Beekeepers Elect Officers.

The twenty-first annual meeting of the Cayuga County Bee Keepers' Society was held March 19 in the supervisors' rooms in Auburn. At the morning session there was a roll call and the report of the secretary-treasurer. The meeting was then addressed by the president, N. L.
Stevens of Venice Center, who spoke of "Honey Markets." Charles Stewart of Johnstown, New York, State road disease inspector, gave a report of the meeting of the New York State Bee Keepers' Society held at Syracuse in February. Over twenty were present.

The afternoon session opened with the election of officers. All the former officers were re-elected with the exception of J. W. Pierson who stated that he had held office for more than twenty years, and that he should be elected. The result was:

President, N. L. Stevens of Venice
Center; secretary and treasurer,
Fred D. Lamkin of King Ferry;
first vice president, George L. Ferrie of Atwater; second vice president, George M. Sowarby of Cato;

third vice president, S. L. Coulson of Moravia.

The first address of the afternoon was by Fred D. Lamkin on the subject "Bee-Keeping as an occupation."
This was followed by open discussion on the question: "Should we encourage the consumption of extract honey to the exclusion of comb
honey?"

Charles Stewart gave an instructive talk on bee diseases. "Perhaps the most interesting part of the program was a number of results from the Short Course for Commercial Bee-Keepers at Ithaca.

Twentieth Anniversary

We have now outgrown the swaddling bands of childhood and the pranks of boyhood and have reached the zenith of manhood. It seems a short twenty years since we came to Auburn entire strangers and hung out our shingle. There seems to have been the need of such a store, for the people have been with us from that memorable opening day in 1899 and to-day we thank them for their appreciation of our efforts which has made the Big Store, as the people themselves named it, known in every village and hamlet in the County and this without much fuss and hurrah.

This steadily growing appreciation has given courage to our plans and an impetus to our actions.

THE BUSINESS IS FOUNDED ON

PROGRESS
FASHION

We have unlimited faith in the future of Auburn and with a reconstructed Chamber of Commerce we look for immediate developments and this store will keep pace with the progress. In the not very distant future we hope to climb into the floors above—but more of this later. Meantime in the days to come we hope to retain the confidence of our patrons—so long as we deserve it.

—Helen A. Strong, D. D. G. M., made her official visit to Star of Cayuga Chapter at Union Springs, Wednesday evening, March 19. Mrs. Strong was entertained by Mrs. Walter Devine and Mrs. J. W. Schenck Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Frankie Brown, who accompanied her, was a guest of Mrs. W. A. Counsell.

—In a general readjustment of the rural mail service in this section, effective April 1 Moravia will lose one route. Route No. 59, with Walker McLaren as carrier, will be eliminated. Locke will lose a route, No. 22 being the one to go. James Shaw is the carrier. Route No. 60 out of Venice Center, with B. E. Wattles as carrier, is also abolished.

Peanut Butter in bulk at Smith's.

—Myrtle H. Pierson, the 15-year-old son of F. E. Pierson of West Groton, thinks he holds the trapping record of this section for anyone of his age. He says since the season opened Nov. 10 he has trapped nearly $125 worth of furs, including one fine red fox taken last January, for which he received $17.85. He hopes to bring the amount up to $200 before the muskrat season closes April 20. He has also helped cut ninety cords of wood since last fall and attended school the rest of the time.

—The faculty of Auburn Theological seminary recently decided to award the Maxwell Fellowship to William W. Rock of the Senior class. The Fellowship is for one year and its value is $600. In awarding the Fellowship the faculty are guided by the scholarship of the student, his power to make the most of the year's opportunity and his ability best to represent the seminary and its scholarship at the college where he pursues his studies. Mr. Rock, who has been supplying the Presbyterian pulpit here for the past winter, is to be congratulated upon receiving this honor.

—C. C. Conner of Otego has just purchased a yoke of oxen weighing 3,000 pounds, which he intends to use in farm work.

—J. C. Speckle, a Greene farmer, paid a fine of $25 for selling maple syrup without indicating on the cans their contents and weight per gallon.

Two chips of glass, before I never saw the stars,
Nor butterflies with painted bars, nor blades of grass.
The yellow bees I never saw, nor little birds,
But only heard their friendly words from blurred green trees.

The world did seem vague, dull—I knew not why;
I only knew all earth and sky, dim as a dream.
And then those bits of glass! Oh, myriad life! Oh, wonder sight!
Oh, jeweled world! Oh, star-hung night!
my soul goes dancing with delight!
THANK GOD FOR CHIPS OF GLASS!

—Geneva will have an ice plant in operation by the first of April that will turn out forty tons of ice a day, and it is expected after the addition of further equipment the capacity will be raised to eighty tons.

