MAKING A JOYFUL NOISE HERALDING WORLD'S GREATEST MISSIONARY EVENT OF THE CENTURY

The Methodist Centenary Trombone Choir of 100 instruments is here shown leaving the stage in recessional. At the head is Frank M. Sutphen, director. This is the first time 100 trombones ever have been organized into a single musical unit. Above, at the left, is S. Earl Taylor, director general of the celebration, of New York. At the right is W. B. Beauchamp of Nashville, Tenn., associate director general of the celebration, representing the Methodist Church South.

ONE hundred trombones, mobilized for the Methodist Centenary Celebration in Columbus, Ohio, June 30 to July 7, will pour forth the harmony of "Hallelujah Chorus" and "Holy City" in the huge Coliseum where the musical features of the celebration will be held.

One hundred trombones—some so large and some so small that they must be made to order—will blend their music in the largest, and, so far as is known, the only choir of its kind in the world.

Being absolutely new and unique, the trombone choir has presented any number of difficulties to its organizers, the Centenary Celebration committee. In the first place, they must find 100 trombone players within reasonable distance of Columbus. They solved this problem by mobilizing all the professional players, and completing the organization with talented amateurs. Anthony Ruppensburg was made business manager of the choir, and Frank M. Sutphen, a well known trombonist of Columbus, was secured as director of the 100 musicians, who are contributing their time and talent to making a success of the Centenary Trombone Choir.

A greater problem lay in what to play, for no music had ever been written for a trombone choir of 100 players. It had to be specially prepared. Nationally known composers are now at work arranging such sacred and semi-sacred selections as the "Soldiers' Chorus" from Faust, "Holy City," "Hallelujah Chorus" and "Onward Christian Soldiers" for the huge choir.

The Centenary Choir is composed of 12 soprano trombones, 18 altos, 40 tenors, 18 baritones and 12 bass trombones. These 100 instruments are arranged to form six separate choirs, each a musical unit in itself. At the extreme right of each bank, or choir, come two soprano trombones no larger than cornets. These instruments are made to order. Next come three altos, then two first tenors, and two second tenors. In the center of each row are the third and fourth tenors. Next come the first, second and third baritones, each with a part of its own, then the big B flat bass trombone, and, on the end of each choir, the F bass, a majestic affair, which also had to be made to order for the Centenary Choir.

"Most people have the mistaken idea that the trombone is a blaring, blasting instrument, used solely for the purpose of making noise," says Mr. Sutphen, the director. "On the contrary, it is one of the truest of musical instruments. Having neither valves nor frets, it can be tuned perfectly as it is played, and its tones can be softened to the mellow notes of the violin."

"So adaptable is the trombone, so wonderful is its power of expression, that it can take the place of flute, cello, cornet or violin, in an orchestra. And the same variety of tones may be perfected in a correctly balanced choir of trombones as the largest organ can produce."

VALVE PAPER - IN ALL LIVE TOWN

IN THE MIDST OF LIFE

The jester won the mountain peak
And turned to gaze behind—
"Was that a path for a step so weak?
Thank God that I was blind.

The sunlit stretch where I laughed so loud,
Did it skirt that precipice?
The bridge where I stood to sketch the cloud,
Did it span that black abyss?

"When I turned aside to the little stream,
Was the somber tarn so near?
Was the eagle's swoop in the evening
gleam
On the bones I see from here?"

He faced to the front again; his sight
Could scarce discern the track;
The slope on the left with mist was white,
And the wood below was black.

In a hollow just ahead
The pathway crept along—
"Enough is hid for mirth," he said,
And the curlew heard his song.
—E. T. Hopkins.

removing ink stains.
To remove black ink stains, the article should be washed immediately in several waters and then in milk, letting it soak in the milk for several hours; the stain will disappear. Washing the article immediately in vinegar and water, then in soap and water, will remove all ordinary ink stains.

Polish Up Your Buttons.
To restore fine pearl buttons to their former color and luster wash in warm water and soap suds, then dry and polish with a nail buffer and a cake of nail polish. Now that it is difficult to get the finer quality of buttons, this method is satisfactory—the buttons look like new.

On Loving.
"What I can't understand is that if people want to be loved—and everybody does—why in the name of goodness don't they do a little loving on their own account? You needn't expect to get what you don't give."
"Kitty Canary," by Kate L. Boshor.

The Rose's Name.
The name "rose" varies only slightly among different nations. The Romans called it rosa—a form adhered to in Italian, Portuguese, Spanish and Russian. In Polish it is roza, in Dutch roos, in Swedish ros, and in French, German and Danish rose.

Passed Away.
Notice in a country store—"We regret to inform our honored customers that our good and generous friend, Mr. Credit, expired today. He was a noble soul, always willing and helpful, but has been failing for some time. May he rest in peace. Pay cash."

Beginning of Pittsburgh.
November 25 is the anniversary of the raising of the English flag over the ruins of Fort Duquesne in 1754. The place was then named Pittsburgh, in honor of Britain's famous prime minister. It owes its great growth to its proximity to coal and iron fields of vast magnitude.

