BALKANS SCENE OF BIG RED CROSS RELIEF PROGRAM

To Meet Appalling Needs Organization Will Appeal for Funds in the Fall.

Eastern Europe now becomes the theater for supreme Red Cross effort. The appalling distress in the wake of war, in Poland, Lithuania, the Balkans—in all the countries east of the former-Central Empires—cries for relief in tones that the Red Cross must heed to the uttermost limit. This is the message brought by Dr. Livingston Farrand, Chairman of the Central and Executive Committees of the American Red Cross, who returned from Europe after attending the Cannes Allied Medical Conference which outlined plans for the beginning

DR. LIVINGSTON FARRAND.

The American Red Cross has changed from a war time to a peace time basis, and the management of the organization now is vested in the Central Committee and the Executive Committee. Dr. Farrand, formerly president of the University of Colorado, is chairman of both committees.

of work by the League of Red Cross Societies, since organized at Paris to associate the Red Cross Societies of the world in systematic effort to combat misery caused by disease and calamity.

Dr. Farrand is impressed with the responsibility freshly imposed on the American Red Cross, and convinced that the heart of America will respond to the appeal for relief which the people of this country are best able to render. At present, the American Red Cross is doing everything possible to meet emergency conditions in all of the countries where the suffering is acute, notably in the fighting of typhus epidemics; but in spite of all that can be done it is clear that conditions will become aggravated during the next year, and the greater relief demanded will call for funds to carry on the work.

Campaign in Fall.

The appeal for funds will be made next fall, and will coincide with the anniversary of the armistice which ended the hostilities of the world war, thus enabling the people of America to show in practical manner their thanksgiving for deliverance from the horrors which less fortunate peoples were unable to escape.

"Typhus is the great problem of the moment," said Dr. Farrand. "The ravages of this disease in eastern Europe have been terrible, and while, by quick, energetic work, stopping at no personal sacrifice, it has been checked in some places, the danger of an epidemic of terrifying consequences remains very great. In Poland the first request of the Paderewski government following the arrival of the American Red Cross Commission, was a pathetic appeal to try to do something to stay the spread of typhus. In response to this request the commission turned its attention to one of the afflicted districts, as a key point in the carrying on of the campaign, and accomplished excellent results.

"The Conference of Cannes included, in its recommendations to the League of Red Cross Societies, provision for a permanent committee of medical experts of the allied countries to deal with the typhus problem, and, in view of the situation, the co-ordination of effort to bring the disease to a halt naturally will be among the first active works to be undertaken in connection with the new associated movement.

Work in Russia.

"The American Red Cross stands out in France today as the great, disinterested agency which has proved its worth in meeting the relief problems of the world, and to which now all look, almost pathetically, for the help that must be had if the horrors already suffered are not to be made to appear insignificant with those to follow."

In addition to the growing work in the smaller countries of eastern Europe, Dr. Farrand calls attention to the fact that there is a continuing Red Cross program in Siberia which cannot be terminated suddenly. For the immediate present, also, the organization at Archangel finds active work, which will continue as long as United States troops remain there.

$300,000,000 A YEAR THE HARVEST IN STOCK FRAUDS

Amazing Total Gathered by Promoters of Worthless Stocks.

Stock speculators are the cultivators of a mine in which hundreds of thousands of Americans of small means bog themselves yearly. The fact that makes their case the more pitiable is that their number is made up largely of the hard working and industrious sort, who are the most keenly ambitious to better their financial condition.

These are the people who lay aside small sums from their weekly or monthly pay and then succumb to the glib promises of vendors of worthless stocks and bonds.

No less than $300,000,000 is gathered annually, it has been estimated by financial authorities, by these "stock and bond sharks," and their tools have been exacted from those who could least afford to lose the money.

In the 133 years since 1776 no investor in United States government securities has been made unable to redeem them at par with the promised interest.

When the rate of 4 per cent. interest, compounded quarterly, was fixed for War Savings Stamps it was the highest rental the government had paid for money since the Civil War.

