

The Genoa Tribune.

VOL XXX NO. 8 28000 127

Genoa, New York, Friday Morning, Sept. 12, 1919.

Emma A. Waldo

DR. J. W. SKINNER,
Homeopathist and Surgeon, Genoa, N. Y.
Special attention given to diseases of women and children. Cancer removed without pain by escharotic. Office at residence.

Genoa-Rink-Garage
Auto Supplies and Accessories
Ford Parts
Auto and Carriage Painting
A. T. VanMarter,
Miller Phone 305-31 GENOA, N. Y.

J. W. & C. D. PALMER-UNDERTAKING
Licensed Embalmer
FIVE CORNERS - - - NEW YORK.
Miller 'phone 33L-3
—Motor service when desired—

E. B. DANIELS
UNDERTAKER
Moravia, N. Y.
Telephone Connections for Day and Night Calls.

UNDERTAKING
WILLARD CUTLER
Embalmer and Funeral Director
Motor service if desired.
Main St., Moravia
Bell 'Phone Miller 'Phone

J. WILL TREE,
BOOK BINDING
ITHACA.

FRED L. SWART,
Optometrist.
Masonic Temple, South St.
AUBURN, N. Y.
Shur-On Eye Glasses.

FIRE!
E. C. HILLMAN,
GENERAL FIRE INSURANCE.
Levanna, N. Y.

Agent for the following companies:
Glens Falls, The Home, Fire Association of Philadelphia, The Sun of London, The Queen, Royal of Liverpool and Fidelity Underwriters, also Windstorm or Tornado insurance at low rate.
Re-ular trip every thirty days.

EVENTUALLY
You will want to have your eyes examined and fitted with glasses that are absolutely correct.
"WHY NOT NOW," Consult
Sherwood
THE OPTOMETRIST
WHO PUTS THE SEE IN GLASSES
Over 97 Genesee St., Auburn, N. Y.
Opposite Trolley Ticket Office.

WHEN THINGS DON'T LOOK RIGHT
There is a possibility that you need our services.
GLASSES FITTED—FRAMES REPAIRED OR REPLACED AND LENSES REPRODUCED
(If you bring us the broken parts) WITH SCIENTIFIC ACCURACY

WILSON OPTICAL CO.
208 E. State St., Ithaca, N. Y.
"We grind our own lenses."

Shea's Restaurant
Regular Dinner Service
Every Day 11 to 2 p. m.
Also Taxi Service
P. J. SHEA, Prop.
22 Genesee St., AUBURN.

From Nearby Towns.

North Lansing.

Sept. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprague and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Teeter of Rochester were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jacobs last week. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs with their company visited relatives in Ludlowville.

Mrs. Frank Moravia and children visited her daughter, Mrs. Charles Cuatt, at Ensenore Sunday.

Garfield Townley moved from the Wm. Singer place to his farm last week. Merton Ladd moved from the Townley farm to Ludlowville.

Mrs. Eugene Pittenger and niece and nephew of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howell and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howell and son of Ithaca were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Linderberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oliver of Auburn were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beardsley.

Miss Hildred Buckley has returned to her school in Syracuse after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Buckley.

Ed Jacobs has returned to his home in Rochester, having spent the past three weeks with his son, Jesse Jacobs and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Swartwood are entertaining their nephews, Otto Huddle of Van Etten and Harry Huddle of Horseheads.

Mr. and Mrs. Ranning and children of Lodi were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hildreth.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howe and daughter of Rochester visited Mrs. Howe's brother, Dennis Doyle and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rumsey and children of Locke and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marks of Venice were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jacobs.

Glenn Swartwood spent the week-end with relatives in Elmira.

The Misses Leola and Lucy Davis spent last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams.

Mamie G. Wilcox has returned from spending the past three weeks in Auburn.

James A. Smith of Waverly spent the week-end with his cousins, Mrs. Howard Beardsley and Mrs. Cora Metzger.

Mrs. Gertrude Stowell and Miss Bailey of Ithaca are visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Singer and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Doyle and two children spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Doyle at Five Corners.

The Ladies' Aid society was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Stanton Tuesday. Supper was served.

The DeCamp and Ross family reunion was held Saturday, Sept. 6, in Carson's grove.

The Howe family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Strong Sept. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buck were Sunday guests of Mrs. Buck's sister, Mrs. Ed Mineah of Dryden.

Frank H. Tarbell, G. L. Bacon and John Dempsey met with creamery directors in Auburn Monday night.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Rev. O. John Kilmer to Miss Gladys F. Kinard of Georgetown, Ohio, on Aug. 26. They will reside at Sarbina, Ohio. Mr. Kilmer formerly resided here.

Belltown.
Sept. 9—Mrs. Harry Ferris and daughter Doris entertained on Sept. 2, in honor of Mrs. Bruce Alpert and little son and daughter of Battle Creek, Mich. The following were present: Mrs. Earl Mann, daughter and son, Mrs. Fred Mann and daughter, Mrs. A. B. Slocum and son, Mrs. Willard Powers and son, Mrs. Harry Smith and daughter, Mrs. Lamont Smith and daughter, Mrs. Howard Shaw and daughter also Mrs. J. G. Barger, mother of the guest of honor. The youthful prattle of the little ones made a lively time for the young mothers who enjoyed the afternoon very much. Two other mothers with their little ones were unable to be present.

Wedding invitations and announcements printed at this office.

King Ferry.

Sept. 4—Miss Florence Todd of Ithaca has been a week's guest of Mrs. Earl Buckhout.

A large crowd attended the Labor Day picnic at King Ferry Monday, given by the Lady of the Lake church.

Mrs. Emma Counsell and son Arthur entertained relatives from Liverpool and Syracuse on Saturday.

Misses Ruth and Dorothy Moe of Auburn have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pidcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Atwater of Auburn were over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Atwater.

Miss Agnes Fallon of Auburn spent the week-end in King Ferry.

Miss Marcella Conway spent last week with her friend, Miss Mary Callahan.

Miss Betty Cook of Utica spent a few days last week with Miss Sarah Goodyear.

Francis Turney of Venice spent Labor day in King Ferry with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Heatherington and children of Ithaca were over-Sunday guests of relatives in this place.

Miss Susie Atwater attended the Soldiers, Sailors and Citizens' picnic at Spencer last week, and also spent Wednesday at the Trumansburg fair.

Arthur Counsell and mother, Mrs. Emma Counsell and Miss Mary Townley spent Sunday with Bert Corwin and family at Five Corners.

Joseph Atwater and sister, Miss Florence Atwater of Venice Center have moved to this place, where they will make their home on South St.

Mrs. Morris Mulkins of Syracuse has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. C. McCormick.

Sept. 9—Mrs. Hattie Stamp of Newfield was a Saturday night and Sunday guest of Mrs. Janette Greenfield.

Miss Celia Grinnell has returned to New York to resume her work in school.

Mrs. Emma Smith has gone to New York and Brooklyn to visit relatives for a time.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Carson at Clear View, who has been seriously ill, is gaining.

Mrs. C. L. Dennis of Syracuse is visiting her brother, Dr. F. A. Dudley and Osmer Dudley and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coon and Lee Holland spent part of last week in the Adirondacks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dickinson have returned to their home here. Mr. Dickinson's sister, Mrs. Churchill, is visiting them.

Franklin Smith and family of Slaterville spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Lois Smith and brother, Harvey Smith and family.

E. A. Bradley is making some repairs on his house.

Fred Hier of Black River, near Watertown, spent Sunday with his family here, returning Monday.

Willard Aikin and family of Syracuse spent Sunday with his brother, G. S. Aikin, Mrs. Aikin and sons remaining this week visiting friends.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones of Sherwood is visiting her brother, G. S. Stearns.

Miss Irene Maxwell of Aurora was a guest of Miss Sarah Smith a few days.

Mrs. Frank Holland spent Friday and Saturday in Venice and attended the funeral of Chas Wood.

Mrs. Carrie Evans of Auburn is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Libbie Collins and Mrs. Ed Barnes.

Quite a number from here are attending the State fair at Syracuse.

Mrs. Mary Parr and Mrs. Emma Brightman of Atwater spent Saturday with the latter's aunt, Mrs. M. Crouch.

Several airplanes passed over this place this week. They were not traveling very fast and not so high but what they could be seen very clearly.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.
Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. O. D. Dutcher of North Rose, N. Y., will preach. Mr. Dutcher has been with us before. Come to this service Sunday, Sept. 14, and meet Mr. Dutcher again.

Among powers that be are included some that ought not to be.

Ellsworth.

Sept. 8—Two airplanes passed over this place Thursday afternoon.

George Hoag and son have a new threshing machine.

Mr. and Miss Shankland are entertaining their brother from Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Fred white spent Monday evening in Auburn.

School has commenced again after summer vacation with Mrs. Clarence Parmenter as teacher, four scholars being in attendance.

Mrs. Morgan Myers has been entertaining her aunt, Mrs. Stamp from Newfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dixon took their daughter, Olive to Auburn City hospital Saturday afternoon with a very severe case of appendicitis. An operation was performed at once. There is not much change at this writing.

A large number attended the Lady of the Lake church picnic last Monday at King Ferry.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dillon spent part of last week with friends in Waterloo and Geneva and also motored to Watkins Glen.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Mosher spent last Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corey.

Miss Dorothy Locke is attending school in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry White spent part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dillon.

A large number from here attended the primary at Aurora last Tuesday.

Venice Center.

Sept. 8—School opened Sept. 2 with Miss Gertrude Bowness as teacher, with 14 pupils—seven girls and seven boys.

Kenneth Heald, Ruth and Ralph Coulson are in Moravia High school for the coming year; Frederick and Chas. Howland are in Sherwood Select school; Wm. Bennett at Aurora, Howard Kenyon at Genoa.

Mrs. Geo. W. Storms of New York City is visiting at the home of A. M. Sisson.

Wm. Heald and family have returned from their trip to Valatie on the Hudson river. They visited his brother, Chas. Heald and family in that place.

Wilbur Clark returned to Houghton High school this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark entertained their children and their families at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wallace and daughter of Auburn were Sunday guests of his uncle, H. Wallace and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyers of Lowville have bought the Bert Wattles farm and have taken possession.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wattles have bought the home of Joseph Atwater, and have taken possession.

Merrifield.

Sept. 8—E. J. Morgan and family have returned from an enjoyable motor trip to Fairport where they were guests of relatives from Friday to Sunday night.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Claude Wyant last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Morgan and daughter Evelyn of Ithaca were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Morgan.

Herman Wood is attending Auburn High school.

The Young People's class of the Baptist Sunday school enjoyed a motor trip to Watkins Glen, Labor day.

Charles Wyant of Auburn, Mrs. Schuyler Peterson and Mrs. Emmeline Hunter of Owasco Lake and Mrs. Harry VanDuyne and daughters, Elma and Vida, of Varick were Sunday callers at Claude Wyant's.

Several from this place attended the funeral of Charles Wood in Venice Saturday. Many Maccabees attended.

Card of Thanks.

We sincerely appreciate the kindness of friends and neighbors during our recent bereavement, and wish to thank all for their assistance, those who sent flowers and those who gave the use of their cars.

Mrs. Mamie Wood,
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wood,
and Sons.

Sherwood.

Sept. 6—Sherwood Select School opened with Miss Judson as principal. Her assistants are Miss Elizabeth Otis, Miss Frances Alden and Miss Esther Ely.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeFreze and son Cassius and Mrs. A. B. Comstock attended the Odd Fellows' picnic at Fair Haven last Saturday.

Miss Deborah Otis of California is spending some time with her brother, Stephen Otis.

Sherwood district school opened Sept. 2, with Miss Mary Husted, teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Koon called on their cousins in Waterloo last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Comstock called on their aunt, Mrs. Boroughs, in Seneca Falls last Sunday.

Louis and Mary Amy Otis are spending their vacation with their brother, Stephen Otis.

Mrs. Adelia Brewster spent several days with Mrs. James Morse in Levanna this week.

Mrs. Georgia Koon has returned to her home after spending two weeks with relatives in Rochester.

Dr. Greene and family of Buffalo are spending a few weeks at the home of Mrs. Greene's father, Stephen Otis.

Mrs. Jarvis of Oneida is visiting Miss Jessie Hoxsie.

Miss Isabel Howland has returned to her home after spending several weeks at her summer home on Little Deer Isle, Maine.

Mrs. Frances Brewster left this week for an extended visit in Michigan.

Sept. 8—Mr. and Mrs. William Otis start this morning for their home in Fort Collins, Colo., after spending several weeks with relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Sarah Lyon and daughter Hester of New York City are in town arranging for a sale of their furniture which has been stored here for some time.

Pomona Grange will meet with Sherwood Grange Saturday, Sept. 13.

What might have been a very serious fire on the George Howland farm, was narrowly averted by the timely assistance of neighbors and the King Ferry Fire department who rendered efficient aid.

Sherwood Grange, No. 1084, P. O. H., will hold its annual exhibit Thursday evening, Sept. 18. Prizes will be given for the following: For the best pumpkin pie, for the best chocolate loaf cake, best loaf of white bread, best plate of fried cakes; best exhibit of canned fruits and vegetables; best piece of embroidery, best piece of crochet work; prizes will also be given for the best State corn, Dent corn, plate of potatoes, plate of wheat, plate of apples and the best display of vegetables and fruit.

Lake Ridge.
Sept. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Venable of Leeton Mo., are spending several weeks at H. E. Campbell's.

The Y. P. B. met last Thursday evening with Doris Bower when several new members were added to the society.

Mrs. Cora Campbell has returned home after caring for the mother of Ben Halliday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lockerby motored from Ithaca Saturday and were guests at the home of Jerry Smith and family until Sunday afternoon.

