a hot pan on top of the stove, dredge with flour and season and baste freely with sour cream the first half hour, then cook slowly. The flour will thicken the gravy suffciently and it may be served either poured around the roast or in a sauceboat.

Cherry and Grapefruit Salad.-Cut the chilled fruit in halves. Take out the pulp with a spoon and dress with French dressing. The juice of the grapefruit may be used in the place of French dressing. Serve on lettuce leaves or return to the skin from which the pulp was removed. Take half a cupful of canned cherries or maraschino cherries and add to the Grape-Nuts Pudding.-One cupful of grape-nuts, one quart of milk, two eggs beaten until light, half a cupful of sugar and half a cupful of raisins. Bake slowly in a moderate oven. Serve with sauce as follows: Two tablespoonfuls of flour added to two of bubbling hot butter, add the juice of one lemon and enough water to make a thick sauce, sweeten to taste. This will serve eight guests.

Italian Potatoes,-Cut potatoes in cubes and cook in boiling, salted water. Drain and arrange in layers with a rich white sauce and a generous sprinkling of cheese. Bake until the buttered crumbs over the top are Nellie Maxwell.

In France farmers are experimenting with a prolific potato from Uruguay, which perpetuates with roots tendency of "downward convidence in left in the soil.

SYSTEM OF CITY BUILDING

Practically the Same Principles Should Be Applied as in Commercial Development.

An important session of the convention of the American Civic association at Washington was that devoted to city planning, with Mr. John Nolen of Cambridge, Mass., vice-president of the association, presiding. In introducing the subject, Mr. Nolen said: "The subject allotted for this session is 'City Planning,' which needs in this association very little explanation, because it strikes at the root of so many of our civic problems. I think that it is true that all successful enterprises of magnitude have been planned enterprises; they have not come about by chance. In city planning we recognize that millions of dollars in money and many things more precious than money have been wasted because of a lack of plan. Our streets, our parks, our recreation spaces, our houses and homes, give ample evidence of all of this. The first step, it would seem, toward the solution of our social and industrial problems is a comprehensive plan. We need transportation plans to solve our transportation problems; we need a zone plan to district our cities, to give stability to land values and to protect districts; we need an industrial district plan in order to give efficiency to industry, and we need a plan for homes for the workers because, without a plan, there is not the slightest prospect that they will be properly housed. Commercial efficiency rests upon rapid and cheap transportation of merchandise; upon the proper location of water and rail terminals and facilities; upon distributing routes; and upon contented people in good homes with playgrounds."

NOVEL IDEA IN NEW YORK

"Be a Good Neighbor" Movement is Plan of Civic Association to Relieve Distress.

After Elbert H. Gary had written letters to President Wilson and Governor Whitman asking their help in accelerating national and state public works the mayor's committee on unemployed announced that it was ready to try out a new plan for relieving distress in this city to be called the "Be a Good Neighbor" movement.

The movement is described as follows by Charles Stelzle, the committee's director of relief and emergency

"The plan has as its immediate purpose the securing of a considerable number of men and women who will assume responsibility for families or individuals whose need may consist of food, clothing, a doctor's service, medicine or a job. The 'good neighbor' need not necessarily supply all these wants, but he may assist by directing the needy person to the agencies or persons prepared to do so. However, no limit is to be placed upon the friendship and neighborliness which the 'good neighbor' may feel disposed to exercise.

"'Good neighbors' will be given the preference as to the particular agency with which they would like to co-operate. If, for example, a 'good neighbor' prefers to work only through the churches the case will not be referred to any charitable organization. The same principle will be applied to all other groups doing relief work,"-New York Times.

Group Building Plan.

A special feature of the building at what is known as "The Gardens," a section of Philadelphia, is the so-called "group building" plan. This plan makes it possible to buy a house of superior construction and enduring value for a lower price because of its being either semidetached or one of a group of three, four, six, eight or ten houses set contiguously in a row. These groups and rows add greatly to the beauty and variety of the building scheme. They have been planned so as to conform to land and road contours and are of different sizes and prices, with varying interior arrangements and architectural treatment. For instance, houses may be sold for less money than a detached house on a larger plot, but the group house purchaser has the same advantages in construction, and a richness and variety in the architectural treatment of the block unit, not possible with the smaller exterior surface of a detached house. That this novel building feature has been appreciated is shown by the fact that the group houses have been eagurly bought.

Self-Adjusting Platon Ring. Packing the pistons in an internal combustion engine is not an easy matter, and many are the plans made to circumvent the necessity of continually adjusting and packing loose pistous. A novel type of piston ring has been, invented by a Boston manufacturer, in which the use of radial holes serves. to equalize the pressure between the dier and inner surfaces. The piston, rings have a slightly conical shape, which causes them to be forced tightly against the cylinder walls during the compression streks, when the stendishe American.

