HIGH LIVING COST NO BAR TO SAVING

Savings Banks Reports Indicate
Record Deposits During War
and Since Armistice.

Reports recently received from savings banks and institutions record an increase rather than a decrease of deposits throughout the entire country. From the Atlantic to the Pacific the reports indicate that the purchase of Government Bonds and Savings Stamps have taught the public to increase their savings. Since the armistice was signed particularly the savings banks have been flooded with deposits.

In New York State savings banks deposits a short time ago passed the $2,000,000,000 mark, and the number of depositors totals more than 3,500,000.

In the latter part of May savings banks of Los Angeles reported deposits of approximately $160,000,000. The U. S. Postal Savings banks found January and February of the present year exceptionally big months for savings. Net deposits for March had dropped to about half what they were in January. Officials of the postal savings banks, however, said that March is always at a low figure in deposits because of the annual labor migration. This year also receipts were lowered by the withdrawals of aliens who were attempting to return to Europe. The total increase, however, during the three months was approximately $9,500,000.

The postal savings banks have conducted only very limited educational campaigns in the past, and credit for recent big increases is freely given to the work done in the Savings Stamp campaigns. Persons who get the thrift habit practice it in savings deposits as well as in Thrift and Savings Stamp purchases, it has been shown.

The figures prove that in the tremendous call upon the people of the country for money to float the Liberty Loans and the War Savings Campaigns deposits were not generally withdrawn from the savings banks. On the contrary, it appears that extra effort has been made to pay for stamps and bonds out of the family income without touching the "nest eggs" that are growing in the savings banks.

An interesting statement prepared by the National War Savings Committee of Great Britain says: "The establishment of the National Savings Movement did not starve other organizations for thrift. It stimulated them." It also shows that deposits in the British Post Office Savings Bank were $186,000,000 in 1915 and increased to $242,000,000 in 1919.

A Commerce Report issued in June shows that in Japan all records for savings have been broken in the early part of this year. The average monthly increase has been about 12,000,000 yen ($5,082,000) since February, 1918. It may well be noted by Americans that they will be obliged to practice thrift to the utmost if the United States is not to lag behind the other nations in savings.

THE FABLE OF THE NEGLECTED FLIVVER.

Once upon a time there was a Faithful Flivver which carried its owner every place he wanted to go. But the owner had such a good time tossing his mazuma at the moon that he forgot to get gas. Half way home one night the Neglected Flivver coughed once or twice and then stopped stock still in the middle of the road. And the owner walked wearily.

Moral—You have to keep on adding to your Thrift Stamps or the pile will stop growing. Have you bought your Thrift Stamp today?

FOREIGN BORN NOW TAUGHT THRIFT

Course in Americanization Includes Study of Saving.

Thrift is now one of the subjects being taught to thousands of foreign born workers who are attending Americanization classes throughout the United States in factories, shops, churches and night schools.

As a majority of the attendants at these classes speak but little or no English, the study of language constitutes one of the principal subjects taught in these classes, a half hour drill being held at each session. The Roberts method of language teaching is used, and a mixed class speaking different languages and wholly unacquainted with English, is enabled to make rapid progress, pupils in some cases being able after only a dozen lessons to master simple sentences.

The Roberts method was devised by Dr. Peter Roberts, for the National Y. M. C. A., and is published by that organization. The lessons are short, consisting of about twenty simple sentences on everyday matters, and a class is taught by repeating one sentence at a time after the teacher, who illustrates it with motions and objects.

"I look at my watch," says the teacher, who takes out his own watch. The class repeats this in chorus, then individually. The next sentence deals with numbers and the telling of time. All sentences are linked together, and each teaches at least one new word with connectives. At the end of the lesson it is shown to the class in printed form on a chart.

Teachers in this work are almost entirely volunteers. Americans from offices and factories, usually in the plant itself, are enlisted for the work, and after two or three drills in the Roberts method, are able to teach successfully, without previous experience. It has been found that business and money matters, embodied in these lessons, are of the greatest practical use to foreign-born people, and among the subjects they wish to learn first for convenience and protection. So many of the lessons in the Roberts method hinge upon such transactions as depositing money, buying money orders, pricing merchandise, buying railroad tickets, postage stamps and the like. Other lessons deal with pay-day and the calculation of wages, the drawing of money from the paymaster, and the keeping of home expenses.

At the request of the Treasury Department, Dr. Roberts has written a special thrift lesson dealing with War Savings Stamps, which is now in the hands of Americanization secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. all over the country. This lesson is an excellent illustration of the method by which thousands of foreign-born workers are now learning English, and it is as follows:

War Savings Stamps.

Has—John has some money.
Puts—He puts it in a stocking.
Says—Jim says: "It is not safe."
Answers—John answers: "No? I will see."
Looks—He looks for his money.
Is Stolen—The money is stolen.
Saves—John saves more money.
Asks—He asks: "How can I keep my money?"
Says—Jim says: "See this, John."
Says—John says: "Where did you get it?"
Buys—John buys some War Savings Stamps.
Puts—He puts them in a book.
Says—John says: "This is safe and good."
Buys—John buys more stamps.
Says—He says: "America is safe and so is my money."

RED CROSS READY FOR SERVICE IN BIG DISASTERS

1,500,000 Lives Lost and $1,000,000,000 in Property Destroyed in Disasters Since 1900

Preparedness for disaster relief on a scale never before possible is being undertaken by the American Red Cross. It has just been announced, as one of the important features of its wide peace program, for the support of which an effort will be made to secure a record membership during the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11.