This high rate was decided upon to coax into use the small sums lying idle in pocketbooks and cupboards. Their aggregate reached the amazing sum of more than $1,000,000,000, and should all of the War Savings Stamps represented in that investment be held for redemption in 1923, the profit to the holders will be approximately $200,000,000.

Buying War Savings Stamps and keeping them will cheat the "confidence men" of their $300,000,000 yearly collection of "easy money."

DON'T BE A MISER.

- * The United States is trying to become a thrifty nation.
- * To have a thrifty nation depends upon the thrift of every individual citizen.
- * But thrift must be intelligent.
- * Intelligent thrift is not the thrift of the miser. It does not mean saving money for money's sake.
- * It means postponing useless expenditures today in order that wise, well considered purchases may be made tomorrow.
- * The safe investment of your savings where they will earn interest for you.
- * SAVE FIRST. THE SPENDING WILL TAKE CARE OF ITSELF.
- * As a means of saving first the government offers you War Savings Stamps, an ideal investment, paying you four per cent. interest compounded quarterly.
- * (Make a start with Thrift Stamps, which cost but 25 cents each.)

If you buy so you get a dollar's worth of value for every dollar, you CAN spend more. If you treat what you buy as if it had the same value as money, you do not HAVE to spend so much. Buy W. S. S.

Sullivan-Smith.

The marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Smith, oldest daughter of Chas. A. Smith of Genoa, to Louis F. Sullivan, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Florence Sullivan of Auburn, took place Monday morning at 8 o'clock in St. Hilary's church, Genoa.

The marriage ceremony, with nuptial mass, was performed by a brother of the groom, Rev. Daniel R. Sullivan of Rochester, assisted by Rev. E. J. Dwyer, pastor of the church. The couple were attended by a sister of the bride, Mrs. Geo. DeForest, as matron of honor, and the groom's brother, Sergt. Harold Sullivan. The bride was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of navy blue, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Preceding the ceremony as a processional the Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Miss Adelaide Hunter, and at the close the Lohengrin march was played.

Following the ceremony at the church, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, to sixteen relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left at once for Detroit, Mich., where the groom is employed in the Cadillac Automobile plant. They will immediately begin housekeeping.

Those from out-of-town in attendance at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. Sullivan and son Irvin of Auburn, Sergt. Harold Sullivan who is having a fifteen day furlough, after which he goes to Fort Dodge, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millage of Ithaca and Miss Holihan of Verona.

On Thursday evening of last week, a variety shower was given for the bride-to-be, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. DeForest. About fifty were present, and a large number of gifts were showered upon the young lady. The gifts included table linen, towels, cut glass, silver and a variety of kitchen utensils. Refreshments were served and a merry time enjoyed.

Smith-McMillen.

Miss Susan McMillen and James H. Smith, both of this city, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Carr of 806 North Cayuga street last night at 9 o'clock. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Carr. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. Atwater of the State Street Methodist Episcopal church, the ring service being used. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Ithaca.—Ithaca News, Aug. 11.

—When the state highway through Baldwinville is completed, which will probably be some time next summer, there will be a direct route to Rochester which will cut off about twenty miles from the present road through Auburn and Geneva. The new road will connect with Cayuga county through Plainville.