—Canandaigua lake has produced no ice this year and the city faces a famine in that essential. Chautauqua is one of the few lakes in New York from which a supply of ice has been secured this season.

—The village trustees of Dansville have forbidden the selling of air guns or similar instruments within the village limits. A fine of not less than $5 will be imposed upon parents or guardians who allow children to possess or carry such guns.

—The skunk is possibly the foremost game animal in New York state in point of value. There were taken in New York last year 200,000 skunks. Their raw furs reaching the market with an average value of $4 each, meant more than $1,000,000 to those who did trapping.

—Jesse B. Wilson died Saturday night in Ithaca as the result of an attack of apoplexy that morning. He leaves one daughter, Ruth Wilson of Washington, and one son, Paul Wilson of Ithaca. Mr. Wilson's home was in Dryden but he had been spending the past winter in Ithaca.

—The Curtiss Aeroplane company's factory near Hammondsport, has been closed and is offered for sale. The plant was the first one started by Mr. Curtiss. At times it has employed several thousands of people and its closing means considerable loss to the people of the Lake Keuka region.

—The Adwater Products Company, Inc., manufacturers of candy specialties and soda fountain supplies, now located in Wilkesbarre, Pa., will take over the properties and equipment of the Independent Brewing Company and the Central State Milk Products Company in Auburn and move its plant to that city, according to an announcement by the Chamber of Commerce.

—Posters for the coming "Victory Loan" to be launched next month, are the most elaborate in color and design of any used during previous loan campaigns. They are being shipped to all sections so that when word is given by the Treasury Department they can be released simultaneously throughout the land. Treasury officials say that the coming loan will be the most effectively advertised of all.

—There are new and stringent regulations governing the securing of licenses by dog owners for their canines. The new licenses are ready and must be obtained by all dog owners before April 1. After that date town clerks are required to report to the justices of the peace of their towns and to the State Department of Farms and Markets all dog owners in their town who have not purchased licenses for their dogs.

THE MAGIC THRIFT LAMP

It is Sold by Our Government Today and the Countersign is "W. S. S."

Thrift is the modern counterpart of Aladdin's Wonderful Lamp. When Aladdin wanted gold, or a palace, or the ancient equivalent of a limousine, he rubbed the lamp, and his wish came true.

Children today, living in times a bit more practical, are learning the value of the "Magic Thrift Lamp," as an educator recently termed it. Compound interest is the Lamp's working basis. This is not a fairy story, so we do not hesitate to give away the secret of the Magic Thrift Lamp. In most savings banks interest is paid on deposits at the rate of 4 per cent., payable every six months.

The Government, through War Savings Stamps, pays compound interest. The W. S. S. of today, costing $4.13, thus becomes $5 in five years, with no effort on your part except holding on to the stamp. In this manner interest—the Magic Thrift Lamp—makes the dollar work for you, while you pay no attention to it at all. On January 1, 1924, when you receive the $5, you have more money and the pleasure of having helped the Government. Then you can put the money in a savings bank, and it will continue to grow in value. In twelve and a half years from 1924 it will be double the original value, $4.13, and in thirty-five years, from today it will have quadrupled, for that is the principle of Interest Thrift, which works on a mathematical basis Aladdin never heard of. The more you invest today the greater will be your quadrupled total in 1954.

Do you want to be wealthy? Then utilize the Magic Thrift Lamp today. It's a valuable habit.

NEWSPAPERS BANISHING W. S. S. SCALPERS' ADS.

Newspapers throughout the country are gradually banishing from their columns all advertisements inserted by unscrupulous persons who conduct a business of purchasing War Savings Stamps at a discount.

Kansas City is the latest city to fall in line in excluding "stamp shark" advertisements from the newspapers, according to a report received by the Savings Division of the United States Treasury from John T. Wayland, Government Savings Director in the Tenth Federal Reserve District.

Secretary of the Treasury Glass has warned the public about stamp "sharks" who make profit on War Savings Stamps owners who wish to dispose of their securities quickly. Postmasters have been instructed not to redeem War Savings Certificates from persons whose names are not registered on their certificates. Certificates can be redeemed at any post-office BY THE LEGITIMATE HOLDERS upon ten days' notice.

VICTORY WITHOUT PEACE.

"America was once told there might be peace without victory," says Frank A. Vanderlip.

"What we have is victory without peace. What can America do? There is certainly one thing she cannot do, and that is to withdraw herself, to rest in the belief that this chaos is remote and that America can avoid playing her part in international responsibility."

That is one reason for the Victory Loan campaign, O, ye of little faith!