Foundation of Brotherhood.
"The doctrine of the Brotherhood of Man is a beautiful dream, but it remains forever the baseless fabric of a dream, unless it is founded upon the deepest of all realities, the Fatherhood of God. To better our social conditions we need close thoughts, careful study, a diligent application of the best methods, but at last without faith in the eternal foundations there can be no final adjustment of social difficulties, and all earthly wisdom is but as sounding brass and clanging cymbals."
—Dr. Samuel Smith.

Prepared.
A train, running on a line which had achieved an unenviable notoriety for slowness and unpunctuality, after losing considerable time in a short journey, suddenly stopped in the midst of fields. "Guard!" shouted a jovial passenger, "may I get out and pick some flowers?" "Afraid you won't find many about here," said the conductor, good-humoredly. "Oh, there'll be heaps of time," replied the jovial passenger—"I've brought a packet of seeds."

Village and Vicinity News.

Ash Wednesday, March 5.

Miss Ruth Ford is home from Auburn for a few weeks.

A. H. Knapp returned Tuesday morning from his trip to New York.

Chas. Dean, a student in Ithaca High school, spent the week-end in Genoa.

Mrs. Jane Turney went to Auburn Saturday last to visit her daughter, Mrs. Leo McDermott.

Mrs. Stell of Chicago and Miss McKeon of Seneca Falls were week-end guests of Mrs. Hugh Tighe.

Paul Springer has been at his home here since Saturday last, and has been on the sick list this week.

After April 1, 1919, we will charge 6 per cent. interest on all unpaid accounts. Genoa Roller Mills. 32w3

Mrs. Herbert Gay is reported as more comfortable this week. She will be obliged to remain in bed for several weeks.

Ray Brogan has been able to sit up for a short time, but is not gaining very rapidly, being troubled with pleurisy.

The work of filling the big ice-house at Genoa creamery was commenced yesterday. The ice is 11 inches thick and very good quality.

There will be a social evening in the lodge rooms on Tuesday evening, March 4. The Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and their families are invited.

Mrs. Bert Grey went to Auburn Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week. Mrs. Harry Fulmer accompanied her, returning home that night.

See complete program of Farmers' Institute to be held in Genoa next Friday and Saturday, March 7 and 8. The sessions are to be held in the High school building.

Fred Leeson has purchased the farm of 50 acres of Mrs. Oscar Tift at East Genoa. Mr. Leeson expects to remain on the Harria place and will work both farms.

W. P. Shaw has received a letter from his son, Charles L. Shaw, of Supply Co., 309th H. F. Artillery, 78th division, dated Jan. 30, 1919, saying he was well and located near Dijon, France.

Pvt. Lawrence Smith spent a few days' furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, leaving Monday night to return to Portsmouth, Va. Miss Mary Smith was home from Ithaca from Saturday to Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith of Ithaca also spent Sunday at the same place.

Miss Alma Smith, youngest daughter of C. A. Smith of Genoa, was united in marriage to Private Frank Millage of the marine corps, on Wednesday, Feb. 19, in Ithaca, Rev. Wm. H. Harrington performing the ceremony at the rectory of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. They were attended by Miss Dorothy Stevenson and John Mitman of Ithaca. The young couple left the same evening for Brooklyn.

The Baraca class of the Presbyterian church scored a big success with their entertainment last Saturday evening, when Mr. W. W. Rock, who is an Australian, gave an illustrated lecture on Australia. The audience filled the church and it seems to be the unanimous opinion that the lecture was a most interesting and entertaining one. The speaker gave a fine description of the climate, natural beauties and resources of the country, its products and industries, the whole forming a veritable word-picture, which held the close attention of the audience. Beautiful colored pictures were shown on the screen, including views of cities, rivers, forests, etc., and the lecture was interspersed with funny incidents and amusing stories. Music in the form of piano duets was furnished by Miss Blood and Miss Cope, and a young men's quartet—Messrs. Dean, Smith, Hand and Bradley—sang several war songs. The net receipts were $27.60. This will be applied on the amount which the class subscribes annually toward the church finances. The Baracas extend thanks to Mr. Rock for coming to give the lecture, to Mr. Springer for the use of the balopticon and his services in operating it, and to the young ladies who furnished the music. The boys are planning for another entertainment to be given in March.

Fred Dean is out again, after an illness of three weeks with influenza.

Mrs. Frank Riley spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Sill in Ithaca.

Cider over 30 days old has been classed as liquor, under the new excise bill.

Auburn's motor car and tractor show is being held all this week at the State Armory.

The initiatory degree will be conferred next Wednesday evening by Genoa Star lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Winn of Ledyard were Sunday guests at the home of W. R. Mosher.

Isabell Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dean, is reported quite ill with pneumonia.

Rev. Pugsley is at Fabius, N. Y., to conduct a series of revival meetings in the Baptist church.