 —Eighteen Genoa friends of Mrs. Roy LaFave of Potsdam remembered her birthday on Aug. 8 by a shower of postcards, also friends in other places. Mrs. LaFave wishes to thank to all who thus remembered her.
 —Mrs. Jane Bower returned Friday last from Ithaca, where she had been spending two weeks at the home of J. H. Smith. Mrs. Olive Smith, who has been in poor health for some time, was able to come to Genoa by auto Friday and is a guest of Mrs. Bower.
 —When your roofs need repairing or repainting, let me show you what I have guaranteed for 6 years. 4w1 A. T. VanMarter.
 —The Mixbeater Machine Company of Brooklyn has been added to the manufacturing industries already established in the village of Groton. The machine is used for beating eggs, whipping cream and mashing potatoes and other vegetables. Employment for fifteen men will be provided when the factory is ready to begin operations.
 —Who owns the hay along the highway? That is a question to be decided in Gouverneur, where a State road patrolman has cut the hay from the road to the fence and taken it home. The farmer who owns the farm along that particular stretch of road has brought a suit to recover the hay, maintaining that the hay between the ditch and fence is his.
 —Those interested in growing better potatoes will be glad to learn that through a test carried on by the College of Agriculture of Ithaca 84 members of the Potato association of several states sent 3 bu. of Green Mountain, certified and recommended seed to the Farm Bureau of Nassau county to be planted so to determine the amount of diseases, etc., (mosaic, leaf rot, wilt, weak hills and mixture) that effect the potato. A report from there shows that David Nettleton of Genoa stands highest in the county and sixth in the state in the contest. For five years he has been selecting best hills from a seed plot to secure a better crop. He has just returned from the State Potato Association picnic held at Fulton, Aug. 9, where growers from all the State met to discuss potato success.

—Cortland County Fair next week, Aug. 18—22.
 —In New York State 128 persons were killed last month by automobiles, against 96 for July, 1918.
 —An invitation has been extended to Governor Smith to be a guest at the Cayuga County fair at Moravia Sept. 30 to Oct. 3.
 —Edward S. Dalton, a former clerk of Cortland county, is preparing to move to Auburn, where he is engaged in real estate business.
 —The New York State Rural Mail Carriers' association meet in Ithaca Thursday and Friday of this week. About 250 visitors are expected.
 —Howard R. Merritt, formerly a reporter on the Auburn papers, has left that city to take up reportorial work on the Binghamton Republican-Herald.
 —John G. Langham, supervisor of Fleming, who has been ill for several months, is reported to be considerably improved, although he still uses a cane in getting about.
 —Patrick Conway's well known band will come to Ithaca for daily concerts at the Tompkins County Fair to be held on Sept. 16, 17, 18 and 19. Concerts will be given every afternoon and evening.
 —A Penn Yan woman recently sold to the Yates' County Canning company 216 quarts of raspberries for $54. She picked these from a patch in her back yard containing about one-eighth of an acre.
 —On the ground that flying airplanes disturb his livestock, a farmer has brought suit at Kansas City to determine the ownership of the air above his farm. No precedent exists to guide the court in its decision.
 —Charles Archer, the Moravia youth, who had been missing since Aug. 4, has been located. It has been learned that he enlisted in the navy at Syracuse, Aug. 5. From Syracuse he was sent to Norfolk, Va., for preliminary training.

 R. A. FARGO, PASTOR.
 The attendance was better last week. The pastor will have to take another vacation if that is what helps.
 Sunday morning service at 11 a. m. Subject of the sermon, "The Seven Sealed Book."
 Sunday school at 12.
 Evening service at 7:30. Sermon on "Man as He Is."
 Prayer meeting at 7:30, Thursday evening at the church.
 East Venice preaching service at 3 p. m. Message, "Where Did The Devil Come From?"
 Sunday school at 4 p. m.
 Have you attended yet?
 The Sunday school picnic was well attended and every one had a happy time.

Genoa Presbyterian Church Notes.
 Morning service at 11 o'clock, with preaching by Rev. W. B. Brock of Auburn. A good-sized congregation last Sunday morning listened to a very fine sermon. The people of this church should greatly appreciate the opportunity they are enjoying in having Mr. Brock for supply during the summer.
 Sunday school after the preaching service. The lessons of the present month are thought by a number of the scholars to be too practical and interesting to lose, and the school is holding regular sessions, although the attendance is not as large as it should be.
 Young people's meeting at 6:30.
 All members of the congregation are urged to attend services.