Experience shows that suffering incident to public disasters can be greatly reduced by extension of the Red Cross machinery for supplying emergency relief and knowledge gained in putting through the task of the Red Cross in the war is to be used to the greatest possible advantage.

Because of the lack of the spectacular in many of them it is not generally realized how frequently, year after year, disasters occur, bringing wide devastation, death and suffering in their wake. Since 1900 disasters of peace have cost many thousands of lives and have brought personal injury and property losses to no fewer than 1,500,000 persons, at the same time destroying property valued at over $1,000,000,000. During 1917 alone, eighty disasters came to the attention of the American Red Cross; sixty-two tornadoes, five floods, four great fires, two earthquakes, two serious mine explosions, two munition plant explosions, a race riot, a shipwreck and the tragic calamity which befell Halifax. The total of deaths entailed was 1754, while 5327 were injured and the property loss reached $110,000,000.

Speed of Fire Department.

That, in brief, is the situation that demands a preparedness for emergency relief comparable to the service and speed required of the fire department and that is what the Red Cross, to which the people instinctively turn when fire, flood, tornado, or great accident comes, to leave men, women and children dead, injured, homeless or starving, is to supply. Under its direction the entire resources of all communities for emergency relief will be mobilized for instant use when needed. Red Cross Chapters everywhere will create disaster preparedness committees that will make surveys locating not only emergency food supplies, drugs and other hospital supplies, coats, mattresses, blankets, clothing, schools, armories and other buildings for housing refugees, but will also canvass physicians, nurses, social workers and others prepared to respond instantly to calls for their services in disasters.

Information gathered in these surveys will be collated and filed by the thirteen Red Cross Divisional organizations in the United States, which will establish disaster relief supply centers and take charge of operations when assistance is needed. In case of major disasters, where the resources of the Division in which it occurs are over-taxed, the entire relief strength of the Red Cross in the country will be mobilized, through national headquarters. And in both large and small disasters there will also be ready for immediate relief duty the equipment and personnel of the fifty base hospitals organized by the American Red Cross and turned over to the Army for service in France. Disaster Manual Completed.

For the guidance of its representatives at the scene of disasters a comprehensive Relief Manual has been compiled by J. Byron Deacon, director general of the American Red Cross Department of Civilian Relief, who is charged with responsibility for Red Cross funds and operations in disasters. The Manual, which will be distributed to Chapters throughout the country, calls attention to the frequency of disasters and urges that relief be effective must be swift and centralized. In accordance with the Manual the principle upon which Red Cross service will be extended disaster-stricken communities is to place the resources represented by its membership, preparedness and influence, at the disposal of the afflicted community without delay.

The local community, so far as possible, is depended upon to provide its own relief, with the Division and National Red Cross organizations standing ready to rush additional aid where it is necessary. The extensive and varied experiences of the Red Cross places it in a peculiar position to offer sound counsel. It has built up a trained and seasoned staff of relief workers and will leave on file in Division offices, its list of experienced disaster workers under agreement to go, at a moment's notice, to any stricken territory.

A. N. C. Sewing School BELGRADE.—The first Serbian School of Domestic Science is expected to grow out of the sewing school started by the American Red Cross here some time ago. The school was equipped with American sewing machines and materials, and its expansion on a permanent basis has now been favored by the organization of a cooperative society, known as the "League of Belgrade."

WHY Men of Medicine Oppose Euthanasia

Although attempted suicide is a felony punishable with severe penalties these are rarely inflicted, coroners' juries being inclined to assume that trouble or pain had driven the sufferer temporarily insane. And many persons hold that under certain circumstances a person has a right to die, a right to demand that his physician give him a lethal dose of poison that will end his sufferings with a painless death, called euthanasia. But a doctor who lent himself to such an arrangement would be committing murder under the law, and the greatest of malpractice, that would at least result in his expulsion from the profession. Those who argue for euthanasia would have the law and the rules of the medical societies changed to permit what they would call this work of mercy.

Physicians, however, do not desire to have any such responsibility thrust upon them. It is all very well to talk of "hopeless" cases, but no experienced doctor dares call any case "hopeless," for all who have had a large practice can recall cases that have seemed utterly hopeless suddenly take a turn for the better and recover. In the words of the Lancet (London), "the medical profession would disclaim anything approaching infallibility." "While there is life there is hope" is an old proverb that the medical man has to justify by providing examples of its application.

Nor would the doctor care to share the responsibility with any one else. Is the patient to be the judge? Must the sufferer's wife or other relatives be consulted? How about the insurance companies that hold policies on his life? Then there are the many possibilities of complications after death. Suppose, for instance, a question were to be raised as to whether the condition of the patient justified the legal murder, as it very well might be. This would scarcely make for the peace of mind of the responsible physician.

This summary of the Lancet's argument leaves out of consideration all the religious and ethical principles that are involved.

AIDED BROTHERS IN FIELD

How Women in Civil War Times Went About Their Activities in Work of Mercy.

The activities of women in war work recalls the work of the women during the Civil war in a little village of New York. William H. Shelton, in a reminiscence article in Century, says: "Our village had a decided opinion about the war, and when the ladies who had played battledore and shuttlecock wanted to do their bit in a Red Cross way they selected the little red cannon house as the scene of their activity. The yellow gun carriage, with its double trail, was wheeled out upon the grass, its brass gun actually pointing south, with the round iron balls hard by in the portable chest. Here at fixed intervals the ladies met to make havelocks and pick lint. For the first they brought good cotton drilling, and for the soft lint they scraped the oldest sheets and pillowcases of fine linen from their grandmothers' wedding chests."