The death of Mode Reeves of Upper Sandusky, O., occurred suddenly Thursday, Sept. 4, at the home of his nephew, E. E. Woolley, where he was visiting. Mr. Reeves was 86 years old, and he formerly lived in Ithaca and was engaged in the photograph business. He was one of the few who remembered as a resident of Ithaca the great flood which occurred there in 1854. Mr. Woolley accompanied the remains of his uncle to Ohio, on Friday, where burial was made.

If there is no Cornell study club in your neighborhood you may be interested in forming one. They are told about in R. C. H. 13 which will be sent on request from the college of agriculture at Ithaca.

Atwater.

Sept. 8—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smith visited at Howard Smith's on Sunday last.

Mrs. Mary Parr of Moravia has been the guest of Mrs. William Brightman for a few days. On Saturday of last week they took dinner with Mrs. Margaret Crouch.

We hear wedding bells will soon be ringing.

Elwood Thompson and family of Auburn and Milo Atwater and wife were over-Sunday guests of Mrs. Charles Snyder and Mrs. Carmi Chaffee.

We are glad to note that Miss Cora Goodyear is able to ride out.

Glenn Robinson and family of Auburn are spending two weeks at their farm and are doing repair work. They expect to move here in the spring.

Mrs. Florence French of Sayre and her aunt are visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles Snyder and expect to attend the State fair with Carmi Chaffee.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brightman visited at Frank Polhamus' at Ellsworth on Sunday last.

The Ladies' Aid which was held at Mrs. Fred Young's last week was not largely attended, but they began work for their fair.

We are glad to see G. W. Atwater home again.

Mrs. Frank Polhamus of Ellsworth and Mrs. Bert Shook and little son Chalmer of Aurora visited Mrs. Wm. Brightman on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Mary Parr has gone to Levanna to visit her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Smith, and to see her grandson Joe who has just returned from overseas.

Miss Celia Keane has been visiting her brother Jeffrey in Canada.

Ensenore Heights.

Sept. 8—Mrs. Clinton Miller of Sylvia, Kan., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. V. Sawyer.

Joseph Chapin of Philadelphia has joined his wife and little son at the home of H. S. Barnes, where he will spend two weeks.

A very enjoyable time was reported from those who attended the Wheat reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wheat last Saturday.

The funeral of Mrs. Rilla Morse, who died at Willard, was held from her late home last week. Much sympathy is felt for her husband, who is left all alone.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mason and daughter of Venice were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Barnes.

Mrs. Cynthia Ward and Mrs. Maude Jordan of Auburn were Sunday guests of Mrs. H. S. Barnes.

Albert Culver is at Rockaway Beach, having enlisted as a mechanic in the Aviation Corps.

Mrs. Raymond Burtless and children have been spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Weaver in Syracuse.

The little boy who has come to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Botsford, will go by the name of Carlton Dewitt.

Arthur Wyant has come to assist his brother Will in the fall's work.

Mrs. Sophie Snyder entertained company from Syracuse, Sunday.

James Welch is again enrolled as a student in Sherwood Select School.

Ledyard.

Sept. 9—We are glad to have Clifton Dixon with us again from overseas. He is looking fine.

Leon Young is driving a new Ford car.

Mrs. Kirkland entertained her sons George and Ray also her daughter Fannie and family last Sunday. Ray brought them in his auto.

Miss Elda White from Canada is visiting her sister, Mrs. Young.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. Roy Holland is so poorly. Hope she soon recovers.

M. L. Winn is nearly through gathering his honey.

Mrs. Leonard Ely is our school teacher this term.

The weather is fine and warm. We are sorry Mr. and Mrs. Main do not gain faster.

Saranne Lake claims to be the first "flyer" with in the world.

CREDIT

Cash may hatch a big idea but credit usually keeps it alive and well.

THERE IS NOT ENOUGH REAL MONEY IN THE WORLD TO GO AROUND. THE MAN WHOSE BUSINESS REPUTATION IS GOOD FINDS CREDIT TO CARRY OUT THE BIG PURPOSE WHEN IT COMES TO HIM. A BANK REFERENCE WILL HELP YOU. OPEN A CHECKING ACCOUNT.

4% INTEREST

AUBURN TRUST COMPANY
of Auburn, N. Y.

The Best We Can Buy

Egbert Clothing for Men and Young Men is worthy of your consideration. Its merit is proved by the steady increase in our sales.

We do not claim perfection in Egbert clothes, for perfection is like the sky, always in sight, yet always out of reach. Better clothes than Egbert clothes can possibly be made, but we will be first to have OURS better than OURS, as we have always tried to have OURS better than OTHERS.

Exceptional values at $30.00--$35.00--$40.00 and $45.00

C. R. Egbert,

THE PEOPLE'S CLOTHIER, HATTER and FURNISHER,
AUBURN, NEW YORK.

Use Sunset Dyes and Economize

The war is over but it will be some time before pre-war prices prevail. This is especially true regarding Cotton Goods, Silks and Woolens.

Make your garments look like new by dyeing them with Sunset Soap Dyes. Easy to use and give splendid results. PRICE 15 CENTS

We also sell Rit, Aladdin, Putnam, Diamond and Dyola. Dyes and Tintex.

A. B. Brooks & Son

Pharmacists

126 E. STATE ST.,

ITHACA, N. Y.

NOTICE

WE HAVE A LIMITED AMOUNT OF SMITH'S NEXPO, THE BEST PREPARATION FOR SPRAYING ORCHARDS. ALSO ARSENATE OF CALCIUM AND LEAD FOR POTATO BUGS. DOES ALL THE WORK OF PARIS GREEN AT 1-4 THE COST. GET THESE WHILE THEY LAST AT

ELLISON'S,
KING FERRY, NEW YORK.

THE GENOA TRIBUNE
and N. Y. World $2.25

BUREAU LOCATES 3,000 'MISSING' SERVICE MEN

Answers Weekly Average of
5,000 Letters From Relatives
Seeking Information
About Fighting Men.

Tracing American fighting men who have been falsely reported as killed or missing, putting soldiers and sailors in touch with their anxious relatives at home and keeping track of the movement of troops from the time they embarked in France until they are mustered out in camps in the United States—these are some of the activities that are being carried on by the Bureau of Communications of the Atlantic Division of the American Red Cross.

The bureau handles as many as 5,000 letters each week. The work includes communication with members of the American Expeditionary Forces and replies and inquiries from relatives and friends who wish to be informed about the arrival of soldiers in American ports.

The bureau keeps in constant touch with the authorities at the ports of debarkation, and through this contact and by means of reports received daily from the War Department it is able to provide prompt and accurate information concerning the embarking of American forces overseas and their arrival in America. Much of the work is done by telegraph, as many as 250 telegrams having been handled daily by the bureau up until the signing of the armistice. While the Atlantic Division, which includes the most important port of debarkation, is naturally the busiest of the fourteen Divisions of the Red Cross in America.

Helps Find Missing.

The Atlantic Division Bureau has helped trace the whereabouts of three thousand American fighting men, who had been thought dead or missing by their relatives, by reason of erroneous information received either through published lists or through messages sent by friends.

For some weeks the so-called welfare inquiries about men about whom no casualties were reported have been referred on special blanks to the Adjutant General's office, to be forwarded to France by courier and to be answered directly by the war department. Thus the bureau has been relieved of a large volume of such requests, which frequently totalled 10,000 a week. But the replies to such inquiries originally sent from the bureau are still coming back from France by the thousands and must be sent to the families in so many personal letters.

Every day come hundreds of pleas "or details of death" which are increasingly difficult to ascertain. In March there were 80,000 American soldiers in hospitals overseas. Of these 15,000 were still suffering from wounds received in action, and the condition of many had to be reported.

Nor does the responsibility of the bureau cease when the doughboy returns. It undertakes to answer questions about returned units and priority sailings. It maintains a card file of all returned wounded, with record of all transfers from hospital to hospital.

Photographs of Graves.

Another function of the bureau, which is just beginning, involves the elaborate plan of sending out with an engraved testimonial in a hand-colored folder the photograph of the graves of over 50,000 American soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice.

- *****
- * REPORT SETS FORTH *
- * RED CROSS HOSPITAL *
- * ACTIVITIES IN FRANCE *
- * A report of the Bureau of Hospital Administration, prepared for the War Department, shows that in the last nine months of 1918 the American Red Cross delivered the following surgical supplies and accessories for the American wounded: *
- * Surgical dressings 21,988,000 *
- * Sponges 41,957,426 *
- * Nitrous Oxide Gas *
- * (gals.) 8,832,886 *
- * Splints 1,463,200 *
- * Surgical Instruments 77,101 *
- * Drugs (pounds) 15,300 *
- * The report shows that the Red Cross furnished more than 1,100,000 days of hospital care for American soldiers, admitting to its hospitals a total of 80,359 patients. When the fighting ceased the American Red Cross was operating twenty-two military hospitals with 14,326 beds. *
- *****

RED CROSS PLAY GROUND IN SERBIA.

The recent opening of the first playground in Serbia, established by the American Red Cross, was an epoch-making event for the children of that land into whose lives so little sunshine had penetrated, according to reports to Red Cross national headquarters in Washington.

Demoted Up

By VIRGINIA L. MAXWELL

(Copyright, 1918, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Somehow Janet's mother could not quite forget the stigma which she accused her daughter of putting on the family name when she married Gerald Cummings, their neighbor's chauffeur.

"Janet, my child, do you realize what you have done?" she remembered her mother saying with an awestricken face when they both came back from the short honeymoon trip, and Janet's family had since had time to digest the telegraphed news.

And Janet, then a girl of twenty, had faced her mother resolutely.

"Of course I know what I've done, mother. I've married the best man in the world."

"What's the use?" Mrs. Hemingway complained that same evening when Janet's father looked in at the young people seated in the drawing room, and smiled knowingly.

"Janet is too young to know that she has committed a grave social error in marrying beneath her class," Mrs. Hemingway continued. "And as for the man she chose, well—he will never be anything but a chauffeur."

Could Scarcely Believe His Words.

But the idea rankled in Mrs. Hemingway's mind for a long while after. Janet took a firm stand! They furnished a comfortable, though plain little flat and began to live the "happy ever after" period of their lives.

True, the furnishings of the modest flat did not compare with the cheapest in the Hemingway household, but as Janet reminded her mother, "wasn't it the love behind a household that made it a home, and not the mere material things?"

And after that Mrs. Hemingway decided to let the matter rest.

Two years later found Janet and Gerald more comfortably established than ever. Gerald had got a better position in an automobile firm and the work gave him more regular hours. But there was a lot of study entailed. Gerald within a short time became an expert mechanic and got another raise.

It was not money, however, that finally bred the sore spot in Janet's heart that had been forming unconsciously for months. It was her mother's silent influence. She never said anything about the affair ever since the day of Janet's last outburst, but the silent influence was there just the same.

Once when she had invited a number of girl friends to tea Janet's mother very unctuously displayed the fact that her daughter had no telephone, and pressed for a reason by her inquisitive friends, Janet had lied calmly that it was a source of annoyance. The truth of the matter was they could not quite afford it.

Janet was on the verge of utter discouragement, although there was no real cause for it—except this subtle influence preening for the sake of a false pride. The foundation of their little home was at stake! The bomb came a few evenings later.

"Well, sweetie," Gerald said coming in enthusiastically, "I'm going—the big day has come. Netty girl, when our country is calling all its red bloods, and I enlist—tomorrow."

"You—what?" Janet could scarcely believe his words. "Jerry boy, tell me you are fooling. You are—why—" she laughed frantically and turned away as though to belittle the idea as a mere passing fancy.

The next moment she turned toward her husband again. But the expression on his chiseled features made her realize there was no joking to it.

"I'm going Netty; surely you're glad. Don't stand there and gape as though I were mad. Don't you realize what it means. Going over to protect you, other women, over there and over here. Gad, girl—"

But Janet had stopped him with her gesture. "You are mad, Stark mad—" she burst out angrily, "how can you go when you have me to take care of. You know married men don't have to go. What are you thinking of and we are being able to see a horizon financially now!"

And so they argued into the late hours of that evening. Twice Gerald Cummings walked to the front window and peered down at the throng of men who were besieging the enlistment offices on the corner.

He pointed them out to Janet, but she was impassive. "Mad men," she remarked, and shrugged her shoulders.

And the final issue came about the next morning. Gerald was firm.

"War is a duty between a man and his God," he said hotly, "not a man and his wife."

Just enough to kindle the flame. Janet blazed her brown eyes upon him and replied, "Well, if you go, Gerald, you go for good. If you are that stubborn and care for me so little, it's best we know it now. You go, Gerald, and—well, we part ways."

Gerald tried a conciliation, but it was futile. He decided to go!

A dull period of monotony followed for Janet at the Hemingway establishment, where she had taken refuge after Gerald had gone to camp. But the loneliness of the days she had hitherto filled to the brim with her many household cares seemed to pall. Janet must do something. And so because Anne Dawson was going into the navy as a yeomanette, Janet decided to take up stenography and go, too.

But she was disappointed. Several weeks after she graduated from the business school in the heart of town an order came through for stenographers at the gas defense plant on Long Island. She hesitated. Anne was appointed in the navy. But could she not do the same bit in the army?

Her selfishness in merely wanting to be with her girl friend came to her in full realization one morning when she had seen the first transport of wounded soldiers land, and she hastened to the plant to offer her services.

Janet, with the knack of her father's aptitude for business, got along exceedingly well. Meantime the war raged at its fiercest. Battles came thicker and more often, and the yell of the newsmen's husky voices on the street corners at every edition of the big metropolitan daily made Janet's flesh creep. Yes, she had read of Gerald's wonderful deed.

She had followed every line of the account of how he had saved a whole squadron by repairing the motor ambulances so rapidly. Janet knew that a new and greater love had come into her life. There was a change, too, in her parents' view. Janet's mother, all conciliatory and one of the chief workers at the war camp community service, said she always knew there were big things in "Jerry."

But Janet had cried herself to sleep that night.