Card of Thanks.
 We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their assistance during our recent bereavement, and those who furnished cars and sent flowers.
 C. W. Bennett and family.
 We wish to thank all our neighbors and friends, who, in any way, showed their sympathy and kindness in the time of our great sorrow; Especially Earl Mann and family, Paul Faba, Mrs. Bernat, the Rev. Clayton Swayze for his kind words, those who sent flowers, and the young men who bore his body to the grave.
 Mr. and Mrs. John I. Bower.
 Ralph T. Bower.
 At this time when bees are at their busiest, those who are interested may want a copy of "Beginnings in Beekeeping," which will be sent from Cornell for the asking. Write to the college of agriculture at Ithaca for R. C. F. 128.

RED CROSS LEAGUE FULFILLMENT OF AMERICAN IDEAL

Formed in Paris With Five
tions Asked to Join.

The alignment of the Red Crosses of five great nations and the incorporation of an article in the covenant of the League of Nations, recognizing the League of Red Cross Societies and approving its aim, has been hailed the world over as the fulfillment of an American ideal and as a universal answer to the question "Did the war pay?"

The League of Red Cross Societies was officially formed in Paris on May 5 when authorized representatives of Red Cross Societies of America, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan signed the articles of association. The signers constitute the board of governors of the league. Henry P. Davison, the representative of the American Red Cross, is the chairman of the board which eventually is to consist of a maximum membership of fifteen. Lieutenant General Sir David Henderson, who played a prominent part in building up the British air service, has been appointed director general of the league. W. Frank Persons, formerly director general of Civilian Relief of the American Red Cross, has been named as director of development.

Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China, Cuba, Denmark, Greece, Holland, India, New Zealand, Norway, Peru, Portugal, Roumania, Serbia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Uruguay and Venezuela have been invited to join. Eventually, it is expected, the league will include the Red Cross Societies of all nations of the world.

Objects of the League.
The object of the league as officially set forth are as follows:

As set forth in the article of association, the objects of the League of Red Cross Societies are:

1. To encourage and promote in every country in the world the establishment and development of duly authorized voluntary National Red Cross organizations, having as their purpose the improvement of health, prevention of disease and mitigation of suffering throughout the world and to secure the co-operation of such organizations for these purposes.

2. To promote the welfare of mankind by furnishing the medium for bringing within reach of all people the benefits to be derived from present known facts and new contributions to science and medical knowledge and their application.

While the relations of the League of Red Cross Societies with the League of Nations will be intimate, there will be no statutory connection as the League of Red Cross Societies is a voluntary organization, non-political, non-governmental, and non-sectarian.

Scope is Vast.

This movement to continue and enlarge in time of peace Red Cross activities comes at a psychological moment when the world is familiar with the work of relief performed by the Red Cross during the greatest war of history and when suffering and distress following in the wake of that war are well high universal.

Vast as the scope of the program of the League of Red Cross Societies is, and although it is world wide in its application, it is simple, practical and scientific. It received the unanimous endorsement of the medical experts who met at Cannes, France, in April. That conference, which was presided over by Professor Roux, successor of Pasteur, and Dr. William H. Welch, of Johns Hopkins, is regarded as one of the most remarkable gatherings of health experts ever held, and included many of the foremost men of America, France, England, Italy and Japan.

The League of Red Cross plans, through its headquarters at Geneva, to stimulate peace time activities of all national Red Cross Societies, to help them grow and to help them to carry out the program made at the Cannes conference in a world wide public health campaign. It is to be understood that it is not thought that National Red Cross Societies themselves should have the responsibilities of the actual work of safeguarding and improving public health, but that they should stimulate and encourage natural agencies for such work within their respective countries, including the departments of health of their governments, or, in cases where such departments do not exist, endeavor to create public sentiment for the establishment of such departments.

CONTINGENT OF RED CROSS NURSES SAILS FOR SIBERIA

Thirty Red Cross nurses and ten nurses' aids, including nine Czecho-Slovak interpreters and one Russian Red Cross nurse, have sailed for Siberia to join the Red Cross mission there.