Why War-Time Diet Was Best.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, a Hoosier who became famous as an authority on the proper food, has been making a short visit to Indiana friends. He says, according to the Indianapolis News:

"I regret that the American people so soon abandoned the restricted diet enforced by the war-time food administration. The use of white flour instead of the war mixture is a step backward so far as the public health is concerned. The war bread was more nutritious and in every particular more to be desired than the bread we are using today."

Doctor Wiley says his family went on a war diet before the rest of the country and the same diet is being kept up, even though restrictions have been, to a large measure, removed. He also thinks the curtailment of sugar was a great thing for the country and is sorry the sugar bowl has gone back on the restaurant and hotel tables.

New Hairpins Aid Surgeons.

De Angelo L. Sarvest of New York, who has been serving as surgeon in the Italian army, sends to the Journal of the American Medical Association, a note on a novel but simple method of retracting the skin and flesh in minor surgical operations. "When special retractors are not available," he says, "ordinary hairpins may be used." And he shows one of the many ways in which they may be bent for this purpose. They can be made self-retaining by hanging a small weight to them.

How Saying Originated.

It used to be customary for the godfather of an infant to present him with a silver spoon at baptism. In the case of a child born lucky or rich, the gift was anticipated at the moment of entering life and the child was then said to be born with a "silver spoon in his mouth."

Why She Sued Him.

Newlywed—What a tiny little woman your wife is.
Justwed—She's just that. But, then, apartment rents are so high I can't afford house room for anything larger than a garage.—Encoreville Herald.

Freedom Through the Truth
By ROBT McWATTY RUSSELL, D. D.
Professor of Bible Doctrines and Homiletics
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.—John 8:32.

Knowledge of the truth concerning God and man as revealed in the Scriptures has ever been the source of freedom in the world struggle for civil and religious liberty. When man knows his true relation to God he refuses to be a slave, and when men know their true relation to one another they cease effort to enslave one another.

Horace Greeley well said, "It is impossible to enslave a Bible reading people." When Jesus said, "The truth shall make you free," he referred to truth which centers in his own personality. In John's gospel he says, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life: no man cometh to the Father but by me." Again he said: "If the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." The truth which is the source of freedom, is thus not a principle, but a person. The so-called Christian living of all ages has been marred by substituting things for Christ himself: a creed for a Christ, a system for a Savior, a plan of redemption for a Redeemer, or even the church for Christ himself. Thus thousands have joined the churches with no more spiritual experience of union with Christ than if they had joined the Grangers or Elks.

Freedom From the Guilt of Sin.

Knowledge of the incarnate, sin-bearing Christ and the personal acceptance of him as Savior brings freedom from the guilt of sin. We shall never in this life measure the full meaning of Christ's death, but Bethlehem, Gethsemane, Calvary and Olivet bear the footprints of our Father God seeking lost humanity through his only begotten son, Jesus Christ. Freedom from guilt is secured by accepting the finished work of Christ.

Knowledge of the sinless and triumphant Christ and surrender of one's life to his control, through the Spirit, is the source of freedom from the power of sin. No truth is more plainly taught in the gospel than that Jesus saved his people from their sins by the indwelling of his very life in them. The union of believers to Christ is as vital and real as the union of the branch with the vine. Believers are to live as indwelt and energized by Christ's life and to be fruit-bearers through his life. "Walk in the Spirit and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh" is the divine injunction. Christ within brings victory over sin. His holy fire will blaze and burn and cleanse, and even turn our temptations into sources of power.

Freedom From the Fear of Death.

Knowledge of Christ as victor over death and as our risen and ascended Lord gives freedom from bondage to the fear of death. Death is a fearful thing apart from fellowship with Christ. But knowing of Christ's triumph over death, and trusting his faithfulness and power we have no need to fear. On a night of darkness and storm a Christian physician was called upon to visit a dying friend. He made the journey through rain and sleet and entered the lighted room where the friend was dying. The man, though a professing Christian, was not firm in faith and was not without fear. Frankly he said: "I feel that I am going out into unknown realms, and I dread it." Just then the physician's little dog whined and scratched at the door for admission. The physician said: "My little dog has never been at this door before, and knows nothing of what is to be found within this room, but he knows that I, his master and human friend, am here, so he is not afraid, but yearns to enter." The dying man caught the meaning and rested his hope on the waiting Christ.

Because of what Christ is and because of where he is, we can be free from the bondage of fear as we face the future. He is the ascended Savior and is preparing a place for us. He is the interceding Savior and knows the help we need in time of trial. He is the glorified Savior and will share his glory with us. Heaven's light will be the gladness of his countenance. It is not enough that he has said: "Whoso serveth me, him will my Father honor; and where I am there shall also my servant be?"

The Chemistry of Ethics.

The pathway of God to one heart is through another heart. John Smith or Mary Jones may possess that heart. Every atom in the universe acts on every other atom. But each atom acts most strongly on the atom that is nearest. The big things in life are accomplished by those who are faithful in the matter of the little things. The duty for every man and woman is the next duty. In the last analysis the mountains all reduce to grains and the ocean to drops. If the world is beautiful in its vastness it is because it is beautiful in its atoms.—Christian Herald.

THE GENOA TRIBUNE

Published every Friday and entered at the postoffice at Genoa, N. Y., as second class mail matter.