In vain she wrote letters abroad. If only she knew his definite address. She had read where he had been wounded, but no hospital number was given. The Red Cross took down the data she was able to supply them, scant as it was, for she had refused even to see him the day he graduated from the training camp and was ordered over.

That was months before, and a bitter repentance grew in her heart because of it. She had been selfish, narrow minded and vain. The words she had uttered that day, he had enlisted burned and seared like blue flame now.

But morning banished all the tears, just because there was work to be done, and Janet, dainty from the feather in her little trig hat to her neatly polished shoes, went to the plant to take her place among its many other workers. It was her last trip this day, for orders awaited her to report in Washington.

A word of thanks to her captain for recommending her as most capable, a hastily packed traveling bag, a host of imagination—and Janet was on her way to the great center from which radiated so many executive spokes of the world's war. It was glorious! But the old feeling returned to quell her enjoyment every now and then on the train trip going down.

"Mrs. Cummings—" Sergeant Munsey read a day later from her slip to the lieutenant sitting at the huge oak desk to his right. And Janet had timidly acknowledged the title and mounted the stairway to the next floor with him.

"You are to work for the major, are you not?" he asked, and Janet said she had not been told. "Yes," continued Sergeant Munsey, "the new major arrived yesterday. I guess you'll like him all right, with his flashy smile and good humor always. So much as we have seen of him I don't wonder he was so popular with his men—"

But they had reached the doorway of the major's office and Sergeant Munsey stopped.

A somewhat faint yet emotional Janet wheeled the next moment and sat heavily in the chair the major offered. The shoulders had looked familiar, and, yes, the head.

But it was preposterous. And yet—"Thank you, sergeant," Major Cummings said quietly. "I will swear the little lady in, you need not wait."

"Swear me in?" Janet said a bit breathlessly as she turned her wide eyes, radiant but tear-dimmed with happiness on her husband, Jerry.

"Why, yes—a mere custom of the service, Mrs. Cummings," he said haughtily, "by—" and there was a note of the Jerry who used to be, "but if you wish," he smiled, this time, "I'll swear you in—for life."

And as Gerald expressed it a few weeks later when the armistice was signed and they both got their honorable discharges, it was the first time he had ever kissed a stenographer the first day he engaged her, and—the very first time he had ever taken one out to lunch the same day.

HOME PROGRAM EMPHASIZED IN CALL FOR FUNDS

RED CROSS WILL OPEN
CAMPAIGN ON NOV. 3

Membership Primary Purpose,
$15,000,000 Asked for as
Means of Fulfilling War
Obligations.

The enrollment of members for 1920 and the collection of $15,000,000 to enable the organization to fulfill its war obligations at home and abroad are the objects of a nation-wide campaign to be conducted by the American Red Cross, beginning Monday, November 3, and continuing until Armistice Day, November 11. Local appeals will be made by chapters where it is necessary to secure funds for local programs, according to the statement of Dr. Livingston Farrand, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Red Cross, in formally announcing the campaign.

During the war there were two annual Red Cross campaigns, the War Fund Drive in the late spring and the Christmas Roll Call for membership. The only campaign this year will be the one in November, and in succeeding years there will be only the annual Roll Call, in which the Red Cross will seek the reaffirmed allegiance of the American people expressed in dollar memberships. The money so derived will be used for American purposes, and the approval is to be regarded as a mandate to carry on future programs.

To Concentrate on Home Program.

"The first task of the American Red Cross is, of course, to complete its obligations to American soldiers and sailors," said Dr. Farrand in announcing the program. "The organization plans as its future policy to concentrate its efforts upon peace problems at home unless America should again be involved in war or confronted by great disasters creating special emergencies. "The Red Cross programs are primarily within the field of public health and will aim particularly at co-operation with official activities—federal, state and local. The Red Cross will seek not to duplicate the work of established organizations, but will endeavor to supplement other agencies where they already exist or to stimulate and organize work where none such exists."

The tremendous task of the American Red Cross in the war has, however, left a continuing obligation which cannot be fulfilled for some months to come, Dr. Farrand stated. In an amendment to the Army Bill, Congress has prolonged the responsibility of the Red Cross abroad by authorizing Secretary of War Baker to transfer to the Red Cross such medical and surgical supplies and supplementary and dietary foodstuffs now in Europe as is not needed by the army abroad or at home "to be used by the American Red Cross to relieve and supply the pressing needs of the countries involved in the late war."

Inventories of these supplies are now being made. To them will be added such material as the American Red Cross itself has in Europe, and these will be distributed in the countries where the organization is concluding its war relief program and where because of the ravages of war, famine and epidemic the distress is most pronounced, as in the Balkans, Poland and other Eastern European countries. To meet these obligations and administer this foreign relief the Red Cross must raise at this time a fund of $15,000,000, Dr. Farrand stated.

Asks for Smaller Amount.

The Red Cross authorities realize that the astonishing generosity of the American people during the war and the present high cost of living at home might legitimately lead many to expect a release from further demands for assistance to other people," continued Dr. Farrand, "but we must remember that our Allies were much harder hit by the war than were we and that we have incurred obligations to them which honor demands shall be discharged. In naming the sum of $15,000,000 the Red Cross has tried to determine the smallest amount which will enable it to round out its work and make effective the appropriation of Army goods rather than to estimate the generosity of the American people."

In conclusion Dr. Farrand said: "It is believed that the end of our foreign obligations is in sight, and accordingly the Red Cross is turning its chief energy and attention to the development of a clearly defined home program, which already includes systematic preparedness for Disaster Relief, a widespread Nursing Plan, continuing Home Service operations, First Aid instruction and a Junior Red Cross program, all of which will depend for their success upon large and vigorous chapters. For these reasons the enrollment of members is the chief purpose of the November campaign. It is the primary ambition of the American Red Cross to be of service to Americans."

The Genoa Tribune
Established 1896
A LOCAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER
Published every Friday
Tribune Building, Genoa, N. Y. E. A. Valdo
Subscription:
One year $1.50
Six months .75
Three months .45
Single copies 15c
If no orders are received to discontinue the paper at the expiration of the time paid for, the publisher assumes that the subscriber desires the paper and intends to pay for it. No subscription will be discontinued until all arrears are paid. Special rates for space advertising made known on application. Senders to post office. Specials for the Cards of Thanks Sec.
Printing. This office is well equipped to do all class printing of every description at the lowest prices.
Friday Morning, Sept. 12, 1919

Always at Your Service for Printing Needs!

- Is there something you need in the following list?
- Birth Announcements
 - Wedding Stationery
 - Engagement Invitations
 - Sale Bills
 - Price Lists
 - Admission Tickets
 - Business Cards
 - Window Cards
 - Time Cards
 - Letter Heads
 - Note Heads
 - Envelope Heads
 - Calling Cards
 - Statements
 - Milk Tickets
 - Meal Tickets
 - Shipping Tags
 - Announcements
 - Bills
 - Notes
 - Coupons
 - Programs
 - Catalogues
 - Circulars
 - Posters
 - Invitations
 - Folders
 - Checks
 - Blanks
 - Notices
 - Labels
 - Legal Blanks
 - Business Cards
 - Flowers
 - Post Cards
 - Programs
 - Receipts
- Prompt, careful and efficient attention given to every detail

Don't Send Your Order Out of Town Until You See What We Can Do

The Thrice-A-Week Edition OF THE New York World IN 1919.
Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price. The value and need of a newspaper in the household was never greater than at the present time. We have been forced to enter the great world war, and a mighty army of ours is already in France fighting great battles and winning magnificent victories. You will want to have all the news from our troops on European battlefields, and 1919 promises to be the most momentous year in the history of our universe. No other newspaper at so small a price will furnish such prompt and accurate news of these world-shaking events. It is not necessary to say more. THE THIRCE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Genoa Tribune together for one year for $2.25. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

PARKER'S HAIR BALM
A gentle preparation of natural oils to eradicate dandruff, soothe itching scalp, and restore the hair to its natural color and shine. Sold by all druggists.
HINDERCOIN Remove Corns, Calluses, etc. Stops all pain, cures comfort to the feet, makes walking easy. Sold by mail or all Druggists. Also Chemical Works, Patuxent, Md.

Patronize the merchants who advertise in this paper. They will treat you right.

$97,817,005 COST OF Y WAR WORK

$30,000,000 Spent in Home Camps and $43,000,000 Abroad.

DETAIL OF EXPENDITURES.

Unfulfilled Pledges Must Be Paid to Continue Work Till December 31, 1919.

NEW YORK, August 26.—The first detailed account of the receipts and expenditures of the Young Men's Christian Association, made public recently by the organization's National War Work Council finance committee, showed that $125,282,889 was received by it between April 26, 1917, and March 31, 1919. The total expenditures aggregated $97,817,005 in the period named.

The officials of the National War Work Council state that it is essential that the unpaid pledges be paid immediately, as the Y must have these funds to carry on its work, which has been increased and not diminished since the armistice was declared.

According to the figures, which appear over the signatures of George W. Perkins, chairman of the committee; Cleveland E. Dodge, treasurer of the War Work Council, and E. W. Wilmet, comptroller, slightly more than 2 per cent. of the total funds contributed by the American public were expended for religious purposes in the United States and overseas, while approximately 80 per cent. was devoted to the purchase, transportation and distribution of canteen supplies and to entertainments, education and athletic sports.

In addition to the provisions of free athletic supplies, which included, among other things, in the United States camps alone, 557,096 baseballs and 30,000 sets of boxing gloves, the report says, the Y. M. C. A. distributed $28,822,449 worth of merchandise. Of the merchandise $1,794,771 worth, or approximately 5 per cent, was given free to the soldiers.

Of the $97,817,005 expended, it is shown more than $30,000,000 was spent in the home camps, more than $43,000,000 with the American expeditionary forces abroad and $14,400,175 for work with the Allied armies and navies of war. The balance went for transportation and other expenses. The statement explains that the Y suffered a loss of $1,478,084 in the operation of army post exchanges and canteens, which, owing to the depreciation in values of French and English currency and conversions of the overseas figures at market rates, resulted in a book loss of $2,422,958.

The report, the committee makes clear, is not final, because the war service of the Y. M. C. A., which reached its maximum in March of this year, is being continued in the United States and foreign countries. Three war work campaigns for funds, it points out, brought from the American public $128,854,982, and this amount, the report states, was augmented to $125,282,889 by sums from other sources.

Some idea of the magnitude of the work accomplished by the organization is shown by the statement that more than 97,000 concerts, vaudeville performances and other entertainments were staged by the Y in American cantonments to an aggregate audience of 48,500,000 at a cost of $1,186,787. In addition, free motion picture shows in the home camps necessitated an outlay of $2,323,371.

Erection of 950 huts for men in training camps on this side cost $7,698,984, and the outlay for maintenance was $3,965,726. "These buildings," says the report, "were centers of religious, educational, entertainment and athletic activities for all men who passed through the camps on their way overseas or who used the centers through the period covered by the report and are still using them."

Overseas, the statement says, work of even "a vaster scope" was accomplished. The 1,300 of more Y huts and tents built or leased for the use of the A. E. F. cost $4,801,271, were equipped at a cost of $2,950,421 and operated and maintained at a further expense of $1,614,837.

Writing materials and newspapers for the overseas men, including 400,000,000 sheets of letter paper, half as many envelopes and 16,000,000 post cards cost $2,396,808. For motion picture shows, in which 12,000,000 feet of films were used in France alone and spectators aggregated 50,000,000, the Y paid $1,066,787. More than 34,000 concerts and entertainments increased the expenditure by $850,969.

The cost of the Y's overseas religious program was $497,584, or approximately one-fifth of one per cent of the entire operating funds. Educational plants, literature and library work cost $991,932, and the A. E. F. athletics cost $1,957,301. The organization also operated, it is explained, more than twenty-five "leave areas" in various parts of France at an expense of $831,801 and a chain of hotels for men on leave at a cost of $477,956.

In the United States, it is shown, the organization expended $2,105,215 upon its religious program in the six military departments which included the holding of meetings and Bible classes, the distribution of literature and the maintenance of religious secretaries and musical directors. Educational literature, together with lectures, instruction in the French language and library service, was provided at home by an expenditure of $1,192,737.

Y. M. C. A. stationery for the home huts, together with the financing of camp publications, resulted in a further expense of $922,639, including the purchase of 270,000,000 envelopes and twice as many sheets of writing paper. The Y, it is said, also spent for its territorial war work in the Canal Zone, Porto Rico, the Philippines and other territories $260,654.

Of the $16,942,895 spent for the armies of the Allied countries, it is shown, France received $6,738,744, Russia $4,805,985 and Italy $3,198,951. Work among war prisoners cost $1,068,591. The latter sum was divided as follows: Germany, $117,981; Denmark, $29,007; Austria-Hungary, $146,813; Switzerland, $247,950; Turkey, $56,206, and in other countries, $390,546.

Transportation of comforts and luxuries to the canteens and soldiers in the field represented a considerable item, the installation of a motor truck service costing $2,702,034 and its operating expense $1,170,761. This included the cost of distributing Christmas gifts and the conveyance of entertainers.

The cost of selecting, recruiting, training and paying the assistance and traveling expenses of all the Y secretaries was $3,066,502. Administrative, general activities campaign and publicity expenses disbursed in New York were said to have totaled $3,184,802.

Y Girl Riders Supply Outposts

Two plucky American girls and two faithful army horses are making life easier for that part of the Army of Occupation stationed at the "end of nowhere," the farthest outpost lines in Germany. The girls are Y girls, (left to right) Miss Tracy L'Engle of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Helen F. Powell of Saginaw, Mich. They pack the horses with small luxuries for the soldiers and ride from morning till night, and from battalion to battalion, in order to distribute them. Sentry boxes stationed from two to six kilometers from headquarters at Puderbach, which is about thirty miles north of Cologne, are visited by the Y girls. They even give theatrical entertainments for the boys, taking along their own orchestra, consisting of an accordion, a few's harp and an harmonica. Miss L'Engle is a Wellesley College graduate and in addition to her other achievements was the first girl to shoot a Browning machine gun in France. Miss Powell is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke.