Ethel G. Pinder, formerly in charge of the Bureau of Nurses' Aids of the Atlantic Division, heads the delegation, nearly half of whose members recently returned from duty in France. Accompanying the delegation is Helen Demerski, for two years a Russian Red Cross worker, who left Russia after the collapse in 1917 to continue her work in England, and who is returning in the capacity of nurse's aid. The main task awaiting the nurses is to care for the wounded soldiers.

First Century Christianity

Homiletics

TEXT—Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth.—Acts 1:8.

Christian experience, or the human side of salvation, has its finest exemplification in the faith, emotions, and activities of the Apostolic church. The true model of Christian living is seen in connection with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The faith, the joy, and testimony which characterized the lives of believers then should be a permanent feature of Christian living.

Early believers were vividly conscious of the crucified, risen and exalted Savior. The cross was too near to be merely a shadowy object of history. The risen Christ had moved among them dispelling the darkness of their despair, and giving evidence that he was indeed the Redeemer of Israel and the world. He had manifested himself by many proofs during 40 days, and then the little group of disciples had seen him ascend to heaven, rising toward the azure blue of the sky and passing beyond the fringed border of a cloud. More than this, two heavenly visitors, clad in the white of heavenly purity, had given assurance that "this same Jesus," taken up from them into heaven, would "so come in like manner," as they had seen him go into heaven. With this assurance they returned to Jerusalem with great joy, not because the Master was gone, but because they had absolute assurance of his continued ministry in the heavenly places, and of his glorious and triumphant return. This vivid consciousness of the risen and exalted Christ should still be a marked feature of Christian experience. It is possible to let thought of church organization, denominational tenets and schemes of effort become so absorbing as to lose vital consciousness of Christ himself.

With the American fleet no longer scouring the seas for enemy craft, the work of the American Red Cross at the naval stations, shipyards, naval hospitals and other assemblage points for Uncle Sam's bluejackets has more than doubled.

There are forty-one naval stations, shipyards and hospitals in the territory of the Atlantic Division of the Red Cross which now are among the principal debarking points for the men of the navy. This means that the Atlantic Division, which includes New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, contains a large portion of the navy's "high water marks" of operation and consequently its activities are on an unusually large scale in order to meet the needs of the thousands of sailors who are constantly coming and going in the Third Naval District.

Help Army Medical Authorities Evacuate and Debarck Wounded and Sick From Transports.

Starting a little over a year ago with 10 members and 3 automobiles, the Motor Corps of the Metropolitan District of the Atlantic Division of the Red Cross, composed exclusively of women, has developed an organization of approximately 1,000 members, which operates 106 ambulances, 256 passenger cars and 27 motor trucks.

The services of these women, all of them full-time volunteers, has not only been of great assistance to military hospitals, but of incalculable help also to the authorities of the Port of Embarkation, as letters and testimonials from commanding officers will attest.

The magnitude and kinds of service the corps has provided are shown by the following figures, covering the period from October, 1918, to June, 1919:

Litter cases	1,618
Ambulatory	13,153
Nurses	6,185
Casuals	11,441
Recreation	11,965

The hours of service are computed to have been 138,744; the miles covered were 578,043, and the number of "daily cars," 4,568.

Aided Evacuation Work.

The corps has aided in the evacuation and debarking of sick and wounded soldiers, sailors and marines, has transported sick and disabled fighting men to theaters and concerts, and has maintained a service for 200 nurses at U. S. Debarcation Hospital No. 8, providing them with transportation four times a day.

Reports from National Headquarters covering 66 per cent. of the Red Cross Motor Corps in this country for the six months following the armistice show a total of 540,000 hours of service with a mileage of 1,890,000. At $3 an hour, this service has meant a contribution of more than $40,000 worth of gasoline. The women of the corps supply their own passenger cars and gasoline. More than 10,000 women are enlisted in this service. The corps is now on a permanent peace basis and the demands upon it are even greater now than during the war period.

Service for the navy is a wholly different matter from service for the army. In the latter men "stay put" for a much longer time than in the former. With the navy, where the shifting scene of operation is on the high seas anywhere from Guantanamo to Gibraltar, personal contact between Red Cross workers and enlisted men is far more difficult.