Friday Morning, Oct. 31, 1919

To the Voters of Genoa:

Having been unable to see many of the voters during this campaign, I wish to make a few statements through the columns of this paper in order to call to your attention the present condition of our town, as compared with a few years ago, and to refute some of the malicious falsehoods which have been circulated during the last few weeks.

I am serving my fourth term as supervisor of Genoa, having been first elected in February, 1911. At that time there was not a foot of improved road in the town and no prospect of one, nor was there any machinery in the town to build roads with. To-day the town of Genoa has as complete an equipment of tools for road building purposes as any town in the county, consisting of crushing plant, steam road roller, two new heavy graders, nine dump boxes, steam drills and small tools of all kinds, for which the town does not owe one dollar. Last year we purchased on the lease plan, a new Case hauling engine at a cost of $2875.00 on which payment was made of $875.00 last year, and more than 3/4 of the remaining $1500.00 is now on hand to make this year's payment, with two years yet remaining to finish the payments according to contract. And yet, with all this expense the taxes of Genoa have been less than those of any of the surrounding towns, during this period. I had the honor of casting the deciding vote in the Board of Supervisors, which made the construction of county roads possible under section 320 A of the highway law. I think we are all agreed that the county road system is the best thing that ever happened to Cayuga county.

In conjunction with the supervisors of Venice and Scipio, I have worked hard for the construction of both state roads through the town of Genoa, and but for war conditions, these roads would have been completed before now, but at the present time the Center road is under construction to the north line of Genoa. The Genoa section has just been surveyed, and we have every assurance from Albany headquarters that this road as well as Trunk line 11 in the west end of the town will be placed in the first spring letting for immediate construction.

The Equalization of the town for the years 1910 to 1918 inclusive appear in another column of this edition and is absolutely correct as shown by the records of the Board of Supervisors. These figures show that the equalized value of the town has not been increased during my term of office, but in fact, has slightly decreased.

As for the street lights in Genoa village, I would say, that when the old lighting system was abandoned there was left on hand the sum of $262.00. The committee consisting of Justice Sharpsteen, Town Clerk

Hand and myself, have never been able to figure out a way of lighting the village with any such a sum of money. We have tried repeatedly to interest different concerns in a proposition to take hold of this matter, but have as yet been unable to accomplish anything. The committee would gladly have some one take the amount over and light the village streets as we all know it is a crying need.

As for my position on the liquor license question, I can simply say this: I have always considered this a matter for each person to decide according to their own convictions and that I have never tried in any way to influence a single voter, either for or against this proposition, and I challenge any one to produce a single person who can contradict this statement.

As for my personal conduct while on the Board of Supervisors or off of it, I leave it to the people who have been associated with me all these years to vouch for, regardless of false gossip that I know has been circulated in certain quarters.

Space will not permit me to go into further details at this time and I leave it to the people of Genoa to say whether or no, I have "made good," and whether at this time, with the city of Auburn going under a new form of government and clamoring for a redistribution and lessening of their taxes, "which can only be done by saddling them on the towns of the county, through changes in the equalization values" they would rather trust their affairs for the next two critical years in the hands of one who has served repeatedly on all of the important committees of the Board of Supervisors, having been four terms on the equalization committee and twice clerk of the same, and who at the present time is chairman of the County Finance committee, or in the hands of a new man, who, no matter how competent, will certainly have to learn all these things, and whose education at this time will certainly prove costly to the taxpayers of the town.

All of these statements are facts which can be easily proven by any one who cares to look them up, and are not idle campaign talk of the "I heard so" order. Thanking my friends for past honors and assuring them that if re-elected on Tuesday next I shall continue to administer the affairs of the town to the best of my ability, with justice to all and favors to none, I am,
 Very truly yours,
 A. L. Loomis.

"Nothing Stirring."

True to form, Democratic exponents trot out the old familiar bogey of "boss rule," cited as a "reason" why Mr. Hendrick should be defeated for the office of sheriff. The Citizen, indeed, has everything snugly buttoned up, declaring with utmost complacency that it doesn't know of a single, solitary reason why any Auburn voter should not vote for Mr. Bergan, the regular Democratic nominee, yet failing to cite a single sound reason why anybody should.

"He received the nomination by sheer force of the public opinion of the rank and file of Democratic voters," observes the Citizen. Do the Democratic potentates expect this to be taken seriously? As the hand-picked candidate of the Democratic organization, Mr. Bergan was the only candidate presented to Democratic voters in the party primaries. They had absolutely no choice; nor so far as the Democratic organization was concerned was it intended that they should. As was the case with the entire Democratic ticket this year, the nominee for sheriff was designated in "back-room" conferences of the "bosses," and rubber-stamped in the primaries.

The issue so far as "machine rule" goes thus is clearly defined, and it is extremely doubtful whether voters can be fooled on that bugaboo this year. The contention that the Republican nominee for sheriff typifies boss rule, whereas the Democratic nominee is arraigned against boss rule, becomes palpably absurd in the face of Democratic procedure in this year of grace, which was openly and flagrantly on the order of close communion selection of candidates.