"MIKE," TINY VETERAN.
French Orphan Won Service Stripes With A. E. F.

His American name is "Mike," and he's a veteran of the A. E. F., though as a Louis Martens he started out in life as a son of France. But Louis's father was killed in the war, and his mother died shortly after, so Louis found himself living in a shattered house in Bayonne, in the south of France, with an aunt, who could scarcely take care of herself.

Then one fortunate day Louis in his wanderings came upon the Fifteenth U. S. Cavalry.

"MIKE," A. E. F. VETERAN. S. Cavalry station. He made friends instantly with the officers and mules (it was a remount station) as well as with the soldiers, and before he knew it he was adopted by the Fifteenth and showered with money, Liberty bonds and affection.

He was brought up in the Y. M. C. A. hut there at Bayonne and after six months of service awarded a service stripe, his proudest possession. Y secretaries took charge of him while the men were on duty, but every leisure moment found the entire Fifteenth congregated in the Red Triangle hut doing homage to their small and adored mascot. Louis will be a real American all his days, too, for he is to be brought up by Chaplain Sutherland of the Fifteenth here in the United States. "Mike" hardly knows what to expect of America, but he's sure he's going to like his new home, especially if Chaplain Sutherland's house turns out to be as much fun as a Y hut.

CIGAR BOX FIDDLER BECAME OVERSEAS STAR

Aided and abetted by the Y. M. C. A., Private Jack Tender of Passaic, N. J., made his own ragtime violin while in Base Hospital 120 before the armistice and as a result found himself doing big time on the A. E. F. circuit after the war was over.

It came about on account of the shortage of violins in France and because the

JACK TENDER. Y. M. C. A. at 120 had raked the country unsuccessfully for the fiddles that Private Tender wanted more than anything else in the world. But even a Y man can't produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it. And make it they did, and produce an instrument that doesn't exist, and so this one had to go back to Private Tender and suggest a substitute—one more in the world of substitutes that "Here's a cigar box," he offered, "and some spool wire. Come on; I'll help you make it

THE GENOA TRIBUNE

Published every Friday and entered at the postoffice at Genoa, N. Y., as second class mail matter.

Friday Morning, Sept. 12, 1919

Town Nominations.

Nominations for town officers were made at the caucuses last Friday and Saturday throughout the county. The following were made in Genoa and Venice:

Genoa—Democratic.

Supervisor, A. L. Loomis; clerk, S. J. Hand; justice of the peace, George Stearns and George Nettleton; assessors, John Palmer and James Mulvaney; collector, H. S. Hand; overseer of the poor, James H. McDermott and Dan Hunter; constable, A. B. Slocum, Leo McCormick, William Cook, Thomas F. Welsh and Paul Sullivan; superintendent of highways, Michael Sullivan.

Genoa—Republican.

Supervisor, Herbert Gay; clerk, Samuel J. Hand; justice of the peace, William H. Sharpsteen, Eben R. Rowland and Fred L. Stilwell; assessor, Robert B. Ferris and George W. Hall; collector, William P. Shaw; overseer of the poor, Claude D. Palmer and B. Freeman Samson; constable, William Smith, Louis Sellen, Walter D. Hunt and George N. Coon; superintendent of highways, William S. Loomis.

Venice—Democratic.

Supervisor, Bradford L. Parker; clerk, Mrs. Julia Heald; justices of the peace, Leo Heffernan and George Sherman; assessors, Gilbert Parker and John Callahan; collector, George B. Crawford; overseers of the poor, William Herron and Fred Austin; constables, George Binge, Alfred Perkins, Edward Haley, and George Clayton; superintendent of highways, John W. Bruton; school director, John W. Corey.

Venice—Republican.

Supervisor, E. S. Manchester; clerk, Charles W. Clark; justices of the peace, John H. Streeter, John C. Misner and Charles E. Stanton; assessors, Charles B. Husted and S. C. Ketchum; overseers of poor, David Nolan and Fred S. Whitman; highway superintendent, R. J. Coulson; collector, A. C. Matthews, and constables, C. M. Nettleton, Fred Coomber and Ray O. Sherman.

Pomona Grange.

The Cayuga County Pomona Grange will hold a meeting Saturday, Sept. 13, at Grange hall in Sherwood. Worthy Master John VanDorn of Cato will preside and will call the meeting to order at 10 a. m. An interesting program has been arranged and there will be a discussion of the 1919 harvest and fall and winter plans. The program follows: Song by Grange—169.

General business. Reports of granges of the county. Miscellaneous business. Remarks by C. S. Post on good of the order.

Applications for membership in the fifth degree. Adjournment until 1:30 p. m. Dinner to be served by the Sherwood Grange.

Afternoon Session.

Conferring degrees. Lecturer's Hour. Musical recitation by Jerome G. Barger and Sister Hattie Ferris. "The Farnums' Reputation" by Sister Nellie L. Anthony. "True Americanism" by Lieut. Leon E. Cornell.

Theater Attractions.

Some excellent attractions are booked for the Auditorium, Auburn, next week. Monday evening, Sept. 15, a novelty will be offered in the new Hawaiian Musical Comedy Success, "My Honolulu Girl." The company numbers 35 people. A special scale of prices has been arranged and there are hundreds of the lower priced seats on the main floor. The sale of seats will open at the Auditorium, Friday, Sept. 12.

Wednesday evening, Sept. 17, Arthur Hammerstein presents the season's newest and best musical comedy success, "Somebody's Sweetheart." The name of Hammerstein on an attraction is a guarantee of its quality. "Somebody's Sweetheart" comes direct from its long run on Broadway. It will be presented by a large and specially selected company of well known Broadway favorites and a classy New York chorus. The sale of seats will open at the Auditorium, Monday, Sept. 15. Phone 2345 M. There will be matinee and evening performances.

Tompkins County Fair.

The full program of the biggest and best Tompkins County fair ever held at Ithaca has been completed for next week and from Sept. 16 to 19, Tuesday to Friday inclusive, there will be the largest crowds of the year gathered at the Ithaca fair grounds to witness daring aerial stunts by fast airplanes, good horse races, tent shows and to hear Conway's Famous Concert Band, and addresses by many notable persons.

Wednesday, Sept. 17, has been set aside as Constitution and Victory day and on that day a big celebration in honor of the returned soldiers of the county will be observed with appropriate ceremonies. All discharged soldiers, sailors and marines in Tompkins county will be admitted to the fair free that day.

Conway's Band, straight from Atlantic City, will play eight concerts, one each afternoon and evening of the fair, a treat which alone will be worth the trip to Ithaca for the fair.

The exhibits will include many new features with farm improvement systems prominently displayed throughout. Dancing will be enjoyed each afternoon and evening in Domestic hall.

Knights Templar Conclave.

The 34th triennial conclave of the Knights Templar is being held at Philadelphia from Sept. 6 to 13. From 50,000 to 55,000 Knights from all sections of the country will unite in a celebration that will be a tribute to every U. S. soldier, sailor and marine who served in the world war.

George C. Hanford, grand generalissimo of the Grand Commandery of the State of New York, will play an important part in the proceedings. The closing day of the conclave will be known as Star Spangled Banner Day in honor of Francis Scott Key, composer of the National anthem.

An elaborate display of fireworks will be given in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, during the sessions.

Iowa is the largest hog-raising state in the Union, the estimate for 1919 being 10,925,000, nearly double the number of Illinois, the next state below.

A pay check for $173.78 for one week's work picking cherries, by two people, is an indication of the harvest the cherry and berry pickers have been making this year. This sounds like a fairy story, but the check was actually paid to a man and his wife for their work at the Sodus Fruit Farm for one week. They began work at 4 o'clock in the morning.—Sodus Record.

Special Notices.

Pigs for sale. Harry S. Ferris, 8w2 Atwater, N. Y.

WANTED—Married man to work by the year my 60 acre farm, or will furnish everything and give share, or man can furnish and work for half. Don't fail to start the fall pigs on tankage at old price.

F. T. Atwater, King Ferry, 8w2

FOR SALE—7 shoats. W. D. Young, Locke, N. Y., Miller phone, 8w2

Grain is too expensive to feed a scrub hog. If you are going to make pork, start with the good kind; the kind that makes 1½ pounds a day. I have them for sale out of mature O. I. C. stock. A litter of 17; 13 living to select from. Either sex if ordered before Sept. 15. Registration papers if desired. Also brood sow with 11 pigs.

Willard Wilcox, North Lansing, 7w2 Miller phone

FOR SALE—Seven steers, 5 two years old and two yearlings; also one new milch cow with calf by side.

6w3 Frank Brill, King Ferry.

FOR SALE—Shropshire ram and ram lambs. Geo. L. Ferris & Son, Atwater, N. Y. 6tf

FOR SALE—8 head extra well bred high-producing registered Holstein cows and heifers, all due this fall and winter. Also 12 acres of fine enalage corn standing in the field.

Floyd E. Davis & Son, R. D. 9, Ludlowville, N. Y. Miller phone 118-3 6tf

FOR SALE—Two good Ford touring cars, Overland with starter and lights, good tires, good condition. Atwater-Bradley Corp.

One pair young mares, 3 and 5 years old, wt. about 2400, for sale cheap. 5tf Atwater-Bradley Corp.

FOR SALE—Fine gladiolus blooms for any occasion. Prices reasonable. G. Lewis Collins, Aurora, N. Y. 5w4

FOR SALE—The residence at King Ferry formerly owned by Sarah Ryder. For particulars inquire of E. A. Allen, 42 Madison St., Cortland, N. Y. 5w5

FOR SALE—The Wm. Fallon farm at East Genoa. For particulars apply to A. L. Loomis, executor for Wm. Fallon estates. 35tf.

Genoa Gem Theater

will open its doors to the public
WEDNESDAY E.V.E., SEPT. 17
and continue to give two shows a week thereafter on Wednesday and Saturday Nights.

GRAND OPENING

Wednesday night with Moving Pictures, Dance and Chicken Supper—supper to be served at the hotel.

It was intended to open with "Riders of the Purple Sage," but owing to a mistake in dates, was unable to get it, so Mr. Fox has been most generous for the opening and substitutes

William Farnum

in his Greatest and Most Sensational Play

"The Man Hunter"

a story of wrong righted, a long, long trail, love Triumphant, three hair-raising fights, thrilling shipwrecks, etc., with love's reward as a final; also a two-reel comedy "WEDDING BELLS AND LIONS," a show in itself.

Prices for Theater Tickets alone—Adults, 20c and war tax; Children, 12 yrs. old and under, 10c and war tax; making 22c and 11c each.

FALL GOODS

My fall clothing is here. I feel fortunate in securing a big line of the most up-to-date clothing for men and boys at the early market price. The same goods to-day are worth from 10 to 25 per cent more than when I purchased.

Therefore, I can save you money on your Fall and Winter clothing. All grades of winter underwear from the fleec lined to the best of woolen garments, sweaters for men and boys, fine selection of gloves and mittens, the latest style hats and caps, gents furnishings of all kinds in big assortment.

A welcome to my friends and patrons.

Maks G. Shapero,

34 North St., Auburn, N. Y.

AUDITORIUM

AUBURN, NEW YORK

MONDAY EVENING SEPT. 15

The Hawaiian Musical Comedy Success

"MY HONOLULU GIRL"

Native Hawaiian Singers, Dancers and instrumentalists
A Cast of Musical Comedy Favorites—A Chorus of Pretty Girls

Seat Prices: 600 at 25c—400 at 50c—600 at 75c—500 at $1.00—few rows $1.50
Sale opens Friday, Sept. 12. Phone 2345M

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 17, Matinee and Night

Arthur Hammerstein's New Musical Comedy Success

"SOMEBODY'S SWEETHEART"

Direct from a long run in New York City

Special Bargain Matinee Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

Evening Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, a few rows $2.00

Coming soon—High Class Burlesque Every Week. Opening attraction "The Rector Girls" Sept. 20—"Parlor, Bedroom and Bath"—"The Old Homestead"

HONEY!

Nature's Own Sweet

GEO. L. FERRIS has it to sell.

CUCUMBER PICKLES
ANY SIZE DESIRED
Claude F. Chase, Aurora

Farm Stationery

LETTER HEADS
BILL HEADS
STATEMENTS
ENVELOPES
ANYTHING IN THE
LINE OF PRINTING

GENOA TRIBUNE

THE GENOA GARAGE

J. A. Buse

Successor to Buse & Ryan

General Auto Repairing

Agency for Travelers Insurance and Indemnity Company

Accidents to autos are a great and growing hazard. Come in and see me in regard to this matter. Insure your auto.

We now have on hand a Full Stock of
Goodyear Diamond Tires

Gasoline Oils Accessories Vulcanizing

AUTOMOBILES

We now have 1919 models of the

STUDEBAKER AND OVERLAND

Both are up-to-date and leaders in their classes
--Let us Demonstrate their superior qualities to you.

We have a large line of haying machinery at right prices.

Atwater-Bradley Corp'n.,
Genoa, N. Y.

AT GENOA SUPPLY CO. INC.

WE NOW HAVE

BRAN---MIDS---CORN---CRACKED CORN---CORN MEAL---HOMINY
SCHUMACHER FEED---UNICORN---GLUTON---OIL MEAL---SCRATCH
GRAINS---CHICK SCRATCH GRAIN---HENRY CHICK WASH---OATS
---CALF MEAL---ROOFING OF ALL KINDS---FERTILIZERS, ETC.
COME AND TRY OUR HOG TANKAGE. COAL OF ALL KINDS.

GENOA SUPPLY CO.,
Miller 'phone GENOA, N. Y.