NEW YORK NEWS

Paragraphs of Interest to Readers of Empire State.

News of All Kinds Gathered From Various Points in the State and So Reduced in Size That It Will Appeal to All Classes of Readers.

Batavia has the only yew tree in Genesee county

Half a million black bass fish fry have been planted in Silver lake. Batavia's fire department will hold a street carnival, beginning Aug. 16.

Jay Rundell, aged 46, was killed at Cortland when he fell from a wagon. There has not been a death from tyrhoid fever in Syracuse for eight

Mayor Louis Will of Syracuse has corner stone of a $7,000 temple on the 26th inst.

Canandaigua.

Recent rains came just in time to a verdict of 6 cents. save the strawberry crops in the vicinity of Lima.

Ira Allen Sankey, son of the famous New York city Franklinville's state census enumerator reports that village has a population of 2.050. Bernard Bagan of South Clens Falls and William Parker of Kinsbury were killed by lightning. A lodge of the Loya! Order of Moose about 100 members. Public school children in New York are being shown how to detect false weights and measures. Henry A. Hamilton, aged 67, dropped dead while working on a farm near Camillus, Onondaga county. Miss Mina Davis of Shinglehouse.

Pa., is in an Olean hospital suffering from bichloride of mercury poisoning. Barker, Niagara county, residents will spend $125,000 on new buildings and improvements on old ones this

Charles H. Vail has resigned as physical director of the Jamestown Y. M. C. A. after a service of several Geneva residents will next September vote on a proposition to give that city a commission form of government.

Sherman Wright, aged 25, fell 60 feet from the top of a water tower at Otselic, Chenango county, and still

Fifty charter members were secured for the newly-organized Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association in August Belmont, formerly Eleanor Robson, the actress, was operated upon in New York for appendicitis. D. L. Tayor & Co. of Medina have the contract for building two sections of the municipal dock at Dunkirk for

During warm weather Dunkirk's harbor is alive with earp. Five tons

Le Roy has an issue of $105,000 worth of village bonds which it wishes to dispose of. It will pay five per cent interest.

Roscoe L. Wycks has been appointed postmaster at Four Mile, Canandaigua county, to succeed Mrs. E. Melville, resigned.

Two residents of Spencerport complained to the Rochester police that colored women. Class of 1915 is to present an art glass window for Normal Hall at the Brockport normal school on commencement day. On Sunday June 27, the New York Central Railway will begin operating trains between Buffalo and Niagara Falls every hour. The New York State Association of Undertakers, in convention at Poughkeepsie, selected Buffalo as the convention city in 1916. Members of the legislative powers committee of the constitutional convention killed the Quigg amendment, designed to prohibit boxing. Albion has hired Earl B. Taylor of Rochester, graduate of that city's university, as principal of its high schools at a salary of $1,100 a year.

While asleep, the six-months-old son of William H. Smith of North Tonawanda pulled a blanket over his head and smothered to death.

Burglars in Rochester visited William A. Oberlie's drug store and carried off the office safe in which were $350 cash and valuable papers.

Pairport has chosen as the convention town next year of the Central New York Volunteer Firemen's association, which met at Palmyra

The red bettle, a comparatively new pest, is in Gowanda in large numbers, eating the fruit ss well as the leaves on peach, cherry and plum trees.

Railroad men captured a five-foot black anake on the depot flatform at field day at Exposition park, in Be-Mumford. The reptile was sent to tavia, on Monday, July 5. Large del-Rattlemake Pele Gruber in Roches gations have been promised from t'.

Mrs. Marie Aiken, whose father, Moses Gallarneau, an Albion blacksmith, willed her only $300 of his $3,000 estate, has commenced a con-

Miss Franc A. Reichenbach, for forty years a teacher and school principal in Rochester, has resigned and will go on the pension roll at $800 a

Taft has been appointed lecturer in not run. the Goldwin Smith foundation at Cornell university for the next college

County Judge Hull Greenfield of Auburn announces his candidacy for the Republican nomination for con-

Henry C. Crago, agent for American Express company at Batavia a short with the company in Le Roy, has re- N. Y.

The federal census taken in Olean in 1910 showed that city had a population of 14,743. The state census just completed gives between 17,000 and 18,000.

Harry D. Crosby, Batavia actor, has offered $50 for the best design for a signed a contract with a moving picture syndicate to appear in the part Delevan Odd Fellows will lay the of Lem Dunbar in a picture entitled

"York State Folks." Mrs. Augusta Bartmann sued Her-Owing to ill health Peter F. Leech man Lamke of Rochester for $5,000 has resigned as deputy postmaster at | for slander because, she said, he call- neck, once around my waist." Then ed her a bad name. A jury gave her

Addison W. Fisher has been chosen trustee in bankruptcy of the defunct Bank of Warsaw. Assets are appraishymn writer, has been divorced in ed at $47,662.97 and the claims aggregate about $90.000.