But nobody knows better than the Democratic advocates the fallacy of the boss issue as pertaining to Republican nominees in this campaign. Why not face the truth? The truth is that the Democratic potentates of postoffice, prison department, et al, hailed with glee the contest in the Republican party; that they thought it meant "easy picking" for them; that in casting about for a candidate they decided that "a soldier nominee would pull votes," that in furtherance of that familiar ruse they selected City Engineer Bergan, a likely young man not averse to running for lucrative office; that with this deliberate intention they placed Mr. Bergan's name on the "official ticket," which was duly rubber-stamped by the few Democratic voters who attended the primaries of that party—numbers of them proteges or henchmen in one way or another of the dominant organization.

The people are not to be fooled this year by the old familiar tactics. The situation as it appears to the casual observer of political straws is that Mr. Hendrick is going to sweep the county for one of the largest majorities ever rolled up for a Republican candidate. The assumption that these thousands of voters who are going to cast their ballots for Mr. Hendrick on Election Day will "walk up to the polls to vote for any candidate the bosses have selected" is nothing less than a gratuitous insult to their intelligence, as well as a rank absurdity in the face of the facts. The old "G. O. P. machine" cry won't work this year. It is stale to begin with, and this year of all years it hasn't the ghost of a chance, because the only primaries in which party voters had any apparent say in the nominations were the Republican primaries.—Editorial Advertiser-Journal, Oct. 24, 1919. adv.

RED CROSS HELPS IN INSTANCES OF STRESS AND NEED

The Romance of Home Service Is Seen in the Desert of Damascus as Well as in America

The dependents of America's fighting men are being cared for wherever they may be and whatever may be the difficulties of reaching them. In this task American Red Cross Home Service has been of far-flung usefulness the record established by it proving so gratifying that Home Service, which has been confined to assistance of the families of soldiers and sailors, is now being expanded to be of general usefulness to the people.

One of the purposes of the Third Roll Call for members, November 2 to 11, is to enable the Red Cross to carry out an enlarged program of Home Service throughout the United States.

The helping hand of Home Service is strikingly portrayed in scores of incidents reported to Red Cross headquarters. Wherever the families of American fighters were, Red Cross Home Service workers have found them, even in the mountain fastnesses or deserts of distant countries, helping them communicate with their loved ones and particularly seeing to it that funds allotted to them by their boys actually reached them. In innumerable instances, too, returned doughboys have turned to Home Service to help them in a wide variety of problems. Whatever the help required, Home Service men and women, of whom there are thousands especially trained for the work, have found a way to help, often under picturesque, even romantic, circumstances.

By Camel Across the Desert.
There was a lonely Syrian mother living four days by camel across the desert from Damascus. Her son, George Hamway, having emigrated to America, responded to the call to the colors in 1917 and fell fighting in the Argonne, leaving only a vague address of his mother. It was found when the War Risk Insurance Bureau undertook to begin payments to her on his $5,000 insurance.

In the uncertainty developing, the matter was placed in the hands of the American Red Cross Mission to Palestine as a routine Home Service case. Long searching located the aged mother, and she was brought to Damascus by camel, accompanied by witnesses, Bedouins in full gala attire of the desert. After much palaver the identity of the woman was fully established and certification of it forwarded to Washington, the old lady returning to her lowly home to await the remittances that will ease her remaining days.

Antonio and Angela del Ruffo were fairly well-to-do folks with a little farm in Treviso, about three miles from the Piave. When the war came to that part of Italy they were driven out of their home into Austria, where they became prisoners, while their little farm became a battlefield. They were held as farm laborers in Austria, knowing nothing of the real progress of the fighting. They never heard that the United States had entered the war and that their son in that country, Antonio, had enlisted and was fighting for them in France.

Antonio, meantime, had for months been making frantic efforts to learn what had become of his father and mother. Red Cross Home Service workers in Italy conducted an investigation, and a few weeks ago were able to send word to Antonio, who survived the fighting, that his parents had been found, just released from captivity in Austria, and that the Red Cross would assist them until his allotment money could reach Italy.

In the rush of getting the American soldiers home from France the doughboy didn't have much time to wind up his affairs there. Not long ago Home Service received from a demobilized soldier in this country a letter and affidavit showing he had 3,000 francs on deposit in France and asking the Red Cross to get it for him. All the soldier had remembered was the name of the town, the name of the bank he had forgotten and his bank book had been lost in action.

By the process of elimination Home Service workers located the bank and the deposit, the bank officials accepting the word of the Red Cross that it had authority to collect the little fortune, and they turned it over to be forwarded to the former soldier.

But the romance of Home Service has not been confined to work that carried its representatives to remote spots in the Old World. Here in the United States Home Service emergency cases called Red Cross workers to many out-of-the-way places on errands varied and sometimes romantic. Home Service is substantial neighborhood without unwanted intrusion, providing those who otherwise could not have its assistance in meeting the many problems confronting families whose head or supporting son is called from them.

The KITCHEN CABINET

If our hearts go out in love to all with whom we come in contact, we inspire love and the same ennobling and warming influences of love always return to us from those in whom we inspire them.—Trina.

SUMMER DESSERTS.

With fresh fruit, such as berries, melons and the luscious peach, we need not prepare desserts during hot weather, but an occasional pudding not too heavy or too complicated to prepare will be welcomed for our menus.

Tapioca Fruit Pudding.—Heat two cupsful of milk in a double boiler, add one-third of a cupful of sugar or one-fourth of a cupful of honey and stir in six tablespoonfuls of tapioca. Cook until clear. Pour into a bowl to cool, then fold in one cupful of heavy cream whipped with a teaspoonful of vanilla. Serve with peaches sliced or any berries in season.