We will have steam up and can now grind feed at the Genoa Elevator 6 days in the week. Atwater-Bradley Corporation.

Miss Irene Mulvaney pleasantly entertained a dozen young people at cards, Monday evening.

Miss Irene Kinchley of Auburn was a week-end guest at the home of her cousin, Mrs. J. W. Gard.

The Masonic club of Auburn will hold its annual banquet, for the members and their wives, on March 13.

Mrs. Mary West returned to her home in Auburn, Thursday, after spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Smith.

Again we call the attention of our subscribers to the fact that the price of THE TRIBUNE was raised Jan. 1 to $1.50 per year. Please remember this when remitting for 1919.

The most desirable forms of desserts for the growing child are bread or cereal puddings, custards, and blanc-manges which combine high food value with ease of digestion.

Lieut. F. B. Stoker of New York, has been a recent guest of his friend, Willard Wilcox, at North Lansing, and also called on Genoa friends. Lieut. Stoker belongs to Uncle Sam's navy and has made ten trips across in his service.

Farmers' Week at Cornell seems never to get to be an old story. This year the total registration was 4,300. The largest previous registration was 3,548, which was in 1917. The number registered does not represent full attendance, as many visitors do not register.

All farmers and their wives in Genoa and surrounding territory should attend the big two-day institute to be held here next week Friday and Saturday. Your presence will aid in making it a success. The ladies are especially urged to attend the Homemakers conference on Friday afternoon. The program covers a wide range of subjects.

The maple syrup producers of Cortland county have the distinction of organizing the first incorporated company in the state for the purpose of increasing the production and quality of product and selling pure maple syrup direct to the distributors and consumers. Records at the farm bureau office show that the farmers of Cortland county produce annually about 50,000 gallons of maple syrup.

The village of Aurora on Cayuga lake, about 14 miles from Genoa, was visited by a fire Wednesday night which will paralyze the business of that little town quite seriously for some time to come. The fire broke out about 12:30 o'clock and before it was checked had destroyed six business places. The burned buildings extended from the village school building to the Wayside Inn. The latter was damaged considerably but was not burned to any extent. A residence on the opposite side of the street also caught fire, but this blaze was extinguished before any harm was done. Telephone service in the village was greatly crippled by the fire and it was difficult to obtain many facts. The burned buildings were occupied by a hardware store, drug store, Morgan's and Maloney's groceries, Snyder's furnishing store and one unoccupied building was destroyed. The only fire protection which Aurora possesses is one chemical engine. Assistance was given by King Ferry with their two engines and also by the Auburn fire department. The amount of loss sustained, could not be ascertained as we go to press.

Return to 2-cent letter postage is promised for June 30.

Clinton Slide of Kelloggsville shot a large red fox last week.

A Munnsville candy maker made "Benny Suckers" so good that he has received from a city dealer an order for 10,000.

The Boston Transcript says: "There are those who think that ex-President Taft may yet receive a somewhat belated encore."

Preble and Truxton voted upon excise on Feb. 18. Preble voted "dry" on all four propositions. Truxton voted for the drug license only.

Fred Orndoff has purchased the William Young farm south of Locke. Mrs. Young takes the Orndoff house and lot in the village of Locke as part payment.

After the Ransomville men's club failed to get anywhere in regard to the establishment of a Y. M. C. A., the ladies' club of that place has undertaken the task.

E. C. Weatherby, manager of the Cayuga County Farm Bureau, was taken ill last Friday and is confined to his home, 137 East Genesee St., Auburn. He had to cancel engagements for several days.

As another warning that youngsters should be very careful in the use of air rifles, may be cited the case of a Fayetteville youth who shot a playmate in the eye while playing with an air gun recently.

May 24 has been set by the Cornell university faculty as Spring Day. The athletic contests for the festival have not been decided upon, but there will probably be a baseball game and a crew race on the lake.

Restoration of the 5-cent loaf of bread in New York has been promised by the master bakers of New York and vicinity according to George Ammend, editor of a trade publication of the Retail Bakers' association.

The Smith Creamery Company has served notice on the members of the Cats branch of the Dairymen's League that after April first that company will receive no milk unless it is iced. The farmers are making plans to put in ice.

Messages were received in Genoa Thursday morning from Cortland of the burning of the Cortland Normal buildings early that morning. Miss Jenny Robinson, a teacher in the Normal, telephoned her cousin, Mrs. F. C. Hagin, at 10 o'clock that the buildings were totally destroyed, the walls having fallen in. There was a great loss of valuable apparatus, books and teachers' material, the contents of the different club rooms, etc. Principal DeGroat had been in Chicago, and had just left for home when news of the fire was sent him. No one seemed to know how the fire started, but it appears that it must have been burning for some time before discovered. An appropriation has been made for a new Normal building and there has been considerable controversy in Cortland over the location of the proposed new building. It would seem that the question has been settled and that the present site which is central and easily accessible from all parts of the city, can be used.