WE HAVE ON HAND:

FLOURS	FEEDS
Hecker's Superlative	Oats and Corn
Gold Medal	Corn
Daniel Webster	Corn Meal
Sleepy Eye	Cracked Corn
Pillsbury's	Bran
Marble	Middings
Silver Spray	Arrow Chick Feed
Best Blended	Beef Scrap
	Oyster Shell
	Grit
	Bolted Meal
	Blanchford Calf Meal
	Security Calf and Pig Feed

W. F. REAS & SON, GENOA ROLLER MILLS
GENOA, N. Y.

C. J. Wheeler, Genoa, N. Y.

Coal, Fertilizer, Etc.

Phone office 275-11

Residence 8L-22

Village and Vicinity News.

—Don't forget the Hop at the Rink Saturday evening. adv.

—Dr. and Mrs. Willoughby of Auburn were in town Sunday.

—Hobart Hagin has been sick with a severe cold this week.

—Mrs. Lena Fulmer, who has been ill for several weeks, is slowly gaining.

—The State fair has called many from Genoa and vicinity to Syracuse this week.

—W. D. Mastin left Friday for his home in Detroit, after a few days' visit in town.

—Miss Eleanor Sharp left Saturday last for Boston where she expects to remain for a time.

—Miss Pauline Reas went to Cortland Sunday last and entered the Central High school on Monday.

—Mrs. Jane Bower has been spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Karn, at North Lansing.

—Our correspondents' news items this week occupy more than usual space. Several may be found on page 8.

—Mrs. Frank White of Melrose and Mrs. John White of Auburn spent Wednesday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Clarence Allnut.

—Miss Jennie Cope of Gilbertsville is spending two weeks with her mother and sister before resuming her studies at Albany Normal.

—Leslie Ford arrived at his home in Genoa last Thursday, after thirteen months' service in France. He is looking fine and in good health.

Ask about the roof paint with a 6 yr. guarantee. A. T. VanMarter, Genoa, N. Y. 8w1

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jennings and son, Carlton Jennings, of Moravia were Sunday guests at the home of G. B. Springer and family.

—Mrs. Walter Tilton, Miss Elsie Tilton and J. H. Cruthers motored to Cortland Monday. Miss Tilton returned to the Normal to continue her studies.

—Extremely warm weather Sunday and Monday. Temperature reported at 90 to 94 deg. Cooler Tuesday, followed by a fine rain Wednesday night.

—Harold Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Sullivan of Auburn, returned home Sunday from Fort Dodge, Iowa, where he was honorably discharged from the service.

—W. R. Mosher returned Wednesday evening from Moravia where he spent several days. He has been on the sick list recently but is somewhat improved.

More egg and stove coal arrived at Genoa Supply Co's.

—Miss Mildred Lanterman returned to her home at South Lansing last week, after spending the summer in Buffalo. She also visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller in Toledo, Ohio.

—J. H. Smith, and his mother, Mrs. Olive Smith, who has been spending several weeks with Mrs. Jane Bower, motored to Booneville Saturday last, where Mrs. Smith will remain with her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Lavis. Mrs. Alson Karn of North Lansing and Hanford Smith accompanied them on the trip, all returning home Sunday night.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ames, son and daughter, of Americus, Ga., with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ames of Cortland were callers in town Saturday afternoon. C. A. Ames, the former publisher of THE TRIBUNE, with his family has been spending a month with Cortland and DeRuyter relatives and left Sunday evening for their home in Georgia.

—The death of Mrs. Sarah Avery occurred at the family home in Earlville Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock, after a long illness. Mrs. Avery survived her husband, the late O. M. Avery, only eight weeks, being very ill at the time of his death. The funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Baptist church in this village. Burial in Genoa cemetery.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Green expect to leave Monday next for New York, from whence they sail on Wednesday for La Romana, Santo Domingo. The trip will cover ten days. Mr. Green, who recently returned from overseas service, is a civil engineer and will be employed as supervisor of cultivation in charge of a large tract of land. Genoa friends wish them bon voyage.

—Miss Jenny L. Robinson of Cortland spent Friday last at F. C. Hagin's.

More egg and stove coal arrived at Genoa Supply Co's.

—It is estimated that at least 1,000 New York State soldiers will have been admitted to the various insane asylums by the time demobilization is completed.

—Ithaca will have a public curb market. Albany street between State and Seneca streets and Seneca street between Cayuga and Albany streets were designated as the market location.

—It is interesting to note the various prophecies regarding the weather for the next few months. In Geneva there is a weather prophet who predicts early frosts, a long and cold winter with little snow. Others predict a late fall and a mild winter.

—Miss Ruth Burton has returned to her home in Auburn, after spending two weeks with Mrs. James Layne of Genoa. She was accompanied to the city by Corp. James Layne who is on his way back to Panama after spending a 60-day furlough at his home.

—The booth of the Cayuga County Farm Bureau at the State fair in Syracuse was awarded first prize. As there were 20 competitors and the exhibits were of various kinds from all sections of the state, Cayuga county should be very much pleased with this showing.

—Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Driscoll of Venice in the death of their infant daughter, Doris Louise, which occurred at the family home Sept. 6. On account of illness in the family, the funeral was private on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Burial at King Ferry.

—Every soldier, sailor and marine in Cayuga county is invited to participate in the welcome home celebration Saturday at Lakeside Park, Auburn. Men will meet at the State Armory at 12 o'clock where they will be given their dinner and car tickets. It is requested that every man wear his uniform, no matter how much the worse for wear.

—The county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held Sept. 17 and 18 in the Chapter House of the First Presbyterian church of Auburn. Mrs. Frances Graham of Lockport, state vice president of the union, is expected to give an address Wednesday evening. Mrs. Graham is a most interesting speaker and it is expected a large audience will be present.

—Mrs. Lena May Conklin of Ithaca has resigned her position as school nurse of the Ithaca public schools. Mrs. Conklin for the past eight years has had under her charge the supervision of the health of the pupils in the Ithaca schools and her work was carried on successfully. She has now opened a private sanitarium at her home at 502 North Aurora St., in Ithaca.

—The condition of Harry Huff, a farmer residing about five miles east of Auburn, who was taken to the City hospital Monday following the premature explosion of a charge of dynamite which he was using to blast stumps on his farm, is reported as being as well as could be expected. Mr. Huff will lose the sight of one eye. His face, chest and left arm were badly lacerated and filled with ground stone. Mr. Huff is a brother of Frank Huff of Genoa.

—The contracts for the construction of the Scipio and Venice roads, obtained by the county at the letting of road contracts in Albany, were sublet late Friday to John C. Healy and Knox & Shaw, Auburn contractors, following a lengthy discussion at the afternoon session of the Board of Supervisors. The action is subject to the approval of the State Highway Commission, as in case the local contractors fail to qualify, the second chance at building the roads will go to Claire D. Schlemmer, a Long Island contractor.

—Dr. F. M. Willis of Ithaca has been suffering from a severely infected right hand as the result, he believes, of a spider bite. Recently at his cottage at Maplewood, Dr. Willis noticed that he apparently had been bitten on the right hand. He took precautionary measures but the hand grew worse, with the result that he was obliged to receive medical attention for the infection. Several cases of blood poisoning which are believed to have resulted from the bite of red spiders have been reported among the west shore campers.

Venice Resident Dies Suddenly.

The death of Charles Hull Wood occurred at his home in Venice Center at 4 o'clock on the morning of Sept. 4, 1919, after a brief illness from heart trouble. He had been ill only a day or two.

The deceased was born and always resided, until about three years ago, on the farm on the Indian Field road which is now occupied by his son. He was 62 years of age, and was the older son of the late James and Emmeline Hull Wood, of Venice. He was twice married, his first wife being Ella Haley, whose death occurred Oct. 31, 1913. In 1916, he was married to Miss Mary Grant of Scipio, who survives him. He also leaves a son, Arthur Wood, two grandsons, and a brother, Henry Wood of Syracuse.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Saturday at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. E. Price, pastor of the Universalist church of Auburn, officiated. Burial was made at East Venice. There was a profusion of floral tributes, including one from the Scipio Maccabees of which Mr. Wood was a member. Messrs. A. M. Sisson, W. B. Heald, John Streeter, Frank Saxton, Frank Mosher and Eben Beebe acted as bearers.

Among those from out-of-town in attendance at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood of Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peck of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Carrie Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wood and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wood of Cortland, Mr. and Mrs. John Murdock of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Osborn of Union Springs, and other friends of Auburn.

Auction Notice.

Having sold the farm (immediate possession to be given) known as the Hiram S. Holden farm at Lansingville, N. Y., the undersigned will sell at public auction on Saturday, Sept. 13, 1919, at 12 o'clock sharp: Six good horses, 10 head cattle—including choice dairy cows, 4 hogs, 75 hens, McCormick binder, Superior grain drill, International manure spreader, Johnson reaper, Deering mower, rake, harrows, plows, hay tedder, land roller, cultivators, horse hoe, 2-hay riggings, cutter, wagons, bobs, harnesses, set new 800-lb. platform scales, 200 fence posts, 100 crates, hay ropes, hay forks, pulleys, shovels and forks and many other articles. Quantity lumber, quantity oats, some household goods, etc.

Stephen Myers, Auct.

Orrin Scott.

Genoa Baptist Church Notes.

R. A. FARGO, PASTOR.

Sunday services at 11 a. m.

Sunday school at 12.

Evening service at 7:30.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

The church has called the council to ordain their pastor, Tuesday, Sept. 16, at 10:30 a. m. Dinner will be served by the ladies for the delegates and friends. All are welcome to attend. The ordaining message is to be given in the afternoon by L. C. Bennett of the Immanuel Baptist church of Auburn.

East Venice, Scripture message at 3 p. m.

Bible study at 4 p. m. Every one urged to come.

Genoa Presbyterian Church Notes.

Regular services next Sunday. A good sized congregation last Sunday to hear Rev. S. R. Brown. We cannot state definitely who will preach next Sunday.

—Anna C. Gordon, president of the National W. C. T. U., denies that the W. C. T. U. is making a federal amendment campaign against the use of tobacco.

—When father discovers that mother pays as much for a loaf of bread as he does for a cigar, he becomes indignant about the robber profiteers who are stingy women by raising prices.—Ex.

—Columbus, Ohio, opened wide its gates Saturday last in welcome to thousands of veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and Woman's Relief Corps which began the national encampment on Sunday.

—Make a resolution that you will not spend a cent until you have earned it, and include a clause that you will not go in debt for a single penny, and you will save a few dollars even against your will. There is no doubt about this and if you want the proof try it.

EVERY FACE

PRESENTS A STUDY TO THE OPTICIAN. THE GOOD RESULTS WE GET ARE DUE TO OUR EXPERIENCE IN ADJUSTING GLASSES. JUST ANY OLD FRAME AND STYLE WILL NOT DO. GLASSES, IF THEY MUST BE WORN, SHOULD BE BECOMING, AND PROPERLY ADJUSTED OR THEY HAVE NO MERIT AND IF NOT FOCUSED CORRECTLY ARE WORSE FOR THE EYES THAN NO GLASSES.

A. T. HOYT, LEADING JEWELER AND OPTICIAN, HOYT BLOCK, MORAVIA, N. Y.

IDEAL LUNCH

SATISFACTORY LUNCH AT ALL TIMES

--- TABLES FOR LADIES ---

105 N. Toga St., opposite County Clerk's office, ITHACA, - N. Y.

Try Wait's

First for

Home - Furnishings

It's everybody's store and Auburn's largest, most completely stocked and best equipped Home Furnishing Establishment.

The H. R. Wait @.

Main Store 77 Genesee St. Stove Store 22 Dill St. Branch Stores 24-26 Clark St. Upholstering Shop 20 Dill St.

"I've got to admit it," acknowledges one farmer. "My son is furnishing more vegetables from his school garden than I am from the one that I'm working!"

Ithaca-Auburn Short Line

Central New York Southern Railroad Corporation.

In Effect March 1, 1918.

SOUTHBOUND—Read Down					STATIONS					NORTH BOUND—Read Up
27	23	421	21	31	32	422	22	24	28	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily
Daily	Daily	Sunday Only	Daily Except Sun.	Daily Except Sun.	Daily Except Sun.	Sunday Only	Daily Except Sun.	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily
6 40	1 30	8 35	8 30	6 52	AUBURN	9 22	11 05	1 50	5 07	9 10
6 57	1 45	8 52	8 45	7 39	Mapleton	9 07	10 50	1 48	4 54	8 55
7 08	1 56	9 03	8 56	7 20	Merrifield	8 56	10 39	1 35	4 45	8 44
7 17	2 03	9 12	9 03	7 29	Venice Center	8 47	10 30	1 27	4 36	8 35
					GENOA	8 36	10 19	1 16	4 24	8 24
7 28	2 13	9 23	9 13	7 40	North Lansing	8 25	10 08	1 07	4 12	8 13
7 38	2 21	9 33	9 21	7 50	South Lansing	8 12	9 55	12 57	4 01	8 00
7 55	2 31	9 50	9 32	8 05	ITHACA	7 35	9 20	12 25	3 30	7 20
8 20	3 00	10 15	9 56	8 30
P M	P M	A M	A M	A M		A M	A M	P M	P M	P M

* Trains No. 21 and 23 going South, and No. 22 and 24 going North are the motor cars and do NOT stop at Flag stations. Sunday trains No. 422 and 421 are the motor cars and these stop at all stations.

Additional Trains between Ithaca and Rogues Harbor leave Ithaca 10:00, (daily except Sunday) 2:00 and 4:40 p. m. daily and 9:30 p. m. (Saturday only).

Also leave Rogues Harbor at 10:40 a. m. (daily except Sunday), 2:35 p. m. and 5:15 p. m. daily, and 10:05 p. m. Saturday only.

COFFEE IS GOING

Up Up Up
Try a Cup of our Delicious Tea 60 cts. lb.

The Best Groceries are none too good for you.

HAGIN'S UP-TO-DATE GENOA. — N. Y. GROCERY,

1919

Offers BIG Business

For All in Want of Shoes and Rubbers.