Indian Coconut Pudding.—Heat one quart of milk to the boiling point, add a cupful of cornmeal, stirring constantly; cook ten to fifteen minutes. Add a teaspoonful of salt, a third of a cupful of sugar, half a cupful of shredded coconut, and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of cinnamon. Bake in a greased pan in a slow oven one hour.

Rice With Bananas.—Peel and scrape three well-ripened bananas and mash them with a fork to a creamy pulp, adding a few drops of lemon juice. Stir this lightly into one cupful of cooked rice and serve with cream.

Apricot Ice.—Take a cupful of corn syrup, two cupfuls of canned or fresh apricots; cook until soft, mash and put through a colander. If the dried apricots are used soak overnight and cook until soft before mashing. Add two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, a cupful of water, mix well and freeze. If a cream is wanted, substitute a cup of thin cream for the water and freeze.

Junket.—Heat to luke-warm temperature one quart of milk; dissolve a junket tablet in a tablespoonful of water and stir into the milk while warm. Add half a cupful of honey and a teaspoonful of lemon or orange extract, pour into sherbet cups and let stand in a warm room until set. Then place on ice and chill. Serve with a spoonful of berries and cream, or a bit of jelly, chopped nuts or sliced fruit.

The type of thought we entertain both creates and draws conditions that crystallize about it, conditions exactly the same in nature as the thought that gives them form. Thoughts are forces, and each creates of its kind, whether we realize it or not.—Trina.

BREAD AND CAKE THAT YOU CAN MAKE.

In many cities delicious cakes and breads may be purchased which, if made at home by a reliable recipe, will be as good and twice as cheap.

Raised Nut Bread.—Soften one-quarter of a yeast cake in two tablespoonfuls of water; add one cupful of scalded and cooled skim milk, one-quarter cupful of dark molasses, one teaspoonful of salt, two and one-half cupfuls of entire wheat flour and one-half cupful of walnut meats. Mix and knead until smooth. Let rise until double its bulk, adding the chopped nuts in the last kneading. Shape in two loaves; let rise again and bake.

Banbury Tarts.—Sift together two and one-half cupfuls of flour, two and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one and one-fourth teaspoonfuls of salt. Work or cut in with two knives four tablespoonfuls of shortening; add a half cupful of cold water, knead lightly and roll out. Spread with three tablespoonfuls of shortening, roll up like a jelly roll, pat with rolling pin and roll out. Spread again with three tablespoonfuls of fat and roll up, pat and roll out again; repeat until three-fourths of a cup of shortening is used, then roll the pastry to one-fourth inch in thickness and cut into five-inch circles. Fill with the mixture of two cupfuls of raisins (chopped), half a cupful of jelly, and half a cupful of bread crumbs. Place the filling on one side, wet the edges and fold, pressing the edges well together. Prick and bake on a baking sheet.

Hermits.—Take half a cupful of melted shortening, add one cupful of molasses and half a cupful of sour milk; sift with two cupfuls of white flour and one of oat flour, one teaspoonful each of soda, cinnamon and cloves, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of nutmeg, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt; add a cupful of chopped raisins and mix as usual. Drop from a teaspoon on two greased baking sheets. This makes five dozen small cakes.

FOOD TRUCKS CLOSE TO POLISH TROOPS

American Milk and Crackers Sent to Minsk.

New York.—Close on the heels of the Polish troops that recently captured the city of Minsk from the Bolsheviks after a long siege, went a record-making American motor truck corps with a big supply of American milk and American crackers for the thousands of children suffering from hunger and disease as a result of the fighting.

That expedition furnished a rare example of efficient relief work. Details concerning it, conveyed in reports received by the American Jewish Relief Committee, a constituent of the Joint Distribution Committee show that the trucks had been waiting, loaded and ready, days before the fall of the city.

Dr. Boris D. Bogen, in charge of relief in Poland for the distribution committee, learned that in Minsk a large number of Jewish children, as well as other little folk, had been reduced to the verge of starvation by the investment of the city, and the generally deplorable conditions caused by the war; and he acted promptly.

Day after day the trucks were kept in readiness for a dash into the place, and within five hours after the Polish army had been victorious, distributing stations had been established and were in full operation.

The American milk and American crackers were given out freely not only to the Jewish children, but to all the needy little ones of Minsk.

Conditions there were found to be terrible. Some indication of the hardship endured by the unfortunate inhabitants, is given by the fact that between 2,000 and 3,000 children were found to be victims of diseases brought on by mal-nutrition.

Everything possible is now being done by the relief organization in Poland and elsewhere to save the living and provide for them against the hardships of the coming winter. The need and tremendous importance of this aid are indicated by the following cablegram received by the American Jewish Relief Committee from Isidore Hershey, a New York attorney, who has made several trips to Poland, and who is there now as the special representative of the Joint Industrial Committee in charge of individual remittances made through the committee's transmission bureau under date of Sept. 15, from Warsaw. The message reads:

Received the following telegram: The first Jewish conference, composed of 79 delegates elected on democratic lines by seventy towns and boroughs in Wilna Gubernia and part of Minsk Gubernia, now all under Poland, was held in Wilna on Sept. 8, 9 and 10. We express the deepest gratitude of the Joint Distribution Committee, and all American brethren, for the great help received in this most trying time of our history, and which help is supporting us literally and morally and enabling us to reconstruct our shattered existence. We are sending a separate address expressing our feelings and our hopes.