> Fred Flagg's appointment as canal patrolman at Medina, a position to which some importance is attached, is considered a political victory for the L'Hommedieu organization.

Residents of Sayville are complaining of an alleged German atrohas been organized in Gowanda with city. They say the great wireless station there draws lightning and they fear the town may be destroyed.

> Fredonia firemen will hold their an nual parade and inspection July 5. Invitations to participate have been extended to companies in Dunkirk Brocton, Westfield and Silver Creek.

> Edward Marceau and Edward Kutscheke of Rochester hired a horse from the Morgan livery and sold it to gypsies at Mondon. They were arrested and the horse was recovered.

Judge Norton of Warsaw and W. L. Chapin, B. A. Nevins, W. S. Sanford and C. A. Marmichael of Perry were elected trustees of the Wyoming County Pioneer association at Silver

Daniel J. Reagan, an Erle engineer, picked an eight-leaved clover near the railroad tracks at Port Jervis. He picked it up for a four-leaf specimen, but found that under each leaf was

"Chase yourself," said Martin Hallman to Mrs. Hetzler in a New York street car. She chased Hallman and gave him a black eye, a cut scalp, ripped clothing and a broken umbrella.

He was arrested and fined $3. Thomas F. Rogers, attorney for David Dunn, who is under sentence of death the week of June 28 for the murder of Harry Edwards of Corning, is seeking a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence. F. P. Calhoun, 40 years old, committed suicide at Penn Yan by leaping from the Northern Central bridge to the tracks below, a distance of 50 feet. A farewell message to his and a half were caught in two selns relatives was found on a card in his pocket. John Steiner asked the police in Rochester to save his wife, who had threatened to commit suicide. Mrs. Steiner admitted it, saying her husband did not provide food and she was starving. She was taken to the almshouse.

C. D. Davey, of Salamanca has been appointed a deputy attorney-general to have direct charge of all the work they had been robbed of $245 by two of the attorney-general's department in the court of claims. Judge Davey is now serving his 24th year as surrogate of Cattaragus county.

> Fire, believed to have been the work of an incendiary, destroyed the Union Forging company's plant at Binghamton, with a loss of $100,000. The company had been operating night and day for the last few weeks filling contracts for ammunition and cast-

> As Wayne Walker of Nunda and Pasquale Vinceno were investigating the failure of a charge of dynamite to go off under a stump on the Bath-Hammondsport road, the blast exploded, and both men lost their eyesight. They were otherwise bady hurt and may not recover.

> A heavy windstorm, forming at a point about eight miles west of Baldwinsville, swept through that village, wrecked one barn, stripped the roofs from two houses, tore down more than 50 large trees and demoralized the telephone, electric lighting and street car service.

Charles M. Campbell, landlord of a Naples hotel, and his bartender, Fay- ADVERTISING ette Holcomb, convicted of selling liquor to drunken men, were fined $500 and $300 respectively, sentences of imprisonment being suspended on condition that neither engage in the Buy It Now liquor business for a year.

Odd Fellows from all the larger towns of Genessee county and from Attica, Buffalo, Rochester and Warsaw will hold a big demonstration and Buffalo and Rochester lodges, #### 5x8 Flag for Seventy Cents.

The Circulation Department of The Post-Standard is offering subscribers a 5x8 American flag, fortyeight stars, in fast colors for sixtyfive cents, five cents additional if sent by mail, for the Fourth of July.

These flags are double-stitched Former President William Howard and guaranteed in colors that will

> If you are not a subscriber, order the Post-Standard now and you can get one of these flags at the price

The Post-Standard by mail costs gress to succeed the late Sereno E. $3.00 a year, $1.50 for six months, or delivered by carrier boy, 10 cents a week. Address Circulation Departtime and who was formerly connected ment, The Post-Standard, Syracuse,

Her Waist Measure.

A teacher in one of the city schools who to say the least, is one of generous proportions - was trying to explain to her scholars the correct measurements of the human frame. "For example," she said, "twice around my thumb, once around my wrist; twice around my wrist, once around my neck; twice around my she paused and a shrill voice from the back of the room exclaimed, 'Twice around yer waist, once around the city hall."-Youngstown Telegram.

Shake Into Your Shoes

Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder for painful, smarting, tender, nervous feet. It takes the sting of corns and bunions. Over 100,000 packages are being used by the German and Allied troops at the front. Sold everywhere 25c. Sample FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Free P otographic Developing

We believe our developing and the pictures made in our Photographic Department the best it's possible to make. Each film is examined to obtain the best results. We make no charge for Developing, charging only for the pictures.