Everything in the line of Shoes can be found HERE, at OLD PRICES for a limited time. All kinds of leather goods WILL BE MUCH HIGHER. Make Plans to Buy NOW.

Special Rug Sale---All Sizes A Dandy Rug 9x12 for $11.75

No trouble to show goods.

Yours for a BIG Business,

Robt. & H. P. Mastin,

WATCH AND CLOCK REPAIRING A SPECIALTY

Pilate's Dilemma

By REV. W. W. KETCHUM
Director of the Evening Classes,
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—Pilate saith unto them, Whom shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?—Matt. 27:23.

Much to Pilate's surprise, when at the feast he asked the multitude "Whom will ye that I release unto you, Barabbas or Jesus which is called Christ?" the multitude, prompted by the chief priests and the elders, asked for the release of Barabbas. This left Jesus on his hands.

Pilate, troubled and perplexed cried unto the multitude: "What shall I do with Jesus which is called Christ?" And again, prompted by the chief priests and the elders, the crowd shouted back: "Let him be crucified." Pilate answered: "Why, what evil hath he done?" "But they cried out the more saying: Let him be crucified."

When Pilate saw that the crowd was tumultuous and he could prevail nothing, thinking to rid himself of the responsibility of having Christ crucified, he took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying: "I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it." And the crowd, beside itself with frenzy, little realizing the import of the words, answered as one man: "His blood be on us and on our children."

God took them at their word, and the blood of Jesus has rested upon them and their children to this day, and they have suffered, as the prophets testified they would, because of it. Amongst the nations of the world the Jews have borne the stigma of their crime, and everywhere their name is a by-word and a hissing.

But Pilate did not, by the pantomime of washing his hands, neither by his word nor that of the maddened crowd, release himself from his dilemma. Jesus was on his hands, and he was responsible for what he did with him, and any court of justice would hold him accountable.

Pilate's name might have gone down in history as that of a just man, had he refused to be a party to the diabolical designs upon Jesus. But Pilate was a spineless, weak-kneed, political sycophant. He thought more of the security of his throne and his political future than he did of justice, and so he yielded up Barabbas to the multitude and sent Jesus to be crucified.

Pilate's dilemma is the dilemma of all men. As in Pilate's case, circumstances beyond control have placed Jesus on our hands, and it is no easier for us to shift responsibility for our treatment of Jesus than it was for Pilate to do so.

We say we will have nothing to do with Jesus, but that does not relieve us of our dilemma. Jesus is on our hands, for God sent him to be the Savior of the world, and that very fact makes us responsible for what we do with him.

To say that we will avoid responsibility by having nothing to do with Jesus, thinking thereby to relieve ourselves of responsibility, is as silly as it was for Pilate to think he could relieve himself of responsibility by going through the pantomime of washing his hands.

To refuse to heed the claims of Jesus as Savior is to decide against him. We have his own word for this, which says, "He that is not with me is against me." Do not think, then, to relieve yourself of Pilate's dilemma by assuming a negative attitude toward Jesus, for you have not thereby shifted your responsibility to do something for him. You have by your very attitude done something with him. By not heeding his claim upon you, you have denied that he has any claim, and by not accepting him as your Savior you have refused him. This is so evident that the wonder is that men will persistently try to shift their responsibility for their treatment of Christ, saying: "I will do nothing with him," hoping that this word relieves them of their dilemma. No, no, brother, sister, Jesus is on your hands, and do not think that your words wash away your responsibility. A gift, though not willfully refused, if not accepted is rejected, and so Christ, even though not willfully refused by you as your Savior, is, if he is by you neglected, thereby rejected.

Pilate's question is your question: "What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?" Let me tell you, brother, sister, what to do with him. Accept him by faith as your savior, for "he that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."—John 3:36.

Pilate, if he had done the right thing with Jesus, would have his name written in history today as a man of justice. You, if you do the right thing with Jesus, namely, accept him as your Savior and Lord, will have your name written forever in the Lamb's Book of Life, and you will have joy and peace in believing in the Lord Jesus Christ, a joy and a peace that the world cannot give, neither take away.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Give me no light, great heaven, but such as turns
To energy of human fellowship;
No powers save the growing heritage
That makes completer manhood.—Elliot.

A SUMMER DINNER.

A pleasing beginning for a dinner is some sort of fruit cocktail, served well chilled in dainty stemmed glasses, garnished with a sprig of mint or a maraschino cherry on the edge of the glass. There is such wide range in fruits that one may have at any season something worth while.

A very pretty and delicious fruit cocktail is made of the heart of a ripe watermelon. Cut balls with a good-sized French potato cutter, marinate with a sugar sirup flavored delicately with orange rind. The juice of the orange may be added to the sirup, cutting down some of the water, if preferred. Garnish with a sprig of mint and serve ice cold. Peaches, pears, grapes of various kinds as well as berries make splendid possibilities for cocktails.

Mutton With Peas.—Take a piece of lamb or mutton for stewing, simmer in boiling water with one small onion and three cloves, a pepper corn and an eighth of a bay leaf, for flavor; when tender and ready to serve remove the meat to a hot platter, prepare the gravy by thickening with flour and butter worked to a paste and stirred into the liquor from the meat. Cook until smooth, strain and add two to three cupfuls of fresh green peas, cooked and poured around the meat. The seasoning of salt and pepper must be added before the meat or gravy is well cooked, in order to be well seasoned.

Salad Chiffonade.—Arrange lettuce, pepper grass, tender green mustard and strips of pimento in a salad bowl; cover with French dressing and serve well chilled.

Radish Sandwiches.—Wash a dozen crisp, fresh radishes and chop finely; add four nut meats minced and four tablespoonsful of mayonnaise dressing. Spread on slices of buttered oat bread.

Quick Oat Bread.—Take two and one-quarter cupfuls of rolled oats; put through the meat grinder; add four teaspoonfuls of baking powder, half a teaspoonful of salt, one cupful of milk, one egg well-beaten and two tablespoonfuls of corn sirup. Bake in a greased breadpan 40 minutes.

Nellie Maxwell The KITCHEN CABINET

This is the law of prosperity. When apparent adversity comes, be not cast down by it, but make the best of it, and always look forward for better things, for conditions more prosperous.

"HAVE A HEART."

The hearts of young animals are all easily cooked and make a delicious meal. Cut in slices and saute in a little butter, cooking not too long, then serve piping hot.

Boiled Heart With Rice and Raisins.—Wash the heart, remove the tubes and gristle, cover with boiling water and cook ten minutes, then simmer very slowly on the back of the stove or in a fireless cooker until tender. Add washed rice, salt and pepper, using three-fourths of a cupful of rice, a teaspoonful of salt, and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of pepper; cook until the rice is tender. Drain the liquor from the rice, add three-fourths of a cupful of raisins, half a cupful of walnuts cut in bits, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, salt and pepper to taste and bring to the boiling point. Place the heart in the center of a platter, surround with cooked rice, pour nuts and raisins over the heart and garnish with parsley.

Kidney a la Pomme.—Wash one kidney, remove the tough portions and tubes, parboil changing the water two or three times. Drain, roll in seasoned flour and cook in three tablespoonfuls of drippings. Remove to a hot platter and keep warm. Slice four large onions, and cook in this fat, large ones when yellow to the serving dish. Add two cupfuls of boiling water to the fat in the pan and add six cooked potatoes cut in thick slices. Bring to the boiling point, add four tablespoonfuls of flour mixed with a third of a cupful of cold water. Stir and cook, add a teaspoonful of kitchen bouquet, with salt and pepper to taste. When the potatoes are thoroughly heated, remove them to the platter, reheat the kidney sauce and pour over the potatoes. Surround with the onions and serve at once.

Purse of Peas.—Cook a pint of tender green peas and put through a sieve; add a tablespoonful of butter mixed with two of flour, salt and pepper to taste. Cook until the flour is well cooked, add a cup of milk, heat and whip with a Dover egg beater, then serve at once. If there are more to serve, the amount of milk may be increased without injuring the flavor.

John Moore, for years editor of the Elmira Sunday Telegram, and a former regent of the university of the state of New York, died in Elmira after a long illness.

In an effort to end the labor trouble in the clothing industry, leading professors from John Hopkins and other places have gone to Rochester to study the situation.

The Chautauqua County Beekeepers' association has voted in favor of affiliating with the state organization. Its president will represent it at the state meeting next winter.

Genesee county Pomona grange, comprising 13 subordinate granges, is making rapid growth in membership, according to a report submitted at the session in Pavilion, showing an enrollment of 3,242 members.

NEW YORK NEWS ITEMS IN BRIEF.

Paragraphs of Interest to Readers of Empire State.

Interesting News of All Kinds Gathered from Various Points in the State and So Reduced in Size That It Will Appeal to All Classes of Readers.

Middleport is facing a house shortage.

Meat prices in Poughkeepsie have taken a tumble.

Hamburg village board will enforce curfew bell law.

Two supposed mad dogs were killed in North Tonawanda.

Bell and Federal telephones have been merged at Naples.

Farmers near Red Creek claim the cabbage crop is in danger.

Little Valley's welcome home for soldiers will be on the 18th.

Gasport people are considering means for improved fire protection.

Mayor Buck of Buffalo has raised the rent for space on the public market.

Orders for reorganizing the National Guard have been received in Buffalo.

Three people died in North Tonawanda after eating supposed mushrooms.

It is probable that the Rochester city quarantine against rabies will be lifted.

J. Scott Porter was nominated for sheriff in the Orleans county primaries.

The Hotel Seneca license was one of three surrendered in Rochester during August.

Canandaigua hopes that an armory will be built there to house its state guard company.

United States inspectors find less counterfeit money in Western New York than usual.

Lockport is suffering considerable embarrassment from lack of a landing field for airplanes.

Don Martin Post, No. 148, American Legion, of Silver Creek, now has more than 100 members.

Thieves stole ten dressed calves and one beef carcass from a slaughter house at Calendonias.

Contrary to reports state troopers have not been withdrawn from the Niagara Falls boulevard.

Jamestown has decided that a municipal milk plant would lower the cost of milk in that city.

Thieves were frightened away after making an attempt to rob the Exchange bank of Oakfield.

Louis Wahl complained to the Monroe county sheriff that airplanes were spoiling his bee business.

Niagara Falls schools are badly overcrowded and something will have to be done about it at once.

A tax rate of $24.896 per $1,000 of assessed valuation will be the highest rate in the history of Syracuse.

Rochester motion picture theaters have raised the price of admission owing to the increased cost of films.

At the annual meeting of the Wyoming county farm bureau it was decided to raise the annual dues from $1 to $2.

Niagara Falls is claiming a death rate of 8.20 based on a population of 60,000. The rate is the lowest in the history of the city.

The Niagara Wall Board company of North Tonawanda, recently incorporated for $750,000, will locate its plant at Penn Yan.

Physicians of the Tonawandas have decided not to advance their rates other than increasing the charge for night calls by a dollar.

Marrying is picking up in Rochester, 14 more licenses being issued in August of this year than during the same month a year ago.

Plans for the state highway department in Albany call for changing the course of the Genesee river at Belmont at an expense of $30,000.

Henry Stuyvesant, aged 82, direct descendant of Peter Stuyvesant, governor of New Amsterdam (New York) under Dutch rule, died at Rye.

Fatalities due to automobiles and vehicular accidents in New York state during August totaled 127, an increase of nearly 50 per cent over July.

Lockport's post of the American Legion has been named after Corporal Leo Dolan, who gave his life in an attempt to save a comrade overseas.

John Moore, for years editor of the Elmira Sunday Telegram, and a former regent of the university of the state of New York, died in Elmira after a long illness.

In an effort to end the labor trouble in the clothing industry, leading professors from John Hopkins and other places have gone to Rochester to study the situation.

The Chautauqua County Beekeepers' association has voted in favor of affiliating with the state organization. Its president will represent it at the state meeting next winter.

Genesee county Pomona grange, comprising 13 subordinate granges, is making rapid growth in membership, according to a report submitted at the session in Pavilion, showing an enrollment of 3,242 members.

The Germania Wine cellar at Pleasant Valley, between Bath and Hammondsport, has been sold to H. Grifenhagen, a former sheriff and registrar of New York city. The new owner plans to devote the property to making grape juice.

Shipments of grapes in carload lots started when the Chautauqua & Erie Grape company shipped its first car of early grapes. Early grapes have been on sale at the different produce stores in Fredonia for over a week. It is said the price per ton will start at $126.

The wine cellars and grape juice plant of Henry Card in Fredonia, have been sold to the Grape Ole Products company for $40,000. The plant is to be enlarged and new equipment installed at an expense of half a million dollars within the next year, it is stated.

Fatalities due to automobile and other vehicular accidents in New York state during August totaled 127, an increase of nearly 50 per cent over the previous month, according to the report of the National Highways Protective association made public in New York.

The Genesee County Historical society at its annual meeting in Batavia voted to give the free use of the log cabin building on the county fair grounds to returned soldiers and sailors of the county as a place to exhibit war trophies for the benefit of the war veterans.

The Highland Condensory company of Elkland has bought the butter factory at Jasper and will change it into a cooling station. The Highland company recently bought a tract of land at Elkland and will soon start the construction of a $200,000 plant for condensing milk.

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington has accepted an invitation to address the farmers of Western New York at the Chautauqua County agricultural fair on Sept. 11. The senator will speak on economic questions affecting the social and industrial conditions of the present day.

After a service of 27 years with the state, Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, deputy state education commissioner, relinquished his New York duties last week. He has assumed his new duties as superintendent of public instruction for the state of Pennsylvania at a salary of $12,000 a year.

The appointment of Captain E. D. Hendricks of Ft. Plain as division engineer of the eastern division of the state barge canal was announced by State Engineer Williams in Albany. Capt. Hendricks, who succeeds Capt. George R. Williams, will be in charge of the work on the canal between New York and Utica.