A "Square" Meal in Buckowina. Once in every 24 hours the starving people of Colomea, are allotted from the public kitchen, a single portion of mamaliga (a kind of native rice) and a thin soup of potatoes or beans. "This," writes Bernard Zuckerman, representative of the joint distribution committee which is in charge of the relief work made possible by funds raised by the American Jewish Relief Committee and similar organizations, "is all the nourishment each person can get." Colomea, he states, is a city in the Bukowina which typifies conditions generally in that section of the Near East.

Aid Jewish Refugees in Vienna. Vienna offers a temporary haven at least for thousands of Jewish refugees, although their destitution is pitiable. In the distribution of American funds, raised through the efforts of the American Jewish Relief Committee and other Jewish organizations, the war-refugees in Vienna have not been forgotten and aid is sent to them through Paris. During September $300,000 was disbursed through Parisian channels for Vienna sufferers.

Ship Kosher Meat to Poland. Religious scruples of the starving Jews in war-stricken Poland were taken into consideration by the joint distribution committee which handles the funds raised in this country by the American Jewish Relief Committee and other Jewish organizations. Included among the heavy shipments during September for Polish relief, was "kosher" beef, valued at $286,424.14. This constituted a part of the cargo of food that was carried by the steamer "Ashburn."

Chernowitz, Modern "City of Refuge." Chernowitz, in the Bukowina, was the city of refuge during the war for the Jewish inhabitants of a dozen or more towns near by, according to Bernard Zuckerman, representative abroad of the joint distribution committee, sole disbursing body for the American Jewish Relief Committee.

JULIA PILCHUCK INDIAN, RECEIVES "THRIFTY ORDER"

"Heap Big Snow Coming," She Says—"Better Save for Big Cold."

The Pilchuck Indians, in the State of Washington, are going strong for thrift. Visitors to their picturesque reservation have ceased commenting upon their wastefulness. And one of the most active boosters for War Savings Stamps among the members of her tribe, is Pilchuck Julia, an aged squaw, who is looked upon by her people as a seeress of great wisdom. "Save!" says Julia, and her followers, trusting that her advice is "good medicine," forthwith set on hikes for local War Savings agencies to buy Thrift and War Savings Stamps.

An official of the Thrift campaign in the West recently made a visit to the Pilchuck reservation where he decorated Julia with "The Order of the Thrift." As he pinned a bright W. S. S. button upon the blanket of the aged seeress she smiled and said: "Heap big snows are coming. Better save for the Great Cold."

All of the braves and squaws that were assembled to witness the ceremony, staged in a part of the country noted for its scenic beauty, nodded their heads solemnly in assent. Thousands of people in every part of the East are following the advice of the aged Pilchuck Indian and are investing regularly in War Savings Stamps, to be better able to combat the "Great Cold."

CANDIDATE BERGAN, SELF-MADE, NOT BOSS-MADE!

When it comes to the question of candidates for sheriff the conscientious voter in Cayuga County has not reason to ponder over his choice—he should unhesitatingly vote for Lieutenant "Tommy" Bergan, the nominee for the Democratic Party.

A candidate for sheriff in Cayuga County should be young, alert, intelligent, free from political domination, self-made and not boss-made.

In view of recent developments in the manner in which the Republican organization of Cayuga County makes candidates out of machine cogs and upsets soldier aspirants for positions which are theoretically, at least, in the gift of the voters, we do not see how any man or woman can fail to vote for Mr. Bergan.

They should vote for him because:

He is a young man of sufficient experience in handling men and in enforcing discipline. As a soldier in the late war he rose rapidly until at the time of his discharge he was recommended for a captaincy.

He is alert and intelligent. He has risen from a lowly beginning to a position where men of importance and high character welcome his advice. He is a Cayuga County product, going through our High School and Union College where he won many honors.

He is free from political domination of any kind. He received the nomination not like his opponent as the result of a bargain made many months ago, but as the real choice of his party members.

He has made no promises to any man, beyond those that will bear the light. He is a citizen whose independence has been tried and proven. He received his first public office as an engineer in the city of Schenectady from a Republican administration. Then a Democratic administration named him to a similar post, and later even a Socialist administration retained him—because of his ability and unquestioned integrity. And when he came to Auburn as our City Engineer he maintained the same courage and independence.

Here is a list of some of the subordinates he retained or appointed to work with him in his office, his selections being solely based upon merit and engineering knowledge: Joseph Tolan, deputy city engineer, Republican; Arthur Adams, assistant engineer, Republican; Joseph Brechue, assistant engineer, Republican; and Thomas O'Neill, inspector, Republican.

That is the sort of public official Mr. Bergan is—selecting his associates solely on their capacity to serve the people well.

If you want the sheriff's office filled with men selected on the same high standard vote for Mr. Bergan. If you want it filled with a collection of cogs from the Republican county machine you will vote for his opponent.

Mr. Bergan's independence is evidenced in other ways. When he accepted the nomination he did so with the reservation that if that other gallant soldier, Captain Frederick S. Johnston, were to be successful (few persons believing that the Republican machine would be strong enough to throw out a soldier) he would withdraw his nomination and leave the race to his comrade of the great war. He did not wait until after the primary but he advised the Johnston committee in advance so that there should be no misunderstanding of his purpose. And in making that kind of promise he was flying in the face of those Democratic politicians who wanted a candidate for sheriff, regardless of the outcome of the Johnston-Hendrick contest!

He is also self-made. His career is one to thrill the average young man who looks hopefully for better things in life and goes out to work for them through the doors of education and industry.