Price List for Printing. All sizes up to and including: 21/4 x 31/4, each .....3c 21/4 x 41/4, each ..... 40 31/4 x 41/4, each ...... 40 31/2 x 31/2, each ..... 40 31/4 x 51/2, each ..... 4c Send Your Photographic Work to Us.

Sagar Drug Store 109-111 Genesee St., Auburn *****

To the Home Trade

Don't drop it When you've got it, Either.

Keep Your Trade by

What you sow you reap. If you sow your money just that much earlier. Sow now.

The new and proper way to treat kidney liver and blood ills is to remove the great cause of the trouble-disordered digestive organs (stomach, liver and bowels). This is what Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy does. It tones up the liver and stomach, relieves constipation, casts out poisonous wastes and restores right digestive action; thus the kidneys and bladder have a chance to act right and are cleansed, healed and strengthened, the blood purified. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has an unbroken record of success; a standard family remedy that never disappoints. Write Dr. David Kennedy Co., Rondout, N. Y., for free sample. Large bottles at druggists.

PULLDOOWN PROMPT ATTENTION

If you find it inconvenient to come to Auburn to do not try trading by mail?

of our business special atttention; orders received by mail receive just as much consideration as you would get were you to come yourself.

We pay postage on all bills amounting to $1.00 or more and ship goods the same day they are ordered.

C. R. Egbert

The People's Clothier, Hatter, and Furnisher

75 Genesee St., - - AUBURN, N. Y

Furnishings Clothing STYLE, QUALITY AND ECONOMY

¶Clothing in which you find the Mosher, Griswold & Co. label may be bought with confidence—the same confidence with which you buy any other article of known quality. When you have purchased a suit from this store, you enjoy a feeling of complete satisfaction that lasts with the enduring quality of Mosher, Griswold & Co. ready-to-wear garments.

to $35

If Mothers Only Knew. Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Chilnow for needed things Stomach, Teething Disorders, move and regulate the Bowels and destroy worms. They break up Colds in 24 hours. Used by mothers for 26 years. All Druggists, 25c. Sample FREE. Address A. S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

では20年間に成功を見ると OHN W. RICE CO 03 GENESEE ST.,

Waists and Dresses

Every day we are showing something a little different in our waist department; short sleeves are now in demand and we have a good assortment priced from $1.00 to $10.00. You will be surprised at the splendid waists now being offered at $1.00 and $1.50 all sizes are on hand.

Dresses

Simple dresses well made and stylish are what we are striving to show this season. It makes no difference whether it is a medium priced or expensive dress the fit is the same. Beginning at $3.50 you can find a full assortment up to $25.00 all sizes; also a good stock of colored dresses from $1.00 to $12.50.

Jewelry

In our Jewelry store we are offering special bargains in goods put up in leather cases. Manicure sets, Military brushes, complete traveling sets, etc., at 25% reduction in price.

your shopping, why QUALITY MEETS ECONOMY

TWe have a wonderful assortment of SUMMER Millinery, We give this end Suits, Coats, Skirts, Dresses and Blouses.

> ¶You can get a real stylish hat for little money. tiful supply of trimmed hats at $2.95. This assortment includes Hemp, Chip and Panama Hats most elaborately trimmed.

¶Special wash skirts $1.00, $1.25, $2.00 to 6.00.

¶Blouses 95c to $10.00.

Tub suits in all colors and sizes 16 to 46.

¶Coats $5.00 to $25.00.

Alterations free and guaranteed. ¶Smart Silk Sweaters $7.50 to $25.00.

Smart Wool Sweaters $3.00 to $12.50.

145 GENESEE ST., AUBURN

The Auburn Trust Company removed its office from 63 Genesee St., to 64 Genesee St., on Saturday afternoon, June the 19th, and opened its doors for business at its new office on Monday, June 21st, at 9 o'clock a. The public are respectfully invited to in spect its new quarters.

Attention, Farmers!

If you intend to grow Alfalfa you will need some Ground Lime Stone-we have it on hand, also Portland Cement, Osborne Harrows, Kentucky Grain Drills, Child's Land Rollers, Planet Jr. Cultivators, Sterling and Steel King Wagons.

MILLER PHONE C. J. WHEELER, Genoa, N. Y.

AUBURN SAVINGS BANK

Pays

FROM APRIL 1,

UNDER THE TOWN CLOCK Cor. Genesee and South Sts. Auburn, N. Y.

The plain methods used in depositing and withdrawing from a Savings Bank in New York state give the depositor advantages of a ready bank account bearing interest Interest will be allowed on all amounts from $1.00 to $3,000.