When one works with the navy one must be constantly on the alert, with one's "finger on the trigger," so to speak, else the opportunity for service will be gone before it is grasped. This condition calls for a high degree of efficiency and training on the part of the Bureau of Naval Affairs workers—an efficiency and training that have not been found wanting, despite handicaps, as results show.

Loans for Sailors.

No sailor on leave who wished to reach home and who was without funds has been deprived of that pleasure, thanks to loans advanced by the Red Cross. Red Cross representatives covering all forty-one stations in the Third Naval District have also furnished information as to the whereabouts of enlisted men when requests have come in from relatives and friends.

"Stack Litters!" The War's Over, But Drilling Goes On

Discipline and drill are two important things in the lives of Red Cross motor corps girls. They must march and handle their litters with the same snap and precision as the soldiers passing in review, and they must manoeuvre ambulances with the adroitness of cavalrymen in squadron evolutions. Red Cross motor girls are full-time volunteers.

RED CROSS BUREAU BIG HELP TO NAVY MEN

Pie Making—A Lost Art— Revived by Red Cross

The American Red Cross has started a country-wide movement to enlist the interest of women in better cooking, and many of its chapters have established classes of instruction.

Apart from conducting a school of home dietetics, the Red Cross of New York City has opened a set in a district where the people are for the most part ignorant of the correct methods in preparing, cooking, young and old.

AMERICAN CRAFT ON SEAS

How the War Has Put Back the Stars and Stripes on the Waters of the World.

For the first time since the days of the famous clipper ships American merchant craft are now plying the seven seas. The shipping board announced that the American merchant marine fleet, built up under the spur of war's necessity, now represented nearly one-fifth of the entire sea-going tonnage of the world, and comprised 46 per cent of all ships clearing from United States ports, as compared with 9.7 per cent before the great war.

Trade routes not traversed by American craft for more than fifty years once more are invaded with new routes established to China, Australia, New Zealand, India, the Dutch East Indies, the west coast of Africa and ports on the Mediterranean. Ships flying the Stars and Stripes also are running regularly to South America, Great Britain and continental Europe, as well as to Canada and Mexico.

The fleet now engaged in overseas commerce consists of 851 freighters, 84 freight and passenger vessels, 71 oil tankers, 230 sailing vessels and 15 miscellaneous ships, aggregating 1,961,239 gross tons. Of this, 815,925 tons are in Transpacific trade, 402,721 tons in South American trade; 761,252 tons in Caribbean and Mexican trade, and 76,014 tons in Alaska and Canadian trade.

When the army and navy return to the shipping board 353 ships which they are operating the commercial fleet under the American flag will be increased by 1,573,251 gross tons, making the total 18,854,750 gross tons, with many hundreds of thousands of tons building or under contract.

Jailer Forgot to Feed Hungry "Count." Sergius Apraxin, claiming to be a Russian count, was arrested in Santa Barbara, Cal., and held in jail four days without food or water. John Spittler, night watchman, who made the arrest, forgot the prisoner was in jail, and the "count" almost starved to death.

Year Books Ready.

Congressman Gould has been notified that the new 1918 year books of the Department of Agriculture have been issued and a supply placed to his credit for distribution.

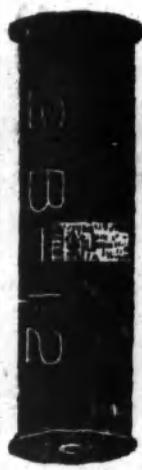

This volume of the Agricultural Year Book contains 760 pages, bound in cloth with handy index, and contains a considerable number of halftone illustrations and information of value to anyone interested in farming or stock raising.

Owing to the limited supply, Mr. Gould will send these books out in the order in which the requests are received, and those interested in agricultural work should take advantage of this offer, and write him direct, care Room 278, House Office Building, Washington.

FRANK W. HENDRICK

-----Logical Candidate For-----

Nomination of Sheriff of Cayuga County ON THE REPUBLICAN TICKET

Supervisor Hendrick is the only candidate for Sheriff from the north end of the county.