The Niagara county farm bureau has made arrangements with the state department of labor for the securing and distribution of farm labor to pick fruit in Niagara county. The state department of labor official in Buffalo will have charge of the securing of this help at the state employment agency in Buffalo.

Suspension of all strikes throughout the United States and the declaration of a labor truce on the basis of the status quo for six months or more, to enable President Wilson to bring about a reduction in the cost of living, is recommended in a report of a committee of the New York State Federation of Labor just made public in New York.

A mandatory salary increase for all civil service employees in state, county and city service, and an eight-hour day and one day of rest in seven for institutional employees was favored in resolutions adopted by the Civil Service Association of the State of New York at its ninth annual convention in Rochester. Frank B. Hanavan of Buffalo was elected president.

A conference in Albany with Governor Smith of the various commissions and agencies which have been appointed in New York to attempt to reduce the high cost of living was tentatively fixed for Sept. 15. Attorney General Mitchell Palmer has been invited. If he cannot appear then the date will be changed to conform to his convenience, it was announced in Albany.

A. P. Lewis of Albany was elected president of the State Young Men's Hebrew association, the Young Women's Hebrew association, and kindred organizations at the fifth annual convention which closed at Albany. Other officers were Israel Rumasen, Buffalo; Charles Freedman, Elmira, and Sarah B. Jacobson, Syracuse, vice presidents, and Mary Snyder, Albany, secretary-treasurer.

Governor Smith announces that he has appointed Lieut. Gov. Harry E. Walker of Binghamton as commissioner under the Moreland act to make a thorough investigation of conditions at the State Soldiers and Sailors Home at Bath. The governor's action was taken at the request of the board of managers of the home, following charges of improper management, which are said to have been the outgrowth of dissensions on the board.

Wheat's Ice Cream company of Akron has purchased of the Flanders company of Detroit the Buffalo and dehydrated products plant at Elba and will operate it as a milk condensory. Machinery, estimated to cost $250,000, will be installed and from 10 to a hundred will be employed at the plant the year around. It is expected that the amount of business will be from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000 a year. Milk will be received from all the surrounding towns, including Batavia, Byron, Bergen, Alexander, Barre, Alton, Clarendon, Oakfield, Stafford and other towns.

HEADQUARTERS FOR FAULTLESS WEAREVER RUBBER GOODS

There are 40 Ways to use the No. 40 Wearever Hot Water Bottle

- No. 1. Eases chest colds.
- No. 2. Soothes painful eyes.
- No. 3. To stop headache.
- No. 4. Good for sore throat.
- No. 5. Warm baby's bed.
- No. 6. Children's cramps.
- No. 7. For backache.
- No. 8. Apply cold for fever.
- No. 9. Earache and toothache.
- No. 10. Comfort on chilly nights.
- No. 11. Warms cold feet.
- No. 12. Baby's outdoor comfort.

To be continued.
GET IT AT MONAHAN'S

Cor. Genesee and North Sts., Auburn, N. Y.

WARNER'S QUESTION BIRD

What shall I do with a bad case of sunburn?
Answer: Keep the proper lotions on it, and your hands off it!

A CASE OF SUNBURN is a distressing problem. We are selling a cure for it. You can purchase remedies here that will immediately relieve your suffering and if you follow directions your flaming skin will be just as good as new in a few days.

They are Alma Rosa Cream, San Tox Cold Cream and other Soothing Lotions.

CHRISTIANCE-DUDLEY PHARMACY,
INCORPORATED
214-216 East State St., ITHACA, N. Y.

Place your Insurance with the
VENICE TOWN INSURANCE CO
$1,800,000 IN FARM RISKS!

WM. H. SHARPSTEEN, Secretary,
Office, Genoa, N. Y.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Notice to Creditors.

By virtue of an order granted by the Surrogate of Cayuga County, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of Amy E. Sharpsteen late of the town of Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with vouchers in support thereof to the undersigned, the Executor of, &c., of said deceased, at his residence in the town of Genoa, County of Cayuga, P. O. Address Locke, N. Y., (R. F. D. 22), on or before the 9th day of March, 1920.
Dated Aug. 20, 1919.
Jacob D. Sharpsteen, Executor.
Stuart R. Treat
Atty. for Executor,
11 Temple Court,
Auburn, N. Y.

Notice to Creditors.

By virtue of an order granted by the Surrogate of Cayuga County, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of Charles Sill, late of the town of Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with vouchers in support thereof to the undersigned, administratrix of, &c., of said deceased, at her place of residence in the town of Genoa, County of Cayuga, N. Y., on or before the 1st day of December, 1919.
Dated May 24, 1919.
Sarah Sill,
Administratrix.

Albert H. Clark,
Atty. for Administratrix,
Auburn, N. Y.

Notice to Creditors.

By virtue of an order granted by the Surrogate of Cayuga County, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the estate of John Sullivan, late of the town of Genoa, Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with vouchers in support thereof to the undersigned, the administratrix of, &c., of said deceased, at her place of residence, in the town of Genoa, County of Cayuga, on or before the 8th day of January, 1920.
Dated July 5, 1919.
Catherine Sullivan, Administratrix.

People Read This Newspaper

That's why it would be profitable for you to advertise in it

- If you want a job
- If you want to hire somebody
- If you want to sell something
- If you want to buy something
- If you want to rent your house
- If you want to sell your house
- If you want to buy property
- If there is anything that you want the quickest and best way to supply that want is by placing an advertisement in this paper

The results will surprise and please you

We Want You

to keep in mind the fact that in addition to printing this newspaper we do job work of any kind. When in need of anything in this line be sure

To See Us

FOR FURNITURE, CARPETS AND STOVES

YOUR DOLLAR GOES FARTHEST AT
SCHRECK BROS. 14 and 16 East Genesee Street, AUBURN, NEW YORK.

MARSHALL'S CLOTHING STORE

MARSHALL'S BOYS' DEPARTMENT

Let us show you how well boys' clothes can be made, how reasonably they can be priced, and how completely a boy can be outfitted here.

You can come to the Boys' Department and find everything for a boy. You will find fresh merchandise; salespeople experienced in selling boys' goods.

Marshall's Clothing Store,
131 GENESSEE ST., AUBURN, N. Y.

Fall Opening Days

You are invited to come and get acquainted with Fall's New Modes in

Millinery and Apparel

QUINLAN'S,
145 Genesee St., AUBURN, N. Y.

ECONOMY MILLINERY

is calling you
ALL HATS
$1.00 to $5.00
No Hat in the store over $5.00

An exclusive line of House Dresses—also a few exclusive Sweater Coats.

ECONOMY AND STYLE COMBINED

9 South St., Auburn.

WE SOLICIT
JOB PRINTING

LEAGUE CERTAIN, PRESIDENT SAYS

WILSON IN OPENING SPEECHES OF FOUR VOICES HIGH HOPES OF ULTIMATE VICTORY.

WORLD IS WAITING FOR U. S.

Picture Free From War if America Carries Out Her Promise, Says the Country's Chief Executive.

[By Mt. Clemens News Bureau.]

Displaying a high confidence that his fellow citizens, in the great majority, agree with him in his desire to end war forever, and that they will see to it, the peace treaty with its League of Nations inclusion is ratified by the senate, President Wilson is making a successful way across the country on the long journey he has undertaken for the purpose of laying before the plain people a report of his work in Paris and explaining to them just what the league means.

Thus far in his travels he has everywhere met with warm greetings, both in the great halls, where he has spoken formally, and in the little cross-road hamlets where his train has halted at times and he has exchanged words with the villagers, who pressed forward to greet him.

Says America Wants No More War.

He feels, and does not hesitate to say so when chatting with his traveling companions, that the American people want no more of war and want to become part of the league so that there may be no more war. He struck his keynote when he said in his first address in Columbus, O.:

"This treaty was not intended merely to end this single war, it is meant as a notice to every government, who in the future will attempt this thing (what Germany attempted), that mankind will unite to inflict the same punishment. There is no national triumph to be recorded in this treaty. There is no glory sought for any particular nation. The thought of the statesmen collected around that table was of their people, of the suffering they had gone through, of the losses they had incurred, of that great throbbing heart which was so depressed, so forlorn, so sad in every memory it had of the five tragical years that have gone by. Let us never forget those years, my fellow countrymen; let us never forget the purpose, high and disinterested, with which America lent its strength, not for its own glory, but for the defense of mankind.

"As I said, this treaty was not intended merely to end this war. It was intended to prevent any similar war. I wonder if some of the opponents of the League of Nations have forgotten the promises we made our people before we went to that peace table. We had taken, by processes of law, the flower of our youth from every countryside, from every household. And we told those mothers and fathers, and sisters and wives and sweethearts that we were taking those men to fight a war which would end business of that sort, and if we do not end it, if we do not do the best that human concert of action can do to end it, we are of all men the most unfaithful—the most unfaithful to the loving hearts who suffered in this war, the most unfaithful to those households bowed in grief and yet lifted with the feeling that the lad laid down his life for a great thing; and, among other things, in order that other lads might never have to do the same thing.

League Will Stop War.

"That is what the League of Nations is for—to end this war justly and then not merely to serve notice on governments which would contemplate the same things Germany contemplated, that they will do so at their peril, but also concerning the combination of power which will prove to them that they will do it at their peril.

"It is idle to say the world will combine against you; but it is persuasive to say the world is combined against you. The League of Nations is the only thing that can prevent the recurrence of this dreadful catastrophe and redeem our promises."

A League of Nations would have prevented the late conflict, the president asserted, explaining: "I did not meet a single public man who did not admit these things: That Germany would not have gone into this war if she thought Great Britain was going into it, and that she, most certainly would never have gone into it had she dreamed America was going into it. And they all admit that a notice beforehand that the greatest powers in the world would combine to prevent this sort of thing would prevent it absolutely."

Applause and cheers greeted each declaration of the president that wars might be avoided in the future, by the operations of the league.

He pointed out other important features of the peace treaty, how it was the redemption of weak nations, giving them freedom which otherwise they never could have won; how it says "Those people have a right to live their own lives under governments which they themselves choose," and how "that is the American principle and I was glad to fight for it." That was the very heart of the treaty," he said.

He drew attention to the section of the treaty which is "Magna Charta of Labor," which shall dispose of the hours, conditions and remunerations of labor.

"It forecasts the day," he said, "which ought to have come long ago when the statesmen will realize that no nation is fortunate which is not happy, whose people are not contented, contented in their lives and fortunate in the circumstances of their lives."

In conclusion, the president said he felt certain the treaty will be accepted, and was only impatient of the delay. He added: "Do you realize, my fellow citizens, that the whole world is waiting on America? The only country in the world that is trusted today is the United States, and the world is waiting to see if its trust is justified."

Mr. Wilson's Indianapolis speech was like the one at Columbus, an explanation of the league, an appeal for its ratification, and a prediction that it was sure to come into being.

Bring Gifts to France.

A delegation from Abyssinia bearing rich gifts of ivory and silks for the announced purpose of congratulating France on her recent victory, appeared at the peace conference in Paris. This is in strict accordance with the ancient oriental procedure. The real purpose of a visit is not disclosed until preliminary ceremonies are concluded. These native Africans—claiming descent from Solomon and the queen of Sheba—wished to be in on the carving up of the world, for they have interests which are vital to them although little known to the rest of the world. Seated in that natural bastion of Africa, the Abyssinians have lived in greater or less security for unknown centuries. They are not negroes, but a mixture of Hamitic and Semitic races, with a culture of their own and professing the Christian religion, being a branch of the Coptic church of Egypt. Until recently they have been unmolested save by native tribes.

Keeps Off Potato Bugs.

And now comes a prophet, who arises in Missouri, and has published in a number of papers the following news for the especial benefit of those who detest to chase the elusive potato bug: "If a soup bean or two is dropped into each hill of potatoes when they are planted the potato bug will not bother them, and besides your crop of potatoes you will get one of beans as well. There is one farmer who has tried this experiment for five years and has never been bothered with bugs while his neighbors lost their crops. The bugs don't like the smell of the beans for some reason."—Kansas City Times.

But None Came.

Late the other night on a street car a soldier was going home for the first time. He was happy and proud. And his reason for being proud: there was a wound stripe on his right arm.

One man said to him: "Where were you wounded?" The soldier replied: "I was hit in the back with a piece of shell." The man gave a short laugh and said: "A funny place to get hit; which way were you going?"

It is needless to say that the soldier hit the man and here is what the soldier said: "If there are any more of you fellows thinks that a Yank ever ran, I can change your mind for you."—Indianapolis News.

Pa in Petulant Mood.

"Pa, what is a bolshevik?" "A bolshevik is a man who has the same idea as your mother."

"What idea, pa?" "That money can be picked off bushes."

Misunderstanding.

"The Germans are always being misunderstood, and this misunderstanding is always to the poor fellows' disadvantage."

The speaker was Adolph Junck, the millionaire dye importer of Duluth. "I know a German motorist," he went on, "who arrived one June evening at a crowded country road house. When the clerk told him the house was full, he said desperately:

"Can't you at least give me a bundle of hay somewhere?" "There ain't a thing left, mister," said the clerk, "but a bit of cold mutton stea."

THRIFT IN THE A. E. F.

While the people in America learned thrift from necessity, in order to pay for the supplies needed by the American troops in France, the A. E. F. practiced thrift by salvaging everything of value. No. 1.—Here is a huge pile of empty shells gathered from the battlefields and being loaded into freight cars. No. 2.—This is a small mountain of empty cans which were once filled with oil for the motor transport corps now being collected so they can be melted and used for another purpose. No. 3.—Leather was a very scarce article during the war, and the trench boots of the troops were carefully repaired to avoid unnecessary waste.

Tables Showing How Treasury Savings Certificates Increase in Value.