Mr. Bergan was a carrier boy for this paper as a youngster. He earned money from his job as carrier boy which helped him through school. As a High School lad he still carried his route and saved for the day when he might go to college.

When that happy day came he gave up his route and started for Schenectady to enter Union College (the alma mater of Secretary Seward) with just $36 in his possession!

At Union College he worked his way through, now as waiter, now as janitor, and again at some other odd job.

His pluck and determination won him the respect and admiration of everybody in the city; and that is one of the reasons why, after graduating in engineering, Republicans in Schenectady appointed him to be chief engineer of the department of Public Works!

Every Cayuga County mother, every father, who admires that type of son should vote for Lieutenant Bergan for sheriff of Cayuga County!

How can anyone genuinely interested in downing boss politics and truly in favor of merit and high character in public office fail to support him!

No sewing machine is fool proof. Keep it clean and well oiled. Ditto for typewriters.

Some Tennessee girls made enough money from a pie supper to buy an oil stove and utensils for preparing a hot school lunch. Maybe there is a hint in this for New York girls.

This is a time of year when the housewife might like a copy of the state college bulletin on curing meats. Ask for F. 119. You can get it by addressing your request to the state college of agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y.

Agrigraphs.

Stand by the hen, handle her right and she will lay eggs with all her might.

Lots of land and big muscles will pay, but less land and plenty of active brains may pay better.

Lime is not a fertilizer, but its presence in the soil affects other properties that induce plant growth.

The good dairy farmer will feed his land as well as his cows. Home grown feeds, especially silage, help the profit side of the ledger.

If you don't believe in obstructing work which is for the public good, the farm bureau folks say you will vote for the drainage amendment, number one, on Nov. 4.

Workers at the college of agriculture are already making plans for the biggest and best Cornell Farmers' Week, and look for a record attendance. Will you be there from February 9 to 13?

"It remains true now as it has always been," said Theodore Roosevelt, "that in the last resort the country districts are those in which we are surest to find the old American spirit, the old American habits of thought and ways of living."

Some Reasons Why Frank W. Hendrick Should be Elected Sheriff of Cayuga County

MR. HENDRICK IS THE REGULAR NOMINEE OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY HAVING BEEN SO DESIGNATED AT THE OFFICIAL PRIMARY.

HE HAS REPRESENTED THE LARGE TOWN OF STERLING IN THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS FOR SEVEN YEARS, DURING WHICH TIME HE WAS CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD.

HE HAS HAD WIDE EXPERIENCE IN MATTERS PERTAINING TO THE DUTIES OF THE OFFICE HAVING SERVED AS CHAIRMAN OF THE SHERIFF'S COMMITTEE FOR THE PAST THREE YEARS.

HE HAS DONE HIS BIT AS A LOYAL, PATRIOTIC CITIZEN IN HAVING BEEN ACTIVE IN THE COUNTY IN VARIOUS GOVERNMENT LOAN DRIVES AND IN OTHER PATRIOTIC WORK DURING THE WAR.

HE IS A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS MAN AND FARMER, THOROUGHLY IN TOUCH WITH THE VARIOUS NEEDS OF THE COUNTRY AS WELL AS THE CITY.

HE IS AN ACTIVE AND POPULAR MEMBER OF SEVERAL CHARITABLE AND PHILANTHROPIC ORGANIZATIONS INCLUDING THE MASONS' AND ODD FELLOWS' LODGES IN HIS OWN TOWN, AND THE BENEVOLENT AND PROTECTIVE ORDER OF ELKS AND THE MASONIC CLUB OF THE CITY OF AUBURN.

HE DOES NOT PRETEND TO BE A DEBATER OR PUBLIC SPEAKER. HE IS SIMPLY A MODEST, HONEST GOING BUSINESS MAN UNDERSTANDING THOROUGHLY THE REQUIREMENTS OF PUBLIC OFFICE.

HE CONSIDERS THAT THE ONLY ISSUES IN THIS CAMPAIGN, WHICH HE IS CONDUCTING WITHOUT MUD SLINGING OR CONTROVERSY, ARE HIS SPECIAL EXPERIENCE IN RELATION TO THE DUTIES OF THE OFFICE; HIS RECORD BOTH AS A PRIVATE AND PUBLIC CITIZEN AND OFFICIAL, AND THE FACT THAT IT HAS BEEN CONCEDED FOR MANY YEARS BY BOTH CITY AND COUNTRY REPUBLICANS THAT THE COUNTRY TOWNS OF CAYUGA COUNTY ARE ENTITLED TO THE OFFICE OF SHERIFF.

UNDER THE PRESENT REGISTRATION, ALL INDICATIONS ARE, THAT THE COUNTRY ELECTION DISTRICTS, OUTSIDE OF THE CITY OF AUBURN, WITH THE WOMEN VOTERS ENROLLED, WILL GIVE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET FOR PRESIDENT, OVER SEVEN THOUSAND PLURALITY.

DO NOT TAKE AWAY FROM THESE DISTRICTS, THE OFFICE, WHICH, BY TRADITION, THEY BELIEVE THEY ARE ENTITLED TO.

THE WOMEN AND MEN VOTERS OF THIS COUNTY ARE INVITED TO GIVE HIM THEIR SUPPORT UPON ELECTION DAY. ASSURING THEM IN RETURN, THAT IF ELECTED, HE WILL SERVE ALL THE PEOPLE OF THE COUNTY, WITHOUT DISCRIMINATION, TO THEIR ENTIRE SATISFACTION.