Extravagant Saving.

What you really need, you pay for, whether you get it or not, because it costs more to do without a thing that you ought to have than it does to pay for it; just so, it would have been ruinous extravagance in Uncle Sam to have been sparing on war expense. It would be extravagance in the people not to buy Victory Notes.—Bolton Hall in "Thrift." (Revised Ed.)

A SHILLING A DAY IS A STAMP LAID AWAY

By Edward P. Beach.

If an apple a day keeps the doctor away, as the signs in the cars blithely tell, then it's even more true that a shilling or two will silence the lean wolf's yell; though you doubt very much whether apples and such are proof against mankind's ills, it's safer to try a Pipplin than die, for Pippins are pleasant pills. And when you need dough, its consoling to know that you've laid up a snug little pile, to use as you will, like the medico's pill, as you sneer at misfortune the while. Though fate may come swift, this practice of thrift at the rate of a few cents a day will net you much joy of a pure gold alloy, keeping wolf and M. D. both away. But you'll never know why, until once you try, how fast your money will grow, and the dead surest thing is the way it will bring a blessing that many would know. So seek at the bank a Savings Stamp blank and lay down your ultimate cent to keep wolves away and speed on the day when you stop paying medicos' rent.

THE SPIRIT THAT BROUGHT VICTORY TO THE ALLIES

It's a far cry from 987 Madison avenue, New York City, to the most isolated spots in the Kentucky mountains, but distance seems only to have stimulated the interest and zeal of Miss Underhill, who has given to the betterment of these mountain people much of her time and strength for over twenty years.

"And now it's all coming back to us in patriotic service," says Miss Underhill. "Their schools, for which we worked so hard, have taught them citizenship, and that means patriotism. They are not quite sure just what Liberty Bonds mean, but they realize that they express in some way a personal contribution to the government, and they are eager to serve their country in whatever way they can."

"Hearing there was to be a new Liberty Loan drive, there trooped into the primitive office of one of the teachers the other day a weary looking man followed by sixteen half grown, gawky boys and girls. He was wearing a Red Cross button and said: 'I ain't able to buy them Liberty Bonds, like you-all, but, pushing the group forward, here's all my young uns and a lot of my neighbors' too. Look 'em all over, miss, and see if any of 'em 's worth eddicatin'. Maybe you can make 'em some use to the gover'ment, though God knows you'll have a Hell of a job!'"

Safety Bonds.

No one but a hoarder or a miser has as much cash as he has credit. The Credit is more valuable than the Cash; then put your money into what will bring you credit and do you credit. Victory Bonds are the easiest and the safest to buy. If you register them, they will be the one kind of wealth that you will be the safer for showing around.—Bolton Hall in new edition of "Thrift."

Joseph A. Wood.

Joseph A. Wood died at his home in Moravia, Thursday afternoon, March 20, following a three weeks' illness.

Deceased was born in Venice, Oct. 7, 1839. He was twice married, his first wife having been Mary L. Merritt of Genoa. The three children surviving him were the result of this union. The second wife was Sylvia Dresser who survives him. The three surviving children are Gilbert A. Wood of Groton, Mrs. Maud L. Oliver of Groton and Mrs. Etta Alling of Auburn. He also leaves a brother, David S. Wood, of Delevan, Wisconsin.

The deceased spent the most of his life in Venice and Genoa, going to Moravia to reside about 20 years ago.

Mr. Wood was a veteran of the Civil war and served from 1861 to 1865, during which time he was in several campaigns. He was a member of Company H, 76th Regiment.

He was a member of George C. Stoyell Post, G. A. R. Rev. W. S. Stevens, assisted by Rev. P. T. Jones, conducted the funeral services at the late home, Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Burial at East Venice.

Farm Hand Loses Action.

The action of Joseph Harpst against Grace Golden and M. Golden was tried before Justice Dan Tarbell and a jury at Grange hall, North Lansing, yesterday. The jurors were Miles Lane, Frank Tarbell, Charles Fitch, Clay Tarbell, Don Robinson and Edward Buck. It was on a claim of $125 for alleged services as a farm hand.

The verdict was "no cause of action," in favor of the defendants. A large crowd was out and much interest manifested in the trial. Eugene Terry was attorney for the plaintiff and Judge M. M. Sweetland was attorney for the successful defendants.—Ithaca News, March 22.

NEW SPRING STYLES ARE READY FOR OUR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

As our Sailors and Soldiers come back to civil life, one of the first things they want is good stylish clothes; clothes that will set off their erect athletic figures; clothes that are individual and don't look exactly like every one else's.

That's why we can render a real service; not only to the returning men, but to you men at home—we have the clothes.