DENOMINATION OF $100
Month	1919	1920	1921	1922	1923
January	$82.40	$84.80	$87.20	$89.60	$92.00
February	82.60	85.00	87.40	89.80	92.20
March	82.80	85.20	87.60	90.00	92.40
April	83.00	85.40	87.80	90.20	92.60
May	83.20	85.60	88.00	90.40	92.80
June	83.40	85.80	88.20	90.60	93.00
July	83.60	86.00	88.40	90.80	93.20
August	83.80	86.20	88.60	91.00	93.40
September	84.00	86.40	88.80	91.20	93.60
October	84.20	86.60	89.00	91.40	93.80
November	84.40	86.80	89.20	91.60	94.00
December	84.60	87.00	89.40	91.80	94.20
January 1, 1924					100.00

DENOMINATION OF $1,000
Month	1919	1920	1921	1922	1923
January	$824.00	$848.00	$872.00	$896.00	$920.00
February	828.00	852.00	876.00	900.00	924.00
March	832.00	856.00	880.00	904.00	928.00
April	836.00	860.00	884.00	908.00	932.00
May	840.00	864.00	888.00	912.00	936.00
June	844.00	868.00	892.00	916.00	940.00
July	848.00	872.00	896.00	920.00	944.00
August	852.00	876.00	900.00	924.00	948.00
September	856.00	880.00	904.00	928.00	952.00
October	860.00	884.00	908.00	932.00	956.00
November	864.00	888.00	912.00	936.00	960.00
December	868.00	892.00	916.00	940.00	964.00
January 1, 1924					1,000.00

TREASURY SAVINGS CERTIFICATES OF NEW ISSUE ARE READY

$100 and $1,000 Securities Now Available at $83.80 and $838.80 Respectively.

IN EXCHANGE FOR W. S. S.

Treasury Savings Certificates, in denominations of $100 and $1,000, are now being distributed throughout New York State and the twelve northern counties of New Jersey, where they can be bought during August for $83.80 and $838.80, respectively, the War Savings Committee announces.

These entirely new government securities are in reality discount bonds. They will mature January 1, 1924, and are issued only in registered form, to insure them against theft or loss. The same rate of interest is paid as that for War Savings Stamps, which may be exchanged for them.

The Treasury Savings Certificates will be offered to the public at any post office of the first or second class and at incorporated banks and trust companies which are second class agents for the sale of 1919 War Savings Stamps. The name of each purchaser will be inscribed on every certificate, the registration records being kept at the treasury department in Washington, D. C.

Workers with the War Savings Committee who are in close touch with sales of War Savings Stamps, report that the new Treasury Savings Certificates are bound to become popular. They pay four per cent. interest, compounded quarterly. Each month the price will increase. This began during July at $83.80 for the $100 certificate and at $838.80 for the one which will be worth $1,000 when it matures. Thus, the increase is twenty cents each month for the smaller certificate and $2.00 per month for the other.

If you do not organize your dollars and affiliate them with the War Savings Stamp Union, there will be no sympathetic strike called for your benefit when you are fighting Disasters.

Breeding Makes No Difference.

It has been claimed by lovers of domestic cats that highly bred members of the species do not engage in hunting insectivorous and song birds. A few days ago a city gardener captured a handsome cat in the act of killing a young robin which had just left its nest near his house. He did not kill the bird hunter, under the authority recently granted by the Conservation Commission, but took the animal and its victim to the home of the cat's owner. There he learned that the cat was a highly prized ribbon-taker, and the owner was indignant at its capture.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Get Revenue From Pests.

Rabbit skins from Australia and New Zealand were among the largest offerings in the recent international fur auction at St. Louis. Half a million pounds of Australian rabbit and 80,000 pounds of New Zealand were sold for a total of $205,000. The best lots went to hatmakers and fur manufacturers.

Tompkins County Fair, Ithaca, Sept. 16-19

NEXT WEEK--DAY AND NIGHT

- - Conway's Famous Band in Afternoon and Evening Concerts - -

Daring Aerial Antics Wednesday and Friday over Grounds

Victory Day for Heroes Wednesday with Parade and Addresses.

Horse Races each afternoon. Fancy Dancing Day and night.

Exhibits open at All Hours

DON'T FORGET THE DATES = NEXT WEEK

Five Corners.

Sept. 8—Oscar Hunt made a business trip to Auburn Saturday.

Misses Jennie Hollister and Ethel Hunt are attending High school at Moravia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Boles returned last Thursday evening from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Harold Hallock, at Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Genoa were callers last Sunday at their son's, Leon Curtis and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boles spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gosbee. On account of illness, Mrs. Boles will not commence teaching near Lansingville until next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Weeks and children of Venice Center spent part of last Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Purdy Weeks. From here, with Purdy Weeks, they took an auto ride to Dryden.

J. D. Todd has gone to his home in Ithaca where he has a position in a paint shop.

Mrs. George Ferris and Mrs. Harry Ferris entertained a company of ladies in honor of Mrs. Bruce Alpert. There were ten little children present. The afternoon was pleasantly spent, and the little ones certainly had a good time.

Mrs. A. J. Brink of North Lansing spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. C. G. Barger, and while there she took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hollister and was a caller at Clarence Hollister's and at Leon Curtis's.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Gosbee of Ludlowville spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gosbee.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carson of North Lansing spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Boles.

Clarence Boles is assisting Clayton Swayze with his farm work.

Mrs. Bruce Alpert and little twins, Briece and Bruce, and Mildred Beardsley, returned to their home at Battle Creek, Mich., last Saturday. Mrs. Jerome Barger accompanied them as far as Buffalo.

H. A. Barger, Frank Harrington and H. E. LaBar have been hauling coal from Ithaca for C. G. Barger.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. White and mother and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dean and little son, all of Watkins, spent part of Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. White.

Mrs. R. E. Ferris entertained last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Jerome Barger and daughter, Mrs. Bruce Alpert and twins and Mildred Beardsley at a very fine supper. All spent a pleasant afternoon.

Sept. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Tutill of Auburn are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hunt. Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt with their guests motored to Watkins Glen.

Miss Hattie Todd is spending some time with Mrs. John I. Bower who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Frost and little daughter Rose of Ledyard and Mr. Covert of Moravia spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ferris.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Egbert and grandson Robert and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lanterman and daughter Mildred were callers at Robert and W. L. Ferris' Sunday afternoon.

Records from Washington schools show that children in agricultural club work have better school marks than those who are not in clubs. Probably this is because the live ones take to the junior extension activities.

Venice.

Sept. 10—Rev. E. L. James of the Second Baptist church of Auburn delivered a message to the people at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

The Sunday school will hold a basket picnic at Lakeside Park, this week Saturday. Dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stevens, son Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kimball, sons Raymond and Walter spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Wm. Culley of Homer.

Miss Halsey is spending some time with her friend, Mrs. C. D. Divine. Mrs. Divine and Miss Halsey spent a day last week with Genoa friends.

Miss Stella Stevens is home from Crouse-Irving hospital for a couple of weeks to improve her health.

Miss Grace Kimball returned to Auburn last Friday, after spending a week at the home of L. E. Kimball. Quite a number from here are attending State fair this week.

Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Warner expect to move to Clarkston soon where he expects to preach the coming year.

Mrs. L. E. Kimball spent Saturday in Auburn visiting relatives.

It is expected that there will be preaching at the Baptist church Sunday at 11 o'clock by a supply. Everybody cordially invited.

Farmers are beginning to cut corn in this vicinity. Some are still busy at wheat ground.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Driscoll have the sympathy of their neighbors in the loss of their infant daughter.

Poplar Ridge.

Sept. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Husted have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Culver, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown and Homer Brown and family of Albion recently. On Sunday, Aug. 31, the Culver cousins numbering 38, met at Lakeside Park Auburn, for dinner with the Albion friends on their homeward trip.

Mrs. Thos. Tighe entertained the previous Friday afternoon twelve guests at tea in honor of the same cousins.

The Simkin and Foster sisters entertained relatives from Canada over Sunday and Monday, Mrs. Anna Atkins and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walker and son. The son, Harold, enters Oakwood seminary.

Maria Foster joined the party on their homeward trip by auto, to visit relatives.

Carroll Otis and William Simkin start in at Oakwood this term.

Tarbell Family Meet.

The 44th annual reunion of the Tarbell family was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Tarbell in Groton on Saturday, Aug. 30, with 92 in attendance.

Relatives were present from Syracuse, Cortland, Auburn, Havana, Cuba; Owego, Locke and Ithaca.

The following officers were elected: President, S. B. Tarbell; vice president, Andrew Tarbell; secretary, Mrs. Howard Tarbell; treasurer, D. A. Tarbell; statistician, Mrs. F. L. Tarbell.

An invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tarbell of Ithaca was accepted for the 45th reunion to be held at their home on the last Saturday in August, 1920.

Many new types of fruit and grain have been developed on the farm. Those who are interested in the principles and methods of plant breeding should send to the college of agriculture at Ithaca for R. C. F. 38.

Tompkins County Jurors.

A panel of trial and grand jurors has been drawn to serve at a term of Supreme Court to be held in Tompkins county courthouse Sept. 15, beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The trial jurors from Groton and Lansing are as follows:

Groton—Martin Carpenter, B. M. Halladay, Percy Haring, Myron T. Jacobs, Edgar G. Metzgar, John Parkin, Edward Stoddard, Alonzo Swartwout.

Ludlowville—Wert Dates, Edward Gilpe, Omar Holden.

The grand jurors:

Groton—Searles Butts, Elmer Cutter.

Ludlowville—Ben Counsell.

South Lansing—John P. Knetties.

Dies Suddenly at Lake Ridge.

Mode Reeves, 86, survivor of the great Ithaca flood of 1857, in which several persons lost their lives and Reeves himself had a narrow escape from death, died Thursday morning, Sept. 4, at the residence of a nephew, Emmett Woolley at Lake Ridge, after an illness of only a few hours. Death was caused by heart disease.

Mr. Reeves leaves a sister, Mrs. Dan Young of Upper Sandusky, Ohio; two nephews, Emmett Woolley of Lake Ridge and Frank Woolley of Ithaca; two nieces, Mrs. Frank Berry of Upper Sandusky, Ohio, and Mrs. Charles Middleberg of Chicago.

Scipio Woman Dies.

The death of Mrs. Charles Morse of Scipio, occurred Saturday evening, Aug. 30, at Willard hospital, where she had been a patient for a few weeks. She was 65 years old. Funeral services were conducted the following Tuesday afternoon at the late home, Rev. W. L. Bates of Locke, officiating. Burial was made at East Venice. Besides her husband, Mrs. Morse is survived by one son, Raymond Morse of Venice. Mrs. Morse was born in Newark Valley but for 25 years had resided in Scipio.

His Desire.

Last autumn Roland was much in love with his new teacher, and tried to prove his affection by doing many errands for her. One of them was the hauling of the fertilizer from his father's barn to her flower garden.

This spring Roland became interested in a victory garden and started one. One day he journeyed to the home of his last term teacher, told her of his garden and then ended the conversation with, "Do you remember that fertilizer I gave you last fall? Well, I'd like to have it back now for my own garden."

Ingenious Automobile Thief.

An automobile owner at Hallowell, leaving his car hitched to a tree by winding a chain around one of the wheels of the machine and fastening the end of the chain around a tree. An automobile thief jacked up the car, loosened the wheel which was chained to the tree, took it off, and then removing the extra wheel from the rear of the car put it on in the place of the wheel which had been dropped off and drove away, leaving the single wheel chained to the tree.

Big Game Hunters Protest.

A proposal that Canada increase its meat supply by using airplanes to drive the great herds of caribou from the barrens of the northern provinces into corrals on the Hudson bay for slaughter has caused forth loud protests from the big game hunters of Africa. They foresaw the destruction of the practice to the detriment of the slaughter of elephants, lions, giraffes, and various kinds of game which abound in the so-longer districts.—Oregonian.

RED CROSS NEW CHIEF NURSE OVERSEAS.

Announcement has come from Red Cross Headquarters at Washington of the appointment of Miss Alice Fitzgerald, formerly of New York and Boston, as chief nurse of the American Red Cross forces overseas. She is a graduate of Johns Hopkins Hospital Training School for Nurses and has had three years service in France and Belgium.

New Substitute for Oil.

A factory has been started in Sweden for extracting oil from schist, thus adding one more to the number of substitutes already on the market. Large quantities of alum schist are found in the district, yielding benzine and crude oils.

Foster-Ross Company, Inc.
AUBURN — NEW YORK

Next Week is Auburn's General Fashion Week
TUESDAY, SEPT. 16, OUR FALL OPENING DAY

This statement implies that everybody and everything in Auburn's Greatest Department Store is fully ready for 1919 Fall Business.

SILKS --- DRESS GOODS --- COATS --- SUITS --- DOMESTICS --- HOSIERY --- UNDERWEAR --- ETC.

Unusual conditions have called forth greater effort on the part of artists, designers, weavers, dyers, manufacturers and sellers and the result is a collection of eminently beautiful and desirable merchandise with every prospect of the greatest business that has ever come to us.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO SEE THE GATHERING IN ITS UNSULLIED NEWNESS.

Foster-Ross Company, Inc.
AUBURN — NEW YORK

New Fall Showing
Infants' Wear

Children's Wear

Women's Furnishings

Small Wear Dry Goods

We are showing the best values in Auburn at prices that are the lowest.

Our lines are ready for your early selection.

THE BEE HIVE STORE

59-61 GENESEE ST.,

AUBURN

Auburn

New York

NOTICE WE HAVE A LIMITED AMOUNT OF SMITH'S HEXPO, THE BEST PREPARATION FOR SPRAYING ORCHARDS. ALSO ARSENATE OF CALCIUM AND LEAD FOR POTATO BUGS. DOES ALL THE WORK OF PARIS GREEN AT 1-4 THE COST. GET THESE WHILE THEY LAST AT

ELLISON'S,
KING FERRY, NEW YORK.

THE GENOA TRIBUNE
and N. Y. World $2.25