Following the long established custom of alternating the office of sheriff between the north and south, it is the popular opinion that the office rightfully belongs to a north end man.

He has been a life-long Republican. Has a record of many years of valued service to his party. He has represented the Town of Sterling as Supervisor for the past seven years. In 1917 was chairman of the Board of Supervisors. He has always been noted for fairness and efficiency as a town and county officer.

Mr. Hendrick has occupied the office of chairman of the Committee on Sheriff's Work for the past three years. This has enabled him to gain an insight into the technique of the sheriff's office, which should qualify and guarantee his efficiency as an officer.

He has rendered loyal patriotic service to his county in many ways: He was chairman of the War Savings Stamp Committee of Sterling, which sold $42,000 worth of stamps. He helped put his home town "over the top" being an efficient member of the committee on the four drives for the government bonds.

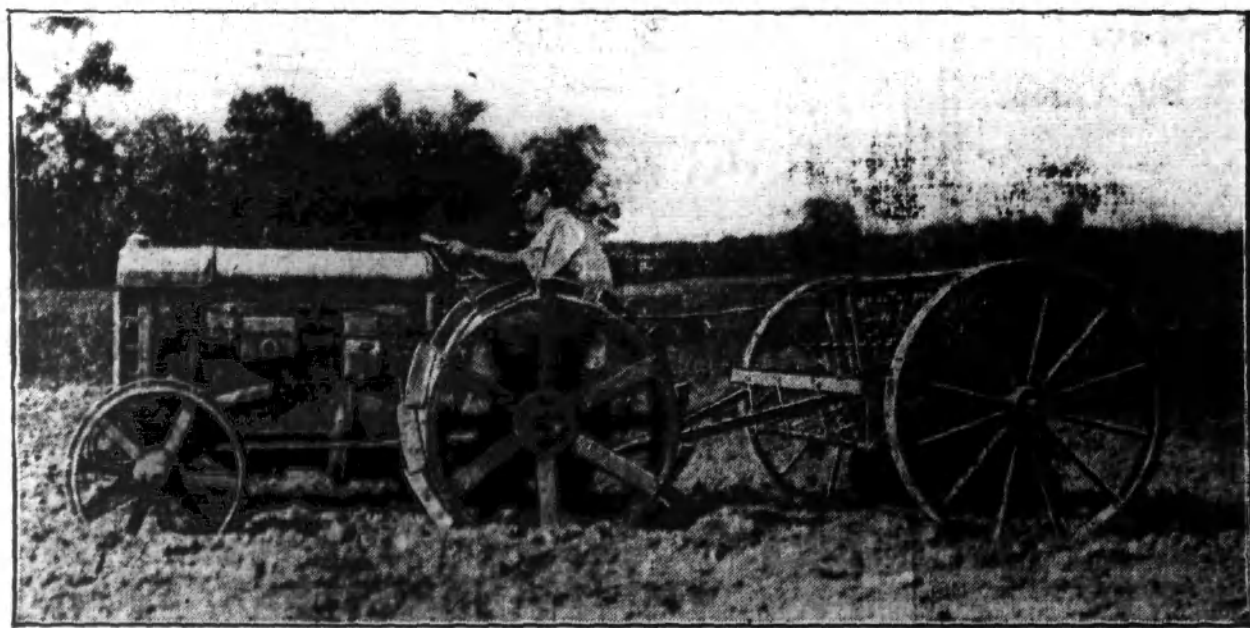

Altogether Mr. Hendricks has over 2,300 signers to his petition. Sterling has honored her townsman with 400 signers, this number being more than is needed in the entire county.

He has many friends and is assured of strong support from all parts of the county.

He asks the support of all voters at the Republican Primary on September 2nd.

A vote for Frank W. Hendrick will help to nominate a strong, capable north end man—the logical candidate for the office of Sheriff. Will promote harmony by insuring the representation of the towns in county politics, according to the established precedent and will promise an efficient administration of county affairs.
